READING

Hi Alex,

How are you? How is Frankfurt? I'm sure you're happy with your favorite German food!

I'm fine. I'm at a language school in Oxford. It's not big, but there are students from many different countries. There are three students from Kyoto in Japan—me, a girl called Riko, and a boy called Haruto. There are two students from China, and one student from Vietnam. There are students from South America and Africa, too. My teachers are from England, South Africa, and the United States. They're all great. The classes at the school are Italian, French, German, and English. I'm in English Class 3B! My house is next to a beautiful park.

Oxford is an old city. My favorite place is the market opposite the school: it's great for fruit juice and sandwiches at lunch! In the mornings, from Monday to Friday, I have English lessons from nine o'clock, and in the afternoons, we visit places in or near Oxford. Now, I'm at the train station. Our train to London is in twenty minutes and the trip is ninety minutes. In the evenings, I talk with my friends. On Tuesdays, we visit the park. My favorite day is Thursday—we visit the movie theater for movie night!

Bye for now,

Naoko
