

Dependent Prepositions — His or Him?

MAIS PRÁTICA · PRONOME + GERÚNDIO · FORMAL X INFORMAL · PRONOME + VERBO

PRÁTICA · D Mais Prática

10 items

Escreva a forma (possessivo ou pronome objeto) que falta antes do gerúndio.

1. Sena wasn't used to _____ changing rooms without asking. (the staff)
2. The manager was annoyed about _____ complaining every day. (the guests)
3. I couldn't stop thinking about _____ forgetting her passport. (she)
4. Rio was nervous about _____ meeting his family for the first time. (I)
5. Nobody warned us about _____ canceling the flight. (the airline)
6. Sena admitted to _____ overreacting a little. (she)
7. We're excited about _____ finally visiting Japan. (you)
8. The hotel apologized for _____ losing our reservation. (they)
9. I'm counting on _____ arriving early to help set up. (he)
10. Toshie laughed about _____ getting lost on the first day. (we)

Lembrando: as duas formas estão certas gramaticalmente — a diferença é o registro. O possessivo (his, her, their, Rio's) soa mais formal e é mais comum na escrita cuidadosa (e-mails, cartas, relatórios). O pronome objeto (him, her, them, Rio) soa mais natural e é o que se ouve na fala e em mensagens do dia a dia.

Nenhuma dica desta vez — decida pelo tom e pelas palavras da própria frase.

1. Honestly, I don't mind _____ tagging along. (him / his)
2. The committee objected to _____ changing the policy without notice. (their / them)
3. We would appreciate _____ confirming the refund in writing. (his / him)
4. Thanks for _____ helping out today, seriously. (your / you)
5. I was surprised at _____ failing to respond to three emails. (the manager's / the manager)
6. I get why you're annoyed about _____ canceling last minute. (his / him)
7. I'm not bothered about _____ coming late, don't worry about it. (their / them)
8. We are grateful for _____ supporting this project from the start. (their / them)
9. Can you believe _____ forgetting the tickets again? (Sena's / Sena)
10. The hotel thanked us for _____ choosing to stay again. (our / us)

Desta vez, nada está pronto: escreva o pronome (ou possessivo) e a forma -ing do verbo dado.

1. The manager insisted on _____ in the lobby. (I / wait)
2. Sena was surprised at _____ so quickly. (he / apologize)
3. Rio wasn't happy about _____ the booking. (they / forget)
4. The whole team was excited about _____ the trip. (Toshie / join)
5. I'm tired of _____ plans at the last minute. (you / cancel)
6. She was proud of _____ out so well. (it / turn)
7. We were all surprised at _____ so suddenly. (she / leave)
8. The hotel apologized for _____ our reservation. (they / lose)
9. I'm counting on _____ early to help set up. (he / arrive)
10. Toshie laughed about _____ lost on the first day. (we / get)

Answer Key · Gabarito do Professor

PRÁTICA D

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. their / them | 6. her |
| 2. their / them | 7. your / you |
| 3. her | 8. their / them |
| 4. my / me | 9. his / him |
| 5. the airline's / the airline | 10. our / us |

PRÁTICA E

- | | |
|------------------|----------|
| 1. him | 6. him |
| 2. their | 7. them |
| 3. his | 8. their |
| 4. you | 9. Sena |
| 5. the manager's | 10. our |

PRÁTICA F

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. my / me waiting | 6. its / it turning |
| 2. his / him apologizing | 7. her leaving |
| 3. their / them forgetting | 8. their / them losing |
| 4. Toshie's / Toshie joining | 9. his / him arriving |
| 5. your / you canceling | 10. our / us getting |