Why is second-hand clothing so popular?

We spoke to three people who only buy used clothes about why they do it.

Molly

For me, it's all about helping the environment. When I need a new jacket or top, for example, I know that buying it second-hand won't use up any more land or water, or create more waste. I also know that by not buying new clothes, I'm not supporting unfair working practices in fashion.

Rahid

I'm a student so I don't have much money to buy brand new sneakers or jackets. Second-hand clothes are so much cheaper. That's why I have lots of second-hand clothes. The quality is often better than new clothes these days too, so they last longer. In fact, you can't tell that most of my used clothes aren't new; people always think they're the latest fashion!

Anabelle

I first started buying used clothes a while back, when I got invited to a 1980s-style party. I didn't have any clothes from the 1980s so I went looking in second-hand clothes stores and found a really special dress, the sort of design that you can't find in new clothes stores. Now I have lots of second-hand clothes. I love them because the styles are so different from the usual fashion you find in stores now.
