01 · CHECKING IN AT A SMALL HOTEL Lisbon

HOST	Welcome to Casa Azul. Before you go up, I'll ask you to leave your passports here for a moment. I need to make a copy.
GUEST	Of course. Is there anything else we should know?
HOST	Breakfast is at eight. We serve it on the roof terrace, so bring a jacket! And the front door closes at midnight.
GUEST	Could you wake us up at six tomorrow? We want to see the castle before the crowds.
HOST	Certainly. And I'd recommend that you take the tram up the hill. It's beautiful in the morning.
GUEST	Thank you. Oh, can we leave our big suitcase here after we check out?
HOST	Yes, we'll let you keep it here until the afternoon.

02 · AT THE MUSEUM A city art museum

GUARD	Excuse me, ma'am. I'm afraid I have to ask you not to use the flash. It damages the paintings.
VISITOR	Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't know. Can I take photos without it?
GUARD	Yes, that's fine. But they don't let visitors take photos in the next room. It's a private collection.
VISITOR	I see. Is there a guided tour today?
GUARD	There's one at three. The guide will make you walk quite a lot, so you might want to rest in the café first.
VISITOR	Good idea. Could you look after my umbrella for me?
GUARD	Of course. Leave it with me.

03 · ROSES OVER THE FENCE A neighbor's garden

RUTH	Your roses look wonderful this year! What's your secret?
MARGARET	My father taught me to cut them back in winter. And I never let the soil get too dry.
RUTH	Mine are full of little insects. What should I do?
MARGARET	I'd advise you to spray them with soapy water, early in the morning. Don't use chemicals.
RUTH	Would you help me plant some new ones next week?
MARGARET	With pleasure. Do you want me to bring some cuttings from my garden?
RUTH	Oh, yes, please. That would be lovely.

04 · THE FISH OF THE DAY A small restaurant

WAITER	Good evening. Tonight the chef recommends that you try the grilled fish. It came in this morning.
DINER	That sounds perfect. My husband can't eat shellfish, though. Is there any in the sauce?
WAITER	Let me check with the kitchen. ... No, there isn't. And if you prefer, I'll have the chef make it without butter.
DINER	Yes, please. Oh, and could you bring us some water?
WAITER	Of course. Oh, and can I ask you to save some room? The dessert of the day is a lemon tart.

05 · A SLOW WALK WITH YUKI A botanical garden in London

YUKI	Good morning, everyone. Before we start, I'd like you to walk slowly for the next hour.
VISITOR	Can we take photos?
YUKI	At the end, yes. First, I want you to listen: the birds, the wind in the trees.
VISITOR	Should we stay on the path?
YUKI	Yes, please. The gardeners don't let visitors walk on the grass here. The plants are very young.
YUKI	And when we reach the lake, I'll ask you to sit in silence for five minutes. In Japan, we call this shinrin-yoku: forest bathing.

06 · A CANCELED TRAIN A train station in Italy

TRAVELER	Excuse me. My train to Florence was canceled. What can I do?
CLERK	I'm very sorry. We'll let you take the next train at no extra cost. It leaves at two fifteen.
TRAVELER	Can I reserve a seat?
CLERK	Yes. I'd suggest that you sit on the left side. You'll see the hills.
TRAVELER	Wonderful. My daughter is meeting me at the station. Could you tell her the new time if she calls here?
CLERK	I'm afraid I can't, but there's a phone in the waiting room. Why don't you call her?

Asking people to do things

Three families. The person always comes right after the verb.

1 verb + person + to ask · want · would like · tell · advise · teach

O “não” entra antes do to: not to.

I'll ask you to leave your passports here.

I have to ask you not to use the flash.

2 let / make / have + person + verb

Sem to. O verbo fica na base.

Na pergunta, só o auxiliar muda.

We'll let you keep it here until the afternoon.

I'll have the chef make it without butter.

3 suggest / recommend + that + person + verb

O verbo fica na base, sem -s, mesmo com he / she.

Não existe suggest-you-to.

I'd recommend that you take the tram up the hill.

I'd suggest that you sit on the left side.
