

Same Verb, Different Meaning — Part 1

7 verbs · 23 combinations · Elena, Tomás, Yara, Frankl

01 look

AT	observe something specific Elena looked at the drawing Tomás left behind. olhar para
FOR	search for something Yara was looking for a reason to stay at the ward. procurar
AFTER	take care of someone She has been looking after the same patients for years. cuidar de
INTO	investigate, examine Elena decided to look into what the student really meant. investigar
FORWARD TO	anticipate with pleasure Yara looks forward to walking into the ward every morning. ansiar por
DOWN ON	feel superior to, despise Frankl never looked down on those who struggled. desprezar

02 think

OF	have an opinion; associate with What do you think of Frankl's argument? achar, associar
ABOUT	reflect on, spend time considering Tomás has been thinking about his son all week. pensar em
OVER	consider carefully before deciding Elena needs to think it over before changing her approach. refletir com calma

03 dream

OF	aspire to, have an ambition Yara dreams of building something that outlasts her. aspirar a
ABOUT	see while sleeping; keep thinking about Elena dreamed about the student's question for three nights. sonhar; pensar repetidamente

04 care

ABOUT	value emotionally, be invested in Elena still cares about her students. se importar com
FOR	look after; also: would you like (formal) Yara cares for patients who cannot care for themselves. cuidar de; gostar (formal)

05 agree

WITH	share the same view as someone Tomás does not always agree with Frankl. concordar com
ON	reach consensus on a specific point They agreed on reading one chapter per week. concordar sobre
TO	accept a proposal or condition Elena agreed to try a different approach next term. aceitar

06 talk

TO	have a conversation with Elena needs to talk to the student. conversar com
ABOUT	discuss a subject They talked about Frankl for over an hour. falar sobre
INTO	persuade someone to do something Yara talked him into staying one more week. convencer a fazer
OUT OF	dissuade someone from doing something Elena talked her colleague out of quitting. convencer a não fazer

07 wait

FOR	expect someone or something to arrive Tomás waited for the feeling of purpose to return. esperar por
ON	depend on something external; serve We cannot wait on meaning to appear. depende de; servir
UP	stay awake waiting for someone Elena waited up for her daughter. ficar acordado esperando

Practice — Fill in the preposition

The hint tells you which meaning fits the sentence.

Complete com a preposição correta. O hint ao lado indica o significado esperado.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 01 | Elena has been _____ the same question since last Tuesday. | (think) reflect on something over time |
| 02 | Yara _____ every one of her patients, not just the easy ones. | (care) physically look after someone |
| 03 | Tomás _____ building something his son would have been proud of. | (dream) aspire to, long-term ambition |
| 04 | The three of them _____ reading one more chapter before the discussion. | (agree) reach consensus on a specific point |
| 05 | Elena needs to _____ the student who seemed upset after class. | (talk) have a conversation with someone |
| 06 | Yara _____ walking into the ward every single morning. | (look) anticipate with pleasure |
| 07 | Frankl never _____ people who struggled with despair. | (look) feel superior to someone |
| 08 | Elena should _____ the offer _____ before giving an answer. | (think) weigh carefully before deciding |
| 09 | Tomás _____ his son almost every night. | (dream) see while sleeping |
| 10 | They decided to _____ why the student had asked that question. | (look) investigate, examine |
| 11 | Yara has been _____ the older patients on the third floor. | (look) take care of |
| 12 | Tomás does not always _____ Frankl, but he sees the logic. | (agree) share the same view as someone |
| 13 | She _____ him _____ staying at the hospital one more week. | (talk) persuade someone to do something |
| 14 | Tomás was _____ the evaluation results when the phone rang. | (wait) depend on something external |
| 15 | Elena has stopped _____ the bureaucracy. It does not change. | (care) be emotionally invested in |
| 16 | She _____ try a completely different method next term. | (agree) accept a proposal or condition |
| 17 | He spent the morning _____ his notes from the seminar. | (look) observe something specific |

18	The dean _____ Elena _____ resigning over the schedule change.	(talk) dissuade someone from doing something
19	Yara was _____ a spare key when the alarm went off.	(look) search for something
20	Elena _____ what her colleagues would say about the new format.	(think) reflect on something
21	Tomás has been _____ the test results since Friday.	(wait) expect something to arrive
22	Nobody here really _____ whether the meeting starts on time.	(care) value emotionally
23	What do you _____ Frankl's idea about unavoidable suffering?	(think) have a quick opinion about
24	Elena _____ for her daughter, who was studying until midnight.	(wait) stay awake until someone arrives

Answer Key — Gabarito

Same Verb, Different Meaning · Part 1

01	Elena has been thinking about the same question since last Tuesday.	(think) reflect on something over time
02	Yara cares for every one of her patients, not just the easy ones.	(care) physically look after someone
03	Tomás dreams of building something his son would have been proud of.	(dream) aspire to, long-term ambition
04	The three of them agreed on reading one more chapter before the discussion.	(agree) reach consensus on a specific point
05	Elena needs to talk to the student who seemed upset after class.	(talk) have a conversation with someone
06	Yara looks forward to walking into the ward every single morning.	(look) anticipate with pleasure
07	Frankl never looked down on people who struggled with despair.	(look) feel superior to someone
08	Elena should think the offer over before giving an answer.	(think) weigh carefully before deciding
09	Tomás dreams about his son almost every night.	(dream) see while sleeping
10	They decided to look into why the student had asked that question.	(look) investigate, examine
11	Yara has been looking after the older patients on the third floor.	(look) take care of
12	Tomás does not always agree with Frankl, but he sees the logic.	(agree) share the same view as someone
13	She talked him into staying at the hospital one more week.	(talk) persuade someone to do something
14	Tomás was waiting on the evaluation results when the phone rang.	(wait) depend on something external
15	Elena has stopped caring about the bureaucracy. It does not change.	(care) be emotionally invested in
16	She agreed to try a completely different method next term.	(agree) accept a proposal or condition
17	He spent the morning looking at his notes from the seminar.	(look) observe something specific

18	The dean talked Elena out of resigning over the schedule change.	(talk) dissuade someone from doing something
19	Yara was looking for a spare key when the alarm went off.	(look) search for something
20	Elena thought about what her colleagues would say about the new format.	(think) reflect on something
21	Tomás has been waiting for the test results since Friday.	(wait) expect something to arrive
22	Nobody here really cares about whether the meeting starts on time.	(care) value emotionally
23	What do you think of Frankl's idea about unavoidable suffering?	(think) have a quick opinion about
24	Elena waited up for her daughter, who was studying until midnight.	(wait) stay awake until someone arrives