

Flip it. Or add it.

Every yes/no question in English belongs to one of two families. One question tells you which: is there an auxiliary?

Em português, pergunta é só a voz subindo. Em inglês, as palavras têm que se mexer: ou o auxiliar que já está na frase inverte (Família A), ou um auxiliar novo entra (Família B).

The Brazilian question

Pergunta com entonação de português

"You are hungry?" with your voice going up is not a real question in English. It sounds surprised.

Traduzindo palavra por palavra e subindo a voz, o inglês entende, mas ouve espanto, não uma pergunta de verdade. É desse ponto que o método parte.

EM PORTUGUÊS	WITH PORTUGUESE INTONATION	REAL ENGLISH QUESTION
Você está com fome?	You are hungry?	Are you hungry?
Você trabalha aqui?	You work here?	Do you work here?
Ele ligou para você?	He called you?	Did he call you?

Is there an auxiliary?

Tem auxiliar na frase? Essa é a única pergunta que você precisa fazer.

YES · TEM

Family A · flip it

The auxiliary moves to the front.

Am, is, are, was, were, sozinhos ou com -ing. Eles já estão na frase: só trocam de lugar com o sujeito.

NO · NÃO TEM

Family B · add it

Find the tense and the pronoun. Add do, does or did.

Presente com I, you, we, they: do. Presente com he, she, it: does. Passado, com qualquer um: did. E o verbo volta para a forma base.

THE MAP

Every tense has a family

Os cinco tempos, nas duas famílias

A Flip it inverte

The auxiliary is already there. It jumps in front of the subject. Nothing else changes.

O auxiliar troca de lugar com o sujeito. O resto da frase fica igual, inclusive o -ing.

TENSE	STATEMENT	QUESTION	SHORT ANSWER
To be · present am / is / are	She is at the office.	Is she at the office?	Yes, she is.
To be · past was / were	They were late.	Were they late?	No, they weren't.
Present continuous am / is / are + -ing	He is reading the news.	Is he reading the news?	Yes, he is.
Past continuous was / were + -ing	She was cooking lunch.	Was she cooking lunch?	No, she wasn't.

B Add it adiciona

No auxiliary. Look at the tense and the pronoun, then add do, does or did. The main verb goes back to its base form.

O auxiliar novo carrega o tempo e o -s. Por isso o verbo principal perde os dois e volta a ser puro.

TENSE	STATEMENT	QUESTION	SHORT ANSWER
Simple present I / you / we / they	You live near here.	Do you live near here?	Yes, I do.
Simple present he / she / it	He watches TV at night.	Does he watch TV at night?	No, he doesn't.
Simple past all pronouns	They visited Rio.	Did they visit Rio?	Yes, they did.

REFERENCE

Four mistakes that mix the families

Todos nascem de aplicar a regra de uma família na outra

NO Do you are hungry?	Are you hungry?	Família A não recebe do.
NO Does she lives here?	Does she live here?	O -s foi para o does.
NO Did they visited Rio?	Did they visit Rio?	O passado foi para o did.
NO Is he watch TV at night?	Does he watch TV at night?	Sem auxiliar é Família B.
