Where does the not go? Three families, three answers.

Os números batem com a página online. Cada exercício abre com um exemplo resolvido (o item 0): ele mostra o caminho, e as respostas dele já estão escritas. A regra está na última página.

NAME · NOME

BEFORE YOU PRACTICE

Where does the "not" go?

Entenda antes de praticar

Every sentence here has two parts: the request (ask, tell, want, let) and the action (go, call, buy). The "not" can say no to one or to the other.

Em português a gente mexe o "não" de lugar sem pensar: não pedi pra ela sair, pedi pra ela não sair. As palavras são quase as mesmas, mas a história é outra. Em inglês é igual: antes de escrever, pergunte a você mesma "eu disse não para o pedido ou para a ação?". A resposta, junto com a família do verbo, diz onde o "not" entra.

Same words, different story Mesmas palavras, outra história

"NOT" ON THE REQUEST · o "não" no pedido

The asking, telling or expecting never happened.

O pedido (ou a expectativa) nem aconteceu.

Eu não pedi pra Carla sair.

I didn't ask Carla to leave.

Ninguém pediu nada. Ela saiu porque quis.

"NOT" ON THE ACTION · o "não" na ação

It happened, and the not

Eu pedi pra Carla não sair.

I asked Carla not to leave.

Teve pedido, e foi "Fica!".

Eu não disse pro Léo ligar de volta.

I didn't tell Léo to call back.

Eu não mandei nada. Se ele ligou, foi ideia dele.

Eu disse pro Léo não ligar de volta.

I told Léo not to call back.

Eu dei a ordem: "Não liga".

Eu não esperava que ele viesse.

I didn't expect him to show up.

Ele apareceu e foi surpresa.

Eu esperava que ele não viesse.

I expected him not to show up.

Eu contava com a ausência dele.

On the first verb, any auxiliary Não é só don't e didn't

The "not" on the first verb always goes with an auxiliary.

O que não acontece é o primeiro verbo: o pedir, o querer, o deixar, o obrigar, o aconselhar.

1 Is there an auxiliary?

Tem auxiliar na frase? É a mesma pergunta das Famílias A e B.

No

FAMILY B

Add don't · doesn't · didn't.

O verbo volta pra forma base: didn't asked ask.

Yes

FAMILY A

The "not" joins it: won't · can't · hasn't · wouldn't.

O verbo fica como está: hasn't asked.

2 After the person, nothing changes.

A ação continua sem not: to + verbo na Família 1, verbo sozinho na Família 2.

TWO SPECIAL CASES · dois casos especiais didn't let · didn't allow A permissão não veio: My dad didn't let me go = ele não deixou.

never Nega sozinho, sem auxiliar: He never asked me to help.

AUXILIARY	EXAMPLE	EM PORTUGUÊS
don't B · ADD ONE	They don't let us eat in the lab.	Eles não deixam a gente comer no laboratório.
doesn't B · ADD ONE	My dad doesn't want me to buy a motorcycle.	Meu pai não quer que eu compre uma moto. Wants volta pra want .

1 FAMILY 1 Two places for the "not"

Dois lugares, e os dois existem

ON THE REQUEST

o "não" no pedido

don't · didn't · won't... + verb + person + to + verb

ON THE ACTION

o "não" na ação

verb + person + not to + verb

NEVER AFTER THE PERSON · nunca depois da pessoa don't

É a família da maioria dos verbos, e a única em que o "não" tem escolha de lugar. A tabela Same words, different story é toda da Família 1.

want · need · ask · tell · advise · expect · warn · remind · allow · would like

~~The guide told us don't touch the statues.~~

The guide told us not to touch the statues.

O guia disse pra gente não tocar nas estátuas.

~~I want that you don't worry.~~

I don't want you to worry.

Eu não quero que você se preocupe.

want · would like · need

Both places exist. Choose by what you mean, and by what people really say.

Esses três aparecem muito com o “não”. Os dois lugares existem, mas não são usados na mesma medida: a etiqueta mostra o que é comum e o que é raro.

	“NOT” ON THE REQUEST · O “não” NO PEDIDO	“NOT” ON THE ACTION · O “não” NA AÇÃO
want	COMMON · COMUM I don't want you to go. O jeito normal de dizer “não quero que você vá”. Use este.	RARE · RARO I want you not to go. Não é erro, mas soa insistente, quase uma ordem. Entenda quando ouvir; não precisa usar.
would like	LESS COMMON · MENOS COMUM I wouldn't like you to miss the party. Existe, mas soa mais formal e aparece menos.	COMMON · COMUM I'd like you not to smoke in here. Natural. É o jeito educado de pedir “por favor, não faça”.
need	COMMON · COMUM I don't need you to tell her. Não precisa contar pra ela.	COMMON · COMUM I need you not to tell her. Preciso que você não conte pra ela. Muito usado em pedido firme.

2 FAMILY 2

The “not” goes on the first verb

Sempre no primeiro verbo

ALWAYS
sempre

don't · didn't · won't... + let · make · have + person + verb

NEVER AFTER THE PERSON · nunca depois da pessoa to not

Com let, make e have o “não” tem um lugar só: o primeiro verbo. Depois da pessoa, o verbo continua sozinho.

let · make · have

~~My grandma let us not open the presents early.~~

My grandma didn't let us open the presents early.

Minha avó não deixou a gente abrir os presentes antes.

~~Mom made us don't clean the garage.~~

Mom didn't make us clean the garage.

A mãe não fez a gente limpar a garagem.

Let me not... is not how you say “não me deixou”.

Em inglês, let me not soa como um pedido antigo, de livro. Para contar que alguém não deixou, é didn't let me.

3 FAMILY 3

that + person + not + verb

Depois do that, not + verbo

FORMAL
na escrita e no trabalho

suggest + that + person + not + verb

NEVER AFTER THAT · nunca depois do that do →s

O “not” entra sozinho antes do verbo, que fica na forma de dicionário: that he not drive.

suggest · recommend · insist · demand

~~I suggest him to not drive tonight.~~

I suggest that he not drive tonight.

Sugiro que ele não dirija hoje à noite.

Only suggest and recommend: not + -ing.

Na conversa, esses dois também aceitam not + -ing, sem that: I'd suggest not calling him today. I recommend not driving at night. Com demand, não. Insist só aceita com on (insist on not paying); nesta aula, com ele, fica that + not + verbo.

You will also hear that he doesn't drive.

No inglês britânico e na fala informal, sim. No padrão da EIC, a gente usa that he not drive.

Two traps

As duas armadilhas do brasileiro

~~She told the kids don't jump on the bed.~~

She told the kids not to jump on the bed.

O don't nunca fica no meio da frase, depois da pessoa.

~~I asked him no to call me at work.~~

I asked him not to call me at work.

O "não" do verbo é not. No vem antes de nome: no sugar, no time.

The not

~~I told her don't go.~~ I told her not to go.

Em português o não muda de lugar à vontade. Em inglês, a família decide onde ele entra.

Where does the not go: on the first verb, or on the action? O que foi negado: o pedido ou a ação?

THE FAMILY · a família

PORTUGUESE WAY · como sai do português

REAL ENGLISH · o certo

Family 1

Two places: not to or didn't want · need · ask · tell · advise · expect · warn · remind · allow Não no pedido: o pedido nem aconteceu. Não na ação: pediu pra não fazer.

Eu pedi pro Beto não gritar.
~~I asked Beto don't shout.~~

→ I asked Beto not to shout.

Ela não quer que a gente vá.
~~She wants that we don't go.~~

→ She doesn't want us to go.

Family 2

The first verb: didn't let

let · make · have

Nunca: ~~let me not go~~ ~~made me don't~~

Minha mãe não me deixou ir.
~~My mom let me not go.~~

→ My mom didn't let me go.

O técnico não vai deixar a gente treinar domingo.
~~The coach will let us not train on Sunday.~~

→ The coach won't let us train on Sunday.

Family 3

that + subject + not + verb

suggest · recommend · insist · demand

Nunca depois do that: ~~do -s~~

Sugiro que ela não dirija.
~~I suggest her to not drive.~~

→ I suggest that she not drive.

O médico insistiu que ele não carregasse peso.
~~The doctor insisted him to not lift heavy things.~~

→ The doctor insisted that he not lift heavy things.

Same words, different meaning

Não no pedido: o pedido nem aconteceu.

I told him not to call.

Eu dei a ordem: “não ligue”.

I didn't tell him to call.

Não houve ordem nenhuma.

Any auxiliary

No primeiro verbo, o not vai com um auxiliar.

don't · doesn't · didn't

Família B: entra, e o verbo volta pra base won't · can't · hasn't · wouldn't

Família A: o not gruda no auxiliar

They won't let me pay.

want · would like · need

Olho no sentido

I don't want you to go.

comum

I'd like you not to smoke.

educado

I don't need you to...

não precisa

I need you not to ...

preciso que não

Never in the middle

O don't não entra depois da pessoa. O não do verbo é not, não no.

~~They told us don't panic. no to~~

They told us not to panic.

Só suggest e recommend, na conversa: suggest not + -ing.
