

Verb Patterns

— Procurement

Em português, "preciso que você confirme" funciona com qualquer verbo. Em inglês, o "that" quase nunca funciona — cada verbo pede uma estrutura diferente. São três famílias. Cada uma tem um padrão fixo.

FAMILY 1

verb + object + to infinitive

want · need · ask · tell · advise · expect · require · remind · warn · convince · allow · would like ✓ Carolina asked Kevin to reissue the invoice.

✗ Carolina asked that Kevin reissued the invoice.

A Carolina pediu que o Kevin reemitisse a nota fiscal.

✓ We need Hua Li to hold the next shipment.

✗ We need that Hua Li holds the next shipment.

Precisamos que a Hua Li segure a próxima remessa.

✓ The contract requires both parties to agree in writing.

✗ The contract requires that both parties agrees.

O contrato exige que ambas as partes concordem por escrito.

Negative infinitive — para negar, o not vai antes do to.

The legal team advised us not to sign the addendum. · Carolina warned Kevin not to apply further surcharges. ·

Erro: she told me don't sign → she told me not to sign.

FAMILY 2

let / make / have + object + bare verb (sem to) let · make · have

✓ Let me check the delivery note again.

✗ Let me to check the delivery note again.

Deixa eu conferir o comprovante de entrega de novo.

✓ The dispute made both teams reconsider the terms.

✗ The dispute made both teams to reconsider.

A disputa fez as duas equipes reconsiderarem os termos.

✓ I'll have our finance team release the payment today.

✗ I'll have that our finance team releases the payment.

Vou pedir pro nosso time financeiro liberar o pagamento hoje.

ask vs. have vs. require ask + object + to = pedido (pode recusar). have + object + bare verb = instrução neutra, é esperado. require + object + to = obrigação contratual.

FAMILY 3

suggest / recommend + that + subject + bare verb

suggest · recommend · insist · demand · propose · request

✓ The legal team recommended that Althea hold the payment.

✗ The legal team recommended Althea to hold the payment.

O jurídico recomendou que a Althea segurasse o pagamento.

✓ Carolina insisted that Hua Li issue a credit note.

✗ Carolina insisted Hua Li to issue a credit note.

A Carolina insistiu que a Hua Li emitisse uma nota de crédito.

Alternativas do dia a dia — na prática, a Family 3 é rara.

"I suggest holding the payment." · "I suggest you hold the payment." · "Why don't you hold the payment?"

PRONOUN SWITCH

I → me

you → you

he → him

she → her

we → us

they → them

Families 1 & 2: use object pronoun after the verb (him, her, us, them). Family 3: after "that", pronoun stays as subject (he, she, we, they).
