01 Five Verbs, Five Meanings

reference

Same idea — someone causes someone else to act — but each verb says something different about who wanted it.

MAKE FORCE · NO CHOICE	GET PERSUADE · TAKES EFFORT	HAVE ARRANGE · THEIR ROLE	HELP ASSIST · TOGETHER	LET ALLOW · FULL CHOICE
----------------------------------	---------------------------------------	-------------------------------------	----------------------------------	-----------------------------------

NO CHOICE FOR THE OBJECT

FULL CHOICE FOR THE OBJECT

VERB	STRUCTURE	MEANING	EXAMPLE
MAKE	make + object + base verb	force — the object has no choice	My mom made me clean my room.
LET	let + object + base verb	permission — the object has full choice	My mom let me stay up late.
GET	get + object + to + verb	persuade — it takes effort or convincing	I got my brother to help me move.
HAVE	have + object + base verb	arrange — it's their job or role	I had the mechanic fix my car.
HELP	help + object + (to) + verb	assist — you do it together; both forms are correct	I helped him carry the boxes.

WORKED EXAMPLE

My daughter wanted to go to the concert, so I gave her permission.

1. Nuance: she wanted it, I allowed it → permission → let

2. Structure: let + object + base verb (no to)

→ I let her go to the concert.

05 Bonus · Have Something Done

6 items

When we don't need to say who did it, drop the agent and use the past participle: have + object + base verb (you name who)
→ have + object + past participle (a service, done for you).

33 I had the mechanic fix my car.

34 I had the hairdresser cut my hair.

35 I had the tailor shorten my trousers.

36 I had the technician install the software.

37 I had the cleaner wash the windows.
