

Causatives in action

EXTRA PRACTICE · MAKE · LET · GET · HAVE · HELP · 49 ITEMS

STUDENT

DATE

TEACHER

01 Reference

five verbs

Same idea — someone causes someone else to act — five different meanings.

VERB	STRUCTURE	MEANING	EXAMPLE
MAKE	make + object + base verb / adjective	force — no choice	Schools make first-graders carry their own trays.
LET	let + object + base verb	permission — full choice	Parents don't let a six-year-old ride alone.
GET	get + object + to + verb	persuade — takes effort	It gets visiting foreigners to ask questions.
HAVE	have + object + base verb	arrange — it's their role	A mother might have her own mother pick the kids up.
HELP	help + object + (to) + verb	assist — together	A parent might help a child pack the bag.

02 Fill in the Gaps

15 items

Choose the correct causative verb, in the correct tense, for each blank.

WORKED EXAMPLE

My dad ____ me finish my dinner before I could leave the table.

No choice, an order — that's make.

→ My dad made me finish my dinner.

- 01 My dad _____ me finish my dinner before I could leave the table.
- 02 The teacher _____ us to hand in the essay a day early — she asked nicely and we agreed.
- 03 My parents never _____ me stay out past midnight, even as a teenager.
- 04 I usually _____ the mechanic check my brakes every six months.
- 05 My sister _____ me study for the exam by testing me with flashcards.
- 06 The manager _____ everyone work the holiday shift — nobody had a choice.
- 07 After a long conversation, we finally _____ him to reconsider his decision.
- 08 My boss will _____ the new intern shadow me for the first week.
- 09 The rain _____ the outdoor wedding move indoors at the last minute.
- 10 Will your parents _____ you travel alone next year?

- 11 The coach _____ the team practise twice as hard after the loss.
-
- 12 I _____ my neighbor water my plants while I was away.
-
- 13 The nurse's voice _____ me feel much calmer before the surgery.
-
- 14 We couldn't convince him, so in the end we just _____ him do it his way.
-
- 15 She _____ her brother move the sofa with her — neither of them could lift it alone.
-

NEXT PAGE →

03 Sentence Transformation

10 items

Rewrite each sentence using the causative verb that matches its meaning.

16 My boss forced me to redo the whole project.

17 The airline allowed us to bring an extra bag for free.

18 Eventually, I persuaded my sister to join the gym with me.

19 We arranged for a photographer to take our family portrait.

20 My colleague assisted me in preparing the presentation.

21 The delay forced the passengers to miss their connecting flight.

22 My landlord permitted us to paint the walls a different color.

23 It took some convincing, but we persuaded the hotel to upgrade our room.

24 I arranged for the tailor to shorten these trousers.

25 Her calm voice had a calming effect on me before the interview.

04 Fix the Structure

10 items

Some sentences have exactly one structural mistake. Some are already correct.

WORKED EXAMPLE

My father made me to clean my room. make never takes to — drop it.

→ My father made me clean my room.

Not every sentence has a mistake — some are already correct. Decide first, then fix only what needs it.

26 My father made me to clean my room every Saturday.

27 I got my brother fix my laptop last week.

28 The teacher let us to leave ten minutes early.

29 I had the mechanic to check my car.

30 She helped me to organize my closet last weekend.

31 They made the interns to work through lunch.

32 He got the landlord fixing the leak within a week.

33 We let the kids to choose the movie tonight.

34 I'll have my assistant to confirm the appointment.

35 My friend helped me move the boxes last weekend.

NEXT PAGE →

05 What Caused It? Write the Question

8 items

WORKED EXAMPLE

Answer: The heat made the ice melt.

The subject is always the cause. Replace it with What, keep the rest the same.

→ What made the ice melt?

36 Answer: The rain made the streets dangerous.

37 Answer: The delay got the passengers to complain.

38 Answer: The new schedule had everyone start earlier.

39 Answer: The music helped the guests relax.

40 Answer: The long flight made her exhausted.

41 Answer: The teacher's feedback got him to rewrite the whole essay.

42 Answer: The heavy traffic made us late for the movie.

43 Answer: The broken elevator had the staff take the stairs all week.

06 Your Own Sentences

6 items

One sentence each. Use a different causative verb every time.

44 Something a rule at your job or school makes you do.

45 Something your parents never let you do as a child.

46 Something you eventually got someone to agree to.

47 A service you regularly have done for you (hair, car, cleaning...).

48 Something you helped a friend or family member do recently.

49 Something that makes you feel instantly calmer.

NEXT PAGE → ANSWER KEY

Try first · check after · rewrite the misses.

1. made	2. got	3. let
4. have	5. helped	6. made
7. got	8. have	9. made
10. let	11. made	12. had
13. made	14. let	15. helped
16. My boss made me redo the whole project.	17. The airline let us bring an extra bag for free.	18. Eventually, I got my sister to join the gym with me.
19. We had a photographer take our family portrait.	20. My colleague helped me prepare the presentation.	21. The delay made the passengers miss their connecting flight.
22. My landlord let us paint the walls a different color.	23. It took some convincing, but we got the hotel to upgrade our room.	24. I had the tailor shorten these trousers.
25. Her calm voice made me feel calm before the interview.	26. My father made me clean my room every Saturday. — make never takes to.	27. I got my brother to fix my laptop last week. — get always needs to.
28. The teacher let us leave ten minutes early. — let never takes to.	29. I had the mechanic check my car. — have (active) never takes to.	30. No error — Correct — help can take to or the base verb.
31. They made the interns work through lunch. — make never takes to.	32. He got the landlord to fix the leak within a week. — get always needs to + verb, not -ing.	33. We let the kids choose the movie tonight. — let never takes to.
34. I'll have my assistant confirm the appointment. — have (active) never takes to.	35. No error — Correct — help without to is just as natural.	36. What made the streets dangerous?
37. What got the passengers to complain?	38. What had everyone start earlier?	39. What helped the guests relax?
40. What made her exhausted?	41. What got him to rewrite the whole essay?	42. What made us late for the movie?
43. What had the staff take the stairs all week?		