NOUN OR SENTENCE

Noun or full sentence?

O que vem depois do marker? Um nome sozinho, ou uma frase com sujeito e verbo?

After a marker comes either a full sentence (subject + verb) or only a noun. Never mix them.

> Cada marker pede um dos dois. O teste: pergunte "quem faz o quê?" depois do marker. Se tem resposta, é frase inteira. Se não tem, é só um nome.

Full sentence (sujeito + verbo)
We stayed home because the roads were icy.

"because", "although", "while", "so"

Only a noun (só um nome)
We stayed home because of the icy roads.

"because of", "despite", "due to", "thanks to", "during"

> SHRINK IT · o que sai e o que entra
>
> We stayed home because the roads ~~were~~ icy.
>
> We stayed home because of the icy roads.
>
> Sai o verbo (were). Entra "of". O adjetivo (icy) passa para antes do nome (roads).

> CUIDADO · parece verbo, mas é nome
> We stayed home because of the heavy rain. · nome ("the heavy" na frente)
>
> We stayed home because it rained. · sujeito + verbo
> Outras palavras assim: snow, storm, delay, cut, plan.

7 We arrived on time _____ the traffic jam.

○ because of ○ despite

8 Our trip was awful _____ the bad weather.

○ because of ○ despite

9 She kept smiling _____ the long wait.

○ because of ○ despite

EXERCISE 5

Make it formal

Deixe a frase formal, como em um relatório ou e-mail.

Rewrite the sentence for a formal email: change “because of” to “due to” (or “owing to”).

> A ideia é a mesma, o tom muda. Quando o marker abre a frase, a vírgula fecha o nome.

> EXAMPLE · exemplo resolvido
> We lost an hour because of a flat tire.
>
> We lost an hour due to a flat tire.
> Mesma ideia, tom mais escrito: “because of” virou “due to”.

YOUR TURN · agora é você

5 The roads are closed because of a car accident. Say it with due to or owing to.

6 Because of the new rules, our rent went up. Say it with due to or owing to.

EXERCISE 6

Shrink it

Encolha a ideia: a frase inteira vira um nome, e o marker entra na frente

Rewrite the sentence with the marker. Shrink the idea into a noun phrase.

> Tire o verbo. “The storm was strong” vira “the strong storm”. Quando o marker abre a frase, a vírgula fecha o nome.

> EXAMPLE · exemplo resolvido
> Because the storm was strong, the school closed.
>
> Shrink it with because of.
>
> Because of the strong storm, the school closed.
> A frase inteira (the storm was strong) virou um nome (the strong storm).

6 The lights went out while the storm was passing. Shrink it with during.

7 Because the new tax started, prices went up. Shrink it with because of.

EXERCISE 7

Fix it

Corrija.

Rewrite the sentence with the mistake fixed. If it is already right, tick the box.

> Nem toda frase tem erro. Procure o problema: um "of" a mais ou a menos, sujeito e verbo no lugar de um nome, ou o marker errado.

> EXAMPLE · exemplo resolvido
> We are late ~~because of~~ because the bus broke down.
>
> We are late because the bus broke down.
>
> "The bus broke down" tem sujeito e verbo: "because", sem "of".

Quick reference

Referência rápida

After the marker comes a noun. Not a subject and a verb.

> Depois do marker vem um nome. Com sujeito e verbo, use because, although ou while (aula 1).

because of WHY?	We stayed in because of the fog.	Dá a razão. Depois vem só um nome: because of the fog.
due to · owing to WHY? · FORMAL	The meeting moved due to the holiday. Owing to the roadworks, buses are slow.	Mesma razão, em tom mais escrito. Com sujeito e verbo, use because.
thanks to GOOD REASON	Thanks to my aunt, I found a flat.	Dá uma razão boa, que trouxe um bom resultado.
despite · in spite of EVEN SO?	We swam despite the cold water. She smiled in spite of the pain.	Contraste. Despite não leva “of”; in spite of leva.
during WHEN?	I fell asleep during the lecture.	Diz quando aconteceu. Depois vem um nome de evento.
for HOW LONG?	He waited for forty minutes.	Diz quanto tempo durou. Depois vem um período: for two hours.

> Say it without “of”, and keep “of” where it belongs.
> Despite ~~of~~ the rain… · In spite of the rain… · Com sujeito e verbo depois, use because: because the bus broke down.
