

Dependent Prepositions — + Gerund

Basic · With a Subject · Negatives · Perfect Gerund · Elena, Tomás, Yara, Frankl

01 Basic — Preposition + Gerund

THE RULE

verb / adjective + preposition + gerund → afraid of losing • committed to being

Certain verbs and adjectives always take a fixed preposition. The preposition is followed by a gerund (verb + -ing), not an infinitive. It belongs to the word, not the sentence.

Complete com a preposição dependente correta.

1. Elena is afraid _____ losing the sense of purpose she once had.
2. Tomás has become good _____ working without asking why.
3. Yara is committed _____ being present, even when it costs her something.
4. Elena complained _____ feeling like she was performing instead of teaching.
5. Tomás dreamed _____ building something that would last beyond him.
6. Yara is not interested _____ having a title. She wants to be useful.
7. Elena thinks _____ quitting sometimes, but always stays.
8. Tomás is still recovering _____ losing what gave his work meaning.
9. Yara succeeded _____ finding purpose where the system put no incentive.
10. Elena is aware _____ being competent. She is just not sure it is enough.
11. Tomás insists _____ continuing even when he cannot explain why.
12. Yara is proud _____ showing up even on the hard days.
13. Elena is tired _____ preparing lessons she does not believe in.
14. Tomás relies _____ the routine of drawing to get through the day.
15. Yara looks forward _____ walking into the ward every morning.
16. Elena is excited _____ trying a different approach next term.

THE RULE

preposition + [subject] + gerund → proud of her trying

When the gerund has its own subject, place it immediately before the gerund. In speech, use the object pronoun. In formal writing, use the possessive.

I my / me

YOU your / you

HE his / him

SHE her / her

WE our / us

THEY their / them

NAME Elena's / Elena

Complete com o pronome ou nome correto antes do gerúndio.

2. Elena was surprised at _____ staying so long at the ward. (Yara)
3. The student was aware of _____ not answering properly. (I)
4. Tomás is not accustomed to _____ asking about his feelings. (people)
5. They complained about _____ spending so much time on theory. (we)
6. Yara is used to _____ being the only one who stays until the end. (she)
7. Elena insists on _____ sharing more of his experience. (Tomás)
8. Nobody objects to _____ taking a different approach. (you)
9. Frankl wrote about _____ choosing an attitude even in the worst conditions. (he)
10. The patients relied on _____ being present. (Yara)
11. I was excited about _____ reading Frankl before the class. (they)
12. Tomás was not ready for _____ mattering so much. (the work)

03 Negatives — preposition + not + gerund

THE RULE

preposition + not + gerund → afraid of not finding

To negate the gerund, place not directly before it — not before the preposition. The not belongs to the action, not to the feeling.

CHANGES THE MEANING ENTIRELY

She isn't worried about finding the answer.
(she does not worry at all)

WHAT YOU ACTUALLY MEAN

She is worried about not finding the answer.
(she worries — about failing to find)

Subject + not + gerund: proud of her not giving up — she is the one not giving up.

Traduza usando preposição + not + gerúndio.

1. Elena tem medo de não encontrar o caminho de volta para a sala de aula com propósito.

2. Tomás está cansado de não conseguir explicar por que continua trabalhando.

3. Yara tem orgulho de não fingir que tem respostas.

11. Ela é responsável por não ter sido completamente honesta com os alunos.

12. Tomás tem orgulho de ela não ter desistido dele nos piores momentos. (she)

04 Perfect Gerund — having + past participle

THE RULE

preposition + having + past participle → proud of having found

Use having + past participle when the gerund action happened before the main verb. To negate: not having + past participle. With a subject: her having found, him not having spoken.

SIMPLE GERUND

She is proud of finding her place.
general — no time reference

PERFECT GERUND

She is proud of having found her place.
the finding already happened — before the pride

All three layers: He is ashamed of her not having been told the truth sooner.
