A Big Week at the Office

1

Carol always runs the Monday meeting. She starts it at (time) every week. Everyone knows the time — it never changes.

2

Lena usually records at home, but last Tuesday she recorded (place). She needed a better microphone and a quiet room. The sound quality was much better there.

3

Daniel was nervous because he pitched his campaign idea to (person). He prepared the presentation for two weeks. Everyone in the room was very quiet when he finished.

4

Sam worked late to finish the prototype on Wednesday night. He sent the files at (time). His teammates were surprised when they saw the time on the email.

5

Carol managed two projects that week. She organised everything (manner). Her team didn't miss a single deadline.

6

Lena didn't finish her episode on time. She was late (reason). She was very frustrated, but she delivered the episode the next day.

7

Daniel doesn't like working at the office every day. He usually works (place) when he needs to concentrate. It's his favourite place to review campaign results.

8

Right now, Carol and Sam are preparing (thing). They are working on it together this morning. It is the most important document of the week.

9

Lena is planning to launch her next series (time). She wants more time to prepare. She is not in a hurry this time.

10

Sam is presenting the final layout (manner). He thinks face-to-face is better than a video call. The client is already on the way to the office.
