My grandpa is from a village in Tenerife. I like it there because you can swim in a cave in the sea! Sometimes, there's a waterfall in the village, but there wasn't a waterfall this year because it was very sunny and dry. The village is small, but there are some big buildings. My grandpa says there weren't any big buildings sixty years ago and there wasn't a big road. There were some farms and there was a very small road. He says there were donkeys, but not cars! Were there any cars in your town sixty years ago?
