

PRÁTICA EXTENSIVA · WILL & GOING TO

Will & Going to — na prática

Três exercícios: preencher lacunas, escolher a melhor frase e formar perguntas a partir de uma cena.

Mia
designer, rotina criativa

Tom
engenheiro, rotina estruturada

Context Clues — o que observar

Decisão espontânea will " Oh!", reação agora	Plano prévio going to " already", "booked"	Evidência visível going to " Look at..."	Opinião pessoal will " I think", "probably"	Promessa / Oferta will " I promise", "Don't worry"
--	--	--	---	--

Exercício 1 · Fill in the Gap

Complete com will ou going to. A pista de contexto indica o tipo de uso.

1

Decisão espontânea

Tom notices the office coffee machine is completely empty.

Tom: "I _____ make some coffee for everyone!"

Forma verbal: _____

2

Plano prévio

Mia signed a design contract last Friday.

"Mia _____ redesign the company logo."

Forma verbal: _____

3

Evidência visível

Tom and Mia are in the car. The fuel warning light turns on.

Tom: "We _____ run out of gas!"

Forma verbal: _____

4

Opinião pessoal

Tom talks about the new project with enthusiasm.

"I think this campaign _____ be a huge success."

Forma verbal: _____

5

Promessa/Oferta

Tom asks Mia to send the project files. She promises.

"I promise I _____ send you the files before 5pm."

Forma verbal: _____

6

Plano prévio

Mia and Tom have a meeting scheduled — planned 2 weeks ago.

"Mia and Tom _____ meet on Monday to discuss the project."

Forma verbal: _____

7

Decisão
espontânea

Tom sees a colleague struggling with heavy boxes.

Tom: "Wait! I _____ help you carry those!"

Forma verbal: _____

8

Evidência visível

Tom looks at Mia's to-do list — it has 15 tasks for today.

Tom: "Mia _____ be exhausted by the end of the day!"

Forma verbal: _____

9

Opinião pessoal

Mia watches Tom present his project. She is very impressed.

"I believe Tom _____ become one of the best engineers in Brazil."

Forma verbal: _____

Tom enrolled in a leadership course 3 months ago.

Tom: "I _____ start my leadership course next Monday."

Forma verbal: _____

Exercício 2 · Escolha a melhor frase

Leia o cenário e circule a opção que usa will ou going to de forma mais natural e correta.

1

You're at the office kitchen. The coffee is finished. You react right now.

- A. I'm going to make coffee — I had it planned.
- B. I'll make some coffee!
- C. I was going to make coffee yesterday.

2

Mia enrolled in an online branding course last month.

- A. I will take a branding course someday.
- B. I'm going to take a branding course next semester — I enrolled last month!
- C. I'll probably take a course if I have time.

3

Tom is driving. They enter a huge traffic jam they can see stretching for miles.

- A. We're going to be very late — look at this traffic!
- B. I think we will be late maybe.
- C. We will probably be late tomorrow.

4

Mia asks you for feedback on her portfolio. You decide to help right now.

- A. I was going to review your portfolio — it was in my plans.
- B. I'll review your portfolio!
- C. I'm going to review it — I planned this last week.

5

Tom talks about the project results. He hopes but has no data yet.

- A. I'm going to say the project will succeed — look at the data!
- B. I think the project will be a success.
- C. The project is going to succeed because I see the results.

6

Mia and Tom booked a coworking space for next week.

- A. Mia and Tom will work somewhere next week, not sure where.
- B. Mia and Tom are going to work at the new coworking space — we already booked it.
- C. I think Mia and Tom will probably try a new place.

Exercício 3 · Forme perguntas a partir da cena

Leia o texto. Os trechos numerados indicam a informação buscada. Atenção: o aluno decide a WH word E o is/are/will correto.

Mia and Tom are planning a very busy month. Mia is going to redesign [1] the company website — she already signed the contract last Friday. Tom and his team are going to build a new bridge [2] in the south of Brazil. Tom thinks the project will take [3] about eight months to complete. Mia is going to work overtime [4] because the client's deadline is very tight. [5] Next week, Mia and her client are going to meet to review the first design concepts. Tom also promised that he will bring [6] all the technical documents to the first team meeting.

1

Você quer saber: o que Mia vai redesenhar

Lembre-se: Mia = she → IS going to

Estrutura: WH? ____ Mia going to redesign?

2

Você quer saber: onde Tom e sua equipe vão construir

Lembre-se: Tom and his team = they → ARE going to Estrutura: WH? ____ Tom and his team going to build?

3

Você quer saber: quanto tempo o projeto vai durar

Lembre-se: previsão/opinião → will

Estrutura: WH? will the project take?

4

Você quer saber: por que Mia vai trabalhar além do horário

Lembre-se: Mia = she → IS going to

Estrutura: WH? ____ Mia going to work overtime?

5

Você quer saber: quando Mia e a cliente vão se reunir

Lembre-se: Mia and her client = they → ARE going to Estrutura: WH? ____ Mia and her client going to meet?

6

Você quer saber: o que Tom vai trazer

Lembre-se: promessa espontânea → will

Estrutura: WH? will Tom bring?

GABARITO

Respostas — Will & Going to

EXERCÍCIO 1

1. will	I'll make some coffee!	6. going to	Mia and Tom are going to meet on Monday.
2. going to	Mia is going to redesign the company logo.	7. will	I'll help you carry those!
3. going to	We're going to run out of gas!	8. going to	Mia is going to be exhausted by the end of the day!
4. will	I think this campaign will be a huge success.	9. will	I believe Tom will become one of the best engineers in Brazil.
5. will	I promise I'll send you the files before 5pm.	10. going to	I'm going to start my leadership course next Monday.

EXERCÍCIO 2

1. B	I'll make some coffee!	4. B	I'll review your portfolio!
2. B	I'm going to take a branding course next semester — I enrolled last month!	5. B	I think the project will be a success.
3. A	We're going to be very late — look at this traffic!	6. B	Mia and Tom are going to work at the new coworking space — we already booked it.

EXERCÍCIO 3

1. —	What is Mia going to redesign?	4. —	Why is Mia going to work overtime?
2. —	Where are Tom and his team going to build?	5. —	When are Mia and her client going to meet?
3. —	How long will the project take?	6. —	What will Tom bring?