

What comes after the object?

HOMEWORK · MAKE + OBJECT + ADJECTIVE / NOUN / BASE VERB · 44 ITEMS

STUDENT

DATE

TEACHER

01 Three Neighbours

reference

STRUCTURE

make + object + adjective / noun / base verb

Three things can sit after the object, and each one says something different. An adjective describes what the object became: the news made her happy. A noun gives it a new identity: they made her captain. A base verb says the object was forced to act: she made me wait.

ADJECTIVE

The news made her happy.

what she became

NOUN

They made her captain.

a new identity or role

BASE VERB · NO TO

She made me wait.

forced to act

02 Which Pattern Is It?

15 items

The underlined word is what follows the object. Write ADJ, NOUN or VERB in the box.

WORKED EXAMPLE

The delay made the guests frustrated.

"Frustrated" describes the guests — it's an adjective.

→ ADJ

- 01 The delay made the guests frustrated.
- 02 The service made her a loyal customer.
- 03 The storm made the ferry cancel its route.
- 04 The long queue made him impatient.
- 05 They made her captain of the hiking group.
- 06 The noise made the baby cry.
- 07 The promotion made him a partner in the firm.
- 08 The tea ceremony made the visit memorable.
- 09 My manager made me redo the whole presentation.
- 10 The scandal made the company a target for journalists.

11 The rain made the trail slippery.

12 The coach made the team practise twice a day.

13 Years of training made her a champion.

14 The cold made his hands numb.

15 She made me promise to visit again.

NEXT PAGE • GIVE IT THE RIGHT SHAPE →

03 Give It the Right Shape

15 items

You are given the raw material — a related noun, adjective, or to-infinitive. Decide the pattern, then shape the word correctly.

WORKED EXAMPLE

The heat made the ice melt. raw material: to melt

The pattern is make + object + base verb — so the to is dropped.

→ melt

- 16 The onsen water made my skin _____. softness
- 17 The delay made the passengers _____. fury
- 18 The news made her _____. joy
- 19 The mountain air made us _____. energy
- 20 The silence made the temple _____. peace
- 21 The election made him _____ of the region. govern (verb)
- 22 The victory made her _____ of the tournament. champion
- 23 That performance made him _____ overnight. star
- 24 The article made the restaurant _____ in the city. legend
- 25 The board made her _____ of the new branch. direct (verb)
- 26 The heat made the ice _____. to melt
- 27 The teacher made us _____ the poem by heart. to learn
- 28 My father made me _____ the dishes. to wash
- 29 The airline made the passengers _____ for three hours. to wait
- 30 The smell made me _____ the window. to open

04 Your Own Sentences

6 items

One sentence each. Use all three patterns at least once across the six.

- 31 Something a hotel did that made your stay better.

- 32 Something that made you nervous before a trip.

- 33 Something a boss or teacher made you redo.

34 Something that made you proud of your country or hometown.

35 Something the weather made you cancel.

36 Something that made you a more patient person.

NEXT PAGE · WHAT CAUSED IT? & GLOSSARY →

05 What Caused It? · Write the Question

8 items

The subject is always the cause. Replace the subject with What — everything else stays the same.

WORKED EXAMPLE

Answer: The heat made the ice melt.

The subject is always the cause — that's what's unknown. Replace the subject with What, keep everything else the same.

→ What made the ice melt?

37 Answer: The turbulence made the passengers anxious.

38 Answer: The delay made them miss the train.

39 Answer: The victory made him captain.

40 Answer: Time made the recipe a family tradition.

41 Answer: The long hike made her exhausted.

42 Answer: The rain made the road dangerous.

43 Answer: Two years in Kyoto made him fluent.

44 Answer: The photograph made her a legend.

06 Glossary · 語彙

EN · JP · PT

frustrated 苛立った frustrado	furious 激怒した furioso	energetic 元気な energético	peaceful 穏やかな tranquilo
governor 知事 governador	champion チャンピオン campeão	turbulence 乱気流 turbulência	exhausted 疲れ果てた exausto
tradition 伝統 tradição	target 標的 alvo

Try first · check after · rewrite the misses.

01 ADJ	02 NOUN	03 VERB
04 ADJ	05 NOUN	06 VERB
07 NOUN	08 ADJ	09 VERB
10 NOUN	11 ADJ	12 VERB
13 NOUN	14 ADJ	15 VERB
16 soft	17 furious	18 joyful
19 energetic	20 peaceful	21 governor
22 the champion	23 a star	24 a legend
25 director	26 melt	27 learn
28 wash	29 wait	30 open
37 What made the passengers anxious?	38 What made them miss the train?
39 What made him captain?	40 What made the recipe a family tradition?
41 What made her exhausted?	42 What made the road dangerous?
43 What made him fluent?	44 What made her a legend?	