Nick Marsh

Musician

Musician Nick Marsh has been in a band since the 1970s. The band used to go on tour every year. I asked him some questions about his touring days.

Did you enjoy going on tour with the band?

Yes and no! I didn't like traveling to different venues all the time and I hated living in hotels for months because I missed my wife and kids. But I loved our fans! The crowds used to go crazy at our concerts. The atmosphere was amazing. That was the best feeling in the world. I loved the music, too. We used to write all our own songs together.

What did your concerts used to be like?

They were very colorful! We didn't use to just stand on the stage and play our guitars. We're musicians, but we're also performers. So, we used to put on a great show! We used to wear bright costumes and lots of make-up. There were amazing sets, too. The people who worked backstage were awesome because they had to change the set six times during every show! It was a lot of work, but it was really fun!
