

UNIT 1: HELLO

Page 9

again /ə'gen/ Adverb when you do something again, you do it one more time look at the photo again | watch the video again hello /hə'ləʊ/ Exclamation you say hello when you meet someone hello! I'm Vincent

in pairs /ɪn 'peəz/ Phrase when you do something in pairs, you work with one other person work in pairs listen /'lɪs(ə)n/ Verb when you listen to someone or something, you use your ears to hear them Collocate: listen to someone or something listen to the conversation | listen to the teacher look /lʊk/ Verb

when you look at someone or something, you use your eyes to see them Collocate: look at someone or something look at the photo | look at me name /neɪm/ Noun your name is the word people use when they talk about you my name's Fernando | her name is Margaret photo /'fəʊtəʊ/ Noun

a photo is a picture from a camera Collocates: a photo of something | take a photo look at the photo | what a lovely photo | a photo of my brother | take a photo of your holiday read /ri:d/ Verb

when you read something, you look at words on a page or a screen and understand them read the instructions | read the book repeat /rɪ'pi:t/ Verb when you repeat something, you say it again listen and repeat | Could you repeat the question, please?

say /seɪ/ Verb

when you say something, you use your voice to make the sounds of words that people can hear and understand say your name | she says it is cold in here | my sister says you are nice work /wɜ:k/ Verb when you work, you do a job or task Collocate: work on something work in groups | work on a project Noun: work start work

Pages 10–11

alphabet /'ælfəbet/ Noun the alphabet is the letters in a language. In English the alphabet is a, b, c, d, e, etc. children learn the alphabet at school | I can say the alphabet in Spanish | the alphabet has 26 letters in English

check /tʃek/ Verb

when you check something, you look to see if it is correct check your answers | can you check my spelling? | let me check your answers hi /haɪ/ Exclamation you say hi when you see a friend as a way of saying "hello" hi Sofia nice to see you | hi everyone, sorry I'm late letter /'letə/ Noun

a letter is a shape we use to write words A is the first letter of the alphabet | there are 26 letters in the English alphabet | a capital letter (A, B, or G instead of a, b, or g) nice /naɪs/ Adjective when you say that something or someone is nice, you mean that you like it or them and think it is / they are good she's a nice person | a nice meal at a restaurant | this is a nice café | the soup is nice nice to meet you /naɪs tə 'mi:t ju:/ Phrase you say nice to meet you when you meet someone for the first time

"I'm Lena"—"I'm Hon nice to meet you" | "It's nice to meet you, Mateo" other /'ʌðə/ Determiner other means something different from you or the thing you are talking about do you want this one or the other one? | not me, but other people | the other team are very good please /pli:z/ Adverb you say please when you ask for something in a nice way can you open the door, please? | can you get me a pencil please?

quiz /kwɪz/ Noun

a quiz is a set of questions that you have to answer in a competition or a game an online quiz | a quiz about capital cities reading /'ri:dɪŋ/ Noun uncount reading is the activity of looking at words that are on paper or on a screen and understanding them I like reading | my mom doesn't like reading speak /spi:k/ Verb when you speak, you say words that people can hear and understand Collocate: speak to someone speak to your teacher | I speak Portuguese spell /spel/ Verb

when you spell something, you put letters in the right order to make a word can you spell your name? | can you spell this word?

Noun: spelling

I'm not very good at spelling student /'stju:d(ə)nt/ Noun a student is someone who is learning things at school or college

I'm a student at Nottingham University | I live in a house with three other students | there are lots of students in this area | the city is very quiet when the students have their exams word /wɜ:d/ Noun

a word is a group of letters that have a meaning do you know the word "believe"? | what's the French word for "bread"? | I try to learn a new word every day write /raɪt/ Verb

when you write, you put marks on paper to make words, or you use a keyboard to put words onto a computer screen write your name at the top | I'm writing an email to my aunt | she's learning to read and write | write down my telephone number

Pages 12–13

American /ə'merɪkən/ Adjective someone or something that is American is from the United States who is the American president? | an American passport | his wife is American around /ə'raʊnd/ Preposition when something is around, it is in an area Collocate: around the world

there are many different people around the world | there are clothes around the house | there are pens around the classroom

Brazilian /brə'zɪliən/ Adjective someone or something that is Brazilian is from Brazil my wife is Brazilian | the Brazilian soccer team | she has a Brazilian passport

Noun: Brazil

the official language of Brazil is Portuguese

British /'brɪtɪʃ/ Adjective someone or something that is British is from the United Kingdom are you British? | a British passport | he works for a British company

Noun: Britain | Great Britain

my parents are from the United Kingdom chart /tʃɑ:t/ Noun

a chart is a box on a piece of paper or a computer screen that has information, or that you can write in write the names in the chart | this chart shows the size of every country in Europe | look at the chart on the next page

Chinese /tʃaɪ'ni:z/ Adjective someone or something that is Chinese is from China a Chinese passport | a Chinese citizen | my friend is Chinese and lives in Beijing

Noun: China

I live in Guangzhou in China class /kla:s/ Noun

a class is a group of students there are 30 students in my class | we are both in the same class at school | my best friend is in a different class | what class are you in?

Colombian /kə'lʌmbiən/ Adjective someone or something that is Colombian is from Colombia they sell Colombian coffee at the store | I met a Colombian family on my trip | there are two Colombian students in the class

Noun: Colombia

Bogota is in Colombia country /'kʌntri/ Noun a country is an area that has its own government, for example, France, China, or Brazil

there are students from 23 countries at my college | we live in the north of the country | what country are you from?

Ecuadorian /ˌekwə'dɔ:riən/ Adjective someone or something that is Ecuadorian is from Ecuador an Ecuadorian friend | an Ecuadorian dish | I have an Ecuadorian teacher

Noun: Ecuador

Ecuador is a country in South America

Egyptian /ɪ'dʒɪptjən/ Adjective someone or something that is Egyptian is from Egypt

I am Egyptian | my mom is Egyptian | an Egyptian blanket

Noun: Egypt

would you like to see Egypt from the River Nile?

from /frɒm/ Preposition when someone is from somewhere, they were born in that country

I am from Argentina | my mom is from Japan | I am from the south of the country individual /ˌɪndɪ'vɪdʒuəl/ Adjective an individual thing or person is a single one we help each individual child in the school | each individual person has a different job to do

Japanese /dʒæpə'ni:z/ Adjective someone or something that is Japanese is from Japan she loves Japanese food | my neighbor is Japanese | he speaks Japanese

Noun: Japan

I want to visit Japan

Mexican /'meksɪkən/ Adjective someone or something that is Mexican is from Mexico a Mexican dance | I have a Mexican friend | she has a Mexican passport

Noun: Mexico

my husband comes from Mexico nationality /ˌnæʃəˈnæləti/ Noun your nationality is the country that you come from what nationality is she? | I have German nationality | people from different nationalities padel /ˈpædəl/ Noun

padel is a sport that is like tennis but played on a smaller court (the place you play)

Collocate: play padel

we play padel on Sundays | she's good at padel partner /ˈpɑːtnə/ Noun your partner is the other person you are working with when you are working in pairs ask your partner to check your answers | my partner in the English exercise is Jenny | show your partner your answers

Saudi Arabian /ˌsaʊdi əˈreɪbiən/ Adjective when someone or something is Saudi Arabian, they are from Saudi Arabia

I have a Saudi Arabian friend | the Saudi Arabian Formula 1 race | I have a Saudi Arabian family

Noun: Saudi Arabia

Riyadh is in Saudi Arabia

Spanish /ˈspæniʃ/ Adjective when someone or something is Spanish, they are from Spain a Spanish passport | a Spanish friend | I love Spanish food

Noun: Spain

I live in Spain

test /test/ Verb

when you test someone, you ask them questions to check how much they know about something test your partner | can you test me on my English verbs? | our teacher tests us every week

Noun: test

an English test | I hope you pass the test (get the answers right) this is /ˈðɪs ɪz/ Phrase when you say this is, you are introducing something or someone this is a pen | this is my sister | this is where we meet Vietnamese /ˌviɛtnəˈmiːz/ Adjective someone or something that is Vietnamese is from Vietnam a Vietnamese restaurant | my teacher is Vietnamese | Hanoi is the capital city of Vietnam

Noun: Vietnam

I am on vacation in Vietnam

Pages 14–15

best wishes /best ˈwɪʃɪz/ Phrase when you say best wishes, you want to show someone good thoughts. Often, you finish an email with “best wishes” to be nice

I send my best wishes to your family | best wishes, and take care | we give you our best wishes for the new year bye /baɪ/ Exclamation you say bye when you leave someone “see you tomorrow.”—“OK, bye” | bye everyone! Have a good weekend conversation /ˌkɒnvəˈseɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a conversation is when two or more people are talking to each other about something Collocates: a conversation about something | a conversation with someone a long conversation about soccer | this conversation is really boring | a short telephone conversation | an interesting conversation with Jeremy correct /kəˈrekt/ Adjective when something is correct, it is right and not wrong choose the correct option | what's the correct number? | this is the correct answer email /ˈiːmeɪl/ Noun emails are messages that people send to each other using the internet. An email is one message.

I need to check my email | I have 45 email messages today | send me an email | what's your email address?

Verb: email

email me the instructions | I've got to email this to Jennifer email address /ˈiːmeɪl ədres/ Noun an email address is the letters and/or numbers you use to send an email to someone, for example “john.brown99@email.com”

I need your email address | please check your email address is correct | what's your email address?

fine /faɪn/ Adjective when something is fine, it is quite good take a taxi if you want, but the bus is fine for me | everything at school is fine at the moment | “does this shirt look OK?”—“yes, it's fine” good afternoon /gʊd ɑːftəˈnuːn/ Exclamation you say good afternoon when you see someone during the afternoon good afternoon, Ms. Thomson | good afternoon, sir goodbye /gʊdˈbaɪ/ Exclamation you say goodbye when you leave someone

I must go now, goodbye | goodbye everyone, see you tomorrow good evening /gʊd ˈiːvɪnɪŋ/ Exclamation you say good evening when you see someone during the evening good evening, everyone | every day, Mr. Watson walks past my house and says “Good evening” good morning /gʊd ˈmɔːnɪŋ/ Exclamation you say good morning when you see someone during the morning good morning, Mr. Alexander | good morning, class good night /gʊd ˈnaɪt/ Exclamation you say good night before you go to bed good night, Mom. Good night, Dad | good night, everyone. I'm going home great /grett/ Adjective when you say that something is great, you mean that you like it and that it is very good

Birmingham is a great place to live | there are some great stores here | you look great in that jacket | Athens is a great city how are you /haʊ ə 'ju:/ Phrase when you ask how are you, you want to know how a person feels and if everything is OK how are you today? | how are you this morning?

message /'mesɪdʒ/ Noun a message is when you write to someone with information

Collocates: write a message | send a message write a message | send me a message | I have a message from my mom

Verb: message message me the information number /'nʌmbə/ Noun a number is a word or symbol for an amount a million is a big number | the lake is in the shape of the number seven | our house number is on the front door same /seɪm/ Adjective when two things are the same, there is no difference between them

Collocate: the same as something or someone

I have the same jacket as you | his birthday is on the same day as mine | these two photos look the same | we are the same age teacher /'ti:tʃə/ Noun a teacher is someone who works in a school and gives information to students my teacher is really nice | Ms. Jenkins is a very nice teacher | an English teacher | our teacher is great

Verb: teach

she teaches science at the local school thanks /θæŋks/ Exclamation you say thanks to someone to show that you are happy about something they give you or tell you about

"here's your coffee."—"thanks" | "let me help you with your suitcase."—"thanks" | thanks for your help this morning underline /ˌʌndə'laɪn/ Verb when you underline a word, you draw a line under it underline all the names of countries in the text | the exercise is to underline all the verbs

Pages 16–17

bag /bæg/ Noun

a bag is something you carry, with things in it. It usually has one open end so you can put things in and take things out

I need to pack my bag | she carries a small bag with her | this is Ewa's bag book /bʊk/ Noun

a book is a lot of pieces of paper with writing on them inside a cover so that you can read them one page after another

Collocate: read a book this is my favorite book | I take a book to read on the train | my school books | a book by Joël Dicker city /'sɪti/ Noun

a city is a big town where a lot of people live and work

I don't like living in a city | London is a city in England | Quito is a very old city | Vienna is a beautiful city | Beijing is the capital city of China classroom /'kla:sru:m/ Noun a classroom is a room where you have lessons it's very cold in the classroom this morning | a big classroom | where is your classroom? | the students are in the classroom color /'kʌlə/ Noun

red, green, blue, yellow, orange, white, pink, etc. are all colors what color is your bike? | the walls are a nice color | my favorite color is yellow | the photos in this book are all in black and white, not in color desk /desk/ Noun

a desk is a table that you use in your office or at work there's a computer and a phone on my desk | a wooden desk | a big desk | I put the magazine on your desk double /'dʌbəl/ Adjective double means there is something twice. For example, "look" has double "o" find the double letters | a double espresso | "book" has double "o" everyone /'evriwʌn/ Pronoun everyone means every person

hello, everyone | everyone in my class likes our teacher | is everyone here today? | is everyone ready?

home /həʊm/ Noun

a home is the place where a person lives this is my home | I go home after work | she leaves home at 7 a.m.

ID card /aɪ 'di:kɑ:d/ Noun an ID card is a card that you carry round with you that says who you are my ID card has my photograph on it | don't lose your ID card | you need an ID card to get into the building international /ˌɪntə'næʃ(ə)nəl/ Adjective something that is international involves two or more countries an international phone call (from one country to another) | an international soccer match (between teams from different countries) | a class of international students (from many different countries) language /'læŋɡwɪdʒ/ Noun a language is the words that people use when they speak to each other and when they write things. English, German, French, and Japanese are all languages how many languages can you speak? | Cantonese is a difficult language to learn | English and German are in the same family of languages laptop /'læptɒp/ Noun

a laptop is a small computer that you can carry around with you this is my laptop | I keep my laptop in my desk | her laptop is very light | an expensive laptop late /leɪt/ Adjective

when you are late, you arrive somewhere after you are meant to be there, or after something has already started there

Collocate: late for something don't be late for school again | I'm sorry I'm late | we are ten minutes late for school

Opposite – Adjective: early

Collocate: early for something try and be at the airport an hour early | she is five minutes early for the meeting open /'əʊpən/ Verb when you open a book, you move it so that you can see the page you want to read open your books at page 24 | open your book and start reading

Adjective: open || Opposite – Verb: close the book is open at page 73 | close your books and listen to me organization /ˌɔːɡənə'zeɪʃən/ Noun an organization is a group of people who work together on something an organization of farmers | the organization helps people | our organization is small

Verb: organize | Adjective: organized help me organize my room | I am an organized person next time /'nekst taɪm/ Phrase when you say next time, you mean the time after now see you next time | let's meet again next time notebook /'nəʊtɒk/ Noun a notebook is a book that you can write notes in. It has empty pages, or pages with lines write the words in your notebook | open your notebooks and start writing | where's my notebook? | my notebook is full (every page has writing on it)

pen /pen/ Noun

a pen is something that you use to write with Collocate: in pen

write your answers with a pen | can I use your pen? | you can use a pen or a pencil | an expensive pen | write in pen, not in pencil sit down /sɪt 'daʊn/ Phrasal verb when you sit down, you rest on your bottom come in and sit down | the train is full so we can't sit down | let's sit down outside this café | may I sit down here?

Opposite – Phrasal verb: stand up in some schools, the children have to stand up when the teacher enters the classroom sorry /'sɒri/ Adjective you say sorry after you do something wrong

Collocate: sorry for doing something sorry I'm late | I'm sorry I can't come to your lesson tomorrow | I want to say sorry for breaking your pen understand /ʌndə'stænd/ Verb when you understand something, you know what it means or how it works can you understand Italian? | I don't understand this word | I don't understand how cell phones work welcome /'welkəm/ Verb when someone says welcome, they are saying hello to you when you arrive in a place and making you feel good to be there welcome to the class | welcome to my home | welcome to the new students you're welcome /jɔː 'welkəm/ Exclamation you're welcome is a polite thing to say to someone who says "Thank you" to you

"thank you for the flowers"—"you're welcome"

Pages 18–19

animal /'ænɪm(ə)l/ Noun an animal is a living thing such as a dog, cow, mouse, etc.

wild animals (that do not live with people) | animals in a zoo | I want a dog, but my dad doesn't want animals in the house | there's some kind of animal in the garden baby /'beɪbi/ Noun

a baby is a very young child who does not walk or talk the baby is sleeping | he has a baby | the baby started to cry beautiful /'bjuːtəf(ə)l/ Adjective something or someone that is beautiful is very nice to look at. When the weather is beautiful, it is warm and sunny it's a beautiful day today | Florence is a beautiful city | a beautiful old town | Elizabeth is a very beautiful woman | a beautiful painting

Noun: beauty

an area of great beauty (a beautiful area) big /bɪɡ/ Adjective something that is big is very large or important

New Year is a big celebration in China | a big birthday party | a big day buffalo /ˈbʌfələʊ/ Noun a buffalo is a large animal of the cow family with big things on their head called horns

Collocate: water buffalo the water buffalo is a big animal | the buffaloes live near the river climber /ˈklaɪmə(r)/ Noun a climber is someone who climbs rocks or mountains for fun a group of mountain climbers | the climbers are at the top of the mountain | the climbers are very high

Noun: climbing | Verb: climb

we go climbing every year in France | a climbing vacation | I want to climb a mountain clothes /kləʊðz/ Noun plural clothes are things you wear on your body, like a T-shirt, dress, or pants Collocate: wear clothes

I wear nice clothes to work | your clothes are beautiful | expensive clothes desert /ˈdezət/ Noun a desert is a large area where there is not much rain and not many plants can grow in the middle of the desert | the Sahara Desert | the desert is hot elephant /ˈelɪfənt/ Noun an elephant is a big grey animal with a long thing on the front of its face called a trunk. They come from Africa or Asia

I see a baby elephant | the elephant is very big | a family of elephants false /fɔːls/ Adjective when something is false, it is not true or correct is it true or false? | the information is false | the sentence isn't false, it's true

Opposite – Adjective: true it's true, not false favorite /ˈfeɪv(ə)rət/ Adjective your favorite thing or person is the one you like the most out of a group of them which is your favorite restaurant in Bristol? | who's your favorite singer? | my favorite color is red | a Jaguar is her favorite sort of car

Noun: favorite

I like lots of music, but hip-hop is my favorite happy /ˈhæpi/ Adjective when you are happy, you are very pleased and feel good you look happy today | everyone is happy when the weather is nice | the movie has a happy ending | I hope you have a happy birthday

Noun: happiness | Adverb: happily || Opposite – Adjective: unhappy feelings of great happiness | the children play happily | why are you so unhappy?

lion /ˈlaɪən/ Noun a lion is a big wild cat that sometimes has hair around its face called a mane. It is very strong there are lions in India | there is a lion at the zoo | a big lion man /mæn/ Noun

a man is an adult male. Your father is a man. The plural of man is men he's an interesting man | my father is a very tall man | two of my teachers are men, all the others are women mountain /ˈmaʊntɪn/ Noun a mountain is a very high piece of land

Kilimanjaro is a tall mountain | we have mountains near my house | a big mountain people /ˈpiːp(ə)l/ Noun plural people is the plural of person two people are at the restaurant | there are many people on the street | how many people are there in your class?

photographer /fəˈtɒgrəfə/ Noun a photographer is someone who takes photographs, especially when it is their job a photographer for Time magazine | a professional photographer (someone whose job is to take photographs) | a wedding photographer (someone who takes photographs of people's weddings)

Noun: photograph | Verb: photograph

Collocate: take a photograph there are lots of photographs on the wall | she takes photographs of people's pets | I like to photograph birds sentence /ˈsentəns/ Noun a sentence is a group of words that make a unit of a piece of writing a sentence usually has a subject and a verb | write three sentences about your house or apartment | short sentences are easy to understand small /smɔːl/ Adjective something that is small is not very big

Norwich is a small city | his feet are very small | a small café | a small dog | the hotel is nice, but the rooms are small top /tɒp/ Adjective the top is the best of something top ten | the top song | the top place to visit true /truː/ Adjective when something is true, it is real and correct find the true sentence | is it true or false? | a true story Opposite – Adjective: false correct the false information water /ˈwɔːtə/ Noun uncount water is the liquid that falls as rain and makes the sea and rivers and lakes. People, animals, and plants need water to live a glass of water | the water's too cold to swim in the sea today | a bottle of water | when it reaches 0° Celsius, water becomes ice whale /weɪl/ Noun

a whale is a very big animal in the ocean there are many whales in the sea near Canada | there are lots of different types of whale woman /'wʊmən/ Noun a woman is an adult female. Your mother is a woman.

The plural of woman is women a woman in a blue coat | I prefer to see a woman doctor | her mother is a very interesting woman | most of my teachers are women watch /wɒtʃ/ Verb

when you watch something, you look at it for a time, and see what happens watch the video | watch it again | watch a movie | I want to watch this TV show

UNIT 2: MY WORLD

Page 21

beach /bi:tʃ/ Noun

a beach is an area of sand or small stones next to the sea

Collocates: play on a beach | sit on a beach the children are at the beach | they want to spend the day on the beach | there are some lovely beaches near here | let's go and sit on the beach evening /'i:vnɪŋ/ Noun the evening is the time of day when it starts to get dark, between the afternoon and the night

Collocates: yesterday evening | this evening let's go to the movie theater this evening | I watch YouTube videos in the evening | call me tomorrow evening | we have dinner at seven o'clock in the evening island /'aɪlənd/ Noun an island is a small piece of land that has a lot of water around it the U.K. is an island | the island has a beach | it is a small island morning /'mɔ:niŋ/ Noun the morning is the time of day when it starts to get light, between the night and the afternoon

Collocates: this morning | tomorrow morning what time do you get up in the morning? | what a lovely morning! | it's very cold this morning | let's meet tomorrow morning night /naɪt/ Noun

the night is the time between evening and morning when it is dark

Collocate: at night

ten o'clock at night | these animals don't sleep at night park /pɑ:k/ Noun

a park is a big open space with trees and grass in a town or city where people can go let's go for a walk in the park | I take my sandwich and eat it in the park at lunchtime | the park closes at eight o'clock in the evening | London has lots of parks river /'rɪvə/ Noun

a river is a long stream of water that runs through a country and goes into the sea the river goes through the city | I like swimming in the river | we have a boat on the river | we need to cross the river | a bridge over the river sea /si:/ Noun the sea is a large piece of water. It covers a lot of the Earth the Black sea | I like to go swimming in the sea | I live near the sea

Pages 22–23

café /'kæfeɪ/ Noun

a café is a place where you can sit and drink tea or coffee let's go to a café | there's a café next to the school | let's meet in the café at four o'clock | he works in a café

Friday /'fraɪdeɪ/ Noun

Friday is the fifth day of the week see you on Friday | I go to school on Fridays | I play soccer every Friday friend /frend/ Noun

a friend is someone you like and who you spend time with Collocates: meet a friend | a close friend | a best friend

I like to meet friends after work | Charles is a close friend of mine | I am very sad because my friends are not with me | I have lots of friends at school vacation /veɪ'keɪʃn/ Noun a vacation is a time when you do not have to work or go to school. If you go on vacation, you go and stay somewhere away from where you live to have a nice time

Collocate: go on vacation

she is in Spain on vacation | where do you go on vacation? | a summer vacation | a lovely vacation in Wales

Monday /'mʌndeɪ/ Noun

Monday is the first day of the week

I play soccer every Monday | see you next Monday | I go to work on Monday picnic /'pɪknɪk/ Noun a picnic is when you eat outside, usually in a park or on a beach. You take food with you and eat it with someone

Collocates: have a picnic | go on a picnic we have a picnic in the park | I want to go on a picnic with you | I like picnics in the summer place /pleɪs/ Noun

a place is a town or city, or an area or building in a town or city my town is a really boring place | this is a good place to live | what sort of place is Cardiff? | Greece is a nice place for a vacation post /pəʊst/ Verb

when you post something, for example, on social media, you put a picture or information on the internet

Collocate: post on social media post a photo on social media | post a photo online | post it on the internet

Noun: post

put a post online

Saturday /'sætədeɪ/ Noun

Saturday is the sixth day of the week what time do you get up on a Saturday? | we don't go to work on Saturday | can you come for lunch on Saturday?

Sunday /ˈsʌndeɪ/ Noun

Sunday is the seventh day of the week there's a concert this Sunday | she visits her aunt and uncle every Sunday | see you on Sunday

Thursday /ˈθɜːzdeɪ/ Noun

Thursday is the fourth day of the week the store stays open late on Thursday | it's my birthday next Thursday | we play tennis every Thursday time /taɪm/ Noun

when someone asks what the time is, the answer is something like eight o'clock, half past six, ten to three, etc.

what time do you have lunch? | the time is nine o'clock | what's the time?

today /tə'deɪ/ Adverb today is the present day, now today is a nice day | it is a hot day today | I'm happy today

Tuesday /ˈtjuːzdeɪ/ Noun

Tuesday is the second day of the week can we meet on Tuesday? | do you work on Tuesdays? | I go to school every Tuesday

Wednesday /ˈwenzdeɪ/ Noun

Wednesday is the third day of the week

I hope it doesn't rain on Wednesday | every Wednesday, we play basketball | can you come to lunch this Wednesday?

with /wɪð/ Preposition with means something has or is next to something else

I want to sit with you | he lives with his parents | I am with my sister now

Pages 24–25apartment /əˈpɑːtmənt/ Noun an apartment is a set of rooms for living in, usually on one floor of a building

I live in a two-bedroom apartment | my apartment is small | I want to buy an apartment cold /kəʊld/ Adjective

when it is cold, the temperature is not very high, for example, because it is winter or because it isn't sunny it's very cold outside | a cold winter morning | the weather in Canada is very cold in January degree /dɪˈɡriː/ Noun a degree is a unit of temperature. At 100 degrees Celsius, water boils, and at zero degrees Celsius, water freezes temperatures are around 36 degrees Celsius during the day | it's very cold outside, just two degrees | normal body temperature is about 37 degrees Celsius different /ˈdɪfrənt/ Adjective when two things or people are different, they are not the same Collocate: different from something or someone

I want a different job | my brother and I go to different schools | I work for a different company now | the boys have the same color hair but different color eyes | his second movie is very different from his first one

Noun: difference

Collocate: a difference between things there's a big difference between the two pictures group /ɡruːp/ Noun

a group is a number of people or things together

Collocates: a group of | in a group a group of people | work in a group of students | a group of teachers

hot /hɒt/ Adjective

when it is hot, the temperature is very high, for example, because the sun is very strong or because you have a heater on it's very hot outside | a hot summer morning | the weather in Qatar is very hot know /nəʊ/ Verb

when you know something, you understand it

I know the answer | do you know the answer to the question? | I don't know phew /fjuː/ Exclamation you say phew to show you are surprised or feel happy because something bad stops or doesn't start phew! It's cold today | phew, I'm happy we are home now | phew, we can stop now ready /ˈredi/ Adjective when you are ready to do something, you are able to do it now Collocates: ready to do something | ready for something are you ready to order now? | aren't you ready yet? | she is ready for school | I'm sixteen and I'm ready to leave home warm /wɔːm/ Adjective when it is warm, the temperature is not too hot and not too cold, but very nice it's lovely and warm this afternoon | a warm summer evening | it's warm so you don't need a coat where /weə/ Adverb

when you say where, you want to ask a question? about the location of something where are you? | where is my bag? | where do you live?

Pages 26–27

capital /'kæpɪt(ə)l/ Noun the capital or capital city of a country is the most important city, usually where the government is

Astana is the capital of Kazakhstan | what's the capital of Thailand? | she works in the capital | lots of people think New York is the capital of the U.S., but it isn't continent /'kɒntɪnənt/ Noun a continent is a large area of the world, for example, Asia, Africa, Europe, or the Americas

Asia is a big continent | Europe is a small continent | there are seven continents exercise /'eksəsaɪz/ Noun an exercise is a task you need to do complete the exercise | do the exercise | check your answers to the exercise next to /'nekst tə/ Preposition next to means something is side by side or very close sit next to me | can I stand next to you? | the school is next to the library plural /'plʊərəl/ Adjective the plural of a noun or verb is when there is more than one. For example, books is the plural of book the plural of "mouse" is "mice" | nouns can be singular or plural | we are learning plural nouns in class

Opposite – Adjective: singular what is the singular of "women"?

page /peɪdʒ/ Noun

a page is one piece of paper in a book

turn the page | look at the page | what information is on the page?

popular /'pɒpjʊlə/ Adjective when someone or something is popular, a lot of people like them or it he's very popular with his classmates | a popular TV show | her music is very popular all over the world | Miss Jenkins is a very popular teacher | Taylor Swift is a very popular singer similar /'sɪmɪl/ Adjective similar means things are almost the same but not 100% the same Collocate: similar to you are similar to your mom | the cars are similar | we are not similar Opposite – Adjective: different

Collocate: different from we are different from each other singular /'sɪŋɡjʊlə/ Adjective singular means one thing. The opposite is plural the singular of "apples" is "apple" | what is the singular of "cities"?

Opposite – Adjective: plural

"countries" is the plural of "country" symbol /'sɪmb(ə)l/ Noun a symbol is a picture or object that is used to show an idea or feeling Collocate: a symbol of something the symbol of England is a lion | it's a symbol of love | the dove (a kind of bird) is a symbol of peace | the Eiffel Tower is a symbol of Paris tourist /'tʊərɪst/ Noun a tourist is someone who is visiting somewhere on vacation or to have a good time

Times Square is full of tourists | a lot of tourists at the Eiffel Tower | a tourist bus | tourists spend a lot of money here | the bus takes tourists around the city

Noun: tourism

we want to have more tourism on the island what /wɒt/ Pronoun

you use what in a question to ask for information about someone or something what is your name? | what is the time? | what are you doing?

Pages 28–29

address /ə'dres/ Noun your address is the number of your house or apartment and the name of the street and town where you live tell me your address and telephone number | here's my new address | what's your address?

capital letter /'kæpɪtl 'letə/ Noun a capital letter is a big letter that you use for the beginning of the first word in a sentence. Some capital letters are a different shape from small letters, for example, G (and g), R (and r)

don't forget to start each sentence with a capital letter | the names of countries have a capital letter at the start | write your name in capital letters

card /kɑ:d/ Noun

a card is something you pay with that has money on it Collocate: card number

what is the card number? | pay by card | use your card document /'dɒkjʊmənt/ Noun a document is a piece of paper with information on it here are your documents | please give me your documents first name /'fɜ:st neɪm/ Noun your first name is the name you have that comes before your family name write your first name | what is your first name? | My first name is Johan form /fɔ:m/ Noun

a form is a document with places you write information about yourself

Collocates: complete a form | fill out a form complete the form | fill out the form with your information | send us a form help /help/ Noun uncount the act of helping someone to do something is called help tigers need our help | do you need some help? | thanks for your help | just ask for help if you need it can you help me? | thank you for helping me | he's always happy to help internet /'Intənɪt/ Noun the internet is the system that computers all over the world use to share information, pictures, etc.

Verb: help

I use the internet for my homework | look it up on the internet | an internet search key /ki:/ Noun

a key is a piece of metal with a special shape that you use to lock and unlock a door

I can't find my keys | this is the key to my apartment | put the car keys in your pocket last name /'la:st neɪm/ Noun your last name is your family name that follows your first name what is your last name? | my last name is Darcy | my last name is hard to spell cell /sɛl/ Noun

a cell or a cell phone is a telephone that you can carry around with you is this your cell? | don't take your cell into the classroom | what's your cell phone number?

online /'ɒnlain/ Adjective something that is online happens using the internet online shopping | online learning is very popular | an online history course | an online booking form

Adverb: online

I buy my train tickets online passport /'pɑ:spɔ:t/ Noun a passport is an official document like a little book that says who you are and what country you are from. You need a passport to go from one country into another country what's your passport number? | don't forget your passport | here's your passport personal information /'pɜ:sənəl ɪnfə'meɪʃən/ Noun uncount your personal information is things such as your name, age, address, etc.

write your personal information here phone number /'fəʊn nʌmbə/ Noun your phone number is the set of numbers that people need to know in order to call you what's your phone number? | I can't remember his phone number | tell me your phone number profile /'prəʊfaɪl/ Noun your profile is information about you online, such as your name, age, job, hobbies, favorite sports, etc.

write your profile | look at his profile registration /redʒɪ'streɪʃən/ Noun registration is when you first give information about something to join it or start it. For example, you complete a registration form when you join a class or course

Collocate: registration form

complete the registration form | the registration form is online | enter the registration number

Verb: register

register your name stress /stres/ Noun the stress in a word is the part of it that you say with the most force, e.g., the stress in "goodbye" is on "bye" the stress in the word "Vietnamese" is at the end | where is the stress in the word "photograph"?

ticket /'tɪkt/ Noun

a ticket is a piece of paper or an electronic message on your phone that you buy, for example, to go on a train or plane or to a concert have you got the tickets? | the tickets are $12 each | a ticket for the theater | a train ticket visa /'vi:zə/ Noun

a visa is a stamp or mark in your passport that means you can enter or stay in a country show me your visa | I got a visa for the U.S. | a tourist visa

Pages 30–31

bird /bɜ:d/ Noun

a bird is an animal that flies. It has wings (two things on the side of its body that makes it fly) watch the birds | I love birds | there are lots of birds by the lake boat /bəʊt/ Noun

a boat is a vehicle that travels on water we have a boat on the river | the boat is ten feet long | a boat with twenty people on it | I want to buy a boat bus /bʌs/ Noun

a bus is a vehicle like a very big car that can carry a lot of people

Collocate: by bus

I go to school by bus | the bus stops outside the movie theater | the bus is full | does this bus go to the station? | buses in London are red car /kɑ:/ Noun

a car is a vehicle that has an engine and four wheels, and that can carry people on roads my car is outside | you can park your car here | I want to sell my car | a big black car each /i:tʃ/ Determiner each means every individual person or thing each person in the room | each student has a book | I gave each of them a gift koala /kəʊˈɑːlə/ Noun a koala is a small animal with thick grey fur, large ears, and no tail. They are from Australia there is a koala in the tree | koalas sleep a lot | the baby koala is small nature /ˈneɪtʃə(r)/ Noun uncount nature is all the plants, animals, mountains, rivers, etc. that are not made by people

I'm interested in nature | a nature show on TV | she teaches children about nature plane /pleɪn/ Noun

a plane is a vehicle that flies in the air and carries people and things the plane carries 260 passengers | a ten-hour plane journey plant /plɑːnt/ Noun

a plant is a living thing such as a tree or a vegetable there's a plant inside | there are many plants in the garden state /steɪt/ Noun

a state is a large area of a country that has its own government there are 50 states in the United States | Queensland is a state in the north-east of Australia transportation /ˌtrænsˈpɔːrteɪʃn/ Noun uncount transportation is the way you move around. For example, a car, a bus, and a train are transportation

Collocate: public transportation

I take public transportation to work | the city has good transportation | a bus is a type of transportation tree /triː/ Noun

a tree is a big, tall plant with lots of branches and leaves

I like climbing trees | do you know the name of that tree? | it's a big tree | there are lots of trees in the park

Page 32

compare /kəmˈpeə/ Verb

when you compare something, you look at the things that are the same or different between things compare the answers | it's hard to compare these two books | let's compare our answers

UNIT 3: FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Page 33

boy /bɔɪ/ Noun

a boy is a young male person. A boy becomes a man when he grows up the two boys like to play in the garden | he's a nice boy | he's a boy in my class brother /'brʌðə/ Noun you have the same mom and dad as your brother. Your brother is a boy

I have one brother and one sister | her brother lives in Glasgow daughter /'dɔ:tə/ Noun someone's daughter is their female (girl) child we have two sons and a daughter | our daughter lives at home with us | his daughter is six months old describe /dɪ'skraɪb/ Verb when you describe something, you give information about it describe your favorite movie | it's hard to describe | can you describe it?

Noun: description

read the description family /'fæm(ə)li/ Noun your family are your mother, father, brothers, sisters, etc.

I have a big family | his family's from Japan | the Murillo family is from Colombia father /'fɑ:ðə/ Noun your father is the man who is your parent his father is English | my father is 65 | her father is a photographer | his father works in a factory girl /gɜ:l/ Noun

a girl is a young female person. A girl becomes a woman when she grows up the two girls like to play in the garden | she's a nice girl | she's a girl in my class mother /'mʌðə/ Noun your mother is the woman who is your parent his mother is Welsh | my mother is 48 | her mother is a photographer | his mother works in a factory sister /'sɪstə/ Noun you share the same mom and dad as your sister. Your sister is a girl

I have two sisters | her sister lives in Tokyo | I visit my sister at the weekend son /sʌn/ Noun someone's son is their male (boy) child my son is in college now | we have two sons and a daughter | our son lives at home with us | his son is six years old

Pages 34–35

children /'tʃɪldrən/ Noun plural children is the plural of child. A child is a young person who is not an adult yet the children like to play in the park | there are 30 children in my class at school | the children make a lot of noise coach /kəʊtʃ/ Noun

a coach is a person who teaches people how to do something, for example, a sport

Collocates: soccer coach | sports coach the coach helps us play better | she is a basketball coach | the team have a new soccer coach

Verb: coach

we're coaching the five- and six-year-olds cousin /'kʌzən/ Noun your cousin is the child of your aunt or uncle. Your aunt or uncle is the brother or sister of your mother or father

I have two cousins | she's my first cousin | we spend the summer with our cousins husband /'hʌzbənd/ Noun your husband is the man you are married to. When you are married, you have a legal relationship with them this is my husband, Luis | her husband is a doctor | my husband makes dinner

Opposite – Noun: wife

my wife is a teacher married /'mærid/ Adjective when you are married, you have a husband or wife Collocate: get married

he's married and has three children | are you married? | he doesn't want to get married | they are married will you marry me?

Verb: marry

parent /'peərənt/ Noun your parents are your father and mother my parents are both teachers | Luca's parents are from Italy | meet my parents player /'pleɪə/ Noun a player is someone who plays a sport she plays in the team | a good soccer player | a tennis player | there are eleven players in a soccer team

Verb: play

do you play tennis? | I like playing tennis team /ti:m/ Noun

a team is a group of people who do something together, for example, play a sport

Collocates: sports team | soccer team | basketball team

I play for a soccer team | the basketball team is good | I want to join a sports team wife /waɪf/ Noun your wife is the woman you are married to he has a wife and three children | his wife is a doctor | where does your wife work? | his wife is a famous singer young /jʌŋ/ Adjective someone who is young is not old young children | a young man

Pages 36–37about /ə'baʊt/ Preposition when you say about, you mean on the subject of something read about Lauren James | talk about the topic | I am worried about my exam beard /biəd/ Noun

a beard is the hair that grows on someone's face

Collocates: have a beard | grow a beard

I have a beard | my father has a long beard best friend /best 'frend/ Noun your best friend is the friend you know and like the most out of all your friends my best friend lives in the same street as me | who's your best friend? | my best friend lives in Australia now blonde /blɒnd/ Adjective blonde describes hair that is yellow in color

Collocate: blonde hair

my mom has blonde hair | he has blonde hair | my children are blonde classmate /'kla:smeɪt/ Noun a classmate is someone who is in the same class as you at school

I like most of my classmates | some of my classmates aren't very friendly | she's very popular with her classmates | one of my classmates is from Egypt eye /aɪ/ Noun

your eyes are the two round things on your face that you see with she has brown hair and blue eyes | I have something in my eye | open your eyes | close your eyes, I have a surprise for you hair /heə/ Noun uncount your hair is all the stuff that grows out of the top and sides of your head

I need to wash my hair | she has brown hair | he has short hair | her hair is long and straight how old /haʊ əʊld/ Phrase when you ask how old, you are asking someone their age how old are you? | how old is your brother? | how old is this car?

long /lɒŋ/ Adjective when someone's hair is long, it is past their shoulders Collocate: long hair

my brother has long hair | your hair is long | I like long hair

Opposite – Adjective: short

Collocate: short hair

I have short hair

old /əʊld/ Adjective

someone who is old is not young an old man | she's only 30, so she's not very old | my grandmother is really old school /sku:l/ Noun school is a place where people go to learn things. Most people go to school until they are about sixteen to eighteen years old

Collocates: go to school | be at school

Jack's not at home—he's at school | there are 800 students in my school | a school teacher short /ʃɔ:t/ Adjective someone who is short is not very tall both my parents are short | a short man with dark hair | everyone in his family is short

Opposite – Adjective: tall tall /tɔ:l/ Adjective when someone is tall, it is a long way from their feet to their head my father is very tall | a tall woman with fair hair | both his parents are tall

Opposite – Adjective: short

yourself /jɔ:'self/ Pronoun use yourself when you are talking about you write sentences about yourself | talk about yourself | look after yourself

Pages 38–39April /'eɪprəl/ Noun

April is the fourth month of the year my birthday is in April | Monday, April 20 | there are 30 days in April August /'ɔ:gəst/ Noun

August is the eighth month of the year

August is very hot in Spain | her birthday is in August | Tuesday, August 14 | there are 31 days in August birthday /'bɜːθdeɪ/ Noun your birthday is the day you were born. You usually do something special every year on the same day my birthday is in February | a birthday party | a birthday present | a birthday surprise | when is your birthday? | my birthday is on a Saturday this year | happy birthday! (what you say to someone on their birthday) celebration /ˌseləˈbreɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a celebration is an activity you do to show that a day or event or occasion is special a birthday celebration | a big celebration for the opening of the new school | there are celebrations across the city count /kaʊnt/ Verb

when you count, you say 1, 2, 3, 4, etc.

count the people | count the numbers | I can count to 100

December /dɪˈsembə/ Noun

December is the twelfth month of the year his birthday is in December | it gets very cold in December in Scotland | there are 31 days in December experience /ɪkˈspɪəriəns/ Noun an experience is something you do in your life have an experience | fun experiences | it's an amazing experience | a great experience

Verb: experience

I want to experience living in another country fantastic /fænˈtæstɪk/ Adjective something that is fantastic is very good this food is fantastic | we're having a fantastic vacation | the view from the hotel window is fantastic | a fantastic guitar player

February /ˈfebruəri/ Noun

February is the second month of the year her birthday is in February | February is a short month, with only 28 days | Friday, February 23 firework /ˈfaɪəwɜːk/ Noun a firework is a small thing that goes into the sky when it is dark and makes a loud noise and has different colors. They are usually used for different celebrations we watch the fireworks on New Year's Eve | the fireworks are amazing | there are many fireworks during the festival fun /fʌn/ Adjective when something is fun, you enjoy it a lot

Seoul is a fun city | she's such a fun person to be with | the party was fun

Noun: fun

Collocate: have fun have fun at the party important /ɪmˈpɔː(r)t(ə)nt/ Adjective when something or someone is important, they have a big effect or they have a lot of power

English and Spanish are important languages | it's very important that you don't arrive late | exercise is very important for your health | I have an important message for you

Collocates: important to someone | important for something it's important to protect the environment | the festival is important for families

January /ˈdʒænjuəri/ Noun

January is the first month of the year it snows in January | my birthday is in January | there are 31 days in January | New Year's Day is the first of January

July /dʒʊˈlaɪ/ Noun

July is the seventh month of the year we go on vacation in July | Monday, July 5 | there are 31 days in July | her birthday is in July

June /dʒuːn/ Noun

June is the sixth month of the year school finishes at the end of June | Tuesday, June 16 | there are 30 days in June | my dad's birthday is in June

March /mɑːtʃ/ Noun

March is the third month of the year it is still cold in March | Wednesday, March 6 | her birthday is in the middle of March | there are 31 days in March

May /meɪ/ Noun

May is the fifth month of the year there are 31 days in May | his birthday is in May | Saturday, May 17 meal /miːl/ Noun

a meal is some food that you eat at one time. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are meals a nice meal | we have a big meal in the evening month /mʌnθ/ Noun

a month is one of the twelve parts of a year. Months have 30 or 31 days, apart from February, which has 28

January is a cold month | the month of May

Mother's Day /ˈmʌðəz deɪ/ Noun

Mother's Day is a holiday where you celebrate mothers. Sometimes people give gifts or spend time together with their mother

Mother's Day is a different day every year in the U.K. | Mother's Day is in May in some countries | I give my mum a Mother's Day card neighbor /ˈneɪbə/ Noun

a neighbor is someone who lives in the house or apartment next to you my neighbor is very friendly | our neighbors are at the party | the new neighbors are nice

New Year /njuː jɪə/ Noun

New Year is the celebration of the beginning of the year we celebrate the New Year with friends | happy New Year! | New Year's parties are fun noisy /'nɔɪzi/ Adjective when something or someone is noisy, it makes a lot of sound the neighbors are noisy | our street is noisy at night | the classroom is noisy

Opposite – Adjective: quiet you are very quiet today

November /nəʊ'vembə/ Noun

November is the eleventh month of the year

Thanksgiving is the last Thursday in November in the U.S. | Monday, November 12 | my birthday is in November | there are 30 days in November

October /ɒk'təʊbə/ Noun

October is the tenth month of the year my birthday is in October | there are 31 days in October | Thursday, October 19 | it often rains in October question /'kwɛstʃ(ə)n/ Noun a question is something you ask someone Collocates: ask a question | answer a question does anyone have any questions for me? | can I ask you a question? | I can't answer your question | that's a very difficult question quiet /'kwaɪət/ Adjective quiet means there is no or little sound be quiet | the library is quiet | it's quiet in the morning race /reɪs/ Noun

a race is a sports event in which you try to go faster than everyone else in the competition the London Marathon is a race over 26 miles | Let's have a race! | a 100-meter race | the race starts at ten o'clock seconds /'sekəndz/ Noun plural seconds are units of time. There are 60 seconds in one minute count the seconds | how many seconds until the new year? | you have 30 seconds to finish

September /sep'tembə/ Noun

September is the ninth month of the year school starts in September | Wednesday, September 24 | there are 30 days in September | my birthday is in September special /'speʃəl/ Adjective when something is special, it is important to you a special day | she makes me feel special | today is a special day for our family street /stri:t/ Noun

a street is a place where there are houses, and cars can usually drive down it

I live on this street | we live on the same street | there are lots of stores on this street tablet /'tæblət/ Noun a tablet is a small, flat computer that you can carry around easily. You touch the screen to make it work you cannot take your tablet into the classroom | I prefer my tablet to my laptop | apps that work on phones and tablets together /tə'geðə/ Adverb when people or things are together, they are with each other or in the same place we like to go to the movie theater together | let's celebrate together | we work together very /'veri/ Adverb you say very when you want to say something is more or higher a very important day | it's very cold | you are very nice world /wɜ:lɪd/ Noun the world is the whole of the place where we live runners come here from all over the world | there are a lot of people in the world

Pages 40–41

actually /'æktʃuəli/ Adverb you use actually to say in fact or really actually, I'm 21 | she's a very good teacher, actually | he's actually very friendly chocolate /'tʃɒklət/ Noun chocolate is a sweet food that is usually brown or white

I love chocolate | I often have some chocolate after lunch | the chocolate cake is nice come /kʌm/ Verb to come means to go to a place come to my party! | please come here for a minute | can you come with me to the store?

congratulations /kən'grætʃʊ'leɪʃ(ə)nz/ Exclamation you say congratulations to someone to tell them you are pleased about a happy event in their life congratulations on your new baby | you've got a new job! Congratulations | congratulations on your exam results

Father's Day /'fa:ðəz deɪ/ Noun

Father's Day is a day when you celebrate fathers. Sometimes people give gifts or spend time together with their father happy Father's Day! | today is Father's Day | I visit my dad on Father's Day flower /'flaʊə(r)/ Noun flowers are the colored parts of a plant or tree that you see once a year for a while. People use flowers to make a room look nice those flowers smell lovely | I grow vegetables and flowers in the garden graduation /'grædʒu'eɪʃən/ Noun graduation is a ceremony at the end of college at which you receive your degree your graduation day is very special | congratulations on your graduation! | when is the graduation day?

house /haʊs/ Noun

a house is a building that a person or family lives in we live in a big house | my house is near my school | a family house | the party is at Jennifer's house invitation /ˌɪnvɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an invitation is when someone asks you if you would like to go to something that they are organizing

Collocates: an invitation to something | accept an invitation an invitation to Alice's wedding | a party invitation | we have 300 invitations | a printed invitation | they have an invitation to the party

Verb: invite

Collocate: invite someone to something let's invite Paul and Elizabeth to dinner | we can't invite everyone to the party kind /kaɪnd/ Adjective someone who is kind is nice and helpful to other people Collocate: be kind of someone she's always very kind and helpful | thank you, that's very kind of you | flowers—how kind!

new baby /nju: 'beɪbi/ Noun a new baby is a very young baby, just a few days old congratulations on your new baby | they have a daughter who is three, as well as a new baby party /'pɑ:ti/ Noun

a party is an event where people enjoy themselves by doing things like eating, dancing, and talking to each other the party is on Saturday | a birthday party | an invitation to a party | are you coming to the party on Saturday?

present /'prez(ə)nt/ Noun a present is something you give to someone, for example, when it is their birthday

Collocates: a birthday present | give someone a present

I need to buy my dad a birthday present | thank you for the present | a leaving present (a present given to someone when they leave their job) | open your present wedding /'wedɪŋ/ Noun

a wedding is an event at which two people get married my friend's wedding is in July | when is the wedding?

well done /wel 'dʌn/ Phrase when you say well done you are saying good things to someone about what they did well done on your exam results! | well done, you did an excellent job | well done, the presentation was great

Pages 42–43another /ə'nʌðə/ Determiner another means someone or people other than you here's another one | it's another person | I'll call you another day car race /'kɑ: reɪs/ Noun a car race is when cars are driving fast next to each other to win

Formula 1 is a car race | let's watch the car race on TV | the car race is very exciting connect /kə'nekt/ Verb when things connect, they join together let's connect on social media | I'm trying to connect the two things together | the phone connects to the internet festival /'festɪv(ə)l/ Noun a festival is a time when a lot of events take place somewhere, such as concerts, theater performances, movies, etc.

Collocate: a music/jazz/rock/theater festival a three-day rock festival | a festival of classical music | the festival is in November present /'preznt/ Noun

a present is something you give to someone for a special reason, for example, a birthday

Collocates: give a gift | buy a gift here's a present for your birthday | the present is nice | I need to buy a present for my mum goal /gəʊl/ Noun

a goal is something that you work toward and want to get or do

Collocates: achieve a goal | reach a goal she works hard to achieve her goals | can you reach your goal? | I have a goal interest /'ɪntrɪst/ Noun an interest is an activity that someone enjoys we have similar interests | her interests are reading and hiking | what are your hobbies and interests?

interesting /'ɪntrəstɪŋ/ Adjective someone who is interesting makes you want to listen to what they say because you want to know more about them we met some interesting people on vacation | her father's a very interesting man | an interesting talk about the history of Paris | she presents an interesting TV show every Wednesday local /'ləʊkəl/ Adjective when something is local to you, it is in your area or neighborhood a local festival | local people | we like to visit the local museum near /nɪə/ Adjective near means close to or not far from something

I live near here | we live near the train station | he sits near the window | there's a store near my house pancake /'pæŋkeɪk/ Noun a pancake is a flat, round thing that you cook and eat. Often, people eat them for breakfast

Collocates: make pancakes | eat pancakes

I make pancakes for breakfast | I love pancakes with strawberries partnership /'pɑ:tnəʃɪp/ Noun a partnership is an agreement where two or more people or companies work together the companies have a partnership | discuss the partnership | the team have a partnership with the company

Noun: partner

work with a partner record /rɪ'kɔ:d/ Verb when you record something, you film it record the presentation | record your new song | they record the interviews university /ˌju:nɪ'vɜ:(r)səti/ Noun a university is a place where people can study after they leave school, usually when they are between 18 and 21 years old

Collocates: go to university | be at university students go to university | I'm part of the university volunteer team | I study science at university

Page 44

card /kɑ:d/ Noun

a card is a piece of thick paper, often with a picture on one side, that you write a message on and send to someone

Collocate: a birthday card this card is for my brother | here is your birthday card men /men/ Noun plural men is the plural of man my father and brother are men women /'wɪmɪn/ Noun plural women is the plural of woman my sister and aunt are women

UNIT 4: PLACES

Page 45

airport /'eəpɔ:t/ Noun an airport is a place where planes take off (go into the air) and land (come down onto the ground)

let's meet at the airport tomorrow | I like to go to the airport to watch the airplanes bridge /brɪdʒ/ Noun

a bridge is a path or road that goes over something like a river or road there are 37 bridges across the River Seine in Paris | the Golden Gate Bridge is in the United States building /'bɪldɪŋ/ Noun a building is something such as a house or a store that has walls and usually doors and windows there are some very tall buildings in Shanghai | the museum is a beautiful building | the building is very old | a new building | the hospital buildings

Verb: build

they are building some new houses on my street center /'sentə(r)/ Noun the center of a town or city is the main part where there are a lot of stores and offices let's take a taxi to the center of town | there's a parking lot in the town center city hall /sɪti 'hɔ:l/ Noun city hall is the building where the government of a city has their offices we went to city hall for a meeting | he works at city hall | the city hall is in the center of the town famous /'feɪməs/ Adjective when lots of people know about something, that thing is famous the Eiffel Tower is very famous | he is a famous photographer | she's a famous tennis player light /laɪt/ Noun

a light is an object that uses electricity and makes light, to help you see when it's dark look at the lights | the street lights are on at night | please turn off the light office /'ɒfɪs/ Noun an office is a building or a room where people work, usually sitting at desks my office is on the second floor | a big office | I don't want to work in an office | come into my office, please

Pages 46–47

bank /bæŋk/ Noun

a bank is a building that keeps people's money, and where you can go to get some of your money when you need it the bank opens at nine in the morning | she works in a bank | where is the bank?

bus station /'bʌs steɪʃn/ Noun a bus station is a place where buses start and end their journeys meet me outside the bus station | the bus station is in the center of town | get off at the bus station | can you tell me where the bus station is?

parking lot /'pɑ:kɪŋ lɒt/ Noun a parking lot is a place where you can leave your car for a while the parking lot is full | the store has a parking lot behind it | the airport parking lot is expensive | you have to pay to use the parking lot movie theater /'muvi 'θiətər/ Noun a movie theater is a theater where you can go and watch movies there are two movie theaters in my town | it costs $12 to get into the movie theater | there's a good movie on at the movie theater

I'm not sure /aɪm nɒt 'ʃʊə/ Phrase you say I'm not sure when you don't know the answer to a question that someone asks you

"is Danny coming to the party?" — "I'm not sure" information center /ɪnfə'meɪʃ(ə)n ˌsentə/ Noun an information center is a place where you can get information about museums, restaurants, hotels, etc. when you visit a town or city where's the information center? | there's an information center at the station | does the information center have a website?

hospital /'hɒspɪt(ə)l/ Noun a hospital is a place where doctors and nurses help people who are sick or hurt she works in the hospital | ambulances bring people to the hospital | the hospital is very busy in the winter market /'mɑ:kɪt/ Noun a market is a place in a town where people bring things to sell. Some towns have a market once a week in the main square or in the streets there's a market here every Wednesday | a fish market (where they sell fish) | a street market (in the streets) museum /mju:'zi:əm/ Noun a museum is a building where people can go and look at interesting things about art, history, science, etc.

the museum is near the train station | when is the museum open? | she works in the museum | the Science Museum in London gets lots of visitors new /nju:/ Adjective something that is new is not old she has a new car | a new video game | the supermarket is new | the car needs two new tires

old /əʊld/ Adjective

something that is old is not new an old car | the building is very old | we live in an old house opposite /'ɒpəzɪt/ Adjective opposite means on the other side of something the building is opposite my house | the supermarket is opposite the library | he lives on the opposite side of town supermarket /'su:pəmə:kɪt/ Noun a supermarket is a large store that sells lots of different sorts of food and other things

I need to go to the supermarket | I do my shopping at the supermarket | he works in the supermarket train station /'treɪn ˌsteɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a train station or a station is a place where trains stop to let passengers get on and get off it's a five-minute walk to the train station | the hotel is next to the train station | let's meet outside the station | where is the train station?

Pages 48–49excuse me /ɪk'skju:z mi:/ Phrase when you say excuse me to someone, you want to talk to them excuse me, can you help me? | excuse me, where is the café? | excuse me, may I ask a question?

ferry /'feri/ Noun

a ferry is a boat or a ship that people take to go from one place to another

Collocates: take a ferry | ferry stop we take the ferry to the island | the ferry ride is short | the ferry leaves every hour | we wait at the ferry store map /mæp/ Noun

a map is a drawing of a place such as a town, city, or country, which shows the streets, rivers, mountains, etc.

can you show me your street on the map? | a map of Berlin | a street map of London (giving the names of all the streets) | a tourist map | can you read a map? | the map shows how high the hills are midday /'mɪd'deɪ/ Noun midday is twelve o'clock in the middle of the day we have lunch at midday | it's very hot at midday | the midday sun

Opposite – Noun: midnight midnight /'mɪdnaɪt/ Noun midnight is twelve o'clock in the middle of the night the train arrives at midnight | the party ends at midnight

Opposite – Noun: midday

phone /fəʊn/ Noun a phone is something you use to contact people. You make calls and send messages

Collocates: phone number | phone call

I need a new phone | is this your phone number? | a receptionist answers questions on the phone

Verb: phone

I'll phone you later stop /stɒp/ Verb

a stop is a place you wait for transport to collect you, for example, a bus, a ferry wait at the bus stop | the ferry stop is opposite the train station | where is the bus stop?

Verb: stop

can you stop the bus, please?

town /taʊn/ Noun

a town is a place with a lot of buildings where people live.

A town is larger than a village and smaller than a city

I live in a small town near Bratislava | Farnham is a nice town | the town center | a busy town

Pages 50–51art /ɑ:(r)t/ Noun uncount art is things like paintings, drawings, etc. that people enjoy looking at there is art on the street | his art is fantastic | an art teacher | you learn about art in this museum

Noun: artist

Yayoi Kusama and Damien Hirst are artists | she wants to be an artist artist /'ɑ:tɪst/ Noun an artist is someone who makes art, for example, paintings and drawings the artist paints beautiful pictures | she's a very good artist | he's a famous artist

Noun: art

I'm studying art at school century /'sentʃəri/ Noun a century is 100 years

Collocate: 21st century we live in the 21st century | this building is from the 18th century | an old painting from the 16th century contemporary /kən'tempərəri/ Adjective contemporary means modern or of the present time

Collocate: contemporary art the contemporary art museum in Kanazawa | she enjoys contemporary music | the exhibition shows contemporary artists exhibition /ˈeksɪˈbɪʃən/ Noun an exhibition is where you can go to see different art or objects from artists Collocate: art exhibition

we visit the a lot of art exhibitions | the museum has a new exhibition | the exhibition has modern paintings expensive /ɪkˈspensɪv/ Adjective something that is expensive costs a lot of money an expensive watch | I like expensive clothes | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us | an expensive meal

Opposite – Adjective: cheap

a cheap hotel | the tickets for the concert are cheap garden /ˈɡɑːd(ə)n/ Noun a garden is a piece of land outside a house where you can grow flowers, trees, etc. and there is usually an area of grass we have a big garden behind our house | we sit in the garden in the afternoon | the children like to play in the garden | do you have a garden?

open /ˈəʊpən/ Adjective when a store, business, park, etc. is open, people can go into it the art gallery is open every day | the museum is open from ten until five | are the stores open yet? | the park is open all day

Verb: open || Opposite – Adjective: closed the stores open at nine in the morning | they open the park early on weekends | the stores are closed now opinion /əˈpɪnjən/ Noun someone's opinion is what they think and believe Collocate: in my opinion

what's the writer's opinion? | in my opinion, it's a good movie | what's your opinion?

review /rɪˈvjuː/ Noun a review is when someone gives an opinion on something and writes about it, for example, a restaurant, a book, a movie here's a review of the new book | she writes reviews of restaurants | the movie has good reviews star /stɑː/ Noun

a star is something you see in the sky at night

I see the stars | the stars are bright tonight | there are lots of stars swimming pool /ˈswɪmɪŋ puːl/ Noun a swimming pool is somewhere you can go to swim. It is full of water and can be inside or outside Collocate: go in a swimming pool we are at the swimming pool | does the hotel have a swimming pool? | do you want to go in the swimming pool?

Noun: swim | Noun: swimmer | Verb: swim

they're swimming in the sea | let's go for a swim | can you swim?

visit /ˈvɪzɪt/ Verb when you visit somewhere, you go to a place to see it for a short time

I visit Florence every year | where is an interesting place to visit in Peru? | I go to visit my friends in the city

Pages 52–53

about /əˈbaʊt/ Preposition when you say about, you are referring to something read about the artist | talk about the topic | I am worried about my exam amazing /əˈmeɪzɪŋ/ Adjective when something is amazing, you think it is surprising and it makes you think it is good elephants are amazing animals | there's an amazing view from our hotel window | the food here is amazing | an amazing vacation anything else /ˈeniθɪŋ els/ Phrase when you say the phrase anything else, you are asking if there is more that someone wants would you like anything else? | is there anything else I can help you with? | do you need anything else?

apple /ˈæp(ə)l/ Noun an apple is a fruit with a red or green skin eat an apple a day—it's good for you | a kilogram of apples | can I have an apple, please? | would you like an apple?

banana /bəˈnɑːnə/ Noun a banana is a long curved fruit with a thick skin. It is green when it is on the tree and ready to eat when it becomes yellow a kilogram of bananas | would you like a banana? | these bananas are still green | a nice yellow banana buy /baɪ/ Verb

when you buy something, you get it by paying money for it

I want to buy a new phone | let's buy a gift for our teacher | we need to buy some food for dinner cake /keɪk/ Noun cake is a sweet food made with flour, eggs, and sugar, and sometimes also with fruit or chocolate. You cook it by baking it in an oven a piece of cake | a birthday cake | the store sells lovely cakes | would you like some cake?

city center /ˈsɪti ˈsentə/ Noun the city center is the part in the middle of a city, usually where all the stores, theaters, restaurants, etc. are the station is in the city center | hotels in the city center are very expensive | we live in the city center | take the bus to the city center coffee /ˈkɒfi/ Noun uncount coffee is a drink made from the dark beans of a coffee plant a cup of coffee | I like coffee in the morning and tea in the afternoon | make some coffee cookie /ˈkʊki/ Noun a cookie is a small, sweet food. It is round and flat. In British English, they are called biscuits eat a cookie | make cookies | I'd like some cookies with milk day trip /deɪ tri:p/ Phrase when you take a day trip, you have fun in a new place for one day

Collocate: take a day trip take a day trip to the countryside | they are on a day trip at the beach | go on a day trip to the city dollar /ˈdɒlə/ Noun dollars are the money they use in the United States the T-shirt costs 10 dollars | can you give me five dollars?

food /fu:d/ Noun uncount food is things like bread, vegetables, meat, and fish, that you eat in order to live

Thai food is very good | is there any food? I'm hungry | the food in the hotel isn't very good | do you like Italian food? (the sort of food people eat in Italy) | let's have some food fruit juice /ˈfru:t dʒu:s/ Noun uncount fruit juice is the liquid you get from inside a fruit, such as an orange or an apple a bottle of fruit juice | would you like some fruit juice? | I drink fruit juice for breakfast | is there any fruit juice in the fridge?

here you are /ˈhɪə ju: ə/ Phrase you say here you are as you give something to someone you need your keys—here you are | I have your passport—here you are large /lɑ:dʒ/ Adjective something that is large is very big he lives in a large apartment in Bangkok | I need a cup of coffee, a large one | Seoul is a very large city medium /ˈmi:diəm/ Adjective when something is medium, it is not big or small. It is in the middle size would you like small, medium, or large? | I'm a medium size | do you have this T-shirt in medium?

price /praɪs/ Noun the price of something is how much it costs what's the price of that sofa? | prices in this supermarket are very high | that's a good price (not expensive) salad /ˈsæləd/ Noun salad is a dish of cold vegetables that you do not cook

I like to eat a salad for lunch | a salad of tomatoes, onions, and lettuce sandwich /ˈsænwɪtʃ/ Noun a sandwich is two pieces of bread with some other food in between them, such as cheese, that you eat take some sandwiches for your lunch | can I have that sandwich, please? | what's in your sandwich?

snack /snæk/ Noun

a snack is a bit of food that people eat between meals

Collocate: have a snack

we can have a snack on the train | have a snack before you go | do you have time for a snack? | take a snack with you soup /su:p/ Noun uncount soup is a food that is made with meat or vegetables and is mostly liquid a bowl of tomato soup | I like chicken soup | let's have some soup for lunch tea /ti:/ Noun uncount tea is a drink made by putting hot water onto dry leaves from a tea plant a cup of tea | would you like milk in your tea? | do you prefer tea or coffee?

trip /trɪp/ Noun

a trip is a journey you make somewhere

I hope you have a good trip | go on a trip to see the Taj Mahal in India | a three-week trip across the United States writer /ˈraɪtə(r)/ Noun a writer is someone who writes books, or who writes for newspapers or magazines

Dickens is a famous writer | J.K. Rowling is my favorite writer | a great writer

Verb: write

he likes to write books | write your name here

Pages 54–55

agree /ə'gri:/ Verb

when you agree, you think or believe the same as someone else

Collocates: agree with | agree to

I agree with you on this | we agree that it is a great house | he doesn't agree with me lake /leɪk/ Noun

a lake is a large area of water that has land around it we swim in the lake | the house has a beautiful view of the lake | they have a house by the lake shopping /ˈʃɒpɪŋ/ Noun uncount shopping is the activity of buying things from stores

Collocate: go shopping do you go shopping on Sundays? | I think shopping is boring

Noun: shopper

the stores are very busy on Saturday | the streets are full of shoppers sign /saɪn/ Noun

a sign is a thing with writing or pictures on it that tells you something or gives you information the name of the store is on the sign | can you see what that sign says? | the sign outside the restaurant says "Closed on Sundays" | look for the door with a sign that says "Entrance"

Page 56

mineral water /ˈmɪnərəl wɔ:tə/ Noun uncount mineral water is water that is from the ground and that you buy in a bottle to drink a one-liter bottle of mineral water | a glass of cold mineral water | there's some mineral water in the fridge | I drink mineral water in the afternoon

UNIT 5: HOBBIES

Page 57

basketball /'bɑːskɪtbɔːl/ Noun uncount basketball is a game that you play inside an area. Players try to throw the ball through a metal circle at each end of the area

Collocates: play basketball | a basketball match do you play basketball? | we play basketball every Friday | a basketball game | she's a good basketball player competition /kəmpeɪ'tɪʃən/ Noun a competition is an activity where people try to win something or be more successful than someone else

Collocate: win a competition the prize for the competition is thousands of dollars | they are in the singing competition together | she wants to win the golf competition dislikes /dɪs'laɪks/ Noun plural dislikes are things a person does not like or enjoy they discussed their likes and dislikes | what are your dislikes? | I have some strong dislikes

Verb: dislike || Opposite – Noun: likes

I dislike cold food final /'faɪnəl/ Adjective when something is final, it is last or at the end the final day of the competition | this is our final lesson of the day | this is your final test of the year game /geɪm/ Noun

a game is an activity that people play for fun. It is often a competition, which follows rules watch the soccer game | a video game | the team plays a game against another team | the children like this game golf /gɒlf/ Noun

golf is a sport where players use sticks called clubs to hit a small ball into holes on a course

Collocates: golf course | play golf they play golf in the afternoon | the golf course is near the beach half /hɑːf/ Adjective half means 50% of something

Collocate: half a day you can study here for half a day | we spend half the day at the beach | half of the students are sick today hundred /'hʌndrəd/ Noun a hundred is the number 100 it costs a hundred dollars | there are six hundred students in my school | three hundred people live in the village | the book is four hundred pages long lady /'leɪdi/ Noun

a lady is a woman

a nice lady | the lady that lives next door | do you know that lady?

likes /laɪks/ Noun plural likes are things a person enjoys what are your likes and dislikes? | he has many likes, including soccer and tennis | talk about your likes and dislikes

Verb: like || Opposite – Noun: dislikes

I like spending time outside love /lʌv/ Verb

when you love something or someone, you really, really like it they love their sport | I love listening to music

Opposite – Verb: hate

I hate cleaning!

million /'mɪljən/ Noun a million is the number 1,000,000 the World Cup prize is thirty million dollars | a house that costs a million dollars | the population of the U.K. is about sixty-eight million money /'mʌni/ Noun uncount money is what you give someone when you buy something how much money do you have with you? | do you have enough money for the train ticket?

play /'pleɪ/ Verb

when you play a game or sport, you do it they like to play soccer in the park | I play tennis every Thursday | do you play baseball? | let's play chess

Noun: player

a soccer player prize /praɪz/ Noun

a prize is something you get for winning a competition

Collocates: win a prize | first, second, etc. prize the prize is $200 | the competition prize is ten thousand dollars sport /spɔːt/ Noun sport is games like soccer, basketball, or tennis what is your favorite sport? | I hate sport thousand /'θaʊz(ə)nd/ Noun a thousand is the number 1,000 it's a thousand kilometers from here to Bratislava | the city has a population of thirty-five thousand

Pages 58–59

ball /bɔːl/ Noun

a ball is a round object you use in games and sports

Collocates: kick a ball | catch a ball catch the ball | I want to buy a new ball for the dog | kick the ball into the goal baseball /'beɪsbɔːl/ Noun uncount baseball is a game played outside, where players try to hit a ball and run round a field baseball is a sport for two teams | do you like baseball?

bike /baɪk/ Noun a bike is something with two wheels that you ride. You move it along by pushing the pedals with your feet. Bike is short for bicycle

Collocate: ride a bike

she can ride a bike | I ride my bike to work every day breakfast /ˈbrekfəst/ Noun breakfast is a meal that you eat in the morning Collocates: have breakfast | have something for breakfast what's for breakfast? | I have bread and jam for breakfast | what time do you have breakfast? | it's important to eat a good breakfast club /klʌb/ Noun

a club is a group of people who like doing the same activity together

I'm in a painting club | the club meets every Wednesday evening | a tennis club cycling /ˈsaɪklɪŋ/ Noun uncount cycling is the sport or activity of riding a bicycle his brother is very good at cycling | we're in a cycling club

Verb: cycle

they cycle many kilometres each day rugby /ˈrʌɡbi/ Noun uncount rugby is a sport in which players run with a ball and try to get points by getting the ball over another team's line

Collocates: play rugby | rugby team | rugby match

she plays rugby for a local team | the rugby match is very exciting | we like to watch rugby on TV running /ˈrʌnɪŋ/ Noun uncount running is the action or sport of running a running race | she's very good at running | I don't like running Noun: run | Noun: runner | Verb: run let's run | the runners are ready to start the race | she can run very fast swimming /ˈswɪmɪŋ/ Noun uncount swimming is the sport or activity of swimming

Collocates: swimming pool | swimming costume do you want to go swimming? | I love swimming | we go swimming every Saturday | a swimming pool (an area of water which people can swim in) | a swimming costume (what people wear when they go swimming)

Noun: swim | Noun: swimmer | Verb: swim

they like to swim in the sea | let's go for a swim | a strong swimmer | can you swim?

team sport /ti:m spɔ:t/ Noun a team sport is a sport in which people play together as part of a team against another team soccer is my favorite team sport | it is good for people to play team sports | rugby is a popular team sport in many countries tennis /ˈtenɪs/ Noun uncount tennis is a game in which you hit a ball over a net

I play tennis every weekend | a game of tennis triathlon /traɪˈæθlən/ Noun triathlon is a sport in which people swim, ride a bike, and then run in a race a triathlon is very difficult | a triathlon starts with a one-kilometer swim

TV /tiːvi:/ Noun

a TV is a television—a machine in your house that shows moving pictures and sounds

Collocates: be on TV | watch TV

what's on TV tonight? | they like watching sports on TV | a new TV volleyball /ˈvɒlibɔ:l/ Noun uncount volleyball is a game in which two teams of six players use their hands to hit a large ball to the other team over a high net while trying not to let the ball touch the ground on their side

Collocates: play volleyball | volleyball court

we play volleyball at the beach | volleyball is a sport for two teams

Pages 60–61

action movie /ˈækʃən ˈmuvi/ Noun an action movie is a type of movie in which a lot of exciting things happen

I love action movies | does she like action movies?

doctor /ˈdɒktə/ Noun

a doctor is a person who looks after people who are not well

I want to be a doctor | he is a doctor | I'm not well—I need to see the doctor especially /ɪˈspeʃəli/ Adverb when you say especially, you mean something is more important than other things

I love ice cream, especially chocolate | she loves animals, especially koalas fashion /ˈfæʃən/ Noun uncount fashion is about the styles of clothes and things people wear she doesn't like fashion very much | he goes to fashion events movie /ˈmuvi/ Noun

a movie is moving pictures that tell a story. You can watch movies on television, in a movie theater, or over the internet what time does the movie start? | I like to watch movies on TV | it's a boring movie fish /fɪʃ/ Noun

a fish is an animal that lives in water. Fish can be eaten as food

I don't like eating fish | are there any fish in the river?

fishing /ˈfɪʃɪŋ/ Noun uncount fishing is the activity of catching fish

She enjoys fishing with his father | fishing is his hobby hip hop /hɪp hɒp/ Noun hip hop is a style of music where people speak but don't sing does she like hip hop music?

hobby /'hɒbi/ Noun someone's hobby is an activity that they do because they like it my hobbies are reading and cycling | do you have any hobbies?

interest /'ɪntrəst/ Noun your interests are the things that you enjoy doing my interests are music, sports, and travel | what are your interests?

job /dʒɒb/ Noun someone's job is the work that they do every day in order to earn money he has a job in a factory | do you enjoy your job? | it's a very interesting job kilogram /'kɪləgræm/ Noun a kilogram is a way of measuring how heavy or light something is. A kilogram is 1,000 grams how many kilograms is this box? | the baby weighs three kilograms | the fish is about five kilograms member /'membə(r)/ Noun a member is someone who belongs to an organization or group of people we're both members of the tennis club | there are four members in my family monster fish /'mɒnstə fɪʃ/ Noun monster fish are very large fish his videos about monster fish are amazing | that's a monster fish | we can see a monster fish in the river music /'mju:zɪk/ Noun uncount music is pleasant sounds made by singing or by playing instruments like pianos, guitars, etc.

I like listening to music | she's studying music in college | rock music | classical music | pop music podcast /'pɒdkɑ:st/ Noun a podcast is something you listen to that is like a radio show, but online. Podcasts have different topics and different parts called episodes Collocate: listen to a podcast she listens to podcasts when she's at home | the podcast is about history | it's an interesting podcast presenter /prɪ'zentə/ Noun a presenter is someone who introduces the different sections of a TV show or podcast my parents are TV presenters professor /prə'fesə/ Noun a professor is a teacher at a university or college. They are different to a teacher because they don't teach in a school Collocate: university professor she is a professor at the university | the professor knows a lot about maths punk /pʌŋk/ Noun uncount punk is a style of rock music from the 70s and early 80s that is loud they listen to punk rock music | punk music is not very popular now | the band plays punk music science fiction /ˌsaɪəns 'fɪkʃən/ Noun uncount science fiction is a type of movie, book, or TV show that is about the future, technology, space, and other things like this. Sometimes, it is called sci-fi watch a science fiction movie | I like to read science fiction books | science fiction is interesting scientist /'saɪəntɪst/ Noun a scientist is someone whose job is to study subjects such as physics, chemistry, or biology I want to be a scientist | the scientists visit schools | she's a scientist Noun: science

my mother studies science in college | a science teacher scuba diving /'sku:bə ˌdaɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount scuba diving is the sport or activity of swimming under water using special equipment to help you breathe a scuba diving vacation | do you like scuba diving? | scuba diving is fantastic show /ʃəʊ/ Noun

a show is a program on TV or something you watch he doesn't like wildlife shows | this is a new TV show | it's a popular show on Netflix story /'stɔ:ri/ Noun a story is a description of events from start to finish that can be real or not real. The plural is stories. Books often tell stories it is a good story | the story is about a man in space | I love writing stories true crime /tru: 'kraɪm/ Noun true crime is when something talks about activities that are not allowed by law, what happened during them, and at the end Collocate: true crime podcast I love to listen to true crime podcasts | true crime podcasts are very popular | he loves watching true crime shows on TV video game /'vɪdɪəʊ geɪm/ Noun a video game is a game that you play on a computer, which has moving pictures I've got a new video game | an exciting video game wildlife show /'waɪldlaɪf ʃəʊ/ Noun a wildlife show is a TV program that gives information about animals, plants, etc.

David Attenborough makes wildlife shows | I like wildlife shows wow /waʊ/ Exclamation when you say wow, you show you are surprised about something wow, that's a big fish! | wow, that's amazing! | wow, that's great! | wow, what a beautiful painting!

Pages 62–63

autistic /ɔː'tɪstɪk/ Adjective when someone is autistic, their brain works in a different way to many other people. They may have different ways to communicate or take longer to understand information. They have something called autism her son is autistic and loves numbers | the photographer is autistic | he works with autistic students cook /kʊk/ Verb

when you cook food, you get it ready to eat by making it hot cook the chicken for an hour | a chef cooks food | he likes to cook cooking /'kʊkɪŋ/ Noun uncount cooking is the activity of getting food ready to eat by making it hot

I really enjoy cooking | do you enjoy cooking? | a book about cooking dance /dɑːns/ Verb

when you dance, you move your body to music

I love to dance | I love this song—let's dance | they dance together every weekend dancing /'dɑːnsɪŋ/ Noun uncount dancing is the activity of moving around in time with music for fun do you enjoy dancing? | dancing is her hobby draw /drɔː/ Verb

when you draw, you make a picture with a pen or pencil my son likes to draw pictures of cars | she loves to draw pictures of animals | draw a line on the paper | I like to draw in my free time they are drawings of cities drawing /'drɔːɪŋ/ Noun a drawing is a picture you make with a pen or pencil

Stephen's drawings are very big | his drawings are of cities | it is a drawing of Mexico City drive /draɪv/ Verb when you drive a car, you control it while it is moving he drives a taxi | my brother can't drive

Noun: drive | Noun: driver a 20-minute drive to work | she's a good driver finish /'fɪnɪʃ/ Verb when you finish something or finish doing something, you stop doing it. If something finishes, it stops

I finish work at six | school finishes at four o'clock follower /'fɒləʊə/ Noun a follower is someone who supports you on social media by liking and subscribing to you

Collocate: social media followers

I have lots of social media followers | he has a few followers on Instagram | 10,000 new followers

Verb: follow

follow my channel on YouTube guitar /gɪ'tɑː/ Noun

a guitar is a musical instrument with six strings that you play with your fingers

I like to play the guitar | he's a good guitar player | can you play the guitar?

learning /'lɜː(r)ɪnɪŋ/ Noun uncount learning is the activity of studying something in detail and getting to know a lot about it learning to read is important | schools are for teaching and learning meter /'mi:tə/ Noun a meter is something you can use to say how long something is. A meter is 100 centimeters it is four meters long | the table is two meters long | the building is 50 meters high painting /'peɪntɪŋ/ Noun uncount painting is the activity of making pictures using paint and a brush we do painting at school | I enjoy painting | she's good at painting

Noun: painter | Noun: painting | Verb: paint

he's a famous painter | a painting by Leonardo da Vinci photographic memory /'fəʊtə'græfɪk 'meməri/ Noun when you have a photographic memory, you can remember information or pictures very well

Collocate: have a photographic memory the man has a photographic memory | she has a photographic memory and can remember everything she reads piano /pi'ænəʊ/ Noun a piano is a large musical instrument that you play by pushing keys can you play the piano? | there's a piano on the stage picture /'pɪktʃə(r)/ Noun a picture is a drawing, painting, or photo of someone or something Collocate: a picture of someone or something there's a nice picture on the wall | here is a picture of my family

play /pleɪ/ Verb

when you play, you do an activity like a sport or play an instrument

Collocates: play soccer | play the piano

I like to play soccer with friends | I play rugby on Fridays | she plays the piano in the evening remember /rɪ'membə(r)/ Verb when you remember someone or something, it is still in your mind and you can talk about it or repeat it he can remember the story | do you remember the history lesson? | I can't remember where she lives sing /sɪŋ/ Verb

when you sing, or sing a song, you make musical sounds with your voice please sing us a song | let's sing while we're waiting | she sings very well | I can't sing very well

Noun: singing | Noun: singer

I enjoy singing | who's your favorite singer?

taxi /'tæksi/ Noun

a taxi is a car that takes people to where they want to go. People pay for a taxi

Collocates: take a taxi | taxi driver

let's call a taxi to take us to the airport | it's faster to take a taxi than the bus | the taxi driver is very friendly

Pages 64–65activity /æk'tɪvɪti/ Noun an activity is something people do for fun plan an activity for the weekend | swimming is my favorite outdoor activity | we have some fun activities for the kids boring /'bɔːrɪŋ/ Adjective when something is boring, it is not interesting the movie is really boring | it's a boring book burger /'bɜːɡə/ Noun a burger is a piece of food that is flat and in a circle. It is usually meat let's make some burgers | a burger and chips | this burger tastes great easy /'iːzi/ Adjective when something is easy, it is not difficult to do the test is very easy | this is an easy task for me | cooking this dish is really easy

Adverb: easily || Opposite – Adjective: hard

she understands things easily | the question is hard to answer hard /hɑːd/ Adjective when something is hard, it is very difficult and needs a lot of effort Collocate: hard work

the triathlon is a very hard event | learning a language is hard work | a hard exam | a hard game of tennis

Opposite – Adjective: easy the exam is easy how about /haʊ ə'baʊt/ Phrase when you say how about you are suggesting something to someone how about we play soccer? | how about we go to the movie theater tonight? | how about trying a new restaurant?

idea /aɪ'diə/ Noun an idea is a thought or plan that someone thinks of that's a great idea (a very good plan) | I have an idea | she has an interesting idea | tell me your idea

I'm sorry /aɪm 'sɒri/ Phrase when you say I'm sorry, you apologize for something Collocates: I'm sorry for | I'm sorry about

I'm sorry that I upset you | I'm sorry I'm late | I'm really sorry about the mistake invite /ɪn'vaɪt/ Verb when you invite someone to something, you ask them to do something with you

I want to invite you to my party | I hope they invite me to join the team | let's invite Nadine to your party

Noun: invite | Noun: invitation

I have an invite to the party | let's send invitations to everyone let me know /ˌlet mi 'nəʊ/ Phrase when you say let me know, you want someone to tell you something let me know if you need any help | please let me know when you arrive | let me know what time works for you lunch /lʌntʃ/ Noun

lunch is the meal that you eat in the middle of the day

Collocates: have lunch | have something for lunch | go out for lunch what time do you have lunch? | lunch is at 12:30 | don't be late for lunch | let's go out for lunch of course /ɒv kɔːs/ Adverb you use of course to show that you agree with someone and can do what they are asking you to do

"is there wi-fi in the hotel room?"—"of course. Here's the password" | "can you call me a taxi?"—"of course. I can do it immediately" open air /əʊpən 'eə/ Adjective when something is open air, it is outside and does not have walls or a roof Collocate: open air movie theater let's go to the open air movie theater | there is an open air movie theater here in the summer | we are at an open air concert pasta /'pæstə/ Noun uncount pasta is a food from Italy that you make from flour and water. You cook it in water before you eat it do you want more pasta? | a pasta sauce | a bowl of pasta | cook the pasta for five minutes response /rɪ'spɒns/ Noun a response is a reply to something that someone says Collocate: get a response

please can I have a response to my question? | she wants a response to her email | his response is polite

Verb: respond

please respond to my email suggestion /sə'dʒestʃ(ə)n/ Noun when you make a suggestion, you describe a plan or possibility for someone to think about

I agree with Malcolm's suggestion | does anyone have any suggestions for a good hotel in Brighton? | tell your students to make suggestions for the correct answer can you suggest an answer to the problem?

Verb: suggest

terrible /'terɪbəl/ Adjective when something is terrible, it is very bad or not nice the weather is terrible | make a terrible mistake | a terrible story | terrible news tomorrow /tə'mɒrəʊ/ Adverb tomorrow is the day that follows today it's my birthday tomorrow | tomorrow is Tuesday tonight /tə'naɪt/ Adverb tonight is the night of today see you tonight | the concert is tonight at 7 p.m. weekend /wi:k'end/ Noun the weekend is Saturday and Sunday (or, in some countries, Friday and Saturday), when most people do not have to work

Collocates: this weekend | next weekend

let's go to the beach this weekend | have a nice weekend

Pages 66–67

at first /æt 'fɜːst/ Phrase when you say at first, you are talking about the beginning or start of something at first, he is happy | at first, he doesn't understand the instructions | it is difficult at first, but it gets easier at the end /æt ði 'end/ Phrase when you say at the end, you are talking about the last part of what someone does or says at the end, he is happy | at the end of the movie, everyone is sad | I don't know what happens at the end bad /bæd/ Adjective when something is bad, it is not good a bad situation | the weather is bad | it is a bad movie Opposite – Adjective: good she's such a good teacher bored /bɔː(r)d/ Adjective when you are bored, you are not enjoying something because you are not interested in what you are doing or in what is happening

I'm bored—can we watch TV?

Adjective: boring

my job is really boring | this movie is boring climbing /'klaɪmɪŋ/ Noun uncount climbing is the sport or activity of climbing rocks or mountains we go climbing every year in France | a climbing vacation | I enjoy climbing | climbing is great fun

Verb: climb

I want to climb that mountain college /'kɒlɪdʒ/ Noun a college is a school for people who are about 17 or 18 years old

I'm a student at the local college | she teaches French at the college | the college is closed in August | there are 900 students at this college exam /ɪg'zæm/ Noun

an exam is a formal test of a someone's knowledge or skills in a subject

Collocates: have an exam | take an exam my sister has a exam today | I have an exam tomorrow excited /ɪk'saɪtɪd/ Adjective when you are excited, you are very happy about something

I'm so excited about the concert! | they are excited to meet their favorite singer | she feels excited about her new job

Adjective: exciting it is a very exciting day expression /ɪk'spreʃən/ Noun an expression is the way someone appears. For example, if someone has an expression on their face, you think they feel a certain way the expression on his face tells me he is annoyed | their expression shows they are confused | a happy expression

Verb: express

I sometimes find it hard to express my feelings feeling /'fiːlɪŋ/ Noun a feeling is an emotion, for example, when you're happy, sad, or excited he shares his feelings | this is a great feeling | talk about your feelings

Verb: feel

I feel sad

good /ɡʊd/ Adjective when something is good, it is right for the situation a good book | a good article

Opposite – Adjective: bad good job /gʊd 'dʒɒb/ Phrase when someone says good job to you, it means you did something well good job on this | you did a good job with the presentation | good job, the house looks great!

kind of /'kaɪnd əv/ Phrase when someone says kind of, they mean “in some way”

I'm kind of hungry negative /'negətɪv/ Adjective something that is negative is bad this is a negative experience

Opposite – Adjective: positive they want to make positive changes to the school positive /'pɒzɪtɪv/ Adjective something that is positive is good or useful

I hope my teacher says positive things about my work | I feel positive about the test tomorrow sad /sæd/ Adjective sad means unhappy

I feel sad when it rains | we have some sad news | it's a sad story

Opposite – Adjective: happy

it's a happy movie safari park /sə'fɑ:ri pɑ:k/ Noun a safari park is a large park with animals, where visitors can drive through and see animals in their natural environment there are a lot of animals at the safari park | the safari park has lions, giraffes, and zebras | they are on a safari park tour scary /'skeəri/ Adjective when something is scary, it makes you feel afraid the movie is really scary | tell us a scary story | it is a scary experience

Adjective: scared

Collocate: scared of

I'm scared of spiders try /traɪ/ Verb

when you try, you make an effort to do something try to say the words | try to finish your work before dinner | try to do the homework worried /'wʌrɪd/ Adjective when you are worried, you feel nervous about something that might happen Collocate: worried about

he is worried about his sister | they are very worried about the situation | I'm not worried—everything will be fine

Verb: worry

I worry about my health

Page 68

Arabic /'æɪrəbɪk/ Noun

Arabic is the language people speak in many countries in the Middle East and North Africa she speaks Arabic | people speak Arabic in Saudi Arabia | he studies Arabic in college comedy /'kɒmədi/ Noun a comedy is a funny movie that makes you laugh my favorite kind of movie is comedy | a comedy movie

French /frentʃ/ Noun

French is the language people speak in France, parts of Canada, and other countries

I speak French | people speak French in France pizza /'pi:tʃə/ Noun pizza is a flat, round food that is from Italy. Often, it has cheese and tomato and other things on it

I love to eat pizza | we have pizza for dinner | I love pizza with chicken professional /prə'feʃ(ə)nəl/ Adjective you use professional to talk about something you do for money and not as a hobby she's a professional diver | are you a professional singer?

ride /raɪd/ Verb

when you ride a bike or a motorcycle, you sit on it and make it go can you ride a bike? | you need a licence to ride a motorcycle | I ride to school every morning

Noun: ride

let's go for a ride on my motorcycle swim /swɪm/ Verb

when you swim, you move through water using your arms and legs

I can swim 100 meters | can you swim? | I like to swim in the sea

Noun: swimming

Collocates: go swimming | go for a swim

I go swimming every Saturday

UNIT 6: DAILY LIFE

Page 69

fall /fɔl/ Noun fall is the time of year after summer and before winter in Europe fall is in September and October | fall is my favorite season daily /'deɪli/ Adjective when something is daily, it happens every day my daily routine | his daily life

Noun: day

what day is it?

dry /draɪ/ Adjective when the weather is dry, there is no rain the weather is dry and sunny | I like dry weather | the weather is very dry this summer

night /naɪt/ Noun

night is the time when it is dark outside and most people sleep Collocate: at night
ten o'clock at night | I like to read before bed at night | it's a very cold night rainy /'reɪni/ Adjective when it is rainy, rain is falling a rainy September day | we don't want to go out because it's rainy Noun: rain | Verb: rain a lot of rain falls here in January | it's raining outside—take an umbrella season /'si:zən/ Noun a season is one of the four times of the year (spring, summer, fall, and winter) what's your favorite season? | my favorite season is fall | the rainy season is from June to September spring /sprɪŋ/ Noun spring is the time of year after winter and before summer spring is my favorite time of year | a lovely spring day summer /'sʌmə(r)/ Noun summer is the time of year when it is hot, after spring and before fall it's very hot in Rome in the summer | a summer vacation | in Australia, New Year's Day is in the summer winter /'wɪntə(r)/ Noun winter is the time of year when it is cold, between fall and spring winters are very cold in Alaska | in Australia, winter is in July and August | we go skiing every winter | they have a lot of snow in winter

Pages 70–71

alarm clock /ə'lɑ:m klɒk/ Noun an alarm clock is a clock that makes a loud noise at the time you want to wake up

Collocates: set an alarm clock | an alarm clock goes off

I set my alarm clock for 6:30 | do you have an alarm clock I can use in the morning? | my alarm clock goes off at seven | I use my cell phone as an alarm clock article /'ɑ:tɪkl/ Noun an article is a piece of writing. You can find articles in newspapers, magazines, or online read the article | she writes articles for a newspaper | I found a great article with travel information bookstore /'bʊkstɔ:/ Noun a bookstore is a store where you can buy books

I often buy new books at the bookstore | there is a small bookstore near my house | she works at a bookstore

Noun: book

Collocates: read a book | write a book

I read books on vacation | he writes books about his travels dinner /'dɪnə/ Noun dinner is the meal that people eat in the evening

Collocates: have dinner | go out for dinner | have something for dinner do you want to go out for dinner (go to a restaurant)? | we usually have dinner at eight o'clock | what's for dinner (what are we going to eat)? | who's cooking dinner tonight? | we're having chicken for dinner tonight get up /get 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you get up, you get out of bed in the morning after sleeping at night what time do you get up? | he gets up at 7:30 | I get up late on Saturdays go to bed /gəʊ tə 'bed/ Phrase when you go to bed, you lie down to sleep it's time to go to bed | I go to bed at 10 p.m. | she goes to bed early live with /'lɪv wɪð/ Phrase to live with someone means to share a home with them

I live with my family in Lagos | she lives with her parents | they live with their friends in an apartment observatory /əb'zɜ:vətəri/ Noun an observatory is a building that people can use to look at the sky at night. They look at planets, stars, and weather she works at the observatory | we visit the observatory to see the stars | the observatory is open on weekends routine /ru:'ti:n/ Noun a routine is a regular way of doing something

Collocates: daily routine | food routine | exercise routine

I have the same morning routine every day | what's your food routine?

store /stɔːr/ Noun

a store is a place where you go to buy things a store that sells clothes | the store sells books and computer games | the stores close at eight | what time do the stores open? | a toy store (that sells toys)

start /staː(r)t/ Verb when you start something or start doing it, you begin to do it. If something starts, it begins to happen Collocate: start to do something I start work at eight in the morning | the movie starts at seven | it's starting to rain | she starts a new job next week study /ˈstʌdi/ Verb when you study, you read books or articles to learn about things for school or college she's studying science in college | I want to study languages | I usually study for two hours in the evening | I'm studying for my music exams

Pages 72–73bread /bred/ Noun uncount bread is a food made from flour and water and usually yeast (something that makes the bread rise—get bigger—it is cooked) a slice of bread and butter | a loaf of bread | white bread | brown bread egg /eg/ Noun an egg is a small, almost round thing with a thin shell that comes from birds. People eat eggs from chickens and ducks and also use them in cooking a box of eggs | a boiled egg (that you cook in hot water) | a fried egg (that you cook in hot fat) | a duck's egg fruit /fru:t/ Noun fruit is things like apples and oranges that taste sweet, and that you can eat they eat a lot of fruit in Italy | fresh fruit is good for you | is there any fruit in the fridge? | a piece of fruit meat /mi:t/ Noun uncount meat is the part of an animal or bird that is under the skin and that people can eat as food is there any meat in this soup? | I don't eat meat | put the meat in the oven for an hour | a slice of cold meat potato /pəˈteɪtəʊ/ Noun potatoes are vegetables that grow under the ground. They have a brown or red skin and are white or yellow inside two kilos of potatoes | I grow potatoes in my garden | do you like potatoes? | these potatoes are very old restaurant /ˈrestɒrənt/ Noun a restaurant is a place you go to eat food that someone cooks and brings to you Collocates: eat at a restaurant | go to a restaurant this is our favorite restaurant | the restaurant has great pasta dishes | she works as a chef in a restaurant | I love eating at restaurants rice /raɪs/ Noun uncount rice is a food that is the white or brown top of a sort of grass do you want rice or chips? | a bowl of rice | brown rice sell /sel/ Verb to sell means to give things to people and they give you money for it there are different types of potatoes to sell | the store sells clothes | he wants to sell his car Noun: sale Collocate: for sale is this car still for sale?

skewer /ˈskjuːə/ Noun a skewer is a thin, pointed stick that you use to hold food together meat skewers | grilled chicken skewers | put the meat on skewers spring roll /sprɪŋ ˈrɒl/ Noun a spring roll is a thin pastry filled with vegetables, meat, or seafood. It is rolled up and fried or baked I love to eat spring rolls | she makes spring rolls for lunch | spring rolls are popular starters stall /stɔːl/ Noun

a stall is a small place where people sell things. Often, a stall is at a market or in the street Collocates: food stall | market stall we have a food stall at the market | there are many food stalls in Singapore | we sell jewelry on a market stall street food /ˈstri:t fu:d/ Noun street food is food you can buy from people selling it on the street from food stalls there's great street food in Thailand | street food is a great way to try different food | I love eating street food vegetable /ˈvedʒtəb(ə)l/ Noun vegetables are plants such as cabbages, carrots, or potatoes that you eat it's important to eat fresh vegetables | a greengrocer's is a store that sells vegetables | I grow vegetables in my garden | raw vegetables (not cooked)

Pages 74–75cloudy /ˈklaʊdi/ Adjective when it's cloudy, there are clouds up in the sky a cold and cloudy afternoon | the sky is very cloudy today | you can't see the moon when it's cloudy | I hope it isn't cloudy tomorrow Noun: cloud

there are big, dark clouds in the sky | the sun is behind the clouds foggy /ˈfɒgi/ Adjective when the weather is foggy, there is a lot of thick clouds in the air close to the land called fog or mist. It makes it difficult for you to see a foggy day | when the weather is foggy, you need to turn on the fog lights on the car | I couldn't see anything because it was foggy Noun: fog

there is a lot of fog today go /gəʊ/ Verb

when you go, you move from one place to another, for example, go to school, go to the beach

I go to school at 8 a.m. | let's go to the park this afternoon | I like to go out with my friends outside /ˌaʊt'saɪd/ Adverb when you are outside, you are not in a building

I'm not going outside—it's raining | the children are playing outside | I'm going outside for a minute

Preposition: outside wait for me outside the movie theater skiing /'ski:ɪŋ/ Noun skiing is an activity or sport where you have special clothes and wear skis on your feet, and travel down an area that has a lot of snow

Collocate: go skiing

we go skiing in Colorado | she takes skiing lessons | skiing is a popular winter sport

Verb: ski

I can't ski snowy /'snəʊi/ Adjective when it is snowy, snow is falling a snowy January afternoon | Canada is a very snowy country | I like it when it's snowy | it's very snowy outside

Noun: snow | Verb: snow

the airport is closed because of snow | it snows a lot in Sukayu Onsen south /saʊθ/ Noun the south is the direction toward the bottom of a map the city is in the south of the country | Adelaide is in the south of Australia | I like living in the south | the weather is warmer in the south

Adjective: south | Adverb: south

we live in the south of Mexico | they travel 200 kilometers south stay /steɪ/ Verb when you stay, you remain in a place or do not leave it

Collocate: stay at home

I like to stay at home when it's cold | I want to stay at home and relax | he stays in bed when he doesn't feel well sunny /'sʌni/ Adjective when it is sunny, the sun is shining it's a nice sunny day—let's have a picnic | a sunny afternoon | I hope it's sunny tomorrow | the weather is nice and sunny

Noun: sun

the sun is very hot this afternoon | sitting in the sun weather /'weðə(r)/ Noun uncount the weather is the conditions outside—rain, sunshine, snow, cold, etc.

the weather is very hot in August | what's the weather like today?

windy /'wɪndi/ Adjective when it is windy, the wind is very strong

I don't want to go out, it's too windy | a windy afternoon | it's difficult playing tennis when it's windy | it's windy outside

Noun: wind

the wind is blowing from the east | an east wind year /jɪə(r)/ Noun

a year is a period of time. The Earth goes round the sun once a year. There are 52 weeks in a year

Collocates: this year | next year our vacation is in Greece this year | next year, our vacation is in Italy | she's spending a year in Brazil | it takes three years to learn English at this school

Pages 76–77

clean /kli:n/ Verb to clean means to remove dirt or mess from something we clean the park near college | clean your room | I need to clean the house

Noun: cleaning | Adjective: clean

I love cleaning | this is a very clean bathroom

cold /kəʊld/ Adjective

when you are cold, you are uncomfortable because the temperature is very low it's cold outside | I get cold waiting for the bus

Opposite – Adjective: warm wear some warm clothes feel well /fi:l 'wel/ Phrase feel well means feeling healthy Collocate: don't feel well

I don't feel well today, I'm sick | he doesn't feel well today, so he is at home

hot /hɒt/ Adjective

when you are hot, you feel uncomfortable because the temperature is very high open the window if you're too hot | are you hot? | it's very hot in here

Opposite – Adjective: cold

I'm very cold because I'm not wearing a coat hungry /'hʌŋɡri/ Adjective when you are hungry, you want to eat something as soon as possible

I'm always hungry after I go swimming | if you're hungry, have some fruit | what time's lunch? I'm hungry matter /'mætə/ Noun when someone asks “what's the matter?,” they are asking you what is wrong Collocate: what's the matter?

what's the matter with you? | what's the matter? You look upset paragraph /'pærəgrɑ:f/ Noun a paragraph is an amount of writing on a page, usually several sentences, that starts on a new line the first paragraph of your essay is very important | the writer tells us his name in paragraph three | the second paragraph is very long and the third paragraph is very short part /pɑ:t/ Noun

a part of something is a piece or area of it which part of Brazil do you live in? | we have students from different parts of the world here | it's a nice part of town | some parts of the city are very beautiful problem /'prɒbləm/ Noun a problem is something that you do not like and that is difficult to stop or change you can talk to me about any problems you have | there are traffic problems in the city center | we have a problem—the car won't start | unemployment (when lots of people cannot get a job) is a big problem project /'prɒdʒekt/ Noun a project is a piece of work that has a goal at the end work on a project | I have a new project | she has a big project right now /raɪt naʊ/ Phrase when someone says right now, they mean at this moment

I'm busy right now, but I'll help you later | what are you doing right now? | she's talking to the manager right now thirsty /'θɜ:(r)sti/ Adjective when you are thirsty, you want to drink something as soon as possible take some water with you in case you get thirsty | I get thirsty when I go running | I'm thirsty—let's have a drink tired /'taɪə(r)d/ Adjective when you are tired, you want to sleep or rest you must be tired after playing soccer all afternoon | I'm so tired I need to go to bed | lie down here if you're tired | you look tired volunteer /'vɒləntɪə/ Noun a volunteer is someone who offers to do something without receiving money for it a volunteer team | I was a volunteer at a school | the project needs volunteers

Verb: volunteer

they volunteer at a school wet /wet/ Adjective when someone or something is wet, they are covered with water or another liquid, for example, because you are outside in the rain you look wet—is it raining outside? | careful—the floor's wet | my clothes are still wet | I don't want to get wet so I'll stay inside

Pages 78–79

cabbage /'kæbɪdʒ/ Noun cabbage is a vegetable that is green or purple she makes salad with cabbage and carrots | the soup has cabbage and potatoes in it | they grow cabbage on their farm community /kə'mju:nəti/ Noun a community is all the people who live and work together in an area we are a small village community here | it's a great community farm /fɑ:m/ Noun

a farm is a large area in the country with fields used for growing plants and keeping animals for food. The people who own and work on farms are farmers. The work they do is farming

my family has a farm where they grow rice | my cousin lives on a farm

Noun: farmer

a potato farmer

free /fri:/ Adjective when something is free, you can have it and do not have to pay for it. If you do something "for free," you do not get any money for doing it

Collocate: for free

there is a free concert in the park | tickets are free | you can have this for free ice cream /'aɪs kri:m/ Noun ice cream is a sweet frozen food made from milk and has different flavours we eat ice cream at the park | chocolate ice cream is my favorite only /'əʊnli/ Adverb you use only to say that there is just one or just a small number of something there are only four or five houses near the lake | I only have two apples | I don't want tea, thank you, I only want some water oyster /'ɔɪstə/ Noun an oyster is a large flat shellfish. It has a hard outside (a shell) and is soft inside an oyster farm | we like the fresh oysters at the restaurant | he loves eating oysters with lemon juice planet /'plænɪt/ Noun a planet is something in space that moves around a star. Earth is a planet that moves around the sun the planet Earth is our home | scientists study the planet sustainable /sə'steɪnəbl/ Adjective when something is sustainable, it does not hurt the environment sustainable energy | a sustainable life | they do sustainable farming Opposite – Adjective: unsustainable plastic is unsustainable for the environment type /taɪp/ Noun

a type of something is a part of something that is similar to a larger group similar types of potatoes | what type of car is it?

Page 80

band /bənd/ Noun

a band is a group of people who play music together

Collocate: in a band

my brother is in a band | what band do you like?

company /'kʌmp(ə)ni/ Noun a company is a business organization

Microsoft is a big company | she runs a small company in

Chennai | a company that employs 300 people (has 300 people working for it) | he works for an Egyptian company have /hæv/ Verb

when you have lunch, dinner, breakfast, etc, you eat it we have lunch at midday | let's have dinner in a restaurant

UNIT 7: WORK AND STUDY

Page 81

chef /ʃef/ Noun

a chef is someone who cooks for their job, usually in a restaurant

I'm a chef in an Italian restaurant | a great chef | she's the head chef at the hotel engineer /endʒɪˈnɪə(r)/ Noun an engineer is someone who has a job making or fixing machines, buildings, roads, etc.

an electrical engineer | a mechanical engineer (who works with machines) | a civil engineer (who works on roads, railroad, or buildings) | an engineer at the local car factory

Noun: engineering

I want to study engineering in college | you need to be good at math if you want to do engineering inside /ˈɪnˌsaɪd/ Adverb when you are inside, you are in a building it's cold, let's go inside | come inside | open the box and see what's inside | it's raining, let's stay inside

Preposition: inside

what's inside the box? | my coat is inside the suitcase painter /ˈpeɪntə(r)/ Noun a painter is a person who has a job putting paint onto walls, doors, etc.

he works as a painter | do you know a good painter? | a team of three painters are painting our house

Noun: paint | Verb: paint some blue paint | his job is to paint ships ship /ʃɪp/ Noun

a ship is a big boat that sails on the sea

I can see three ships on the water | they build ships in South Korea waiter /ˈweɪtə(r)/ Noun a waiter is a person who works in a café or restaurant and brings the food and drinks to the customers

I work as a waiter | the waiter has our food | the waiter asks you what you want to eat

Pages 82–83

airline /ˈeəlaɪn/ Noun

an airline is a company that people use to fly by plane.

An airline has their own planes

Cathay Pacific is an airline | she works for an airline | a lot of different airlines use this airport alone /əˈləʊn/ Adverb when you do something alone, you do it yourself and not with anyone else she lives alone in an apartment in the city center | I walk to school alone

Adjective: alone

go away! I want to be alone answer /ˈɑːnsə/ Verb when you answer something, you reply to a question answer the question | answer with your own ideas | please answer

Noun: answer

the correct answer to the question carry /ˈkæri/ Verb

when you carry something, you hold it and take it from one place to another place carry your bags | he carries his laptop with him | I can help you carry that computer /kəmˈpjʊtə/ Noun a computer is a machine that you use to do things, for example, go on the internet and write emails

I use my computer for work and school | she needs a new computer | we have new software on the computer destination /ˌdestɪˈneɪʃən/ Noun a destination is the place someone is going to what's your destination? | Hawaii is a popular travel destination | vacation destinations drink /drɪŋk/ Noun

a drink is some liquid that you swallow would you like another drink? | I'll just have a drink of water

Verb: drink

what would you like to drink with your meal?

driver /ˈdraɪvə(r)/ Noun a driver is someone who controls a car, train, bus, or other vehicle that is moving my uncle is a train driver | he's a bus driver | a taxi driver | she's a very good driver | a safe driver

Verb: drive

I'm learning to drive a car drone /drəʊn/ Noun

a drone is a small aircraft you can fly in the sky to see things, make videos, and take photos

Collocates: drone operator | fly a drone

he is a drone operator | we use a drone to take photos of the garden | you can fly a drone over the building enjoy /ɪnˈdʒɔɪ/ Verb

when you enjoy something, you find it fun

I enjoy spending time with friends | I enjoy reading books in my free time | we enjoy going to concerts

Adjective: enjoyable

the movie is enjoyable fly /flaɪ/ Verb

when someone can fly, they can drive things in the air, for example, a plane or drone she flies planes for airlines | a drone operator flies drones | I would like to fly a plane

Noun: flight

it's a ten-hour flight (journey in a plane)

go /gəʊ/ Verb

when you go somewhere, you move from one place to another go to different destinations | go to a new city | go to work medicine /'medɪsɪn/ Noun uncount medicine is something you take to help you feel better if you are sick or are in pain

Collocate: take medicine take the medicine for a week | take this medicine after dinner | I have medicine for my foot pain minute /'mɪnɪt/ Noun a minute is a length of time. There are 60 seconds in a minute and 60 minutes in an hour a five-minute walk | cook the potatoes for 40 minutes | the journey to school takes 25 minutes | she runs for fifteen minutes operate /'ɒpəreɪt/ Verb when you operate something, you control it. Often it is something like a machine operate a drone | operate the new machine | you need to learn to operate it

Noun: operator | Noun: operation the drone operator takes the video | it isn't an easy operation operator /'ɒpəreɪtə/ Noun an operator is someone who controls something like a machine she is a drone operator | please call the operator | he works as a train operator

Noun: operation | Verb: operate it isn't an easy operation | she operates the drone with care passenger /'pæsɪndʒə(r)/ Noun a passenger is someone who is travelling on a bus, train, plane, etc.

Collocate: rail/bus/tube/train/coach passengers the passengers are on the plane | the bus can carry 60 passengers pilot /'paɪlət/ Noun a pilot is someone who flies planes, usually as a job my brother wants to be a pilot | my father's a pilot | an airline pilot receptionist /rɪ'sepʃ(ə)nɪst/ Noun when you arrive at a hotel, the receptionist is the person who gives you your room key and tells you about the hotel

ask the receptionist for a map of the city | the receptionist is very nice | the receptionist finishes work at ten o'clock send /send/ Verb

when you send something like an email, you put an address so it arrives at that place or with that person

Collocate: send an email

send me an email about the work | send me the information | she sends messages to her friend serve /sɜːv/ Verb when you serve someone, you give them food or drinks

Collocate: serve a customer the waiter serves us our drinks | she serves lunch at the school cafeteria | I can serve you tonight | she serves a lot of customers salesperson /'seɪlzpɜːsn/ Noun a salesperson is someone who works in a store and helps the customers he's a salesperson in a supermarket | a friendly salesperson | the salesperson speaks good English sick /sɪk/ Adjective when you are sick, you do not feel well

Collocates: get sick | be off sick

I'm too sick to go to school | it's a doctor's job to help sick people | what happens if I get sick when I'm in America? | Jack's off sick again today (not at work or school) stay in /steɪ 'ɪn/ Phrasal verb when you stay in, you stay at home and don't go out we want to stay in and watch a movie | she prefers to stay in rather than go out

Opposite – Phrasal verb: go out let's go out for dinner tonight thing /θɪŋ/ Noun

a thing is an object or item what's that thing? | there are so many things to do today | what's your favorite thing to eat?

uniform /'juːnɪfɔːm/ Noun a uniform is something people that do the same thing wear.

For example, some schools have school uniform, and some jobs like the army or police have a uniform

Collocate: wear a uniform she wears a pilot's uniform | nurses wear uniforms at the hospital | I have to wear a uniform to work unusual /ʌn'juːʒʊəl/ Adjective something that is unusual is not what happens normally or regularly do you see anything unusual | it's unusual to have snow in March | eating cabbage with chocolate is unusual

Pages 84–85

camera /'kæməɾə/ Noun

a camera is something on a phone or laptop that you can use to have a video call or take photos my laptop camera is not very good | the camera on my computer isn't working | can you turn your camera on?

explorer /ɪk'splɔːrə(r)/ Noun an explorer is someone who goes to places in order to find out about them, especially places people don't know about explorers like Columbus | she's an explorer for National Geographic | the explorer James Cook | some explorers are in Antarctica

Noun: exploration | Verb: explore the exploration of space | let's explore the town forest /'fɔːrɪst/ Noun a forest is a large area of land with a lot of trees on it a walk in the forest | tigers live in forests homework /'həʊmwɜːk/ Noun uncount homework is schoolwork that students do at home

Collocates: give you homework | do homework

I have a lot of homework to do | my teacher doesn't give us a lot of homework | I need to do my homework tonight join /dʒɔɪn/ Verb

when you join something, you become part of it join a course | join a team | let's join a new club keyboard /'kiːbɔːd/ Noun a keyboard is something you use with a computer. It has letters on it so you can type words

I use a keyboard with my tablet | the keyboard is small for the computer | my laptop has a keyboard microphone /'maɪkrəfəʊn/ Noun a microphone is something you speak into to make your voice louder or record your voice sing into a microphone | I need a microphone for my YouTube videos | I use a microphone for my video calls mouse /maʊs/ Noun

a mouse is a small device that you use to move your cursor (little arrow) around a computer screen

I don't like using a mouse | use your mouse to select the right button on your screen | click (press) the mouse to close the application screen /skriːn/ Noun a screen is the flat part of a TV, computer, or phone, where you see the pictures and text

I need to clean my computer screen | what size screen is your TV? | don't sit too close to the screen | watch it on the big screen (at the movie theater, not on a TV) | an 18-inch screen teach /tiːtʃ/ Verb when you teach someone, you tell them information for them to learn she teaches me English | he teaches me a lot | can you teach me how to do it?

Noun: teacher

I am a maths teacher

Pages 86–87

always /'ɔːlweɪz/ Adverb always means all the time

I always watch nature shows online | I always have dinner at 8 p.m. | he's always on time area /'eəriə/ Noun an area is a part of a place forest areas | busy areas of the city | we live in a quiet area because /bɪ'kɒz/ Conjunction when you say because, you are explaining "why" they need help because they don't know where they are | I am late because of traffic | I like him because he's funny big cat /bɪg 'kæt/ Noun a big cat is a large type of cat that does not live in homes, for example, lion, tiger, or leopard there are many big cats in Africa | a jaguar is a big cat | big cats are dangerous cat /kæt/ Noun

a cat is a small animal covered in fur and with four legs and a long tail that some people keep as a pet

I have two cats at home | give the cat some food | the cat is purring happily (making a noise to show it is happy) | a pet cat eat /iːt/ Verb

when you eat food, you put it into your mouth and swallow it down into your stomach

I eat lunch in the work canteen | she doesn't eat meat | I need to eat something | what time do you eat lunch?

go into /gəʊ 'ɪntuː/ Phrasal verb when you go into something, you enter it go into the lake | I don't go into the water | I want to go in the sea jaguar /'dʒæɡjuːə(r)/ Noun a jaguar is a big cat that lives in the Americas jaguars can swim | jaguars are strong | jaguars come from Central and South America kill /kɪl/ Verb to kill a person or animal means to make them stop being alive some birds kill fish for food | tigers kill other wild animals and eat them leopard /'lepəd/ Noun a leopard is a big cat that has spots on it leopards can climb trees | there are leopards called snow leopards | leopards like to be on their own live /lɪv/ Verb

when you live somewhere, it is your home or place where you stay

I live in Bergamo | they live with their parents | we live in a house by the sea measure /'meʒə/ Verb when you measure something, you find out its size or amount they measure the tiger | measure the length of the desk | we need to measure the distance

Noun: measurement

what are the measurements of the table?

never /'nevə/ Adverb never means that something does not happen at any time

I never eat fish | he never goes to the gym | you should never give up often /'ɒfən/ Adverb often means that something happens many times, regularly

I often eat salad for lunch | I often go for a walk in the park | do you often see each other?

radio collar /'reɪdɪəʊ kɒlə/ Noun a radio collar is something you use to follow wild animals. It goes around their neck and sends signals to a device they put a radio collar on a tiger | we use radio collars to study the animals | they use a radio collar to follow the jaguar report /rɪ'pɔː(r)t/ Noun a report is a piece of writing that gives facts about a particular subject the report says that Switzerland is the happiest country in the world | a report about education in Slovakia | a report by a group of seven experts | write a report in Arabic about your vacation sometimes /'sʌmtaɪmz/ Adverb sometimes means that something happens from time to time

I sometimes visit my brother | I sometimes go for a walk in the evening | they sometimes have pizza for dinner tiger /'taɪgə/ Noun

a tiger is a big cat that is orange with black lines (stripes) on it

I can see a tiger! | a Sumatran tiger (a tiger from Sumatra in Indonesia) | there are different types of tiger usually /'juːʒuəli/ Adverb when something usually happens, it happens most of the time

I usually wake up early | she usually drinks coffee in the morning | we usually see them at the weekend wild /waɪld/ Adjective a wild animal lives outside and not with people wild animals in the forest | we can hear the sound of wild animals | a wild cat | the horses here are wild arrive at /ə'raɪv æt/ Phrasal verb when you arrive at a place, you get there

Pages 88–89

I arrive at work at nine | I usually arrive at school at 8:30 | when do you arrive in Chicago?

boss /bɒs/ Noun

a boss is someone who tells workers what to do

I have a nice boss | my boss is called Mr. Hamid | she is the boss of the company call back /kɔːl 'bæk/ Phrasal verb if you call someone back, you return their phone call can you call me back when you have time? | she will call back tomorrow | I need to call back the customer caller /'kɔːlə(r)/ Noun a caller is someone who is making a telephone call who does the caller want to speak to? | the caller is very angry | tell the caller I'm in a meeting course /kɔːs/ Noun

a course is a set of lessons on a subject

Collocates: take a course | on a course

I'm taking an English course | this course teaches you how to write a report | I'm on a painting course customer /'kʌstəmə/ Noun a customer is a person who buys things from a store or business not all customers are polite | we don't have many customers today | I am a regular customer every /'evri/ Determiner you use every to say how often something happens. For example, if something happens every twenty minutes, it happens once, then happens after twenty minutes, then happens again after another twenty minutes, and so on there's a bus every twenty minutes | we go to Italy every year | my grandmother stays with us every year | I clean my garage every six weeks free time /'friː taɪm/ Noun uncount your free time is the time when you do not have to work at your job or do school work

I like to go to the gym in my free time | doctors don't get much free time | how do you spend your free time? | when I have free time, I like to watch TV meeting /'miːtɪŋ/ Noun a meeting is an event where people get together to discuss something Collocate: hold a meeting a Monday morning meeting at work | a business meeting | there are twelve people coming to the meeting | I have a meeting at ten o'clock | we can hold the meeting in my office

Verb: meet

we need to meet to talk about the new factory moment /'məʊmənt/ Noun a moment is a very short length of time

I'll be back in a moment | she isn't here at the moment one moment /'wʌn məʊmənt/ Phrase one moment is a polite way to ask someone to wait for a short time one moment, please | please wait one moment | one moment, I'll check that for you Pages 90–91bath /bɑːθ/ Noun a bath is a large container that you put water in and then get into to wash your body

Collocate: have a bath

I have a bath before I go to bed | do you want a bath? | the bath is full | the water in the bath is too cold | the elephants take a bath in the river copy /'kɒpi/ Verb

when you copy someone, you act the same way as the other person he copies the elephants' greeting | copy me | don't copy what I am doing

Noun: copy

Collocate: make a copy can I make a copy of your passport, please?

ear /ɪə/ Noun

an ear is the part of the body that helps you hear things elephants have big ears | small ears | a problem with my ears family group /'fæmɪli gruːp/ Noun a family group is a group of animals that are related to each other and in the same family the lions are in the same family group | elephants have big family groups greeting /'griːtɪŋ/ Noun a greeting is something polite or friendly that you say or do when you meet someone shaking hands is a type of greeting | a smile can be a greeting | they copy the elephant's greeting

Verb: greet

we greet her with a smile identify /aɪ'dentɪfaɪ/ Verb to identify someone or something is to say who or what they are can you identify the person in the photo? | he learns how to identify different animals | can you identify the plant?

infographic /ɪnfəʊ'græfɪk/ Noun an infographic is a picture that shows information the teacher shows us an infographic | look at the infographic | the infographic makes the information easy to understand lie down /'laɪ daʊn/ Phrasal verb when you lie down, you move into a position where your body is flat and your head is on the same level as your feet, for example, when you are in bed

I need to lie down | do you want to lie down and rest for an hour? | I want to lie down on the bed lifespan /'laɪfspæn/ Noun the lifespan of something is the length of time that a person or animal lives Collocate: the lifespan of the human lifespan is around 80 years | the lifespan of a cat is about fifteen years | he studies the lifespan of elephants reserve /rɪ'zɜːv/ Noun

a reserve is a place where animals live to keep them safe Collocates: wildlife reserve | on the reserve a wildlife reserve | we visit a reserve | there are elephants on the reserve savanna /sə'vænə/ Noun a savanna is a large area of land without many trees the African savanna | they live in the savanna | the savanna has many wild animals sleep /sliːp/ Verb when you sleep, you rest with your eyes closed. Most people sleep for about seven or eight hours at night

I sleep eight hours a night | I can't sleep on planes

Noun: sleep | Adjective: asleep

I need a short sleep | he's asleep upstairs trunk /trʌŋk/ Noun an elephant's trunk is its very long nose elephants drink through their trunks | the elephant's trunk is about six feet long

Page 92at the moment /æt ðə 'məʊmənt/ Phrase at the moment means "right now"

I'm busy at the moment, but I can help later | she's not at home at the moment | we are working on a project at the moment kilometer /'kɪləmi:tə/ Noun a kilometer is a unit of distance. There are 1,000 meters in a kilometer it's over 100 kilometers from here to Manchester | I run eight kilometers before breakfast every morning | the last two kilometers of the race are very difficult snack bar /'snæk bɑː/ Noun a snack bar is a small place where you can buy small things to eat, and drinks the snack bar has sandwiches and drinks | there is a snack bar near the beach | let's get some popcorn from the snack bar truck /trʌk/ Noun

a truck is a large vehicle for carrying heavy things from one place to another by road

Collocate: truck driver

she works as a truck driver | a big truck is outside the house | they use a truck to move house

UNIT 8: VACATIONS

Page 93

exciting /ɪk'saɪtɪŋ/ Adjective when something is exciting, it makes you feel happy and interested an exciting ride at the theme park | Bangkok is a very exciting city | an exciting soccer match | I like this movie, it's very exciting

Adjective: excited

I'm really excited about our vacation go by /'gəʊ baɪ/ Phrasal verb when you go by something, you travel that way

I usually go by train | I go to school by bike | do you want to go to the airport by taxi?

go on /'gəʊ ɒn/ Phrasal verb when you go on something like a vacation, you do it

Collocate: go on vacation

who do you go on vacation with? | I want to go on vacation | we often go on walks on the beach swing /swɪŋ/ Noun

a swing is a seat that comes down from things that move it back and forward the children enjoy playing on the swings | I am on a swing | there are swings in the park train /treɪn/ Noun

a train is a number of connected cars (parts that are joined together where you can sit), with an engine, that you can travel on. It carries many people and moves on lines on the ground we go by train | the train is very fast | a Japanese bullet train (a type of train that is very fast)

Pages 94–95

adventure /əd'ventʃə/ Noun an adventure is an exciting or unusual experience they are on an adventure to the mountains | we often go on adventures when we travel | let's go on an adventure boot /bu:t/ Noun boots are big heavy shoes

Collocate: a pair of boots a pair of boots | red boots | these boots keep my feet warm cap /kæp/ Noun

a cap is something you wear on your head

I have a sports cap | wear a cap to protect your eyes from the sun | I need a new baseball cap coat /kəʊt/ Noun

a coat is a piece of clothing that you wear when you are outdoors to keep warm take a coat—it's cold outside | a nice warm coat | hang your coat in the hall | put your coat on dress /dres/ Noun

a dress is a piece of clothing for girls and women that has a top and a skirt joined together a blue dress | she always wears a dress to work | an evening dress (to look nice at a special event) | this dress is too small for me extra /'ekstrə/ Adjective extra means more than what you need

I always bring extra clothes with me | we have extra chairs if you need one | I have extra food if you are hungry jacket /'dʒækɪt/ Noun a jacket is a piece of clothing like a light coat he's wearing black pants and a grey jacket | in my jacket pocket | do you like my jacket? | take your jacket off jeans /dʒi:nz/ Noun plural jeans are blue pants made of strong material called denim Collocate: a pair of jeans a pair of jeans | she likes to wear jeans and a T-shirt | I need some new jeans | do you like my jeans?

sweater /'swetər/ Noun

a sweater is a piece of clothing, usually made of wool, that covers the top half of your body and your arms there's a brown sweater in my bag sandal /'sændəl/ Noun a sandal is a light, open shoe that people usually wear in warm weather Collocate: a pair of sandals she wears sandals to the beach | I need a new pair of sandals for the summer | sandals are perfect for hot weather scarf /ska:(r)f/ Noun a scarf is a piece of material you wear round your neck to keep warm she's wearing a hat and scarf | where's my scarf? | put a scarf on, it's cold | a long woolly scarf (made of wool) shirt /ʃɜ:(r)t/ Noun

a shirt is a piece of clothing you wear on the top half of your body

I need a clean shirt for work | he's wearing a shirt and tie | a blue shirt | I want to buy a new shirt shoe /ʃu:/ Noun shoes are what you wear on your feet a pair of brown shoes | there's something on my shoe | his shoes are dirty | my new shoes are great shorts /ʃɔ:ts/ Noun plural shorts are pants that do not go all the way down to your feet Collocate: a pair of shorts you can't wear shorts to work | a pair of shorts | my soccer shorts (for wearing when I play soccer) | it's too cold to wear shorts skirt /skɜ:(r)t/ Noun a skirt is a piece of clothing for women and girls that hangs down from the middle of the body over the legs a long skirt | a red skirt with a green top | a mini skirt (very short) | my skirt is in the washing machine top /tɒp/ Noun

a top is a piece of clothing that you wear on the top half of your body I like your new top | a green top | I need to buy a top | we're wearing the same top!

travel /'trævəl/ Verb to travel means to go from one place to another I sometimes travel with my family | I never travel without a book to read | I like to travel by boat Noun: travelling pants /pænts/ Noun plural pants are a piece of clothing that cover the lower half of your body, down to your feet, with a part for each leg Collocate: a pair of pants

I need some new pants | a pair of pants | she's wearing brown pants | my pants are dirty

T-shirt /'ti:-ʃɜ:t/ Noun a T-shirt is a shirt with short sleeves and no buttons down the front he likes to wear a T-shirt and jeans | a white T-shirt | you can't wear a T-shirt to school

Pages 96–97

bed /bed/ Noun

a bed is a soft, flat thing where you sleep at night Collocates: in bed | go to bed she's in bed | what time do you go to bed? | I don't want to go to bed yet business /'bɪznəs/ Noun uncount business is the work people do to make, sell, and buy things Collocate: on business

I'm here on business | what business are you in? | I'm in the restaurant business | we do a lot of business with a company in Portugal campsite /'kæmpsaɪt/ Noun a campsite is a place where people on vacation can sleep in a tent or a caravan (a home on wheels) we stay at a campsite near the lake | the campsite has showers and toilets | we often stay at a campsite for the weekend Verb: camp

we camp under the stars chair /tʃeə(r)/ Noun a chair is a piece of furniture that you sit on a table and chairs | this chair is broken | an old chair | we need another chair in here cheap /tʃi:p/ Adjective when something is cheap, it costs little money there's a cheap hotel in the city | these shoes are very cheap | this is a cheap train ticket Opposite – Adjective: expensive the meal is expensive coast /kəʊst/ Noun

the coast is the part of the land next to the sea Collocates: next to/near the coast | on the coast we sometimes spend the weekend on the coast | the coast is a great place for a walk | many animals live near the coast comfortable /'kʌmfətəbl/ Adjective when you are comfortable, you feel relaxed a comfortable bed | this chair is very comfortable | she feels comfortable in her new clothes Opposite – Adjective: uncomfortable the bed in the hotel is very uncomfortable stove /stəʊv/ Noun

a stove is a thing you use to cook food we have a new stove in the kitchen | we use the stove to make pasta | we use an electric stove Noun: cook | Verb: cook he's a good cook | can you cook?

couple /'kʌp(ə)l/ Noun a couple is two people who are married or in a relationship with each other they're an older couple | a retired couple lives here fridge /frɪdʒ/ Noun

a fridge is a thing that keeps food at a low temperature so that it will stay fresh for longer put the butter back in the fridge | I never keep eggs in the fridge | there's a full bottle of milk in the fridge | we have a fridge in the kitchen and another in the garage furniture /'fɜ:nɪtʃə/ Noun uncount furniture is large things in your house like chairs, tables, and beds we have some new furniture | the furniture in the office is expensive | that chair is my favorite piece of furniture hotel /həʊ'tel/ Noun a hotel is a building where you can pay to sleep in a room, for example, when you are on vacation Collocate: stay in a hotel a hotel in the middle of Lisbon | we can see the mountains from our hotel window | the hotel is full internet connection /'ɪntənət kənekʃn/ Noun an internet connection is when you can go onto the internet Collocates: lose internet connection | good internet connection we have a fast internet connection at home | I need a better internet connection to watch videos | we sometimes lose our internet connection lamp /læmp/ Noun

a lamp is a device on a desk or table that uses electricity and gives out light there's a lamp next to the computer | it's dark in here, can you turn on the lamp? | the lamp doesn't work location /ləʊ'keɪʃən/ Noun a location is a particular place our hotel is in a great location | they moved to a new location last year | can you send me the location of the restaurant?

old /'əʊld/ Adjective

old means people who have lived for more years. Older is the comparative adjective of old

Collocate: older people this car is old but still works | older people are in their 70s, 80s, and 90s | older people often need more care | he looks older than he really is Opposite – Adjective: young you're very young | he's younger than me seat /si:t/ Noun

a seat is a chair, or a place to sit are there any seats on the train? | please take a seat (sit down) shower /'ʃaʊə(r)/ Noun a shower is the place in a bathroom where you stand under running water to wash yourself

Collocate: take a shower the shower is upstairs | I take a shower in the morning | do you want a shower? | the shower is hot sofa /'səʊfə/ Noun

a sofa is a long, soft chair that two or more people can sit on at the same time there's a big sofa in the living room | sit down on the sofa | we need to buy a new sofa | a comfortable sofa table /'teɪb(ə)l/ Noun a table is a piece of furniture with a flat top that you can put things on a kitchen table | a dining table (for eating meals) | there are some flowers on the table tent /tent/ Noun a tent is a shelter made of cloth. You sleep in a tent when you go camping dad is putting the tent up in the garden | it's cold in the tent traveler /'træv(ə)lə(r)/ Noun a traveler is someone who is going from one place to another, usually over a long distance bad weather means travelers cannot leave London's main airport | business travelers (people who are traveling somewhere for their job) | a hotel that is popular with travelers

Verb: travel

I want to travel around the world | after traveling for six hours, we still aren't home closet /'klazət/ Noun a closet is a large cupboard where you keep your clothes there are two closets in the bedroom | put your clothes in the closet website /'websaɪt/ Noun a website is a set of pages on the internet where you can find information

Collocates: visit a website | on the website let's visit their website to check the prices | visit our website | there's a lot of information on the website

Pages 98–99

bee /bi:/ Noun

a bee is a black and yellow flying insect that makes a noise like “buzz.” It can sting you (put something into your skin that hurts)

bees make honey | I see a bee contact /'kɒntækt/ Verb when you contact someone, you speak to them or write to them contact the company | please contact me by email | we need to contact the manager countryside /'kʌntrisaɪd/ Noun the countryside is the area outside towns and cities. It has a lot of nature they live in the countryside | we go for walks in the countryside | the countryside is quiet day-to-day /deɪ-tə-'deɪ/ Adjective day-to-day means something normal every day the day-to-day activities | do day-to-day activities | what do you do day-to-day?

don't worry /'dəʊnt ˈwʌri/ Phrase you say don't worry to someone to tell them that something is not important to you and that they do not need to be concerned or apologize

“sorry I'm late”—“don't worry. We're not ready to start yet anyway” | don't worry if you don't have experience—we'll teach you eco- /'i:kəʊ/ Prefix eco- is something to do with the environment come to one of our eco-farms | they are building an eco-friendly house | eco-tourism exchange /ɪks'tʃeɪndʒ/ Noun an exchange is when you give something and get something back Collocate: exchange program come and do our exchange program | join our exchange program

Verb: exchange

do you want to exchange bikes?

farm animal /'fɑ:m ænɪmə/ Noun a farm animal is an animal that lives on a farm. A farm is a large area in the country with fields used for growing plants and keeping animals for food. Some farm animals are chickens and cows my sister and I help to take care of the farm animals | a cow is a farm animal | we have many farm animals on our farm host /həʊst/ Noun

a host is someone who looks after you for a short time

Collocate: host family

I stay with a host family in Cambridge | he is the host of the event | I am a host family for students

Verb: host

we host students from France in common /ɪn 'kɒmən/ Phrase when people have something in common, they share one or more qualities, characteristics, or interests

Collocate: have something in common (with someone)

I have a lot in common with my cousin Sheila | the two boys don't get on because they have nothing in common | it's great that we have so much in common kind /kaɪnd/ Noun

a kind of something is a particular type of it there are two kinds of vacations you can have | what kind of food do you like? | that one's nice, but I prefer the other kind news /nju:z/ Noun uncount news is information about real events that have happened very recently or that are happening at the moment there's good news at last | there's no news yet about the missing explorer (no one knows where the explorer is) | I get my news on social media no experience /nəʊ ɪk'spiəriəns/ Phrase when you have no experience, it means you have not done something before no experience? Don't worry! | I have no experience with the software | she got the job even though she has no experience program /'prəʊgræm/ Noun a program is something you can do, like an event or a course Collocate: an exchange program at our school, we can do an exchange program | a reading program at school | the course has a good program real-life /rɪəl-'laɪf/ Adjective real-life means things or situations that happen in the world do real-life activities | a real-life story | share your real-life experiences retired /rɪ'taɪəd/ Adjective when someone is retired, they do not work anymore Collocate: a retired couple they are a retired couple | my grandfather is a retired doctor | she is a retired teacher

Noun: retirement | Verb: retire retirement age is 67 in my country | I want to retire from my job take care of /teɪk 'keə ɒv/ Phrase when you take care of something, you look after it take care of farm animals | I take care of the baby | I need someone to take care of my cat while I'm away

Pages 100–101

advice /əd'vaɪs/ Noun uncount when someone gives you advice, they try to help you by making suggestions about what you should do

Collocates: give someone advice | take someone's advice | a piece of advice the teacher gives us help and advice | I always go to her for advice | let me give you some advice | take my advice and go by train | I think that's very good advice

Verb: advise

Collocate: advise someone to do something

I advise you to stop eating lots of sugar canal /kə'næl/ Noun a canal is a long area of water that is made by humans. It means boats can pass through an area the Panama canal | Amsterdam has lots of canals | the city has lots of canals certainly /'sɜ:(r)t(ə)nli/ Adverb you use certainly in answer to a question to mean "of course"

"may I see the menu, please?"—"certainly" | "is it possible to have a larger room?"—"certainly. You can have room number 15" culture /'kʌltʃə(r)/ Noun the culture of a place is the way things happen there, especially with things like art, music, etc.

she's studying French culture at school | drums are important in their culture | the museum has a display about local culture | a book about youth culture except /ɪk'sept/ Preposition except means "not including" there are tours every day except New Year's Eve | everyone is at to the party except me | he likes all vegetables except broccoli float /fləʊt/ Verb when something floats, it does not go into water. It stays above the water boats float | I like to float on my back when I swim | the leaf floats down the river Adjective: floating

the floating market in Bangkok guidebook /'gaɪd.bʊk/ Noun a guidebook is a book that gives you information about a town or city that you are visiting

I have a guidebook, but it's in German | a guidebook to South Africa | there's lots of information in the guidebook | take a guidebook if you go to Edinburgh in advance /ɪn əd'vɑːns/ Adverb when you do something in advance, you do it before something else happens choose your hotel in advance, don't wait till you get there | the train ticket is cheaper if you book in advance | plan your journey in advance just a moment /dʒʌst ə 'mɒmənt/ Phrase when you say just a moment, you are asking someone to wait just a moment and I can help you | just a moment, I'll be right back | can you wait just a moment while I check this?

leaflet /'liːflɪt/ Noun a leaflet is a small piece of paper that gives information about something here's a leaflet with all the information | the address is in the leaflet | is there a leaflet for the museum?

no problem /nəʊ 'prɒbləm/ Phrase when you say no problem, it shows that you are happy to do something no problem, I can help you | no problem, I can fix it for you | no problem, it's an easy job puppet show /'pʊpɪt ʃəʊ/ Noun a puppet show is when people put a model of a person or an animal on their hands (puppets) to make a show for people let's watch a puppet show | there are puppet shows at the festival | I don't like puppet shows role-play /'rəʊlpleɪ/ Verb when you role-play, you act like you are in a situation role-play a conversation | role-play with a partner | role-play the situation

Noun: role-play do a role-play with your partner route /ruːt/ Noun

a route is the way that you follow from one place to another which route do we take? | the long route | the bus route theme park /'θiːm pɑːk/ Noun a theme park is a big place outside where you can go on things called rides, play games, and have fun

Collocate: go to a theme park

I'm at a theme park with my friends | I love theme parks | the theme parks has lots of rides tip /tɪp/ Noun

a tip is a piece of useful advice do you have any tips on where to stay in Prague? | I can give you a few tips about the German trains | if you want any travel tips, ask my uncle Stan tour /tʊə/ Noun

a tour is a trip you take with someone who gives you information about the place

Collocate: guided tour

it's an interesting tour | I am on a guided tour (a tour with someone giving you information) | I want to take a tour of the city

Verb: tour

you can tour around Scotland by car visitor /'vɪzɪtə/ Noun a visitor is someone who goes to a place and spends some time there the city gets lots of visitors | visitors must show their identity cards at the door | it's nice to have lots of visitors when you are in hospital

Noun: visit | Verb: visit a short visit to see my aunt | we plan to visit the cathedral this afternoon | we're going to visit friends in New York | my grandparents come to visit every year

Pages 102–103

careful /'keəfəl/ Adjective when you are careful, you take your time so that you don't make mistakes or hurt something be careful | please be careful when you cross the road | be careful when you touch it

Adverb: carefully

please drive carefully explore /ɪk'splɔː/ Verb when you explore, you travel around a place in order to learn about it let's explore the city | they love to explore new countries | let's explore the park

Noun: exploration | Noun: explorer an exploration of the forest | a National Geographic Explorer imagine /ɪ'mædʒɪn/ Verb when you imagine something, you picture it in your mind

I can't imagine what it looks like | imagine that you are flying | it's hard to imagine how big space is

Noun: imagination use your imagination leave /li:v/ Verb to leave means to go away from a place where do the buses leave from? | I leave for school at 8 a.m. every morning | the flight leaves Cairo at 9 p.m.

ocean /'əʊʃən/ Noun an ocean is a large area of water that covers most of the Earth.

There are five oceans the Pacific ocean | we can see fish swimming in the ocean | the Atlantic ocean promise /'prɒmɪs/ Noun

a promise is a statement that you will definitely do something Collocates: make a promise | eco-promise | keep a promise she promises to call every week | I always try to keep my promises | make an eco-promise

Verb: promise

I promise to call you every week protect /prə'tekt/ Verb to protect means to keep something safe from bad things we need to protect the places we visit | we need to protect animals | plant trees to protect the area

Noun: protection wear a hat for protection from the sun relax /rɪ'læks/ Verb to relax means to rest and be free from stress relax in nature | we can relax and enjoy the weekend | she relaxes on the sofa rule /ru:l/ Noun

a rule is something that tells you what you can or cannot do Collocate: follow the rules they follow the rules of the local community | you must follow school rules | the rules of the game camera /'kæm(ə)rə/ Noun a camera is a device that you use to take photographs

Page 104

I always take my camera when I go for a walk | an expensive camera | it's a very simple camera, very easy to use | a digital camera (that is like a computer) hat /hæt/ Noun

a hat is a piece of clothing that you wear on your head take your hat off | wear a hat, it's cold | I like your new hat | a woolen hat (made of wool)

UNIT 9: PAST EVENTS

Page 105

artwork /'ɑ:twɜ:k/ Noun artwork is paintings, drawings, and other things that artists make Collocate: a piece of artwork

I love this artwork in Times Square | the children make a lot of artwork | I want a piece of artwork for my living room

Noun: art | Noun: artist

I love art | he's an artist from the U.K.

immigrant /'ɪmɪgrənt/ Noun an immigrant is a person who moves to live in another country the first immigrants arrived in the seventeenth century | the city has a large immigrant community | many immigrants come to the country pole /pəʊl/ Noun

a pole is the cold parts at the top and bottom of the Earth—the North Pole and the South Pole

Collocates: the North Pole | the South Pole they are on a trip to the South Pole | the North Pole is covered in ice all year round | not many animals live near the poles because it's so cold shape /ʃeɪp/ Noun

the shape of something is its outer edge, and whether it is round, square, etc.

the house has an unusual shape | can you see that cloud—it's in the shape of a horse | the lake was square in shape the past /ðə 'pɑ:st/ Noun the past is all the time before the present in the past, there was no internet | history is the study of the past | a long time ago in the past the present /ðə 'prezənt/ Noun the present is the current time

Collocate: the present tense write the sentence in the present tense | you need to forget the past and start living in the present

Pages 106–107

album /'ælbəm/ Noun an album is a collection of songs put together in one place the album is great | the new album from the band | that's my favorite album app /æp/ Noun

an app is a piece of software that has a purpose, often used on a tablet computer or cell phone. App is short for application

I have over 40 apps on my phone | an app that tells you what the weather is going to be like commercial /kə'mɜ:ʃəl/ Adjective when something is commercial, it is related to the buying and selling of goods and services the first commercial plastic bottles | it was on commercial sale | he works in a commercial building in town computer programmer /kəm'pjʊ:tə 'prəʊgræmə/ Noun a computer programmer is someone who makes software and applications for computers she works as a computer programmer | to be a computer programmer, you need to be good with computers | he studied to be a computer programmer

Noun: computer program

she makes computer programs electric car /ɪ'lektrɪk kɑ:/ Noun an electric car is a vehicle that gets its power from electricity and not fuel

Tesla makes electric cars | more people are buying electric cars to help the environment | he wants a new electric car engine /'endʒɪn/ Noun an engine is the machine in a vehicle that makes it move car engine | a strong engine helps the car go faster | they can fix the engine high school /haɪ sku:l/ Noun high school is the level of education after elementary school and before college. Usually high school is for students aged 14–18

I go to the same high school as my sister | he is a high school student in grade 10 liquid /'lɪkwɪd/ Noun a liquid is something that is not hard and not a gas. It moves in a free way. Water is a type of liquid water is the most common liquid on earth | water turns from liquid to ice when it gets really cold | store the liquid in these glass bottles note /nəʊt/ Noun

a note is a type of paper money it was a ten-dollar note | notes and coins | five-pound note novel /'nɒvəl/ Noun a novel is a book with a story that is not real her new novel | I'm reading a novel | he wants to write a novel plastic /'plæstɪk/ Adjective when something is plastic, it is made of a light strong material

Collocates: plastic bottle | plastic money children play with plastic money | we need to stop using plastic bottles | plastic bags are not good for the environment elementary school /ɛlə'mentri sku:l/ Noun elementary school is the first school a child goes to children are four or five when they go to elementary school in the U.K. | my sister is an elementary school teacher | she loved her elementary school singer /ˈsɪŋə/ Noun a singer is someone who sings songs a famous singer | I want to be a singer | I'm a bad singer

Noun: song | Noun: singing | Verb: sing sing me a song | I like singing in the shower | can you sing?

the first /ðə ˈfɜːst/ Phrase the first is something that comes before all others in a list or group the first person on the train | this is my first time in this city | this is the first day of my new job toy /tɔɪ/ Noun

a toy is an object that children play with a wooden toy | the toy section of a department store | the children play with their toys | a toy car | a toy store (a store that sells toys) water bottle /ˈwɔːtə ˌbɒtl/ Noun a water bottle is something you use to carry water and drink from she carries a water bottle when she goes for a walk | I have a metal water bottle | we filled our water bottles before the trip wheel /wiːl/ Noun

a wheel is a round object that turns and helps vehicles or machines move there are four wheels on a car | a bike has two wheels

Pages 108–109

celebrity /səˈlebrɪti/ Noun a celebrity is someone who is famous and many people know a famous celebrity | a celebrity chef | a lot of celebrities are in this TV show change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb when you change something, you make it different

I changed my life by moving cities | change your clothes | the weather changes quickly

Noun: change

Collocate: make a change

I need to make a change in my life clever /ˈkleɪvə(r)/ Adjective someone who is clever is good at thinking and can learn and understand things quickly he was very funny and clever | his sister's very clever | you have to be clever to go to college funny /ˈfʌni/ Adjective someone or something that is funny is able to make you laugh my teacher can be very funny sometimes | he tells really funny jokes | a funny YouTube video | a funny story in a magazine huge /hjuːdʒ/ Adjective when something is huge, it is very big a huge snake | a huge building | this is a huge park laugh /lɑːf/ Verb

if you laugh, you make a noise that shows you think something is funny Collocate: laugh at someone everyone laughs at his jokes

Noun: laugh

a loud laugh

lesson /ˈlesən/ Noun

a lesson is when a teacher teaches something to students

Collocates: maths lesson | science lesson we have a math lesson in the morning | she takes music lessons after school | today's lesson was about history | a science lesson little /ˈlɪt(ə)l/ Adjective something or someone that is little is not very big or not very old a little girl (very young) | he lives in a little house in Chester | my little brother (he's younger than me) | a little piece of cake math /mæθs/ Noun

math is something you study to do with numbers and shapes

I study math in college | I find math difficult | she has a math class every morning practice /ˈpræktɪs/ Verb when you practice something, you do it over and over again to learn a new skill and get better she practices the piano every day | we need to practice for the test | he practiced for hours every day

Noun: practice

let's have a practice for the game snake /sneɪk/ Noun

a snake is an animal with a very long thin body and no legs a huge snake | an anaconda is a type of snake | some snakes are dangerous athlete /ˈæθlɪt/ Noun an athlete is someone who does sports a famous athlete | an athlete who plays soccer | I want to interview this athlete

TV star /ˈtiːviː stɑː/ Noun a TV star is a famous person who is on TV a lot a famous TV star | I want to be a TV star | the TV star is staying at an expensive hotel near here | she writes a blog about TV stars | I follow lots of TV stars on Instagram well-known /wel-ˈnəʊn/ Adjective when someone is well-known, they are famous or a lot of people know them he is a well-known Hollywood actor | she is a well-known author of children's books | a well-known athlete work hard /wɜːk ˈhɑːd/ Phrase when you work hard, you do an activity with a lot of effort she works hard | if you work hard, you can achieve your goals | he worked hard on his project and finished it early age /eɪdʒ/ Noun

Pages 110–111

the age of someone is how old they are

I learned piano from the age of seven | the average age of students in the class is twenty | what age did you start school?

ahead /ə'hed/ Adverb ahead means in front

Collocate: ahead of one hour ahead | we have a long journey ahead of us | we are ahead of the other team before /bɪ'fɔː/ Preposition before means an earlier time eat breakfast before you go to school | I was here before Opposite – Preposition: after

I can meet you after school behind /bɪ'haɪnd/ Adverb behind means at the back of or further back the others are a long way behind | two days behind | one hour behind born /bɔːn/ Verb born means to come into the world as a baby Collocate: born in

I was born in April | she was born in a small town | he was born in Valencia | they were born on the same day calendar /'kælɪndə/ Noun a calendar is something that shows the days, weeks, and months of the year. You usually hang a calendar on the wall the calendar year is 365 days | we're entering a new calendar | new year, new calendar happen /'hæpən/ Verb when something happens, it has been done accidents can happen | I didn't think this would happen | strange things happen headline /'hedlɪn/ Noun a headline is the title of a news story or article read the headlines | the strange headline | a newspaper headline jump /dʒʌmp/ Verb to jump from something to something means to change suddenly the story jumped from his school days to his career as a pilot | I didn't understand her presentation because she kept jumping from one topic to another robot /'rəʊbɒt/ Noun a robot is a machine that can do things a person can. Some robots look like people, with legs, arms, and a head a robot that can carry your shopping | robots can help people | I don't want a robot in my house | some robots can speak system /'sɪstəm/ Noun a system is a group of things that work together an international time system | a computer system | the health system schedule /'skedʒul/ Noun a schedule is a chart that tells you what times buses, trains, and planes leave and arrive look up the schedule on the web | do you have a schedule for the buses? | they change the schedule for the winter time zone /'taɪm zəʊn/ Noun a time zone is one of the 24 areas that the world is divided into. The time in each zone is one hour earlier than in the zone to the east of it, and one hour later than in the zone to the west of it what time zone is Ireland in? | we live in the same time zone | the time zone is GMT -1 wedding anniversary /'wedɪŋ ænɪ'vɜːsəri/ Noun a wedding anniversary is a celebration every year of the date when people got married celebrate our wedding anniversary | happy wedding anniversary! | let's go on a trip for our wedding anniversary

Pages 112–113

all the best /ɔːl ðə 'best/ Phrase all the best is a way to end an email or letter to be nice let me know. All the best, John | all the best to you and your family | thanks for your help, and all the best apologize /ə'pɒlədʒaɪz/ Verb when you apologize, you say that you are sorry for something bad or wrong that you did

Collocates: apologize for (doing) something | apologize to someone

I didn't want to apologize | I apologize for being rude earlier | she apologized to me afterward | there's no need to apologize

Noun: apology

Collocates: an apology for something | demand an apology | owe someone an apology | accept an apology please accept my apology for not replying earlier | I demand an apology for the article (ask for an apology) | I think you owe me an apology (you did something bad and you should apologize to me)

arrange /ə'reɪndʒ/ Verb when you arrange something, you plan or organize it

I arranged a meeting with my boss | they arranged a surprise party for her birthday | we need to arrange the travel details

Noun: arrangement

Collocate: make an arrangement let's make an arrangement to have dinner together assignment /ə'saɪnmənt/ Noun an assignment is a piece of work someone gives you the teacher gives us assignments | I have a math assignment | she is working on a big assignment

Verb: assign

the teacher assigned us a task busy /'bɪzi/ Adjective when you are busy, you have a lot of things that you are doing and you do not have time to relax

I am so busy, I can't stop for lunch | another busy day at the office | we're busy all weekend so we can't go to the movie theater | we're not very busy today so I'm going swimming at lunchtime closed /kləʊzd/ Adjective when a store, business, park, etc. is closed, people cannot go in to it the store is closed on Sunday | the station is closed because of a flood | the park is closed at night

Verb: close || Opposite – Adjective: open the stores close at seven in the evening | they close the park when it gets dark | the stores are open all day today

late /leɪt/ Adjective

when something or someone is late, it arrives somewhere after the time it is supposed to be there the bus was late | my friends were late to school | the train is late maximum /'mæksɪmə/ Adjective the maximum is the most that is possible or allowed write a maximum of 25 words | this is the maximum amount of money | the maximum number is 50

Opposite – Adjective: minimum the minimum age for retirement is 67 not well /nɒt 'wel/ Phrase when you are not well, you are sick and have a problem with your health if you're not well, you should stay in bed | she's not at school today because she's not well

Opposite – Adjective: well

I'm feeling very well today reason /'riːzən/ Noun a reason is why something happens

Collocates: the reason for | give a reason the reason I'm late is there was heavy traffic | what's the reason? | is there a reason for this?

traffic /'træfɪk/ Noun uncount traffic is all the cars, vans, etc. on the road at the same time

Collocates: heavy traffic | a traffic jam | traffic lights there's a lot of traffic in the city center | a traffic jam (when there is so much traffic that people have to wait for long periods of time without moving) | traffic lights (red and green lights that make cars stop and then let them go in order to control the traffic) uncle /'ʌŋkəl/ Noun your uncle is your mother or father's brother my uncle Stephen | I don't have any uncles | we visited my uncle's house

Opposite – Noun: aunt

I have an aunt called Joanne

Pages 114–115

can /kæn/ Modal verb can is used to say that it is possible for somebody to do something, or for something to happen what can you see? | what can you do? | I can speak Mandarin Opposite – Modal verb: can't

I can't sing very well contain /kən'teɪn/ Verb to contain means to have something inside the bottle contains water | this box contains my books and papers | the letter contains important information

Noun: container

a big container of things decide /dɪ'saɪd/ Verb when you decide something, you make a choice

I decided to go to the library | she has to decide between two jobs | they decided on a hotel to stay in delivery /dɪ'lɪvəri/ Noun delivery is when you bring something to a person or place a milk delivery | food delivery | the delivery of letters

Verb: deliver

they delivered the food habit /'hæbɪt/ Noun

a habit is something you do often, and usually without thinking about it Collocate: a habit of

she has a habit of drinking coffee every morning | the habit of exercising every day | he has a habit of staying up late impossible /ɪm'pɒsɪbəl/ Adjective when something is impossible you cannot do it it's impossible to finish this task in one day | it's impossible to change the past | it isn't impossible to change our habits

Opposite – Adjective: possible if it is possible, I will do it paper /'peɪpə/ Noun paper is a thin material you can write or draw on, and that you can also use to carry things

Collocate: piece of paper write on the piece of paper | a paper bag | draw a picture on the paper possible /'pɒsɪbəl/ Adjective when something is possible, you can do it is it possible to finish the project by Friday? | is it possible to swim here? | it's possible to change subjects

Opposite – Adjective: impossible it's impossible to do it produce /prə'dju:s/ Verb to produce means to make or create something these companies produce electronic goods | the factory produces things for children | this machine can produce 1,000 bottles

Noun: production

the production of glass bottles reusable /ri:'ju:zəbl/ Adjective when something is reusable, you can use it again she has a reusable water bottle | he has a reusable bag

Verb: reuse

I can reuse this paper throw away /θrəʊ ə'weɪ/ Phrasal verb when you throw away something, you put it in the trash throw away the trash | throw away old clothes | it's hard to throw away things toothpaste /'tu:θpeɪst/ Noun uncount toothpaste is something you put on a toothbrush and use to clean your teeth put some toothpaste on the toothbrush | I don't like this toothpaste | don't forget to buy toothpaste traditional /trə'dɪʃ(ə)nəl/ Adjective traditional beliefs, activities, etc. are ones that are not modern but are old and that people still believe in and do traditional clothes | a traditional meal | a group performing traditional Polish dances | the restaurant serves traditional Chinese food

Page 116

marathon /'mæɪəθən/ Noun a marathon is when you run 42.195 kilometers (26.2 miles)

Collocate: run a marathon the first person to run a marathon in under two hours | I can't run a marathon | a marathon is an Olympic sport

UNIT 10: TRUE STORIES

Page 117

communicate /kə'mju:nɪkət/ Verb when you communicate, you share information and ideas with other people it helped him communicate | communicate with each other | they communicate by phone

Noun: communication | Noun: communicator sending a message is a quick form of communication | you need to be a good communicator for this job horse /hɔ:s/ Noun

a horse is a large animal that people ride and use for work Collocate: horse ride

we went on a horse ride along the beach | horse riding | a brown horse site /saɪt/ Noun

a site is a place where something important happened the site of the Incas | what is the history of this site?

Pages 118–119

archeology /ˌɑ:(r)ki'ɒlədʒi/ Noun uncount archeology is the study of very old objects in order to learn about how people lived hundreds or thousands of years ago she's studying archeology in college | a book about archeology | archeology is an interesting subject | a TV documentary about archeology arrow /'ærəʊ/ Noun

an arrow is a thin stick with something sharp on the end of it she hit the tree with the arrow | they found an old arrow | the arrow was made of wood body /'bɒdi/ Noun your body is all the physical stuff of you—your arms, legs, head, etc. You also use the word body to refer to the body of a dead person they found a body by the lake | a dead body | police took the body away | the archeologists studied the body die /daɪ/ Verb

when someone dies, they are no longer alive he died of old age | the flowers died

Adjective: dead

the cat was dead director /daɪ'rektə/ Noun a director is someone who is in charge of a movie Collocate: movie director a great movie director | Spielberg is a movie director | I want to be a movie director fur /fɜ:/ Noun

fur is soft thick hair that grows on the body of some animals, for example, dogs and cats the dog has thick, soft fur | she wore a coat made of fake fur (fur that isn't real) | a fur hat ice /aɪs/ Noun uncount ice is water that has become hard at a low temperature (below 0 degrees) do you want any ice in your drink? | be careful—there's ice on the roads

Adjective: icy

it's difficult driving on icy roads north /nɔ:(r)θ/ Noun the north is the direction toward the top of a map we live in the north of Vietnam | it's colder in the north than in the south | the A1 road goes to the north | they're building a new factory in the north

Adjective: north | Adverb: north

we live in north London | we traveled 200 kilometers north police /pə'li:s/ Noun the police is the organization that tries to make people follow the law and that tries to catch criminals (people who don't follow the law)

the police are looking for a man | the police took the body away | the police are in the building wear /weə/ Verb

when you wear something, you have it on your body wear a hat | wear a jacket, it's cold | what can I wear?

Pages 120–121

actor /'æktə/ Noun an actor is a person who performs in movies, TV shows, or plays a TV actor | a famous actor | an actor in a play base on /'beɪs ɒn/ Phrasal verb when something is based on something else, it gets the story from it the movie is based on real events in her life | the movie is based on a book | the story is based on his life degree /dɪ'ɡri:/ Noun

a degree is a certificate you get when you finish college Collocates: get a degree | a degree from

she got a degree from UCLA | it was a degree from college | what is your degree?

event /ɪ'vent/ Noun an event is something important that happens a big event | based on real events | important events get married /get 'mæɪd/ Phrase when you get married, you become someone's husband or wife, and you have a legal relationship with them they will get married next month | my sister got married last year | he wants to get married grow up /grəʊ 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb to grow up means to become older she grew up in Canada | where did you grow up? | I grew up in Kyoto history /'hɪst(ə)ri/ Noun your history is all the things that have happened to you in your life my family history leave school /li:v 'sku:l/ Phrase when you leave school, you finish your studies

I will leave school next year | she left school when she was eighteen | I left school last year partner /'pɑ:tənə/ Noun a partner is someone you have a relationship with

I met my partner in 2020 | my partner's name is Rei | this is my partner scene /si:n/ Noun

a scene is a part of a movie a scene from a movie | it's a scene from a TV show | watch the scene song /sɒŋ/ Noun

a song is a piece of music with words that people sing sing me a song | a song from a movie | listen to the song start school /stɑ:t 'sku:l/ Phrase when you start school, you begin your studies

I started school when I was five | I start school next year | my sister is excited about starting school sure /ʃʊ:/ Adjective when you are sure, you are 100% about something are you sure? | I'm sure that was him | they are sure of their answers

Opposite – Adjective: unsure

I'm unsure who to believe village /'vɪlɪdʒ/ Noun a village is a small area where people live. Usually it is in the countryside or near green places

Collocate: small village

they live in a small village | I want to live in a village | the village where my grandparents live is beautiful

Pages 122–123blog /blɒg/ Noun a blog is a page or set of pages on a website where someone writes short articles and where other people can add comments thousands of people read his blog | I always read her blog before I start work | a blog post (a single article on the blog) | a political blog (a blog about politics) | a food blog (a blog about food)

Noun: blogger | Verb: blog

Collocate: blog about something he's a political blogger (who writes about politics) | a fashion blogger (who writes about fashion) | she blogs about the environment cut /kʌt/ Verb

when you cut something like your leg, you break the skin and blood comes out of it

I cut my foot on some broken glass | he cut himself on the rock | she cut her leg and there's a lot of blood dangerous /'deɪndʒərəs/ Adjective something that is dangerous might hurt someone

Formula 1 motor racing is a dangerous sport | using your phone while you're driving is really dangerous | dangerous animals | working underground is both difficult and dangerous

Noun: danger | Adverb: dangerously

Collocate: be in danger the sign says "Danger!" | if they're still on the mountain in this storm, then they're in danger | the temperature is dangerously high dirty /'dɜ:ti/ Adjective something that is dirty has dirt or dust on it and is not clean his car is very dirty | leave your dirty shoes by the door | his shirt is dirty | wash the dirty plates | a dirty towel | don't get your clothes dirty

Noun: dirt || Opposite – Adjective: clean

his jacket has dirt on it | a clean towel | clean clothes | are your hands clean?

fall /fɔ:l/ Verb

when you fall, you drop down from a higher level to a lower level

I fell over a rock | he fell down the mountain | don't fall!

guide /gaɪd/ Noun

a guide is someone who knows a place very well and who shows people around it and tells them about it we had a very good tour guide in Istanbul | our guide speaks very good English | we had three different guides in Colombia | you need a guide if you're going into the national park leg /leg/ Noun

your legs are the two long parts of your body that have your feet at the end and your knees in the middle

I fell and hurt my leg | my left leg is one centimeter longer than my right leg | she hurt her leg in the accident | he has very short legs lemur /'li:mə/ Noun a lemur is a small animal like a monkey with a long tail that lives in trees. It comes from a place in Africa called Madagascar the lemur lives in the forests of Madagascar | we saw a lemur at the zoo | lemurs have big eyes nurse /nɜ:(r)s/ Noun

a nurse is someone whose job is to look after people who are ill, especially in a hospital

I want to be a nurse | he's a nurse at the local hospital | the nurse gave him his medicine | the nurse came to take my temperature rock /rɒk/ Noun

a rock is a large, heavy stone she gave me a rock from the beach | we climbed over the rocks to get to the sea | a large piece of rock | the boat hit some rocks suitcase /'su:tkeɪs/ Noun a suitcase is a box, often with wheels, that you use for carrying your clothes in when you travel and stay away from home for a while my suitcase is very heavy | hurry up and pack your suitcase (put things in it) | the suitcases are in the car | we travel with just one suitcase each

Pages 124–125childhood /'tʃaɪldhʊd/ Noun childhood is the period of time when you are a child she had a happy childhood | his favorite childhood memory is playing with friends | during childhood, children learn many new things

Noun: child, children

he is a child | I have two children delicious /dɪ'liʃəs/ Adjective food that is delicious tastes very nice that was a delicious meal | it tastes delicious | a delicious cake | this apple pie is delicious | the food there is delicious grandfather /'græn(d)fɑ:ðə(r)/ Noun your grandfather is the father of your father or of your mother. Young children call their grandfather “granddad” or “grandpa” both my grandfathers live in India | her grandfather is nearly 70 | don't forget to send your grandfather a birthday card | I was very upset when my grandfather died helicopter /'helɪkɒptə(r)/ Noun a helicopter is a vehicle that can fly. Helicopters do not have wings, but have a set of long thin parts (called rotor blades) that go round very fast a ride in a helicopter | the helicopter makes a lot of noise memory /'meməri/ Noun a memory is something you remember from the past

Collocate: childhood memory

what is your favorite childhood memory? | it was a good memory | we talked about old memories pay attention /peɪ ə'tenʃn/ Phrase when you pay attention to something, you put your focus on it the students always pay attention to their teacher | pay attention, please | don't forget to pay attention shark /ʃɑ:(r)k/ Noun a shark is a big fish that lives in the sea. It eats other fish

I'm sure that's a shark out there | sharks are sometimes dangerous | there are lots of different types of sharks twin /twin/ Noun

twins are two people who are born at the same time to the same mother

I have a twin sister | a pair of twins | my mom is a twin (she has a twin brother or sister)

Pages 126–127coast /koʊst/ Noun the coast is the land that is next to the sea or ocean a beautiful coast | we walked along the coast and enjoyed the view | I live near the coast

Noun: coast

I live near the coast coral /'kɒrəl/ Noun coral is a hard thing under the sea that has lots of colors.

Small sea animals make coral

I saw coral in the Great Barrier Reef | we saw beautiful coral at the reef | the coral is home to many fish filmmaker /'fɪlmˌmeɪkə/ Noun a filmmaker is someone who makes movies he is a famous filmmaker in Hollywood | a filmmaker's story | an underwater filmmaker

Noun: movie | Verb: film watch a movie | film the sunset fisherman /'fɪʃəmən/ Noun a fisherman is someone who catches fish as a job or for sport her father is a fisherman | there are lots of fishermen at the river today | it's hard work being a fisherman focus on /'fəʊkəs ɒn/ Phrasal verb if you focus on something you give a lot of attention to one thing, subject, or person focus on the words | focus on the teacher lucky /'lʌki/ Adjective when someone is lucky, good things happen to them you're lucky! | I'm lucky to have good friends | your lucky day

Opposite – Adjective: unlucky you were unlucky not to win the race rock pool /'rɒk pu:l/ Noun a rock pool is a small area of water that is on a hard material called rock. Rock pools are near the sea

we found a rock pool with some small fish | the rock pool was very deep | look—there's a fish in the rock pool!

underwater /ˌʌndə'wɔ:tə/ Adjective underwater means below the top of the water, for example, in the sea or ocean

I can see underwater | an underwater filmmaker | use a snorkel to look underwater get up /ɡet 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you get up, you open your eyes and stop sleeping

I get up at 7 a.m. | I got up late | I get up late on weekends

Page 128

audio connection /'ɔːdiəʊ kəˈnekʃən/ Noun an audio connection is the thing you use to make sounds between two different electric objects we need to check the audio connection for the meeting | the audio connection is not working | I have a good audio connection colleague /'kɒliːg/ Noun a colleague is someone you work with

I like most of my colleagues | he plays chess with a colleague at lunchtime | most of my colleagues speak English hand /hænd/ Noun your hands are the two things on the end of each arm, with five fingers, that you use for holding things and writing with put your hand up if you know the answer (put one hand in the air to let the teacher know you have the answer) | wash your hands before lunch | I write with my left hand | my hands are really cold knife /naɪf/ Noun

a knife is a tool that is sharp and that you use to cut things cut it with a knife | a pocket knife (that you can carry around with you) | be careful with that knife! It's sharp room /ruːm/ Noun

a room is a space in a building that has walls and a door to keep it separate from the rest of the building our house has four rooms downstairs | this is a big room | the room has two windows | my room is upstairs

UNIT 11: MY WEEKEND

Page 129

dentist /'dentɪst/ Noun a dentist is someone who looks at your teeth and helps you with them

Collocate: go to the dentist

I need to go to the dentist | she goes to the dentist twice a year | the dentist checked my teeth housework /'haʊswɜ:k/ Noun uncount housework is the cleaning and other things you do in a house

I need to do housework today | she helps her dad with the housework | they spent the morning doing housework lifestyle /'laɪfstɑɪl/ Noun a lifestyle is the way someone lives. It is their actions, interests, and habits

I have a lifestyle blog | he enjoys a healthy lifestyle with lots of exercise | she has a busy lifestyle upload /ˌʌp'ləʊd/ Verb when you upload something, you put information online upload the photo | upload your homework to the website | it is too big to upload

Noun: upload || Opposite – Noun: download | Verb: download

he sent me an upload | what's this download? | download the email

Pages 130–131

armchair /'ɑ:(r)mʃeə(r)/ Noun an armchair is a big comfortable chair with sides that you can rest your arms on she's sitting in the armchair | a big, blue armchair | a nice, comfortable armchair | here, come and sit in the armchair bathroom /'bɑ:θru:m/ Noun a bathroom is a room in a house where you can wash and have a bath or shower the bathroom is upstairs | my bedroom has its own small bathroom | a big bathroom | there's another bathroom downstairs bedroom /'bedru:m/ Noun a bedroom is a room in a house with a bed in it where you sleep at night

I share a bedroom with my brother | a big bedroom | a three-bedroom house | his bedroom is upstairs dining room /'daɪnɪŋ ru:m/ Noun a dining room is a room in a house where people eat their meals the walls in the dining room are white | we have breakfast in the kitchen and lunch in the dining room | there's a big table in the dining room | tell the guests to go into the dining room drink /drɪŋk/ Verb

when you drink, you put liquid in your mouth, like water drink some water | drink that and you'll feel better | drink some tea

Noun: drink

can I have a drink, please?

kitchen /'kɪtʃən/ Noun a kitchen is a room in a house where people prepare and cook food for eating we usually have breakfast in the kitchen | the kitchen gets very hot in summer | the kitchen sink | a kitchen cupboard | we spend a lot of time in the kitchen living room /'lɪvɪŋ ru:m/ Noun the living room is the room in a house where people spend time reading, watching TV, playing computer games, etc.

come into the living room | there are two sofas in the living room | it's nice and warm in the living room | we spend our evenings in the living room make lunch /meɪk 'lʌntʃ/ Phrase when you make lunch, you prepare a meal to eat in the middle of the day

I need to make lunch | can you make me lunch? | what did you make for lunch?

motorcycle /'məʊtərsaɪkl/ Noun a motorcycle is a bike that has an engine can you ride a motorcycle? | a fast motorcycle | new motorcycles are expensive | is this your motorcycle?

nephew /'nefju:/ Noun a nephew is the son of your brother or sister my nephew is six years old | she took her nephew to the park | my nephew loves playing games

Opposite – Noun: niece

I have two nieces newspaper /'nju:zpeɪpə/ Noun a newspaper is a set of sheets of paper with stories and pictures about the news printed on them. Lots of newspapers also have websites where you can read the news may I look at your newspaper? | a free newspaper | which newspaper do you read? | I bought a newspaper at the station | a national newspaper (you can buy it everywhere in a country) | a local newspaper (in a small area)

smile /smaɪl/ Verb

when you smile, you turn the corners of your mouth up because you are happy smile for the photo | the baby smiled at me | she smiled when she saw her friend

Noun: smile

he has a big smile on his face wash /wɒʃ/ Verb

when you wash something, you make it clean

I need to wash my car | wash your hands | I need to wash my clothes

Noun: washing

Collocate: do (the) washing

I need to do some washing today

Pages 132–133begin /brɪˈɡɪn/ Verb when you begin something, you start it the class will begin at 9 a.m. | he began to study for the exam | they began with a song

Noun: beginning the beginning of the song is good cause /kɔːz/ Verb to cause means to make something happen it caused the power to go out | the fridge caused the fire | rain can cause problems

Noun: cause

what was the cause of the problem?

cloud /klaʊd/ Noun a cloud is in the sky. It is usually white or grey and rain comes out of it look at the clouds in the sky | dark clouds | there are no clouds today

Adjective: cloudy

a cloudy day

field /fiːld/ Noun

a field is an open area of land that has grass

Collocate: in the field play soccer on the field | I walk home through the field | walk the dog in a field follow /ˈfɒləʊ/ Verb when you follow something, you go after it follow storms | follow the path | please follow the instructions

Noun: follower

he has one million social media followers for example /fɔːr ɪɡˈzɑːmpl/ Phrase when you say for example, you want to explain something

I like many sports, for example, soccer and tennis | she is very good at art, for example, painting and drawing | he loves animals, for example, dogs and cats grass /grɑːs/ Noun grass is the green plant on the ground in fields and gardens cut the grass | we sat on the grass and had a picnic | the grass is wet from the rain in front of /ɪn ˈfrʌnt əv/ Preposition in front means in a position further forward than someone or something stand in front of the mirror | in front of the storm | the bus stopped in front of the school path /pɑːθ/ Noun

a path is somewhere you can walk, like in a garden or in a park

Collocate: follow (the) path walk along the path | I have a path in my garden | follow the path to the beach power /ˈpaʊə/ Noun uncount power is the ability to control people or things Collocate: the power of the power of nature | the power of a group | there is power in numbers | the aim is to give students more power to make decisions road /rəʊd/ Noun

a road is a hard surface that goes from one place to another that you can drive a car or ride a motorcycle on

Collocate: by road

the road to Wigan | does this road go to Brighton? | there's a lot of traffic on the road today | we're going to Edinburgh by road (driving a car, not going by train or plane)

sky /skaɪ/ Noun the sky is everything above you when you are outside. On a nice day, the sky is blue. You can see the sun and the moon in the sky

the sky is blue | there's a clear sky | a cloudy sky storm /stɔːm/ Noun

a storm is very bad weather, with wind, rain, snow, or all of the things at the same time some people like to take photos of a storm | there's a storm coming sun /sʌn/ Noun

the sun is the big yellow thing that you can see in the sky during the day the sun is very bright today | it's nice to sit outside in the sun take a photo /teɪk ə ˈfəʊtəʊ/ Phrase when you take a photo, you make a picture with a camera

Collocate: take a photo of

let's take a photo of the beach | he likes to take photos of animals | can you take a photo for me?

Pages 134–135above /əˈbʌv/ Preposition when something is above something else, it is higher than it the picture is above the window | the light is above the table | the bird flies above the trees between /bɪ'twi:n/ Preposition between means in the middle of two things the table is between the chairs | she sat between her two friends | there is a park between the school and the library board /bɔː(r)d/ Noun a board is a flat piece of hard material used to make walls, ceilings, etc.

we need another board to finish this wall | a truck arrived with 30 boards for the new house build /bɪld/ Verb

when you build something, you make it build a house | they are building a new school in the town | they built a bridge over the river

Noun: building | Noun: builder builder /'bɪldə(r)/ Noun a builder is someone who makes buildings, for example, houses, apartments, offices my uncle is a builder | the builders finished the house last week | I need a builder to make steps at the front of my house | a team of builders working on the new shopping center

Noun: building | Verb: build they're planning to build a new school here | they built a new sports stadium there | a builder is a person who builds houses | a new building opposite the movie theater door /dɔː/ Noun

a door is something you can open and close to enter and leave a room or building open the door | can you close the door? | we need a door for the kitchen dream /dri:m/ Adjective when you describe something as a dream, you are saying it is something you have always wanted

Collocates: dream house | dream job

we bought our dream house | this is my dream job | what is your dream place to live?

Noun: dream | Verb: dream

I had a dream about you! | I don't dream when I sleep floor /flɔː/ Noun the floor is the flat, bottom part of a room that you walk on clean the floor | get a new floor | a grey and white floor garage /'gærɑːʒ/ Noun a garage is a building next to your house where you can put your car and other things we have a garage with our new home | the car is in the garage | we can put two cars in our garage hit /hɪt/ Verb

when something like weather hits a place, it makes a problem for that place the storm hit the town | the rain hit quickly | it was a surprise when the storm hit next /nekst/ Adjective next means comes straight away after something else what's the next project? | what's on TV next? | the next day nine-to-five /naɪn-tə-'faɪv/ Adjective nine-to-five describes the usual working day, starting at nine and finishing at five he works a nine-to-five job in an office | she doesn't like the nine-to-five routine | they both have nine-to-five jobs on /ɒn/ Preposition on means one thing is in contact with another thing put the picture on the wall | the book is on the table | the painting is on the shelf plan /plæn/ Verb

when you plan something, you have an idea about what you want to do before you do it plan the project | plan the day | plan our vacation

Noun: plan

Collocates: have a plan | make a plan do you have a plan for the weekend? | let's make plans to meet resistant /rɪ'zɪstənt/ Adjective when something is resistant, it means it is not changed by something, for example, it does not take in something like water or change from weather like a tornado (strong wind)

a tornado-resistant roof | a water-resistant jacket | the material is heat-resistant roof /ru:f/ Noun

the roof is the top, outside part of a building that protects it from the weather we have a new roof | the roof of the house needs to be fixed | the roof is covered in snow tornado /tɔː(r)'neɪdəʊ/ Noun a tornado is a very powerful storm that moves along with strong winds that go round and round, very fast. It can damage buildings, trees, cars, etc.

the tornado came very close to the town | there was a big tornado here | I hope the tornado does not hit the town typical /'tɪpɪk(ə)l/ Adjective a situation that is typical is normal and not unusual at all it was a typical English summer, with rain every week | a typical office job | my typical day starts at 7 a.m. when the alarm clock goes off | they live in a typical town house wall /wɔːl/ Noun

a wall is the side of a building or room she put some pictures on the wall | paint the wall | there is a wall between the kitchen and living room window /'wɪndəʊ/ Noun a window is a piece of glass you look through to see outside. You can open a window look out the window | can you open the window? It's hot | please close the window before you leave

Pages 136–137

air /eə/ Noun uncountair is the gas that is all around us and that we breathe. Birds and planes fly through the airthere's a plane up in the air | I like being out in the fresh air | there is a smell of flowers in the air | a bird flying through the airborrow /'bɒrəʊ/ Verbto borrow means to take and use it for a short time. You will return it later*can I borrow a pen? | she borrowed a book from the library | he needs to borrow some money for the tripclose /kləʊz/ Verbwhen you close something, you shut it so it isn't open, for example, a door or a window*can you close the window? | please close the door behind you | she closed her eyes to sleepglass /glɑːs/ Nouna glass is a container for cold liquids that you drink out of Collocate: a glass of something*a glass of water | she has milk in her glass | would you like a glass of juice? | he has some orange juice in his glassI can't wait /aɪ kɑːnt 'weɪt/ Phrasewhen you say I can't wait, it means you are excited about something that is going to happen*I can't wait to see you! | I can't wait for the party tomorrow | she can't wait to see her friends againmine /maɪn/ Pronounsomething that is mine belongs to me*this book is mine | the blue car is mine, and the red one is yours | these shoes are mineon the right /ɒn ðə 'raɪt/ Phrasewhen something is on the right, it is to one side of you*the door on the right | the bathroom is on the right | turn left, then you will see the store on the right*Opposite – Phrase: *on the leftthe parking lot is on the left of the schoolrequest /rɪ'kwest/ Nounwhen you make a request, you ask someone in a polite way to do something

Collocate: a request for something

*it's not an order, just a polite request | a request for some information about the museum*Verb: request

Collocate: request to do something *you can request to have breakfast in your roomturn off /tʊ:n 'ɒf/ Phrasal verbwhen you turn off something, you stop something from working, for example, a light, a TV*turn off the TV, please | don't forget to turn off the lights before you leave | he turned off the computer when he finished workuse /juːz/ Verbwhen you use something, you do something with it*use my phone | she uses her computer to write emails | can I use your pen? | he used the map to find the hotel*

Pages 138–139

calm /kɑːm/ Adjectivewhen someone's day is calm, it is relaxed and quiet*the lighthouse keeper's day is calm | I had a calm evening | the weekend was calmdish /dɪʃ/ Nouna dish is something you put food in to eat from

Collocate: wash the dishes *can you wash the dishes after dinner? | we put the salad in a big dish | I hate washing dishesimage /'ɪmɪdʒ/ Nounan image is a picture or photo*look at the image | show me the image | that's a beautiful imagelighthouse /'laɪtˌhaʊs/ Nouna lighthouse is a tall building by the sea with a very bright light at the top. It tells ships that they are near land*a lighthouse keeper (the person who works in a lighthouse) | can you see the lighthouse over there? | I can see the light from the lighthouselighthouse keeper /'laɪtˌhaʊs ˌkiːpə/ Nouna lighthouse keeper is someone who works in a lighthouse.*he works as a lighthouse keeper | the lighthouse keeper lives on the island | he worked as a lighthouse keeper for twenty yearsmachine /mə'ʃiːn/ Nouna machine is a piece of equipment that does a job, e.g., a washing machine washes clothes*a ticket machine (that takes money and gives you a ticket) | a coffee machine (that makes coffee) | a washing machine | everything is made by machine these daysrepair /rɪ'peə/ Verbto repair means to fix something*he's repairing the car | we need to repair the roof before winter | he repaired the broken windowsit /sɪt/ Verbwhen you sit, you rest on something like a chair

Collocate: sit down

*sit down, students | they sat at the table for dinner | he likes to sit in the park and read*Noun: seat

Collocate: take a seat take a seat—the doctor will be here soon stairs /steəz/ Noun plural stairs are steps that you use to go from one level in a building to another Collocate: a flight of stairs please don't run down the stairs | he fell on the stairs and hurt his foot

Page 140

bench /bentʃ/ Noun

a bench is a long chair for two or more people. Usually you see benches in parks or public areas sit on the bench | he waited on the bench for the bus | we sat on a bench in the park

UNIT 12: PLANS AND DREAMS

Page 141

good night's sleep /gʊd naɪts 'sli:p/ Phrase a good night's sleep is when you sleep well and feel good in the morning

Collocates: have a good night's sleep | get a good night's sleep

I got a good night's sleep | you need a good night's sleep before the exam | she went to bed early to get a good night's sleep shelter /'ʃeltə/ Noun a shelter is a place where you can stay safe from bad weather or danger a snow shelter snow /snəʊ/ Noun snow is a type of weather that is very cold. White things fall from the sky and cover the ground there was heavy snow last night | the children played in the snow all day | there is snow in Antarctica

Adjective: snowy

a snowy day

Pages 142–143

brainstorm /'breɪnstɔ:m/ Verb when you brainstorm something, you write all your ideas on a topic to share your ideas brainstorm your ideas | the group brainstormed different solutions to the problem | brainstorm before starting the work bucket list /'bʌkɪt lɪst/ Noun a bucket list is a list of things you want to do before you die

Collocates: have a bucket list | tick things off the bucket list | on the bucket list do you have a bucket list? | I ticked snorkeling off my bucket list | visiting Sydney is on my bucket list chess /tʃes/ Noun uncount chess is a game you play with a board and two players. There are special pieces you move Collocate: play chess

they like to play chess after school | he won the chess game | she is very good at chess music festival /'mju:zɪk ˈfestɪvəl/ Noun a music festival is a big outdoor event where people come to listen to people playing music we went to a music festival in Spain | she goes to a music festival every year | the music festival was for three days

Northern Lights /'nɔ:ðən laɪts/ Noun plural the Northern Lights are a natural light event in the sky at certain times of the year, in the northern parts of the world

Collocate: see the Northern Lights we saw the Northern Lights in Norway | many people travel to see the Northern Lights | the Northern Lights are beautiful | watching the Northern Lights is on my bucket list organize /'ɔ:gənaɪz/ Verb when you organize, you plan for something to happen organize your ideas | organize a party | she helped organize the school trip

Noun: organization

I have good organization skills the organization is going to build a new playground origami /ˌɒrɪ'ɡɑ:mi/ Noun uncount origami is a type of art where you make shapes from paper Collocate: do origami

she learned how to make origami animals | they made origami birds to decorate the room | he enjoys doing origami in his free time parachute /'pærəʃu:t/ Noun a parachute is something you use when you jump from a plane, to stop you from falling too quickly

Collocate: parachute jump do a parachute jump | open your parachute | they did a parachute jump last weekend piece /pi:s/ Noun

a piece is a separate amount of something, for example, a piece of cake

Collocate: a piece of paper write your ideas on a piece of paper | can I have a piece of cake, please? | I've lost a piece of the puzzle plant /plɑ:nt/ Noun

a plant is something green that lives inside or outside

I have lots of plants in my house | animals and plants | she likes to water her plants every morning

Verb: plant

they planted ten trees sign language /'saɪn ˌlæŋɡwɪdʒ/ Noun sign language is a language people use to communicate with their hands. Often, people who cannot hear use sign language she's learning sign language to communicate with her friend | they use sign language to communicate with each other | the teacher showed us how to say "hello" in sign language

check /tʃek/ Verb

when you check something, you make a small mark to show a choice or that something is correct. This mark is called a check mark ✓

check the correct answer | please check the box if the answer is correct | she checked the answer Noun: check mark

put a check mark next to the right answer visual /'vɪʒuəl/ Adjective something visual uses a lot of pictures and images a visual bucket list | make a visual list | a visual presentation zipline /ˈziplaɪn/ Noun a zipline is a cable or rope between two places that a person can go along to go from one side to the other we rode the zipline at the adventure park | they had a zipline that went over the river | I tried the zipline

Noun: ziplining | Verb: zipline

we went ziplining in the forest | ziplining is so fun! | I think ziplining is scary | zipline across the river

Pages 144–145canoe /kəˈnuː/ Noun a canoe is a small, thin boat that you can move using sticks called paddles travel by canoe | take a canoe across the lake | I bought a canoe folk band /ˈfəʊk bænd/ Noun a folk band is a group of people who play a type of music called folk, which is traditional music she plays the violin in a folk band | the folk band played at the village festival forget /fəˈget/ Verb to forget means you don't remember something Collocate: don't forget don't forget your passport! | she forgot about the meeting | I'll never forget the first time I saw the ocean in concert /ɪn ˈkɒnsət/ Phrase when someone is in concert, they do something in front of you and not on video Collocate: see (someone) in concert we saw our favorite band in concert last night | I saw the singer in concert

Italian /ɪˈtæliən/ Adjective someone or something that is Italian is from Italy Italian coffee | her husband is Italian | he has an Italian passport job interview /ˈdʒɒb ɪntəvjuː/ Noun a job interview is when you have a formal meeting with someone and answer questions about yourself because you want to work at that place Collocate: have a job interview I have a job interview tomorrow make /meɪk/ Verb make means to create something she made a cake for the party | he wants to make bread | we need to make a plan for the trip make a cake /meɪk ə ˈkeɪk/ Phrase when you make a cake, you cook a sweet food made from a mixture of flour, eggs, butter, and sugar in an oven I made a cake for my son's birthday | he wants to learn how to make a cake | they made a cake together for the teacher make a plan /meɪk ə ˈplæn/ Phrase when you make a plan, you decide what to do in the future we made a plan for the weekend | we need to make a plan for our trip | I like to make a plan for the day sale /seɪl/ Noun

a sale is where things cost less money than usual Collocates: on sale | a big sale the shoes are on sale for half price | they are having a big sale this weekend | we waited for the sale to buy a new TV Verb: sell
I want to sell some clothes talk /tɔːk/ Noun

a talk is when someone gives information to people who listen Collocate: give a talk she gave a talk on climate change | listen to a talk | give a talk to the team Verb: talk
let's talk about the plan

Pages 146–147anthill /ˈænthɪl/ Noun an anthill is a big thing of soil that small insects called ants make as their home the ants were busy building an anthill | we saw a big anthill near the tree | don't step on the anthill!

 Noun: ant ants are very small architect /ˈɑːkɪtekt/ Noun an architect is someone who draws plans for buildings the architect designed the new shopping center | he wants to become an architect | an architect planned their new house Noun: architecture architecture is the study of designing buildings climber /ˈklaɪmə/ Noun climbers are things you can go up and down, usually in children's parks she designed climbers | the park has a climber, some swings, and a slide | be careful on the climber can you climb that wall?

 Verb: climb

creation /kriːˈeɪʃən/ Noun a creation is something new someone makes a beautiful creation | his painting is a lovely creation | the creation of the new park Verb: create we created a group of people who like the same things design /dɪˈzaɪn/ Verb when you design something, you draw it and plan it she designed a beautiful building | he likes to design clothes | design a new room

Noun: designer

I work as a clothes designer future /ˈfjuːtʃə/ Noun the future is the time that will come after now Collocate: in the future

a better future for children | what do you want to do in the future? | big plans for the future make a difference /meɪk ə ˈdɪfrəns/ Phrase when you make a difference, you do something good for someone small actions can make a big difference | he wants to make a difference in his school | recycling can make a difference to the environment material /məˈtɪəriəl/ Noun material is what you use to make something. Plastic and wood are materials the dress is made of soft material | they used recycled material for the new chairs | wood is a popular building material noise /nɔɪz/ Noun noise is a lot of sound

Collocates: make a noise | hear a noise | loud noise there was too much noise in the room | I heard a loud noise outside | don't make any noise

Adjective: noisy

the children are noisy park /pɑːk/ Noun

a park is an area of public land where people go to play and sit we were in the park in the morning | the city plans to make the park bigger | we had a picnic in the park play area /pleɪ ˈeəriə/ Noun a play area is a place children can play on things that go back and forward called swings and go down on things called slides the children had fun in the play area | a children's play area | they built a new play area in the park playground /ˈpleɪgraʊnd/ Noun a playground is an outdoor area where children can play we went to the playground | they built a new playground in the park | children love spending time in the playground | school playground pollution /pəˈluːʃən/ Noun pollution is things that make the air, water, ground, etc. dirty. Pollution is bad for the environment

Collocates: air pollution | light pollution air pollution is a big problem in the city | pollution is bad for both people and animals | light pollution is bad here recycle /riːˈsaɪkl/ Verb when you recycle, you make things have a second life so they can be used for something else recycle plastic | we recycle paper and plastic at home | she taught her children how to recycle

Noun: recycling | Adjective: recyclable recycling is important | is this bottle recyclable?

trash /træʃ/ Noun uncount trash is the things you don't need anymore and throw away in something called a trash can please throw your trash in the trash can | they picked up trash from the park | there was a lot of trash on the street slide /slaɪd/ Noun

a slide is something in a park that children sit on to go down the kids love playing on the slide | they built a water slide at the park | a new slide at the park speed limit /ˈspiːd ˈlɪmɪt/ Noun the speed limit is how fast you can drive. You should not drive faster than the speed limit don't go over the speed limit | what is the speed limit? | the speed limit on this road is 60 kilometers per hour tire /taɪə/ Noun

a tire is a thick rubber ring that is on the wheel of a car, bicycle, etc.

she bought new tires for her bike | they needed new tires for the car | tires are made of a material called rubber

Pages 148–149booking /ˈbʊkɪŋ/ Noun a booking is when you pay for something before you use it or go there

Collocates: make a booking | change a booking

I can try to change the booking | we made a booking at the hotel | an online booking garage /ˈɡærɑːʒ/ Noun a garage is a place where you take your car when you have a problem so you can get it fixed take your car to the garage | the woman at the garage fixed my car | I need to go to the garage to collect my car go away /ɡəʊ əˈweɪ/ Phrasal verb when you go away somewhere, you take a trip to a different place let's go away for the weekend | we are going away on vacation next month | she went away to visit her family juice /dʒuːs/ Noun uncount juice is a drink. It is made of vegetables or fruit

Collocates: orange juice | fruit juice

I had a glass of orange juice for breakfast | she likes to drink fruit juice in the morning | they sell carrot and apple juice at the café offer /'ɒfə(r)/ Noun when you offer someone something, you ask them if they would like it and tell them they can have it if they want it. When you say something like this, you are making an offer

Collocates: make an offer | accept an offer | an offer of something when you are making a polite offer, you should say "Would you like," not "Do you want" | I accepted her offer of a lift to the station | he said no to their offer of lunch | a job offer | thank you for your offer of help

Verb: offer

Collocates: offer to do something | offer someone something can I offer you a cup of tea? | he offered to show us round the city | I hope they offer me the job wrong /rɒŋ/ Adjective wrong means not correct we're on the wrong road! | you chose the wrong answer on the test | I think something is wrong with the car

Opposite – Adjective: right that is the right answer

Pages 150–151box /bɒks/ Noun a box is something you use to carry things pack the food into boxes | they opened the box to see what was inside | he arrived with a big box full of toys for the children charity /'tʃærɪti/ Noun a charity is an organization that helps people who need it. People give money (donate) to charity

Collocate: give money to charity they gave money to charity | the charity event made a lot of money | she works for a local charity earn /ɜ:n/ Verb

earn is to get money for the work that you do Collocate: earn money

he wants to earn money to buy a new bike | he earns good money at his job | how much do you earn?

education /ˌedʒʊ'keɪʃən/ Noun education is when you learn, usually at school or in college a good education | the education system is good | education is important

Verb: educate | Adjective: educated educate people about what you are doing | she is an educated woman fair price /feə 'praɪs/ Noun a fair price is a good amount of money to pay for something Collocates: pay a fair price | give a fair price we paid a fair price for the house | the store offers fair prices on all products | they gave me a fair price for the car fair trade /feə 'treɪd/ Noun fair trade means that workers get paid for their work and they work in good environments fair trade chocolate | fair trade gives workers fair pay | we buy fair trade products food bank /'fu:d bæŋk/ Noun a food bank is a place that gives people free food if they have no money or no home the food bank helps families who are in difficult situations | she helps at the local food bank | many people go to the food bank for meals magazine /mægə'zi:n/ Noun a magazine is something people read with news, information, and pictures

The Big Issue is a magazine | read a magazine | she likes to read car magazines politician /ˌpɒlɪ'tɪʃən/ Noun a politician is someone who works in the government the politician was popular | he wants to become a politician and help the people | the politician gave a speech

Noun: politics

I work in politics product /'prɒdʌkt/ Noun a product is something a company sells or makes we sell many products | fair trade products | products on sale Verb: produce

we produce water bottles radio /'reɪdɪəʊ/ Noun

a radio is a piece of equipment used for listening to things like the news, music, and people talking

Collocates: listen to the radio | a radio program

I listen to the radio while I'm having breakfast | he drives for hours listening to the radio in his car | I like listening to the news on the radio radio program /'reɪdɪəʊ ˌprəʊgræm/ Noun a radio program is something you listen to on the radio, such as the news, a play, or people talking about something there's an interesting radio program on tonight | she presents a radio program three times a week | I want to listen to this radio program skill /skɪl/ Noun

a skill is something that someone can do well he has good people skills | skills and experience | communication skills are important without /wɪˈðaʊt/ Preposition without means that someone doesn't have something without much money | she left the house without her keys | I can't do this without your help good luck /ɡʊd ˈlʌk/ Phrase when you say good luck to someone, you want them to do well at something good luck on your test! | she said, "good luck with your new job!" | we gave her a card that said, "good luck"

Page 152