

UNIT 1: PEOPLE

Page 9

bay /beɪ/ Noun

A bay is a semi-circle shape in the land where the sea comes in to meet the land they went sailing in the bay | the bay is calm today | they saw dolphins swimming in the bay diver /'daɪvər/ Noun a diver is someone who swims underwater with special equipment so they can breathe the diver saw lots of sharks under the water | the diver found an old coin underwater | the diver wears a special suit would you like to go diving one day?

Verb: dive

photographer /fə'tɒɡrəfər/ Noun a photographer is someone who takes photographs, especially when it is their job a photographer for Time magazine | a professional photographer (someone whose job is to take photographs) | a wedding photographer (someone who takes photographs of people's weddings) | journalists and photographers waited at the airport for the president's plane to land

Noun: photograph | Verb: photograph

Collocate: take a photograph there were lots of photographs on the wall | she took a photograph of the bridge | I like to photograph birds

Pages 10–11

already /ɔ:l'redi/ Adverb already means that something has happened before now they have already left for the airport | the film had already started when we arrived | I have already had my lunch explorer /ɪk'splɔ:rə/ Noun an explorer is someone who goes to places in order to find out about them, especially places that no one has been to before

Columbus, the explorer who discovered America, was Italian | the first European explorer came to New Zealand in 1642 | the island was named by explorer James Cook | Spanish explorers arrived here in 1536

Noun: exploration | Verb: explore the exploration of space | Henry Hudson explored the islands in 1607 filmmaker /'fɪlmˌmeɪkər/ Noun a filmmaker is someone who makes films for TV or the cinema a well-known Hollywood filmmaker | a brilliant filmmaker | one of the best filmmakers in Britain first name /'fɜ:st neɪm/ Noun your first name is the name your parents gave you, which comes before your family name what's your first name? | my dad's first name is Jeff | her surname is Williams, but I don't know what her first name is interview /'ɪntəvju:/ Noun an interview is a meeting at which somebody is asked questions, for example, to see if they are the best person for a job, or by a journalist or police officer to find out information she has a job interview tomorrow | they prepared carefully for the interview | the woman gave an interview to a newspaper

Noun: interviewer | Verb: interview the interviewer asked me a lot of questions | I was interviewed by the police about what I saw job /dʒɒb/ Noun your job is the work that you do to get money have you got a job? | do you enjoy your job? | it's a very boring job | I don't want an office job | she found a job as soon as she left school journalist /'dʒɜ:nəlɪst/ Noun a journalist is someone who writes for a newspaper or magazine, or who reports the news on television or radio journalists waited outside the building | a television journalist | she's a journalist who reports for The Times newspaper | my daughter wants to be a journalist | a sports journalist married /'mærid/ Adjective if you are married, you have a husband or wife

Collocate: get married

he's married and has three children | are you married? | he's 35 and he's still not married | we got married last May

Noun: marriage | Verb: marry

they have a happy marriage | will you marry me?

most of the time /'məʊst əv ðə taɪm/ Phrase if something happens most of the time, it happens a lot most of the time, the café is quiet | they spend most of the time outdoors | most of the time, she eats healthy food partner /'pɑ:tənə/ Noun your partner is someone you do something with, like work or study work with a partner | this is my business partner | they are partners in a new company

Noun: partnership | Verb: partner

we worked in partnership with each other | you need to partner with someone on the other team place of birth /pleɪs əv 'bɜ:θ/ Noun your place of birth is the area where you were born place of birth: Lagos, Nigeria | my place of birth is Aberdeen single /ˈsɪŋɡ(ə)l/ Adjective if you are single, you are not married

I don't want to be single | both my brothers are still single, but my sister is married | are you happy being single?

surname /ˈsɜːneɪm/ Noun your surname is your family name, which everyone else in your family has my surname is Jones | Smith is the most common surname in England | what's your surname?

Pages 12–13

aunt /ɑːnt/ Noun

your aunt is the sister of your father or mother one of my aunts lives in Germany | my aunt Jenny is my dad's sister | all my aunts are coming to the wedding | do you have any aunts or uncles? | my aunt gave me a laptop for my birthday | my mum has gone to stay with my aunt for a week businessman /ˈbɪznɪsmən/ Noun a businessman is a man who works in business he is a businessman | the businessman owns several companies | I want to be a businessman

Noun: business | Noun: businesswoman, businessperson

I work in the family business | my mum is a businesswoman | I've been a businessperson for the last ten years

call /kɔːl/ Verb

you say someone or something is called something when you talk about their name my sister is called Blanca | what's your dog called? | the place is called the Grand Canyon company /ˈkʌmpəni/ Noun a company is a business that makes, buys or sells things

Collocates: work for a company | work in a company | start a company

she started her own company last year | he works for a big international company | I work in a small company cousin /ˈkʌz(ə)n/ Noun your cousin is the son or daughter of your aunt and uncle

I've got three cousins | I'm going to stay with one of my cousins | she's a cousin on my mother's side (the daughter of my mother's brother or sister) | Alex and I are cousins (he's my cousin and I'm his cousin) | I've got five cousins, but they all live in the US daylight /ˈdeɪlaɪt/ Noun daylight is the natural light that comes from the sun during the day we should finish our hike before daylight ends | they only work during daylight hours | I prefer to drive in daylight dead /ded/ Adjective dead means someone or something died and is no longer alive the plant is dead because it didn't have enough sun | he found the bird dead on the ground | the doctor said the patient was dead

Noun: death | Verb: die

the death of our family pet | my grandma died last year the Earth /ɜːθ/ Noun the Earth is the planet we live on the Earth has one moon | we should protect the Earth's environment | the astronaut returned to Earth family member /ˈfæməliˌmembə/ Noun a family member is someone who is part of your family, for example, your parent, sister or grandparent he is a close family member | they invited every family member to the party | a family member got married last year father /ˈfɑːðə/ Noun your father is the man who is your parent my father is 48 | her father is a photographer | his father works in a factory | please don't tell my father you saw me here grandchild /ˈgræntʃaɪld/ Noun a grandchild is the child of your son or daughter the grandparents take care of the grandchild after school | I visit the grandchildren every weekend | the grandchildren love to play in the garden granddaughter /ˈgrændɔːtə/ Noun a granddaughter is the daughter of your son or daughter she is very happy for her granddaughter | they love to spend time with their granddaughter | the granddaughter is visiting her grandparents this weekend grandmother /ˈgræn(d)ˌmʌðə/ Noun your grandmother is the mother of your mother or father how old is your grandmother? | my grandmother is coming to live with us | her grandmother is a famous writer grandparent /ˈgræn(d)ˌpeərənt/ Noun your grandparents are the mother and father of your own mother or father all my grandparents are still alive | we're going to stay with my grandparents for Christmas grandson /ˈgrænsən/ Noun a grandson is the son of your son or daughter the grandfather loves to play with his grandson | they love their grandson | the grandson visited his grandparents during the holidays mother /ˈmʌðə/ Noun your mother is the woman who is your parent his mother is English | my mother is 52 | her mother is a photographer | his mother works in a hospital | my best friend's mother is my Spanish teacher mother-in-law /'mʌðə-ɪn-ɪ-ɪ-/ Noun your mother-in-law is the mother of your husband or wife her mother-in-law is a doctor | he gets on very well with his mother-in-law | her mother-in-law died last year nature /'neɪtʃə/ Noun nature is all the plants, animals and other things on Earth that are not made by people

Collocate: in nature

they love spending time in nature | it's important to protect nature and the environment | they enjoyed a walk in nature

Adjective: natural my hair is a natural colour – I haven't dyed it nephew /'nefju:/ Noun your nephew is the son of your sister or brother

I have a nephew in Paris | it's my nephew's birthday next week | she has three nephews and four nieces niece /ni:s/ Noun your niece is the daughter of your sister or brother her niece is at university in Norwich | I took my niece to the zoo for a birthday present | my nephew and niece are coming to stay for a week parent /'peərənt/ Noun your parents are your father and mother are your parents still alive? | my parents met when they were at university | both his parents are French | will your parents let you come to my party?

uncle /'ʌŋk(ə)l/ Noun your uncle is the brother of your father or mother my uncle gave me £100 for my birthday | my uncle Stan lives in Toronto | her three uncles came to the wedding

Pages 14–15

agriculture /'ægrɪkʌltʃə/ Noun uncount agriculture is the work of growing plants and keeping animals for food it's an area with a lot of farms and agriculture | now, less than 5% of the population work in agriculture | the land has a lot of sheep on it, so I think it's used for agriculture average /'æv(ə)rɪdʒ/ Adjective average things are calculated by adding up all the numbers in a list and then dividing the result by the number of items in the list. For example, if there are three children, and they are two years old, seven years old, and nine years old, their average age is six.

the average temperature here in March is 12 degrees | the average salary is about $35,000 a year | the average age in my class is 14 years and 7 months | average house prices rose again last year | she was above average height

Noun: average

use a calculator to work out the average billion /'bɪljən/ Noun a billion is the number 1,000,000,000 the company made more than a billion dollars | the world has more than eight billion people

Noun: billionaire

the owner of the company was a billionaire city /'sɪti/ Noun

a city is a big town where a lot of people live and work the city is in the east of the country | I didn't like living in a city | Buenos Aires is the biggest city in Argentina | Paris is a very old city | Vienna is a beautiful city | Beijing is the capital city of China (it is the most important city, where the government is) | the city centre (where there are a lot of shops and businesses) country /'kʌntri/ Noun

a country is an area of land that has its own government, such as France, China or Brazil

Canada is the second biggest country in the world | there are students from 23 countries at my university | which part of the country are you from? | we live in the north of the country countryside /'kʌntrɪsaɪd/ Noun uncount the countryside is the land outside towns and cities, with a lot of nature and fields the countryside is perfect for exploring | the countryside is quieter than the city | they enjoyed a picnic in the countryside

Noun: country

we had a lovely day in the country fact /fækt/ Noun

a fact is a piece of information that is true some of these facts were really interesting | the article was full of facts about Walt Disney | he knows lots of facts about animals | I had to learn ten facts about the Second World War for homework first language /'fɜ:st ˌlæŋɡwɪdʒ/ Noun your first language is the language you learned as a child and that you spoke at home she speaks good French, but Flemish is her first language | a lot of children at my school do not have English as their first language | English is obviously not his first language | French is the first language of about 50% of the people here have /hæv/ Verb

if you have something, it is yours

5.5 billion people have a mobile phone | I have two brothers and a sister | do you have a car? | I wish I had a warm coat with me industry /'ɪndəstri/ Noun uncount industry is the activity of making things in factories he works in industry | she works in the fashion industry | the automotive industry (making cars and lorries)

Adjective: industrial a small industrial town in New Jersey, US | the north of the country is very industrial internet /'ɪntənet/ Noun the internet is the system that allows computers all over the world to share information, pictures, etc.

I use the internet all the time for my homework | look it up on the internet | an internet search | do you have access to the internet? (can you connect to the internet?)

live /lɪv/ Verb

the place where you live is the town or country where your home is and where you spend most of your time

Twenty per cent of the world's population live in China | where do you live? | I lived in Madrid for two years | my parents still live in Manchester | she lives on her own | do you live in a house or a flat? | he lives close to the university mobile phone /məʊbaɪl 'fəʊn/ Noun a mobile phone is a telephone that you can carry around with you

I got my first mobile phone when I was eleven | you can't take your mobile phone into the exam room | please turn your mobile phones to silent (so they will not make a noise) during the concert opinion /ə'pɪnjən/ Noun your opinion is what you think or believe about something what's your opinion of the new boss? | do you have any opinion on the matter? | in my opinion, we should buy a new car per cent /pə sent/ Adjective, Adverb per cent is an amount up to a maximum of 100. You can use a symbol – % – to mean per cent more than fifty per cent of the students passed the exam | there was a five per cent decrease in the population | I got 85% on my test

Noun: percentage

Collocate: percentage of a percentage of our money paid for fixing the car percentage /pə'sentɪdʒ/ Noun a percentage is an amount of something that is described as if it is part of a total of 100. A high or large percentage of something is a large amount of it a percentage of people don't feel well after they take the medicine | a high percentage of our graduates find work in the banking industry | the percentage of Welsh speakers in the school rose to 24% | we were offered a percentage of the money population /pɒpjʊ'leɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun the population of a country is the number of people who live there what's the population of China? | the population of India is 1.4 billion | 20% of the population speak three languages production /prə'dʌkʃən/ Noun production is when you make things, such as products to sell Collocate: car production

there is a lot of car production in the area | they started production of the new phone last month | they stopped production for a week

Noun: product | Verb: produce

the company is making a new product | we produce smartphones region /'rɪ:dʒ(ə)n/ Noun a region is a large area of a country people have lived in the region for thousands of years | it can get very cold in the northern regions of India | coastal regions (near the sea) have a lower temperature | he wrote a book about German regions and cities

Adjective: regional

a regional government second language /sekənd 'læŋgwɪdʒ/ Noun a second language is a language that someone learns, for example, at school, which is not the language they spoke at home when they were growing up it's hard work learning a second language | she speaks English as a second language | I learned Spanish, my second language, by living in Spain for a year speak /spi:k/ Verb when you speak, you say words that people can hear and understand. If you can speak a language, you know enough of its words and grammar to be able to talk to other people who know that language

a billion people speak English as their second language | how many languages can you speak? | he speaks English with a German accent | she speaks very good Italian | can you speak more slowly, please?

story /'sto:ri/ Noun

a story is when you describe the events of something. The story might be real or invented

Collocates: tell a story | read a story | write a story

she loves to tell stories to her children | he wrote a story about a magic horse | she read a bedtime story to her younger sister such as /'sʌtʃ əz/ Phrase when you say such as, you are giving an example of something

I like fruits such as apples and bananas | they visited famous places such as the Eiffel Tower | animals such as lions and tigers live in the wild surprising /sə'praɪzɪŋ/ Adjective if something is surprising, you didn't expect it the results of the test were surprising | she found it surprising that I didn't know the answer | that's really surprising news

Noun: surprise | Verb: surprise

the news was a surprise | you surprised me! I didn't know you were planning a party!

text /tekst/ Noun

a text is a piece of written words such as a story, an essay or a report. It can also be a message that you send using a mobile phone the teacher asked them to read the text carefully | answer the questions about the text

Verb: text

my friend texted me to tell me the news use /ju:z/ Verb

if you use something, you do something with it nearly half the people on the planet use the internet | may I use your phone? | use this towel to dry your hair | use your dictionary to find out what the words mean | I used the money to buy a bike work /wɜ:k/ Verb

if you work, you have a job and get money for it his mother works in a bank | she works in New York | over 20 people work in my office | where do you work? | he worked in a restaurant every evening | do you have to work on Sundays? | he works hard at the factory all week

Pages 16–17

around /ə'raʊnd/ Preposition around means something is near or close by they walked around the park | there are many shops around the corner | the cat is somewhere around the house introduce /ˌɪntrə'dju:s/ Verb if you introduce people, you tell each of them the other's name when they meet for the first time. If you introduce yourself, you tell people your name when you meet them for the first time I'll introduce you to everyone in a minute | John, Alastair – have you been introduced? | let me introduce you to my mother | I just wanted to introduce myself: my name's Jennie Bond island /'aɪlənd/ Noun

an island is an area of land that has a sea or lake all the way round it an island in the Pacific Ocean | Anglesey is an island off the coast of Wales | you can drive round the island in fewer than two hours list /lɪst/ Noun

a list is a number of things written one after the other Collocates: make a list | write a list | a list of she made a shopping list before going to the supermarket | I wrote a list of things I need to do | a list of things to put in my suitcase for the trip Verb: list we listed all the things we needed to do to finish the project meeting /'mi:tɪŋ/ Noun a meeting is when a group of people come together to talk about something Collocate: have a meeting she attended a meeting with her colleagues | let's have a meeting next week | it was an important meeting about the new project Verb: meet do you want to meet for coffee?

ocean /'əʊʃ(ə)n/ Noun an ocean is a large area of water, bigger than a sea the ocean between Europe and America is the Atlantic | the Pacific Ocean | we sailed for two weeks across the ocean presentation /prezən'teɪʃən/ Noun a presentation is when you give information about something using words and sometimes pictures Collocate: give a presentation she gave a presentation about the project | they are preparing a presentation for the meeting | I don't like giving presentations Verb: present we are presenting the information tomorrow repeat /rɪ'pi:t/ Verb

if you repeat something, you say it again I can't hear you, can you repeat that, please? | parrots can repeat sounds (they can copy them) | I didn't believe him at first so I asked him to repeat it spell /spel/ Verb to spell is to write down all the letters of a word in the right order can you spell your surname for me, please? | Americans spell colour without the letter 'u' | does anybody in the class know how to spell 'embarrassed'?

stand /stænd/ Verb

if you are standing, you are on your feet with your body straight he stood by the door waiting for his taxi | I had to stand on the bus all the way home | don't stand there – come and sit down

Pages 18–19

alone /ə'ləʊn/ Adverb alone means without other people, and by yourself I live alone in an apartment | don't leave him alone for too long | I often go to the cinema alone Adjective: lonely

I feel lonely when I'm not with people computer /kəm'pjʊ:tə/ Noun a computer is a machine that stores large amounts of information, videos, music, pictures, etc.

I've got over 2,000 songs on my computer | how old is your computer? | a laptop computer | I watch TV programmes on my computer

film /fɪlm/ Noun

a film is a story shown in moving pictures Collocate: watch a film
they watched a new film at the cinema | she is making a film about wildlife | I like watching films in my free time Noun: filmmaker | Verb: film my brother works as a filmmaker | I saw a TV crew filming in the street hope /həʊp/ Verb

if you hope something will happen, you want something to happen or be true

I hope you pass your driving test | we're hoping to go on holiday to Spain next year | 'is Tim coming home for Christmas?' – 'I hope so.' | I hope we can still be friends | I hope they won't be upset when they find out what's happened

Noun: hope

there isn't a hope of getting there on time (it's not possible to get there on time) | it's not impossible, so there's still some hope office /'ɒfɪs/ Noun an office is a building or a room where people work, usually sitting at desks my office is on the second floor | an open-plan office (where there are lots of people working in the same big room) | a big office block (a building full of offices) | I don't want to work in an office | would you come into my office, please?

rainforest /'reɪnfɒrɪst/ Noun a rainforest is a large forest of trees and other plants in a hot area of the world where there is a lot of rain the rainforests of central America | they're cutting down a lot of the rainforest | we're raising money to protect the rainforests | a trip to a rainforest so /səʊ/ Adverb

you can use so to connect ideas he studied hard, so he passed the exam | they were hungry, so they had something to eat special /speʃəl/ Adjective when something is special, it is different from others and is better they celebrated her birthday with a special dinner | the teacher gave a special prize to the student | it's a special day for the whole family suddenly /'sʌdnli/ Adverb if something happens suddenly, it happens quickly and without you expecting it the car suddenly stopped in the middle of the road | she suddenly knocked on the door | the weather suddenly changed from sunny to rainy Adjective: sudden

there was a sudden loud noise that came from outside everything /'evriθɪŋ/ Pronoun everything refers to all things that exist or happen you told me everything I needed to know | everything is ready for the party | they did everything they could to help | everything will be fine, don't worry

Opposite – Pronoun: nothing

I have nothing to tell you most /məʊst/ Determiner most means the greatest amount of something the most amazing house | it's the most important decision of his life | she is the most likely to be famous in the class opposite /'ɒpəzɪt/ Adjective the opposite is something completely different, for example 'off' is the opposite of 'on'

they sat on opposite sides of the table | she has the opposite opinion to me | the opposite of 'yes' is 'no' relationship /rɪ'leɪʃ(ə)nʃɪp/ Noun your relationship to someone is the fact of being their mother, father, brother, sister, etc.

what's your relationship to him? is he your brother? | there's no relationship between us – he's just someone I was at school with

Noun: relation

I've got lots of relations in Germany type /taɪp/ Noun

the type of something is its sort or kind there are many different types of fruit in the market | her blood type is O | what type of book do you like to read?

wife /waɪf/ Noun your wife is the woman you are married to this is my wife, Wendy | he has a wife and three children | my wife works in a bank evaluate /ɪ'veljueɪt/ Verb when you evaluate something, you think about all of it, including its value, quality and maybe how important it is the teacher will evaluate the students' performance | they carefully evaluated everything before making a decision | the results were evaluated by a team

Page 20

Noun: evaluation

there was an evaluation of the students' performance

UNIT 2: POSSESSIONS

Page 21

armchair /'ɑ:mʃjeə/ Noun an armchair is a big comfortable chair with sides that you can rest your arms on she's sitting in the armchair | a big leather armchair | a comfortable armchair | a blue armchair bike /baɪk/ Noun

a bike is a bicycle, a road vehicle with two wheels that you ride by pushing the pedals with your feet

Collocates: ride a bike | a bike ride she rides her bike to school every day | he bought a new mountain bike | they went on a bike ride through the park

fan /fæn/ Noun

a fan is a machine that moves the air around to keep you cool

Collocates: use a fan | turn on the fan they turned on the fan to cool down the room | I use a fan in my room when it's hot | he bought an electric fan for his bedroom

Verb: fan

I need to fan myself with something – it's too hot!

imagine /ɪ'mædʒɪn/ Verb when you imagine something, you think about it in your mind she tried to imagine what life would be like in the future | it's hard to imagine a world without the internet | he couldn't imagine a better place to live

Noun: imagination

Collocate: use your imagination use your imagination when you write a story possession /pə'zeʃ(ə)n/ Noun your possessions are all the things that you own when the house burned down, we lost nearly all our possessions | until she was eight, the doll was her favourite possession | he left last month, taking only a few possessions

Verb: possess

we lost everything we possessed in the fire pot /pɒt/ Noun

a pot is something you use for cooking, for example, pasta she cooked the soup in a large pot | they filled the pot with water for the rice | he bought a new pot for his kitchen rug /rʌg/ Noun

a rug is a small carpet there's a rug in front of the window | a beautiful Turkish rug | it has the soft feel of a wool rug | a blue rug with blue cushions sell /sel/ Verb

when you sell something, you give it to someone who gives you money for it she wants to sell her old car | she sells fruit at the market every weekend | they decided to sell their house and move to the countryside

Noun: sale || Opposite – Verb: buy

Collocate: on sale

the TV was on sale for just $150 | they bought a new sofa for the living room sofa /'səʊfə/ Noun

a sofa is a long, soft chair that two or more people can sit on at the same time there's a big sofa in the living room | they sat down on the sofa | we need to buy a new sofa | she lay on the sofa for a few minutes | a comfortable sofa | we sat on the sofa watching TV table tennis /'teɪbl tennis/ Noun uncount table tennis is a sport that people play over a table, with small bats and a ball. There is a net in the middle of the table

Collocate: play table tennis they enjoy playing table tennis in the evenings | the table tennis match was very exciting | he bought a new table tennis racket yesterday teapot /'ti:pɒt/ Noun

a teapot is a container you use for making tea. It has a hole where you put the tea and water, and a spout (the part that liquid comes out of) where you pour the tea out from

she poured the tea from the teapot into the cups | he bought a beautiful teapot at the market | they filled the teapot with hot water and added the tea leaves

Pages 22–23

apartment /ə'pɑ:tmənt/ Noun an apartment is a group of rooms on one floor of a building, where someone lives. The usual British word is flat we shared an apartment in Gas Street | a two-bedroom apartment in Paris | a city-centre apartment | there's an apartment for sale in the next building building /'bɪldɪŋ/ Noun a building is somewhere people live, work, study or stay. It has walls and a roof Collocates: in the building | office building | apartment building they live in a tall building in the city centre | the office building is near the train station | the new apartment building has a lift

Verb: build

they are building a new apartment block next to the park chair /ˈtʃeə/ Noun

a chair is a piece of furniture that you sit on a table and chairs | this chair is broken | an uncomfortable chair | we need another chair in here cupboard /ˈkʌbəʊd/ Noun a cupboard is a piece of furniture with a door and shelves you keep things in a kitchen cupboard | put it back in the cupboard | a cupboard under the sink | the plates are in the cupboard | I found my shirt at the back of a cupboard | she found some old photos in a cupboard curtain /ˈkɜːt(ə)n/ Noun curtains are large pieces of material that hang across a window to stop light coming in or going out Collocate: draw (close) the curtains the curtains are open | it was getting dark so I drew the curtains | she got out of bed and opened the curtains difference /ˈdɪfərəns/ Noun a difference is the way in which things are not the same Collocate: a big difference there is a big difference between the two products | they noticed the difference in quality | a little effort can make a big difference Adjective: different | Adverb: differently

we look different from each other, but we're sisters | the teacher spoke to me differently from the other student interest /ˈɪntrəst/ Noun uncount interest is the feeling that you want to know more about something or someone Collocates: have an interest in | show interest | lose interest she has an interest in photography | he showed interest in the job offer | they lost interest in the project Adjective: interesting | interested | Verb: interest we had an interesting discussion | I'm interested in learning more | politics doesn't interest me lamp /læmp/ Noun

a lamp is an electrical device on a desk or table that gives out light there's a lamp next to the computer | it's dark in here, can you turn on the lamp? | the lamp was broken middle /ˈmɪdl/ Noun the middle is between things in the centre Collocate: in the middle she stood in the middle of the room | the cat sat in the middle of the bed | they reached the middle of the book by the end of the week neighbour /ˈneɪbə/ Noun a neighbour is someone who lives next door or near to you their neighbour is very friendly and helpful | the new neighbour moved in last week | they asked their neighbour to water the plants while they were away Noun: neighbourhood we live in a neighbourhood just outside of town picture /ˈpɪktʃə/ Noun a picture is a drawing, painting or photo that you put on the wall because it looks nice there are two pictures on the wall behind my desk | the room will look nice once we put some pictures up | it's a picture of the mountains above Zakopane plant /plɑːnt/ Noun

a plant is a living thing such as a tree or a vegetable there's a plant next to the television | the garden is full of plants | house plants (plants that you grow in pots inside your home) | edible wild plants (that you can safely eat) | this very popular plant grows well indoors size /saɪz/ Noun the size of something is how big or small it is Collocate: the size of she bought a dress in a smaller size | the size of the room is perfect for a home office | he wasn't sure if the size was right television /ˈtelɪvɪʒ(ə)n/ Noun a television is a piece of equipment with a screen for watching programmes Collocate: on television what's on television tonight? | I like watching television | a television set | a television programme | watching sport on television | we've got three televisions in the house

Pages 24–25

because of /bɪˈkɒz əv/ Phrase because of is a way of explaining that something happened due to something else they were late because of the heavy traffic | the match was cancelled because of the rain | he couldn't attend the meeting because of a problem at work boot /buːt/ Noun boots are big heavy shoes a pair of boots | take your boots off before you come in | my boots are very muddy (covered in mud) | I need some new boots for the winter bottle /ˈbɒt(ə)l/ Noun a bottle is a container for liquids a bottle of water | there's a bottle of milk in the fridge | an empty bottle | a glass bottle camera /ˈkæm(ə)rə/ Noun a camera is a piece of equipment that you use to take photographs I always take my camera when I go for a walk | an expensive camera | it's a very simple camera that's easy to use climbing /ˈklaɪmɪŋ/ Noun uncount climbing is the activity of climbing rocks or mountains for pleasure we're going climbing in France next month | do you enjoy climbing? | a climbing holiday | climbing is great fun Noun: climber | Verb: climb a group of mountain climbers | it took three hours to climb the mountain everywhere /'evriweə/ Pronoun everywhere means in all places they looked everywhere for the missing keys | you can see flowers everywhere in the garden | the news spread everywhere in the town first-aid kit /fɜːst-'eɪd kɪt/ Noun a first-aid kit is a set of medical equipment such as plasters and medicines that you keep in case someone has an accident and gets hurt or feels ill take a first-aid kit if you're going up the mountain | there's a first-aid kit in the cupboard | have you got a first-aid kit? | always keep a first-aid kit in your car glove /glʌv/ Noun

a glove is piece of clothing that you wear on your hand to keep it warm when it is cold outside or to protect your hand from something. You usually use the plural, gloves

a pair of gloves | he took his gloves off and put them in his pocket | don't forget your gloves – it's cold outside | leather gloves | she was wearing gardening gloves (to protect her hands and stop them getting dirty)

hat /hæt/ Noun

a hat is a piece of clothing that you wear on your head take your hat off | I don't like wearing hats | a woollen hat knife /naɪf/ Noun

a knife is a sharp tool that you use to cut things cut the string with a knife | a penknife (that you can carry around with you) | be careful with that knife! It's sharp laptop /'læptɒp/ Noun

a laptop is a computer that you can carry around with you. They can fold when you are not using them so the screen covers the keyboard, which makes them easy to carry

I dropped my laptop and broke it | I bought a new laptop last week | he shut down his laptop and put it in the desk drawer

map /mæp/ Noun

a map is an image of an area that shows you where roads, hills, mountains, etc. are a map of Malta | can you show me your street on the map? | I'll never find it without a map | a street map of Chicago (giving the names of all the streets) | a tourist map | can you read a map? | the map shows how high the hills are mountain /'maʊntɪn/ Noun a mountain is a very high hill we reached the top of the mountain | the hotel had a great view of the mountains | he enjoys climbing mountains | we have a family house in the mountains | we got a long way up the mountain | Mount Fuji is a mountain in Japan north /nɔːθ/ Adjective north is a direction that is to your left when you face the sun coming up they travelled to the north of the country | I live in the south, not the north | they live in the north of England pen /pen/ Noun

a pen is something that has ink in it and that you use to write with write your answers with a pen | may I borrow your pen? | don't forget to take a pen for your exam | I lost my pen in school today pink /pɪŋk/ Adjective pink is a colour that is a light shade of red

Barbie wears pink | she wore a pink dress to the party | the garden is full of pink flowers professional /prə'feʃ(ə)nəl/ Adjective someone who is professional gets money for doing a particular activity as a job a professional musician | she wants to become a professional photographer | a professional baseball player

Noun: professional

a young medical professional (someone who works as a doctor) rucksack /'rʌksæk/ Noun a rucksack is a large bag that you carry on your back, for example, when you are on a walking holiday leave your rucksack in the tent | my rucksack was absolutely full | I could see her brightly-coloured rucksack from a long way away | a waterproof rucksack (a rucksack that doesn't let water through it)

shelf /ʃelf/ Noun

a shelf is a flat surface attached to a wall or in a cupboard that you can put things on

Collocates: a bookshelf | the top shelf | the bottom shelf

the batteries are on the bottom shelf | the shelves were full of tins of food | there are some towels on the top shelf in the bathroom | I need more shelves for my books | the shelves in the supermarket were nearly empty at the end of the day

sure /ʃʊə/ Adjective

if you are sure about something, you are certain

Collocate: make sure

she is sure that she left the keys on the table | make sure you lock the door before you leave | I wasn't sure if I could attend the meeting

Opposite – Adjective: unsure

I'm unsure who told me about it torch /tɔːtʃ/ Noun

a torch is a small electric lamp that you can carry with you my torch isn't working any more | a powerful torch | Kerstin shone the torch straight into his eyes | it's a useful app that turns your phone into a torch usually /'juːʒʊəli/ Adverb usually means that something is common and happens often they usually have dinner at 7 p.m. | she usually goes to the gym after work | they usually spend their weekends at home

Opposite – Adverb: unusually unusually, no one was at the house this evening

Pages 26–27

audio chip /'ɔːdiəʊ tʃɪp/ Noun an audio chip is a small electronic piece in a device that can play sound the computer has a new audio chip for better sound | they put an audio chip in the device | the audio chip improved the sound quality of the speakers battery /'bætəri/ Noun

a battery is a device that stores energy and provides power to electrical devices

Collocate: phone battery my phone battery is dying | he needs to charge the battery before using the camera | they replaced the old battery with a new one case /keɪs/ Noun

a case is something you use to protect something, for example, a phone

Collocates: in a case | into a case | phone case she bought a new case for her phone | my laptop is in a case | put your iPad into a case to keep it safe continent /'kɒntɪnənt/ Noun a continent is a main area of land on the Earth, such as Africa, Asia or Europe Africa is the second largest continent in the world | the explorer has visited every continent except Antarctica | Europe is the smallest continent by area front /frʌnt/ Noun

the front of something is the part that faces forward, or the part you can see when you look at it

Collocate: in front of they stood in front of the building | the front of the car was damaged in the accident | sit in front of me

Opposite – Noun: back sit in the back of the car, please global /'glɒbəl/ Adjective something global is related to the whole world

Collocate: global product global warming is a big problem | they discussed the global product | it's a global company, with offices around the world

Noun: globe

everyone around the globe knows the singer headquarters /'hedkwɔːtəz/ Noun plural the headquarters is the main office of a company

Collocate: global headquarters the company's headquarters are located in Mexico City | they moved their headquarters to a larger building | the police headquarters are in the city centre producer /prə'djuːsə/ Noun a producer is someone that makes or grows something Collocate: a producer of the country is a producer of coffee | a big producer of chocolate

Noun: product | Verb: produce

the company is making a new product | we produce smartphones

normally /'nɔːməli/ Adverb normally means in the way that most often happens she normally goes to bed at 10 p.m. | they normally have breakfast together | they normally eat dinner at 7 p.m.

Adjective: normal

it was a normal day at work screen /skriːn/ Noun

a screen is the flat part of an electronic device where you can see things and there are images and information

Collocates: phone screen | TV screen the computer screen went black suddenly | the phone screen broke | he fixed the broken screen on his laptop sound /saʊnd/ Noun

a sound is a noise

what's that sound? | a loud sound was coming from upstairs | the lion made a sound south /saʊθ/ Noun south is the direction that is to your right when you face the sun coming up the birds fly south for the winter | she lives in the south of France | they headed south after visiting the city

Opposite – Noun: north

the North Pole

Pages 28–29

advert /'ædvɜːt/ Noun

an advert is a short piece of text, often with a picture, or a short film on TV that tries to make people want to buy a particular product

I saw an advert for it on TV | there are too many adverts on TV | the great thing about the BBC is that there are no adverts | a front page advert in a national newspaper | an advert for a new smartphone bad /bæd/ Adjective something that is bad is not good that's a bad idea | this bike is very bad at cycling through mud | plastic is bad for the environment camping /kæmpɪŋ/ Noun camping is the activity of staying in a tent for a holiday they went camping at a summer camp in the mountains | the family went camping

Verb: camp

Collocate: go camping

my family and I went camping a lot when I was younger | we camped in the forest customer /'kʌstəmə/ Noun a customer is someone who buys things from a shop or business the shop offers excellent customer service | they are trying to get new customers with special offers | there are a lot of customers in the shop

desk /desk/ Noun

a desk is a table that you use to do work on in your office or classroom or at home there's a computer and a phone on my desk | a wooden desk | an untidy desk | I put the magazine on your desk engine /'endʒɪn/ Noun

an engine is a machine that gives energy to vehicles like cars and buses the car's engine is very powerful | he started the engine and drove off | they had to repair the engine after it broke down expensive /ɪk'spensɪv/ Adjective something that is expensive costs a lot of money an expensive watch | I like expensive clothes | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us | an expensive meal | that's a nice dress – was it expensive? | it was very expensive to take a taxi to the airport

Opposite – Adjective: cheap

a cheap hotel | tickets for the concert were quite cheap horrible /'hɒrɪbəl/ Adjective when something or someone is horrible, it is/they are not nice the food tasted horrible, so I didn't eat it | I felt horrible after hearing the bad news | the accident was horrible large /lɑ:dʒ/ Adjective something that is large is quite big he lives in a large flat in Dubai | I need a pullover, a large one | London is a very large city | what's the largest size of shoes you sell?

lovely /'lʌvli/ Adjective when something or someone is lovely, it is nice and pleasant they had a lovely day at the beach | she is a lovely person and always helps others | the park is a lovely place to relax

Noun: love | Verb: love they were in love | I love you medium /'mi:diəm/ Adjective something that is medium is not large and not small but in the middle of a group of different amounts or sizes what size coat do you want – medium or large? | the shirts are available in medium or large size | a medium-sized cup of coffee modern /'mɒdən/ Adjective something that is modern is new and fashionable her house is very modern | they have a lot of modern furniture | modern computers are very powerful | people are living longer thanks to modern medicine motorbike /'məʊtəbaɪk/ Noun a motorbike is a vehicle with two wheels and an engine, which you can drive. Sometimes, it's called a motorcycle

Collocate: ride a motorbike the manager rides his motorbike to work every day | they bought a new motorbike last week | the motorbike is very fast and powerful old /əʊld/ Adjective something that is old is not new. Someone who is old is not young an old car | the cathedral is very old | they're going to build a modern library to replace the old one | my grandfather is a very old man

one /wʌn/ Pronoun

you use one when you are talking about something you have already named

I'd like one of those envelopes, please. A green one | those are the ones I was telling you about | I tried to buy a new jacket, but I couldn't find one that I liked pound /paʊnd/ Noun the pound is the unit of currency in the UK. The symbol for it is £ a pound is worth about $1.35 | I paid ten pounds for the book | a one-pound coin | a ten-pound note resell /ri:'sel/ Verb when you resell something, you sell it again after it has already been sold before they resell used cars | I resell clothes online | they resell the products quickly after buying them shop assistant /'ʃɒp əsɪstənt/ Noun a shop assistant is someone who works in a shop the shop assistant helped her find the right size | I spoke to the shop assistant about the product | the friendly shop assistant said hello slow /sləʊ/ Adjective something that is slow does not move or work fast my computer is very slow | my car is very slow at getting up hills | we're making very slow progress at the moment

Adverb: slowly || Opposite – Adjective: fast

the bus came slowly round the corner | she likes driving fast cars small /smɔ:l/ Adjective something that is small is not big a small sofa for two people | Cambridge is quite a small city | his feet are very small | a small café | she was carrying a small dog | the hotel was nice, but the rooms were rather small tourist /'tʊərɪst/ Noun

a tourist is someone who is visiting somewhere on holiday

Trafalgar Square was full of tourists | a queue of tourists at the Eiffel Tower | a tourist bus | tourists spend a lot of money here | a coach stopped outside the cathedral and 50 tourists got off

Noun: tourism

tourism has increased a lot in the south of the country | we want to have more tourism on the island useful /'ju:sf(ə)l/ Adjective something that is useful is good and can do things you want it to do these shelves are very useful | there's plenty of useful information on the internet | these pockets are useful for keeping money in | she gave me some very useful advice useless /'ju:sləs/ Adjective something that is useless does not work properly my computer is very slow – it's completely useless | our tent was useless. It let in water every time it rained | the camera is useless at taking photos in the dark

Pages 30–31

aid /eɪd/ Noun

an aid is something that helps you

Collocates: financial aid | medical aid | food aid | visual aid she walks with the aid of a stick | they sent medical aid to help the people after the earthquake amazing /ə'meɪzɪŋ/ Adjective when something is amazing, it is very, very good they had an amazing view of the mountains from their window | the holiday was an amazing experience | the sunset was amazing, with beautiful colours in the sky

Adjective: amazed

Collocate: amazed by

I was amazed by the gifts I received century /'sentʃəri/ Noun a century is 100 years the 21st century has seen many changes in technology | the building is over a century old | the 20th century was a time of change ceramic /sə'remɪk/ Noun ceramic is a type of material. It is made from another material called clay, which has been heated to a high temperature. You can use ceramic for making pots, tiles, etc.

mum bought a beautiful ceramic pot at the market | the floor is covered with ceramic tiles colourful /'kʌləf(ə)l/ Adjective something that is colourful includes a lot of bright colours the women all wore very colourful dresses | the wall was covered in colourful paintings | those curtains are nice and colourful

Noun: colour

I prefer to have natural colours in the living room earring /'ɪərɪŋ/ Noun earrings are pieces of jewellery you wear in holes in your ears or that clip onto your ears

Collocates: gold earrings | silver earrings | pair of earrings

I wore a pair of gold earrings to the party | I bought silver earrings as a gift | I don't like earrings formal /'fɔ:məl/ Adjective something formal is serious or for an important situation

Collocate: formal clothes a suit is an example of formal clothes | I wore a formal dress to the wedding | the invitation told us to wear formal clothes

Adverb: formally || Opposite – Adjective: informal let's formally introduce ourselves | an informal interview gift /ɡɪft/ Noun

a gift is a present you give to someone Collocates: buy a gift | receive a gift she bought a gift for her friend's birthday | I received a beautiful gift from my parents | you should take a gift if you go to someone's house for dinner

Verb: gift

they gifted me a new pair of trainers history /'hɪst(ə)ri/ Noun uncount history is all the things and events in the past are you interested in history? | if we don't study history, we won't be able to understand the present | she knew a lot about the history of the island | at school, I thought history was boring | the same mistakes have been made many times throughout history | the history of the Roman Empire | she teaches ancient history (the history of the world 2,000 or more years ago) informal /ɪn'fɔ:məl/ Adjective informal means relaxed and casual Collocate: informal clothes they had an informal meeting at the café | she wore informal clothes to the picnic | please wear informal clothes on Fridays

Opposite – Adjective: formal you should wear something formal to a job interview kite /kaɪt/ Noun

a kite is a piece of material you fly in the air when the wind blows. It has a long string so you can control it from the ground

Collocate: fly a kite

the children flew their kites in the park | he bought a large, colourful kite for the beach | the kite was high in the sky made from /'meɪd frəm/ Phrase when something is made from something, it is the material used to build or develop it from something else the table is made from wood | a bag made from recycled plastic bottles | a window made from old glass made of /'meɪd əv/ Phrase when something is made of something, it is the material used to build or develop it the chair is made of wood | her necklace is made of gold | the toys are made of plastic | the door is made of metal memorize /'meməraɪz/ Verb when you memorize something, you learn it so well that you can remember it exactly he quickly memorized the facts for the quiz | the actor memorized his lines | I find it hard to memorize dates in history

Noun: memory | Adjective: memorable

Collocates: good memory | bad memory

I have a good memory for numbers | I have a bad memory – I forget everything! | a memorable day out mug /mʌɡ/ Noun

a mug is a tall cup you drink out of, usually hot drinks like tea or coffee he bought a mug with a funny phrase on it | they enjoyed a warm mug of tea on a cold day | the mug is big enough to hold half a litre of tea musician /mjuːʃɪ(ə)n/ Noun a musician is someone who plays a musical instrument a jazz musician | the musicians walked onto the stage | the musicians played beautifully | the band was five musicians who'd started playing together at school

Noun: music

what sort of music do you listen to? | pop music necklace /'neɪklɪs/ Noun a necklace is a piece of jewellery you wear around your neck. Often, it is made from a material like silver or gold

Collocates: gold necklace | silver necklace | wear a necklace she wore a gold necklace | I prefer silver necklaces | she loves wearing necklaces with different clothes occasion /ə'keɪʒən/ Noun an occasion is an important event or day

Collocate: special occasion they celebrated the occasion with a big party | he wore a suit for the special occasion | a family occasion where everyone is together remind /rɪ'maɪnd/ Verb

if something reminds you of someone or something, it makes you think about them

Collocates: remind someone about something | remind someone of someone or something | remind someone to do something does this story remind you of anything? | he reminds me of my brother (he looks like my brother) | that song reminds me of my wedding (it makes me think about my wedding) ship /ʃɪp/ Noun

a ship is a big boat that sails on the sea

I can see three ships on the water | to go by ship to Australia | the ship hit some rocks and sank | it took the ship just over a week to get to New York silver /'sɪlvə/ Noun silver is a type of metal that you can use for creating jewellery or making coins she wore a silver bracelet to the event | the coins were made of pure silver | the necklace was decorated with silver bits someone /'sʌmwʌn/ Pronoun you can use someone to talk about a person you don't know or when you aren't talking about one person in particular they found someone who could fix the car | someone left a box at the door | I know someone who works in that company

special /'speʃəl/ Adjective

something or someone that is special, has a lot of meaning for you and is important a special gift from my grandma | a special dinner for my graduation | it's a special day for the whole family

Adverb: especially we came here especially to see you unique /ju:'ni:k/ Adjective something unique is something special and unusual this object is unique | what's special and unique to you?

wood /wʊd/ Noun

wood is a material that comes from trees. You can use it to make furniture a chair made from different woods | the wood came from the local forest | they cut the wood into pieces to make a table

Page 32

blinds /blaɪndz/ Noun blinds are things you use to cover a window and stop the light coming in or going out the blinds are green | open the blinds and look outside | the blinds are stuck (they won't move and can't be opened) carpet /'kɑ:pɪt/ Noun

a carpet is a large piece of material that covers a floor there's a blue carpet on the floor | don't spill your coffee on the carpet! | my dad spent the morning putting the new carpet in my bedroom currency /'kʌrənsɪ/ Noun a country's currency is the money that is used there. For example, the currency of the US is the dollar the single European currency, the euro | banks were selling sterling (the currency of the UK) and buying foreign currency dollar /'dɒlə/ Noun the dollar is the unit of currency used in the US and some other countries. The symbol for it is $ a ten-dollar bill (a bank note worth $10) | a pound is worth about one dollar thirty-five cents | it cost me $40 to get a taxi here drawer /ˈdrɔːə/ Noun

a drawer is a part of a piece of furniture that you can push in and pull out, which you use to keep things in

Collocates: the top drawer | the bottom drawer the knives and forks are in the top drawer | I keep my passport in the top drawer of my desk | have a look in the bottom drawer – it might be there euro /ˈjʊərəʊ/ Noun the euro is the unit of currency used in 20 European countries. The symbol for it is € the concert tickets were one hundred euros each | £1 is about €1.13 | they use the euro in Germany money /ˈmʌni/ Noun uncount money is the coins and bank notes that you can use to buy things

I forgot to bring any money with me | have you got enough money for the train ticket? | how much money have you got? | it costs a lot of money to fly to Australia | my old car isn't worth much money rollerskates /ˈrɒləʃkeɪts/ Noun plural rollerskates are things you wear on your feet with wheels on the bottom used for moving across the ground she loves to wear her rollerskates at the park | he bought a new pair of rollerskates for his birthday | I've never used rollerskates before!

UNIT 3: PLACES

Page 33

centre /'sentə/ Noun the centre is somewhere you go to shop, walk and do different activities. It is the main part of a town or city

Collocates: city centre | town centre

I live in the city centre | city centres have a lot of traffic | in the centre of the town

Adjective: central the central road through town everyone /'evriwʌn/ Pronoun everyone is all the people in a group or situation it was a great party, and everyone enjoyed it | everyone should be here by noon | is everyone ready to go?

Determiner: every every person is different

Pages 34–35

art gallery /'ɑ:t gæləri/ Noun an art gallery is a place where you can go and look at paintings she works in an art gallery | the city has over 30 art galleries | a new art gallery is opening today | an exhibition in a famous art gallery beautiful /'bjʊ:təf(ə)l/ Adjective something or someone that is beautiful is very nice to look at Florence is a beautiful city | a beautiful old church | Elizabeth Taylor was a very beautiful woman | a beautiful painting

Noun: beauty || Opposite – Adjective: ugly

an area of great beauty (a beautiful area) | a rather ugly building big /bɪg/ Adjective something that is big is large

London is a very big city | she works in a big shop | his feet are very big | they live in a big house by the river | I'm afraid of big dogs

Opposite – Adjective: small

Norwich is a small city | their house is much smaller than ours break /breɪk/ Noun

when you are at work, a break is a time when you stop working and relax for a short while before starting to work again

Collocates: a lunch/tea/coffee break | a short/long break

I usually take a break at about eleven | I worked from eight till four without a break | that was a long break | I had to go to the bank during my lunch break café /'kæfeɪ/ Noun

a café is a place you go to drink tea and coffee and eat food Collocate: local café

the local café has great coffee | there's a new café that opened last week | we met at the café for a chat cheap /tʃi:p/ Adjective something that is cheap does not cost very much money a shop selling cheap clothes | a cheap hotel | tickets for the concert were quite cheap | I only bought it because it was cheap | I bought a cheap watch that broke after a week

Opposite – Adjective: expensive

an expensive watch | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us clean /kli:n/ Adjective when a place or the air is clean it is not dirty at last, the air in the city is clean | these are the cleanest beaches in England | if the rivers are clean, there will be lots of fish in them

Opposite – Adjective: polluted the lake is polluted so no one swims in it crowded /'kraʊdɪd/ Adjective a place is crowded when there are so many people there that it is difficult to move around easily

I got onto a crowded train | the crowded streets of Shanghai | it gets crowded here in the summer | the streets were crowded with shoppers

Noun: crowd

there was a huge crowd waiting to get into the stadium | a small crowd stood outside the theatre designer /dɪ'zainə/ Noun a designer is someone who creates or plans something, for example, clothes, buildings or products

Collocates: website designer | fashion designer | a group of designers you're a successful fashion designer | the website designer showed us the new website | they asked a group of designers to redecorate their house

Noun: design | Verb: design

it's a lovely design on that top | we designed the house ourselves dirty /'dɜ:ti/ Adjective something that is dirty has dirt or dust on it and is not clean his car is very dirty | leave your dirty shoes by the door | his shirt was dirty | wash the dirty plates | a dirty towel | don't get your clothes dirty

Noun: dirt || Opposite – Adjective: clean

his jacket was covered in dirt | a clean towel | clean clothes | are your hands clean?

free /fri:/ Adjective if something is free, it is not costing any money

Collocate: for free

there was a free concert in the park | tickets are free | children are allowed into the exhibition for free | the museum is free on Sundays | he gave it to us for free | you get a free drink if you buy a meal here lunchtime /'lʌntʃtaɪm/ Noun lunchtime is the time in the middle of the day when people eat food Collocates: at lunchtime | during lunchtime

let's meet at lunchtime for a chat | we usually go for a walk during lunchtime | the café is busy at lunchtime

Noun: lunch

Collocates: have lunch | make lunch we're having lunch at a café tomorrow | I'll make you lunch if you're hungry noisy /'nɔɪzi/ Adjective if it is noisy somewhere, there is a lot of loud, unpleasant noise there. If people are noisy, they make a lot of loud, unpleasant noise it was very noisy in the café | we've got noisy neighbours | it's too noisy in here, let's go outside | a group of noisy children ran into the park

Noun: noise | Adverb: noisily || Opposite – Adjective: quiet there was a lot of noise in the classroom | did you hear a noise just now? | it's hard to concentrate with all that noise | the engine started up noisily | it was quiet in the classroom polluted /pə'lu:tɪd/ Adjective a place that is polluted is dirty because of smoke or other dirty things from factories or cars a polluted city | the lake is very badly polluted | he got ill by drinking polluted water | the city is crowded and the air is polluted

Verb: pollute | Noun: pollution

there's a lot of pollution in Beijing | air pollution is a big problem in London | for years, the factory has polluted the river popular /'pɒpjələ/ Adjective if someone or something is popular, a lot of people like them he's very popular with his classmates | a popular TV programme | her music is very popular all over the world | Miss Jenkins is a very popular teacher | football is the most popular sport in this country | these fantasy books are very popular

Noun: popularity || Opposite – Adjective: unpopular

the government is losing popularity | the president's popularity has grown | the popularity of internet shopping | it was an unpopular decision | the new president quickly became very unpopular public transport /'pʌblɪk 'trænsɜ:t/ Noun uncount public transport is buses, trains or other vehicles that everyone can travel in Collocates: take public transport | use public transport public transport is very good in this city | I prefer using public transport to driving | the public transport system needs to improve | I take public transport to college

Verb: transport

the bus transported the passengers to the port quiet /'kwaɪət/ Adjective if a place is quiet, there are not many people there and not much is happening a quiet village in the country | we spent a quiet evening at home | I go shopping on Tuesday mornings when it's quiet | the town centre is always quiet on Sundays

Adverb: quietly || Opposite – Adverb: noisy

please leave the restaurant quietly | he went quietly up the stairs, trying not to wake anyone | it was very noisy in the restaurant

sure /ʃʊə/ Adjective

if you are sure about something, you know something is true

Collocate: make sure

she is sure that she left the keys on the table | make sure you lock the door before you leave | I wasn't sure if I could attend the meeting

Opposite – Adjective: unsure

I'm unsure who told me about it theatre /'θiətə/ Noun

a theatre is a building where people can go to see a play we're going to the theatre tomorrow | the theatre is on Drury Lane | I enjoy going to the theatre | we had the best seats in the theatre traffic /'træfɪk/ Noun traffic is when there are a lot of vehicles like cars in one area

Collocates: traffic jam | in traffic | traffic lights the traffic was really bad this morning | we got stuck in a traffic jam | pay attention to the traffic lights | I've been in traffic for an hour ugly /'ʌgli/ Adjective something that is ugly does not look very nice at all a big and ugly car | the town hall is the ugliest building in my town | the dog had an ugly face

Opposite – Adjective: beautiful

Florence is a very beautiful city

Pages 36–37

accountant /ə'kaʊntənt/ Noun an accountant is someone whose job is to check how much money a person or company receives and spends she's an accountant for a big law firm | I need to talk to my accountant | a qualified accountant (someone who has passed the exams to become an accountant)

Noun: accounts | Noun: accountancy

Collocate: do the accounts she helped me do my accounts | I work in the accounts department | he wants to study accountancy bear /beə/ Noun

a bear is a big animal that has four legs but sometimes walks on two feet. Often, they are brown bears or polar bears I saw a bear when I was camping | polar bears live in the Arctic | brown bears sometimes go into towns boat /bəʊt/ Noun

a boat is a vehicle that moves on water we have a boat on the river | the boat was ten feet long | a boat with ten passengers on board | I'm thinking of buying a boat classroom /'kla:sru:m/ Noun a classroom is a room in a school where lessons happen a big classroom with lots of desks | your new classroom will be in the other building | there are pictures on the walls of the classroom | the classroom was big enough for 30 pupils doctor /'dɒktə/ Noun

a doctor is someone whose job is to look at people who are ill and tell them what medicine they need a hospital doctor | I'm going to the doctor's for a check-up | she's studying to be a doctor | both my parents are doctors | the doctor told me to do more exercise | is there a doctor on the plane?

hospital /'hɒspɪ(ə)l/ Noun a hospital is a place where doctors help people who are ill or hurt he's visiting his uncle in hospital | she was in hospital for a week after the accident | I'm going into hospital for an operation | they took him to hospital in an ambulance once /wʌns/ Adverb

once means one time
 Collocates: once a week | once a month | once a year I go to the gym once a week | once a month, I like to go for a long walk on the beach | I see my aunts and uncles once a year pilot /'paɪlət/ Noun a pilot is someone who flies planes, usually as a job my sister wants to be a pilot | my father's a pilot, so he's away from home a lot | an airline pilot | Turcat was the first pilot to fly Concorde | a qualified pilot (someone who has passed the exams to become a pilot) plane /pleɪn/ Noun

a plane is a vehicle that flies in the air and carries passengers the plane can carry 260 passengers | about 650 planes fly into Heathrow Airport every day | planes aren't allowed to land here during the night because of the noise | a ten-hour plane journey | a plane flew over the farm restaurant /'rest(ə)rɒnt/ Noun a restaurant is a place where you can go and pay to eat a meal the restaurant is full | an expensive restaurant in Belgravia | she worked long hours in a restaurant | a Chinese restaurant (serving Chinese food) sailor /'seɪlə/ Noun a sailor is someone who works on a ship he's a sailor in the navy | a crew of two officers and nine sailors | her father was a US Navy sailor | would you like to be a sailor?

 Verb: sail one of the first people to sail around the world sales assistant /'seɪlz əsɪst(ə)nt/ Noun a sales assistant is a person who works in a shop and helps the customers he's a sales assistant in the supermarket | I had to wait five minutes before a sales assistant came to help to me | I worked for three years as a sales assistant | a helpful sales assistant | luckily, the sales assistant spoke English scientist /'saɪəntɪst/ Noun a scientist is someone whose job involves studying subjects such as physics, chemistry or biology scientists are worried about global warming | scientists have discovered a new material called 'graphene' | scientists still don't understand exactly how the brain works Noun: science

she studied science at university | science made a lot of progress in the twentieth century shop /ʃɒp/ Noun

a shop is a place where you go to buy things a shop that sells clothes | the shop sells books and computer games | the shops shut at 8 p.m. | what time do the shops open? | a toy shop (that sells toys) teacher /'ti:tʃə/ Noun

a teacher is someone who works in a school and gives students information my teacher is really nice | Miss Jenkins is a very popular teacher | an English teacher | you should always listen to your teacher Verb: teach she teaches maths in the local school tour guide /'tʊə gaɪd/ Noun a tour guide is someone who shows tourists around interesting places. It is their job and they usually get paid for it the tour guide explained the history of the building | we had a great tour guide on our trip | the tour guide took us through the museum waiter /'weɪtə/ Noun

a waiter is a person who works in a café or restaurant and brings food and drinks to the customers ask the waiter for the bill | I worked as a waiter while I was a student | the waiter dropped a plate of food | the waiter asked us what we wanted to eat | our waiter brought the food but forgot to give us knives and forks

Pages 38–39

business /ˈbɪznɪs/ Noun business is when you trade or sell things to other people Collocates: do business | in business we do business with companies all over the world | it's important to know who you're doing business with | they are in business together collocation /ˌkɒləˈkeɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a collocation is two words that are often used together you don't 'do' a crime: the collocation is 'commit a crime' | if you get the collocations right, your English will sound very natural medicine /ˈmedɪsn/ Noun uncount medicine is something you can take if you're feeling unwell to make you feel better Collocate: take medicine

you need to take your medicine every day | the doctor gave me some medicine for my cold | what medicine is that?

official language /əˈfɪʃ(ə)l ˌlæŋɡwɪdʒ/ Noun the official language of a country is the language that is used in government documents and business

Belgium has three official languages: Dutch, French and German | Turkish is the official language of Turkey | Portuguese is the official language of Brazil science /ˈsaɪəns/ Noun uncount science is the study of the natural world. Science is based on facts and experiments science helps us understand how the world works | he loves learning about science | they did a science experiment in class unfortunately /ʌnˈfɔːtʃənətli/ Adverb you can use unfortunately to say you feel bad about something, feel disappointed or regret something unfortunately, we missed the bus | unfortunately, it started raining right after we arrived | unfortunately, I can't join you for dinner tomorrow

Adjective: unfortunate || Opposite – Adverb: fortunately

we were unfortunate with the weather | fortunately, the sun is shining today

Pages 40–41

across /əˈkrɒs/ Preposition if you go across something, you go from one side of it to the other Collocates: go across | move across | across from they walked across the bridge | we need to go across the road | they travelled across the country aquarium /əˈkweəriəm/ Noun an aquarium is a place where people can see fish and other sea creatures we took the children to an aquarium | I'm scared of fish so I don't like aquariums! | have you ever been to an aquarium?

away /əˈweɪ/ Adverb

if somewhere is ten minutes away, half an hour away, two hours away, etc. it will take you that long to get there the restaurant is only ten minutes away | my parents live about an hour away | Kansas City is less than an hour away from here book /bʊk/ Noun

a book is a lot of pieces of paper with writing printed on them that are held together in a cover so that you can read them, one page after another

I always take a book to read on a long train journey | the house was full of books | he hasn't read a book since leaving school | she wrote a book about the Beatles canal /kəˈnæl/ Noun a canal is an area of water that ships and boats pass through. It is not natural, it is made by humans the Panama Canal | a busy shipping canal | Amsterdam is famous for its canals car /kɑː/ Noun

a car is a machine that has an engine and four wheels and carries people on the roads

I'm learning to drive a car | my car is outside | you can park your car in my garage | I have to sell my car | I never learned to drive a car | there's something wrong with the car | she wouldn't lend him her car car park /ˈkɑː pɑːk/ Noun a car park is an area where you leave your car when you are not using it or you are in a place for a short amount of time, for example, a shopping centre or sports centre leave your car in the car park | the car park is full | we have to pay for the car park client /ˈklaɪənt/ Noun

a client is a person who pays someone such as a lawyer or accountant for their professional service her clients include a number of famous actors | I have a meeting with some important clients | Diane's out visiting a client | she had an appointment with a client at three o'clock | she advises clients on business opportunities in China colleague /ˈkɒliːg/ Noun a colleague is someone you work with

I like most of my colleagues | he was always bringing colleagues home to play chess | we're colleagues now, but we knew each other at school | I get on with most of my colleagues, but I wouldn't say we're friends culture /ˈkʌltʃə/ Noun uncount culture is the beliefs, experiences, ideas and way people act in a specific group, background or country

I love experiencing new cultures | it's part of French culture | culture and customs Adjective: cultural your cultural identity | cultural events festival /'festɪv(ə)l/ Noun a festival is a period of time during which a lot of events take place somewhere, such as concerts, theatre performances and films

Collocate: a music/jazz/rock/theatre festival we went to a three-day rock festival | the festival is held every year in August | Glastonbury Festival takes place on a farm in Somerset | a festival of classical music | did you get tickets for the festival? | 20,000 people came to the festival learn /lɜːn/ Verb

if you learn something, you find out about it so that you know about it

Collocate: learn to do something

I want to learn more about the city | I want to learn to drive | I'm learning French | I spent a year in the art class, but I didn't learn very much | I learned a lot about science by watching television

Noun: learner

a language learner | she's a fast learner live on /lɪv 'ɒn/ Phrasal verb when something lives on, it continues for a long time, even after it has died or disappeared

I want the language to live on | my grandma lives on in our memory even though she's gone local /'ləʊkl/ Adjective if something or someone is local, they are from or connected to a nearby area or place a local café | I have a local shop near my house | a local community look /lʊk/ Verb

when you look, you use your eyes to see something Collocates: look at something or someone | look for something or someone look at this picture | he looked in the mirror to make sure his hair was tidy | he looked at the picture on the wall | who were you looking at? | she was looking for her keys | can you help me look for my shoes?

look at /'lʊk ət/ Phrasal verb if you look at something, you direct your eyes toward it to see it look at the teacher when they're speaking | please look at your notes before the test | they looked at the painting for a long time meet /mi:t/ Verb

when you meet someone, you go to a place where you have arranged to see them let's meet in the hotel at ten o'clock | can we meet on Saturday? | she came to meet me at the airport | where shall we meet?

park /pɑːk/ Verb

when you park a car, you stop it somewhere such as the side of the road or in a car park so that you can get out and leave it for a while

please do not park in front of these gates | we parked the car in a car park | you can park here for one hour | where did you park your car? | she parked outside the library

Noun: parking

parking is a big problem in Brighton | a sign saying 'No parking' read /ri:d/ Verb

if you read something, you look at words on paper or on a computer screen and understand them

I read three books a week | read the instructions carefully | she's in the sitting room reading the newspaper | what are you reading?

Noun: reader

I'm a very slow reader relax /rɪ'læks/ Verb

if you relax, you do not work or do anything difficult, but do things you enjoy that do not need much effort

I relax by listening to music | I walk in the park to relax | you must be tired – sit down and relax | I've got so much to do, I can't relax | try to relax

Noun: relaxation | Adjective: relaxing

I play chess for relaxation | the weekend is for relaxation | a nice relaxing bath | we had a relaxing weekend by the sea sea life /'siː laɪf/ Noun uncount sea life is all the animals that live in the sea she's very interested in the sea life here | the coast is rich in sea life | global warming is a danger to sea life | is there sea life in the Arctic Ocean?

season /'siːzn/ Noun a season is one of the four main times of the year – spring, summer, autumn or winter winter is my favourite season | the rainy season lasts for two months | summer is the best season for holidays

Adjective: seasonal there are a lot of seasonal fruits like watermelon and passionfruit see /siː/ Verb

if you see a play or a film, you watch it in a theatre, a cinema or on television

I'm going to see a film tomorrow | did you see the news on TV last night? | we saw a really good film at the cinema | do you want to see a film with me at the weekend?

stay /steɪ/ Verb

if you stay somewhere, you live there for a short while

I'm going to stay the night in Winchester | we stayed in a hotel in Paris for a week | I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where did you stay in New York? | they can't stay here – we haven't got enough room | how long did you stay there?

Noun: stay

we hope you enjoy your stay in Edinburgh tourist information /'tʊərɪst ɪnfə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun uncount tourist information is information about museums, bars, hotels, etc. that tourists want to know about a tourist information centre | you can get a lot of tourist information on the internet | a useful booklet full of tourist information visitor centre /'vɪzɪtə 'sɛntə/ Noun a visitor centre is a place where people can go to get information about somewhere when they are there let's get information from the visitor centre | the visitor centre has maps | what are the directions from the visitor centre?

Verb: visit

I visited my family at the weekend way /weɪ/ Noun

when something is on the way, it is in the direction you are travelling Collocate: on the way

my house is on the way to the station | can you take me home on your way to the dentist?

Pages 42–43anywhere /ˈeniweə/ Adverb if something or someone is anywhere, it means they are in any place or no place in particular you can travel anywhere in the world with this ticket | he didn't go anywhere last weekend | we couldn't park anywhere near the shop community /kə'mju:nəti/ Noun a community is all the people who live and work together in a particular area we are a small village community here | the new road will affect everyone in the community | community leaders held a meeting with the police | a community centre (a building which local people can go to and hold events in) | the town is organized into four local communities distance /'distəns/ Noun the distance between two things is the amount of space between them Collocates: distance from somewhere to somewhere | distance between the distance from here to Bristol is about 150 kilometres | it's just a short distance from my home to school | the distance between New York and San Francisco is nearly 3,000 miles electric /ɪ'lektrɪk/ Adjective when something is electric, it works using electricity we bought an electric car last year | the electric heater kept the room warm | he uses an electric scooter to get to work

Noun: electricity || Noun: electrician | Adjective: electrical we need to pay the electricity bill | my dad works as an electrician | we have an electrical problem find out /faɪnd 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb if you find out something, you discover or learn new information we need to find out what happened at the meeting | he found out about the surprise party last night | she wants to find out the truth behind the story healthy /'helθi/ Adjective something that is healthy is good for you and helps keep you fit and well a healthy diet (food that will help you stay well) | fast food is not very healthy | she walks to work as part of her new healthy lifestyle | daily exercise and healthy eating are essential for children

Noun: health | Adverb: healthily || Opposite – Adjective: unhealthy you're lucky you still have your health (that you are still well and fit) | she was in very good health | you should try and eat healthily and avoid sugar | he has a very unhealthy lifestyle looks like /'lʊks laɪk/ Phrase

if something or someone looks like something, they appear to be that thing or similar to it

it looks like it's going to rain soon | she looks like her older sister | it looks like they are going to win the game

maybe /'meɪbi/ Adverb

if you say maybe, you are saying you are not sure about something, or that something is possible

maybe we can go to the beach tomorrow | maybe it's time to leave now | maybe she will come to the party later

Opposite – Adverb: definitely we are definitely going to talk about this later path /pɑːθ/ Noun

a path is a narrow place for walking or cycling. You cannot use a vehicle on a path

Collocate: cycle path

they walked along the path through the forest | the cycle path goes to the beach | we followed the path to the top of the hill pick up /pɪk 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you pick something up, you lift it up or take it from the place where it is can you pick up that rubbish before you leave? | he picked up a carton from my shopping basket | I bent down to pick up the money | she picked up the spare bicycle from her friend's house | be careful how you pick up sharp objects recycle /ri:'saɪkl/ Verb

if you recycle something, you process it so it can be used again instead of throwing it away they recycle their old clothes instead of throwing them away | please recycle your bottles in the blue bin | recycling helps to reduce waste

Noun: recycling | Adjective: recycled a recycling centre | a recycled bottle rubbish /'rʌbɪʃ/ Noun uncount rubbish is stuff that people throw away put your rubbish in the bin in the corner | the streets were full of rubbish | please do not leave rubbish here | our rubbish is collected every Monday (someone comes to take it away) | a rubbish tip (a place where people can take big pieces of rubbish) | a rubbish bin slide /slaɪd/ Noun

a slide is a screen you show as part of a presentation show your slides | the teacher showed slides at the front of the classroom | create some slides to explain your ideas

Noun: slideshow

I used a slideshow for my talk sustainable /sə'steɪnəbl/ Adjective if something is sustainable, it is causing little hurt or damage to the environment and is able to continue for a long time

Collocate: a sustainable city

Zurich is a sustainable city | sustainable material | this fuel is more sustainable than the old stuff

Noun: sustainability

it's important to learn about sustainability so we can all help the planet | they are working to improve sustainability in the community tram /træm/ Noun

a tram is a vehicle that runs on rails in the street called tracks. You use a tram to carry passengers around a place

Collocate: take a tram

Manchester has a tram system called 'Manchester Metrolink' | is the tram cheaper than a bus? | you can take the tram from the city centre directly to the airport

Page 44

library /'laɪbrəri/ Noun a library is a place where you can read and borrow books, magazines and other resources

I borrowed a book from the library | they went to the public library to study | she has a library card for the local library online /ɒn'laɪn/ Adjective online means to be on the internet

Collocates: online shopping | online courses | go online you can take online courses to learn new skills | they do a lot of online shopping | the students completed their work online

Opposite – Adjective: offline

I can't do this work offline

UNIT 4: FREE TIME

Page 45

during /'djʊərɪŋ/ Preposition during means something happens in a period of time we talked during the break | he studied during the afternoon | they ate lunch during the meeting exercise /'eksəsaɪz/ Noun uncount exercise is when you move your body to improve your health and fitness Collocate: do exercise

we should do more exercise | they don't often do exercise | walking is a great form of exercise

Verb: exercise

I try to exercise three times a week mall /mɔːl/ Noun

a mall is a large building or group of buildings with many shops

Collocates: shopping mall | go to the mall they went to the mall to buy clothes | the shopping mall was crowded | we spent the afternoon walking around the mall swimming /'swɪmɪŋ/ Noun uncount swimming is a sport in which you swim in the water

Collocates: go swimming | swimming pool | swimming costume shall we go swimming? | I love swimming | we go swimming every Saturday | a swimming pool (a big hole in the ground full of water which people can swim in) | a swimming costume (what people wear when they go swimming)

Noun: swimmer | Verb: swim

a strong swimmer | can you swim? | she swam across the pool

Pages 46–47

actor /'æktə/ Noun an actor is someone who performs in plays, TV shows and films. They get paid to play different characters he dreams of becoming an actor | the actor gave a great performance | they met a famous actor after the play

Noun: acting | Verb: act

my hobby is acting in a local drama group | I learned to act at drama school

film /fɪlm/ Noun

a film is a story that is told using moving pictures. You can watch films on television, in a cinema or over the internet

Collocate: watch a film

what time does the film start? | I like watching films on TV | my favourite film is Mad Max | I fell asleep during the film | it was a really boring film | we're making a film about the history of our school friend /frend/ Noun

a friend is someone you like and who you see often to spend time with them

Collocates: meet a friend | a close friend | a best friend

I'm going to meet some friends after work | Charles became a close friend while we were in Switzerland | I was so sad when my best friend moved to Rome | I still have lots of friends from my schooldays golf /gɒlf/ Noun uncount golf is an outdoor sport in which you use a club (long thin stick) to hit a small ball into holes in the ground

Collocate: play golf

we're going to play golf at the weekend | it was too wet to play golf | golf is my favourite sport

Noun: golfer her dad is a keen golfer gym /dʒɪm/ Noun

a gym is a room or a building with lots of equipment for people to do exercise

Collocate: go to the gym

I always go to the gym on Thursdays | it costs more to go to the gym at weekends | I joined a gym this year | I prefer walking in the park to going to the gym harp /hɑ:p/ Noun a harp is a large musical instrument with strings. You pull the strings with your fingers to make a sound

Collocate: play the harp she learned to play the harp | the harp made a beautiful sound | you don't often hear harps anymore hobby /'hɒbi/ Noun

a hobby is an activity you enjoy doing in your free time

Collocate: have a hobby her hobby is painting | gardening is a relaxing hobby | my hobby is dancing | do you have any hobbies?

musical instrument /'mju:zɪk(ə)l ɪnstrəmənt/ Noun a musical instrument is an object that you can play music on, for example, a guitar, a piano or a trumpet

Collocate: play a musical instrument can you play any musical instruments? | I wish I could play a musical instrument | she learned to play several musical instruments | a shop selling musical instruments spend time /spend 'taɪm/ Phrase when you spend time, you give a certain amount of time to something they spend time with friends every weekend | we spent a lot of time planning the trip | he spends time reading books | she likes to spend time outdoors

Taekwondo /taɪkwɒn'dəʊ/ Noun uncount

Taekwondo is a sport that started in Korea. It involves two people fighting each other without weapons, instead kicking and turning very fast

Collocate: do Taekwondo

she has a black belt in Taekwondo (has reached a high level of skill) | I do Taekwondo after school on Tuesdays | he teaches Taekwondo at the local sports centre winner /'wɪnə/ Noun

a winner is the person or team that wins a game, competition or award they announced the winner after the game | he was the winner of the race | the lucky winner received a prize you won the competition! Well done!

Verb: win

writer /'raɪtə/ Noun an writer is someone who writes books or articles as a job, or someone who has written a particular book a famous writer | my favourite writer is Henning Mankell | not many writers earn a lot of money | a writers' festival (where lots of writers talk to the public about their work)

Verb: write

who wrote the Wallander books? | she gave up her job so that she could write a book

Pages 48–49coffee /'kɒfi/ Noun if you have a coffee, you drink a cup of coffee

Collocate: have a coffee do you want to have a coffee? | come round tomorrow morning for a coffee | we stopped for a coffee in town | let's have a coffee before we go shopping frequency /'fri:kwənsi/ Noun the frequency of something is how often it happens

Collocates: the frequency of | adverbs of frequency what is the frequency of the bus service? | 'sometimes' is an adverb of frequency

Adjective: frequent | Adverb: frequently it is a frequent thing that happens | we frequently take the bus go by /'gəʊ baɪ/ Phrasal verb when you go by something, you travel that way go by car to work | we went by plane to Greece | I went by bus to school go for /'gəʊ fə/ Phrase when you go for something such as a walk, you go and do it

I go for a walk every day | I went for a run this morning | I went for a shower after the gym housework /'haʊswɜ:k/ Noun housework is work you do at home regularly to keep your home clean, for example, wash dishes, do laundry

Collocate: do housework

Lisa spends Sundays doing housework | they need help with the housework | the children help with the housework online game /ɒnlaɪn 'geɪm/ Noun if you play online games, you play a computer game against someone over the internet

Collocate: play an online game

I play online games after school every day | online games are very popular | have fun with our free online games! | I've found a really good new online game online shopping /ɒnlaɪn 'ʃɒpɪŋ/ Noun uncount online shopping is when you buy things on the internet

I love online shopping | online shopping is very easy | an online shopping website polar bear /'pəʊlə beə/ Noun a polar bear is a large white bear that lives in the Arctic we saw a polar bear on our expedition | polar bears are dangerous | I'd love to see a polar bear in its natural environment shine /ʃaɪn/ Verb

when something shines, it is bright and gives off light Collocate: the sun shines the sun shines for eleven hours a day | the star is shining above us | can you see the International Space Station shining in the night sky?

snowmobile /'snəʊməbi:l/ Noun a snowmobile is a vehicle for travelling over snow he learned to ride a snowmobile last winter | they went on a snowmobile tour in the mountains | in some snowy countries you need to travel by snowmobile social media /səʊʃəl 'mi:diə/ Noun uncount social media is apps where you can share your opinions and connect with people. You can also share videos and photos

I'm on social media all the time | we chat on social media every day | my dad doesn't do social media (doesn't use it) | social media is very useful for keeping in touch | more and more companies are using social media for advertising text /tekst/ Verb

if you text someone, you send them a message by typing it into your phone text me when you arrive at the airport | I always have to text my son as he never answers the phone | he texted me to invite me to a party | I tried to text you but my phone battery died

Noun: text

Collocates: send (someone) a text | get a text send me a text when you get to the airport | I got a text from Sam this morning video /'vɪdiəʊ/ Noun

if you watch videos, you look at them on your phone, tablet or computer Collocate: watch a video let's watch some videos | we spent the evening watching videos on YouTube | a video showing how to cook fish | a funny video walk /wɔ:k/ Noun

if you go for a walk, you walk somewhere outdoors for pleasure Collocate: go for a walk let's go for a walk this afternoon | I went on a four-mile walk before breakfast | it's too wet to go for a walk | did you enjoy your walk?

Pages 50–51

ball /bɔ:l/ Noun

a ball is a round object used in lots of sports like tennis, football, baseball, etc.

a tennis ball | try and catch the ball | he kicked the ball as far as he could | throw the ball to me baseball /'beɪsbɔ:l/ Noun uncount baseball is a game with two teams played outdoors where players try to hit a ball and run round a field a baseball game | a professional baseball player | baseball is one of the most popular sports in Canada | do you enjoy playing baseball?

basketball /'bɑ:skɪtbɔ:l/ Noun uncount basketball is a game played indoors. Players try to throw the ball through a metal frame at each end of the court (area where they are playing the game)

do you like playing basketball? | a basketball game | a basketball court | most basketball players are very tall boxing /'bɒksɪŋ/ Noun uncount boxing is a sport in which two people hit each other as hard as they can wearing soft gloves a boxing match | many people think boxing isn't a sport | a boxing ring (a square area with ropes round it where people box)

Noun: boxer | Verb: box her brother is a professional boxer | I go to a gym to box once a week | she wanted to learn to box properly cliff /klɪf/ Noun

a cliff is a high, steep area of rock or earth which is often near the sea walk up the cliff | I climbed that cliff | a steep cliff cliff diving /'klɪf daɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount cliff diving is the activity of jumping into water from a high place, for example, a cliff

I tried cliff diving but it was too scary | cliff diving is an extreme sport

Noun: diver | Verb: dive two of the divers needed help to get back onto the boat | he dived off the bridge into the river cricket /'krɪkɪt/ Noun uncount cricket is a game played outdoors. Players try to hit a ball and run up and down a long pitch (a field about 20 metres long) he plays cricket every Saturday | a cricket match | cricket is very popular in India | some people think cricket is boring

Noun: cricketer

a professional cricketer cycling /'saɪk(ə)lɪŋ/ Noun uncount cycling is the sport or activity of riding a bike his brother is very good at cycling | the Tour de France is the most famous cycling race | she goes cycling three times a week exciting /ɪk'saɪtɪŋ/ Adjective if something is exciting, it makes you feel happy and interested an exciting ride at the theme park | New York is a very exciting city | the football match was really exciting | my first week at university was very exciting | it was an exciting match to watch

Adjective: excited

Collocates: excited about (doing) something | excited by something

I'm really excited about starting my new job | some people looked excited, but a few were afraid | she was excited by the idea of working for the BBC extreme /ɪk'stri:m/ Adjective when something is extreme, it is more than what is usual or reasonable the hike was cancelled because of extreme weather | they train in extreme conditions | she enjoys watching extreme sports on TV

Adverb: extremely it's extremely hot today – put some sun cream on extreme sport /ɪk'stri:m 'spɔ:t/ Noun an extreme sport is a dangerous and exciting sport he enjoys watching extreme sports on TV | they like extreme sports like skydiving | extreme sports can be dangerous football /'fʊtbɔ:l/ Noun uncount football is a game played outdoors. Players try to kick the ball into a net at each end of the pitch (area where they are playing) a football match | she plays football for her school team | football fans (people who go to watch football matches) | a football pitch (the area of grass where the match happens) highline /'haɪlaɪn/ Verb to highline is walk across a narrow line, between two high points, for sport they watched an amazing highline performance at the festival | someone trained for months before walking the highline | walking a highline isn't easy ice hockey /'aɪs ˌhɒki/ Noun uncount ice hockey is a game played on ice. Players have sticks and try to hit a puck (round flat object) into a net at each end of the rink (area of ice where they are playing) they play ice hockey in Canada | ice hockey is a very dangerous sport | I was too scared to try playing ice hockey

just /dʒʌst/ Adverb

if something just happens, it means it has happened recently

I just got home from work | they arrived just in time for the meeting | the children just finished their homework landscape /'lændskeɪp/ Noun a landscape is the parts of the land Collocate: beautiful landscape the landscape was beautiful during the hike | someone painted the landscape of the valley | they admired the landscape from the top of the hill paragliding /'pærəglaidɪŋ/ Noun uncount paragliding is a sport where a person moves through the air using a special piece of equipment called a parachute. They use the parachute after jumping from a high place

Collocate: go paragliding they went paragliding in the mountains | I had an unforgettable paragliding experience | paragliding is an extreme sport perfect /'pɜːfɪkt/ Adjective when something is perfect, it is as good as it can be the weather was perfect for a picnic | the shoes were a perfect fit | we had a perfect view of the city

Noun: perfection | Adverb: perfectly the beef was cooked to perfection | you parked in that space perfectly perhaps /pə'hæps/ Adverb if you say perhaps, it means something is possible but not certain perhaps we should leave now | I thought perhaps they would go to the party | perhaps it will rain later piano /pɪ'ænəʊ/ Noun

a piano is a large musical instrument with keys that you press to make sound

Collocates: play the piano | piano lessons they enjoy listening to piano music | the piano sounded beautiful | they took piano lessons for years running /'rʌnɪŋ/ Noun uncount running is the action or sport of running a running race | she's very good at running | I don't like running – I prefer playing chess sailing /'seɪlɪŋ/ Noun uncount sailing is the activity or sport of travelling in a boat with sails

I can't swim so I don't like sailing | I went sailing on a big lake near my house | I like sailing, but I prefer football | his hobbies include sailing, golf and tennis skiing /'skiːɪŋ/ Noun uncount skiing is a sport in which you go down mountains covered in snow, wearing skis (long, thin, flat boards attached to your feet) we go skiing every January | a skiing holiday | he broke his leg skiing snow /snəʊ/ Noun uncount snow is cold and white, falls from the sky like rain and lies on the ground

Collocate: heavy snow

the garden is covered in snow | there was heavy snow last night | it's unusual to have snow in April | the airport was closed because of snow | we walked through the deep snow | 20 centimetres of snow fell in the night

Verb: snow | Adjective: snowy

it started to snow before we got home | do you think it's going to snow? | the weather in January is often cold and snowy strong /strɒŋ/ Adjective when something is strong, it has a lot of power Collocate: strong winds the wind was very strong today | exercise helps to make you strong

Noun: strength

Collocate: have strength

I'm not sure I have the strength to pick up this box sunny /'sʌni/ Adjective if the weather is sunny, the sun is shining and there are no clouds today was a sunny day | they went to the beach because it was sunny | the park is nice on a sunny afternoon

Noun: sun | Noun: sunshine

I love sitting in the sun | there's no sunshine today surfing /'sɜːfɪŋ/ Noun uncount surfing is a sport in which you ride on a flat board on waves in the sea

I'm going to Cornwall to do some surfing | it was too cold to go surfing | I did a lot of surfing in California last summer | this beach is good for surfing team /ti:m/ Noun

a team is a group of people who are doing a sport my favourite football team is Aston Villa | who's your favourite rugby team? | I'm captain of the school basketball team | there are eleven players in a cricket team | my team came third in the championship tennis /'tenɪs/ Noun uncount tennis is a sport in which players hit a ball with a racket over a net at each other a tennis match | my favourite tennis player is Carlos Alcaraz | I play tennis every weekend | a game of tennis | we watched some tennis on TV | do you like tennis?

top /tɒp/ Noun

the top of something is the highest or upper part of something Collocate: the top of they reached the top of the mountain | someone scored top marks in the exam | they climbed to the top of the tower

Pages 52–53

area /'eəriə/ Noun

the area of a place or piece of land is how much space it takes up the lake covers an area of two square kilometres | he knows the local area really well | thousands of tourists visit the area every summer cub /kʌb/ Noun

a cub is a young animal of, for example, a bear, lion or wolf Collocate: lion cub

the bear cub followed its mother | they saw a lion cub at the zoo | the tiger cub was playing in the grass downstairs /daʊn'steəz/ Adverb downstairs is the lower level of a building or place Collocate: go downstairs wait downstairs in the café | they went downstairs to the kitchen | I heard a noise coming from downstairs

Opposite – Adverb: upstairs

Collocate: go upstairs

go upstairs with your bags and put them in your room enthusiastic /ɪn'θju:zi'æstɪk/ Adjective if someone is enthusiastic, they show a lot of interest or excitement about something Collocate: enthusiastic about they are enthusiastic about learning new things | the group was very enthusiastic about the project | an enthusiastic student in the class

Noun: enthusiasm

Collocate: have enthusiasm for he has a lot of enthusiasm for the job gap /gæp/ Noun

a gap is a space between one thing and another Collocates: gap year | gap between

I took a gap year and worked in Australia | a gap between jobs | I took a gap between university and getting a job sushi /'su:ʃi/ Noun sushi is a Japanese dish made of fish and rice, and sometimes vegetables. Usually, it is rolled in seaweed (a natural green plant that comes from the sea)

Collocates: eat sushi | have sushi | sushi restaurant they love eating sushi for lunch | we went to a restaurant for dinner to have sushi | I love that sushi restaurant volunteer /vɒlən'tiə/ Noun a volunteer is someone who offers to do something without being paid for it Collocate: volunteer job

we are looking for people to fill our volunteer jobs | she became a volunteer at the community centre | I was a volunteer at a local hospital

Verb: volunteer | Adverb: voluntarily they volunteered to help with the event | we told the police the information voluntarily way /weɪ/ Noun

a way is a method or path to achieve something Collocate: different ways find five different ways to say it | there are various ways to get there bridge /brɪdʒ/ Noun

Pages 54–55

a bridge is a structure over a river, road or another thing, so people or vehicles can cross it

Collocates: cross the bridge | under the bridge they crossed the bridge over the river | we watched the boats pass under the bridge | a new bridge is being built in the city impressive /ɪm'presɪv/ Adjective if someone or something is impressive, you admire it or them their performance at the concert was impressive | the team showed impressive skills during the competition | the view from the top of the mountain was very impressive

Noun: impression | Verb: impress

Collocate: give an impression you gave us the impression you weren't interested | you impressed us with your experience jump /dʒʌmp/ Verb

when you jump, you push yourself off the ground using your legs and move into the air, then back down again they jumped over the fence | they saw the dog jump high to catch the ball | the athlete jumped the highest and won gold

Noun: jump

how did he do that jump without a parachute?

post box /'pəʊst bɒks/ Noun a post box is where you put letters and packages so that someone can deliver them to the person you are sending it to

there's a red post box on the corner | they walked to the post box to send a letter | the post box is emptied twice a day

Verb: post | Noun: post | Noun: post man | post woman |

Noun: post office

the postman delivered a lot of post each day | the post woman served me in the post office | I posted the letter this morning rider /'raɪdə/ Noun

a rider is someone who rides an animal, bike or motorcycle

Collocates: bike rider | horse rider an experienced bike rider | they saw a horse rider in the field | the rider wore a helmet for safety

Noun: ride | Verb: ride

do you want to go for a ride? | I rode a bike to school simple /'sɪmpl/ Adjective something simple is easy and not complicated the instructions were very simple | I found a simple solution to the problem | they prefer a simple life without too much stress

Adverb: simply to apply for the job, simply click here slowly /'sləʊli/ Adverb

if something happens slowly, it happens at a low speed or over a long time

Collocates: go slowly | move slowly slowly things started to get worse | the car was moving slowly down the road | can you speak more slowly, please?

Adjective: slow

it's a slow song stairs /steəz/ Noun plural stairs are things you go up and down to go to the next level of something, for example, a building

Collocates: up the stairs | down the stairs they walked up the stairs to the second floor | I went down the stairs quickly | they live on the floor above, so they go up the stairs try /traɪ/ Verb

when you try something, you attempt to do something to see if you can, or if it works

I like trying new food | they need to try again | they tried to finish the work

UNIT 5: FOOD

Page 57

advice /əd'vaɪs/ Noun uncount advice is a suggestion someone gives you to help you or to decide what to do

Collocates: give advice | get advice

she gave helpful advice for solving the problem | they didn't take the advice given by the teacher | the best advice is to stay calm | I need to get some professional advice

Verb: advise can you advise me on what to do?

arrive /ə'raɪv/ Verb to arrive means to get to a destination after travelling Collocates: arrive at | arrive to

I arrived at the airport early | they will arrive in Milan tomorrow | the guests arrived on time for the party

Noun: arrival

I need to check our arrival time chef /ʃef/ Noun

a chef is a professional cook who prepares food in restaurants

I work as a chef | I'd like to be a chef in a Michelin restaurant | I'm a sushi chef delicious /dɪ'liʃəs/ Adjective food that is delicious tastes very nice it tastes delicious | a delicious cake | this apple pie is delicious | the food there was delicious | that was a delicious meal | thank you – that was delicious | a delicious smell of chocolate was coming from the kitchen dish /dɪʃ/ Noun

a dish is a type of food that is prepared and served as part of a meal

Collocate: a popular dish they cooked a delicious dish for dinner | the restaurant serves traditional dishes | the fish is a popular dish fresh /freʃ/ Adjective when food is fresh it is recently made, picked or prepared Collocate: fresh fruit

they bought fresh vegetables from the market | I love a fresh fruit smoothie in the morning | is this milk fresh?

serve /sɜːv/ Verb when you serve food, you give it to someone ready for them to eat. When food is served in a restaurant, someone brings it to you it's usually served with chips and peas | salad is served as a side dish | I'm going to serve the soup with home-made bread | we were served by a very polite waiter smell /smel/ Verb

if something smells sweet, bad, delicious, etc. you think that is what it is like because of the smell that it has the meat smells bad | those flowers smell lovely | the food smells delicious | the kitchen smells fishy (has a strong smell of fish)

Noun: smell

the sweet smell of oranges | what's that horrible smell?

taste /teɪst/ Verb

if you taste what food is like, you notice the flavour food has this chocolate tastes delicious | he added herbs to make it taste more interesting | this tastes like fish | I can't taste the cheese in this | what does it taste like? | it tastes of apple

Noun: taste

do you like the taste of meat? | it's got a lovely taste | a really nice taste affirmative /ə'fɜːmətɪv/ Adjective affirmative means it is positive Collocate: affirmative sentence write an affirmative sentence | the opposite of affirmative is negative ceviche /se'vi:tʃeɪ/ Noun uncount ceviche is a dish from Central and South America, made with raw fish in lemon or lime juice and served cold, usually in a salad at the start of a meal

Pages 58–59

I ordered ceviche | they serve a delicious ceviche here | freshly prepared ceviche cheese /tʃiːz/ Noun uncount cheese is a type of food made from milk bread and cheese | do you want some cheese on your pasta? | a strong cheese (which has a strong flavour) | a hard cheese (that is difficult to cut) | a soft cheese | a piece of cheese | they sell a lot of different cheeses | I really like French cheese chicken /'tʃɪkɪn/ Noun uncount chicken is the meat from a hen that you eat as food a chicken sandwich | roast chicken | a bowl of chicken soup | chicken with fried rice | a cold chicken salad chips /tʃɪps/ Noun chips are thin slices of potato that are fried in hot oil. They are also called French fries fish and chips | steak and chips | a portion of chips (enough for one person) | do you want chips or rice with your chicken? | my chips are cold!

countable /'kaʊntəbl/ Adjective a noun that is countable means you can count it, for example, 1, 2, 3

Collocate: countable noun

apples are countable, water is not | someone asked if the word 'book' is countable | pens are countable

Opposite – Adjective: uncountable money is an uncountable noun curry /'kʌri/ Noun

curry is an Indian dish made with a lot of spices a beef curry | a chicken curry | a curry house (a restaurant that serves curries) | a hot curry (made with very strong spices) | I prefer a mild curry (with not very strong spices) | curry and rice egg /eg/ Noun an egg is a small, almost round object with a thin shell produced by birds. People eat eggs as food a box of eggs | a boiled egg | fried eggs | half a dozen eggs (six eggs) | crack the egg into the water fish /fɪ/ Noun uncount fish is the soft part of a fish that can be eaten as food

I don't like eating fish | do you like fish? | fish and chips | I don't eat meat, but I eat fish | fresh fish | I bought some fish for dinner | the kitchen smells of fish ingredient /ɪn'ɡriːdiənt/ Noun the ingredients of something that you are cooking are all the different things that go into it have you got all the ingredients for the birthday cake? | get the ingredients ready before you start | we don't have enough ingredients to make the pie juice /dʒuːs/ Noun uncount juice is the liquid you get by squeezing a fruit, such as an orange or an apple a glass of orange juice | would you like some apple juice? | add some lemon juice to the salad | a bottle of fruit juice kabsa /'kæbsæ/ Noun kabsa is a spicy rice dish a traditional lunch of kabsa | kabsa is from Yemen | kabsa is a very popular dish here kilo /'kiːləʊ/ Noun a kilo is a measure of weight. The word kilo is short for kilogramme. There are 1,000 grams in one kilo a kilo of bananas | I weigh 72 kilos | half a kilo of tomatoes | the oranges are £3 a kilo | a kilo and a half of potatoes lamb /læm/ Noun uncount lamb is the meat you get from young sheep would you like lamb for dinner? | a shoulder of lamb | roast leg of lamb | would you prefer lamb or beef? | garlic goes well with lamb lemon /'lemən/ Noun

a lemon is a yellow fruit with a very strong, sharp taste a kilo of lemons | the juice of a lemon | these lemons are ripe | a glass of lemon juice lentil /'lentɪl/ Noun lentils are the seeds of some plants that you cook and eat a bowl of lentils | a dish of lentils and sausages | a kilo of lentils negative /'negətɪv/ Adjective negative means a sentence includes no, not or never

Collocate: negative sentence

'it isn't hot' is a negative sentence | 'I'm not working' is another negative sentence

Opposite – Adjective: positive

'I'm studying' is an example of a positive sentence nut /nʌt/ Noun

a nut is the hard seed of some plants, which you can eat a bag of nuts | do these chocolates have nuts in them? | I bought a packet of nuts to eat on the journey | these nuts are very salty | I've eaten too many nuts onion /'ʌnjən/ Noun an onion is a vegetable with a thin brown or red skin that you use in cooking slice the onion and add it to the pan | fry the onions in butter | a kilo of onions | add red onions to the salad | I hate cutting onions | you need a cup of chopped onions (cut into very small pieces) | thin slices of onion orange /'brɪndʒ/ Noun an orange is a fruit with a sweet, sharp flavour a glass of orange juice | a kilo of oranges | you should eat an orange every day | oranges have vitamin C in them pasta /'pæstə/ Noun uncount pasta is a food made from flour and water that you cook and eat do you want more pasta? | a pasta sauce | a bowl of pasta | boil the pasta for five minutes | would you like cheese on your pasta?

pepper /'pepə/ Noun uncount pepper is a spice that you make into a powder and add to food salt and pepper | we've run out of pepper (there's none left) | black pepper | grey pepper pepper /'pepə/ Noun a pepper is a vegetable with quite a sweet flavour red and green peppers | slice the peppers thinly | add the peppers ten minutes before the end of the cooking time | roasted peppers pierogi /pɪə'rəʊgi/ Noun pierogi are traditional small pies from Poland made with meat or cheese and vegetables we eat pierogi on Christmas Eve | pierogi is actually the plural – if you have just one it's a pierog | fry pierogi in a little butter just before serving potato /pə'tetəʊ/ Noun potatoes are a type of vegetable that grows under the soil we eat a lot of potatoes in our house | a baked potato | I grow potatoes in the garden | two kilos of potatoes | boiled potatoes | mashed potatoes (cooked and then smashed until they become smooth) | potato crisps (crisps made from potatoes) prawn /prɔ:n/ Noun

a prawn is a small creature that lives in the sea that you can cook and eat are there any prawns in the fridge? | a kilo of fresh prawns | do you like prawns?

raisin /'reɪz(ə)n/ Noun raisins are small, dried grapes that taste sweet a bowl of raisins | chocolate and raisin flavoured ice cream | there are lots of raisins in the cake rice /raɪs/ Noun uncount rice is the white or brown seeds that grow on a type of grass, which you can eat do you want rice or chips? | they eat a lot of rice here | we have rice nearly every day | boiled rice | fried rice | pour the sauce over the rice | you need 50 grams of rice per person (for each person) salt /sɔ:lt/ Noun uncount salt is white substance found in the sea and in the ground. You add salt to food when you are cooking it to make it taste nicer salt and pepper | a teaspoon of salt | there's too much salt in the soup | you should reduce the amount of salt in your food satay /'sæteɪ/ Noun

satay is a dish of meat or fish cooked on long thin sticks and served with a spicy peanut sauce chicken satay | I always have satay when we come to this restaurant | they make the best satay in Indonesia sauce /sɔ:s/ Noun uncount sauce is a liquid that you serve with food to give it a nice taste

Collocates: tomato sauce | pasta sauce | cheese sauce he spilt some sauce on the carpet | do you want sauce with your chips? | a bottle of tomato sauce | stir the sauce until it boils | pour the sauce over the rice | I don't like brown sauce (a kind of sauce with lots of spices in it) spaghetti bolognese /spə'geti bələ'neɪz/ Noun spaghetti bolognese is a pasta dish served with a meat sauce they cooked spaghetti bolognese for dinner | they followed a recipe for spaghetti bolognese | the restaurant serves spaghetti bolognese spice /spaɪs/ Noun uncount spice is something made from plants that you use to give food flavour

I added spice to the soup | we used different spices in the dish like paprika and cumin | we bought fresh spices from the market

Pages 60–61

bag /bæg/ Noun

a bag is a container made of cloth, paper or plastic used to carry things in a bag of rice | the bag broke and the tomatoes fell out | put the empty bag in the cupboard chocolate /'tʃɒklət/ Noun uncount chocolate is a sweet brown food made from cocoa a chocolate sauce | a bar of chocolate | chocolate cake | a box of chocolates complex /'kɒmpleks/ Noun a complex is an area with lots of shops

Collocates: market complex | shopping complex

Chinatown market complex | a huge shopping complex in town container /kən'teɪnə/ Noun a container is something you put food or drink in a cup is a type of container | we need a plastic container for the food | do you have takeaway containers?

Verb: contain the food was contained in a box fast food /fɑ:st 'fu:d/ Noun fast food is food that is quickly prepared and served. You get fast food in a restaurant or a takeaway

Collocates: order fast food | eat fast food we ordered fast food for dinner | they decided to go to a fast food restaurant after work | he tries not to eat fast food too often flour /'flaʊə/ Noun uncount flour is a powder made from wheat that is used to make bread, cakes, etc.

a bag of white flour | I use brown flour to make bread | a kilo of flour glass /glɑ:s/ Noun

a glass is a container for liquids that you drink out of a glass of water | she filled up her glass with milk | I dropped a glass and broke it | a set of six glasses item /'aɪtəm/ Noun an item is a single thing in a list or group of things how many items of food did you buy? | choose two items | which adjectives describe these items?

make sure /meɪk 'ʃʊə/ Phrase when you make sure of something, you check it make sure the door is locked | they made sure to arrive on time for the meeting | make sure you bring everything you need market /'mɑ:kɪt/ Noun

a market is an open air area or building where people buy and sell things

Collocates: at the market | market stall they visited the local market to buy fresh fruit | they sell handmade items at the market | the market was busy with shoppers | they bought flowers from the market stall naturally /'nætʃrəli/ Adverb naturally means 'of course' naturally, this island has a famous fish market | I'll be there, naturally noodles /'nu:dlz/ Noun noodles are long, thin pieces of dough that you cook and eat in soups or with sauces

Collocates: a bowl of noodles | instant noodles they ordered a bowl of noodles at the restaurant | she prefers to cook noodles with vegetables | instant noodles are quick and easy to prepare nowadays /'naʊədeɪz/ Adverb nowadays means that it is happening in the present time and not in the past or future people use smartphones a lot nowadays | online shopping is very common nowadays | it's hard to find people without internet access nowadays packet /'pækɪt/ Noun

a packet is a small container that holds something such as food a packet of tea | the packet weighs 1.5 kilos | a packet of crisps piece /pi:s/ Noun

a piece of something is an amount of it that has been broken away from a larger amount a piece of chocolate | a large piece of cheese | does anyone want another piece of cake?

pizza /'pi:tə/ Noun pizza is a dish made with a sort of bread that has meat and vegetables on top, usually with tomatoes and cheese, and that is cooked in a very hot oven a mushroom pizza | two slices of pizza | cook the pizza in a hot oven for ten minutes | would you like some salad with your pizza?

quantity /'kwɒntəti/ Noun the quantity of something is how much of it there is he ate a huge quantity of rice | a small quantity of sugar | farming today uses large quantities of chemicals slice /slaɪs/ Noun

a slice of food is a piece of it that has been cut with a knife a slice of bread | put the slices on a plate | would you like a slice of pizza?

Verb: slice | Adjective: sliced

slice the cheese thinly | I had to use the bread knife to slice the tomatoes | a packet of sliced bread | add the sliced onion just before it goes in the oven spicy /'speɪsi/ Adjective if food is spicy, it has a strong, hot flavour Collocate: spicy food

he loves eating spicy food | the curry was too spicy for them | they added a spicy sauce to the dish

Noun: spice

paprika is a type of spice stall /stɔ:l/ Noun

a stall is a small shop or stand where you can buy or sell goods. Often, stalls are in a market

Collocates: market stall | food stall they bought fruit from a stall at the market | we set up a stall to sell handmade crafts | the food stalls at the fair were very popular | there are many market stalls here strawberry /'strɔ:bəri/ Noun a strawberry is a small, red fruit with seeds on the outside

I love strawberries | they picked fresh strawberries at the farm | I made a strawberry smoothie for breakfast sweets /swi:ts/ Noun sweets are small, sugary things you eat like candy or chocolates Collocate: eat sweets

I don't often eat sweets | I always buy some sweets when I go to the cinema | the children love eating sweets after school tasty /'teɪsti/ Adjective when food is tasty, it is nice to eat and delicious a tasty snack | the cake was very tasty | the restaurant serves tasty and fresh food

Noun: taste | Verb: taste || Opposite – Adjective: tasteless

there was a strange taste to the chicken | I tasted it before I served it | the soup was tasteless so I added some salt and pepper tin /tɪn/ Noun

a tin is a metal container, especially for drinks or food a tin of tomatoes | she drank two tins of Coke | can you buy a tin of beans for lunch? | a tin opener (a special tool to cut the top of a tin and open it) | I had a tin of soup for lunch

Adjective: tinned

I use a lot of tinned tomatoes when I'm cooking tuna /'tju:nə/ Noun tuna is a kind of fish that you can eat. It is often sold in tins a tuna sandwich | a tin of tuna | fried tuna steak | a tuna salad upstairs /ʌp'steəz/ Adverb upstairs means you move to a higher level in a building or place

Collocate: go upstairs

they went upstairs to their bedroom | my friend lives upstairs | the noise was coming from upstairs

Opposite – Adverb: downstairs go downstairs and get some water water /'wɔ:tə/ Noun uncount water is the liquid that falls as rain and that makes up the sea and rivers and lakes. People, animals and plants need water in order to live a glass of water | the water's too cold to swim in the sea today | the water in the kettle started to boil (reach a temperature of 100° centigrade) | a bottle of water | when it reaches 0° centigrade, the water will freeze and ice will form waterfront /'wɔ:təfrʌnt/ Noun the waterfront is an area of land next to a river, lake or sea

Collocates: on the waterfront | by the waterfront a restaurant by the waterfront | a waterfront view | the hotel is on the waterfront

Pages 62–63

angle /'æŋɡl/ Noun

an angle is the position of something, for example, 45 degrees or 90 degrees

Collocate: at an angle

you took the photo at an angle | the angle of this picture is a bit strange | change angles bowl /bəʊl/ Noun

a bowl is a round, deep dish you use to hold food or liquids Collocate: in a bowl

they enjoyed a bowl of soup for lunch | we mixed the ingredients in a large bowl | the fruit was placed in a bowl on the table bright /'braɪt/ Adjective bright means there is a lot of light the sun is very bright today | make the photo brighter | it's very bright in this room

Verb: brighten can you brighten the photo a bit?

degree /di'ɡri:/ Noun a degree is a unit of measurement for angles

Collocates: 45 degrees | 90 degrees turn the camera 45 degrees | a 90 degree angle | do a 90 degree turn eat out /i:t 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb when you eat out, you eat away from your home, for example, in a restaurant

they decided to eat out at a new restaurant | she loves to eat out with friends on weekends | they don't eat out very often focus /'fəʊkəs/ Noun when something is in focus, it is clear and you can see it well, for example, in a photo

Collocates: in focus | out of focus make sure the food is in focus and not the background | that photo is a bit out of focus

Verb: focus focus your attention on the teacher fork /fɔ:k/ Noun a fork is something you eat with. It has several points on one end that you can use to pick up food Collocate: knife and fork they used a fork to eat their salad | someone placed a fork next to each plate | they cut the meat with a knife and fork image /'ɪmɪdʒ/ Noun an image is a photo

look at the image | the image is too dark | pick a new image for your profile

include /ɪn'klu:d/ Verb when you include something or someone, you make it or them part of a group or list someone asked if they could include another person in the plan | the report will include details about the event | they didn't include that in the final document keep /ki:p/ Verb when you keep something, you have or hold onto it for a period of time

keep one spoon next to a bowl | keep a letter | keep it for me natural /'nætʃ(ə)rəl/ Adjective something that is natural has not been made or changed by people but exists like that in nature a pot of natural yoghurt (with nothing added to it) | all our dishes are made from natural ingredients | the chairs are made from natural wood | the paint looks red in natural light (the light from the sun, not from electric light bulbs)

Opposite – Adjective: artificial there are no artificial ingredients in this orange juice | that plant looks artificial photograph /'fəʊtəɡrɑ:f/ Verb when you photograph something, you take a picture of it photograph the bowl from above | I photographed the landscape | can you photograph the party?

Noun: photograph, photo

that's a beautiful photograph | take a photo position /pə'zɪʃən/ Noun a position is the place where someone or something is located

Collocates: camera position | the position of make sure the camera position is right | what's the position of the camera? | get in position

Verb: position

position yourself in the middle shot /ʃɒt/ Noun

a shot is a photograph

Collocate: the best shot

make sure you get the best shot | the perfect food shot | what a shot!

Verb: shoot

we're shooting the film in black and white snapshot /'snæpʃɒt/ Noun a snapshot is a quick photograph Collocate: take a snapshot take a snapshot of those dogs playing | people take snapshots of their food at 45 degree angles spoon /spu:n/ Noun a spoon is something you use to eat food. It has a shallow bowl on one end

I used a spoon for the soup | a serving spoon | add a teaspoon of sugar

Noun: teaspoon | Noun: tablespoon

I'll have a teaspoon of sugar | a tablespoon of honey in the tea success /sək'ses/ Noun uncount success is when you achieve something good Collocate: achieve success they worked hard to achieve success in their career | their project was a great success | the team celebrated their success after the match

Adjective: successful || Opposite – Adjective: unsuccessful a successful career | an unsuccessful day technology /tek'nɒlədʒi/ Noun uncount technology is electronic machines and equipment, for example, a laptop, a computer, internet

Collocate: advances in technology

I love learning about advances in technology | modern technology has made communication easier | technology is changing how people work turn off /tʃ:n 'ɒf/ Phrasal verb when you turn something off, you turn off its power so it doesn't work anymore someone turned off the TV before leaving the room | they asked them to turn off the lights when they leave | they forgot to turn off the computer after work

|| Opposite – Phrasal verb: turn on can you turn on the TV, please?

well-lit /wel-'lɪt/ Adjective if something is well-lit, it has plenty of light and is bright a well-lit room | they worked in a well-lit office with large windows | I like reading in a well-lit space whole /həʊl/ Adjective if something is whole, it is complete or full they spent the whole day at the beach | I invited the whole family to the party | they discussed the whole plan

Pages 64–65

anything else /eniθɪŋ 'els/ Phrase anything else is something that you have not already asked for or mentioned and that you would like to ask for or mention can I get you anything else? | if there's anything else you need, let me know | no, I can't think of anything else bill /bɪl/ Noun

a bill is a list that shows how much you have to pay for something Collocates: pay a bill | a bill for something

I asked the waiter for the bill | I paid the electricity bill yesterday | they've just sent us a bill for £200 | here's the bill for the work we did for you | may I have the bill please? (what you say in a restaurant when you have finished your meal)

colon /'kəʊlən/ Noun

a colon is the punctuation mark ':' that you use at the start of a list use a colon here rather than a full stop | where's the colon on this keyboard?

comma /'kɒmə/ Noun

a comma is the punctuation mark ',' that you use to separate different parts of a sentence or between items in a list you need a full stop here, not a comma | if you don't put a comma there, the meaning changes slightly cost /kɒst/ Verb

if something costs an amount of money, that is how much you have to pay to buy it

Collocate: cost someone something how much did it cost? | our apartment cost £250,000 when we bought it | the whole holiday cost over £1,000 | it didn't cost much | these shoes cost me £90

Noun: cost

we share the cost of the rent | the cost of petrol has gone up again dessert /dɪ'zɜ:t/ Noun in a meal, the courses are the separate dishes that you eat, one after the other. Dessert is usually the last course, or part, of a meal and is something sweet dessert is my favourite course | he never eats desserts | the desserts here are very expensive | I'll have cheese instead of a dessert drink /drɪŋk/ Noun

a drink is a liquid for drinking

I put my drink down on the table | let's take our drinks into the garden | would you like another drink? | she took a drink from the glass

Verb: drink

what would you like to drink with your meal?

full stop /fʊl 'stɒp/ Noun a full stop is the punctuation mark '.' that shows the end of a sentence you forgot the full stop at the end of your first sentence | use a capital letter for the first word after a full stop heat /hi:t/ Verb

when you heat something, you make it hot they need to heat the oven before baking the cake | I heated some water for my tea | I need to heat my soup honey /'hʌni/ Noun uncount honey is a sweet, sticky substance made by bees

Collocate: a jar of honey

I added honey to my tea | the jar of honey was on the breakfast table | they prefer natural honey to sugar hummus /'hʌməs/ Noun hummus is a Middle Eastern dish that is made from chickpeas, tahini, lemon and garlic they served hummus with pita bread | he enjoys eating hummus as a snack | the hummus dip was delicious with fresh vegetables menu /'menju:/ Noun in a restaurant, the menu is the list of dishes that you can have the waiter brought us our menus | can you see anything you like on the menu? | it wasn't a long menu, but everything looked delicious | she picked the first dish on the menu mix /mɪks/ Verb

if you mix things, you put things together in one place so they become one mix the flour and water together, then add some salt | if you mix these two tins of paint, you should get a deep green colour | heat the ingredients until they are melted and mixed into a sauce

Noun: mixture leave the mixture in the fridge for ten minutes mushroom /'mʌʃru:m/ Noun a mushroom is a type of fungus with a round cap on a stick part, called a stem. There are some types of mushroom you can eat

I cooked a delicious mushroom soup for dinner | they picked fresh mushrooms from the garden | the pizza had wild mushrooms on it order /'ɔ:də/ Verb

when you order in a restaurant, you tell the waiter what you want to eat and drink are you ready to order? | I can't decide what to order | Pete ordered another bottle of water | I ordered fish for my main course

Noun: order

we waited over half an hour for our order to arrive pour /pɔ:/ Verb

if you pour a liquid, you make it flow out of its container Collocate: pour someone something shall I pour you a drink? | pour the sauce over the meat | she poured the milk into the bowl punctuation /ˌpʌŋktʃu'eɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun punctuation is the system of marks that you use in writing to show the end of a sentence, a pause, etc.

Collocate: punctuation mark good punctuation helps make your writing easier to read | not all languages have the same rules of punctuation | nobody uses punctuation in emails these days | my keyboard has a separate row for punctuation marks

Verb: punctuate

for homework, we had to punctuate three paragraphs from our coursebook salad /'sæləd/ Noun

a salad is a dish made with lots of different vegetables and a sauce called a dressing

Collocates: caesar salad | Greek salad | side salad they made a fresh green salad for lunch | you can have the caesar salad with or without grilled chicken | they ordered a side salad with their meal seafood /'si:fu:d/ Noun uncount seafood is food from the sea you can eat, such as fish and shellfish they ordered fresh seafood at the restaurant | I prefer seafood over meat | the seafood dish was popular at the party sparkling /'spɑ:klɪŋ/ Adjective when water is sparkling, it has bubbles in it Collocate: sparkling water they prefer sparkling water to still water | can we have some sparkling water, please?

|| Opposite – Adjective: still

I prefer still water over sparkling spinach /'spɪnɪdʒ/ Noun uncount spinach is a vegetable with large, dark-green leaves that are cooked or eaten in salads

I made a spinach salad for lunch | they used fresh spinach in the soup | spinach has a lot of vitamins and nutrients spread /spred/ Verb

if you spread food, you press down on it so that it covers the top of something, such as a slice of bread spread the jam evenly on each slice | the butter was too hard to spread easily starter /'stɑ:tə/ Noun in a meal, the courses are the separate dishes that you eat, one after the other. The starter is the first course

I'm having prawns for my starter | I won't have a starter, but I'll have a dessert later | does everyone know what they want for a starter?

vegetarian /ˌvedʒɪ'teəriən/ Noun a vegetarian is a person who does not eat meat or fish suitable for vegetarians | I've been vegetarian for two years | I'm vegetarian so I don't eat meat

Pages 66–67

asparagus /ə'spærəgəs/ Noun uncount asparagus is a plant whose young green or white stems (long, thin part of the plant) are cooked and eaten as a vegetable they served steamed asparagus with the main course | I bought fresh asparagus from the market | asparagus is a popular vegetable in the spring aubergine /'əʊbəʒi:n/ Noun aubergine is a large, dark, purple vegetable with a smooth skin. Sometimes people call it eggplant aubergine is often used in Mediterranean cuisine | they cooked aubergine with olive oil and garlic | aubergine is used in moussaka bean /bi:n/ Noun

a bean is a seed that you eat like a vegetable. It can be in a tomato sauce, and it can be many different colours, for example, green, black, beige green beans in a stir fry | we used pinto beans in the tacos | put black beans in the sauce cabbage /'kæbɪdʒ/ Noun a cabbage is a round vegetable with thick leaves. It can be green or purple

I added cabbage to the dish | I bought a cabbage from the market | the Chinese dish had cabbage in it carrot /'kærət/ Noun

a carrot is a long orange vegetable that you can eat with or without cooking it

I love carrot sticks and hummus | I had a delicious carrot cake | my salad has carrots in it celery /'seləri/ Noun celery is a green vegetable which is long and crunchy. You can eat it with or without cooking it

I don't like celery soup | I have celery sticks for the hummus cereal /'siəriəl/ Noun

a cereal is a plant that produces grain that is used as food around 40% of cereals grown in the world go to feed animals | a farm growing cereal crops | we get most of our cereals from other countries clear /kliə/ Adjective if something is clear, it is easy to see are the pictures clear? | a clear view of the sea | a clear window diagram /'daɪəgræm/ Noun a diagram is a simple drawing that shows how something works Collocate: draw a diagram draw a diagram to explain how it works | they provided a clear diagram of the machine | the book includes a diagram of a plant eggplant /'eg.plɑ:nt/ Noun an eggplant is the American English for aubergine cut the eggplant in half | wash and dry the eggplant before cooking it | fry the eggplant in hot oil for ten minutes final score /'faɪnl 'skɔ:(r)/ Noun the final score in a sports match is the score when the match ends we were winning two-nil at half time, but the final score was three-two to the other side | what was the final score? | the final score was four-one to Wales flower /'flaʊə/ Noun flowers are the coloured parts of a plant or tree that appear once a year for a while. People use flowers to make a room look nice

Collocate: a bunch of flowers put the flowers in a vase | he gave her a bunch of flowers on her birthday | pick some flowers (take them off the plant) | those flowers smell lovely | I grow vegetables and flowers in the garden fruit /fru:t/ Noun fruit are things like apples and oranges that have seeds inside them and that you can eat. The plural of fruit is fruit or fruits a bowl of fruit | they eat lots of fruit in Italy | a piece of fruit | fresh fruit | you should eat fruit and vegetables every day | fruit is good for you | fruit juice | there is lots of fruit on that tree grape /greɪp/ Noun

a grape is a small, round fruit that grows in groups called bunches. They are red, green or black

Collocate: a bunch of grapes they bought a bunch of grapes at the market | I like to eat grapes as a snack | some people like to freeze their grapes leaf /li:f/ Noun the leaves of a plant are the flat, usually green parts that grow on the branches. On some trees, leaves change colour and fall off in autumn the leaves are long and thin | the symbol of Canada is the maple leaf | the leaves started to fall in October this year lettuce /'letɪs/ Noun a lettuce is a green vegetable that you often use in salads they added fresh lettuce to the salad | lettuce is the main part of my salad | I like to put lettuce in my burgers pear /peə/ Noun

a pear is a sweet fruit that is thin at the top and wide at the bottom a pear tree | I often eat pears and apples for breakfast | pears are delicious pineapple /'paɪnæpl/ Noun a pineapple is a large fruit that has hard skin you need to take off. Inside, it is bright yellow

Collocates: fresh pineapple | pineapple juice

I need to take the skin off the pineapple | I love pineapple juice | I got a fresh pineapple from the market point /pɔɪnt/ Noun in a test or exam, you get points when you get an answer right. In sports competitions, a point is a unit of scoring. Usually, the player or team with the most points wins the match you get one point for each correct answer | in tennis, you don't need to win every point to win the match | we lost by four points (the other team got four more points than we did) | you get two points for getting the basketball into the basket quiz /kwɪz/ Noun

a quiz is a short test or game where you answer questions

Collocates: take a quiz | do a quiz they took an online quiz to test their knowledge | someone prepared a fun quiz for the class | the quiz had questions about general knowledge | they were excited to take the quiz at the end of the lesson

Verb: quiz

the police quizzed the man about the crime root /ru:t/ Noun the roots of a plant are the parts under the ground that send food up to the plant above the ground the roots are very dry | the plant has put down strong roots | a tree with a deep root system | the roots grew to the side and damaged the wall screen /skri:n/ Noun

a screen is the flat surface on a computer, TV or phone where you see images and information

Collocates: TV screen | phone screen that's a huge TV screen! | I broke my phone screen | I watched the film on a big screen soil /sɔɪl/ Noun uncount soil is the top layer of earth where plants grow they checked the quality of the soil before planting | the farmer prepared the soil for next year's crops spring /sprɪŋ/ Noun spring is a season (spring, summer, autumn, winter) flowers come out in spring | in spring I wear a light jacket | spring in the UK is April until June stem /stem/ Noun

a stem is the long thin part of a plant that a flower grows on hold the flower by its stem | cut the stems before you put the flowers in the vase | the stems can grow up to 60 cm | it has thin stems | roses with long stems sunlight /'sʌnlait/ Noun uncount sunlight is the natural light that comes from the sun the room was filled with bright sunlight | she avoided sitting in direct sunlight to stay cool | the plants need natural sunlight to grow title /'taɪtl/ Noun

a title is the name of something, for example, a book, film or piece of work

Collocate: give it a title does your essay have a title? | what's the title of the book? | give your report a title turnip /'tɜːnɪp/ Noun a turnip is a round, white vegetable that you can eat, often in a soup dad prepared boiled turnip as a side dish | they used fresh turnips in the soup | the turnip soup was warm and delicious welcome /'welkəm/ Verb welcome is something you say to introduce someone and greet them welcome to the tour! | welcome to the presentation | welcome to our hotel

Noun: welcome

Collocate: a warm welcome let's give a warm welcome to our guests wheat /wi:t/ Noun wheat is a very common cereal plant. Its grain is turned into powder (flour) and is used to make bread, cakes, etc.

we grew a lot of wheat this year | a field of wheat | Canadian wheat is good for making bread flour yourself /jɔː'self/ Pronoun yourself is when you refer to you personally and not someone else someone said 'enjoy yourself' before the trip | take care of yourself | you should always believe in yourself

UNIT 6: PAST LIVES

Page 69

archaeologist /ˈɑːkiˈɒlədʒɪst/ Noun an archaeologist is a person who studies ancient cultures by searching for them. They study the things they find, for example, buildings, tools and bones the archaeologist discovered some very old jewellery | she's studying to become an archaeologist | archaeologists found some old buildings in the forest

Noun: archaeology

I love programmes about archaeology helicopter /ˈhelɪkɒptə/ Noun a helicopter is an aircraft without wings that has large blades (long flat parts) on the top that go round to help it take off and land she went to hospital by helicopter | they took a helicopter ride over the city | I watched the helicopter take off look like /ˈlʊk laɪk/ Phrase

if something or someone looks like something, they appear to be that thing or similar to it

it looks like it's going to rain soon | she looks like her older sister | it looks like they are going to win the game

period /ˈpɪəriəd/ Noun a period is a length of time when something happens they studied the history of the Victorian period | during that period of time I was in Spain | the Renaissance period was an important time for art

-ties /tɪz/ Suffix

when you are talking about periods of time of about ten years, you can refer to them, for example, as the fifties, sixties, seventies, etc. The fifties are the ten years starting with 1950; the sixties are the ten years starting with 1960, and so on he started his career as a photographer in the fifties | Margaret Thatcher was prime minister throughout the eighties | my dad was born in the seventies

Pages 70–71

artist /ˈɑːtɪst/ Noun

an artist is someone who draws or paints pictures or who makes sculptures

Picasso was a famous artist of the 20th century | she had always wanted to be an artist | the café was popular with artists, writers and other creative people | Leo is a very gifted artist (he has a lot of skill)

Noun: art | Adjective: artistic a book about twentieth century art | her artistic style developed over the years | I'm not very artistic and I've never been able to draw astronaut /ˈæstrənɔːt/ Noun an astronaut is a person who is trained to travel into space she dreams of becoming an astronaut one day | I watched a documentary about famous astronauts | the astronaut trained for years before going to space banknote /ˈbæŋknəʊt/ Noun a banknote is a piece of paper money

Collocates: dollar banknote | on a banknote

they paid with a 20-dollar banknote | the king is on the banknote | they found an old banknote in their wallet chancellor /ˈtʃɑːnsələ/ Noun a chancellor is the head of a government, university or something else in a country

Angela Merkel was the chancellor of Germany | in the UK there is a chancellor of the exchequer, who is in charge of the money coin /kɔɪn/ Noun

a coin is small piece of metal that is money a pocket full of coins | a shiny one-pound coin | several coins fell out of his pocket | some of these old coins are worth a lot of money | I collect old French coins composer /kəmˈpəʊzə/ Noun a composer is a person who writes music the Swiss composer Arthur Honegger | Beethoven is a classical composer event /ɪˈvent/ Noun an event is something that happens, usually because it has been arranged, for example, a concert or a sports match we have a lot of social events next week | tonight's event will start at 7:30 | the event was attended by over 3,000 people | there will be eight teams in the weekend's sporting event | the last day of the school term is always an exciting event expression /ɪkˈspreʃən/ Noun an expression is a word or phrase

Collocate: time expression

'yesterday' is a time expression | 'what's the meaning of the expression "be under the weather"?' 'you feel unwell'

Verb: express

you can express your opinion king /kɪŋ/ Noun

a king is a man who rules a country and whose son or daughter will rule after he dies. A woman who rules a country in this way is a queen.

the king was killed in 1649 | Henry VIII is probably the most famous English king | a list of all the English kings and queens since 1066

Opposite – Noun: queen marry /ˈmæri/ Verb

when you marry someone, you become their husband or wife in a legal ceremony they decided to marry next year | they asked if they would ever marry | marrying into a big family was nice

Noun: marriage | Adjective: married || Opposite – Verb: divorce

Collocate: get married

a happy/unhappy marriage | we got married last year | they got divorced three years ago painting /'peɪntɪŋ/ Noun a painting is a picture that someone has made using paint

Collocates: an oil painting | a watercolour painting it's a lovely painting, but it isn't worth much | an exhibition of paintings by Picasso | she did a lot of paintings of the river | I'm going to hang this painting in the bedroom | his works include a number of oil paintings (using paint that is made from oil) | a fine watercolour painting (using paint that is mixed with water)

Noun: painter | Verb: paint a portrait painter | he mostly paints landscapes president /'prezɪdnt/ Noun a president is the most senior politician and the leader of the government of some countries the president of the US | President Macron of France | the US president lives in the White House queen /kwi:n/ Noun

a queen is a woman who rules a country and whose son or daughter will rule after she dies. A man who rules a country in this way is a king.

Elizabeth II became queen in 1952 | the queen's head was on the coins and banknotes | did you ever met the queen?

Opposite – Noun: king revolution /revə'lʊ:ʃən/ Noun a revolution is a sudden and important change in a country's political system or the way people live

Collocates: American Revolution | Industrial Revolution

they studied the causes of the American Revolution | someone wrote a paper on the Industrial Revolution | a political revolution changed the country's government side /saɪd/ Noun

a side is one surface of something

Collocates: the other side | on the side his face was on the side of the banknote | the advert on the side of the bus | I'm on the other side of the fence

Pages 72–73bicycle /'baɪsɪkl/ Noun a bicycle is a vehicle with two wheels that you ride by pushing pedals down and round with your feet. Often, it is called a bike

Collocate: ride a bicycle they rode a bicycle through the park | they asked if I wanted to go for a bicycle ride | they locked their bicycle outside the shop born /bɔ:n/ Verb born is the past participle of the verb bear. When someone or something is born, they come into the world as a baby

Collocates: born in | born into they were born in Lisbon | I asked where he was born | she was born into a large family grow up /grəʊ 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you grow up, you become older, from a child to an adult Collocate: grow up on, grow up in Bernard Kroger grew up in the US | children grow up so fast | we grew up in a small town hard worker /hɑ:d 'wɜ:kə/ Noun a hard worker is someone who puts in a lot of effort and energy into their work or tasks

Laura is known as a hard worker | you are a very hard worker and always get things done | my mum has always been a hard worker

Adjective: hardworking a hardworking person who does everything to the best of their ability stepfather /'stepfɑ:ðə/ Noun a stepfather is a man who is married to your mother, but is not your biological father

Collocate: have a stepfather

I have a stepfather and a stepbrother | I get on well with my stepfather Opposite – Noun: stepmother my dad got married to my stepmother when I was five store /stɔ:/ Noun a store is another word for a shop. Often, it is used in American English they went to the store to buy some food | my sister works at a grocery store | do you need anything from the store?

telephone /'telɪfəʊn/ Noun a telephone is a device you use to speak with someone who is far away. It is often called a phone

Collocates: answer the telephone | call someone on the telephone | telephone call

I made a telephone call to my friend | they answered the telephone after the third ring | grandma never answers her phone

Verb: phone can you phone me later?

towards /tə'wɔ:dz/ Preposition towards means you go in the direction of something Collocates: go towards | walk towards towards the end of the nineteenth century | go towards the supermarket | walk towards the bridge

Pages 74–75

according to /ə'kɔːdɪŋ tə/ Phrase you use according to when you want to refer to what someone has said according to the writer, what happened? | according to the weather forecast, it will rain tomorrow | according to the teacher, the test is next week ago /ə'gəʊ/ Adverb

you use ago to describe something that happened in the past, counting back from the present we met six years ago | I went there three months ago | a long time ago, people travelled by horse by hand /baɪ 'hænd/ Phrase when you do something by hand, you make or complete it using your hands and not a machine write by hand | the dress was made by hand by a local designer | I wrote the letter by hand instead of typing it comment /'kɒment/ Noun a comment is something you write on the internet, underneath an article, photo, Facebook post, etc. saying what you think about it you must be registered to post comments here | click here to write a comment | have you read all the comments here?

Verb: comment

lots of people commented on the photos | anyone can comment on my blog posts | you have to register for the site before you are allowed to comment diary /'daɪəri/ Noun a diary is a book that has a space for every day of the year. You use it to record the date and time of things you need to do, or to write down the interesting things that happen to you every day

Collocates: keep a diary | write a diary

I wrote the date for our meeting in my diary | during her year in France, she kept a diary (wrote down what happened every day) | let's have lunch next Friday – don't forget to put it in your diary | she wrote in her diary before going to bed fitness tracker /'fɪtnəs trækə/ Noun a fitness tracker is a device some people wear that records information about what they do, for example how many steps they take in a day, or how fast their heart beats, etc.

my fitness tracker connects to my phone | a wearable fitness tracker (that you can wear on your wrist or arm) | I'm going to buy a fitness tracker in January | most people in my class have a fitness tracker however /haʊ'evə/ Adverb however means that you are introducing an idea that is different to something you said, or saying an opposite idea in a sentence the weather was terrible; however, they still went for a walk | I wanted to go to the event; however, I had to work | the project was hard; however, they finished it on time neck /nek/ Noun

your neck is the part of your body that joins your head to the rest of your body he had a very long neck | she hurt her neck | I've got a pain in my neck | his neck was very red notebook /'nəʊtbʊk/ Noun a notebook is a small book with blank pages that you can use for writing things in Collocate: write in a notebook they wrote their ideas in a notebook | James always has a notebook with him | the teacher asked them to take out their notebooks

Noun: note

Collocates: make notes | take notes can you make notes of what you hear? | watch the video and take notes past life /pɑːst 'laɪf/ Phrase a past life is what life was like before life now Collocate: in a past life in a past life, people communicated by telegram | he talked about his past life as a sailor private /'praɪvɪt/ Adjective something private is something personal to someone that they don't want to share

Collocates: private life | private property

I want my past to be private | the celebrity wanted to live a private life | this is private property – do not enter record /rɪ'kɔːd/ Verb when you record something, you film it or write it down many of us record our lives nowadays | the class was recorded so other teachers could learn from it | record a video

Noun: record | Noun: recording

Collocate: make a record of

make a record of everything he says | the recording was poor quality second /'sekənd/ Noun a second is a unit of time. There are 60 seconds in one minute

Collocates: every second | in a second the camera took a picture every 30 seconds | can you wait for one second? | I'll be back in a second share /ʃeə/ Verb

if you share photos, articles, links, etc. you put them on a social media page so that your friends can see them too

he's shared a lot of photos of his holiday | it was a really interesting article – thanks for sharing | I thought I'd share this with you all along /ə'lɒŋ/ Preposition if you move along something, you move next to it Collocate: walk along

Pages 76–77

we walked along the river | the dog ran along the road | walk along the beach attend /ə'tend/ Verb

if you attend an event, you go to it and are present there

Collocates: attend a meeting/conference | attend college/school/university all employees have to attend the training session | all students are welcome to attend | the ceremony was attended by nearly 200 people | he's been attending this conference for many years boring /'bɔːrɪŋ/ Adjective something that is boring is not interesting a really boring book | my job is really boring | the film was so boring we left before the end | he's the most boring student in the whole school

Adjective: bored || Opposite – Adjective: interesting |

Adjective: interested

I got bored after waiting for an hour | if you're bored, why don't you go and do your homework? | the Hilary Mantel books are really interesting | I watched a really interesting programme on TV last night | he said he wasn't interested in cars | tell me more – I'm really interested card /kɑːd/ Noun

a card is something you send to someone for a specific purpose, for example, for their birthday, to say congratulations. You usually write inside it

Collocate: send a card

I received a birthday card | I need to send a card to my dad for his birthday | I got a card with some money in it conference /'kɒnfərəns/ Noun a conference is a large formal meeting where people discuss particular topics or share information they attended a business conference in Madrid | they presented their research at the international conference | the company organized a conference to discuss future projects equipment /'iːkwɪpmənt/ Noun uncount equipment refers to the tools, machines or objects you use for a specific task or activity

Collocate: sports equipment they bought new sports equipment for the gym | I am learning how to use the science testing equipment | the equipment for the project arrived yesterday fantastic /fæn'tæstɪk/ Adjective something that is fantastic is very good this food is fantastic | we had a fantastic holiday | the view from the hotel window was fantastic | a fantastic guitar player fine /faɪn/ Adjective something that is fine is quite good everything at school is fine at the moment | 'How was your evening?' – 'It was fine, thanks' | a rather fine painting fun /fʌn/ Adjective if something is fun, you enjoy it Collocates: have fun | great fun we had a lot of fun at the weekend | swimming in the sea is great fun | why don't you come with us? – it'll be fun funny /'fʌni/ Adjective something that is funny makes you laugh a really funny joke | Mr Platt is funny sometimes | we watched funny YouTube videos all evening | it's the funniest book I've ever read | a funny story in a magazine great /ɡreɪt/ Adjective something that is great is very good the trip to New York was great | Tokyo is a great place to live | there are some great shops here | we saw a great film last night | you look great in that jacket | Athens is a great city in particular /ɪn pə'tɪkjələ/ Phrase in particular means that you want to put attention on a specific person or thing they mentioned one student in particular who did a great job | she enjoys many types of food, but pizza in particular | in particular, they wanted to discuss the event look forward to /lʊk 'fɔːwəd tə/ Phrasal verb if you are looking forward to something, you think you will enjoy it or be pleased when it happens

Collocate: look forward to doing something

I'm looking forward to going to France for a week | we're all looking forward to seeing you next month | she was looking forward to her birthday | I'm looking forward to my holiday | are you looking forward to the end of term?

nice /naɪs/ Adjective something that is nice is pleasant and enjoyable did you have a nice time on your holiday? | there's a nice café near here | she's a nice person | we had a nice meal at a restaurant | this is a nice place to live | he always wears nice clothes | the soup tastes nice not bad /nɒt 'bæd/ Phrase something that is not bad is good, but not very good the film was not bad | she's not bad as a singer | the first course wasn't bad, but the main course was terrible not very good /nɒt veri 'ɡʊd/ Phrase something that is not very good is quite bad my cooking is not very good | the film wasn't very good | I'm not very good at singing

OK /əʊ'keɪ/ Adjective something that is OK is not good, but also not bad the film was OK | the food in the restaurant was OK | we had an OK evening at the cinema pass /pɑːs/ Verb

if you pass a test or exam, you succeed in it Collocate: pass a test/exam she passed all her exams | I just hope I pass my exams next week | she passed her driving test first time | if you don't pass this time, you'll have to take the exam again in January present /'prezənt/ Noun a present is something you give someone for a special occasion, for example, a birthday

Collocates: give a present | buy a present | birthday present

I got a present for graduating | let's give a nice present to dad for his birthday | I forgot to buy a present for her stay up /steɪ 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you stay up, you stay awake and don't go to bed Collocate: stay up late they stayed up late to finish their homework | I tried to stay up all night but fell asleep | they planned to stay up and watch a film terrible /'terəb(ə)l/ Adjective something that is terrible is very bad the food in the school canteen is terrible | he made a terrible mess in the kitchen | a terrible crime | they worked in terrible conditions | I've got a terrible pain in my leg | that was a terrible film! | I made a terrible mistake yours sincerely /jɔːz sɪn'siəli/ Phrase at the end of the letter, before your name, you write Yours sincerely if you started the letter using the other person's name, or 'Yours faithfully' if you started the letter 'Dear Sir' or 'Dear Madam'

Yours sincerely, Jerry Coe

Pages 78–79

association /ə'səʊsi'eɪʃən/ Noun an association is a group of people who come together for a shared interest Collocate: football association the football association made the final decision | the NBA is the national basketball association in the US career /kə'riə/ Noun a career is the job that someone does for a long time Collocate: successful career they decided to start a career in web design | she had a successful career as a detective | I want a career in teaching change your mind /tʃeɪndʒ jə(r) 'maɪnd/ Phrase when you change your mind, you have a different thought to what it was before the company changed its mind about the law | I was going to cancel the trip but changed my mind | they changed their mind about which course to take club /klʌb/ Noun

a club is an organization for people with a common interest and sometimes they are on a team together, for example, a tennis club

Collocates: football club | tennis club | running club the women's football club won the European finals | we have a tennis club near our house | I am in a running club engineer /'endʒɪ'nɪə/ Noun an engineer is a person who designs, builds or looks after machines, structures or systems she studied to become an engineer | she is working as a software engineer at a tech company | the engineer fixed the broken equipment

Noun: engineering

I studied engineering at university goal /gəʊl/ Noun

a goal is a point you score in a sport

Collocate: score a goal the football player scored the winning goal | she scored over 90 goals in her career | how many goals were there in the football match?

grounds /graʊndz/ Noun plural the grounds are where a team plays a sport we sat in the north end of the grounds | the team play at the grounds every Sunday

fan /fæn/ Noun

a fan is a person who enjoys or supports a particular sports team Collocate: be a fan of

there were 20,000 fans at the stadium | I'm a fan of chess | the fans were very happy female /'fi:meɪl/ Adjective girls and women are female people male workers used to get paid more than female workers | a female colleague | over half the students were female | two of our teachers are male and the other three are female

Noun: female || Opposite – Adjective: male a young, Mexican female final /'faɪnəl/ Noun the final is the last match in a competition or last in a series in of events we watched the grand final of the tennis tournament | our team were in the final last year

Adjective: final

the final match is tomorrow | the teacher gave the final instructions before the test male /meɪl/ Adjective boys and men are male people male workers used to get paid more than female workers | a male colleague | a male nurse | two of our teachers are male and the other three are female

Noun: male || Opposite – Adjective: female a young, German male manager /'mænɪdʒə/ Noun a manager is a person responsible for controlling or organizing a business, team or project we have a direct manager | many large companies have female managers at the top

Noun: management | Verb: manage

I want to work in management | can you manage things while I take a break?

match /mætʃ/ Noun

a match is a sports competition between two or more players or teams

Collocates: watch the match | play a match | football match

we went to the stadium to watch a football match | we watched the match on TV | I played in a match yesterday but we lost missing /'mɪsɪŋ/ Adjective when something is missing, its not there complete the missing space | what's the missing word? | who's missing from class today?

Verb: miss

we missed you at school today national /'næʃənəl/ Adjective when something is national, it is related to a whole country Collocate: national team the women's national football team | it's a national holiday today | we watched the national dance competition

Noun: nation

this is an important moment in our nation's history nurse /nɜ:s/ Noun

a nurse is someone who works in healthcare. They care for sick or injured people and usually work in a hospital they spoke to the nurse about how they were feeling | I want to become a nurse after finishing school | the nurse gave them medical advice role model /'rəʊl mɒdl/ Noun a role model is someone whose behaviour or success is liked or loved and copied by others my dad is my role model | they want to be a positive role model for young people | the athlete is considered a role model in their community surprise /sə'praɪz/ Verb when something surprises you, you feel shocked because something is unexpected they surprised me with the news | what surprised you the most? | we were all surprised when she arrived

Noun: surprise | Adjective: surprising | surprised it was a surprise when he arrived at the party | I'm surprised it's not raining today talk about /'tɔ:k ə'baʊt/ Phrase to talk about something means to discuss or mention it in conversation we need to talk about the new project | they asked if they could talk about the recent news | they spent hours talking about their plans for the weekend

top /tɒp/ Noun

the top is the best of something these are the top 100 songs in the world | the top spot | he was the top student in the class win /wɪn/ Verb

if you win a game or competition, you beat the other players we won the match against Arsenal | Tijuana won the match 4-0 | he loves to win an argument

Noun: winner

the winner received £5,000

Page 80

become /bɪ'kʌm/ Verb become means that someone begins to be something they worked hard to become successful in their career | the actor became famous after being in a popular film | the caterpillar will become a butterfly emperor /'empərə/ Noun an emperor is a ruler of an empire, which is a group of countries or states controlled by one person we read about the emperor of China in history class | the emperor ruled for many years | emperors often controlled large areas

Noun: empire

the Roman Empire

journey /'dʒɜ:ni/ Noun

a journey is the act of travelling from one place to another, often over a long distance Collocate: journey across

he wrote about his journeys across Asia | I wished them a safe journey before they left | the journey was tiring but worth it for the beautiful views

UNIT 7: JOURNEYS

Page 81

autumn /'ɔ:təm/ Noun autumn is the season between summer and winter the leaves turn brown in autumn | in some countries, it starts getting colder in autumn | they love walking in the park during autumn dangerous /'deɪndʒərəs/ Adjective something that is dangerous might cause damage or harm to someone

Formula 1 motor racing is a dangerous sport | texting while you're driving is very dangerous | riding a motorbike can be dangerous if you're not careful | the zoo has a number of dangerous animals | working underground is both difficult and dangerous

Noun: danger | Adverb: dangerously

Collocate: be in danger the warning sign said 'Danger of death!' | if they're still on the mountain in this storm, then they're in danger | he was in danger of falling off the bridge | she stood dangerously close to the edge of the cliff | the temperature was dangerously high difficult /'dɪfɪk(ə)lt/ Adjective something that is difficult is not easy to do or to understand Collocate: difficult to do something a long and difficult journey | maths is a really difficult subject | that's a difficult question | it was very difficult to find a job | the exam was more difficult than I expected | it was difficult to get up at five in the morning

Noun: difficulty || Opposite – Adjective: easy

Collocates: with difficulty | have difficulty

I have difficulty with English spelling | she overcame the difficulties (she succeeded even though it was difficult) | do you think English is an easy subject? | I found the exam really easy return /rɪ'tɜ:n/ Verb when something returns, it goes back to the place it came from the female turtle returns to the same beach to lay her eggs | they returned to the city after the holidays | I will return home next week safe /seɪf/ Adjective something that is safe is not dangerous and will not hurt people or do any damage Collocate: safe to do something the roads were much safer when there were fewer cars | it's a safe area – I walk everywhere, even at night | is it safe to ride a bike on the streets here? | I didn't feel safe on my own in the city | they said it was safe to swim in the sea here

Noun: safety | Adverb: safely we need to improve safety in the factory | road safety | drive safely | we swam across the river safely shepherd /'ʃepəd/ Noun a shepherd is a person who takes care of sheep and guides them to where they need to go the shepherd walked with the sheep across the field | I saw a shepherd with his sheep | the shepherd used her dog to guide the sheep temperature /'temprɪtʃə/ Noun the temperature is how hot or cold something is the temperature at night is about three degrees | what's the temperature outside? | the temperature will drop to just two degrees during the night | the temperature might reach 36 degrees tomorrow | what temperature is the air-conditioning on? | I think I've got a temperature (my body is too hot because I am ill)

wild /waɪld/ Adjective something wild lives or grows in nature they saw wild animals at the national park | he enjoys looking at wild flowers in the forest | the animals live in the wild, far from humans

Pages 82–83

antelope /'æntɪləp/ Noun an antelope is an animal that lives in Africa and Asia. It has long legs, eats plants and often has horns (two long point on the top of their head)

Collocate: a herd of antelope they saw a herd of antelope on their safari trip | an antelope can run very fast | I saw a wild antelope near the water

around /ə'raʊnd/ Preposition around means on every side

Collocate: around the world

I walked around the park this morning | everyone around the world | the children were running around the playground calf /kɑ:f/ Noun

a calf is a young animal of specific animals, for example, a cow, an antelope. The plural is calves

I saw a baby calf in the field | the antelope had three calves | the cow gave birth to two calves elephant /'elɪfənt/ Noun an elephant is a large grey animal with a very long nose called a trunk, that lives in India and Africa. Elephants in Africa have very large ears and elephants in India have smaller ears circuses used to have performing elephants many years ago | elephants are used to pull tree trunks out of forests | African elephants are the heaviest land animals of all | baby elephants weigh about 90 kilos exam /ɪg'zæm/ Noun

an exam is a formal test that checks your knowledge or skills in a subject Collocate: take an exam last year, the exam was easy | you need to take an exam at the end of the course | I passed the exam frog /frɒg/ Noun

a frog is a small animal that lives near water, jumps and has smooth skin

I saw a green frog near the pond | we watched the frog jump into the water | frogs make a strange noise high /haɪ/ Adjective if something is high, it is far above the ground they climbed a high mountain during their holiday | the monkey likes to sit in high positions | how high does it go?

lay /leɪ/ Verb

if a female bird or insect lays an egg, the egg comes out of her body each chicken lays one egg a day | happy hens lay nicer eggs | later in spring, the females lay eggs | the queen bee's main purpose is to lay eggs migration /maɪ'greɪʃən/ Noun uncount migration is the movement of animals or people from one place to another they studied bird migration in school | she watched a documentary about human migration | the migration season for birds happens every autumn

Verb: migrate

the family migrated to a new country normal /'nɔːmə/ Adjective if something is normal, it is usual or happens regularly they returned to their normal routine after the holidays | someone said it was perfectly normal to feel nervous | the weather was normal for this time of year

Adverb: normally normally, it's hotter than this turtle /'tɜːtl/ Noun a turtle is a creature with a hard shell that lives in the sea or on land Collocate: sea turtle

they watched a sea turtle swim near the reef | we found a baby turtle on the beach | the turtle moved slowly across the sand

Pages 84–85

ancient /'eɪnf(ə)nt/ Adjective something that is ancient is very old an ancient legend (a very old story) | an ancient burial site (where people were buried a long time ago) | we cannot accurately estimate the population of ancient Rome (we don't know the population of ancient Rome) busy /'bɪzi/ Adjective when it's a busy time of year, there's a lot to do and many people around it's a busy time of year | the centre is busy today | it's a busy time for the team

call /kɔːl/ Verb

when you call someone, you contact them by phone Collocate: a good time to call when's a good time to call you? | I'll call the restaurant to make a reservation | he called a friend to ask for help

Noun: call | phone call

Collocates: make a call | give someone a call

I made a call to my sister | give me a call to confirm the plans capital city /'kæpɪtl 'sɪti/ Noun a capital city is the most important city in a country they visited the capital city during their holiday | he lives in the capital city of Serbia | Berlin is the capital city of Germany cool /kuːl/ Adjective when something or someone is cool, people like it and it is fashionable or good Collocate: look cool

I thought her new shoes looked really cool | a really cool person | the coolest city in the country desert /'dezət/ Noun

a desert is a large area of land where there is not much rain and not many plants can grow he's on an army base out in the middle of the desert | the Sahara Desert | we didn't have enough petrol to get across the desert | to the south is an arid desert (very dry) | the desert sand felt hot on my feet drive /draɪv/ Verb

if you drive a car or other vehicle, you control what it does

I sometimes drive my dad's car | I want to learn to drive a car | he drives a taxi | he's 50 and he still can't drive | it will take an hour to drive to Brighton | drive carefully | we drove into town

Noun: driver | Noun: drive

she's a very careful driver | a taxi driver | we went for a drive in the countryside | it's a two hour drive to get home fly /flaɪ/ Verb

if you fly somewhere, you go there in a plane

I'd rather go by train than fly | you can fly direct from Singapore to Seattle (without stopping on the way) | we flew to Dubrovnik last year | we flew economy to Berlin (we had the cheapest possible tickets) | I've only flown business class once (in more comfortable and more expensive seats) | British Airways flies to over 300 different airports in the world

Noun: flight

it's a ten-hour flight (journey in a plane) | our flight time this afternoon will be two hours and 20 minutes | we hope you enjoyed the flight | you can get really cheap flights to Prague human /'hjuːmən/ Noun a human is a person they learned about the human body in science class | all humans should have equal rights | there are more than eight billion humans in the world join /dʒɔɪn/ Verb

when you join someone, you connect with them in some way, for example, 'join me later' means come and meet me later they joined a meeting at work in the afternoon | they invited others to join their project | join me on the next episode luckily /'lʌkɪli/ Adverb if something happens luckily, it happens by good chance luckily, no one was hurt in the accident | luckily, we arrived just in time | luckily for them, the weather stayed nice all day Noun: luck | Adjective: lucky | unlucky luck follows me | you won! You're so lucky! | I lost my phone, I lost my wallet – I'm so unlucky!

open-air /əʊpən-'eə/ Adjective when something is open-air, it happens outside and not in a building they went to an open-air concert last weekend | we shopped at the open-air market for fresh food | they watched a movie at the open-air cinema

rock /rɒk/ Noun

a rock is a large, heavy stone she handed me a rock from the beach | we climbed over the rocks to get to the sea | a huge piece of rock | the boat hit some rocks and sank somewhere /'sʌmweə/ Adverb you use somewhere to refer to a place that is not specific or known Collocates: go somewhere | somewhere else we decided to go somewhere new for our holiday | they left their phone somewhere and couldn't find it | let's sit somewhere else take /teɪk/ Verb

when you use public transport, you can say that you take the bus, take a train, etc.
there were no buses so we took a taxi | it was raining, so I took a taxi to the cinema | let's take the bus to the cinema | shall we take the train to Manchester, or would you prefer to drive?

travel by /'træv(ə)l ˌbaɪ/ Verb if you travel, you go from one place to another. If you want to say how you travel, you can say you travel by train, travel by plane, etc.

we always travel by plane when we go to France | we travelled by train to Brindisi, and then by boat to Kefalonia | I'd rather travel by ship than fly in a plane traveller /'trævələ/ Noun a traveller is someone who goes on journeys or trips they met a traveller at the airport | world travellers often share stories about their adventures | the guide helped the travellers find their hotel Noun: travelling | Verb: travel Collocate: go travelling I went travelling around Africa last year | we love to travel as much as we can view /vju:/ Noun

the view is everything you can see from a particular place Collocate: a view over something there were great views as we went up the mountain | the hotel has a view over the Mediterranean | I love the view from my bedroom window | a room with a sea view (a view over the sea) | what a lovely view welcome back /ˌwelkəm 'bæk/ Phrase welcome back is something you say to someone when they return after being away welcome back to the hotel | welcome back – we're happy to see you again | welcome the family back celebration /ˌselə'breɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun if you celebrate, you do something enjoyable to show that a particular day or event or occasion is special. The activity you do is a celebration Collocates: a birthday/anniversary celebration | a big/small celebration a birthday celebration | the celebrations lasted all day and all night | we all joined in the celebrations | we organized a big celebration for the opening of the new school | the news caused celebrations across the city Verb: celebrate

Pages 86–87

we always celebrate Christmas with my grandparents | they went to a restaurant to celebrate his birthday coast /kəʊst/ Noun

the coast is the land along the edge of the sea I love living near the coast | Cartagena is a port on Colombia's beautiful coast | I like to walk along the coast Adjective: coastal a coastal hotel in the south of England concert /'kɒnsət/ Noun a concert is an event in which people play music for an audience to listen to my mum took me to a concert for my birthday | a lot of people are travelling to Wembley for the big concert | I'm going to a concert on Saturday | the band are giving a concert in Mexico City | a rock concert | I've got tickets for a pop concert dancer /'dɑːnsə/ Noun

a dancer is someone who moves their body to music, usually for their job Collocates: professional dancer | ballet dancer | salsa dancer my brother is training to be a professional dancer | they watched a ballet dancer perform on stage | the dancers practised for hours before the show Noun: dancing | Verb: dance
we went dancing on Friday night | I love to dance to all music friendly /'frendli/ Adjective when someone is friendly, they are kind and pleasant to other people the people in the town were very friendly | your mum is a friendly person | they met some friendly travellers during their trip

Noun: friend

Ilya is my best friend huge /hju:dʒ/ Adjective something that is huge is extremely big the truck was carrying a huge load | they're putting up a huge building near the park | most of the rooms are huge, but the kitchen is tiny | I've never seen such a huge dog incredible /ɪn'kredəb(ə)l/ Adjective something that is incredible is very impressive

New York is an incredible city | an incredible film | her incredible kindness | the food here is incredible jungle /'dʒʌŋg(ə)l/ Noun a jungle is an area in a hot country where there are lots of trees we spent three days walking through the jungle | it's easy to get lost in the jungle | the plane crashed in thick jungle port /pɔ:t/ Noun

a port is a place by the edge of the sea where boats arrive and leave from

Naples is an important port in southern Italy | all around the port you can hear the sounds of boat building | a small fishing port | Dover has a busy port salsa /'sælsə/ Noun salsa is a type of Latin American dance, where two people dance together to salsa music. Salsa music is lively music with drums and wooden sticks

Collocates: learn salsa | dance salsa they took a salsa dance class last weekend | do I need a partner to dance salsa? | I learnt salsa in a dance class when I was young sculptor /'skʌlptər/ Noun a sculpture is an object that is a work of art made from wood, stone, plastic, etc. The art of making these works is also called sculpture. A person who makes these things is a sculptor

he painted portraits to earn money, but he really wanted to be a sculptor | the sculptor Barbara Hepworth had a studio in Cornwall, in the south-west of England | a famous sculptor

Noun: sculpture

an exhibition of sculptures by Henry Moore | she studied sculpture at art school | I prefer paintings to sculpture | in the hall was a sculpture of a lion sculpture /'skʌlptʃə/ Noun

a sculpture is an object that is a work of art made from wood, stone, plastic, etc. The art of making these works is also called sculpture

they visited a museum to see a famous sculpture | the artist created a beautiful sculpture from clay | the artist is known for making large stone sculptures

Noun: sculptor

he painted portraits to earn money, but he really wanted to be a sculptor square /skweə/ Noun

a square is an open area in a town or city, usually with buildings around it

Trafalgar Square in London | there's a large square in front of the cathedral | it's an old town with an attractive market square | let's meet in the main square at eight o'clock | cars aren't allowed on the square in front of the station step /step/ Noun

steps are the flat narrow surfaces that make up a staircase and that you walk on as you go up or down shall we meet on the steps outside the theatre? | I fell down the steps and broke my leg | there 1,710 steps to the top of the Eiffel Tower time /taɪm/ Noun time is minutes, hours, days, etc. When you are talking about time and what happens, there are various expressions you can use

Collocates: spend time | save time | have a good time

I like to spend time with my friends at the weekends (be with them for a while) | I didn't have time for breakfast (I could not have breakfast as well as everything else I needed to do) | buying things online can help you save time (not spend too long on a single activity so you have more time for other things) | I'm sure you'll have a good time at Disneyland (you'll enjoy yourself while you are there) trek /trek/ Noun

a trek is a long and difficult journey on foot they went on a trek through the mountains last summer | they enjoy trekking through forests and hills

Collocate: on a trek

Verb: trek

they trekked through the forest

Pages 88–89

angry /'æŋgri/ Adjective when someone is angry, they feel annoyed in a strong way and upset about something Collocates: get angry | be angry at they felt angry when they missed the bus | she gets angry when things go wrong | I didn't mean to get angry at you

Noun: anger

I felt a lot of anger at the situation around the corner /ə'raʊnd ðə 'kɔ:nə/ Phrase when something is around the corner, it is nearby to where you are there's a cash machine just around the corner | the café is just around the corner from the park | we live around the corner from the market borrow /'bɒrəʊ/ Verb

if you borrow something from someone, they let you use it for a time and then you give it back may I borrow your bike? | he borrowed my PlayStation and still hasn't given it back | I had to borrow some money from my father to buy the car | do you mind if I borrow your pen?

Opposite – Verb: lend would you lend me your bike this weekend, please?

buy /baɪ/ Verb

if you buy something, someone gives it to you in exchange for money

I need to buy a train ticket | did you buy any flowers? | I've got enough money to buy a new shirt | I bought a newspaper and a book at the station | you can buy all sorts of things on the internet cash /kæʃ/ Noun uncount cash is money in the form of coins and notes

Collocate: pay (by) cash can I pay by credit card? I don't have any cash with me | are you paying by cash or credit card? | I paid £10 cash for it | a cash machine (that gives out bank notes) | I've got to go to a bank to get some cash cash machine /'kæʃ məʃiːn/ Noun a cash machine is a machine that allows people to take money out of their bank account. People also call it an ATM

Collocates: use a cash machine | take money out from the cash machine they went to the cash machine to take out money | I used my card at the cash machine to get some money out | they found a cash machine near the shopping centre change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb

if you change money, you give someone one sort of money and they give you a different sort

I want to change some American dollars to British pounds | don't change your money at the airport | change your money before you set off credit card /'kredɪt ˌkɑːd/ Noun a credit card is a piece of plastic that you use instead of cash she paid for the computer with her credit card | I left my credit card in the shop | is your credit card Visa or Mastercard? | she has three different credit cards currency exchange office /ˌkʌrənsi ɪks'tʃeɪndʒ ˌɒfɪs/ Noun a currency exchange office is a place where people can change money from one currency to another. Currency is the money people use in a specific country, for example, Turkish lira in Türkiye, euros in Italy, dollars in the US they went to the currency exchange office to change their dollars into euros | we got some euros at the currency exchange office | they visited the currency exchange office at the airport don't worry /'dəʊnt wʌri/ Phrase when you say don't worry, you are telling someone not to be nervous, scared or worried about something she said, 'don't worry about the exam, you'll be fine' | the teacher told them not to worry if they're late | don't worry, everything will be fine feel sorry for /fiːl 'sɒri fə/ Phrase when you feel sorry for someone, you feel bad for them or their situation

Collocate: feel sorry for they felt sorry for the person who lost their job | my son said he felt sorry for the children in the story | they felt sorry for what happened last week fix /fiks/ Verb

when you fix something, you repair it or make it work again they need to fix their bike before the weekend | can you fix my phone screen? | they managed to fix the problem with the computer garage /'gærɑːʒ/ Noun a garage is a place you take your car to be fixed Collocate: stop at a garage the garage couldn't fix the car for 24 hours | let's take the car to a garage | the garage was busy with customers get out /get 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb when you get out, you leave or go out of a place

I need to get out of the car | get out of the building quickly in an emergency | let's get out of here

I'm afraid /aɪm ə'freɪd/ Phrase when someone says I'm afraid, they are being polite and trying to say sorry or that something bad has happened

Collocates: I'm afraid not | I'm afraid so

I'm afraid that the store is closed for the day | I'm afraid I can't help you with that | yes, I'm afraid so – the meeting has been cancelled lend /lend/ Verb

if you lend someone something, you let them use it for a while and then they give it back to you

Collocates: lend someone something | lend something to someone she lent me her bike for the evening | could you lend me a phone charger? | can you lend me some money? I left my wallet at home | I lent it to him last week | he wanted me to lend him my car | I'll lend you some money if I can borrow your PlayStation for a week lonely /'ləʊnli/ Adjective when someone is lonely, they feel sad because they are alone or don't have people around them they felt lonely after moving to a new city | they made new friends and didn't feel lonely anymore | being lonely can be hard machine /mə'ʃiːn/ Noun

a machine is a piece of equipment with moving parts that you use to do a particular job

Collocates: washing machine | cash machine

I need to buy a new washing machine | the machine stopped working midday /ˌmɪdˈdeɪ/ Noun midday is the middle of the day, at 12:00 let's meet at midday | it's hottest at midday | they arrived at the station just before midday near /'niə(r)/ Adjective when something or someone is near, it is close to you.

Nearest is the superlative form of near they looked for the nearest coffee shop to get a drink | we checked where the nearest exit was | they asked for directions to the nearest bus stop | the hotel is nearest to the train station one moment /'wʌn məʊmənt/ Phrase when you say one moment, you want someone to wait for a short time they asked the customer to wait one moment while they checked | they told their friend to wait for just one moment | one moment, let me find that information for you passenger /'pæsɪndʒə/ Noun a passenger is a person travelling in a vehicle, plane or boat. They are not the person who is driving it they sat in the passenger seat during the drive | the lady spoke to the airline passenger before the flight | the train was full of passengers on their way to work pay /peɪ/ Verb

if you pay for something, you give someone money for it when you buy it Collocate: pay for something let me pay for lunch | I had to queue to pay for my coffee | she paid £200 for a new coat | I can't afford to pay that much | I'll pay for the taxi | How much did you pay for those shoes? | can I pay by card?

Noun: payment

Collocate: make a payment

I borrowed £1,200 and will make 12 monthly payments of £105 spend /spend/ Verb

if you spend money, you buy things

Collocate: spend something on something

I spent £100 on clothes | how much did you spend yesterday? | don't spend all your pocket money | I didn't spend any money at all take out /teɪk 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb if you take out money, you get it from a cash machine

I need to take out £50 | the maximum you can take out is £300 | he took out £50 before going to the restaurant ticket /'tɪkɪt/ Noun a ticket is something that shows you have paid and can go on a train, into a cinema, etc.

a ticket for the football match between Chelsea and Arsenal | I go to the cinema on Wednesdays when the tickets are cheap | don't lose the tickets! | you can buy tickets online | the tickets have all sold out (there are none left) | do you have any spare tickets (that you do not need)?

Pages 90–91

danger /'deɪndʒə/ Noun danger is the possibility of harm or something bad happening

Collocate: in danger

the lifeguard helped people who were in danger | someone warned that swimming in this area could be a danger | they noticed signs that said, 'danger: keep out'

Adjective: dangerous this is a dangerous situation fight /faɪt/ Verb fight means to argue with someone, sometimes with words and sometimes physically Collocate: fight with the animals fought with each other for the territory (space) | I don't want to fight with you | we fought about lots of different things

Noun: fight

Collocate: have a fight we had a fight about whose jacket it was full /fʊl/ Adjective if something is full, it contains as much of something as it can hold or fit Collocate: full of this space is full – there's no room | the fridge was full of food | the bag is full of books grow /grəʊ/ Verb to grow means to become bigger, older or to develop over time they watched the flowers grow in the garden | children grow up so fast | they decided to grow their own vegetables happen /'hæpən/ Verb

if something happens, it takes place or occurs they wondered what would happen next in the story | things like this just happen sometimes | they asked, 'what happens if we don't finish on time?'

hundreds /'hʌndrɪdʒ/ Noun plural hundreds is the plural of hundred. Hundreds means more than one hundred of something Collocate: hundreds of

there were hundreds of people at the festival | they've seen that show hundreds of times | they counted hundreds of birds flying in the sky life cycle /'laɪf saɪkl/ Noun a life cycle is the series of changes that an animal or plant goes through from birth to death

Collocate: the life cycle of they studied the life cycle of a butterfly in school | someone explained how the plant life cycle works | the life cycle of some animals is very short | look at this life cycle of a bear salmon /'sæmən/ Noun salmon is a large fish that lives in the sea but swims to rivers to lay its eggs. You can eat salmon and it is usually pink in colour

Collocates: smoked salmon | fresh salmon they ordered grilled salmon for dinner | he caught a large salmon during their fishing trip | they love eating fresh salmon with lemon | they went to see the salmon jumping up river skin /skɪn/ Noun uncount your skin is the outer covering of your body if you've got dry skin, don't use this sort of soap | my skin is darker than my brother's | his skin was smooth and cold turn /tɜ:n/ Verb

you use turn to describe how something changes from one state and starts being in a different state

Collocate: turn from something to something my skin turns red in the sun | the weather turned wet (it started raining) | it was so cold my lips turned blue | the leaves will turn from green to brown in the autumn

Page 92

castle /'kɑ:sl/ Noun

a castle is a large, strong historical building where kings and queens, or lords and ladies, lived. A lot of castles have experienced fights or battles

I live near the castle | the castle has high walls | the castle has beautiful gardens around it planet /'plænit/ Noun a planet is one of the objects in space, like the Earth, that goes round a sun scientists say they have discovered a new planet | how many planets can you name? | I'd like to travel to another planet

UNIT 8: APPEARANCE

Page 93

build /bɪld/ Verb

if you build something, you put parts together to make something they are building a new house near the park | we built a bridge over the river | the company plans to build a new office there

Noun: building | Noun: builder what a beautiful building! | I work as a builder design /dɪˈzaɪn/ Noun something's design is how it looks or works the design of the kite means it can fly through wind | the design of the new website was nice | a lovely, bright design

Noun: designer | Verb: design

an interior designer (a person who decorates the inside of homes) | we designed this room ourselves main /meɪn/ Adjective something main is the most important or largest part of something the main reason we are meeting is to talk about the project | the main parts of the design | the main character in a show similar /ˈsɪmɪlə/ Adjective if things are similar, they are almost the same but not exactly Collocates: similar to | look similar their ideas were similar, but not the same | I thought the two cars looked very similar | the houses are very similar | your hair is a similar colour to mine sky /skaɪ/ Noun the sky is everything above you when you are outside. On a nice day, the sky is blue. You can see the sun and the moon in the sky

there are lots of clouds in the sky today | there wasn't a cloud in the sky | the sky was blue | in the morning, there was a clear sky | a cloudy sky | Sunday will bring sunny skies and warmer temperatures

Pages 94–95

almost /ˈɔːlməʊst/ Adverb almost means something is very close, but not quite there, for example, almost twenty years ago (not quite twenty years ago, but nearly)

they are almost finished with their homework | she was almost done with her presentation | we opened the shop almost a year ago at the moment /æt ðə 'məʊmənt/ Phrase at the moment means right now or currently at the moment, the company is working with Swedish designers | he is busy at the moment but will call back later | they said they are working on something at the moment belt /belt/ Noun

a belt is something you wear round your waist to stop your trousers or skirt from falling down this belt is too short for me | a leather belt | I need a belt with this skirt coat /kəʊt/ Noun

a coat is a piece of clothing that you wear when you are outdoors to keep warm

Collocates: a winter coat | a warm coat take a coat – it's cold outside | I bought a winter coat | you need a coat in this cold weather | a woman in a blue coat | I got this coat in the sales | hang your coat up | take your coat off and come in | I wish I had a warmer coat dress /dres/ Noun

a dress is a piece of clothing that has a top and a skirt joined together a blue dress | she's wearing an old dress | an expensive dress | I bought two new dresses in the sales | my mother's old wedding dress (that she wore when she got married) environment /ɪnˈvaɪərənmənt/ Noun the environment is the natural world around us, including the air, water and land they are working to protect the environment from pollution | he enjoys spending time in a clean environment | protecting the natural environment is important for future generations

Adjective: environmental it is an environmental problem that we need to fix fashion /ˈfæʃən/ Noun uncount fashion is popular clothes, hairstyles, etc. at a specific time

Collocates: fashion designer | fashion show | in fashion they attended a fashion show in Paris | my brother is studying to become a fashion designer | the fashion industry changes what's in fashion every season

Adjective: fashionable that's a very fashionable coat furniture /ˈfɜːnɪʃə/ Noun uncount furniture is things like chairs, tables, beds, etc. that you use at home and in other places where you sit or spend time they bought new furniture for their living room | they need to buy some pieces of furniture for the office in addition /ɪn əˈdɪʃən/ Phrase you say in addition when you want to add more information to something or say something extra in addition to the main course, they ordered dessert | I love reading books and, in addition, I enjoy writing short stories | in addition to learning English, they are also studying Spanish jacket /ˈdʒækɪt/ Noun a jacket is a piece of clothing like a light coat he's wearing black trousers and a grey jacket | I usually wear a jacket to work | take your jacket off if you're hot | a warm jacket | an expensive jacket | a leather jacket | can I try this jacket on (put it on to see if I like it)?

jeans /dʒi:nz/ Noun plural jeans are blue trousers made of strong material called denim Collocate: a pair of jeans an old pair of jeans | he was wearing a T-shirt and jeans | my jeans need washing | where did you get your jeans? | my sister's always borrowing my jeans | we're not allowed to wear jeans to work leggings /'legɪŋz/ Noun plural leggings are trousers that fit tightly against your legs

Collocate: a pair of leggings a pair of black leggings | I mostly wear jeans, trousers and leggings, not skirts | colourful leggings | I bought three pairs of leggings material /mə'tɪəriəl/ Noun

material is something you use to make things, like leather, wood, plastic, etc.

the dress is made of soft material | they used recycled material for their art project | the chair was covered in a smooth material project /'prɒdʒekt/ Noun a project is a planned piece of work that has a specific goal and you complete over a period of time they are working on a big project for school | my son asked for help with his science project | they completed the project reuse /ri:'ju:z/ Verb when you reuse something, you use it again instead of throwing it away the company reuses old clothes | they decided to reuse the old boxes | we always reuse our plastic bags to reduce waste routine /ru:'ti:n/ Noun a routine is a regular way of doing things, which you usually do at a similar time each day

Collocate: daily routine

they start their morning routine with a cup of coffee | their exercise routine helps them stay healthy | they followed the same routine every day salary /'sæləri/ Noun

a salary is the money you receive regularly for doing a job

Collocates: monthly salary | good salary

I was offered a job with a good salary | the company increased the employees' salaries this year | they are happy with their monthly salary scarf /ska:f/ Noun

a scarf is a piece of material you wear round your neck to keep warm she's wearing a hat and scarf | don't forget your scarf | wear a scarf – it's cold today | a woollen scarf (one made of wool) shirt /ʃɜ:t/ Noun

a shirt is a piece of clothing you wear on the top half of your body

I need a clean shirt for my interview | I bought a new shirt yesterday | I usually wear a white shirt to work | I need to change my shirt | he took off his shirt | put your shirt on | he was wearing a shirt and tie shoe /ʃu:/ Noun

shoes are what you wear on your feet

Collocate: a pair of shoes a pair of brown shoes | I need some new shoes | he cleaned his shoes before he went out | my shoes are dirty | she was wearing red shoes | he took his shoes off | I sat down to put my shoes on shorts /ʃɔ:ts/ Noun plural shorts are trousers that do not go all the way down to your feet Collocate: a pair of shorts you can't wear shorts to work | a pair of black shorts | I wear shorts to go running | it's too cold to wear shorts today skirt /skɜ:t/ Noun

a skirt is a piece of clothing that hangs down from the middle of the body over the legs a short skirt | I bought a new skirt in the sales | what's this skirt made of? | the zip on my skirt is broken | you look nice in that skirt | my skirt is too long sock /sɒk/ Noun

socks are pieces of clothing that you wear on your feet inside your shoes Collocate: a pair of socks a pair of green socks | there's a hole in my sock | thick, woolly socks | long socks (that reach your knees) | cotton socks suit /su:t/ Noun

a suit is a jacket and trousers or skirt made from the same material

I have to wear a suit to work | you look very smart in that suit | you should wear a suit for your interview | this suit cost over £200 sunglasses /'sʌŋɡla:sɪz/ Noun plural sunglasses are glasses that have dark glass in them to protect your eyes from strong sunlight

Collocate: a pair of sunglasses

I bought a new pair of sunglasses | why don't you get some sunglasses for the summer? | I left my sunglasses on the beach | I always keep a pair of sunglasses in the car | a pair of designer sunglasses (expensive sunglasses made by a famous designer) tie /taɪ/ Noun

a tie is a strip of material, usually worn by men around the neck, that hangs down towards their waist we have to wear a tie to school | a red tie | he was doing up his tie | a school tie

top /tɒp/ Noun

a top is a piece of clothing that you wear on the top half of your body

I like your new top | she was wearing a blue top | that top matches your skirt nicely | I need a new top train /treɪn/ Verb

when you train someone, you teach them the skills they need to do something he is training to become a teacher | train them and pay them a good salary | the company trains new employees on the first day

Noun: training | Noun: trainer

we are doing a three-day training at the moment | our trainer is good at explaining things clearly trainer /ˈtreɪnə/ Noun trainers are soft shoes like sports shoes, but that a lot of people wear every day

Collocate: a pair of trainers a pair of black trainers | my trainers got wet | put your trainers on | I like your new trainers trousers /ˈtraʊzəz/ Noun plural trousers are a piece of clothing that cover the lower half of your body, with a separate covering for each leg

Collocate: a pair of trousers

I need some new trousers | a pair of clean trousers | these trousers don't fit me any more | are you going to change your trousers before you go out (put on a different pair of trousers)?

T-shirt /ˈtiːʃɜːt/ Noun a T-shirt is an informal shirt with short sleeves and no buttons down the front wearing a T-shirt and jeans | a black T-shirt | do you ever wear T-shirts?

uniform /ˈjuːnɪfɔːm/ Noun a uniform is a set of clothes that is worn by all the people in a particular group, for example, by the police, soldiers in the army or pupils in some schools a school uniform | pupils have to wear a uniform | my school uniform was bright green in colour | some of them are wearing uniforms | all four police officers were in uniform

Adjective: uniformed

a uniformed police officer (wearing a police uniform)

Pages 96–97appearance /əˈpiərəns/ Noun someone's appearance is what they look like he spends a lot of time on his appearance | I didn't like his appearance much | she had the appearance of an old schoolteacher

Verb: appear

he didn't appear to be surprised by the news arm /ɑːm/ Noun

your arms are the two long parts of your body that start from your shoulders and have your hands at the end my left arm hurts | I fell off my bike and broke my arm | my arm hurts | he carried the books under his arm (held between his arm and his body) | you have two arms and two legs beard /biəd/ Noun

a beard is the hair growing on the lower part of a man's face, on his chin and up the side of his cheeks a tall man with a black beard | beards have become fashionable again | his beard is a different colour from the hair on his head | I think I'll shave my beard off for the summer

Adjective: bearded both men were tall, bearded and looked very strong costume /ˈkɒstjuːm/ Noun a costume is a special set of clothes that people wear for a particular occasion or event, such as a parade or street festival

we all dressed up in a costume for the parade | a national costume | she was wearing a very colourful costume ear /ɪə/ Noun

your ears are the two organs on each side of your head that you use to hear my ears are cold | he has very large ears | it was so loud, I put my fingers in my ears eye /aɪ/ Noun your eyes are the two organs on your face that you see with she has brown hair and blue eyes | I closed my eyes and fell asleep | she looked me in the eye (looked directly at me) and laughed | you have very attractive eyes foot /fʊt/ Noun the plural of foot is feet. Your feet are the two things at the end of your legs, which have five toes each he's got very big feet | she cut her foot on a piece of glass | I walked 30 kilometres and now my feet hurt | he got to his feet (he stood up) | he came to the door in bare feet (not wearing shoes or socks)

hair /heə/ Noun uncount your hair grows out of the top and sides of your head

I need to wash my hair | brush your hair | get your hair cut | have long hair | have short hair | she's got brown hair | blonde hair (very light coloured hair) | a girl with long dark hair hand /hænd/ Noun

your hands are the two things on the end of each arm, with five fingers, that you use for holding things and writing with

Collocates: hold hands | shake hands wash your hands before lunch | he put his hands in his pockets | I write with my left hand | my hands are really cold | she had a book in her hand | they held hands (because they liked each other) | we shook hands (held each other's hand and moved them up and down as a way of saying hello or goodbye)

head /hed/ Noun your head is the top part of your body, where your eyes, nose, brain, mouth, etc. are he hit his head on the door | she shook her head (moved it from side to side, to mean 'no') | a cut on the side of my head | I felt a pain in the back of my head height /haɪt/ Noun your height is how tall you are. The height of a building or mountain is how far it measures from the bottom to the top what's the height of Mount Kilimanjaro? | please write down your age, height and weight it depends /ɪt dɪ'pendz/ Phrase when you say it depends, you mean that what happens or what you will do is not certain and may change because of something else

Collocate: it depends on it depends on the weather whether we'll go out | someone asked if they were coming, and they said, 'it depends' | it depends what time the meeting ends leg /leg/ Noun

your legs are the two long parts of your body that have your feet at the end and your knees in the middle

he fell and hurt his leg | my left leg is longer than my right leg | she broke her leg in the accident | he had very short legs loud /laʊd/ Adjective when someone or something is loud, it makes a lot of noise

Collocates: loud music | loud noise | too loud the music was so loud they couldn't hear each other | what's that loud noise? | they asked their neighbours to turn down the TV – it was too loud mask /mɑːsk/ Noun

a mask is something that covers part or all of someone's face. People sometimes wear colourful masks at a party or celebration she wore a gold mask with a white nose and red lips | the children wore carnival masks and costumes | I'm making a mask for tomorrow's party mouth /maʊθ/ Noun your mouth is the opening in your face where you put food in order to eat it he opened his mouth | don't talk when your mouth is full of food | the baby put the toy in his mouth shoulder /'ʃəʊldə/ Noun your shoulders are the two parts of your body that start at the bottom of your neck and go out on either side he put his arm round her shoulder | the coat is a bit tight round my shoulders | I hurt my shoulder when I fell off the bike | his hair went down to his shoulders traditional /trə'dɪʃənəl/ Adjective if something is traditional, it follows old customs, beliefs or things from the past

Collocates: traditional clothes | traditional music

we wear traditional clothes to weddings | they ate traditional food during the holiday | I enjoy listening to traditional music from different cultures

Noun: tradition | Adverb: traditionally

it's a tradition in our family | traditionally, the bride has a party with her family and friends wow /waʊ/ Interjection you say 'wow' when you have just seen or heard something very impressive or amazing wow! is that your new car? | 'I'm going to California for a month.' – 'Wow!'

Pages 98–99

advertisement /əd'vɜːtɪsmənt/ Noun an advertisement is a short piece of text, often with a picture, or a short film on TV that tries to make people want to buy a particular product

I saw an advertisement for it on TV | there are too many advertisements on TV | the great thing about the BBC is that there are no advertisements | a front page advertisement in a national newspaper | an advertisement for a new smartphone

Verb: advertise

it's very expensive to advertise on television | we need to advertise the new car on the internet as well as on TV clothing /'kləʊðɪŋ/ Noun uncount clothing is the things that people wear like shirts, dresses, shorts, etc.

Collocate: an item of clothing they bought warm clothing for the winter | I found an item of clothing I liked in the shop | they gave old clothing to charity

Noun: clothes

what clothes are you taking on holiday?

dinosaur /'daɪnəʊsɔː/ Noun a dinosaur is very large creature that used to live on earth. Dinosaurs disappeared about 65 million years ago not many dinosaurs could fly | it looked like the footprint of a dinosaur | dinosaurs had very strong teeth doll /dɒl/ Noun

a doll is a toy that looks like a baby or a small person dad used to find bits of wood and turn them into toy boats and dolls | a wooden doll (one made of wood) | a set of eight dolls, one inside the other | by the age of nine, she was too old to play with dolls jewellery /'dʒuːəlri/ Noun uncount jewellery is objects like rings, earrings and necklaces, often made from metal, that people wear because they look nice my friend makes silver jewellery | they stole £20,000 worth of jewellery | he likes to wear gold jewellery | a jewellery box (for keeping jewellery in) | police found a bag full of stolen jewellery and watches

like /laɪk/ Preposition like can mean 'for example'

I prefer sports like football and rugby | we used to go on holiday to seaside towns like Blackpool and Brighton | bands like Oasis and Blur used to be very popular

Synonym – Preposition: such as citrus fruit such as oranges and lemons have a lot of vitamin C | we never discuss serious subjects such as politics or religion

like /laɪk/ Preposition

like can mean similar to or in the same way as someone or something Collocates: look like | sound like you look like your dad | he sounds just like his brother | this is like the bike I had when I was younger make-up /ˈmeɪk-ʌp/ Noun uncount make-up is different coloured substances such as lipstick or powder that some people put on their faces to make themselves more attractive

Collocate: wear make-up

I need to buy some more lipstick and other make-up | don't forget to take your make-up off before you go to bed | my mother hated wearing make-up notice /ˈnəʊtɪs/ Verb when you notice something, you see it, feel it or hear it notice what he's wearing | I didn't notice the sign on the door | I noticed the lights were on in the house plastic /ˈplæstɪk/ Noun uncount plastic is a type of material that is used in many different products, like bottles, bags and containers

Collocate: made of plastic they recycled the plastic bottles after using them | always bring your own bag instead of using a plastic bag | the toy was made of plastic robot /ˈrəʊbɒt/ Noun a robot is a machine that can perform tasks. Often, you control robots by a computer, and they are sometimes built to look like a human they saw a robot that could talk and walk | someone designed a robot for their science project | we use robots in our car factory still /stɪl/ Adverb

when you say still, you mean it continues to happen or exist, even if you thought it might have stopped by now they are still working on the project | I am still waiting for my friend to arrive | they still haven't finished their homework superhero /ˈsuːpəˌhɪərəʊ/ Noun a superhero is a character from comic books or films who has special powers and who protects everyone from bad people who's your favourite superhero? | a T-shirt with superheroes on the front | the first superhero film I saw was Spiderman toy /tɔɪ/ Noun

a toy is an object that children play with a wooden toy | the toy section of a department store | children have so many toys these days | a toy cupboard (where children's toys are kept) | the children were playing with their toys | you have to learn to share your toys | a toy car | a toy shop (a shop that sells toys) unusual /ʌnˈjuːʒʊəl/ Adjective something that is unusual is not what happens normally or regularly it's very unusual to see him at the gym (he normally doesn't go) | she was wearing an unusual coat | did you notice anything unusual about the restaurant? | it's unusual to have snow in March | mixing cabbage with chocolate is unusual

Opposite – Adjective: usual

Collocate: as usual

she got up at 7 a.m. as usual | let's meet in the usual place (the same place where we always meet)

Pages 100–101

auxiliary verb /ɔːgˈzɪliəri ˈvɜːb/ Noun an auxiliary verb is a word like 'do' or 'have' that you use to make different tenses, ask questions or make negatives with English verbs. For example, in the question 'Do you like tennis?', 'do' is an auxiliary verb don't forget to use auxiliary verbs when asking questions blonde /blɒnd/ Adjective if someone's hair is blonde, it is light yellow or golden Collocate: blonde hair their friend has naturally blonde hair | the sun can make your hair turn blonde | I had blonde hair when I was young closely /ˈkləʊslɪ/ Adverb if you do something closely, you do it with careful attention Collocate: listen closely they worked closely with the team on the project | look closely at the details in the painting | listen closely to the teacher's instructions

Adjective: close

they kept in close contact during the project conjunction /kənˈdʒʌŋkʃ(ə)n/ Noun a conjunction is a word like 'and' or 'but' that connects two parts of a sentence make these two sentences into one using a conjunction | 'however' is a conjunction formal /ˈfɔːm(ə)l/ Adjective language that is formal is very careful and correct and used in official situations rather than in relaxed social situations a formal letter | writing 'receive' is much more formal than writing 'get' | it's a good letter, but the language is not formal enough

Opposite – Adjective: informal her letter was quite informal and very funny invitation /ˌɪnvɪˈteɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an invitation is when someone asks you if you would like to go to a social occasion that they are organizing

Collocate: an invitation to something we received an invitation to Alice's wedding | a party invitation | we sent 300 invitations | a printed invitation

Verb: invite

Collocate: invite someone to something let's invite Paul and Elizabeth to dinner | we've been invited to a party at our neighbour's house look straight at /lʊk 'streɪt ət/ Phrase when you look straight at something, you focus your eyes on it they looked straight at the camera and smiled | look straight at the person when speaking | they looked straight at the road while driving magazine /ˌmæɡə'ziːn/ Noun a magazine is a type of large thin book which has articles, photos and adverts in it

Collocate: read a magazine read the magazine article about Mo Salah | I like reading magazines about cars and technology | the magazine had an interesting article about travel nervous /'nɜːvəs/ Adjective if you are nervous, you are very worried and a bit scared that you will do something badly

Collocate: nervous about something

I was very nervous because I'd never made a speech in public before | I usually get really nervous before an exam | he was so nervous his hands were shaking | I could tell he was nervous because he didn't eat anything at lunch | he was nervous about the interview

Adverb: nervously

he waited nervously for his turn to go onto the stage subway /'sʌbweɪ/ Noun the subway is a train system under the ground. It can be called different things in different countries, for example, subway, underground, metro

Collocates: subway station | take the subway the New York subway is an easy way to get around | they took the subway to work every morning | we asked for directions to the nearest subway station unnecessary /ʌn'nesɪsəri/ Adjective when something is unnecessary, it is not needed or required don't add unnecessary information | they felt it was unnecessary to bring so much food | someone said the extra work was completely unnecessary

Adverb: necessarily || Opposite – Adjective: necessary you don't necessarily need to be there at the start of the party | it's necessary to switch off your phone during the test

Pages 102–103

anthem /'ænθəm/ Noun

an anthem is a formal song that represents a country or a group of people Collocate: national anthem

we sing the national anthem before a football game | they stood up when the national anthem was played | we learned to sing the school anthem audience /'ɔːdiəns/ Noun an audience is a group of people who watch or listen to a performance, event or speech the concert had a large audience in the hall | I gave a speech in front of a live audience | the audience clapped after the performance ended carnival /'kɑːnɪv(ə)l/ Noun a carnival is a big public event in a city when people march through the streets, often singing and dancing, wearing special costumes

the children wore carnival masks and costumes | the city is full of people for the carnival | the carnival is next weekend, the most important weekend of the year for us | there's a carnival atmosphere out there today clarinet /'klærə'net/ Noun a clarinet is a long thin musical instrument that you play by blowing at one end and using your fingers to push metal keys that close and open holes she plays the clarinet in the school orchestra | the clarinet makes a beautiful sound | a new clarinet is very expensive cloth /klɒθ/ Noun cloth is material that you can use for things like clothes they bought some cloth to make new curtains | this is a soft cloth | a piece of cloth to clean the table clown /klaʊn/ Noun

a clown is a performer in a circus who tries to make people laugh by behaving in a silly way and wearing silly clothes and a lot of makeup

the clowns pretended to throw a bucket of water over us | two of the clowns kept falling over the whole time | a clown with red hair and long, pointed shoes drum /drʌm/ Noun

a drum is a musical instrument that is round and that you play by hitting with a stick first the drums, then the trumpets started playing | we could hear the beat of the drums from a long way away | can you play the drums?

Noun: drummer

he's the drummer in a rock band fire /faɪə/ Noun fire is the flames, heat and smoke that are produced when something burns Collocate: start a fire fire festival | they started a fire to keep warm during the camping trip | firefighters put out fires laugh /lɑːf/ Verb

when someone laughs they make sounds and have a smile on their face because they are happy or something is funny

Collocates: laugh at | laugh with | make someone laugh

I'm not laughing at you! | we laughed with them about the joke we heard | she made me laugh with her jokes

Noun: laugh

Collocate: have a laugh we had a laugh at the old photos parade /pə'reɪd/ Noun

a parade is a big event when a lot of people or vehicles go through the streets of a town as part of a big celebration the parade will start at the town hall | the parade took over an hour to pass by the front of our shop | there were street parades, and then fireworks in the evening rodeo /'rəʊdiəʊ/ Noun

a rodeo is an event where people show their skills at riding wild horses, catching cattle with ropes, etc.

we went to a rodeo when we were in Arizona | they have a rodeo there every Friday in August | hundreds of people bought tickets for the rodeo trumpet /'trʌmpɪt/ Noun a trumpet is a brass (metal) musical instrument that you play by blowing into one end

I'm learning to play the trumpet | I don't like the sound of a trumpet | the concert began with a piece of music for a trumpet and drum

Noun: trumpeter

a trumpeter in a jazz band wonderful /'wʌndəfəl/ Adjective when something is wonderful, it is very good a wonderful day | we had a wonderful time at the party | what wonderful news!

UNIT 9: ENTERTAINMENT

Page 105

stadium /'steɪdiəm/ Noun a stadium is a large open building around a sports field where lots of people can sit or stand to watch a sports event or other entertainment the new stadium opened in 2015 | the stadium holds 60,000 people | the Olympic stadium (where the Olympic Games took place) | the stadium cost over £20m to build | a football stadium | the old stadium was knocked down in 2011

Pages 106–107

animation /æni'meɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an animation is a film that does not have real humans and places but uses drawings that seem to move a Japanese animation | computer animation | it takes a long time to make an animation blind /blaɪnd/ Adjective if someone is blind, they cannot see they are working with a charity for blind people | the blind person had a guide dog (a dog to help them get around) | I am blind in one eye businessman /'biznɪsmæn/ Noun

a businessman is a man who works in business

the businessman works in the technology industry | they met a young businessman at the event | the businessman travels for work

Noun: business | Noun: businessperson || Opposite – Noun: businesswoman

Collocate: in business

we have had a business for five years | she's a very successful businesswoman cave /keɪv/ Noun

a cave is a large hole in the side of a mountain or in the ground they explored a dark cave near the coast | we stayed in a small cave during the storm | the cave was cold inside classic /'klæsɪk/ Adjective something classic is considered to be excellent and stays around for a long time a classic love story | the classic film | a classic place for weddings

Noun: classic

the film is a classic comedy /'kɒmədi/ Noun

a comedy is a funny film that is meant to make you laugh my favourite kind of film is comedy | he starred in over 30 comedies during his acting career | it was a very silly comedy, but it made me laugh cowboy /'kaʊbɔɪ/ Noun a cowboy is someone who works on a farm with animals and usually rides horses he dressed up as a cowboy for the party | I wore cowboy boots while working on the farm | the movie was about a cowboy decide /dɪ'saɪd/ Verb when you decide something, you make a choice after thinking about the different options

Collocates: decide to | decide on they decided to go on holiday next month | she is trying to decide between two job offers | she decided on the red dress for the party

Noun: decision

Collocate: make a decision the decision was a no | we need to make a decision about what to say director /dɪ'rektə/ Noun a director is someone who is in charge of a film and how it is filmed Collocate: film director

the film director won an award for their latest film | the director made important decisions for the film's production | I wouldn't watch a film by that director again

Verb: direct

we directed the film together documentary /ˌdɒkjʊ'ment(ə)ri/ Noun a documentary is a film that gives information about a particular subject a TV documentary | you can learn a lot from documentaries | I watched a documentary about Swiss banks | an interesting documentary | a documentary filmmaker drama /'dra:mə/ Noun

a drama is a film about feelings, relationships and difficult situations they watched a drama about a family going through hard times | a TV drama | I enjoy watching drama films hey /heɪ/ Noun

you say hey when you want to say hello to someone hey! how are you? | hey! come over here! | hey everyone horror /'hɒrə/ Noun

a horror is a film with a story that tries to frighten you or shock you

I don't like watching horror films | there's a horror film on TV at ten o'clock | horror films are my favourite midnight /'mɪdnaɪt/ Noun midnight is 12:00/00:00 at night

I went to sleep at midnight | it was midnight when I finished the film | they came home at midnight might /maɪt/ Modal verb might means possibly they might go to the party if they finish work early | it might rain later today | they might not make it to the meeting on time moon /mu:n/ Noun the moon is the round object that goes around the Earth and shines at night

Collocate: full moon they watched the full moon rise over the mountains | I saw a bright moon in the night sky | I love the moon musical /'mju:zɪkəl/ Noun a musical is a show where people sing songs in the story they enjoyed watching a Broadway musical with their family | I love watching musicals | Six is my favourite musical

Noun: music | Noun: musician

I listen to music when I work | he was a musician when he was younger must /mʌst/ Modal verb must means that something is necessary or very important you must bring your passport | we must be on time | you must finish the work by Friday on your own /pɒ ʃɔ: 'æʊn/ Phrase if you do something on your own, you do it alone and not with anyone else

I like to go to the gym on my own | she's twelve and goes to school on her own now | he spent the evening on his own | can you manage to lift that box on your own?

rescue /'reskju:/ Noun a rescue is when you save someone from a dangerous situation the rescue of boys from a cave | many people helped with the rescue Verb: rescue

they rescued the cat that was stuck in a tree | they rescued the sailors from the sinking boat romantic comedy /rəʊ'mæntɪk ˌkɒmədi/ Noun a romantic comedy is a funny film about people who fall in love

Love Actually is a really good romantic comedy | Anne Hathaway is in a new romantic comedy | they always show a romantic comedy over Christmas scary /'skeəri/ Adjective someone or something that is scary makes you feel afraid

Collocates: a bit scary | really scary it was a bit scary until the doctor arrived | she can be very scary when she's angry | it was really scary when he started shouting at me | it was really scary walking across the field in the dark | those spiders look scary science-fiction film /saɪəns-'fɪkʃn fɪlm/ Noun a science-fiction film involves a story about the future and often takes place on other planets he likes acting in science-fiction films | 2001: A Space Odyssey is probably the most famous science-fiction film serious /'sɪəriəs/ Adjective if something is serious, it is important, not funny or involves danger or worry a serious film | we need a serious conversation | that is a serious health issue shark /ʃɑ:k/ Noun

a shark is a large sea animal with sharp teeth that can be dangerous to humans they saw a great white shark in the ocean | I watched a documentary about sharks | they heard about a shark attack near the beach space /speɪs/ Noun space is the large, empty area outside the Earth where the stars and planets are Collocate: in space astronauts go to space | the film was set in space | I love learning about space stay out /steɪ 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb if you stay out, you are in a place longer than usual, or longer than expected

Collocate: stay out late

I'm going to stay out late tonight | they stayed out with friends after dinner | we stayed out later than usual tale /teɪl/ Noun

a tale is a story

Collocate: a fairytale someone told an interesting adventure tale about a man who travelled around the world | my dad used to read me a fairytale before bed thriller /'θrɪlə/ Noun a thriller is an exciting film that always makes you want to know what is going to happen next we watched a thriller on TV last night | I was watching a thriller till after midnight | he's acted in two thrillers | a crime thriller set in Los Angeles in 1930 underwater /ˌʌndə'wɔ:tə/ Adverb underwater is below the surface of the water the camera can go underwater | the building disappeared underwater after the heavy rain | they watched a documentary about creatures that live underwater violence /'vaɪələns/ Noun uncount violence is when someone is physical and hurts or harms someone or something some people believe that violence in movies is bad for young people | the group worked together to stop violence in the area

Adjective: violent

the film was quite violent and had a lot of fighting in it worst /wɜ:st/ Adjective when something is the worst, it is the most bad or unpleasant compared to everything else. It is the superlative form of the adjective bad

Collocate: the worst

he had the worst day of the week today | they were afraid of the worst when they heard the news | the worst film ever

Pages 108–109

comedy show /'kɒmədi ʃəʊ/ Noun a comedy show is a funny TV programme do you like watching comedy shows? | a TV channel that has only comedy shows | a 1950s comedy show computer game /kəm'pjʊ:tə, geɪm/ Noun a computer game is a game that you play on a computer Collocate: play computer games do you like playing computer games? | computer games are expensive to buy | an online computer game (one that you play with other people over the internet) | don't spend too long on your computer game tonight conclude /kən'klu:d/ Verb when you conclude something, you come to a decision after thinking about something we concluded that the best decision was to drive | the scientists concluded the research | we concluded that the plan wouldn't work

Noun: conclusion

Collocates: make a conclusion | come to a conclusion we made a conclusion about the results | we came to the conclusion we couldn't work together device /dɪ'vaɪs/ Noun

a device is a piece of electronic equipment such as a phone, a tablet, etc.

I use the device in the evenings | people watch shows on their devices like their iPad, laptop and TV drama series /'dra:mə sɪəri:z/ Noun a drama series is a story told in several episodes, usually every week for a while a six-part drama series | the latest drama series on Netflix | she was in that drama series about the queen episode /'epɪsəʊd/ Noun an episode is one of the several programmes in a TV series what happened in the last episode? | the first episode in a six-part series | the last episode was really exciting firstly /'fɜ:stli/ Adverb firstly means that there are other points you are going to say after the first one firstly, we need to talk about the money for the party | the man said, 'Firstly, I'd like to thank everyone for coming' | firstly, we need to review the plan before making any changes

Adjective: first the first thing we need to discuss is the plan for the party

Gen Z /dʒen 'zed/ Noun

Gen Z refers to the generation of people born between the mid-1990s and the early 2010s

Gen Z is known for growing up with the internet and social media | someone studied the work habits of Gen Z workers | Gen Z has a special relationship with technology compared to older generations gorilla /gə'rɪlə/ Noun a gorilla is a large strong ape that lives in forests they watched a documentary about wild gorillas in Africa | we visited a zoo and saw a family of gorillas | they were amazed by how strong and intelligent the gorillas were pie chart /'paɪ tʃɑ:t/ Noun a pie chart is a circle that is in different parts to show information. All parts of the circle are the total of the whole circle they used a pie chart to show the percentage of sales | the pie chart shows the different ways people travel to work | they presented the information in a colourful pie chart platform /'plætfɔ:m/ Noun a platform is a technology system where people communicate or watch things online

Collocates: social media platform | streaming platform they built a social media platform for sharing videos | the platform helped connect people from around the world | a popular streaming platform like Netflix quiz show /'kwɪz ʃəʊ/ Noun a quiz show is a TV programme in which people have to answer questions about various subjects you can win money if you go on a quiz show | quiz shows are very popular | shall we watch the quiz show tonight?

result /rɪ'zʌlt/ Noun the result is the final information at the end of something, for example, a survey (when people are asked questions) they were happy with their exam result | we asked about the result of the competition | the final result was announced after the game secondly /'sekəndli/ Adverb when you say secondly, you introduce the second point in a list firstly, we need to finish the homework and, secondly, we need to give it to the teacher | they agreed to firstly review the project and, secondly, discuss the next steps

Adjective: second the second thing we need to do is email the report to Harry social network /səʊʃəl 'netwɜ:k/ Noun a social network is a site or app where people can connect and communicate with each other online she uses several social networks to speak to her friends | the social network became very popular with young people | he created a profile on a new social network sports programme /'spɔ:ts prəʊgræm/ Noun a sports programme is a TV programme that shows sports events such as football matches, athletics, etc.

there's a sports programme on at nine o'clock tonight | Dan is always watching sports programmes instead of doing his homework | a nightly (every night) sports programme streaming /'stri:mɪŋ/ Noun streaming is when you listen to and watch something, like music or a video, directly from the internet and you do not download it

Collocates: streaming platform | streaming service | live streaming

Disney+ is an example of a streaming platform | how much is the streaming service per month? | you can watch live streaming on their YouTube channel

Verb: stream

we streamed the film on Netflix survey /'sʊ:veɪ/

a survey is a set of questions that you ask people to get information

Collocates: a recent survey | the survey found | carry out a survey a recent survey found that 50% of people agreed | the survey found that Gen Z use their smartphones to stream videos | they carried out a survey to find out more

Verb: survey

they surveyed over 1,000 people tablet /'tæblɪt/ Noun a tablet is a small, flat computer that you can use by touching the screen. You can carry it around with you they use a tablet to read books and watch videos | I bought a new tablet for work | the tablet screen is large and easy to read violent /'vaɪələnt/ Adjective something that is violent involves the use of force or weapons to hurt people a violent film | I can't understand his violent behaviour | a violent attack in the street | this country has less violent crime than many other countries | the movie was very violent

Noun: violence | Adverb: violently

I thought there was too much violence in the film | he was violently attacked outside the station | the argument ended violently as William threw a plate at his brother wildlife documentary /'waɪldlaɪf dɒkjʊment(ə)ri/ Noun a wildlife documentary is a TV programme that gives information about animals, plants, etc.

David Attenborough started making wildlife documentaries in 1952 | I always watch wildlife documentaries when they're on

Pages 110–111

bird /bɜ:d/ Noun

a bird is an animal that can fly there are birds singing in the trees | the birds start singing at five in the morning | the birds flew away | is it cruel to keep a bird in a cage? | we put food out for the birds in the winter grass /grɑ:s/ Noun uncount grass is a low green plant that grows all over the ground. It is made up of thin pointed green leaves the grass is very long | he's cutting the grass in the back garden | it had rained in the night and the grass was still wet | cows eat grass lake /leɪk/ Noun

a lake is a large area of water, like a sea, but with land all around it the lake is very deep | we rented a boat and went on the lake | she swam in the lake | we stayed in a hotel by the lake | is this the deepest lake in the world?

like /laɪk/ Verb

if you like something, you think it is good and it gives you pleasure he doesn't like his job | I like playing computer games | I don't like carrots | do you like swimming? | nobody likes it when it rains | I like his paintings very much

Opposite – Verb: hate

I hate shopping for new shoes

material /mə'tɪəriəl/ Noun

material is something you use to make things, like leather, wood, plastic, etc.

we used man-made materials | the clothing was made from recycled materials | they bought materials for their art project personally /'pɜ:sənəli/ Adverb if you say personally, you are giving your personal opinion about something she personally thinks that the project will be successful | he said, 'Don't take it personally, but I disagree' | personally, I like all her work

Adjective: personal this song is written from personal experience postcard /'pəʊstkɑ:d/ Noun a postcard is a small card with a picture on one side and space to write on the other

Collocates: send a postcard | receive a postcard they sent a postcard from Italy to their friend | people used to write postcards while on holiday | the postcard had a beautiful picture of the beach prefer /prɪ'fɜ:/ Verb

the person or thing you prefer is the one you want or like the most out of a group of them

Collocate: prefer something to something do you prefer driving or cycling? | do you want some tea, or would you prefer coffee? | at school, I preferred history to maths | shall we go to the theatre or the cinema – which would you prefer?

print /prɪnt/ Noun

a print is a type of picture that you can make more than one of. Usually, the artist makes the picture then creates copies of it called prints

I sell prints on Etsy | the café had lovely prints on the wall | the artist made 100 prints of the painting sand /sænd/ Noun uncount sand is something found on beaches and in deserts. Sand is made from very small pieces of rock and is usually soft a beach with soft sand | I love sand on a beach | many of the beaches in Scotland have sand and not stones

Adjective: sandy

this beach is beautiful and sandy sea /si:/ Noun

the sea is the large area of salt water that covers a lot of the earth a house near the sea | swimming in the sea | the sea between England and France is called the English Channel | the Mediterranean Sea | we went out on the sea in a boat shape /ʃeɪp/ Noun

a shape is the form of something, such as a circle, square or triangle the artist used lots of interesting shapes in the picture | a circle is a shape | what shape is the table?

sunflower /ˈsʌnflaʊə/ Noun a sunflower is a tall plant with a large, round, yellow flower Collocate: sunflower seed we visited a field of sunflowers in the summer | the sunflower grew taller than all the other plants | they collected sunflower seeds to eat as a snack though /ðəʊ/ Conjunction you can use though to introduce a point that is different to what you said before I like it, though I wouldn't eat it again | though it was fun, I don't want to go again tree /tri:/ Noun

a tree is a big, tall plant with lots of branches and leaves I like climbing trees | do you know the name of that tree? | it's an oak tree | we'll have to cut the tree down

Pages 112–113

album /ˈælbəm/ Noun an album is a collection of music by a singer or group Collocates: first album | listen to an album the singer has a new album | I loved her first album but not her second | I listened to their new album yesterday art exhibition /ˈɑːt ɛksɪbɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an art exhibition is an event where people can go and look at paintings and other works of art. Some art exhibitions last a day and others go on for months the students organized an art exhibition at the end of term | there's an art exhibition in the school hall on Saturday | our annual art exhibition | the museum is putting on a big new art exhibition believe /bɪˈliːv/ Verb to believe means to think that something is true Collocates: can't believe | couldn't believe I can't believe he's only 21! | I couldn't believe the lovely weather we had today Noun: belief our belief is that he did it break down /breɪk ˈdaʊn/ Phrasal verb if something breaks down, it stops working their car broke down on the way to the city | the bus broke down | the computer system broke down and they had to call for help Noun: breakdown

we had a breakdown on the way to the airport disappointing /dɪsəˈpɔɪntɪŋ/ Adjective when something is disappointing, it is not what you expected it to be the film was very disappointing | we walked for two hours to see a disappointing view | the result of the exam was disappointing, but they tried their best Verb: disappoint | Adjective: disappointed they disappointed us again and didn't come | we were disappointed by the food in the restaurant extra /ˈekstrə/ Adjective when something is extra, it is more than what you expected some extra fries | they need extra time to complete the project | I asked if they had any extra copies of the book main course /meɪn ˈkɔːs/ Noun in a meal, the courses are the separate dishes that you eat, one after the other. The main course is the biggest one, usually between the starter and the dessert what are we having for the main course? | I had so much as a starter that I couldn't eat all my main course | we had to wait twenty minutes for the main course perfume /ˈpɜːfjuːm/ Noun uncount perfume is a liquid with a strong sweet smell that people put on parts of their body to make themselves smell nice a bottle of perfume | I bought some perfume at the airport | good perfume is very expensive | I could smell his perfume before I saw him scared /skeəd/ Adjective if someone is scared, they are afraid because they think something bad is going to happen to them Collocates: scared of something | scared that I'm scared of spiders | there's no need to be scared | I thought I heard someone downstairs and got really scared | she was scared that she'd fall into the water Verb: scare the noise scared everyone in the station soft /sɒft/ Adjective if something is soft, it is not hard. It is smooth and nice to touch they like to wear clothes made from soft materials | the bed was so soft and comfortable to sleep on | the blanket felt soft Opposite – Adjective: hard the bed was hard so I couldn't sleep song /sɒŋ/ Noun

a song is a piece of music, usually with someone singing words sing a song | the singer wrote a new song | I like listening to songs Verb: sing we love singing in a group strange /streɪndʒ/ Adjective when something is strange, it is unusual they heard a strange noise coming from the neighbours house | I had a strange feeling when I entered the room | the weather was very strange for this time of year Noun: stranger don't talk to strangers (people you don't know) track /træk/ Noun a track is a piece of music. It's another word for 'song' some of the tracks on the album are good | I love this track | what's your favourite track by her?

Pages 114–115access /'ækses/ Noun access is the ability to enter or use something Collocate: have access to they have equal access to the information | they have access to the company's online database | they have easy access to the building

Verb: access | Adjective: accessible they can access the internet from their phone | the building is accessible to everyone disability /dɪsə'bɪlɪti/ Noun a disability is a physical or mental illness, injury or condition that changes the way someone does something

Collocate: have a disability he has a disability that means he needs to bring his guide dog with him | they work with children who have learning disabilities | the building was accessible for people with physical disabilities

Adjective: disabled

she is a disabled person and uses a wheelchair equality /ɪ'kwɒlɪti/ Noun equality is the state of being equal, so that everyone is treated in the same way and receives access to the same things

Collocate: gender equality they are fighting for gender equality in the workplace | we believe in equality for all | the school promotes equality among all students

Adjective: equal

we receive equal pay founder /'faʊndə/ Noun

a founder is a person who starts something like a business they met the founder of a successful tech company | I read about the founder of the charity | the business founder shared their experience lift /lɪft/ Noun

a lift is a machine that carries things and people up and down different floors in a building

Collocates: get in the lift | take the lift they took the lift to the top floor | the lift was broken, so they used the stairs | get in the lift to the fifth floor touch /tʌtʃ/ Verb to touch something means to feel it with your hand Collocate: don't touch

don't touch anything – you might break it | you must not touch anything in the museum | you can touch the dog if you want visual /'vɪʒuəl/ Noun when something is visual, it is something you can see they used visuals to explain the topic | the teacher prepared a visual presentation for the class | a lovely visual

Verb: visualize | Adverb: visually

Collocate: visually impaired try to visualize what it will look like when it's finished | I am visually impaired, but I can see quite clearly with my right eye

Page 116author /'ɔːθə/ Noun an author is a person who writes books, articles and other things

I met my favourite author | she's a famous author | I love that author

Verb: author

he's authored four books

UNIT 10: LEARNING

Page 117

abbreviate /ə'brɪ:viɛt/ Verb when you abbreviate a word or a text, you make it shorter.

For example, you can abbreviate 'information' to 'info' Collocate: abbreviate to the students asked if they could abbreviate in the essay | the organization's name is abbreviated to three letters | 'I don't know' can be abbreviated to 'IDK'

Noun: abbreviation

Collocate: an abbreviation for LOL is an abbreviation for laugh out loud biology /baɪ'ɒlədʒi/ Noun uncount biology is the study of plants, animals and other living things a biology exam | he's studying biology at Cardiff University | she's doing research in biology

Noun: biologist biologists still cannot explain why this happens chemical /'kemɪk(ə)l/ Noun a chemical is a substance that is made of a number of different substances mixed together, usually made in a factory and for a particular purpose a lorry carrying dangerous chemicals crashed on the motorway last night | keep the chemicals in a safe container | a chemicals factory chemistry /'kemɪstri/ Noun uncount chemistry is the study of things like gas, liquid, metal, etc. and how they behave a chemistry lesson | a chemistry laboratory | she's studying chemistry at university

Noun: chemist

an industrial chemist (someone who uses knowledge of chemistry to help improve the way things are made in factories) economics /i:kə'nɒmɪks/ Noun uncount economics is the study of how things are produced and how governments and businesses use their resources

Collocate: study economics they studied economics at university | I enjoy learning about economics in my free time | their professor explained basic economics

Noun: economy

the economy is doing better than last year energy /'enədʒi/ Noun uncount energy is force or power that you get from things like electricity or gas, or from the food that you eat physics is the study of energy | the children always have a lot of energy | we can get clean energy from wind farms fiction /'fɪkʃən/ Noun fiction is stories about things and people that are not real Collocate: fiction book

I prefer fiction to non-fiction | the author is known for writing fiction | they borrowed a fiction book from the library

Opposite – Noun: non-fiction

'Thinking, Fast and Slow' is a non-fiction book geography /dʒi:'ɒɡrəfi/ Noun uncount geography is the study of different countries and areas in the world my geography isn't very good (I don't know where places are) | she's studying geography at Oxford | I always fall asleep during geography lessons | who knows the most about geography?

heat /hi:t/ Noun heat refers to things that are warm or hot

I can feel the heat from the fire | the sun provides heat during the day

Verb: heat

Collocate: heat up

I will heat up the food in the oven

IT /aɪ'ti:/ Noun uncount

IT is information technology, the use of computers to store information and analyze it in a useful way an expert in IT | our company has a large IT department | children often start learning IT at an early age literature /'lɪtrətʃə/ Noun uncount literature is things you can read, such as novels, short stories, poems, plays, etc.

nineteenth century French literature | the literature of Chile is usually written in Spanish | Ishiguro won the Nobel Prize in Literature living thing /lɪvɪŋ 'θɪŋ/ Noun a living thing is something that is alive, like an animal, a plant or a human biology is the study of living things | we need to look after all living things mathematics /ˌmæθə'mætɪks/ Noun uncount mathematics is the science of numbers, shapes, etc. People usually say 'maths' instead of mathematics

he has a degree in mathematics | a maths book | mathematics is not an easy subject | a maths problem

Noun: mathematician

he used to be a mathematician, but now he works in advertising physics /'fɪzɪks/ Noun uncount physics is the study of the laws of movement, heat, light, etc.

a physics teacher | she's studying physics at university | a physics laboratory | I've got a physics exam this afternoon

Noun: physicist

Hawking is one of the most famous physicists in the world roof /ru:f/ Noun

a roof is something that covers the top of a building to protect it from things such as rain, snow and sun they needed to fix the roof after the storm | he climbed to the roof of the building to take pictures | we need the roof repaired

Pages 118–119discover /dɪ'skʌvə/ Verb if you discover something, you find something that people did not know about before they discovered the island in 1795 | they recently discovered some Roman ruins near here | they discovered gold in the mountains

Noun: discovery

scientists have made an exciting discovery | an important new discovery experience /ɪk'spiəriəns/ Noun an experience is something you have done in the past Collocate: past experiences learn from past experiences | they got useful work experience during their summer job | they had an amazing experience abroad

Verb: experience

we experienced a storm last night fail /feɪl/ Verb

if you fail a test or exam, you do badly and do not pass Collocate: fail a test/exam

I only failed one exam last year | I was ill for two weeks before the exam, so I expected to fail | my brother failed all his exams and my dad was really angry with him | over half my class failed their French test finish /'fɪnɪʃ/ Verb when you finish something, you complete it or come to the end of it have you finished your exams? | I will finish by tomorrow | they finished their homework before dinner forever /fə'revə/ Adverb when something is forever, it is until the end of time our lives changed forever | memories last forever | they want to stay in this place forever forget /fə'get/ Verb

if you forget something, you do not remember it. If you forget to do something, you do not do it because you did not remember it at the time

Collocates: forget to do something | forget about something did you forget my birthday again? | don't forget to lock the door | I forgot to buy milk | I've forgotten her name | she's always forgetting her scarf | I completely forgot about lunch

Adjective: forgetful

he became quite forgetful as he got older invent /ɪn'vent/ Verb

if you invent something, you design or create something for the first time

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone | who invented this musical instrument? | the jet engine was invented by Frank Whittle

Noun: inventor | Noun: invention

Dan wanted to become an inventor when he left school | the internet is the greatest invention in my lifetime (while I have been alive)

know /nəʊ/ Verb

if you know something, you have knowledge, facts or information about something in your mind do you know who is the president of France? | do you know when the film starts? | nobody knows where they went | I know how to make bread | does anyone know the way to the restaurant?

Noun: knowledge

she has a good knowledge of modern literature | my knowledge of physics is very basic laboratory /lə'bɒrətəri/ Noun a laboratory is a place where scientists do experiments, research or test things. Often, it is called a lab the experiment was done in a laboratory | the scientist works in a laboratory | the laboratory is full of equipment learn /lɜ:n/ Verb

if you learn something, you find out about it so that you know and understand it

I'm learning French at school | we learned how to put up a tent | I'm learning to drive | did you learn anything new at school today?

Noun: learner

a class of intermediate language learners medical science /ˌmedɪkəl 'saɪəns/ Noun uncount medical science is the study of medicine and illnesses they are studying medical science to become doctors | medical science has made progress in recent years | they read about new discoveries in medical science

MRI scanner /ema:'raɪ skæna/ Noun an MRI scanner is a machine that doctors use to take pictures of the inside of the body they used an MRI scanner to look at the patient's brain | the hospital recently got a new MRI scanner machine

Noun: MRI scan

Collocate: have an MRI scan she had an MRI scan to check for injuries inside her body practise /'præktɪs/ Verb

if you practise something, you do it again and again so that you become good at it

I practise the piano for an hour every evening | you'll never be able to play the guitar well if you don't practise | I practised my dance moves every day probably /'prɒbəbli/ Adverb probably means it is possible something will happen they will probably go to the cinema tonight | it's probably going to rain later | I'll probably go out tomorrow public /'pʌblɪk/ Adjective when something is public, it is open to everyone Collocate: public transport public places like parks are open to everyone | the event is free and open to the public | a public telephone | I take public transport to work recent /'ri:snt/ Adjective when something is recent, it happened not long ago do you have any recent photos of your family? | they shared a recent photo from their holiday | the photos are recent Adverb: recently we recently bought a new washing machine remember /rɪ'membə/ Verb if you remember something, it is still in your head and you can repeat it or talk about it he can remember the whole poem | what do you remember from the history lesson? | can you remember the address? | I know him, but I can't remember his name | she told me where she lives, but I can't remember now study /'stʌdi/ Verb

if you study something, you read about it so that you know about it I need to study for my history exam | I usually study for two hours in the evening | she studied chemistry at university | I'm studying for my music exams | if you don't study enough, you won't pass your exam Noun: student there are over 1,000 students in my school teach /ti:tʃ/ Verb

if you teach someone something, you tell them about it so that they know and understand it can you teach me to draw? | she teaches chemistry at the local school | he taught me how to play chess Noun: teacher my English teacher is Australian through /θru:/ Preposition through means from one side or thing to the other the path went through the trees to the lake | they worked through the night to finish the project | they read through the document before signing it transport /'trænsɜ:t/ Noun transport is vehicles that move people from one place to another, for examples, buses, cars Collocates: public transport | take transport

I use public transport to get to work | the city has a good public transport system | what transport will you take?

understand /ʌndə'stænd/ Verb if you understand something, you know what it means or how it works I don't understand this word | can you understand Italian? | I still don't understand how mobile phones work | once I explained it to him, he understood vaccination /væksɪ'neɪʃən/ Noun a vaccination is medicine that stops people from getting a disease Collocate: get a vaccination

I had a vaccination for COVID | babies get vaccinations | what vaccinations do I need for the trip?
 Noun: vaccine Collocate: get a vaccine some people don't like getting vaccines

X-ray /'eks-reɪ/ Noun an X-ray is a medical photo people get when doctors need to see their bones and things inside their body Collocate: get an X-ray they used an X-ray machine to check for broken bones | the doctor took an X-ray of the patient's leg | the X-ray showed the broken bone yet /jet/ Adverb

when people say yet, they mean something has not happened, but that they expect it to happen
I haven't had dinner yet | have you eaten yet? | the party is yet to happen

Pages 120–121

brain /breɪn/ Noun your brain is the thing in your head that makes you think and helps you do things. It controls your thoughts, feelings and how your body moves and works they studied how the human brain works in science class | the brain controls all the body's actions | humans have big brains championship /'tʃæmpɪənʃɪp/ Noun a championship is a competition to find the best team in a sport or competition they won the championship | the world championship | the team prepared for the championship Noun: champion he was the sailing champion competitor /kəm'petɪtə/ Noun a competitor is someone who takes part in a competition they faced strong competitors in the race | we were against new competitors in the tournament | the competitors trained hard to win the event Noun: competition | Verb: compete

 Collocates: win a competition | enter a competition
I won the competition on TV! | I entered a competition to win a holiday | the athletes competed in the 100m race deck of cards /dek əv 'kɑ:dz/ Noun a deck of cards is a set of 52 playing cards that you use for games. In a deck of cards, there are numbered cards and cards with pictures, such as a king and queen. In a deck of cards, there are 4 suits (categories) – spades, diamonds, hearts and clubs he shuffled (mixed) the deck of cards before starting the game | I brought a deck of cards to play with friends | there are lots of games you can play with a deck of cards directions /dɪ'rekʃənz/ Noun directions are instructions about how to do something, where to go, etc.

Collocate: ask for directions we asked someone for directions to the station | the GPS gave us directions | I'm bad at remembering directions

Verb: direct

can you direct me to the nearest bank, please?

enter /'entə/ Verb when you enter something like a competition, you take part in it Collocate: enter a competition we entered the competition but didn't win | I decided to enter the art competition

Noun: entrant

this information book is useful for new university entrants memory /'meməri/ Noun memory is your ability to remember things

Collocates: good/bad memory | memory test

I have a bad memory for names | they entered a memory test | you have a great memory

PIN number /'pɪn nʌmbə/ Noun a PIN number is a personal identification number used for security. You usually have a PIN number for things like your credit card

Collocates: enter your PIN number | remember your PIN number | change your PIN number can you enter your PIN number for the payment, please? | I can't remember my PIN number | you need to change your PIN before you use the card separate /'sepəreɪt/ Verb to separate means to keep things apart separate long lists into small groups | separate your work into things you have to do today and things you can do later | they separated the class into two groups

Adjective: separate | Adverb: separately they kept their work and personal life separate | we live separately from each other technique /tek'ni:k/ Noun a technique is a way of doing something what is your memory technique? | the chef uses different cooking techniques | the technique helped them improve their driving

Pages 122–123

communicate /kə'mju:nikeɪt/ Verb when you communicate, you share information, thoughts, ideas with someone through speech, writing or another way

Collocate: communicate with learning the language helped me communicate better | they communicated with their team by email | they use social media to communicate with friends and family

Noun: communication

there's a problem with our communication – we need to talk about it daily routine /deɪli ru:'ti:n/ Noun your daily routine is the regular tasks and activities that someone does every day they start their daily routine with a cup of coffee | many people follow the same morning routine every day | he wants to change his daily routine to include more exercise days a week /deɪz ə 'wi:k/ Phrase days a week refers to how many times you do something in a week

Collocates: five days a week | two days a week (once a week, twice a week) they work five days a week in the office | the school is open six days a week | they visit the gym three days a week get up /get 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you get up, you get out of bed after you have finished sleeping what time do you get up? | I got up late this morning | she got up at 6:30 | I hate getting up in the dark in winter | we get up late at weekends | I've got to get up early tomorrow give up /gɪv 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you give up something that you do regularly, you stop doing it Collocate: give up doing something

I used to collect stamps, but I gave it up when I went to university | my parents gave up their restaurant business and went back to Scotland | I decided to give up eating chocolate go up /gəʊ 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb if something goes up, it increases train fares have just gone up again | unemployment went up by 2% last year | petrol prices have been going up since the winter | the temperature went up to 35 degrees in the south of the country habit /'hæbɪt/ Noun

a habit is something someone does regularly as part of their daily life smoking is a very bad habit | my sleeping habits have changed since I came back to Europe | he's got some very annoying habits | children need to learn healthy eating habits | he has a habit of singing in the bath move to /'mu:v tə/ Phrase when you move to someone else, you change who you are speaking to and talk to someone else

I have to move to another student to discuss the questions | I need to move to another student to check their work quotation /kwəʊ'teɪʃən/ Noun a quotation is a group of words taken from a text or speech and repeated by someone else. Often, it is because they are powerful words or words that make you think use a quotation in your essay | 'I have a dream' is a powerful quotation by Martin Luther King Jr | I used a famous quotation in my speech

Verb: quote

can I quote you in my presentation?

real /rɪəl/ Adjective when something is real, it actually exists and is not invented in your mind or imagination use real examples | they couldn't believe the story was based on real events | the characters in the film seemed so real

Noun: reality will time travel ever become a reality?

reference /'refərəns/ Noun a reference is when you mention something. Usually you mention it to provide evidence (information that shows something is true) of something include references to other books in your report | they included a reference to a scientific study in their paper | the author made a reference to a historical event

Verb: refer

Collocate: refer to

I promise not to refer to the subject again revise /rɪ'vaɪz/ Verb when you revise, you go over all your notes and information you have learnt before to try and remember it

Collocate: revise the night before you shouldn't revise the night before your exam | the class were told to revise for the test | I've been revising my notes

Noun: revision

Collocate: do revision

this week we are doing revision for the exam wake up /weɪk 'ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you wake up, you stop being asleep and become awake. If you wake someone up, you make them stop sleeping and become awake the baby often wakes up during the night | she woke up at six in the morning | I usually wake up before the alarm clock goes off | I woke up early and went for a walk | can you wake me up at seven? | don't make a noise – I don't want the baby to wake up

Pages 124–125

approximately /ə'prɒksɪmətli/ Adverb you use approximately to say something is close to something, and not exact there are approximately 100 students in the online class | the journey took approximately three hours | approximately 50 people attended the event certificate /sə'tɪfɪkət/ Noun a certificate is an official document that proves you have completed a course or achieved something

Collocates: get a certificate | certificate of achievement

I got a certificate for passing the exam | the student got a certificate of achievement code /kəʊd/ Noun

a code is a set of numbers or letters that allow you access to something. For example, a country code allows you to call a specific country from yours

Collocate: a country code

90 is the country code for Turkey | what's the country code for Mexico? | you need to enter the code 44 before you call coffee break /'kɒfi breɪk/ Phrase a coffee break is a short rest during work when you have a hot drink or a snack Collocate: take a coffee break let's go for a coffee break and catch up | the coffee break was a good chance to relax | they usually have a coffee break in the afternoon confirm /kən'fɜ:m/ Verb when you confirm something, you check something and make sure of it can you confirm you're coming? | confirm you have emailed the presentation for the meeting | we confirmed our reservation

Noun: confirmation

Collocate: get confirmation of we need to get confirmation of the number of people coming double /'dʌbl/ Verb double means two of something the number is double one zero nine | double oh six oh | there are double doors from the kitchen to the garden download /daʊn'ləʊd/ Verb when you download something, you take it from online to offline to a place like a laptop or computer

I downloaded the files | can you share the document so I can download it? | it's taking me ages to download it

Opposite – Verb: upload

I uploaded the files to the shared folder few /fju:/ Adverb

when you say few, you mean a small number of something Collocates: a few | a few of they only had a few minutes to finish their work | very few people went to the event | they invited a few of their friends finally /'faɪnəli/ Adverb finally means after a long time, especially when there has been some difficulty or delay they finally finished their project after weeks of work | they were happy when they finally arrived at the destination | are you finally going to tell me where we are going?

Adjective: final

this is my final day at the company

just /dʒʌst/ Adverb

just is used to say that something happened very recently

I've just tried to call but my phone isn't working | the passengers called to say they just arrived at the airport | they have just heard the news mistake /mɪs'teɪk/ Noun a mistake is something you do wrong or incorrectly

Collocates: make a mistake | big mistake | learn from mistakes the hotel made a mistake and we paid too much | it was a big mistake to forget their passport before travelling | they learned from their mistakes and improved next time phone call /'fəʊn kɔ:l/ Noun if you make a phone call, you start to talk to someone using your phone Collocate: make a phone call she's making a phone call to her brother | he stepped outside to make a phone call | I just need to make a quick phone call before we leave reception /rɪ'sepʃən/ Noun a reception is an area in a building where you are welcomed and where you can get information

Collocates: reception desk | hotel reception

please go to the reception desk | the hotel reception was open 24 hours | reception is downstairs

Noun: receptionist

my son works as a receptionist in a dentist surgery schedule /'ʃedju:l/ Noun a schedule is a plan with times that activities or events will happen

Collocates: a change to the schedule | have a schedule there's been a change to the schedule and we need to move our meeting | I have a busy schedule this week | what's your work schedule for the week?

Verb: schedule

we scheduled the meeting for nine o'clock session /'seʃən/ Noun a session is a period of time that is used for a specific purpose, for example, a training session or a question and answer session they had a training session for new employees | they planned a study session to revise for the exam | the gym offers a free session for new members speaker /'spi:kə/ Noun

a speaker is someone who stands in front of people and gives a talk, a presentation or a speech they listened to the guest speaker at the conference | she is a confident public speaker | the speaker shared great ideas tone /təʊn/ Noun

a tone is a sound made by a piece of electrical equipment to tell you that something is about to happen or that you should start to do something please leave your message after the tone | a ring tone (the sound a phone makes to announce that a call is coming in) | I can't get a dialling tone (the sound a phone makes that lets you know you can dial a number) training day /'treɪnɪŋ deɪ/ Noun a training day is a specific day for learning new skills or improving things you know we had a training day to learn about the new software | the company held a full training day for all new employees | they found the training day helpful for learning how to use the new software urgent /'ɜ:dʒ(ə)nt/ Adjective something that is urgent is very important and needs to be dealt with very soon if it's urgent, I'll get her to ring you as soon as she comes back | I need to talk to Arthur – it's very urgent | he needed urgent help | that afternoon, Adkin got an urgent call from the hospital

Noun: urgency | Adverb: urgently

there is great urgency to complete the building work before winter arrives | we need your help urgently | unless we act urgently, the Earth will continue getting warmer voicemail /'vɔɪsmel/ Noun voicemail is a system that allows you to leave a message for someone who does not answer their phone when you ring them a voicemail message | if I'm not there, leave a message on my voicemail | I left you a voicemail – did you listen to it?

website /'webʃaɪt/ Noun a website is a set of pages on the internet where you can get information about a particular subject or organization they have a very simple website | this is a useful website for information about Australia | our website gets 2,000 visits a day | which websites do you look at most often? | a website that helps you find old schoolfriends | can you send the URL for your website? (the address, so I can find it) | who designed your website?

work abroad /wɜ:k ə'brɔ:d/ Phrase when you work abroad, you work in a country away from where you live they decided to work abroad for a year | he plans to work abroad after graduating from university | working abroad helped them improve their language skills workshop /'wɜ:kʃɒp/ Noun a workshop is a meeting where people learn about a specific subject by discussing it and doing practical activities they had a workshop on creative writing | there is a workshop for small business owners | the workshop helped them learn new skills

Pages 126–127

chance /tʃɑːns/ Noun

a chance is an opportunity to do something

Collocates: have a chance | take a chance | use the chance they got the chance to meet the CEO during the event | it was the chance I'd been waiting for | they didn't have a chance to talk to everyone at the party | use every chance to speak the language definition /defɪ'nɪʃən/ Noun a definition is a statement that explains the meaning of a word or phrase they looked up the definition of the word in the dictionary | the teacher gave a clear definition of the phrase | the teacher asked the students to write a definition of 'success'

Verb: define can you define this word?

future /'fjuːtʃə/ Noun the future refers to the time that hasn't happened yet

Collocate: in the future they talked about their plans for the future | we think a lot about the future of the environment | in the future, they want to travel more and see new places irregular /ɪ'regjələ/ Adjective if something is irregular, it does not follow a usual pattern

Collocate: irregular verb

'buy' is an example of an irregular verb | they learned about irregular verbs in English | the opposite of an irregular verb is a regular verb

Opposite – Adjective: regular dance is a regular verb meaning /'miːnɪŋ/ Noun the meaning of something is its definition or what it represents Collocate: the meaning of what is the meaning of the word? | they tried to understand the true meaning of the story | they gave meaning to the phrase by giving examples

Verb: mean what does the word mean?

mostly /'məʊstli/ Adverb mostly means most, but not all the book is mostly about the author's life experiences | they mostly focused on improving their writing skills | they mostly used the app for studying

Adjective: most

Collocate: the most who will get the most votes?

news /njuːz/ Noun uncount news is information about things happening at the moment. Often people get the news on TV, online or in newspapers

Collocates: read the news | hear the news

I like to read the news in the paper | have you heard the news about the accident? | they read the news online every morning over and over /əʊvə ənd 'əʊvə/ Phrase over and over means to repeat something many times they listened to the same song over and over | the teacher told them the instructions over and over until they understood | they heard the same story over and over again particularly /pə'tɪkjələli/ Adverb when you say particularly, you are talking about a specific point or piece of information they were particularly interested in the new project | the teacher said it was particularly important to review the notes

Phrase: in particular

I love sweets, but I like these ones in particular pronunciation /prəˈnʌnsɪ'eɪʃən/ Noun pronunciation is the way you say something such as a word or phrase Collocate: the pronunciation of they practised the correct pronunciation of difficult words | the students asked how to improve their pronunciation in English | the pronunciation of the word 'schedule' varies in different countries

Verb: pronounce how do you pronounce this word?

stuff /stʌf/ Noun stuff refers to things in general how much stuff do you need to take? | I asked them to move their stuff | they carried a lot of stuff in their bags vocabulary /vəʊ'kæbjʊləri/ Noun vocabulary is words and phrases

Collocates: learn vocabulary | new vocabulary they are trying to improve their English vocabulary | the teacher suggested using flashcards to learn vocabulary | they learned some new vocabulary in class today

Page 128

clarify /'klærɪfaɪ/ Verb when you clarify something, you explain it so it is clear and easy to understand they asked the teacher to clarify the instructions | we needed to clarify the details before we agreed to do the work | they tried to clarify the situation during the meeting college /'kɒlɪdʒ/ Noun a college is a place where people go to study after high school. In the US, college is university. In the UK, college is study before you attend university they are studying business at college | my daughter is applying to several colleges this year | the college offers lots of courses hydrogen /'haɪdrədʒən/ Noun hydrogen is a gas with no colour or smell. It is the lightest and most common gas in the universe hydrogen can cause fires | we looked at hydrogen in chemistry oxygen /'ɒksɪdʒən/ Noun oxygen is a gas in the air that you need to breathe we need oxygen to breathe | we needed extra oxygen to dive in the sea | the body needs oxygen to work properly

UNIT 11: TOURISM

Page 129

adventure /əd'ventʃə/ Nounan adventure is an exciting or unusual experience

Collocate: go on an adventure

I love adventure holidays | they went on an adventure to explore the jungle | she loves reading adventure stories | their holiday turned into an exciting adventure afford /ə'fɔ:d/ Verbwhen you can afford something, you have enough money for it Collocates: can afford | can't afford they can't afford to buy a new car right now | we are saving money so we can afford a holiday | they couldn't afford the cost of the new computer

Adjective: affordable the meal was affordable for the amount of food we had beach /bi:tʃ/ Nouna beach is an area of sand near the sea

Collocates: go to the beach | on the beach they spent the day relaxing on the beach | we are planning a beach holiday next month | they like to go to the beach during the summer camping /'kæmpɪŋ/ Noun uncountcamping is the activity of going somewhere on a holiday and sleeping in tents while you are there

Collocate: go camping

we used to go camping every weekend in the summer | he packed up the camping equipment and put it in the car | I enjoy outdoor activities like fishing and camping

Noun: camp | Verb: camp

they spent a pleasant evening around the camp fire | at nine o'clock we pitched camp (put up tents and made the camp ready) | our camp was a long way from the road | the farmer let us camp in his field | they camped by the side of the river diving /'daɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncountdiving is the sport or activity of jumping into water with your head and arms first we went diving in the sea | we need equipment for diving | we saw turtles when we went diving

Verb: dive

Collocate: dive into he dived into the water with his arms over his head dolphin /'dɒlfɪn/ Nouna dolphin is an intelligent animal in the sea. They often swim in groups and they make clicking sounds. They are grey they went dolphin watching while on holiday | we took photos of dolphins jumping in the sea | swimming with dolphins was a dream come true for them iceberg /'aɪsbɜ:g/ Nounan iceberg is a large piece of frozen water in the sea. Some of it is underwater and some of it is above the water the Titanic hit an iceberg | icebergs can be dangerous to ships | the ship hit an iceberg and started sinking kayak /'kaɪæk/ Nouna kayak is a boat like a canoe that you use with a single paddle (something to move the boat). When you have a kayak, you go kayaking we'd never used our kayak before, and it was great fun | a kayak is very big! | we took our kayak to the river

Noun: kayaking

I like kayaking in the sea penguin /'pɛŋgwɪn/ Nouna penguin is a black and white bird that lives in cold areas of the world. It cannot fly but it can swim the explorer visited a penguin group in Antarctica | they saw penguins swimming underwater at the zoo | the documentary showed how penguins can live in cold weather sightseeing /'saɪtʃi:ɪŋ/ Noun uncountif you go sightseeing, you go around somewhere looking at the interesting buildings and places that tourists like to see

Collocates: go sightseeing | a sightseeing tour on Saturday, you can choose between going sightseeing or going shopping | we went on a sightseeing tour | we went sightseeing every day in Lisbon | they spent the day sightseeing

Noun: sightseer | Verb: sightsee

Trafalgar Square was full of sightseers | I was sightseeing all afternoon tropical /'trɒpɪkəl/ Adjectivewhen somewhere is tropical, it is warm and wet Collocate: tropical beach

they visited a tropical island for their holiday | he loves the hot weather in tropical climates | it was a beautiful tropical beach virtual reality /'vɜ:tʃʊəl ri'ælɪti/ Noun uncountvirtual reality is when a computer makes an environment that looks real and that you can communicate with. You can wear a virtual reality headset (something that goes over your eyes) to see and hear things created by a computer that seem almost real. Often it is called VR

Collocate: virtual reality headset they used a virtual reality headset to play the game | I experienced virtual reality for the first time | I saw penguins in virtual reality

Pages 130–131

check in /tʃek 'ɪn/ Phrasal verb if you check in your bags at an airport, you give them to an employee of the airline who will put them on the plane so that you do not have to keep them with you on the plane. You also check in to a hotel when you first arrive

I want to check in my suitcase, please | you must check in at least an hour before your plane is due to take off | we had to wait half an hour to check in | we were so happy to check in at the hotel after the long journey

Noun: check-in

there was no one at the check-in desk when we got there check out /tʃek 'aʊt/ Phrasal verb to check out means to leave a hotel after you have finished staying there they checked out of the hotel early in the morning | you need to give us your keys when you check out of the hotel

Opposite – Phrasal verb: check in climate /'klaɪmət/ Noun the climate of an area is the weather conditions it usually has Collocates: a wet/dry climate | a hot/warm/cold/cool climate | climate change the climate is very cold in winter with warm summers | what's the climate like in Bulgaria? | the climate in this part of Italy is lovely | a place on the coast with a warm climate | the island has a mild climate (quite warm) | climate change will have an effect on everyone in the next 50 years disco /'diskəʊ/ Noun a disco is a place where people dance to music. It is an old word that people don't use much anymore the hotel has a disco on Friday nights | there's a disco in the hotel bar tonight | we went to a disco in the 60s embassy /'embəsi/ Noun an embassy is the official office of a country. Citizens of a country can go and visit the embassy of their country if they need help or support they visited the embassy to apply for a visa | the embassy in London is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. | the Irish embassy is in town licence /'laɪs(ə)ns/ Noun a licence is a document showing you have the right to do something. For example, a driving licence means you are allowed to drive a car on the road

I keep my driving licence in my wallet | do you need a licence to ride a motorbike? | you must have a full driving licence to hire a car multicultural /mʌlti'kʌltʃərəl/ Adjective a multicultural place has lots of people from different countries

Rio is a multicultural city | London is so much more multicultural than it was in the 1930s | a multicultural classroom with pupils of eight nationalities studying together | an exciting multicultural city like San Francisco out of order /aʊt əv 'ɔ:də/ Phrase when something is out of order, it is not working the machine is out of order | the lift was out of order, so they had to take the stairs | we saw a sign that said, 'The ATM is out of order' passport /'pɑ:spɔ:t/ Noun a passport is an official document with personal information that you need to travel to different countries they applied for a passport before their trip abroad | he forgot his passport and had to go back for it | they were worried about losing their passport while travelling payment /'peɪmənt/ Noun payment is when you give money and you receive something in return

Collocates: credit card payment | make a payment they made a payment for their online shopping order | we prefer credit card payments | they need to complete the payment before the deadline

Verb: pay

you need to pay at reception police /pə'li:s/ Noun the police are the official organization in a country or area that is in charge of protecting people from crime

Collocates: call the police | police officer | police station they called the police about the crime | I asked a police officer for directions | they visited the police station to report a stolen bike right-hand side /'raɪt-hænd saɪd/ Noun the right-hand side is one of two sides. When you write in English, you start on the left-hand side and your writing goes towards the right-hand side of the page in France, they drive on the right-hand side of the road | the restaurant is on your right-hand side after the cinema | there's a lake on the right-hand side of the park sun cream /'sʌn kri:m/ Noun uncount sun cream is a thick liquid that you put on your skin to protect yourself when the sun is very hot and to stop your skin getting burnt don't forget to put on some sun cream | make sure the children put sun cream on | a bottle of sun cream visa /'vi:zə/ Noun

a visa is a document that you need as well as a passport in order to be able to enter some countries you need a visa if you're going to the US | she went to the Indian consulate to collect her visa | did you have to pay for your visa?

Pages 132–133

accommodation /ə'kɒmə'deɪʃən/ Noun accommodation is a place you stay, for example, a hotel or a house they booked accommodation in a nice hotel by the beach | it was difficult to find accommodation during the summer holidays | the company provides accommodation for their employees during business trips book /bʊk/ Verb

if you book a hotel, you arrange for them to have a room for you ready for when you arrive there did you book the hotel? | we booked the room online | I tried to book, but the hotel didn't have any rooms free carry-on /'kæri-ɒn/ Noun a carry-on bag is a bag that you take with you onto a plane it's too big to be a carry-on bag | you can't bring liquids in your carry-on luggage | I bought a carry-on suitcase at the airport destination /ˌdestɪˈneɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a destination is the place you are going to at the end of a journey we'll reach our destination in another three hours | a holiday destination (where you spend a holiday) | a popular tourist destination | the ship left Southampton on Friday – its destination was New York exotic /ɪg'zɒtɪk/ Adjective if something is exotic, it is unusual and comes from a far away or foreign country

I like to go to exotic places | eat exotic fruit | the zoo has many exotic animals, like lions and tigers guide /gaɪd/ Noun

a guide is someone who knows a place very well and who shows people around it and tells them about it we had a very good tour guide in Paris | our guide spoke very good English | we had an excellent guide when we went round Pompeii hostel /'hɒstl/ Noun

a hostel is a very cheap place to stay, which usually has more than one person in a room

Collocates: stay in a hostel | a cheap hostel there were ten people in my room at the hostel | the hostel room was clean | they enjoyed meeting other travellers at the hostel in advance /ˌɪn əd'vɑːns/ Adverb if you do something in advance, you do it some time before you need to we booked the hotel in advance | you're supposed to make the arrangement a month in advance | I had to pay a month's rent in advance | boat trips must be booked in advance | I bought my plane ticket three months in advance to get a cheap fare independent /ˌɪndɪ'pendənt/ Adjective when someone is independent, they are able to do things on their own without needing other people there were lots of independent travellers in Bali | they are learning how to be more independent now that they are at university | working from home makes me feel independent

Noun: independence | Adverb: independently she doesn't show much independence | I went travelling independently and not with anyone else listener /'lɪsənə/ Noun a listener is someone who is listening to information on the radio or a podcast some of our listeners have questions | we have over 1,000 listeners to the podcast

Verb: listen

I like to listen to music recommend /ˌrekə'mend/ Verb if you recommend something, you tell someone that it is good and that they should get one or do it

Collocate: recommend doing something our waiter recommended the fish | I can recommend the restaurant in Bridge Street | I need to buy a new car – what model would you recommend? | a friend of mine recommended a new online shop | I can strongly recommend swimming in the sea | I can recommend the ice cream here – it's delicious

Noun: recommendation

Collocate: on someone's recommendation

we booked the Bristol Hotel on my brother's recommendation (because he recommended it) | can you give us any recommendations for a restaurant in the city centre?

rent /rent/ Verb

if you rent something you pay someone to borrow something for awhile, like a car we rented a car at the airport | we rented a boat on the lake | she rented a car for a week | let's rent some bikes for the afternoon return ticket /rɪ'tɜːn ˌtɪkɪt/ Noun a return or a return ticket is a ticket to go somewhere and come back again a return ticket to Geneva, please | it's cheaper to get a return than two singles | I bought a return ticket to Paris

Opposite – Noun: single a single to Bristol should /ʃʊd/ Modal verb when you say should, you are giving advice or telling someone what is the best thing to do. The negative is shouldn't you should go to the dentist if your tooth hurts | you should try that restaurant | you shouldn't go on your own souvenir /ˌsuːvə'niə/ Noun a souvenir is something you buy and take home from holiday to help you remember it did you bring back many souvenirs? | cheap, plastic souvenirs | the bowl was a souvenir from Barcelona tourism /'tʊəɪz(ə)m/ Noun uncount tourism is the activity of visiting places for pleasure, and the businesses that provide services for these visitors

we want more tourism on the island | tourism has increased a lot in the south of the country | tourism brings a lot of money to the country

Noun: tourist

Hanoi is very popular with tourists | a coach stopped outside the museum and 50 tourists got off travel /'trævl/ Verb

if you travel, you go from one place to another. If you go travelling, you spend a long period of time going to lots of different places

I want to travel around the world | we've been travelling for six hours and we still haven't got home | I try to travel light (not carrying lots of bags) | we travelled to Thailand last year | he has to travel a lot for his job | I went travelling for a year when I left university

Noun: travels | Noun: traveller she met a lot of interesting people on her travels through China | bad weather meant travellers could not leave London's main airport | business travellers (people who are travelling somewhere for their job) umbrella /ʌm'brelə/ Noun an umbrella is a piece of plastic or material attached to a stick that opens out to provide protection from the rain

I wish I had an umbrella | she lent me her umbrella when I went out to do some shopping | I left my umbrella on the train visit /'vɪzɪt/ Verb

if you visit a place, you go there and spend some time there. If you visit a person, you go to where they live or work and spend some time with them a lot of people visit Stratford in the summer | we visited the art gallery in the afternoon | we're going to visit friends in New York | my grandparents come to visit every Christmas

Noun: visit | Noun: visitor

we went on a short visit to see my aunt | I hope you'll come for a longer visit next time | the city gets lots of visitors | the last visitors left at about eight weekly /'wi:kli/ Adverb weekly means happening once a week or every week employees are paid weekly | I go to the gym weekly

Noun: week | Adjective: weekly every week, I visit my mum | a weekly podcast | a weekly email from my manager

Pages 134–135

aloha shirt /ə'ləʊhə ʃɜ:t/ Noun an aloha shirt is a shirt with a lot of colour and flowers. Usually, it is a shirt that is from Hawaii, an island in the US

Collocate: wear an aloha shirt they wore an aloha shirt to the beach party | I bought an aloha shirt from Hawaii | the aloha shirt was bright and full of flowers anybody /'eni'bɒdi/ Pronoun anybody is used instead of somebody in negative sentences and in questions did anybody call while I was out? | does anybody want to join me for lunch? | they couldn't see anybody in the room when they arrived | she didn't know anybody at the party, so she felt a bit nervous carefully /'keəfəli/ Adverb carefully means you do something with great attention and focus so that it doesn't break or there isn't a problem they read the instructions carefully before they started | check your answers carefully before you give the teacher your test | carry the box carefully

Adjective: careful || Opposite – Adjective: careless |

Adverb: carelessly

we were careful when we moved her things | you were careless and you broke it | he was driving carelessly and had an accident conclusion /kən'klu:ʒən/ Noun a conclusion is the final decision about something

Collocates: in conclusion | make a conclusion | come to a conclusion they came to the conclusion that the project would be easy | in conclusion, we don't think you should say that at the interview | we made the conclusion it was OK to wear an aloha shirt

Verb: conclude

we concluded that we were going to be late fashionable /'fæʃənəbl/ Adjective if something is fashionable, it is popular and liked by many people she bought a pair of fashionable shoes | those colours are very fashionable this season | their friend always wears fashionable outfits

Noun: fashion || Opposite – Adjective: unfashionable

Collocate: fashion show

we went to the fashion show in Paris | I'm quite unfashionable – I just wear what's comfortable!

kebaya /kə'baɪə/ Noun a kebaya is a traditional top and dress that is worn by women in Southeast Asia

Collocate: wear a kebaya women in Indonesia wear kebayas for formal events | the kebaya was made of silk | I love the colour of your kebaya kilt /kɪlt/ Noun

a kilt is a traditional skirt, which goes to the knees, that men wear in Scotland

Collocate: wear a kilt

he wore a kilt to the wedding in Scotland | he enjoys wearing his kilt for special occasions | I wore a kilt to the party lost /lɒst/ Adjective when something is lost, you don't know where it is

I've lost my phone | they got lost while trying to find the museum | they stopped to ask for directions because they were lost

Verb: lose

I don't want to lose you – stay next to me nowhere /'nəʊweə/ Adverb nowhere means not any place there's nowhere like Florence | we had nowhere to go | they found nowhere to sit sari /'sɑ:ri/ Noun a sari is a traditional piece of clothing worn by women in many South Asian countries. It is a long piece of material that you put around your body

Collocate: wear a sari

she wore a sari at the wedding | I bought a silk sari from an Indian market | the bride looked beautiful in her traditional sari sombrero /sɒm'breərəʊ/ Noun a sombrero is a large hat that is traditional in Mexico. It protects you from the sun

I bought a traditional Mexican sombrero | the sombrero was decorated with lots of colours | that sombrero is so big!

theirs /ðeəz/ Pronoun theirs is the possessive form of they that umbrella is theirs | the car is theirs | my presentation was good, but theirs was better wedding /'wedɪŋ/ Noun a wedding is when two people get married. To get married means to have a legal document to say you have a relationship with someone

Collocates: go to a wedding | wedding ceremony

I went to my sister's wedding | their wedding ceremony was three hours' long | the wedding was outside

Pages 136–137

advantage /əd'vɑ:ntɪdʒ/ Noun an advantage is something that helps you succeed or do something you want to do

Collocates: be at an advantage | have an advantage | an unfair advantage

I had the advantage of being able to speak French, which helped me get the job | my height gave me an advantage when I played basketball | if you have a driving licence, you'll be at an advantage | there are lots of advantages to having an Irish passport

Opposite – Noun: disadvantage

Collocate: be at a disadvantage both cars have advantages and disadvantages | we were at a disadvantage because we arrived late | the main disadvantage of buying an old house is the cost of maintenance (repairing it) | there were several disadvantages to living so far from the shops brochure /'brəʊʃə/ Noun a brochure is a kind of magazine that gives you information about things or services you can buy from a company a tourist brochure | a travel brochure | they send me a brochure every year | a pile of brochures by the exit from the shop comfortable /'kʌmftəb(ə)l/ Adjective something that is comfortable makes you feel relaxed and happy and is pleasant to be in or sit in a comfortable armchair | our new sofa's really comfortable | are you comfortable sitting there? | the bed was old and I couldn't get comfortable in it

Noun: comfort || Opposite – Adjective: uncomfortable seats on the plane are now wider to improve passenger comfort | we were able to lie back and relax in comfort | these shoes are really uncomfortable cruise /kru:z/ Noun a cruise is a holiday you take on a ship, often stopping at some interesting places. The ships that take people on these holidays are cruise ships

we went on a cruise around the Mediterranean | a large cruise ship can carry up to 6,000 people | a three-week cruise in the Caribbean | she went on her first cruise at the age of 76 | we booked a winter cruise

Verb: cruise

cruising the Mediterranean is an expensive way to relax idea /aɪ'diə/ Noun an idea is a thought you have about something

Collocates: have an idea | a good idea | a bad idea it was a good idea to take a break | they have an idea about how to improve the plan | that's a bad idea – we need to leave earlier miss /mɪs/ Verb

if you want to miss something, you want to avoid it let's go early so we miss the tourists | I want to miss the traffic | let's leave now so we miss the busy time of day on the roads nearby /'niəbaɪ/ Adjective nearby means close to where you are the shop is nearby, only 5 minutes away | Is there a café nearby | my house is nearby, so I walk to school organize /'ɔ:gənaɪz/ Verb when you organize something, you plan it so you know what is happening we organized a party for her | they are organizing a trip for their friends next month | the teacher organized the classroom

Noun: organization | Adjective: organized

I have good organization skills | I am an organized person – everything has its own place pack /pæk/ Verb

when you pack, you put things into a bag or suitcase to go on a trip

Collocates: pack your suitcase | pack light we need to pack a suitcase for our trip | pack light, don't take too much | what are you packing in your bag?

snack /snæk/ Noun

a snack is something small to eat, usually between meals

Collocates: take snacks | bring snacks | eat a snack did you take snacks on your walk? | bring snacks for energy | I ate a snack after dinner

Verb: snack

I snack on nuts and crisps suggestion /sə'dʒestʃ(ə)n/ Noun if you make a suggestion, you describe a plan or possibility for someone to consider

Collocate: make a suggestion may I make a suggestion? | I agree with Malcolm's suggestion, that we should go to the museum | does anyone have any suggestions for a good hotel in Brighton?

Verb: suggest can anyone suggest a solution to our problem?

trip /trɪp/ Noun

a trip is a journey or a visit to a place for a short time

Collocates: go on a trip | take a trip they went on a trip to the mountains last weekend | we are planning a trip to Zurich next month | they took a trip to the beach for the day

Pages 138–139brick /brɪk/ Noun a brick is a small, hard rectangle. You can use it for building things like walls or buildings they built a brick wall around the garden | the house was made of red bricks | we need bricks for the wall cheese grater /'tʃi:z greɪtə/ Noun a cheese grater is something you use to make a big piece of cheese into smaller pieces of cheese by moving the cheese up and down on the grater

Collocate: use a cheese grater they used a cheese grater for the cheese for the pizza | I used a cheese grater

Verb: grate can you grate the cheese, please?

collection /kə'lekʃən/ Noun a collection is a group of things together a collection of paintings | a collection of old books | the museum has a big art collection

Noun: collector | Verb: collect

I'm a coin collector | I like to collect small glasses from different countries deliver /dɪ'lɪvə/ Verb when you deliver something, you bring it from one place to another and give it to a person the man delivered the letter | I got a package delivered this morning | the company delivers things all over the world

Noun: delivery

Collocate: get a delivery we got a delivery from the supermarket this morning gherkin /'gɜ:kɪn/ Noun a gherkin is a small vegetable that is in something called vinegar, which gives it a strong flavour. You often have gherkins in a burger

she added a gherkin to her sandwich | we bought a jar of gherkins from the shop | some people don't like gherkins goods /gʊdz/ Plural noun goods are things that you buy, sell or make the company sells goods all over the world | high-quality goods at low prices | the shop sells lots of goods football pitch /'fʊtbɔ:l pɪtʃ/ Noun a football pitch is somewhere you play a sport called football they played a match on the local football pitch | there was grass on the football pitch | the football pitch was large enough for a professional game found /faʊnd/ Verb

when something is founded by someone, it is established or created by that person the charity was founded by a group of volunteers | the museum was founded by a family in the 1800s further round /fɜ:ðə 'raʊnd/ Phrase further round means something is in a location that is more distant than you thought go further round the corner | go further round the park to explore | they decided to continue further round the building panel /'pænəl/ Noun

a panel is a flat piece of material

Collocate: a panel of glass the Mona Lisa is behind a panel of glass | we need a new panel of glass for the window show /ʃəʊ/ Verb

if you show someone something, you act as their guide Collocate: show someone around today, I'm going to show you around the city | I'll show you around Oxford this weekend | did you show them the sights?

Noun: show

we watched a funny show on TV tower /'taʊə/ Noun

a tower is a tall building that is higher than the areas around it there's a tower in the centre of town | let's meet by the tower walkie-talkie /wɔ:ki-'tɔ:ki/ Noun a walkie-talkie is a radio you hold in your hand that you speak into to communicate with someone else, who has another walkie-talkie

they used a walkie-talkie to communicate | we carried a walkie-talkie to stay in touch with the team | the security guards talked to each other on walkie-talkies

Page 140hiking /'haɪkɪŋ/ Noun uncount hiking is the activity of walking a long way for pleasure he was tired from hiking through the jungle | a hiking holiday in Scotland | my hobbies are cycling and hiking

Noun: hike | Noun: hiker | Verb: hike it's a ten-mile hike from here | we're going on a hike tomorrow | she could see two hikers coming down the hill | we hiked across the Lake District

UNIT 12: THE EARTH

Page 141

acoustic /ə'ku:stɪk/ Adjective when something is acoustic, it is produced without electric sounds and is more of a natural sound

Collocate: an acoustic guitar there are six strings on an acoustic guitar | I love the sound of acoustic music | an acoustic explorer means he goes to different parts of the world to record the sounds of nature fall /fɔ:l/ Verb fall means something comes down from a higher position they watched the leaves fall from the trees | the temperature is starting to fall | the rain fell heavy traffic /ˌhevi 'træfɪk/ Phrase heavy traffic is when there are a lot of vehicles in one place and they are not moving quickly there's heavy traffic on the roads today | they were stuck in heavy traffic on the way to work | we tried to avoid heavy traffic by leaving early national park /ˌnæʃnəl 'pɑ:k/ Noun a national park is a large area of natural land that is protected by the government. People go to national parks to walk and see animals and plants

Yellowstone is a national park in the US | they visited a national park during their summer holiday | the national park is home to many animals relaxed /rɪ'læksd/ Adjective when you are relaxed you feel calm, comfortable and free from worries Collocate: feel relaxed they felt relaxed after a day at the spa | they try to stay relaxed even during busy times | the music made them feel more relaxed

Verb: relax | Adjective: relaxing

you need to relax – you have been working a lot | we enjoyed relaxing all afternoon at the spa stressed /strest/ Adjective when someone is stressed, they feel worried because there is a lot going on Collocate: feel stressed

they felt stressed about their exam | she looked stressed after a long day at work | they try not to get too stressed about things

Verb: stress | Adjective: stressful don't stress about that | it's a stressful time at work

Pages 142–143

amount /ə'maʊnt/ Noun an amount of something is how much of it there is

I need a large amount of money to buy a new computer | we buy the same amount of shopping every week | the amount of rice you need will depend on how many people will be eating | she gets paid the same amount as I do decrease /dɪ'kri:s/ Verb to decrease means to become less or smaller the numbers decreased from last year | the temperature decreased during the winter

Noun: decrease || Opposite – Verb: increase the company had a decrease in sales last month | our profits have increased by 25% since last year deep /di:p/ Adjective when something is deep, it is far down from the top or the surface the ice is 3.7 kilometres deep | the water is deep | they swam in the deep water of the lake

Noun: depth || Opposite – Adjective: shallow

what's the depth of the swimming pool? | the water is warmer where it's shallow degree /dɪ'ɡri:/ Noun a degree is a unit for measuring temperature. At 100 degrees Celsius, water boils, and at zero degrees Celsius, water freezes.

On the Fahrenheit scale used in the US, water freezes at 32 degrees and boils at 212 degrees temperatures reached 36 degrees Celsius during the day | it's two degrees below freezing outside | Americans usually describe the temperature in degrees Fahrenheit increase /ɪn'kri:s/ Verb to increase means to become more or bigger the numbers increased from last year | we should increase how much money we are spending | you need to increase the time students have to study for the test

Noun: increase || Opposite – Verb: decrease

Collocate: an increase in they noticed an increase in energy after exercising | the price decreased by 50% kilogram /'kɪləgræm/ Noun a kilogram is a measure of weight. There are 1,000 grammes in one kilogram

I weigh 72 kilograms | a kilogram of bananas | half a kilogram of tomatoes

Synonym – Noun: kilo

the oranges are £3 a kilo | a kilo and a half of potatoes kilometre /'kɪləmi:tə/ Noun a kilometre is a measure of distance. There are 1,000 metres in a kilometre it's over 100 kilometres from here to Manchester | I walked eight kilometres before breakfast this morning | the last two kilometres of the race were very difficult lifetime /'laɪftaɪm/ Noun a lifetime is how long something is alive

Collocates: in my lifetime | once in a lifetime

I would love to visit space in my lifetime | they experienced many changes during their lifetime | this opportunity is once in a lifetime liquid /'lɪkwɪd/ Noun liquid is any substance that is not solid and not gas above zero degrees, ice becomes liquid | the bottle held some sort of liquid | a very thick liquid

Adjective: liquid

a bottle of liquid soap litre /'li:tə/ Noun a litre is a measure of liquid a litre of milk | put 40 litres of petrol in the car | this jug holds two litres | your body has about five litres of blood in it overall /əʊvər'ɔ:l/ Adjective when you say overall, you are thinking about everything together what is the overall temperature? | the overall performance was good | the holiday was a success overall petrol /'petrəl/ Noun uncount petrol is the liquid you use in cars and other vehicles so they can move

Collocates: get some petrol | petrol station

they stopped at the petrol station to fill up their car | the price of petrol is very high | they prefer to drive a petrol car instead of an electric one | we need to stop and get some petrol rainfall /'reɪnfɔ:l/ Noun uncount rainfall is the amount of rain that falls somewhere over a period of time average rainfall here is about 14 inches | there was heavy rainfall last night | after three days of rainfall, the river started to flood | there was light rainfall this morning, but the sun shone for our picnic in the afternoon square metre /'skweə mi:tə/ Noun a square metre is the amount of space in an area that measures one metre by one metre the room is 20 square metres | our garden is about 300 square metres | the campsite covered an area of about 25,000 square metres weight /weɪt/ Noun

the weight of someone or something is how heavy they are their average weight is 69 kilograms | the bridge was not strong enough to carry the weight of the lorry | I always put on weight in the winter (I get heavier) | I want to lose weight | I try to watch my weight (eat carefully so that I don't get heavier)

Verb: weigh

how much do you weigh? | these suitcases weigh a lot | the boxes weigh 12 kilos each

Pages 144–145detailed /'di:teɪld/ Adjective if something is detailed, it includes a lot of information and specific facts there aren't any detailed maps of the region | the guide provided a detailed map of the area | they created a detailed plan for the day

Noun: detail

thanks for the details about the meeting east /i:st/ Noun

the east is the direction where the sun rises and is opposite to the west Collocate: in the east the sun rises in the east | they live on the east | sunrises on the east coast are beautiful explore /ɪk'splɔ:/ Verb when you explore, you travel around a place to learn more about it and see more of it they explored the old city during their holiday | they spent the afternoon exploring the local park | we explored the old building

Noun: explorer | Noun: exploration

a National Geographic Explorer | they did an exploration of the Arctic forest /'fɒrɪst/ Noun a forest is a large area of land that is covered with trees we went for a walk in the forest | they are making a road through the forest | a forest fire (when the trees catch fire in very hot weather) | a dense forest (where the trees are all very close together) | Sherwood Forest is near Nottingham | our journey went through forests and fields and over mountains good luck /gʊd 'lʌk/ Phrase you say good luck to someone to tell them you hope they will be successful in something they are about to try and do good luck with your exam | we all said good luck to her when she left to take her driving test | are you starting your new job tomorrow? Good luck impossible /ɪm'pɒsəbl/ Adjective when something is impossible, you cannot do it it seemed impossible to finish the project on time | it's impossible to climb that mountain without experience | they tried to solve the puzzle, but it was almost impossible

Opposite – Adjective: possible

it's possible to change the time of the meeting if you want land /lænd/ Noun uncount land is an area of ground, especially when it is used for building or farming he bought a piece of land on which to build their first house | the land has lots of farms on it | they own over 1,000 hectares of land in Scotland river /'rɪvə/ Noun

a river is a long stream of water that runs through a country and goes into the sea the river goes through the city from east to west | I like swimming in the river | we have a boat on the river | we need to cross the river | a bridge over the river west /west/ Noun

the west is the direction where the sun goes down and is the opposite to the east Collocate: in the west the sun sets in the west | they live in the west of the country | the west of the city is cheaper than the east

winner /'wɪnə/ Noun

a winner is someone who comes first place in something like a competition, race or a game the race winner received a gold medal | they were excited to be the winner of the prize | he was the winner of the 100 m race

Noun: win | Verb: win

it was a win for the team | we won the money

Pages 146–147air /eə/ Noun uncount air is the gas that is all around us and that we breathe two things we need are water and air | the temperature of the air outside was minus three degrees Centigrade | fresh air (the air outside that is clean and nice to breathe) astronomer /ə'strɒnəmə/ Noun an astronomer is someone who studies objects in space such as the planets and stars astronomers are looking for other planets | astronomers have found a new star | astronomers spend some of their time looking through telescopes (equipment that you can use to look at objects that are far away, e.g. stars) | you need to study science to become an astronomer

Noun: astronomy | Adjective: astronomical

I've been reading several books about astronomy | my brother studied astronomy at Cambridge university | the new star is an important astronomical discovery exoplanet /'eksəʊplænɪt/ Noun an exoplanet is a planet that goes round a star outside of our solar system (where Earth is) scientists discovered a new exoplanet in a distant galaxy | I read about the latest exoplanet research | they studied exoplanets

goal /gəʊl/ Noun

a goal is something you want to achieve or do Collocate: achieve a goal my twin brothers achieved their goal of running a marathon (a long race that's about 42 kilometres) | they are working hard to reach their personal goals | my goal is to find an Earth-like exoplanet icy /'aɪsi/ Adjective something icy is very cold and covered in frozen water, called ice an icy planet | we fell on the icy road | the wind is icy – close the window

Noun: ice

don't fall on the ice produce /prə'dju:s/ Verb when something produces something else, it makes or creates it plants can produce air | they use energy from the sun to produce electricity | they produce energy from the sun

Noun: produce | Noun: production the market sells lots of fresh produce | the production of power from wind energy

rock /rɒk/ Noun

rock is a very hard, solid substance that forms most of the surface of the Earth and other planets the mountain is a big rock | the ground was rock, so no plants could grow on it | astronomers are looking for rocks on the surface of the planet star /stɑ:r/ Noun stars are large objects out in space like our sun. We can see them because they burn very fiercely and give out a lot of light, although they look very small in the night sky there were no clouds and we could see the stars clearly | how many stars can you name? | our sun is the closest star to the Earth unlike /ʌn'laɪk/ Preposition when something is unlike something else, it is not similar to it unlike Earth, it takes 11.2 days to orbit it | unlike other students, they prefer to study in the library | someone said this experience is unlike anything they've ever had

Opposite – Preposition: like you're like each other – you're so similar!

Pages 148–149dig /dɪg/ Verb when you dig, you move the dirt from the ground to make a hole the experts dug a hole to find the treasure | they dug a hole to plant a tree in the garden | my dog was digging in the garden entrance /'entrəns/ Noun an entrance is the place you enter a building they walked through the main entrance of the hotel | the front entrance of the building was locked | they found a side entrance that was open

Verb: enter

you can enter this way interested /'ɪntrəstɪd/ Adjective if you are interested in something, you want to learn more about it Collocate: interested in they are interested in learning how to cook | I became interested in photography after taking a class | is anyone interested in joining the book club?

Noun: interest | Verb: interest | Adjective: interesting he has an interest in writing | this film doesn't interest me | this is an interesting film plant a tree /plɑ:nt ə 'tri:/ Phrase when you plant a tree, you put it in the ground so it will grow they planted a tree in their garden | they volunteered to plant trees in the park | planting a tree helps the environment politician /ˈpɒləˈtɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun politics is the work of getting power and running a country.

People who do this are politicians people don't always trust politicians | she was a famous politician | politicians from all parties agreed that the war should end

Noun: politics | Adjective: political | Adverb: politically he entered politics because he wanted to improve people's lives | we spent the evening arguing about politics | the country has political and social problems | our political system needs to change | a politically powerful organization poster /ˈpəʊstə/ Noun a poster is a large piece of paper that you put on a wall to give information about something

Collocate: put up a poster she put up a poster in her room of her favourite band | he designed a movie poster for the new film | the advertising poster was in the shop window

Pages 150–151

chicken /ˈtʃɪkɪn/ Noun chicken is an animal that lives outside on a farm. You can eat chicken chickens lay eggs | we have chickens in the garden | I love fried chicken collect /kəˈlekt/ Verb when you collect something, you bring things together collect the chicken's eggs | they collected information about the company | we need to collect people's email addresses

Noun: collector | Noun: collection

Collocate: a collection of he's a collector of old records | a collection of art at the gallery conservation /kənˈsəˌveɪʃən/ Noun uncount conservation is the protection of natural resources, animals and the environment they are working on a wildlife conservation project | he gave money to a conservation charity to save the rainforest | conservation of the forest is important because many animals live there

Noun: conservationist he works as a conservationist in rainforests create /kriːˈeɪt/ Verb when you create something, you make it they created a holiday resort for tourists | they created a plan to improve the results | I enjoy creating art in my free time farming /ˈfɑːmɪŋ/ Noun uncount farming is the activity of looking after animals and growing things on a place called a farm my grandfather has been farming this land for 50 years | we use the land for farming | farming has changed a lot over the last hundred years

Noun: farm | Noun: farmer

she lives on a farm | he works as a farmer panda /ˈpændə/ Noun a panda is a large black and white bear that is from China they had two giant pandas at Edinburgh zoo | pandas eat bamboo | many people think pandas are cute protect /prəˈtekt/ Verb

if you protect yourself from something that might hurt you or cause damage, you do something that stops it hurting you or causing damage

Collocates: protect (someone) from something | protect (someone) against something

I need a hat to protect my face from the sun | eating fruit can help protect against disease | some cyclists wear helmets to protect their heads | substances that can protect you against cancer

Noun: protection

Collocate: offer protection sun cream that gives you four-hour protection | my thin gloves didn't offer much protection against the cold resort /rɪˈzɔːt/ Noun

a resort is a place where people go on holiday to relax and enjoy activities

Collocates: holiday resort | beach resort they stayed at a beach resort during their summer holiday | dad booked a trip to a ski resort | the resort offers a variety of activities, including swimming and tennis | they enjoyed a relaxing holiday at the tropical resort seat /siːt/ Noun

a seat is something you sit on Collocate: take a seat

take a seat – the doctor will be with you soon | they found a comfortable seat on the train | there were no seats left sunrise /ˈsʌnraɪz/ Noun a sunrise is when the sun comes up in the morning we watched the sunrise | the hike started at sunrise | they loved the view of the mountains at sunrise

Opposite – Noun: sunset

we watched the sunset from the hotel room zebra /ˈzebrə/ Noun a zebra is a black and white animal that looks like a horse and comes from Africa. It has black and white stripes (lines) on its body there were some zebras at the zoo | the zebra's colours make it easy to see | zebras are my favourite animal