

UNIT 1: CULTURE AND IDENTITY

Page 9

dress /dres/ Noun uncount a particular kind of dress is the clothing that is typical or traditional for a particular country or culture

Collocate: traditional dress

I like the colours of traditional Native American dress | the women all wore African dress exhibition /ɪk'zɪbɪʃən/ Noun an exhibition is a public display of a collection of items, for example artworks or sculptures

Collocate: visit an exhibition

we visited an exhibition of modern art last weekend | the museum holds many interesting exhibitions throughout the year heritage /'herɪtɪdʒ/ Noun the heritage of someone or something is the history, traditions or qualities that a country or person has had for many years and that are considered an important part of their character

Collocate: cultural heritage the city is known for its rich cultural heritage | they are proud of their Italian heritage | it's important to preserve our national heritage identity /aɪ'dentɪti/ Noun the identity of a person is the qualities and beliefs that they have which makes them different from everyone else

Collocates: a sense of identity | cultural identity the only time I question my identity is when Pakistan play England at cricket | everyone in society is a part of a nation's identity | I grew up with a strong sense of cultural identity proud /praʊd/ Adjective if you feel proud of something, you have a feeling of great satisfaction because you have done something well

Collocates: be proud of something | be proud to do something she was so proud of herself when she passed the exam | he's particularly proud of this painting | I'm proud to announce that I'm now a grandfather

Noun: pride | Adverb: proudly

Emma takes great pride in her work | Jack walked in proudly holding the fish he'd caught | she smiled proudly as her daughter collected her degree certificate traditional /trə'dɪʃənəl/ Adjective traditional means following older methods and ideas rather than modern or new ones we ate traditional Japanese food at the restaurant | some people prefer traditional methods of teaching | they're wearing traditional clothing

Noun: tradition

we have a family tradition where we all bring different foods to the party someone's roots /'sʌmwʌnz ru:ts/ Phrase someone's roots is the family, place or culture a person comes from understanding your roots can help you know yourself better | they're very proud of their Scottish roots | I want to do a family tree to find out more about my roots

Pages 10–11

behaviour /bɪ'heɪvjə(r)/ Noun uncount someone's behaviour is the way they normally do and say things Collocate: good/bad behaviour they changed their behaviour as a result of the experience | this sort of behaviour is unacceptable | you'll get extra pocket money for good behaviour

Verb: behave

he's been behaving very strangely this week | some of the children behaved very badly community /kə'mju:nɪti/ Noun a community is a group of people who live in the same area or who have the same interests or qualities

Collocates: local community | community centre our school is a big part of the local community | the community centre offers classes and activities for local residents | I feel very much part of my new community cultural background /'kʌltʃərəl 'bækgraʊnd/ Phrase someone's cultural background is the environment and traditions in which a person was raised or that influences them students from diverse cultural backgrounds attend our school | understanding each other's cultural background can improve communication define /dɪ'faɪn/ Verb to define is to describe or show the nature of one's identity, character or essential qualities my job doesn't define me | the role is defined by the job description | it's important to define your goals hopeful /'həʊpfʊl/ Adjective if you are hopeful, you think that what you want will likely happen

Collocate: hopeful about

I'm hopeful that the job interview will go well | despite the challenges, they are still hopeful about the result influence /'ɪnfluəns/ Verb

if something influences you, it has an effect on the way you think, behave or develop the city has influenced a number of writers | what he saw in Baltimore influenced his decision to become a politician | a teacher who influenced my opinions when I was still at school | Foster was heavily influenced by classical music

Noun: influence | Adjective: influential

Collocate: have influence on/over someone or something he has a lot of influence in the school | she used her influence over the president to make him change his mind | his father had a great influence over him | one of the most influential writers of the 20th century | two of them became influential leaders within the church love at first sight /lʌv æt fɜːst saɪt/ Phrase love at first sight is the sudden strong feeling of romantic love when you see someone for the first time she knew it was love at first sight when she met him | many people don't believe in love at first sight | their relationship started with love at first sight love-hate relationship /lʌv heɪt 'rɪleɪʃənʃɪp/ Phrase a love-hate relationship is a relationship involving both a strong like for someone and also a strong dislike for them

Collocate: have a love-hate relationship

I have a love-hate relationship with social media | their love-hate relationship is very confusing to their friends master's degree /'mɑːstəz dɪ'ɡriː/ Noun a master's degree is an advanced course of study at university Collocates: earn a master's degree | have a master's degree in

I am studying to earn my master's degree in education | the applicant has a master's degree in engineering personality /pɜːsə'nælɪti/ Noun personality is the combination of characteristics that form a person's character they both have a very friendly personality | different jobs require different personalities | what's your favourite thing about his personality?

surprising /sə'praɪzɪŋ/ Adjective when something is surprising, it is unexpected it was surprising to see them at the party | the results of the test were quite surprising | the news was very surprising

Noun: surprise | Adjective: surprised

Collocate: come as a surprise the news came as a surprise to everyone | we're having a surprise party for his birthday | we were surprised to see him at the party uncomfortable /ʌn'kʌmfətəbəl/ Adjective uncomfortable means not feeling at ease in something

Collocates: feel uncomfortable | uncomfortable situation the chair was very uncomfortable to sit in | It is uncomfortable speaking in front of such a large crowd | my manager put me in a very uncomfortable situation

Opposite – Adjective: comfortable are you all comfortable enough sitting on this sofa?

Pages 12–13

accuracy /'ækjʊrəsi/ Noun accuracy is the quality of being correct or exact Collocate: improve accuracy the machine's accuracy rate is over 99% | we need to improve the accuracy of our predictions | the team need to analyse the data with accuracy

Adjective: accurate

their predictions about the weather were not always accurate anger /'æŋgə(r)/ Noun uncount anger is the feeling you have when you think something is seriously wrong and you are being badly treated and want to fight back or shout at someone the longer they kept him waiting, the more his anger grew | an anger management course (to learn how to stay calm in difficult situations) | he found it hard to control his anger | her anger was understandable

Adjective: angry | Adverb: angrily

she had never seen him so angry before | she sounded very angry over the phone | he threw his coat down angrily emotion /ɪ'məʊʃən/ Noun an emotion is a strong feeling that comes from a situation, mood or relationship with others

I express my emotions through my art | It can be difficult to control your emotions in stressful situations that film made me quite emotional – I didn't expect to cry!

Adjective: emotional

fascinating /'fæsɪneɪtɪŋ/ Adjective something that is fascinating is very interesting

I found her story absolutely fascinating | he gave a fascinating talk about polar bears | Berlin is one of the most fascinating places I've ever visited | it'll be fascinating to see who wins

Adjective: fascinated | Adverb: fascinatingly

Collocate: fascinated by/with something geology is a subject that has always fascinated me | as a child, Bruno was fascinated by dinosaurs | he was fascinated with modern technology and engineering | I'd be fascinated to know what she said to him | Eden is a fascinatingly complex character frightened /'fraɪtənd/ Adjective if you are frightened, you are afraid, scared or anxious about something

Collocates: feel frightened | look frightened

the child was frightened by the loud noise | many people are frightened of heights | they were frightened when they heard the news

Noun: fright | Verb: frighten | Adjective: frightening funeral /'fjuːnərəl/ Noun a funeral is a ceremony to celebrate and remember someone who has died Collocates: attend a funeral | funeral service many people attended my grandfather's funeral | the funeral service was held at the local centre | the funeral is on Friday 5th happiness /'hæpɪnəs/ Noun uncount if you are happy, you are very pleased and feel good. The feeling you have is happiness

my dogs give a me a lot of happiness | feelings of great happiness | she sometimes thought she would never find happiness | this is the secret of true happiness

Adjective: happy | Adverb: happily || Opposites – Noun: unhappiness | Adjective: unhappy | Adverb: unhappily

you look happy today | everyone is happy when they find a bargain | she was very happy with her exam results | she smiled happily | my childhood felt like years of unhappiness | what is the cause of your unhappiness? | I was very unhappy in my first term at university | why are you so unhappy? | an unhappily married couple jersey /'dʒɜ:(r)zi/ Noun a jersey is a top, t-shirt or jumper. Often a jersey represents a sports team

Collocates: wear a jersey | sports jersey

Froome wore the yellow jersey for the last eight days of the race | I had to wash eleven football jerseys in time for the match on Sunday | he took off his muddy jersey knowledge /'nɒlɪdʒ/ Noun uncount your knowledge of something is everything you know about it Collocate: knowledge of something she has a detailed knowledge of modern literature | my knowledge of physics is very basic | I used my local knowledge to work out how to get back to the hotel | a general knowledge quiz (a competition with questions on a range of different subjects)

Verb: know | Adjective: knowledgeable

Collocates: know about something | knowledgeable about something do you know much about cricket? | he knows all there is to know about Ferrari cars (he is very knowledgeable about them) | our guide spoke good English and was very knowledgeable | she became quite knowledgeable about Egyptian history positive /'pɒzətɪv/ Adjective if you are positive about something, you believe you are in a good situation and that you will succeed, and you do not think about any bad possibilities everyone who works here has a really positive attitude | she was always smiling, positive and hard-working | if you take a positive approach to your exams, you'll be fine

Adverb: positively || Opposite – Adjective: negative

I had to start thinking positively, otherwise I was going to fail | you shouldn't be so negative about the job | her attitude was so negative, it was obvious she'd fail the exams sadness /'sædnəs/ Noun uncount sadness is a feeling of being low or unhappy there's a deep sadness in their songs | she couldn't hide her sadness after the news | winter sadness

Adjective: sad

Collocate: feel sad hearing the news made me feel sad | I was sad when my teacher left strongly /'strɒŋli/ Adverb when someone feels strongly, they feel something in an enthusiastic and passionate way Collocates: strongly agree/disagree | feel strongly about he strongly disagrees with the decision | I feel strongly about this issue | we strongly suggest you change your suggestion success /sək'ses/ Noun success is the achievement of something you have done, planned or wanted to do

Collocates: achieve success | a great success hard work leads to success | the event was a big success | a success story

Adjective: successful || Opposite – Adjective: unsuccessful my dad was a successful director | unfortunately, you were unsuccessful on this occasion symbol /'sɪmb(ə)l/ Noun a symbol is an object, picture or shape that is used to represent a particular idea or feeling in art or literature

Collocate: a symbol of something

Picasso painted a white dove as a symbol of peace | the national symbol of England is a lion | a uniform with the national symbol on the sleeve | the ring is a symbol of their love for each other | the dog in the painting is a symbol of loyalty

Noun: symbolism | Verb: symbolize an analysis of the symbolism in the painting | the event symbolizes the country's struggle for democracy | a dove is often used to symbolize peace

Pages 14–15

analogue communication /'ænələg kəmju:nɪ'keɪʃən/ Noun analogue communication does not involve digital technology. It is a way of staying in touch using signals or other offline methods analogue communication still has its place in modern society | many older devices use analogue communication techniques | radio is a form of analogue communication attitude /'ætɪtju:d/ Noun someone's attitude is a way of thinking or feeling about something Collocates: positive attitude | attitude towards we have a positive attitude towards life | their attitude changed after the incident | your attitude affects how you handle situations digital communication /'dɪdʒɪtəl kəmju:nɪ'keɪʃən/ Noun digital communication is a way of sending and receiving information using digital tools and techniques digital communication has changed how we interact | email is a popular form of digital communication | businesses depend on digital communication digitally connected /ˌdɪdʒɪtəli kə'nektɪd/ Phrase if you are digitally connected, you are linked or have access to digital technology that allows communication or internet access

Collocate: digitally connected world our company is digitally connected across all departments | being digitally connected is important for modern businesses generation /ˌdʒenə'reɪʃən/ Noun a generation is all the people in a group or country who are a similar age and who may have had the same experiences and who may have the same way of thinking

Collocates: younger generation | older generation | millennial generation | generation Z | next generation the younger generation faces many challenges | he belongs to an older generation | technology is changing with each new generation experiment /ɪk'sperɪmənt/ Verb when you experiment, you try something to see if you like it or it works

I like to experimenting with hair colour | my sister experimented a lot with her style when she was younger global identity /'gləʊbəl aɪ'dentɪti/ Phrase global identity is a sense of belonging or identification with the global community, beyond just your local or national identity students today are growing up with a global identity | the internet helps create a sense of global identity good things /gʊd θɪŋz/ Phrase good things are beneficial, positive or pleasant events or items good things come to those who wait | she always looks for the good things in life | there are so many good things about summer impolite /ɪmpə'laɪt/ Adjective when someone is impolite, they are rude and do not show good behaviour or manners it's impolite to speak with your mouth full | they were impolite at the dinner party | interrupting others is considered impolite

Opposite – Adjective: polite

I've always thought he was a very polite student inclusive /ɪn'klʊ:sɪv/ Adjective when something is inclusive, anyone and everyone is treated fairly and equally Collocate: inclusive environment the school aims to provide an inclusive education | their policies are inclusive of all employees | we need to make sure our company is an inclusive environment to work in

Noun: inclusion | Verb: include her inclusion in the team was never in doubt | we must make sure everyone is included interaction /ˌɪntər'ækʃən/ Noun an interaction is when two or more people talk to each other or do something together children learn through interaction with their friends | there was a lot of interaction at the workshop

Verb: interact

we interacted for a short time yesterday instant /'ɪnstənt/ Adjective when something is instant, it happens immediately he regretted his instant reaction to the news | we now have instant access to information | Matteo needed an instant solution to the problem sense of identity /sens əv aɪ'dentɪti/ Phrase someone's sense of identity is the feeling of knowing who they are and where they belong travel can help you develop a sense of identity | young adults often struggle with their sense of identity virtual world /'vɜ:tʃuəl wɜ:ld/ Noun a virtual world is a computer-made place that seems like the real world, where you can play games or do activities they met in a virtual world online | virtual worlds are becoming more realistic visually /'vɪʒuəli/ Adverb visually relates to seeing or what we can see Collocates: visually stunning | communicate visually | visually impaired the presentation was visually stunning | Gen Z tend to communicate more visually than other generations | there are web tools for the visually impaired

Pages 16–17

advertising /'ædvətaɪzɪŋ/ Noun advertising is the activity or profession of producing advertisements for commercial products or services she works in advertising | they launched a new advertising strategy last week | online advertising is very effective for reaching a large audience

Noun: advert | Verb: advertise

did you see that advert for milk? It was quite strange! | they mostly advertise their products online advisor /əd'vaɪzər/ Noun an advisor is someone who gives advice. Usually it is someone who is knowledgeable in a particular field

Collocates: financial advisor | legal advisor

he consulted a financial advisor before investing his money | the company hired a legal advisor | she acted as a personal advisor to many students

Noun: advice | Verb: advise can you give us some advice on the best place to stay? | he advised us on the best way to invest our money appropriately /ə'prəʊpriətli/ Adverb appropriately means in a way that is suitable in the circumstances or situation

Collocates: dress appropriately | behave appropriately please dress appropriately for the interview | he responded appropriately to the questions | it's important to behave appropriately at formal events

Adjective: appropriate || Opposite – Adjective: inappropriate do you think your behaviour is appropriate? | they acted in an inappropriate way at the graduation ceremony attention /ə'tenʃən/ Noun attention is when you take notice of someone or something Collocates: pay attention | focus attention she struggled to pay attention in class | the loud noise attracted everyone's attention | he focused his attention on the book banking /'bæŋkɪŋ/ Noun uncount banking is the business conducted or services offered by a bank online banking makes managing your money easy | I'd like to work in banking

Noun: bank

I need to go to the bank to put some money in my account casual /'kæʒuəl/ Adjective when someone is casual, they are wearing clothes that are relaxed and not too formal Collocate: casual clothes wear casual clothes to the party | smart or casual | today is casual Friday so you don't need to dress up for work clarity /'klærəti/ Noun clarity is the quality of being clear and easy to understand their explanation lacked clarity | is there clarity in the text?

Adjective: clear make sure your point is clear in your essay closely /'kləʊsli/ Adverb if you work closely with someone, you work together and communicate with each other the whole time Collocate: look closely we work closely with small hotels in twelve different countries | the two companies have been closely linked for five years | we have been working closely together on the proposal | look closely at the facts communication /kə'mju:nɪ'keɪʃən/ Noun uncount communication is the act of sharing or exchanging information, news or ideas effective communication is key in any relationship | I took a course to improve my communication skills | there was a lack of communication between the team members

Verb: communicate

we need to learn to communicate better with each other field /fi:ld/ Noun

a field is an area of business all of them are experts in their chosen field focus of /'fəʊkəs əv/ Phrase focus of means someone or something is the central point of interest or activity

Collocates: main focus of | focus of attention he became the focus of attention | the main focus of the story | what is the focus of the sentence?

formal /'fɔ:məl/ Adjective when something is formal, it follows rules, especially in social situations, ceremonies or clothing. With clothing, it means you dress in a smart way he wore a formal suit to the interview | it was a formal dinner with important guests | you need to dress in a formal suit

Opposite – Adjective: informal tomorrow, you can dress in informal clothes to work host family /həʊst 'fæmɪli/ Noun a host family is people who invite someone to live with them for a period of time. Sometimes, students studying abroad stay with a host family

Collocate: stay with a host family exchange students usually stay with host families | host families help students understand the local culture | she had a great time living with her host family impression /ɪm'preʃ(ə)n/ Noun if something or someone gives you a particular impression, they make you have a particular feeling about them or form a particular opinion about them

Collocates: get an impression (about something) | give someone an impression | make an impression | a first/initial impression | a wrong/false impression | a good/bad impression you need to make a good impression in the interview | the photo creates a false impression | I don't want to give you the wrong impression | what was your first impression of her?

Verb: impress | Adjective: impressive | Adverb: impressively what impressed me about the film was the quality of the acting | his piano playing was really impressive | an impressive achievement | the view of the Eiffel Tower was impressive introduce /ɪntrə'dju:s/ Verb when you introduce yourself, you tell someone your name and other details about yourself when you meet them for the first time

Collocate: introduce yourself to always introduce yourself at the start of an interview | he introduced himself with a friendly smile | when you meet someone new, it's polite to introduce yourself key customer /ki: 'kʌstəmə(r)/ Noun key customers are important people who are crucial to a business's success. Customers buy your product or service the sales team focused on maintaining relationships with key customers | feedback from key customers is crucial lead the field /li:d ðə fi:ld/ Phrase when you lead the field, you are the best or most successful in a particular area or activity

Collocate: lead the field in he leads the field in medical research | they are leading the field with their technology neutral colours /'nju:trəl 'kʌləz/ Phrase neutral colours are colours that are not very strong or bright, for example grey or beige

Collocate: wear neutral colours she prefers to wear neutral colours | we decorated the room in neutral colours to keep it light pleasure /'plezə(r)/ Noun uncount pleasure is happiness you get from doing something that you enjoy. Pleasure is also used in some phrases, such as it's a pleasure to meet you, which you say to be polite the first time you meet someone, or it's my pleasure, which is a polite way of replying to someone who has thanked you for something the pleasure of gardening was her latest discovery | we had the pleasure of going to two weddings last month | I always enjoy the pleasure of your company | it's been a pleasure talking to you | enjoy life's simple pleasures while you can

Adjective: pleasurable || Opposite – Noun: displeasure

we spent a pleasurable afternoon watching cricket | the party was not as pleasurable as he had expected it to be | he expressed his displeasure in a series of tweets professional /prə'feʃənəl/ Adjective professional means someone has special education or skills related to their job we are a professional teaching business | they are a professional team of experts specialist /'speʃəlɪst/ Noun when someone is a specialists, they are experts in a particular area the hospital has many heart specialists | we need a specialist to handle this case | we need to speak to several specialists about the problem stay in touch /steɪ ɪn tʌtʃ/ Phrase if you stay in touch with someone, you regularly talk to them by phone or exchange emails or text messages after you no longer live near each other and can't often meet in person let's stay in touch | we stayed in touch after James moved to Vietnam | we didn't stay in touch when she left Mexico and I don't know where she's living now volunteer /vɒlən'tiə(r)/ Noun a volunteer is someone who does work without being paid for it Collocates: work as a volunteer | volunteer for they were volunteers for a research company | I'd like to be a volunteer in a school | have you ever had volunteer experience?

Verb: volunteer

I volunteer with a student at a school, teaching him life skills once a week

Pages 18–19

achievement /ə'tʃi:vmənt/ Noun an achievement is something you have done successfully, with effort or skill she shared her recent achievements during the meeting | his achievements in the field of science are well recognised | they held a party to celebrate their achievement ambition /æm'bɪʃən/ Noun ambition is a strong passion and want to do or achieve something Collocates: have ambition | achieve ambition | lack of ambition my ambition is to become a lawyer | he has the ambition to run his own company one day | there is no lack of ambition in this team confront /kən'frʌnt/ Verb when you confront someone or something, you face, meet or deal with a difficult situation or person

Collocates: confront someone | confront a problem

I had to confront my fears to move forward | it's time to confront the issues directly | I hate confronting someone about a problem depth /depθ/ Noun

the depth of something is the range of interesting qualities it has, especially when these qualities are not obvious straight away, but become apparent as you think about it nowhere has a depth of culture like India | there's a great depth to the music of Beethoven | as he listened to the lecture, he became aware of the depth of her ideas feature /'fi:tʃə(r)/ Noun a feature is something noticeable or interesting about someone's face her eyes are her best feature | I'd recognize his features anywhere | can you describe his facial features? (what his face looks like) gentle /'dʒentəl/ Adjective when someone is gentle, they are kind and soft she has a gentle nature that makes her very approachable | he is known for being gentle with everyone landscape /'læn(d)skeɪp/ Noun the landscape is the view that you can see when you are in the country, away from towns and buildings, including things like hills, fields, rivers, etc.

a beautiful landscape | the natural landscape and setting was beautiful | a rocky and windswept landscape lifestyle /'laɪfstaɪl/ Noun someone's lifestyle is the way they live, the things they do for work and pleasure, the way they spend their money, etc.

Collocates: a healthy lifestyle | a simple lifestyle | an active lifestyle people's lifestyles are too busy these days | we lived a simple lifestyle out in the country | his lifestyle hasn't changed since he got his new job | our job is to encourage a healthy lifestyle for our customers natural /'nætʃrəl/ Adjective when something is natural, it is not made or caused by humans the country is rich in natural resources | the room was filled with natural light | they lived in a natural environment

Noun: nature

I love being surrounded by nature nomadic /nəʊ'mædɪk/ Adjective when people are nomadic, they move from place to place without a permanent home they lived a nomadic lifestyle during their travels | nomadic tribes move from one place to another | my work has allowed me to live a nomadic life particular /pə(r)'tɪkjʊlə(r)/ Adjective if you say you are talking about a particular person or thing, you mean you are talking about one person or thing (and not any other), even though you have not said exactly which one

I don't belong to any particular political party | in this particular town, there were three museums | one particular book had a huge influence on my life profession /prə'feʃən/ Noun a profession is a type of job that needs special education or skill his profession is teaching | the legal profession | she encouraged her daughter to choose a profession she loves

Adjective: professional they work as professional dancers religion /rɪ'lɪdʒən/ Noun religion is the belief in a God or gods he does not practice any religion | people from different religions came together for the event

Adjective: religious they are a religious family remote /rɪ'məʊt/ Adjective somewhere that is remote is a long way from towns or cities it takes a long time to get there as it's quite remote | he comes from a remote town in Australia | a remote corner of the world | a remote village in the mountains | his travels took him to the remotest regions of the country shepherd /'ʃepə(r)d/ Noun a shepherd is someone whose job is to look after sheep and make sure they are safe and do not get lost the shepherd has two dogs to help him move the sheep across the land | one of my grandfathers was a shepherd in Cumbria | it's a very hard life being a shepherd shy /ʃaɪ/ Adjective when someone is shy, they are quiet around other people

I have always been a shy person | are you loud or shy? | although he's a shy person, he gave a great presentation in front of the team

UNIT 2: PERFORMING

Page 21

atmosphere /'ætməsfɪə/ Noun an atmosphere is the feeling or mood that you have in a particular place or situation

Collocate: create an atmosphere the candles and soft music created a romantic atmosphere in the restaurant | there's always a lively atmosphere in the city during the festival | the quiet atmosphere of the library helps me concentrate on my studies audience /'ɔːdiəns/ Noun the audience is the group of people who watch or listen to a performance, programme or speech

Collocate: attract an audience the film is aimed at a middle-class cinema audience | I've performed in front of an audience of 5,000 people | the president spoke to an audience of young people | the show attracted a huge audience | the film is trying to reach a wider audience | the audience clapped loudly when she appeared on the stage ballet /'bæleɪ/ Noun uncount ballet is an entertainment in which dancers tell a story through dance and music but not words a ballet dancer | I fell asleep during the ballet performance | do you prefer ballet or opera? | classical ballet choir /kwaɪə(r)/ Noun

a choir is an organized group of singers who perform together at concerts or just for pleasure

I've been a member of the choir for 20 years | they asked her to join the choir | the choir gives three concerts a year | a school choir | she sings in a choir every Thursday circus /'sɜːkəs/ Noun a circus is a travelling show with performers and animals that entertain people with tricks, clowns and funny movements the children were excited to see the clowns at the circus | every year, the circus comes to town with new and exciting performances comedian /kə'miːdiən/ Noun a comedian is someone who stands on a stage or appears on TV and tells jokes to entertain an audience

he was described as a comedian, not an actor | the show featured three comedians and two singers | like many comedians, Milligan is actually a very serious person | Peter Cook was the funniest comedian I ever saw

Noun: comedy

I don't like his sort of comedy | the show included comedy as well as songs from musicals concert /'kɒnsə(r)t/ Noun a concert is an event in which musicians play music in front of an audience my mum took me to a concert for my birthday | a lot of people are travelling to Wembley for the big concert | I'm going to a concert on Saturday | the band are giving a concert in Madrid | a rock concert | I've got tickets for a pop concert director /də'rektə(r)/ Noun the director is someone in charge of something, for example, an art director, a film director a famous film director | several Hollywood directors came to the dinner | she works as a director of studies at a school

Verb: direct

the film was directed by Clint Eastwood documentary /ˌdɒkjʊ'mentəri/ Noun a documentary is a film or television programme that provides a factual report on a specific subject, for example, nature, wildlife, history

Collocate: watch a documentary

I watched a documentary about the life of bees | a documentary on ancient Roman architecture | do you like watching nature documentaries?

entertainer /entə(r)'teɪnə(r)/ Noun an entertainer is someone such as a singer, dancer, comedian, etc. who performs in front of an audience he tried to earn some money as a street entertainer (performing in the street) | Edwards was a popular entertainer who sold millions of records | she is a great entertainer and a great singer

Noun: entertainment | Verb: entertain | Adjective: entertaining a series of concerts and other entertainment | the airline offers in-flight entertainment (films you can watch during a plane journey) | he entertained the children with stories and songs | a singer entertained the audience until the star appeared on stage | an entertaining speech | we had an entertaining evening at the theatre festival /'festɪvəl/ Noun a festival is an event that celebrates a specific theme. Often it is held regularly, for example, yearly, and many people attend. Festivals often involve music and food, performances and activities

Collocates: go to a festival | film festival every summer, our city hosts a jazz festival that attracts thousands of visitors | they went to a food festival to try dishes from around the world | we're camping at the music festival musician /mjuːʃɪj(ə)n/ Noun a musician is someone who plays a musical instrument a jazz musician | the musicians walked onto the stage | the musicians played beautifully | the band was five musicians who'd started playing together at school

Noun: music

what sort of music do you listen to? | pop music orchestra /'ɔː(r)kɪstrə/ Noun an orchestra is a large group of musicians who perform concerts, especially of classical music the London Symphony Orchestra | I'm a member of the school orchestra | the orchestra went on tour to Austria and Slovakia | the stage wasn't big enough for the whole orchestra

Adjective: orchestral he wrote a lot of orchestral music performer /pə'fɔ:mə/ Noun a performer is someone who entertains an audience, for example, a musician, actor, dancer, comedian

Collocates: talented performer | street performer

there are many street performers in my city during the festival | the agency has lots of talented performers

Noun: performance | Verb: perform they gave a good performance and made the audience laugh | she performed the play in character performance /pə'fɔ:məns/ Noun a performance is when performers entertain people by acting, singing, dancing, playing music, etc.

Collocate: live performance the band's live performance was even better than their recordings | the group were nervous before their dance performance | what a great performance!

Noun: performer | Verb: perform we work as performers in a dance group | she performed the play in character play /pleɪ/ Noun

a play is a story that is performed in front of an audience by actors who speak the words of the people who are in the story and who behave as if they are the people

Collocates: write a play | act in a play | see a play we went to the theatre and saw an amazing play | she has written three plays for radio | the play was performed for the first time last night | he's been writing and directing plays for television show /ʃəʊ/ Noun

a show is a performance in a theatre we're going to a show tonight | the show will last two and a half hours | did you enjoy the show? | we're planning a show for the end of term | the show was a huge success soundtrack /'saʊndtræk/ Noun a soundtrack is the music that goes with a film, TV series, video game, etc.

I love listening to that film's soundtrack | I recognize this soundtrack | the soundtrack became more popular than the film

Pages 22–23

acrobatics /æk'rə'bætɪks/ Noun plural acrobatics is skilled physical movements that involve a lot of jumping, balancing and turning. Acrobatics are performed by acrobats the acrobatics show at the circus was amazing | the dancers added acrobatics into their routine | I'd love to learn acrobatics have you seen what he can do as an acrobat? He flies through the air and balances on a rope!

Noun: acrobat

childhood /'tʃaɪldhʊd/ Noun someone's childhood is the period of time when they are a child childhood memories often influence our choices as adults | he still keeps in touch with his childhood friends | where did you spend most of your childhood?

clown /klaʊn/ Noun

a clown is a performer in a circus who tries to make people laugh by behaving in a silly way and wearing silly clothes and a lot of make-up the clowns pretended to throw a bucket of water over us | two of the clowns kept falling over the whole time | a clown with red hair and long, pointed shoes comedy /'kɒmɪdi/ Noun comedy is a genre of entertainment that is designed to make people laugh Collocate: romantic comedy they watched a comedy show last night and couldn't stop laughing | my favourite type of film is a romantic comedy costume /'kɒstju:m/ Noun a costume is a special set of clothes that people wear for a particular occasion or event, such as a parade or street festival

we all dressed up in a costume for the parade | a national costume | she was wearing a very colourful costume decade /'deɪkeɪd/ Noun a decade is a period of ten years the last decade saw many changes in technology | he has lived in France for over a decade | they plan to retire in the next decade demonstration /demən'streɪʃən/ Noun a demonstration is when you give a physical example of something, for example, a process, cooking, an experiment

Collocate: give a demonstration they are doing cooking demonstrations in the main house | students gave demonstrations of their science experiment

Verb: demonstrate can you demonstrate that again, please? I'm not sure I remember how you did it entertaining /entə(r)'teɪnɪŋ/ Adjective something that is entertaining is interesting and gives people pleasure, like a good film or book it was quite an entertaining film | he tried to make his lessons entertaining | an entertaining speech | we had an entertaining evening at the theatre

Noun: entertainment, entertainer | Verb: entertain

he entertained the children with stories and songs | there was live musical entertainment at the restaurant | it's an important centre for culture, entertainment and leisure | he tried to earn some money as a street entertainer (performing in the street) extraordinary /ɪk'strɔ:dɪnəri/ Adjective when someone or something is extraordinary, it is very unusual, surprising or amazing her recovery from the illness was nothing short of extraordinary | he has extraordinary talent in music | the sunset last night was extraordinary incredible /ɪn'kredɪbəl/ Adjective when someone or something is incredible it is amazing, surprising and difficult to believe

Collocates: incredible experience | incredible story they had an incredible journey through the mountains | they had an incredible experience travelling | their incredible story of survival marvellous /'mɑ:(r)vələs/ Adjective something that is marvellous is very enjoyable or impressively good we had a marvellous time on holiday in Corfu | the British Museum is the most marvellous place in the world | the view from the hotel window was absolutely marvellous situation /ˌsɪtʃu'eɪʃən/ Noun a situation is a condition or circumstance at a particular time and place

Collocates: difficult situation | handle a situation she's good at handling stressful situations | they found themselves in a situation they'd never expected on their travels | how do you deal with difficult situations?

specialize /'speʃəlaɪz/ Verb when you specialize in something, you focus on a specific area of study or work Collocate: specialize in she decided to specialize in child psychology | the firm specializes in family law | the chef specializes in Italian cooking spectacular /spek'tækjʊlə(r)/ Adjective if something is spectacular, it is extremely impressive to look at or watch Collocates: absolutely/truly spectacular | spectacular scenery | a spectacular view a spectacular show | a spectacular firework display | the dancing was absolutely spectacular | a spectacular view of the mountains | the scenery is absolutely spectacular

Adverb: spectacularly

Salisbury is the most spectacularly beautiful cathedral in Britain | the theatre is spectacularly decorated unforgettable /ˌʌnfə(r)'getəb(ə)l/ Adjective something that is unforgettable is so good, bad, interesting or exciting that you think you will never forget it it was an unforgettable meal | an unforgettable visit to Madrid | the boat trip was an unforgettable experience | an unforgettable camping adventure | the view from the top of the mountain was unforgettable

Adverb: unforgettablely we had an unforgettablely beautiful week in Cannes

Pages 24–25

cheer up /tʃɪər ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you cheer up, you start to feel happier. If you cheer someone up, you do something to make them feel happier

I need to do something to cheer myself up | I'm sure she'll cheer up soon | cheer up – it's not that bad | I bought her some flowers to cheer her up | he needs cheering up disaster /dɪ'zɑ:stə/ Noun a disaster is a sudden event that causes a lot of damage or suffering Collocate: natural disaster the earthquake was a major disaster, causing a lot of damage | there was a natural disaster here many years ago | what a disaster!

embarrassed /ɪm'bærəst/ Adjective when you feel embarrassed, you feel ashamed or shy Collocates: feel embarrassed | embarrassed about

he was embarrassed to admit he had forgotten the appointment | she felt embarrassed about tripping in front of everyone | I feel embarrassed now!

Noun: embarrassment | Adjective: embarrassing

I felt such embarrassment when I got the easiest question wrong | my manager embarrassed me when he made me speak in front of everyone | what's the most embarrassing thing that's ever happened to you?

feel like /fi:l laɪk/ Phrase if you feel like doing something, you feel specific emotions about something that song makes me feel like crying | singing makes me feel happy | a lot of work makes me feel stressed joke /dʒəʊk/ Noun

a joke is a very short story, or something that someone says, that is funny and makes people laugh

Collocates: tell a joke | make jokes my uncle's really good at telling jokes | do you know any funny jokes? | they all laughed at the joke | have you heard the joke about the lion and the bicycle? | I didn't get the joke (didn't understand it, and didn't know why it was funny) | a book of jokes | he's always making jokes

Verb: joke

he's always joking about my hair | they were laughing and joking all evening go blank /gəʊ blæŋk/ Phrase when you go blank, you are suddenly unable to think of or remember something Collocates: mind had gone blank | went blank | go blank during the exam, my mind went blank, and I couldn't remember anything | her mind had gone blank and she couldn't remember where she was staying mood /mu:d/ Noun

if you are in a particular mood, that is the way you are feeling. For example, if you are in a good mood, you are happy and feel good; if you are in a bad mood, you feel bad and become angry very easily

Collocates: be in a good/bad mood | be in no mood to do something she looks like she's in a good mood today | he's been in a bad mood all day | listening to music always puts me in a good mood | I'm not in the mood to go out this evening | ignore him – he's in a funny mood (behaving strangely) | he was in no mood to accept my apology nervous /'nɜ:vəs/ Adjective when someone is nervous, they feel anxious or scared about what may happen

Collocates: get nervous | feel nervous

I always get nervous before giving a presentation | she felt nervous about meeting new people at the party | his first day at work made him very nervous professionally /prə'feʃənəli/ Adverb professionally relates to work or a job. It means you do something with skill and good judgment, and appropriate for your job he handled the situation professionally, despite the stress | she always acts professionally, no matter how tough the job gets | dress professionally for the interview

Adjective: professional || Opposite – Adverb: unprofessionally they're a very professional team of writers | he acted unprofessionally at the interview public /'pʌblɪk/ Adjective when something is public, it is available for everyone and is not private Collocate: in public

the park is a public space where everyone can relax | he is not used to speaking in public | is this a public area?

speech /spi:tʃ/ Noun

a speech is a talk that someone gives to an audience at an important event

Collocates: give/make a speech | deliver a speech my dad gave a speech at my wedding | her speech lasted over an hour | I found his speech really boring | she delivered a speech thanking the fans for their support talent competition /'tælənt kəmpe'tɪʃən/ Noun a talent competition is an event where people show their skills or abilities to win prizes

Collocates: take part in a talent competition | win a talent competition she decided to take part in a talent competition with her dance routine | the annual talent competition attracts people from all over the country | have you ever won a talent competition?

talent show /'tælənt ʃəʊ/ Noun a talent show is a programme or event where people perform to show their special skills. Often, people are competing for a prize

Collocates: take part in a talent show | win a talent show he sang in a talent show last week | the school is putting on a talent show terrible /'terəb(ə)l/ Adjective something that is terrible is very bad he made a terrible mess in the kitchen | a terrible crime | they worked in terrible conditions | I've got a terrible pain in my leg | what a terrible film that was! | I made a terrible mistake

Adverb: terribly

it was obvious that something was terribly wrong | that winter was terribly cold terrifying /'terɪfaɪɪŋ/ Adjective when something is terrifying, it is very scary or frightening that mask is terrifying | I find the dark terrifying | my nightmare was terrifying and I'll never forget it!

Verb: terrify | Adjective: terrified horror films will terrify young children | she was terrified of the dark as a child

Pages 26–27

assessment /ə'sesmənt/ Noun an assessment is the process of reviewing or estimating the nature, quality or ability of someone or something the teacher's assessment of the student's work was detailed | the assessment revealed areas which needed improvement | the dance students had an assessment in the morning

Verb: assess how do you usually assess your students?

balanced /'bælənst/ Adjective when something is balanced, it is equal in different parts

Collocates: a balanced diet | a balanced lifestyle they follow a balanced diet to stay healthy | the manager gave a balanced view of the situation | I work eight hours a day, but also give myself the time I need outside of work, so I think I live a balanced lifestyle

Noun: balance | Verb: balance

it's important to make sure you have balance in your life | it's hard to balance work with my personal time community centre /kə'mju:nɪti 'sɛntə/ Noun a community centre is a place where people from a particular area can meet for social, educational or leisure activities

Collocate: local community centre the new community centre offers various activities for all ages | they held the meeting at the local community centre | the community centre provides essential services to residents concentrate /'kɒnsəntreɪt/ Verb when you concentrate, you focus all your attention on a specific object, activity or thing Collocate: concentrate on we need a quiet place to concentrate on our studies | he concentrated all his efforts on completing the project | it was hard to concentrate with all the noise around

Noun: concentration my concentration is best when I first wake up come to a conclusion /kʌm tu: ə kən'klu:ʒən/ Phrase when you come to a conclusion, you reach a decision after you have considered it Collocates: quickly come to a conclusion | finally come to a conclusion about after reviewing the evidence, they finally came to a conclusion | it's too soon to come to a conclusion about the result | we quickly came to a conclusion about the situation confusing /kən'fju:zɪŋ/ Adjective when something or someone is confusing, it causes a lack of understanding the instructions were confusing and hard to follow | his speech was confusing to the audience | it's a confusing situation

Noun: confusion | Verb: confuse | Adjective: confused the news story caused a lot of confusion | that film confused me – I had no idea what was going on! | he had a confused look on his face criticize /'krɪtɪsaɪz/ Verb when you criticize someone or something, you say its faults and issues. Sometimes, you criticize someone in order to help them improve the manager was criticized for the way the situation was handled | the actors performance was criticized by reviewers | he tends to criticize others without offering solutions

Adjective: critical everyone was critical of her performance in the play dirty /'dɜ:(r)ti/ Adjective something that is dirty has dirt or dust on it and is not clean. A job or task that is dirty is one that will make you dirty as you do it

Collocate: get dirty

wear a dark shirt because it will get dirty | some of the jobs on the farm are dirty and smelly | cleaning the oven was dirty work

Noun: dirt

his jacket was covered in dirt distant /'dɪstənt/ Adjective when someone or something is distant, it is far away in space or time Collocate: a distant relative they have a distant relative living abroad | a distant memory

Noun: distance

keep your distance from that fence – it's electric escape /ɪ'skeɪp/ Verb when you escape, you get free from something, someone or somewhere Collocates: manage to escape | attempt to escape he managed to escape from the locked room | they escaped from the building | the prisoner attempted to escape familiar /fə'mɪliə/ Adjective when something or someone is familiar, you know or recognize it his face looks familiar to me | the team are familiar with the new software | the song has a familiar sound

Opposite – Adjective: unfamiliar the situation was very unfamiliar – I'd never experienced anything like it!

honest /'ɒnɪst/ Adjective when someone is honest, they say things that are true

Collocates: honest opinion | honest answer she gave an honest answer to the question | he made an honest mistake in the calculations | the team always give their honest opinion

Opposite – Adjective: dishonest the employee was dishonest to his boss about being ill inform /ɪn'fɔ:m/ Verb when you inform someone of something, you tell them news, facts or information we need to inform the public about the changes | she was informed of the decision | the teacher aims to inform the class

Noun: information

where did you get that information from?

magical /'mædʒɪkəl/ Adjective when something is magical, it has special qualities that make someone feel special, as if something is amazing or far from reality they had a magical evening together | the place had a magical atmosphere | it was a magical moment they would never forget

Noun: magic

do you believe in magic?

narration /nə'reɪʃən/ Noun narration is the act of telling a story. Usually, a narrator is the person who does narration the film had a lot of narration | he uses first-person narration in his novels | her narration brought the characters to life

Noun: narrator | Verb: narrate

the narrator told the story | I'd like to narrate the play rather than act in it naturally /'nætʃrəli/ Adverb naturally means something has a quality that they have not tried to have, but they were born with

Collocates: naturally talented | naturally sociable the cast are naturally talented at acting | they are naturally sociable animals | the model was naturally beautiful

Noun: nature | Adjective: natural

do you like being in nature? | we must protect the natural environment neighbourhood /'neɪbəhʊd/ Noun a neighbourhood is a district or area, especially one forming a community within a town or city they live in a friendly neighbourhood | the neighbourhood has many local shops | it's a safe neighbourhood for families

Noun: neighbour

we just met our new neighbours objective /əb'dʒektɪv/ Adjective when you are objective, you do not see things from your personal point of view or feel influenced by your own thoughts or feelings the report provided an objective analysis of the situation | they approached the issue from an objective position painful /'peɪnfʊl/ Adjective when something is painful, it causes physical or emotional pain

Collocates: painful experience | painful memory the injury was extremely painful | it was a painful experience to go through | they have painful memories of that time

Noun: pain

I felt a lot of pain when I broke my leg persuade /pə'sweɪd/ Verb when you persuade someone, you cause them to think, do or believe something because you have given them reason to, or made an argument for it

Collocate: persuade someone to he managed to persuade her to join the team | they tried to persuade us to stay longer | the advertisement aims to persuade people to buy the product powerful /'paʊəfʊl/ Adjective if someone or something is powerful, it has a lot of strength or control the speech was powerful | the politician is a powerful influence represent /rɛprɪ'zent/ Verb to represent means to act or speak on behalf of someone or something the lawyer will represent you in court | the flag represents the country's heritage and values

Noun: representation

this is a good representation of how the students work together reviewer /rɪ'vjuːə/ Noun a reviewer is a person who writes critical articles of books, movies, plays, etc.

the reviewer gave the film five stars | she works as a book reviewer for a magazine

Noun: review | Verb: review did you read that review of your play in the paper? | I'm here to review the restaurant safe space /seɪf speɪs/ Noun a safe space is a place or environment where a person or group feels confident that they will not be exposed to judgement, criticism, or any emotional or physical harm. It is a place where people are free to share their thoughts and opinions

Collocates: create a safe space | provide a safe space the school aims to create a safe space for all students | they provided a safe space for people to express their feelings | it's important to maintain safe spaces in places of work streaming /'striːmɪŋ/ Noun uncount streaming is the activity of bringing music or video directly onto a computer or other digital device from the internet and watching or listening to it as it arrives, without having to store the data

Collocate: streaming service music streaming services like Spotify | online video streaming

Noun: stream | Verb: stream

a live stream will be available from ten o'clock | something went wrong with the stream and we missed the end of the film | the opera was streamed to cinemas across the country | the event will be live streamed from ten o'clock technique /tek'niːk/ Noun a technique is the way you do something to achieve a specific result Collocates: different techniques | new technique she learned a new technique to improve her painting | the doctor used advanced techniques during the surgery | various techniques can be applied to solve the problem tough /tʌf/ Adjective when something is tough, it is difficult that was a tough hike | it was tough to go through that | they've had a tough time recently truthful /'truːθfʊl/ Adjective when someone is truthful, they are honest he was always truthful about his feelings | the article was not entirely truthful viewer /'vjuːə/ Noun a viewer is someone who watches something, for example, a performance, a TV show the show attracted millions of viewers | each viewer had a different opinion on the episode | the network wants to increase its number of viewers voice over /vɔɪs 'əʊvə/ Noun a voice over is when someone gives information in a film, documentary, TV show, etc., but does not show their face. It is similar to a narration the documentary featured a voice over by a famous actor | she recorded the voice over for the advertisement | the film used a voice over to explain the background story

Pages 28–29

absolutely /'æbsəlu:tli/ Adverb absolutely means totally or completely it was absolutely boiling outside! | it's absolutely necessary to follow the rules | he was absolutely sure about his decision although /ɔ:l'ðəʊ/ Conjunction you use although to introduce information that is slightly different from what you have just said or are about to say although he is more famous as a film director, he has also directed opera | although he was very successful as a writer, his first novel did not sell well | she enjoyed her time in Naples, although she found the heat difficult box office success /bɒks 'ɒfɪs sək'ses/ Phrase a box office success is a film that earns a lot of money from ticket sales and people going to see it the movie became a box office success | they hoped the film would achieve box office success budget /'bʌdʒɪt/ Noun a budget is a set amount of money you have to spend on something Collocates: have a budget | be on a budget they set a budget for the decorating | we have a tight budget this month | we are on a budget this holiday

Verb: budget

we need to budget for the month climate change /'klaɪmət tʃeɪndʒ/ Noun climate change are changes to the Earth's climate, such as the rise in temperature and changes to the weather, mainly from human activity

Collocates: effects of climate change | climate change impact | climate change research | climate change conference learning about climate change in school makes us aware of how our actions affect the environment | teen activists around the world are raising awareness about climate change and asking governments to take action

Noun: climate | Adjective: climate-related the climate is something we need to think about for future generations | there are climate-related policies to discuss

consequently /'kɒnsɪkwəntli/ Adverb

you use consequently to introduce a statement about something that happens or exists as a result of what has just been said temperatures rose, and consequently the ice started melting | he lost his job in February and consequently had to cancel the holiday he'd booked for that summer

Noun: consequence

you can't ignore the economic consequences of leaving the EU despite /dɪ'spaɪt/ Preposition you use despite to introduce a statement that seems to contradict what you have just said he got a job as a swimming teacher despite the fact that he can't swim | sales were very good despite the high prices | despite arriving late for the interview, she got the job dialogue /'daɪələʊg/ Noun a dialogue is a conversation between two people we need an open dialogue about the situation | practise the dialogue from your book disappointing /dɪsə'pɔɪntɪŋ/ Adjective when something is disappointing, it fails to meet someone's hopes or expectations the results of the assessment were quite disappointing | they found the film disappointing | it was disappointing to see how few people came to the show

Noun: disappointment | Verb: disappoint |

Adjective: disappointed

the barbecue was a disappointment because we couldn't sit outside in the poor weather | I don't want to disappoint you, but I can't come this evening | he was disappointed not to be chosen for the team dull /dʌl/ Adjective something that is dull is not interesting or exciting but boring the job's a bit dull, but the pay is good | I started studying law, but it was so dull I changed to medicine | Mr Hewitt's lessons were always incredibly dull | the meeting was rather dull enthusiastic /ɪn'θju:zɪ'æstɪk/ Adjective when someone is enthusiastic, they show a lot of excitement, enjoyment or interest in something

Collocate: enthusiastic about

we're enthusiastic about the partnership | the class were enthusiastic about the trip | the actor was enthusiastic about playing the role epic film /'ɛpɪk fɪlm/ Phrase an epic film has big scenes, storylines, and large or exciting settings they watched an epic film about ancient Rome | it was an epic film with lots of special effects | the director is known for creating epic films even though /'i:vən ðəʊ/ Conjunction even though is used to give an exception to something. It has the same meaning as although, or despite the fact that even though it was raining, they went for a walk | he worked late even though he didn't have to | even though we knew the answer, we still asked the question

fancy /'fænsi/ Verb

if you fancy something, or fancy doing something, you think you would like it or like to do it

Collocate: fancy doing something

I've always fancied going to Albania | do you fancy a coffee? | do you fancy watching a film tonight? | I've never fancied yoga | I fancy doing something different tonight for that reason /fɔ: ðæt 'ri:zn/ Phrase for that reason means because of that, or therefore he was late, and for that reason, he missed the start of the film | the project wasn't completed on time, for that reason, they received a penalty | she studied hard, and for that reason, she passed the exam film genre /fɪlm 'ʒɒnrə/ Phrase the film genre is the type of film, for example, horror, comedy, romance, science fiction their favourite film genre is comedy | do you know all the film genres?

hilarious /hɪ'leəriəs/ Adjective when something is hilarious, it is very funny

Collocate: absolutely hilarious

the film was absolutely hilarious | we thought they were hilarious! | it was a hilarious situation that made everyone laugh in spite of /ɪn spaɪt əv/ Conjunction in spite of means that something happened without being affected by something. It has the same meaning as despite she finished the race in spite of her injury | in spite of the rain, they managed to have a picnic | in spite of the challenges, they passed all their exams multiverse /'mʌltɪvɜːs/ Noun the multiverse is a collection of made up universes, including our own the film explored the concept of a multiverse | scientists debate whether multiverses exist nevertheless /ˌnevə(r)ðə'les/ Adverb you use nevertheless to introduce a statement that is surprising because of what has been said before it she was ill for a week before the Olympics, but nevertheless managed to win a medal | the film was nevertheless a great success on the other hand /ɒn ði 'ʌðə hænd/ Phrase you use on the other hand to introduce information that makes a contrast with what has just been said she was very tidy but her brother, on the other hand, hardly ever tidied up his bedroom | the Americans, on the other hand, have a president as a head of state, not a king or queen special effects /'speʃəl ɪ'fɛkts/ Noun plural special effects are visuals or sounds used in film, TV or theatre that create something different from what is typical in real life

Collocate: use special effects the film used amazing special effects to create the universe | they used special effects to create the monster | special effects were used for the action scenes stand-up comedy /'stænd ʌp 'kɒmɪdi/ Noun stand-up comedy is when someone stands on a stage and performs jokes in front of a live audience

Collocates: do stand-up comedy | stand-up comedy routine

I think it would be hard to do stand-up comedy and make people laugh | we enjoy watching stand-up comedy shows therefore /'ðeəfɔː/ Conjunction therefore means the same as for that reason, or consequently

I studied hard and therefore I passed the exam | the weather was bad, therefore, the event was cancelled | they were late, therefore they missed the bus

Pages 30–31

a beating heart /ə 'biːtɪŋ hɑːt/ Phrase the phrase a beating heart is used to express that you are excited or nervous about something the excitement made her feel her beating heart | he had a beating heart before he went on stage argument /'ɑːɡjʊmənt/ Noun an argument is a disagreement or a strong discussion of opposite views. Usually, people are angry during an argument

Collocates: have an argument with | win an argument | a strong argument | make an argument against they had an argument about the best way to solve the problem | she presented a strong argument for the new policy | the man had an argument with his brother | we made an argument against sending the work in early

Verb: argue

they were arguing about the cost base /beɪs/ Noun the base of something is the lowest part of it. It is the part in which the rest of the structure depends

Collocates: solid base | strong base the workers built a solid base for the new structure | the base of the statue had lots of names | if the base isn't strong, the statue won't stand carpenter /'kɑːpəntə/ Noun a carpenter is a person who makes and repairs wooden objects and structures they hired a skilled carpenter to build the shelves | the carpenter made a beautiful wooden table | their father was a carpenter and taught them useful skills

Noun: carpentry

I'm taking a carpentry course to learn how to make a chair come down /kʌm daʊn/ Phrasal verb when someone or something comes down, it falls or goes from the top to the bottom Collocate: come down from the man came down from the tree | you need to come down carefully – don't fall and hurt yourself common goal /'kɒmən ɡəʊl/ Phrase a common goal is an aim or objective shared by a group of people Collocates: achieve a common goal | work towards a common goal | share a common goal the team worked together to achieve their common goal | they set a common goal to reduce waste by 20% | sharing a common goal helped to bring the group together crash /kræʃ/ Verb to crash means that things hit each other in a violent way Collocate: crash into the car crashed into a street lamp | someone crashed into my bike | slow down or you'll crash!

disagreement /ˌdɪsəˈɡri:mənt/ Noun a disagreement is when people do not have the same thoughts, view or opinions on something Collocates: disagreement between | disagreement with | disagreement over they had a strong disagreement over the situation | the disagreement between the two parties was clear | despite their disagreement, they remained friends

Verb: disagree

I'm afraid I disagree with your point of view emotional /ɪˈməʊʃən/ Adjective when someone or something is emotional, it makes people have a lot of strong feelings

Collocates: emotional over | emotional about | feel emotional she gave an emotional speech at the party | he felt very emotional over the news | the film made me emotional

Noun: emotion

it can be hard to express your emotions interaction /ˌɪntərˈækʃən/ Noun an interaction is when people talk, meet or have an exchange with each other social interactions are important for mental health | the teacher encouraged positive interactions among students

Verb: interact

we usually interact with each other online invisible /ɪnˈvɪzɪbl/ Adjective when something is invisible, it is not seen air is invisible to the human eye | the hero's powers meant he could become invisible key information /kiː ɪnfəˈmeɪʃən/ Phrase key information is important or essential data or facts the report contains key information about the project | it's crucial to provide key information to all team members | they shared key information during the meeting kid /kɪd/ Noun

kid is another word for child the kids played in the park all afternoon | she loves working with kids at the local school | young kids often have a lot of energy position /pəˈzɪʃən/ Noun someone's position is their a job or role in an organization

Collocates: be in a position of | position of power he holds a high position in the company | the company offered her a new position in the marketing department | would you like to be in a position of power? | they were both in positions of power within the organization reach /ri:tʃ/ Verb

to reach something means to arrive at a certain point, or to get something you want

Collocate: reach a position of power/authority reach your goals | reach for the stars real-world /rɪəl-wɜːld/ Adjective real-world relates to actual events or situations, and not theories or ideal situations the course includes real-world applications | they discussed real-world problems in the meeting | she has real-world experience in managing a team record-breaking /ˈrɛkɔːd ˈbreɪkɪŋ/ Adjective when something is record-breaking, it passes previous records in a particular activity or field. A record is an achievement that no one else has achieved to the same level the athlete's record-breaking performance amazed everyone | the film had a record-breaking opening weekend | they achieved record-breaking sales this year shoulder to shoulder /ˈʃəʊldə tuː ˈʃəʊldə/ Phrase shoulder to shoulder means side by side. Usually, it represents a strong and supportive feeling they stood shoulder to shoulder in the protest | the team worked shoulder to shoulder to complete the project | the soldiers marched shoulder to shoulder slim /slɪm/ Adjective slim means thin or small in size they have slim bodies | slim with long arms | tall and slim slip /slɪp/ Verb to slip means to lose your balance and slide for a short distance because of an accident

Collocate: slip on something she watched him slip on the icy pavement | the paper slipped through his fingers | I slipped and hurt my back weight /weɪt/ Noun weight is how heavy or light something is Collocate: lose weight

they want to lose some weight before the wedding | what weight do I need to put in the mixture? | the doctor measured the baby's weight during the check-up

Verb: weigh weigh the amount before you add any more ingredients

UNIT 3: OPPORTUNITIES

Page 33

challenging /'tʃælɪndʒɪŋ/ Adjective something that is challenging makes you work very hard or think very hard in order to succeed at it the course will be challenging, but worthwhile | yoga can be a physically challenging activity | it's a very challenging job | driving in Italy was a challenging experience

Noun: challenge | Verb: challenge

climbing this mountain will be a real challenge | my job's become boring – I need a new challenge | do you enjoy a challenge? | films that challenge the viewer (make people think very hard) demanding /dɪ'mɑːndɪŋ/ Adjective something that is demanding requires a lot of time, energy or attention

Collocate: a demanding job/career/role/course/project/schedule

I felt I could no longer be part of the demanding project | it's a demanding schedule and we have little free time | being a doctor can be a very demanding job | I've got a more demanding job now, so I need to work harder

Noun: demand | Verb: demand

Collocate: high/strong/growing/increasing demand the teacher's demands for the students to be better made the lessons very difficult | meeting the demands of my new job has become very tiring | the teacher demanded that the students finish their homework on time | the employees demanded higher wages enjoyable /ɪn'dʒɔɪəbl/ Adjective when something is enjoyable, it makes you feel happy, or you have a good time the movie was very enjoyable | they had an enjoyable time at the park | reading a good book is always enjoyable

Verb: enjoy || Opposite – Adjective: unenjoyable

we enjoy walking in nature | the party was unenjoyable because we didn't know anyone firefighter /'faɪəfaɪtə/ Noun a firefighter is a job that requires you to put out fires the firefighter rescued the cat from the tree | it takes a lot of courage to be a firefighter | she became a volunteer firefighter in her community high-risk /'haɪrɪsk/ Adjective something that is high-risk is likely to involve danger Collocate: high-risk job/behaviour/activity/situation talking on your phone while driving is high-risk behaviour because it can cause accidents | going to parties without letting anyone know where you are is high-risk behaviour | working in a factory with lots of machines is high-risk

Noun: risk | Adjective: risky | Adverb: riskily

Collocate: health risk eating too much unhealthy food every day is a health risk highly skilled /'haɪli skɪld/ Phrase if you say that someone is highly skilled, you mean that they have learnt the skills, abilities and knowledge needed to do a job at an advanced level

Collocate: highly skilled workers/professionals/individuals

she's a highly skilled guitarist, and she's been playing in a band for years | some students are highly skilled in maths and take part in competitions | the basketball team signs highly skilled players from around the city

Noun: skill, skilfulness | Adjective: skilled, skilful | Adverb: skilfully

Collocate: problem-solving/life/communication skill the course helps students improve their problem-solving skills rewarding /rɪ'wɔːdɪŋ/ Adjective something that is rewarding makes you feel good or satisfied because you have done something well or achieved something

Collocate: rewarding experience/career/opportunity/feeling helping at the animal shelter is a rewarding experience | completing a challenging project successfully can be very rewarding | teaching children to read and write is a rewarding job

Noun: reward | Verb: reward | Adjective: rewarding |

Adverb: rewardingly routine /ruː'tiːn/ Noun a routine is a series of things that you do at a regular time and in a certain order

Collocate: daily/morning/night-time/exercise/work routine

I have a morning routine where I check my phone, brush my teeth, and have breakfast before school | after school, I have a routine of doing my homework, practising guitar, and then relaxing with friends.

Noun: routine | Adjective: routine | Adverb: routinely satisfying /'sætɪsfɑɪɪŋ/ Adjective something that is satisfying makes you feel happy because you feel you have achieved something

Collocate: satisfying meal/result/experience/feeling finishing a puzzle can be very satisfying | helping others often leads to a satisfying feeling of achievement | seeing the final product after hours of hard work is satisfying

Noun: satisfaction | Verb: satisfy | Adverb: satisfyingly

Collocate: job satisfaction completing the project ahead of schedule gave a sense of satisfaction to the entire team scientist /'saɪəntɪst/ Noun a scientist is a person who works in the area of science. They usually do scientific research to develop knowledge in a specific area of science, e.g. biology, chemistry, physics

the scientist discovered a new species of plant | she works as a scientist in a research laboratory | many scientists are working on finding a cure for the disease

Noun: science | Adjective: scientific | Adverb: scientifically

I always enjoyed science at school | a scientific discovery | scientifically speaking, that's not possible secure /sɪ'kjʊə/ Adjective something is secure if it is unlikely to change or end Collocate: secure location/environment/future/job locking your bike to a secure bike rack reduces the risk of it being stolen | having a strong password for your social media accounts helps keep your online information secure

Noun: security | Verb: secure | Adjective: secure | Adverb: securely

Collocates: national security | security measure they put a security camera outside the building to see who entered and left stressful /'stresf(ə)l/ Adjective something that is stressful makes you very worried and stops you being able to relax

Collocate: a stressful experience/time/situation

I had a stressful day at work | the job interview was very stressful | a stressful job | moving house is a very stressful experience | try to avoid stressful situations

Noun: stress | Adjective: stressed

Collocate: be under stress he's under a lot of stress at work | moving house can cause a lot of stress | I got really stressed before my driving test | students felt stressed during their exams tiring /'taɪərɪŋ/ Adjective when something or someone is tiring, it makes you want to rest or sleep

Collocates: extremely tiring | tiring day | tiring job | tiring work the hike up the mountain was extremely tiring | he had a tiring day at work | looking after young children can be a tiring job | lifting boxes is tiring work

Adjective: tired

I'm always tired at the end of a long day at school vet /vet/ Noun vet is short for veterinarian. A vet is an animal doctor, who treats injured or sick animals

Collocates: take to the vet | go to the vet the vet treated the dog's broken leg | she took her cat to the vet for a check-up | the vet provided excellent care for the injured bird | I need to take my dog to the vet

Pages 34–35analysis /ə'næləsɪs/ Noun an analysis is the process of looking carefully at something in order to understand or explain it

Collocate: data analysis

we do an analysis of poems to understand their deeper meanings and themes | scientists use data analysis to study trends in the weather and how it changes the planet | we do an analysis of primary sources like letters and documents to learn about past events

Noun: analysis | Verb: analyze Collocate: analyze data the researchers will analyze the data collected from the experiment.

advances in technology /əd'vɑːnsɪz ɪn tek'nɒlədʒi/ Phrase advances in technology are developments or improvements in the use of science and industry to create useful things or solve problems

Collocates: rapid advances in technology | recent advances in technology | significant advances in technology recent advances in technology have made communication easier | rapid advances in technology are changing the way we live | the company is investing in significant advances in technology to stay ahead caregiver /'keəgɪvə/ Noun a caregiver is a person who takes care of another person, for example, an older person, a person who has disabilities or is ill, or very young

Collocate: family/professional/primary/elderly caregiver he has the role of caregiver for his younger brother after school while their parents are at work | becoming a caregiver for a pet teaches responsibility | babysitting younger children can be a fun way to earn money and gain caregiving experience creative thinking /kri'eɪtɪv 'θɪŋkɪŋ/ Noun Phrase creative thinking is when you use your imagination to think of new ideas or solutions to problems we are encouraged to use creative thinking in art class to come up with individual designs for our projects | writing fiction stories allows us to use creative thinking to invent characters and plotlines

Noun: creation, creativity, creator | Verb: create |

Adjective: creative | Adverb: creatively

Collocates: creation process | creative idea his creation impressed everyone at the art exhibition digital literacy /'dɪdʒɪtəl 'lɪtərəsi/ Noun phrase digital literacy is the ability to find, use, create, and share digital information well, in the correct way and safely

Collocates: digital literacy skills | digital literacy education | improving digital literacy | importance of digital literacy knowing how to fact-check information online is an important aspect of digital literacy to avoid spreading misinformation | setting privacy settings on social media accounts is part of practicing good digital literacy habits to protect personal information

Noun: digit | Verb: digitalize | Adjective: digital | Adverb: digitally

Collocates: digit number | digital technology she prefers reading books on her digital tablet rather than in books efficiently /ɪ'fɪʃəntli/ Adverb

if you do something efficiently, you do it in a way that saves time, effort or resources and gets the job done well

Collocate: work/manage time/perform tasks efficiently using study techniques like the Pomodoro method helps us study efficiently by breaking up study sessions into smaller parts | using shortcuts and keyboard commands on computers helps us work efficiently and save time

Noun: efficiency | Adjective: efficient | Adverb: efficiently

Collocate: efficient system she manages her time efficiently to balance work and her hobbies institute /'ɪnstɪtju:t/ Noun an institute is an organization that does a certain type of work, especially teaching or doing research

Collocate: research/educational/science/technology institute some students attend art institutes to follow their passion for painting or sculpture | research institutes study topics like space exploration, renewable energy, and medical advancements

Noun: institute | Verb: institute | Adjective: institutional | Adverb: institutionally

Collocate: institute of technology the institute of technology offers various programs in engineering and computer science interpersonal skills /ɪntə'pɜ:sənəl skɪlz/ Noun interpersonal skills are the abilities to communicate and work well with others, including understanding how to build relationships and solve problems having good interpersonal skills helps us make friends and build positive relationships with friends and teachers

Adjective: personal

Collocate: personal experience she takes personal responsibility for her actions invent /ɪn'vent/ Verb when you invent something, you create or design something that has not existed before

Thomas Edison invented the light bulb | we want to invent a new type of battery | the company aims to invent new solutions to everyday problems

Noun: invention | Adjective: inventive

the internet was a new invention | he's an inventive person and finds solutions to any problem mechanical /mə'kænikəl/ Adjective someone's actions that are mechanical are automatic and they do them without thinking we have done this work so often that the tasks have become mechanical | the work is mechanical and boring

Verb: mechanize | Adverb: mechanically part-time /pɑ:t 'taɪm/ Adjective when someone works part-time, they work less than the usual or full-time hours. Usually, part-time is less than 40 hours per week

Collocates: work part-time | part-time hours | part-time job she has a part-time job at the bookshop | he works part-time while attending college the company offers part-time hours for students

Opposite – Adjective: full-time full-time and part-time hours are available problem solving /'prɒbləm 'sɒlvɪŋ/ Noun problem solving is finding new or different ways to deal with difficulties or challenges

Collocates: creative/effective problem solving | problem solving skills

working on group projects in class helps us develop problem-solving skills to find solutions | solving puzzles or riddles in magazines is a fun way to exercise problem-solving skills promotion /prə'məʊʃ(ə)n/ Noun promotion within an organization is an official change in job to a better, more important, and better-paid job there are plenty of opportunities for promotion if you work hard | he went four years without a promotion | if I get a promotion, we'll be able to buy a new car | I've asked to be considered for promotion

Verb: promote

Collocate: be promoted to something she was promoted to the post of regional sales director range /reɪndʒ/ Noun

a range of things is a number of different things of the same kind Collocate: range of skills the school library offers a range of books for different interests, from fantasy novels to biographies | the course helped students improve a range of skills

Verb: range

subtitles /'sʌb'taɪtəlz/ Noun subtitles are the text that you read at the bottom of a screen during a film, TV show or video, that is a translation of the dialogue into another language or includes more information, such as a description for people with hearing problems

Collocates: film subtitles | video subtitles | subtitles in English watching foreign films with subtitles helps me improve my language skills | some streaming platforms offer subtitles in different languages, so it is easier for us to enjoy international shows and films training course /'treɪnɪŋ kɜ:s/ Phrase a training course is a series of lessons or activities which are designed to help someone improve their skills or knowledge in a particular area

Collocates: take a training course | do a training course she took a training course to improve her computer skills | the company offers a training course for new employees | he did a training course in project management unemployment /ˌʌnɪm'plɔɪmənt/ Noun unemployment is the state of not having a job the unemployment rate has risen this year | he struggled with unemployment for several months | government programs aim to reduce unemployment

Opposite – Noun: employment | Verb: employ |

Adjective: employed

they employed the new team last month | I'm employed by a small company well-paid /wel'peɪd/ Adjective when someone is well-paid, they earn a good salary Collocate: well-paid job they have a well-paid job in the finance industry | he was offered a well-paid position at the new company | the job is challenging but well-paid

Pages 36–37

apply /ə'plai/ Verb

if you apply for something such as a place at a college or university, or a job, you write to say that you want to have it

Collocates: apply for something | apply to somewhere she applied to the University of Zurich | you should start applying for jobs before you leave university | did you apply for that job? | 300 people applied for a job at the studio

Noun: application, applicant

Collocate: an application form send in your application by email | they sent me an application form (a set of questions you have to answer to apply for something) | she completed 30 job applications in one week | there were 200 applicants for just three jobs apprentice /ə'prentɪs/ Noun an apprentice is someone who learns how to do a skilled job by working for someone who teaches them

I'd rather become an apprentice than go to college | she spent a year as an apprentice electrical engineer in Dover | we have three apprentices working for us at the moment

Noun: apprenticeship

a five-year apprenticeship (a period of five years working as an apprentice in order to become qualified) arrangement /ə'reɪndʒmənt/ Noun an arrangement is a plan between people or groups about when you will do something at a time in the future

Collocate: business/travel arrangement

we made an arrangement to meet at the library at 3 p.m. | they made an arrangement to meet at the café next Saturday | my sister and I have a special arrangement for taking turns using the computer.

Verb: arrange | Adjective: arranged

Collocate: make arrangements | arrange a meeting the arrangement of the furniture in the room was great | let's arrange a meeting for next Monday degree /di'gri:/ Noun a degree is the qualification you get if you pass the exams after following a course of study at a university

Collocate: get/do a degree

I'm the first person in my family to get a degree | I did a degree in Spanish | you need a degree to get a job in the media industry | my brother was a very successful businessman even though he didn't have a degree enrol /ɪn'rəʊl/ Verb

if you enrol in something, you sign up for it, such as a course or a class

Collocates: enrol at college/university | enrol on a course

I need to enrol in English classes to improve my language skills. | they enrolled in a cooking course to learn how to make new dishes | students can enrol in the art club to explore their creativity

Noun: enrolment | Adjective: enrolled

Collocate: enrolment form/fee/requirements enrolment for the course begins next week | you should enrol in the language class | the enrolled students were excited to start their classes entrance exam /'ɛntrəns ɪg'zæm/ Noun an entrance exam is an exam that students take and have to pass in order to be allowed to study at a particular school, college or university

Collocate: sit an entrance exam most private schools want you to take an entrance exam | she failed the entrance exam and decided to join the army instead | 350 children sat the entrance exam but 30 of them got into the school graduate /'grædʒuət/ Verb when you graduate /'grædʒuert/, you leave university with a degree. Someone who does this is a graduate /'grædʒuət/.

Collocate: graduate from somewhere she graduated with a degree in history and economics | I graduated from UCL in 2019 | our first batch of students graduated last month

Noun: graduate, graduation | Verb: graduating Collocate: a university/college graduate many university graduates had trouble finding a job last year | many of our recent graduates went into teaching | my mum and dad attended my graduation ceremony | we're graduating next year!

intention /ɪn'tenʃən/ Noun an intention is a plan or reason that guides someone's actions or decisions

Collocates: good intention | bad intention | clear intention my intention is to finish my homework before dinner | their good intentions didn't last long | our intention was to surprise our friend with a birthday gift

Adjective: intentional | Adverb: intentionally he spoke intentionally, making sure to choose his words carefully intern /'ɪntɜːn/ Noun an intern is a student who works in a role in a company or organization for a short time to get experience in that job

Collocate: summer/medical intern

I worked as an intern at the hospital to gain experience helping people who are ill | I'm a film production intern at a television station

Noun: internship | Verb: intern | Adjective: interned

Collocate: internship programme/internship application the internship programme provided good experience multinational /ˌmʌltɪ'næʃənəl/ Adjective when something is multinational, it operates or involves several countries

Collocates: multinational company | a multinational group the multinational company has offices in over 50 countries | he works for a large multinational corporation | a multinational group of students reapply /ˌriːə'plaɪ/ Verb if you reapply for something, you apply for it again because you did not succeed the first time unsuccessful candidates have to wait six months before reapplying | I'm going to reapply for a grant to do research | in some cases, the student will be invited to reapply redo /ˌriː'duː/ Verb

if you redo something, you do it again, often because your first attempt was not very successful we redid the decorations in the living room | she had to redo her first year at college | we'd set the equipment up badly and had to redo the entire experiment redundancy /rɪ'dʌndənsi/ Noun redundancy is when you are no longer needed or useful in a job, which ends with you losing your job

Collocates: job redundancy | redundancy pay after the new technology was introduced, many workers faced redundancy | the company had to make redundancies because of financial problems | they worried about redundancy when the factory closed down

Adjective: redundant

Collocate: be made redundant after she was made redundant, she changed her career redundancy package /rɪ'dʌndənsi 'pækɪdʒ/ Noun a redundancy package is money or other benefits that a company gives an employee after they are no longer able to work there anymore

Collocates: generous redundancy package | standard redundancy package the employee received a redundancy package that included money and support to find a new job | the employee used the redundancy package to start his own business | after losing her job, she received a generous redundancy package reread /ˌriː'reɪd/ Verb if you reread something, you read it again

I decided to reread Madame Bovary for the first time since I was at university | he read the letter, then reread it to make sure he'd understood it properly | if you reread the instructions, you'll see that you missed out one part of the process resend /ˌriː'send/ Verb

if you resend something, you send it again, usually after it has been returned or not received can you please resend the email? I didn't receive it. | I forgot to attach the document, so I had to resend the file. | they had to resend the package because it got lost in the post. | please resend the email, I didn't receive it.

retake /ˌriː'teɪk/ Verb

if you retake a course or an exam, you take it for a second time because you failed it the first time

I had to retake my final exams | you are allowed to retake three of the six exams | you have to retake the exam within eighteen months | the course may only be retaken once

Noun: retake

my retakes are in January retirement /rɪ'taɪəmənt/ Noun retirement is the act of leaving your job or stopping work, usually when you reach a certain age or after a long career

Collocates: early retirement | retirement age

my grandfather enjoys traveling since his retirement | she plans to travel the world after her retirement | he received a gold watch as a retirement present from his colleagues

Verb: retire | Adjective: retired

Collocate: retire early she decided to retire early retrain /ˌriː'treɪn/ Verb if you retrain, you learn new skills, either because you need these new skills for your current job or because you want to work in a different field

Collocate: retrain as something he taught in a school for six years before retraining as a lawyer | doctors have to retrain every few years | she was a former fighter pilot who retrained as a pilot rewatch /ˌriː'wɒtʃ/ Verb if you rewatch something, you watch it again

Collocates: rewatch a movie | rewatch an episode

I like to rewatch my favourite films on Sundays | she decided to rewatch the tutorial to better understand the instructions | we can rewatch the online lesson if we missed something important | I want to rewatch that film, it's my favourite rewrite /ˌriː'raɪt/ Verb

if you rewrite something, you write it again and try to do it better the second time my essay was so bad I had to rewrite it | the book was rewritten and republished ten years later | I didn't have time to rewrite the article schedule /'ʃɛdʒu:l/ Noun a schedule is a plan that shows the times at which events or activities will happen

Collocate: busy/work/daily schedule

I have a busy schedule today with classes and meetings | can we schedule the meeting for tomorrow afternoon? | she follows a schedule for studying and exercise

Verb: schedule | Adjective: scheduled

Collocate: scheduled event

let's schedule a meeting for next week | the scheduled event went well scholarship /'skɒləʃɪp/ Noun a scholarship is help, usually with money, awarded to a student to help them continue their education, often because of their academic or other achievements

Collocates: apply for/get a scholarship | a scholarship programme she received a scholarship to study abroad | he applied for a scholarship to help pay for school fees | the scholarship pays for the cost of textbooks and accommodation | the scholarship programme helped many students step /sɛp/ Noun

a step is one part of a process that needs several things to happen, one after the other

Collocates: step by step | take (a) step(s)

his next step was to hire an office manager | here are the basic steps needed to create your own development plan | he took steps to improve the department's finances | the plan must be carried out step by step tutor /'tju:tə/ Noun a tutor is a private teacher. Usually they teach a single student or a very small group

Collocate: private tutor she hired a tutor to help her with maths | the tutor gave the student extra lessons in physics | he is a private tutor in English and history

Verb: tutor

my tutor comes to my home once a week

Pages 38–39bite-sized /baɪt-saɪzd/ Adjective something that is bite-sized is small and easy to understand in a short amount of time

Collocates: bite-sized information | bite-sized learning

I like to watch bite-sized videos on cooking tips | the teacher gave us bite-sized homework to complete each week | she prefers bite-sized lessons because they are easier to understand climate emergency /'klaɪmət ɪ'mɜ:dʒənsi/ Noun a climate emergency is a situation which needs urgent action to help with the problems with the Earth's climate

Collocate: declare a climate emergency many people are worried about the climate emergency and its effects on the environment | the country declared a climate emergency | we need to take action to address the climate emergency and reduce carbon emissions digital tools /'dɪdʒɪtl tu:lz/ Phrase digital tools are electronic resources or software used to perform tasks or solve problems

Collocate: use digital tools teachers are increasingly using digital tools in the classroom | there are many digital tools available to help with project management | she learned how to use new digital tools to enhance her work educator /'ɛdʒʊkeɪtə/ Noun an educator is a teacher, or a person who provides instruction or education to others she is a dedicated educator who cares about her students | the conference was attended by educators from around the world | experienced educators are essential for quality education

Noun: education | Verb: educate

we were educated about the history of the country | a solid education effective /ɪ'fɛktɪv/ Adjective something that is effective is successful in achieving a goal or purpose

Collocates: highly effective | cost-effective | time-effective drinking plenty of water is an effective way to stay hydrated | studying regularly is an effective way to improve your exam marks | she gave an effective presentation that informed and educated everyone

Adverb: effectively

Collocate: work effectively using this method worked effectively | he communicated effectively with his team environmental issue /ɪnvaɪrən'mentəl 'ɪʃu:/ Noun an environmental issue is a problem that affects the natural world

Collocates: global environmental issue | urgent environmental issue pollution is a big environmental issue affecting our planet | deforestation is an environmental issue that is a problem for many animal species | recycling helps to address environmental issues by reducing waste formal education system /'fɔ:məl ɛdʒʊ'keɪʃən 'sɪstəm/ Phrase a formal education system is an approach to education which usually follows policies and regulations, including primary, secondary, and higher education he studied within the formal education system | there is a need to change the formal education system to bring it up-to-date impact /'ɪmpækt/ Noun an impact is the effect or influence that something has on a person or situation

Collocate: positive/negative/environmental impact his presentation had a huge impact on the audience | the new laws will have a positive impact on the community

Verb: impact

Collocate: impacted on others his words impacted the audience deeply inspired /ɪn'spaɪəd/ Verb if you were inspired by something, that thing motivated you to do something else

Collocates: inspired by nature | greatly inspired her artwork was inspired by nature and wildlife | the teacher inspired her students to take action and help the environment | reading books about successful people inspired him to follow his dreams

Verb: inspire | Adjective: inspired the beautiful scenery inspired him to write a poem | she had an inspired idea for the project journalist /'dʒɜːnəlɪst/ Noun a journalist is a person who writes for newspapers, magazines, or news websites the journalist wrote an article about the local election | she works as a freelance journalist for several magazines

Noun: journalism

we studied journalism at university opportunities /ɒpə'tjuːnɪtiz/ Noun plural opportunities are situations or chances that make it possible to do something Collocates: equal opportunities | job opportunities

she is looking for new job opportunities | equal opportunities should be available to everyone overwhelming /əvə'welmlɪŋ/ Adjective something that is overwhelming affects you strongly and you do not know how to deal with it

Collocate: overwhelming feeling/response the amount of homework she received was overwhelming | moving to a new country can be overwhelming at first | he felt overwhelmed by the number of jobs on his list to do participate /pɑː'tɪsɪpeɪt/ Verb if you participate, you take part in something or are involved with it Collocate: participate in an activity/event the teachers encourage everyone to participate in the school talent show | students who participate in sports clubs often make new friends | she wants to participate in the event to raise money for a good cause

Noun: participation

Collocate: individual/group participation their participation in the project was essential perspective /pə(r)'spektɪv/ Noun your perspective is the way you see or understand a situation the story is seen from the mother's perspective | my illness has given me a new perspective on life | try to see things from a broader perspective political figure /pə'lɪtɪkəl 'fɪɡə/ Noun a political figure is a person who has an important position in politics, such as a government employee Collocate: historical political figure the president is a well-known political figure in the country | the prime minister is a respected political figure in the international community rainforest /'reɪnfɔːrɪst/ Noun a rainforest is a tropical forest with a high amount of rainfall throughout the year

Collocate: tropical rainforest the Amazon rainforest is home to diverse wildlife | efforts are being made to protect the rainforest | the rainforest has a rich ecosystem response /rɪs'pɒns/ Noun a response is a reply to something that has been said, done, or asked Collocate: quick/positive/negative response his response to the question was fair | the company replied in response to the criticism | she received a positive response to her job application

Verb: respond

Collocate: respond quickly

he knew to respond quickly to the email | please respond to the email as soon as possible social media /'səʊʃəl 'miːdiə/ Noun phrase websites and applications that allow users to create and share content or participate in online communication is called social media

Collocates: use social media | social media platform | post on social media | on social media many people use social media to stay connected | she posted a photo on social media | social media platforms are popular for marketing | I'm not on social media strengthen /'streŋθən/ Verb if you strengthen something, you make it stronger Collocate: strengthen relationships exercise can help strengthen your muscles | taking a language course can strengthen your language skills

Noun: strength to snowball /tu: 'snəʊbɔ:l/ Verb if something snowballs, it increases quickly in size or amount Collocate: the problem/situation snowballed

the problem started small but quickly snowballed into a big issue | his money problems snowballed as he continued to borrow money | the idea gained interest on social media and began to snowball into a huge event

Noun: snowball

the issue started small but quickly grew into a snowball | his efforts to promote the event began to snowball tremendous /tri'mendəs/ Adjective something that is tremendous has an extremely large or powerful, or significant effect on it

Collocate: tremendous support/effort/impact/success

she made a tremendous effort to organize the event | the team achieved tremendous success in the competition | the amount of support we received was tremendous world history /wɜ:l'd 'hɪstəri/ Phrase world history is the study of global situations in the past he teaches world history at the university | the book covers significant events in world history | she is fascinated by ancient world history

Pages 40–41

amateur /'æmətə/ Noun

an amateur is a person who does an activity as a hobby or for fun, rather than as a job

Collocate: amateur photographer/musician

he enjoys playing guitar as an amateur musician | the competition is open to amateur photographers | she entered the race as an amateur runner

Adjective: amateur

the team consisted of amateur players application /æplɪ'keɪʃən/ Noun an application is a formal request to be considered for a position of employment Collocates: job application | application process | application form she submitted her job application last week | the job application process was quite difficult | he filled out the job application form

Verb: apply

I'm going to apply for a new job association /ə'səʊsi'eɪʃən/ Noun an association is an official group of people who have the same job, aim or interest

Collocate: student association

she is a member of the student association at her school | the association works to promote environmental education | she was a member of the local association

Verb: associate

Collocate: associate with others people often associate success with happiness benefit /'benɪft/ Noun the benefits of a job are some of the things that your employer gives you, such as paid holidays, discount on the company's products, private medical insurance, etc salary: £42,000 plus benefits | the job comes with a lot of benefits | the company had to reduce on the benefits it provided conscientious /kənʃi'ɛnʃəs/ Adjective someone who is conscientious always makes sure they do their job very thoroughly and very well she was a conscientious student | if you'd been a bit more conscientious, this mistake wouldn't have happened | a clever and very conscientious colleague

Adverb: conscientiously

he prepared for the meeting conscientiously | carefully and conscientiously, she checked every room before leaving the house covering letter /'kʌvərɪŋ 'lɛtə/ Phrase a covering letter is something you send with a job application to explain more about yourself and your application

Collocates: write a covering letter | include a covering letter she included a covering letter with her job application | include a covering letter in your email application creative /kri'eɪtɪv/ Adjective someone who is creative is able to use their imagination well to think of new and interesting things. Their ideas and actions can also be called creative he had loads of creative ideas for new apps | he made a number of very creative suggestions | we need a bit of creative thinking to solve this problem

Verb: create | Adverb: creatively

she created some beautiful artwork | you should create a new spreadsheet for each project | you need to think creatively to solve this problem database /'dɛɪtəbeɪs/ Noun a database is a large amount of information stored in a computer and organized so that it is possible to find detailed and individual pieces of information very easily our database has details of over 30,000 customers | she learned how to search the database | you need a password to open the database | an online database that is available to the public | he is a specialist in database management deadline /'dɛdlaɪn/ Noun a deadline is the latest time or date by which you should complete something Collocates: meet a deadline | miss a deadline | set a deadline the project has a strict deadline | she worked hard to meet the deadline | they asked for an extension so they wouldn't miss the deadline | they set a deadline for next week dealing with /'di:lɪŋ wɪð/ Phrase if you're dealing with something, you are handling or managing a situation or problem he is good at dealing with difficult clients | we spent the day dealing with paperwork | dealing with emergencies requires quick thinking energetic /enə(r)'dʒetɪk/ Adjective someone who is energetic has a lot of energy and does things in a very lively and enthusiastic way the band were loud and energetic on stage | the dogs were very active and energetic | he had been much more energetic when he was younger

Noun: energy | Adverb: energetically he spoke energetically in favour of building a new library hard-working /hɑ:d 'wɜ:kɪŋ/ Adjective if you are hard-working, you always work hard his brother was a hard-working farmer | hard-working families deserve to be treated with respect | she is a hard-working and conscientious lawyer independent /ɪndɪ'pendənt/ Adjective if someone is independent, you are able to do things on your own and without someone else taking control we work as independent consultants | you must be organised and independent | we require an independent individual

Noun: independence

the country's independence day is in May meeting deadlines /'mi:tɪŋ 'dedlaɪnz/ Phrase meeting deadlines means completing tasks or work by the dates they are due they are good at meeting deadlines | meeting deadlines is crucial in this job | we struggled with meeting deadlines in the past methodical /mə'θɒdɪk(ə)/ Adjective if you are methodical, you always do things in a thorough and well-organized way. You can also say that the way you do things is methodical

he was very methodical in the way he approached his work | a methodical and efficient member of staff | she went about her job in a very methodical way

Noun: method | Adverb: methodically

we developed a good method for getting the job done | it's important to work methodically, otherwise the end result will be a disaster | they methodically went through every one of the reports motivated /'mɒtɪvaɪtɪd/ Adjective someone who is motivated has a strong desire to achieve a goal or pursue an activity

Collocates: highly motivated | self-motivated

she is highly motivated to succeed in her career | the team is motivated to win the match | he feels motivated to study after seeing his friends' grades

Noun: motivation | Verb: motivate her motivation inspired others to work hard organized /'ɔ:gənaɪzd/ Adjective when someone is organized, they have a plan or method and like to keep things in a logical way

Collocate: well organized

she is always well organized and rarely forgets appointments | the event was badly organized and many guests were disappointed | being organized helps reduce stress

Noun: organization | Verb: organize

I organized a party for my friend | organization is key to this role personal contact /'pɜ:sənəl 'kɒntækt/ Noun a personal contact is someone you know well that can provide information about you for a job interview provide details of your personal contact | who's your personal contact for your reference for the job?

referee /,refə'ri:/ Noun a referee is someone who agrees to give you a reference – a statement that gives information about you, your character and your abilities. You often need a reference when you are applying for a job, and your referee is someone who knows you, or who you have worked for will you be a referee for me? | I've been asked to be a referee for Jennifer – she's trying to get a job at the airport | we still haven't heard from your referee

Noun: reference

Mr Atkins wrote a good reference for me last year requirements /rɪ'kwaɪəmənts/ Noun a requirement is a quality or qualification that you must have in order to be allowed to do something

Collocate: minimum/specific requirements the job advertisement listed the requirements for the role | she meets all the requirements to apply for the job | the job had specific requirements | you must meet the requirements to qualify researching /rɪ'sɜ:tʃɪŋ/ Adjective researching is the act of investigating or studying a subject in detail to discover new information she is currently researching the effects of climate change on marine life | he spent hours researching the best options for his vacation | researching thoroughly can lead to more accurate results

Noun: research | Verb: research

I'm researching the effects | a research project responsible /rɪ'spɒnsəbl/ Adjective

a responsible job is one that means you have to take important decisions and be in charge of other people she was very young to have such a responsible job | he was promoted to a very responsible position in the company

Noun: responsibility

I wasn't ready to take on that much responsibility self-confident /self 'kɒnfɪdənt/ Adjective if you are self-confident, you feel confident about your own abilities we want our children to be self-confident and happy | a strong, self-confident young man | the course helped me become more self-confident

Noun: self-confidence | Adverb: self-confidently his lack of self-confidence meant he couldn't get a better job | you could tell just by looking at her that she was full of self-confidence | she walked into the interview room quickly and self-confidently supporting statement /sə'pɔ:tɪŋ 'stetmənt/ Phrase a supporting statement is an explanation that provides additional information to back up or support a claim the application requires a supporting statement to explain your experience | she wrote a detailed supporting statement | providing a strong supporting statement can help your argument under pressure /'ʌndə 'preʃə/ Phrase if you're under pressure, you are in a state of stress or anxiety due to demanding circumstances she performs well under pressure and meets tight deadlines | working under pressure can sometimes lead to burnout | remaining calm under pressure is a valuable skill accreditation /ə'kredɪ'teɪʃən/ Noun an accreditation is given to an individual or organization usually after they achieve something Collocate: accreditation process the university has accreditation from the government | the course received accreditation for providing a high level of learning | he completed a course with accreditation from a professional organization Verb: accredit

Pages 42–43

the university received accreditation for its courses | the organization wanted to accredit new members biodiversity /ˌbaɪəʊdaɪ'vɜ:səti/ Noun biodiversity is the variety of species on Earth Collocate: biodiversity education biodiversity refers to the variety of different living species found in a particular place | rainforests are known for their high biodiversity, with many different species of plants and animals dynamic /daɪ'næmɪk/ Adjective something that is dynamic has a lot of change, activity or progress Collocate: dynamic environment/industry/team the business world is dynamic and constantly changing | she enjoys working in a dynamic company where every day is a new challenge educational value /ˌedʒu'keɪʃənəl 'vælju:/ Phrase educational value is the worth or benefit that something provides in terms of learning and knowledge the documentary has significant educational value for students | teachers assess the educational value of new teaching materials | activities with high educational value are encouraged in schools environmentalist /ɪn'vaɪərən'mentəlist/ Noun an environmentalist is a person who wants to protect the natural environment the environmentalist wants to protect endangered species | many environmentalists are worried about the effects of rising temperatures on our climate global literacy /'gləʊbəl 'lɪtərəsi/ Noun global literacy is the ability to understand global issues and cultures well Collocates: promote global literacy | global literacy program global literacy refers to understanding and being aware of issues that affect people all over the world | education plays a key part in promoting global literacy and understanding global warming /'gləʊbəl 'wɔ:miŋ/ Noun global warming is the gradual increase in Earth's average temperature due to human activities Collocates: address global warming | fight global warming | global warming impact/effects/solution/crisis/threat/debate global warming is causing temperatures to rise around the world | scientists warn that global warming could lead to more extreme weather events | the effects of global warming are obvious instructor /ɪn'strʌktə/ Noun an instructor is a person who teaches or provides lessons in different subjects or skills Collocate: qualified/experienced/skilled/professional/personal/online/classroom/fitness/language instructor the yoga instructor led the class through a series of poses | she enrolled in a cooking class taught by a professional instructor | the driving instructor taught her how to park the car Noun: instruction | Adjective: instructional Collocate: clear instructions the teacher gave an instruction literacy /'lɪtərəsi/ Noun literacy is the ability to read, write, and understand information well, which is an important skill for communicating and learning Collocates: basic literacy | digital literacy | literacy skills literacy is the ability to read and write | the literacy rate in the country has improved in recent years | she volunteers on a literacy course to help adults improve their reading skills methodology /ˌmeθə'dɒlədʒi/ Noun a methodology is a way or method used to study Collocate: research/teaching/learning/scientific methodology the teacher explained the methodology used in the science experiment | researchers developed a new methodology for analyzing data qualification /ˈkwɒlɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ Noun an qualification is a quality or achievement that makes someone suitable for a particular job or role

Collocates: academic/professional/educational qualification | qualification requirements he has the necessary qualifications for the job | she got her teaching qualification from a well-known university | the job advertizement listed the required qualifications and experience

Noun: qualifier | Verb: qualify | Adjective: qualified

Collocate: highly qualified you need to be highly qualified to be a Doctor value /ˈvæljuː/ Noun value is the importance or worth of something, or how useful it is Collocates: have value | great value the value of education | they assessed the value of the property | friendships hold great value in our lives

Verb: value

I value the time we've spent together

UNIT 4: WATER

Page 45

ambassador /æm'bæsədər/ Noun an ambassador is a representative or promoter of a specific activity she was the brand ambassador for the new product | I'm an ambassador for my swimming school approximately /ə'prɒksɪmətli/ Adverb approximately is used to show that something is almost, but not completely, accurate or exact the meeting will start in approximately ten minutes | the project cost approximately one million dollars | approximately twenty people attended the seminar

Adjective: approximate can you give us an approximate cost for the job?

benefit /'benɪfɪt/ Noun a benefit is the advantage gained from something regular exercise has many health benefits | the new policy offers several benefits to employees bodyboarding /'bɒdi 'bɔːdɪŋ/ Noun uncount bodyboarding is a water sport where a person rides a board on a wave in the sea

Collocates: do bodyboarding | go bodyboarding

they spent the afternoon body boarding at the beach | doing body boarding is fun and exciting | he bought new equipment to go body boarding during the summer canoeing /kə'nuːɪŋ/ Noun uncount canoeing is when you use a small, light boat to move across the water with paddles. Paddles are wooden sticks you use to move the canoe through the water

Collocate: go canoeing

they enjoy canoeing on the lake every weekend | we went canoeing down the river last summer | learning canoeing can be a fun outdoor activity

Noun: canoe

a canoe is very light boat that you move along in the water diving /'daɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount diving is the activity of swimming deep below the surface of the sea, usually wearing special equipment so that you can breathe while you are under the water for a long time she's a trained diving instructor | I tried diving on holiday last year, but I didn't like it | we spent most of the afternoon diving near the reef | diving equipment is very expensive

Noun: diver | Verb: dive two of the divers needed help to get back onto the boat | the deepest I've ever dived is 200 feet kayaking /'kaɪækɪŋ/ Noun uncount kayaking is the activity or sport of using a kayak (a boat like a canoe that you use with a single paddle) kayaking is more relaxing than jet-skiing | we'd never been kayaking before, and it was great fun | kayaking is easy to do even if you have no experience | kayaking is very good exercise

Noun: kayak

she bought a kayak before going on holiday paddleboarding /'pædəl'bɔːdɪŋ/ Noun uncount paddleboarding is a water sport where a person stands on a board and uses a stick called a paddle to move through the water

Collocate: go paddleboarding

they went paddleboarding at the beach | learning paddleboarding can be challenging but rewarding | he enjoys paddleboarding

Noun: paddleboard | Verb: paddleboard

I've just bought a paddleboard | I'd love to try to paddleboard here rafting /'rɑːftɪŋ/ Noun uncount rafting is the activity of sailing down a river on a raft (a platform that floats, made from pieces of wood or other material that are tied together)

I went rafting on the Zambezi | I was too scared to try white-water rafting (rafting down a very fast flowing river) | we spent the afternoon river rafting

Noun: raft

we had a raft race across the river self-confidence /ˌself'kɒnfɪdəns/ Noun self-confidence is a feeling of trust in your abilities, qualities and judgement

Collocates: have self-confidence | lack self-confidence

she gained self-confidence after completing the project successfully | a lack of self-confidence can be difficult | public speaking can help improve self-confidence | do you have much self-confidence?

Adjective: self-confident, confident would you say you're quite self-confident? | I got more confident as I got older scuba diving /'skuːbə 'daɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount scuba diving is the sport or activity of swimming deep underwater using something to help you breathe, called a scuba Collocate: go scuba diving

they enjoy scuba diving in the reefs | learning scuba diving requires taking a certified course | he bought new equipment for scuba diving

Noun: scuba diver | Verb: scuba dive

I worked as a scuba diver instructor when I lived in Thailand | I'd be too afraid to scuba dive snorkelling /'snɔ:kəlɪŋ/ Noun uncount snorkelling is the activity of swimming just below the surface of the water, using a pipe that sticks out above the water so that you can breathe in air

it's a popular spot for snorkelling | we tried rafting, windsurfing and snorkelling | guests can enjoy snorkelling in the clear, warm water

Noun: snorkel | Verb: snorkel

I left my snorkel behind | we snorkelled across the lake water-skiing /'wɔ:tə-'ski:ɪŋ/ Noun uncount water-skiing is the activity or sport of being pulled across water by a boat, with two long blades (water-skis) attached to your feet so that you are standing upright while moving water-skiing is very difficult if you haven't done it before | it's a great lake for water-skiing | they used to show water-skiing on TV | a water-skiing instructor

Noun: water-ski, water-skier | Verb: water-ski

a pair of new water-skis will cost you at least £100 | she's a very good water-skier | she tried to teach me to water-ski windsurfing /'wɪndʒɜ:fɪŋ/ Noun uncount windsurfing is the activity or sport of moving across water while standing on a board that has a sail attached to it the weather was too calm to go windsurfing | the beaches on the other side are very popular for windsurfing | she went water-skiing while her brother went windsurfing

Noun: windsurfer

he's a keen windsurfer

Pages 46–47

angrily /'æŋgrɪli/ Adverb angrily means someone does something in a way that is aggressive, or with strong displeasure he shouted angrily at the rude driver | she looked at him angrily | the crowd reacted angrily to the decision

Adjective: angry

when you don't listen, it makes me angry bravely /'breɪvli/ Adverb bravely means you do something with courage and are ready to face danger, pain or failure we bravely faced our fears and climbed the mountain | the soldiers fought bravely in the battle | I acted bravely during the emergency

Adjective: brave

you were brave to make that tough decision calmly /'kɑ:mli/ Adverb calmly means you do or say something in a quiet and peaceful way the teacher spoke calmly despite the stressful situation | we calmly explained the procedure to the new employee | they handled the crisis calmly and efficiently

Adjective: calm

please everyone, keep calm – this is just a fire alarm test cave /keɪv/ Noun

a cave is a natural hole in the side of a hill, mountain or cliff they discovered a hidden cave in the mountains | exploring the cave was an exciting adventure | the cave was dark continuing /kən'tɪnjuɪŋ/ Adjective when something or someone is continuing, it is going on without stopping and is in progress the continuing support from the community is appreciated

Verb: continue

are you going to continue the course or have you had enough? | they are continuing their research on climate change | despite the challenges, she continued with her education happily /'hæpɪli/ Adverb happily means in a cheerful or joyful way they lived happily ever after | he happily accepted the job offer | the children played happily in the park

Adjective: happy || Opposite – Adjective: unhappy

we are happy with the colour | I was unhappy they didn't come when they said they would missing /'mɪsɪŋ/ Adjective if someone is missing, they are not where they they should be and no one knows where they are

Collocate: go missing

my mum realized I was missing and called for help | she's been missing for two days | police are looking for a missing person who left home last Tuesday and has not been seen since | there are still several missing passengers following the plane crash | his son went missing two years ago noisily /'nɔɪzɪli/ Adverb noisily means in a loud way the children played noisily in the park | he noisily arrived home late at night | they celebrated noisily

Noun: noise | Adjective: noisy

what's all that noise? | why are the neighbours being so noisy?

peaceful /'pi:sfʊl/ Adjective peaceful means calm and without stress the village was known for its peaceful atmosphere | they looked for a peaceful solution to the situation | she fell into a peaceful sleep

Noun: peace

as long as there's peace and no stress, I'm happy politely /pə'lɪtli/ Adverb politely means in a way that shows good manners or respect for others he politely asked for some more food | she politely declined the invitation | they listened politely to the speaker

Adjective: polite || Opposite – Adjective: impolite

take a gift for the host, it's a polite thing to do | the way you spoke to me was quite impolite rapids /'ræpɪdz/ Noun plural rapids are a section of a river where the water flows very fast and very roughly, making it difficult and dangerous to sail down it we tried rafting down the rapids | these rapids are too dangerous for inexperienced rafters riverbank /'rɪvəbæŋk/ Noun a riverbank is the land along the edge of a river Collocate: along the riverbank they walked along the riverbank at sunset | the children played on the riverbank | the riverbank was muddy after the rain sink /sɪŋk/ Verb sink means to go down below the surface of water the ship started to sink after hitting the iceberg | the boat slowly sank beneath the waves secretly /'si:kɹɪtli/ Adverb secretly means in a hidden way, without others knowing they met secretly to discuss their plans | they secretly recorded their conversation | we secretly admired her

Noun: secret

Collocates: keep a secret | tell a secret can you keep a secret? | they told me their biggest secret surface /'sʊ:fɪs/ Noun the surface is the outside part or top layer of something the surface of the lake was calm | he cleaned the surface of the table | they noticed a scratch on the car's surface tunnel /'tʌnəl/ Noun

a tunnel is an underground passage where people can walk, or where trains or vehicles can drive through

Collocates: through the tunnel | build a tunnel they built a new tunnel under the river | the train entered the dark tunnel | they had to dig a tunnel to reach the other side white-water /waɪt-'wɔ:tə/ Noun uncount white water is a section of river where the water runs very fast, making a sort of white foam on the surface of the water an exciting white-water experience | white-water rafters went past us very fast bottom of the sea /'bɒtəm əv ðə si:/ Phrase the bottom of the sea is the lowest part of the sea, where the seabed is located the shipwreck was found at the bottom of the sea | they used a submarine to explore the bottom of the sea | many unknown creatures live at the bottom of the sea confusion /kən'fju:ʒən/ Noun confusion is the state of being unclear about something, or not understanding it there was a lot of confusion about what to do next | the new policy caused confusion among the employees | he looked around in confusion, not sure where to go

Pages 48–49

Verb: confuse | Adjective: confused

it doesn't take much to confuse me! | I was confused by all the new information cork /kɔ:k/ Noun

a cork is a piece of material that is used to stop liquid coming out of a bottle he pulled the cork out of the bottle deck /dek/ Noun

the deck is the flat surface on a ship where people stand or sit Collocates: on deck | upper deck they enjoyed a meal on the upper deck of the ship | the deck was wet from the sea water coming over the side of the boat | he spent the afternoon cleaning the deck iceberg /'aɪsbɜ:(r)g/ Noun an iceberg is a very large bit of ice floating in the sea, some of which is visible above the surface of the sea but most of which is under the surface we could see the tip of an iceberg about three miles away | icebergs are melting because of global warming | only 10% of an iceberg is visible above the water lifeboat /'laɪfbəʊt/ Noun a lifeboat is a strong but small boat which is kept on a ship for use in emergencies they lowered the lifeboat into the water | the passengers were told to board the lifeboat calmly | the lifeboat was used to rescue the sailors panic /'pænik/ Verb

when someone panics, they act in a way that is hard to control, without thinking, and because of fear don't panic! | try not to panic, but we must leave the building immediately

Noun: panic

there was a panic after they heard the fire alarm passenger steamship /'pæsɪndʒə 'sti:mʃɪp/ Noun a passenger steamship is a large boat powered by steam engines and designed to carry passengers they boarded the passenger steamship for their journey | the passenger steamship was known for its luxurious accommodations remains /rɪ'meɪnz/ Noun plural the remains of someone or something are all that is left of them after they have died or been destroyed

Collocates: the remains of someone/something | human/animal remains

I asked people to treat the remains with respect | they found the remains of three 12th century monks | there were traces of human remains in the cellar | the remains of the house (what was left after a fire) secret mission /'si:kɪt 'mɪʃən/ Phrase a secret mission is an operation or task that is kept hidden from others

Collocate: carry out a secret mission they were given a secret mission to gather intelligence | the details of the secret mission were hidden from the public for years | he carried out the secret mission survivor /sə'vaɪvə/ Noun when someone continues to live after an event in which others have died, they are called a survivor

the rescue team searched for survivors after the earthquake | there were only a few survivors from the plane crash | the survivor was taken to a nearby hospital for treatment

Verb: survive

they managed to survive the terrible storm treat with respect /tri:t wɪð rɪ'spekt/ Phrase to treat with respect means to show consideration and appreciation for someone it is important to treat others with respect | she always treats her elders with respect | everyone deserves to be treated with respect underwater /'ʌndə'wɔ:tə/ Adjective underwater means something is located, used or happening below the surface of the water they used an underwater camera to film the marine life | the underwater visibility was excellent that day | scuba divers explore the underwater world voyage /'vɔɪdʒ/ Noun

a voyage is a long journey, often by sea or in space

Collocates: maiden voyage | long voyage it was a voyage across the Atlantic Ocean | the maiden voyage of the ship was a historic event | the astronauts prepared for their voyage into space

Pages 50–51

attempt /ə'tempt/ Verb

if you attempt something, you try to achieve or complete a difficult task or action we attempted to climb the mountain | I attempted to bake my first cake, but failed

Noun: attempt

Collocate: make an attempt to we made an attempt to cross the ocean bodysurf /'bɒdi sɜ:f/ Verb if you bodysurf, you try and lie on waves to move through the sea, using your body as a sort of surfboard

I tried to bodysurf one wave to the shore, but went under the water | he learned to bodysurf in Cornwall last year | this is the beach where people bodysurf

Noun: bodysurfer

did you know Obama was a good bodysurfer?

beat /'bi:t/ Verb to beat is to hit a person or animal hard and many times in order to hurt them a man was found beaten unconscious consequence /'kɒnsɪkwəns/ Noun a consequence is a result or effect of an action or condition

Collocates: suffer consequences | face the consequences | serious consequences

he faced the consequences of his actions | the decision had serious consequences for the company | they suffered the consequences of their poor planning decision /dɪ'sɪʒən/ Noun a decision is a conclusion someone makes after they've been given a choice

Collocates: make a decision | come up with a decision she made the decision to move to a new city | the final decision was announced yesterday | it was a difficult decision, but it had to be made

Verb: decide | Adjective: decisive you need to decide what you want to do | I'm quite a decisive person and know what I want equipment /ɪ'kwɪpmənt/ Noun uncount equipment is the necessary items for a particular purpose the safety equipment must be worn at all times | they provided the necessary equipment for the climb | she bought new sports equipment for the gym experience /ɪk'spɪəriəns/ Noun an experience is an event or thing that leaves an impression on someone or makes them learn from it

Collocates: have an experience | memorable experience climbing the mountain was a memorable experience | she had an experience that changed her view on life

Verb: experience

you need to experience sleeping under the stars at least once in your life fault /fɔ:lt/ Noun

if a bad situation or a mistake is your fault, you are responsible for causing it. When this happens, you can also say that you are at fault

Collocates: be someone's fault | be at fault it was my own fault – I didn't check the time before I set off | do we know whose fault it was? | it was an unfortunate accident, but the school was not at fault foot of water /fʊt əv 'wɔ:tə/ Phrase a foot of water is a measure of water depth of one foot, or 0.3 metres the basement was flooded with a foot of water | they stood in a foot of water after the rainstorm forecast /'fɔ:kɑ:st/ Noun a forecast is a prediction or estimate of future weather conditions Collocate: weather forecast the weather forecast predicts rain for tomorrow | they relied on an accurate forecast for their travel plans

Verb: forecast

they have forecast rain for tomorrow learned my lesson /lɜ:nd maɪ 'lesən/ Phrase learned my lesson means someone has gained knowledge or understanding from a negative experience after missing the deadline, he learned his lesson | she definitely learned her lesson after the accident | he quickly learned his lesson and never repeated the mistake limit /'lɪmɪt/ Noun your limit is a point or level beyond which you do not or cannot pass he reached the limit of his patience | this is the limit I can climb to lucky to be alive /'lʌki tə bi: ə'laɪv/ Phrase if you're lucky to be alive, you are fortunate to have survived a dangerous or life-threatening situation after the car accident, he felt lucky to be alive | they were extremely lucky to be alive after the earthquake | she knew she was lucky to be alive considering the circumstances move towards /'mu:v tə'wɔ:dz/ Phrasal verb to go in the direction of something means you move towards it the company is moving towards its financial goals | he saw the storm clouds move towards the city oxygen /'ɒksɪdʒən/ Noun uncount oxygen is a colourless gas without a smell that is essential for most forms of life on Earth

Collocates: oxygen supply | level of oxygen the patient was given oxygen through a mask | they measured the oxygen levels in the blood | the oxygen supply on the submarine was running low

race /reɪs/ Verb

if your heart races, it beats much faster than normal because you are excited or afraid

I tried to stay calm, but my heart was racing | my heart starts to race when I think about what happened | this will make your heart race!

reach /ri:tʃ/ Verb

when you reach something, you arrive at a place or a goal she managed to reach the top of the mountain after a long climb | they finally reached an agreement sea animal /si: 'æni:məl/ Noun a sea animal is any creature that lives in the sea children love learning about different sea animals at the aquarium | the ocean is home to a diverse range of sea animals | many sea animals are affected by pollution and climate change sensible /'sensɪbl/ Adjective if someone is sensible, they show good judgment and make practical and reasonable decisions

Collocates: sensible decision | sensible advice

she made a sensible decision to save money for emergencies | it's sensible to wear a helmet when riding a bike | he gave her some sensible advice about managing her time better sore /sɔ:(r)/ Adjective if a part of your body is sore, it is painful and uncomfortable

Collocate: a sore throat

I've got a blocked nose and a horrible sore throat | your eyes may feel dry and sore | his left arm was getting stiff and sore | my whole body was sore

Noun: soreness

the soreness should only last for a few days stormy /'stɔ:mi/ Adjective when the weather is stormy, there are strong winds, heavy rain, and sometimes thunder and lightning

Collocates: stormy weather | a stormy night the weather forecast predicts a stormy night ahead | the ship struggled to navigate through the stormy sea

Noun: storm

there is a storm coming tonight swallow /'swɒləʊ/ Verb

if you swallow something, you make it go down from your mouth into your stomach you shouldn't swallow chewing gum | this pill is too big for me to swallow | she swallowed a chicken bone by accident | my throat hurts when I swallow appear /ə'piə(r)/ Verb to appear means that something becomes visible or comes into sight she always appears calm despite the situation | the stars appeared as the sky grew darker | the man appeared in front of me

Pages 52–53

Noun: appearance | Verb: appear

Collocate: make an appearance he made an appearance at the party | the book just appeared in front of me on the shelf!

beach gear /bi:tʃ ɡɪə/ Noun uncount beach gear are items and equipment used for a day at the beach, such as towels, sun cream, umbrellas and toys don't forget to pack your beach gear before we leave for the trip | they rented some beach gear from a shop | she carried all the beach gear to the car while the kids ran ahead boiling /'bɔɪlɪŋ/ Adjective if the weather is boiling, or boiling hot, it is very hot. You can say you are boiling or boiling hot when you are very hot they said it's going to be boiling hot all week | I'm boiling – can you open the window? | it's boiling in here cargo /ˈkɑː(r)ɡəʊ/ Noun the cargo of a ship, plane, lorry, etc. is all the goods that it is transporting somewhere the ship lost its cargo during the storm | the plane carried a cargo of flour and rice | a cargo ship (one used to transport goods rather than passengers) clutch /klʌtʃ/ Verb

if clutch something, you hold it with a very firm grip he arrived at the door clutching a bunch of flowers | she clutched tightly to the handle of the suitcase | he closed his eyes and clutched her hand collapse /kəˈlæps/ Verb if someone collapses, they suddenly fall down or lie down because they are very tired or ill at the end of the game, we all collapsed on the pitch | he said he was all right, but he collapsed ten minutes later and had to go to hospital | I was ready to collapse when we reached the top of the hill do the dishes /duː ðə ˈdɪʃɪz/ Phrase if you do the dishes, you wash and dry the plates, cups, bowls, etc. that you have just used during a meal whose turn is it to do the dishes? | I'll do the dishes after we've watched the film | let's do the dishes before we go out empty cage /ˈɛmpti keɪdʒ/ Phrase an empty cage is a cage with nothing inside it. A cage is a metal box for animals such as birds he found an empty cage and wondered where the bird had gone | they decided to clean the empty cage before getting a new pet exhausted /ɪɡˈzɔːstɪd/ Adjective if you are exhausted, you are very tired

I was exhausted by the time we got home | sit down – you must be exhausted | I was too exhausted to argue with him | I'm absolutely exhausted

Noun: exhaustion | Verb: exhaust | Adjective: exhausting

Collocate: exhaust yourself he collapsed out of physical exhaustion | she was suffering from exhaustion | he had exhausted himself even before the concert started | all this fresh air has exhausted me | I just want to sleep. It's been an exhausting day full of people /fʊl əv ˈpiːpl/ Phrase when a place is full of people, it is crowded or packed with individuals the room was full of people waiting for the concert to start | the street was full of people celebrating the festival | the restaurant was full of people enjoying their meals lid /lɪd/ Noun

a lid is a cover for a container Collocate: put a lid on something put a lid on the pan | keep the lid on while the potatoes are cooking | I lifted the lid | a tight-fitting lid | a saucepan lid | the dustbin lid odd /ɒd/ Adjective odd shoes, socks, etc. are a pair of them consisting of two items that do not match, instead of two that are the same he went to school wearing odd socks | I got dressed in the dark and didn't realize I had put on odd shoes packed /pækt/ Adjective if a place or object is packed, it is very full of people or things Collocate: packed with something it was a hot day and the beach was packed | every museum was packed with tourists | the train was so packed that I couldn't sit down | the centre of town was absolutely packed this morning | the drink is packed with vitamins | an action-packed film (full of action) pour /pɔː(r)/ Verb

if it is pouring, it is raining heavily. You can also say that it's pouring with rain, or that the rain is pouring down it was pouring outside so we stayed in all afternoon | rain poured down all night | it's not just raining, it's absolutely pouring

Adjective: pouring

he had to walk home through the pouring rain

race /reɪs/ Verb

if you race somewhere, you go there very fast the kids raced along the street | the rabbit raced across the road | the boys raced ahead and got home five minutes before us | two cyclists raced past us down the hill rush /rʌʃ/ Verb to rush means to move very quickly because you need to be somewhere in a hurry

Collocates: rushed down to | rushed off | rushed through

I rushed down the stairs | they had to rush to catch the last train home | she rushed through her homework so she could watch TV | he rushed off to work without eating breakfast search everywhere /sɜːtʃ ˈevriweə/ Phrase when you search everywhere, you look in all possible places for something they searched everywhere for the missing cat but couldn't find it | he searched everywhere in the house for his lost wallet sink /sɪŋk/ Noun

a sink is an open container in a kitchen or bathroom that you can fill with water and use for washing things

Collocate: a kitchen/bathroom sink the kitchen sink was full of water | put the dishes in the sink | the cloth is in the cupboard under the sink | fill the sink with warm water | the sink's blocked (water won't flow out of it properly) stare /steə(r)/ Verb

if you stare at something or someone, you look at it for a long time and with a lot of concentration

Collocate: stare at someone or something everyone was staring out to sea | they have to stare at a computer all day | it's rude to stare at people | she was staring into space | I couldn't stop staring at her | he stared intently at the floor tank /tæŋk/ Noun

a tank is a container, usually made of glass or clear plastic, that you fill with water so that you can keep fish in it

Collocate: a fish tank

the fish had jumped out of the tank | I hate cleaning the fish tank | we've got so many fish now that the tank is too small unbelievable /ʌnbɪ'li:vəbl/ Adjective when something is unbelievable, it is amazing and hard to believe the athlete's performance was truly unbelievable | they offered an unbelievable price for the house | what an unbelievable view!

wash up /wɒʃ ʌp/ Phrasal verb when something washes up, it has been carried by the water to the edge of the water, also known as the shore a lot of things often wash up on the beach after the storm | seaweed and shells were washed up on the shore wander /'wɒndə(r)/ Verb

if you wander somewhere, you walk there casually, without any real purpose

I wandered along the beach, enjoying the silence | she wandered into the gallery not knowing what to expect | they wandered round the exhibition | we wandered through the old town | the kids had wandered off

Noun: wander

Collocate: a wander round somewhere

I'm going to have a wander round the market | we went for a wander round the shops expedition /ˌɛkspə'dɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an expedition is a journey that a group of people make, especially one that they make because they want to go somewhere where no one has gone before or do something that has not been done before this hut was the starting point for Scott's expedition | the expedition will start in June and will take seven weeks | on December 14th, Amundsen's expedition reached the South Pole | two expedition members left the ship in Buenos Aires footage /'fʊtɪdʒ/ Noun uncount footage of a particular event is a film of it or the part of a film which shows this event

Pages 54–55

Collocate: video/film footage the news report showed footage of the festival | they reviewed the security footage to identify the suspect | the documentary included rare footage of wildlife in their natural home industrial landscape /ɪn'dʌstriəl 'lænskəɪp/ Noun an industrial landscape is the environment or scenery that include buildings such as factories

Collocate: changing industrial landscape the industrial landscape had many factories | the city's industrial landscape has changed over the years | city planners are working to change the industrial landscape and create more green spaces

Verb: industrialize | Adjective: industrial joy /dʒɔɪ/ Noun

joy is the feeling of great happiness or pleasure, often resulting from success or a positive experience

Collocate: sense of joy spending time with friends brings me joy | the children's laughter filled the room with joy | he felt a sense of joy after completing the project

Adjective: joyful | Adverb: joyfully

Collocate: joyful experience she had a joyful experience at the party light /laɪt/ Adjective something that is light is enjoyable and not very serious light entertainment (music and comedy that is not very serious) | we made light conversation while we waited for the lecture to start | Dostoevsky was very powerful – I want something light to read now natural landscape /nætʃərəl 'lænskəɪp/ Noun a natural landscape includes the features of the Earth's surface that hasn't been changed by human activity, such as mountains, rivers, forests and wildlife

Collocate: beautiful natural landscape the national park is known for its beautiful natural landscape | she enjoys hiking and exploring the natural landscape | the painting shows the beauty of the natural landscape

Noun: nature | Adjective: natural | Adverb: naturally objective /əb'dʒɛktɪv/ Noun an objective is a goal or aim that someone works towards or tries to achieve Collocate: clear/common/specific/overall objective the objective of the project is to encourage young people to take care of the environment | she set objectives for herself to achieve by the end of the year

Noun: objectivity | Adjective: objective | Adverb: objectively

Collocate: clear objective he dealt with the problem objectively, thinking about everyone's opinions pursue /pə(r)'sju:/ Verb if you pursue someone or something, you chase them and try and get close to them because you want to get them to do something for you we were pursuing sponsors for our new video | Mateo was pursuing a new job opportunity (was trying to get a new job) reservoir /'rezəvwa:/ Noun a reservoir is a large natural or artificial lake used as a source of water supply for drinking

Collocate: natural reservoir the reservoir has water for drinking | they built a new reservoir to store rainwater for dry periods | the reservoir is home to a variety of fish and wildlife socialize /'səʊʃəlaɪz/ Verb when you socialize, you do or take part in activities with others for enjoyment and to make friends

Collocate: socialize with friends/at parties/online/in groups she socializes with her friends at the weekends | socializing with colleagues at work can help build strong working relationships

Adjective: social

Collocate: social media/distancing/network/event/life/skills he added me on social media when we became friends | my nan has a better social life than me | he went to a social event after work still images /stɪl 'ɪmɪdʒɪz/ Phrase still images are photographs or pictures that do not move the museum displayed still images from the early 20th century | he prefers to work with still images rather than videos | the photographer captured some beautiful still images of the landscape timeframe /taɪmfreɪm/ Noun a timeframe is a period of time during which something happens or should be completed, such as a job Collocate: short/long/flexible/specific/set timeframe we need to complete the project within a short timeframe | the company set a timeframe for launching the new product | she told us the timeframe for the training course in the meeting

UNIT 5: A HEALTHY LIFE

Page 57

effort /'ɛfət/ Noun effort is the use of physical or mental energy to achieve something Collocates: make an effort | put in effort they put a lot of effort into planning the event | we made an effort to learn a new language | the team made a joint effort to finish the project on time healthy lifestyle /'helθi 'laɪfstɑɪl/ Phrase a healthy lifestyle is a way of living that promotes good physical and mental health. Often this is related to diet, exercise and stress management

Collocates: maintain a healthy lifestyle | promote a healthy lifestyle

she decided to adopt a healthy lifestyle to improve her well-being | maintaining a healthy lifestyle can reduce the risk of diseases | the doctor encouraged him to lead a healthy lifestyle physically active /'fɪzɪkli 'æktɪv/ Phrase when you're physically active, you do regular physical activities or exercise Collocates: stay physically active | become physically active it is important to stay physically active to maintain good health | children should be physically active for at least an hour a day | he is very physically active and enjoys running marathons recommend /ˌrɛkə'mend/ Verb when you recommend something, you suggest that someone should do something or that something is good for a specific reason the doctor recommended that she get more rest | I highly recommend this book to anyone interested in history | experts generally recommend eating a balanced diet

Noun: recommendation

Collocate: make a recommendation can you make a recommendation for where to go to dinner tonight?

suggest /sə'dʒest/ Verb when you suggest something, you to put forward an idea or plan for someone to consider she suggested that we try the new restaurant in town | the data suggests a significant increase in sales | he gently suggested that we should leave earlier to avoid traffic

Noun: suggestion

Collocate: make a suggestion my mum made the suggestion that I book the early train

Pages 58–59

allergy /'ælədʒi/ Noun

an allergy is when the body and your system reacts to something in a negative way, for example, itchy skin, sneezing, a sore throat

she has a severe allergy to peanuts | many people develop allergies to pollen | he suffers from a food allergy that limits his diet

Adjective: Allergic

Collocate: allergic to

I'm allergic to cats complicated /'kɒmplɪkeɪtɪd/ Adjective when something is complicated, it is difficult to understand or deal with the instructions were too complicated for me to follow | their relationship became more complicated over time

Noun: complication | Verb: complicate there was a complication when we tried to fix the car | why do you always complicate things?

cookery book /'kʊkəri bʊk/ Noun a cookery book is a book which contains recipes and instructions for cooking. It might also be called a cookbook we bought a new cookery book to try out different recipes | his favourite cookery book is filled with traditional Italian dishes crust /krʌst/ Noun

the crust of a loaf or piece of bread, or of the bottom of a pizza, is the outside edge of it that is harder than the softer inside the crust has a really nice flavour | the crust mustn't be more than two centimetres thick | I made some bread yesterday, but the crust was like rock | the crust was burnt

Adjective: crusty

a crusty loaf (with a crisp crust) develop /dɪ'veləp/ Verb develop means to create or produce something over time she developed a new technique for painting | the country has developed rapidly over the past decade

Noun: development

the development of the project has slowed down diabetes /ˌdaɪə'bi:tɪz/ Noun uncount diabetes is a medical condition in which the body cannot produce enough insulin to control the amount of sugar in the blood

I was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes last year | managing diabetes requires careful monitoring of your diet | there are several treatments available for diabetes

Adjective: diabetic

I'm diabetic, which means I can't eat too much sugar diameter /daɪ'æmɪtə/ Noun the diameter is the straight line which passes through the center of a circle, to give it a measurement the diameter of the circle is ten centimetres | what is the diameter of the pizza? | we need to measure the diameter of the wheel ferment /fə(r)'ment/ Verb when food or drink ferments, or when you ferment it, a chemical change happens to it, for example, when the sugar in something changes to alcohol

you have to ferment it before you can eat it | the apple juice had started to ferment because I forgot to put it back in the fridge | fermenting some foods actually increases the vitamin content

Noun: fermentation | Adjective: fermented

the fermentation process takes two or three days | fermented grape juice | kimchi is a Korean dish of fermented cabbage fresh /freʃ/ Adjective when food is fresh, it is recently made and has not been frozen or preserved in any way we had fresh apple pie | is this pizza fresh or is it from yesterday? | I prefer fresh pasta historic /dʒɪ'stɒrɪk/ Adjective when something is historic, it is related to history or the past they visited a historic site during their trip to the city | the discovery was a historic moment in science

Noun: history | Adjective: historical

I studied history at university | a historical object was discovered guaranteed /gə'ren'ti:d/ Verb when you guarantee something, you promise that certain conditions will be met the product comes with a guaranteed money-back offer | satisfaction is guaranteed with every purchase | the company guaranteed delivery within three days ingredient /ɪn'ɡri:diənt/ Noun the ingredients of a dish of food or a drink are all the different things that go into it

I haven't got all the ingredients I need to make the cake | mix the ingredients thoroughly | a list of ingredients | our chef only uses fresh, local ingredients | add the rest of the ingredients after ten minutes manuscript /'mænɪʃkript/ Noun a manuscript is an old document that has been written by hand rather than being printed it's difficult to read these old manuscripts because the handwriting is very strange | we had to wear gloves when examining the older manuscripts | the manuscript was found four hundred years after it vanished | the manuscript is full of interesting information about the Norfolk family in the fourteenth century origin /'ɒrɪdʒɪn/ Noun

something or someone's origin is the point or place where it begins or is created the origin of the tradition goes back to ancient times | she wanted to learn more about her family's origin | the origins of the pizza

Adjective: original | Adverb: originally

our house is two hundred years old, but it still has the original front door | the original idea came from Arthur Lomas | the game originally involved two teams on horses | the canal was originally just 20 km long | our house was originally a baker's shop peel /pi:l/ Verb

when you peel something, you remove the outer covering or skin from a fruit or vegetable

I began to peel the apple | he peeled off the orange's skin | you need to peel the potatoes before boiling them poisonous /'pɔɪzənəs/ Adjective if something is poisonous, it contains a substance that can cause harm or death if it is taken into the body the plant is known to be highly poisonous | they saw a poisonous snake on their hike | the chemicals were poisonous

Noun: poison | Verb: poison

the dog ate rat poison by accident and died | in the story, she was poisoned by an apple protected /prə'tektɪd/ Adjective when food or drink is protected, there is a link between the characteristics of the product and where it comes from, for example, roquefort cheese from France or Rooibos tea from South Africa is the baguette a protected food? | feta cheese is an EU protected food for Greece | baklava is a Turkish protected food qualified /'kwɒlɪfaɪd/ Adjective when someone is qualified, they have the necessary skills, experience, or knowledge to do a particular job or activity

Collocates: qualified in | qualified for she is highly qualified for the position | I'm qualified in coaching | he is a well-qualified candidate for the job

Noun: qualification | Verb: qualify

what qualifications do you have for this role? | I qualified as an architect last year raw /rɔ:/ Adjective if food is raw, it is not cooked eating raw meat can be dangerous | the chicken is pink and still raw ready-made /'redi 'meɪd/ Adjective when food is ready-made, it is prepared in advance they bought a ready-made meal for dinner | it was a ready-made pasta dish recipe /'resɪpi/ Noun a recipe is a set of instructions for preparing a particular dish. It also includes a list of the ingredients you need and how long it takes to cook it

Collocate: follow a recipe

she followed the recipe carefully and the cake turned out perfect | this is my favourite recipe for chocolate cake | he found a simple recipe for homemade bread separately /'sepəreɪtli/ Adverb separately means apart from others the items were packaged separately to avoid damage | packets must not be sold separately | you can only buy these items separately

Verb: separate

please can you separate those bottles so they're not in a box anymore?

speciality /speʃi'ælɪti/ Noun a speciality is a special dish or product that a place is famous for because it's so good pizza is the speciality of Naples | what's your speciality dish you like to cook?

spiral /'spairəl/ Noun a spiral is a line that curves round and round a central point with each curve getting further from the central point

Collocate: in a spiral bend the wire round the post in a tight spiral | she drew a spiral with a triangle in the centre of it | the stones were on the ground in a spiral

Adjective: spiral suitable /'su:təb(ə)l/ Adjective if something is suitable, it is right for a particular person, situation or purpose

Collocate: suitable for someone or something this smaller one might be more suitable | the film isn't suitable for young children | it's going to be cold, so make sure you bring suitable clothes | it's not really suitable as a family car | the classes are suitable for complete beginners

Noun: suitability | Adverb: suitably

she questioned his suitability for the job | we couldn't find a suitably large house in the area that we could afford topping /'tɒpɪŋ/ Noun a topping is something you add on top of the base layer of food, for example, a pizza topping, an ice cream topping cheese and mushrooms are my favourite pizza toppings | she added a chocolate topping to the ice cream | you can choose any topping for your frozen yoghurt vegan /'vi:gən/ Adjective vegan means using or containing no animal products

Collocates: vegan diet | vegan food

I follow a vegan diet and avoid all animal products | they found a restaurant that offers vegan options | vegan food is becoming more popular

Noun: vegan

I've been a vegan since I was a teenager vegetarian /ˌvedʒɪ'tɛəriən/ Noun a vegetarian is a person who does not eat meat because of moral, religious or health reasons

Collocate: be a vegetarian

he has been a vegetarian for over ten years | the menu includes several vegetarian options | we enjoy cooking vegetarian meals for our family

Pages 60–61

avoid /ə'vɔɪd/ Verb

if you avoid something, you make sure you do not do it or experience it avoid going outdoors in bright sunlight | try to avoid repeating words when you write | I managed to avoid the rush hour by leaving an hour early | I think Sam is avoiding me (trying not to see me or speak to me)

Adjective: avoidable

the accident was perfectly avoidable – he just wasn't careful enough

benefit /'benɪfɪt/ Noun

a benefit is an advantage that you get from something one of the benefits of working from home is that you don't waste time travelling twice a day | the health benefits of swimming | the new arrangement will be of benefit to everyone in the community | this change brought no benefit to most of the students

Verb: benefit | Adjective: beneficial

Collocate: beneficial to something we believe the new policy will benefit everyone, not just the rich | the children benefit greatly from having so much space to play in outside | regular exercise is beneficial to health brain-food /breɪn fu:d/ Phrase brain-food is food that is believed to be beneficial for your brain function and health eating fish is considered to be great brain-food | she added nuts and berries to her diet for better brain-food | spinach and kale are excellent brain-foods caffeine /'kæfi:n/ Noun caffeine is a natural substance found in coffee, tea and other plants. People usually have caffeine to increase how awake they are or feel she reduced her caffeine to improve her sleep | coffee is well-known for its high caffeine content | some soft drinks contain a lot of caffeine cut down on /kʌt daʊn ɒn/ Phrasal verb if you cut down on something, you reduce the amount of it that there is, or that you eat or drink of it you need to cut down on sugary foods | I'm trying to cut down on sweets | she cut down on coffee to help her sleep cut out /kʌt aʊt/ Phrasal verb if you cut something out, you stop eating it or doing it because you think it is bad for your health starting next week, I'm going to cut out chips and crisps | she tried to cut out chocolate for a week, but found it too difficult | you can carry on drinking tea, just cut out the sugar diet /'daɪət/ Noun someone's diet is the kinds of food that they eat

Collocates: on a diet | balanced diet | healthy diet we follow a strict vegan diet | a balanced diet is essential for good health | would you say you have a healthy diet?

Verb: diet

I'd find it hard to diet because I enjoy biscuits too much!

energy /'enədʒi/ Noun energy is how much physical or mental effort you have in order to perform a task she felt a sudden boost of energy after eating | the children have a lot of energy in the morning | he needs to rest and save his energy for the marathon focus /'fəʊkəs/ Verb

if you focus, you concentrate attention or effort on something Collocate: focus on he needs to focus more on his studies

Noun: focus

Collocate: main focus our main focus today is to finalize the presentation fresh air /frɛʃ ɛə/ Phrase fresh air is clean, outdoor air that doesn't contain anything damaging, for example smoke or gases

Collocate: get fresh air

we went for a walk to get some fresh air | she loves to breathe in the fresh air of the countryside | after hours indoors, they needed some fresh air give up /gɪv ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you give up something that you do regularly, you stop doing it Collocate: give up doing something it's really hard to give up sweets | I used to collect stamps, but I gave it up when I went to university | my parents gave up their restaurant business and went back to Peru habit /'hæbɪt/ Noun

a habit is something that people do regularly and especially something that is hard to give up

Collocate: bad habits | break habits

I developed good study habits over time | I am trying to break my bad habits | forming good habits can improve your overall health in a hurry /ɪn ə 'hʌri/ Phrase in a hurry means you need to move or act quickly because of a lack of time

I left the house in a hurry this morning | they finished their work in a hurry to catch the train | the team was always in a hurry to get things done junk food /dʒʌŋk fu:d/ Noun uncount junk food is cheap food that is quick and easy to prepare, but that is not very good for you

I spent my three years at university eating junk food | don't eat too much junk food | it's all right to have junk food occasionally, but not regularly | no wonder you're so fat! You eat junk food and never take any exercise outdoor activity /'aʊt.dɔːr æk'tɪvəti/ Noun an outdoor activity is a hobby or task that is done outside such as exercise or walking Collocate: do an outdoor activity they enjoy outdoor activities like hiking and cycling | the school offers various outdoor activities for students pay attention /peɪ ə'tenʃən/ Phrase if you pay attention, you put your focus on someone or something Collocate: pay close attention

please pay attention to the instructions | you need to pay more attention in class | she paid close attention to the details presenter /prɪ'zentə/ Noun a presenter is someone who introduces or hosts television or radio programmes, or podcasts the television presenter introduced the next show | she is a well-known radio presenter | the presenter delivered the evening news protein /'prəʊtiːn/ Noun protein is a nutrient found in food that is essential for growth and repair of the body. Protein can be found in foods like chicken, eggs and cheese

Collocate: protein rich meat and beans are good sources of protein | she increased her protein intake to build muscle | they offer plant-based protein options reduce /rɪ'djuːs/ Verb when you reduce something, you make it smaller or less in amount, degree or size they aim to reduce their carbon footprint | she needs to reduce her sugar intake | the company plans to reduce costs by 10%

Noun: reduction

Collocate: reduction in there has been a reduction in the number of applications relaxation technique /ri:læk'seɪʃən tek'ni:k/ Phrase relaxation techniques are methods or strategies used to reduce stress and promote a restful and relaxed feeling

Collocate: practice relaxation techniques

I practice relaxation techniques to manage my anxiety | they offer classes in various relaxation techniques | learning relaxation techniques can help reduce stress screen time /skriːn taɪm/ Phrase screen time is the amount of time spent using devices with screens, like TVs, computers and phones

Collocates: reduce screen time | limit screen time parents should monitor their children's screen time | he tries to limit his screen time in the hour before bed | I need to reduce my daily screen time spend less time /spend les taɪm/ Phrase if you spend less time on something, you give a smaller amount of time to an activity or task Collocate: spend less time on we decided to spend less time on social media | they need to spend less time watching TV | he tries to spend less time indoors stress /stres/ Noun stress is a feeling of mental or emotional difficulty. Stress can be caused by a number of things, for example, challenging situations, work, money

I experience high levels of stress at work | they are finding ways to manage stress effectively | exercise can help reduce stress

Verb: stress | Adjective: stressful

I try not to stress too much | my work is usually quite stressful take up /teɪk ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you take up a new activity, you start doing it she took up tennis when she was 50 | you should take up swimming – it's a great way to stay fit | after my mum died, my dad took up bird watching | I was so overweight I decided to take up running try out /traɪ aʊt/ Phrasal verb when you try out something, you test or use it to see if it is effective or suitable, or you like it she wanted to try out the new recipe she found online | they try out different marketing strategies to see what works best vitamin /'vɪtəˌmɪn/ Noun vitamins are natural things that you need to have in your diet for normal growth and health

I take vitamins every day to boost my energy | citrus fruits are a rich source of vitamin C

Pages 62–63

author /'ɔːθə/ Noun an author is a writer

she is the author of several best-selling novels | the article was written by a well-known author | he became a published author at a young age beliefs /bɪ'liːfs/ Noun plural beliefs are things that a person thinks and believes in. It could be related to religion, opinions or thoughts religious beliefs | they share similar beliefs about environmental conservation | his beliefs were challenged during the debate Verb: believe

Collocate: believe in what does she believe in?

cheerful /'tʃɪəfəl/ Adjective if someone is cheerful, they are happy and positive you're not your usual cheerful self today | Mai was in a cheerful mood | the office was a very cheerful place demonstrate /'dɛmənstreɪt/ Verb when you demonstrate something, you show or explain how something works or is done the teacher will demonstrate how to solve the problem | he needs to demonstrate his ability to lead the team | can you demonstrate how this works?

Noun: demonstration

Collocate: do a demonstration the teacher did a demonstration on how to use the program disease /dɪ'ziːz/ Noun a disease is a serious illness

Collocate: heart disease rats can cause disease | he died of heart disease | she suffers from a blood disease | I don't want to catch the disease encourage /ɪn'kʌrɪdʒ/ Verb when you encourage someone or something, you give support, confidence or hope teachers should encourage students to ask questions | he was encouraged by his friends to follow his dreams | the programme encourages healthy eating habits

Noun: encouragement

Collocates: receive encouragement | give encouragement

I received a lot of encouragement from my parents when I was younger | it's important to give encouragement to your friends genuine /'dʒenjuɪn/ Adjective something that is genuine is real and not false this jacket is genuine leather | a genuine laugh | it's a genuine Picasso (it really was painted by Picasso) | the photo is genuine

Adverb: genuinely

he is a genuinely warm and caring man hard on yourself /hɑːd ɒn jɔː'self/ Phrase when you are hard on yourself, you are highly critical, demanding or tough with yourself about things you do don't be too hard on yourself – everyone makes mistakes | I am often hard on myself when I don't meet my own expectations | he tends to be very hard on himself after a failure ignore /ɪg'noː/ Verb when you ignore someone or something, you do not pay attention to them because you don't want to we chose to ignore the signs | I often ignore my parents' advice | they decided to ignore the rules and do it their way interview /'ɪntəvjuː/ Verb when someone interviews you, they ask you questions on a specific topic.

she was interviewed for the position of manager last week | the journalist interviewed several witnesses at the scene | we were interviewed by a detective

influence /'ɪnfluəns/ Verb

to influence someone means to make them think or do something that they didn't before she uses her position to influence important decisions | the teacher tried to influence the debate to see if the students would reject the opinion

Noun: influence

Collocate: have an influence on my parents had a great influence on my career choice | they have an influence on me links to other sources /lɪŋks tə 'ʌðə sɔ:sɪz/ Phrase when there are links to other sources, there are things to click on which take you to another page. These pages are called sources, which are resources that you obtain information from to use yourself the article provides links to other sources for further reading | you can find links to other sources at the end of the document | the website includes links to other sources of information laughter /'lɑ:ftə/ Noun laughter is when you find something funny, and you smile and make a happy-sounding noise the comedian's joke caused laughter from the audience | the sound of children's laughter filled the park

Verb: laugh

Collocates: laugh at | laugh with

I can't help but laugh at their terrible jokes! | are you laughing with me or at me?

optimistic /ˌɒptɪ'mɪstɪk/ Adjective when you are optimistic, you are positive and see the positive side of situations Collocate: optimistic about

she has an optimistic view on life | despite the challenges, he remains optimistic | the team is optimistic about their chances of winning

Opposite – Adjective: pessimistic

if you think the glass is half empty, you are pessimistic risk /rɪsk/ Noun

a risk is the possibility of something bad happening at some time in the future

Collocates: take a risk | high risk there is a high risk of rain tomorrow | I decided to take the risk and start my own business | they are working to reduce the risk of accidents

Verb: risk

I want to risk the prize money and answer another question study /'stʌdi/ Noun a study is a detailed examination and analysis of a subject. A study usually involves research and data collection

Collocate: conduct a study a study found that regular exercise can improve mental health | they conducted a study on the effects of no sleep | the results of a recent study were published online style of writing /staɪl əv 'raɪtɪŋ/ Phrase someone's style of writing is the way in which they write your style of writing is very descriptive | they have a unique style of writing | the report was written in a formal style of writing survey /'sʊ:veɪ/ Noun

a survey is a number of questions designed to gather information or data about something

Collocates: conduct a survey | do a survey | complete a survey they conducted a survey to understand customer satisfaction | the survey results showed a high level of approval | once you have completed the survey, please send it back terrified /'terɪfaɪd/ Adjective if you are terrified, you are very frightened and scared Collocate: terrified of

we were terrified of flying | he looked absolutely terrified during the storm | they were terrified by the darkness topic /'tɒpɪk/ Noun the topic of something is the subject that you talk, write or learn about climate change is a common topic of discussion | the topic of her research is renewable energy | they avoided the topic of politics at the dinner table whichever /wɪtʃ'evə/ Determiner whichever is used to indicate anything or anyone out of a group. It means you do not choose something specific you can choose whichever option suits you best | take whichever route gets you there fastest | whichever one you pick, you can't go wrong

Pages 64–65

as a result /æz ə rɪ'zʌlt/ Phrase as a result is used to talk about the consequences of something the weather was bad and, as a result, the game was postponed | she studied hard and, as a result, got excellent grades | they didn't market the product well and, as a result, sales were low cafeteria /kæfɪ'tɪərɪə/ Noun a cafeteria is a place you go to buy coffee, snacks and food they ate lunch together in the school cafeteria | the cafeteria offers a variety of healthy options | she works in the company cafeteria during lunch hours chop /tʃɒp/ Verb

when you chop something, you cut it with something sharp

Collocates: chop up | chop into pieces

I chopped the onions for the salad | he went outside to chop some wood for the fire | the recipe says to chop the vegetables

consequently /'kɒnsɪkwəntli/ Adverb

consequently means the result of something. It has a similar meaning to as a result and therefore

I didn't study for the test and, consequently, I failed | she missed the train and, consequently, was late for the meeting crispy /'krɪspi/ Adjective when food is crispy, it is dry and you need to bite it or chew it to eat it the fried chicken was perfectly crispy | I like my food to be a bit crispy | the edges of the pie were golden and crispy delicious /dɪ'lɪʃəs/ Adjective when something is delicious it tastes very good and you like it the chocolate cake was absolutely delicious | they served a delicious meal at the restaurant | he made a delicious pasta dish for dinner express /ɪk'spres/ Verb when you express something, you say your opinion, thoughts and feeling on it Collocate: express yourself

he expressed his gratitude with a thank you note | she found it hard to express her feelings | they expressed their concerns about the project flavour /'fleɪvə/ Noun the flavour of something is the way it tastes the soup has a strong flavour | I added herbs to improve the flavour of the dish | vanilla is my favourite ice cream flavour

Verb: flavour

add salt and pepper to flavour the dish fry /fraɪ/ Verb

when you fry something, you cook it in a pan with hot oil

I like to fry my eggs in butter | they decided to fry the fish for dinner | I prefer to fry chicken instead of roasting it

Adjective: fried fried chicken is my favourite food herb /hɜ:b/ Noun

a herb is a plant that you can add to food to give it flavour, for example, coriander, thyme, parsley she added fresh herbs to the salad | they grow a variety of herbs in their garden | dried herbs can be used instead of fresh ones grill /grɪl/ Verb

when you grill something, you cook food on a flat, metal object and turn over the food during cooking to cook it on both sides he likes to grill steaks on the barbecue | they grilled vegetables for the side dish | I decided to grill the fish instead of frying it juicy /'dʒu:si/ Adjective when food is juicy, it is delicious and has a lot of juice. A steak can be juicy, which means it is not dry the oranges were sweet and juicy | dad cooked a juicy steak for our dinner

Noun: juice would you like some fresh orange juice?

lead to /li:d tə/ Phrasal verb lead to means to cause something to happen or exist poor diet can lead to health problems | your actions may lead to serious consequences | the investigation could lead to new discoveries melt /melt/ Verb

when something melts, it goes from a solid structure to a liquid structure because of heat she watched the chocolate melt in the pan | the cheese began to melt on top of the burger | he waited for the ice to melt

Adjective: melted

I love melted cheese – it's so delicious mild /maɪld/ Adjective when food is mild, it is not strong in flavour this has a mild taste | I prefer mild food to spicy food result in /rɪ'zʌlt ɪn/ Phrasal verb results in refers to the outcome of a situation the changes could result in improved performance | your hard work will result in success | the delay may result in higher costs salty /'sɔ:lti/ Adjective when food is salty, it has a lot of salt the soup was too salty for my taste | he prefers salty snacks like pretzels and crisps | I like my steak to be quite salty can you pass me the salt, please?

Noun: salt

savoury /'seɪvəri/ Adjective something that is savoury tastes of salt or spice rather than tasting sweet a savoury snack | I much prefer savoury food to sweet food | plantain is a sort of savoury banana | I like to finish a meal with something savoury sell-by date /sel baɪ deɪt/ Noun the sell-by date of food, flowers, etc. is the date after which they should not be sold because they will not be fresh any more most food is still fit to eat a few days after the sell-by date | I always check the sell-by date before I buy a carton of milk | these doughnuts are past their sell-by date spicy /'spaɪsi/ Adjective when food is spicy, it is hot because of different spices, for example, chilli the curry was very spicy | my family loves eating spicy food | they made a spicy sauce for the chicken shall I add some spice to the dish?

Noun: spice

stall /stɔ:l/ Noun

a stall is an outdoor place or stand where people sell things, for example, in a market

Collocates: food stall | market stall they bought fresh fruit from the market stall | he set up a stall to sell homemade crafts | the vegan food stall at the festival was very popular street food /stri:t fu:d/ Noun street food is food and drinks which are ready to eat and for sale in an outdoor area like a market

Collocate: eat street food they enjoyed trying different street food during their travels | street food vendors offer a variety of delicious options | she ate some street food on her way home sweet and sour /swi:t ənd saʊə/ Adjective sweet and sour is a combination of food which is sugary and also tangy (a strong flavour) the sweet and sour chicken was delicious | I made a sweet and sour sauce for the stir-fry | they like the sweet and sour flavour combination tasty /'teɪsti/ Adjective tasty means delicious, or having a nice taste the pasta was very tasty | she always makes tasty snacks for the party | they found the soup to be quite tasty

Noun: taste | Verb: taste

the taste of the cake was amazing | have you tasted that flavour before?

throw out /'θrəʊ aʊt/ Phrasal verb when you throw out something, you get rid of it

I decided to throw out my old clothes | they were throwing out the rubbish when we arrived | she considered throwing out the old furniture waste /'weɪst/ Verb

when you waste something, you use it without care or purpose

I felt that my time was wasted on the project | they wasted a lot of money on the failed experiment | food shouldn't be wasted | don't waste that food, I'll eat it tomorrow

Pages 66–67

adapt /ə'dæpt/ Verb when you adapt something, you make something suitable for a new use or purpose. You change it they had to adapt to the new climate | she adapted quickly to her new job | the software was adapted for use on different devices ancient /'eɪnʃ(ə)nt/ Adjective something that is ancient is very old an ancient legend | an ancient burial site (where people were buried a long time ago) | we cannot accurately estimate the population of ancient Rome average /'ævərɪdʒ/ Adjective average means a number which is typical or normal

Collocates: on average | an average of | above average my grades are above average | the average temperature this month is quite high | there are an average of 100 students on the course | on average, there is 3mm of rainfall

Verb: average

our rent averages $850 per month blow away /bləʊ ə'weɪ/ Phrasal verb when someone or something blows you away, you are completely surprised and amazed by it Collocate: blown away by they were blown away by the fireworks display | she was completely blown away by his talent | the news of their engagement blew everyone away boost productivity /bu:st prɒdʌk'tɪvɪti/ Phrase to boost productivity means to increase the efficiency and amount of work someone produces they developed new strategies to boost productivity | improving office conditions can boost productivity | the company aims to boost productivity by upgrading its equipment bow and arrow /bəʊ ənd 'ærəʊ/ Noun a bow and arrow is a weapon which has a curved strip of wood with a string attached at each end, and a long piece of wood you pull back on the string to fire it towards a target

Collocates: use a bow and arrow | shoot a bow and arrow

I learned to use a bow and arrow at summer camp | they practiced shooting the bow and arrow in the garden | the bow and arrow is a traditional weapon in many cultures curious /'kjʊəriəs/ Adjective if you are curious about something, you want to know more about it Collocates: very curious | be curious (to know/hear/learn) about something he was very curious when he saw the bottle with a message inside | the museum has a lot to offer the curious visitor | I'm very curious to know what's inside the suitcase | she wasn't in the least curious about where he had been

Noun: curiosity | Adverb: curiously

Collocates: curiosity about something | satisfy your curiosity | out of curiosity just out of curiosity, how much did it cost you? | the article did little to satisfy his curiosity about the event | she looked curiously into all the cupboards and wardrobes evolution /i:və'lu:ʃən/ Noun the evolution of something is the gradual development of it the evolution of technology has increased rapidly | they studied the evolution of human society

Verb: evolve

their business has evolved into something bigger than they imagined fertilizer /'fɜ:tɪlaɪzə/ Noun fertilizer is a chemical or a natural substance that you add to the ground to help something grow

Collocates: use fertilizer | spray fertilizer they used organic fertilizer in their garden | chemical fertilizers | she sprayed fertilizer onto the plants every month harvest /'hɑ:vɪst/ Verb to harvest something means to pick or collect something, for example, plants or crops they harvested the wheat in late summer | harvest the crops hunting skills /'hʌntɪŋ skɪlz/ Phrase someone's hunting skills is their ability to follow and kill something

I developed my hunting skills from a young age | they taught me the necessary hunting skills for survival | her hunting skills were impressive

Verb: hunt

you are not allowed to hunt here personal account /'pɜ:sənəl ə'kaʊnt/ Phrase a personal account is an individual's point of view and experiences she provided a personal account of her travels | his personal account of the event was emotional | they shared their personal accounts of the disaster quintessential /ˌkwɪntɪˈsɛnʃəl/ Adjective when something is quintessential, it represents a typical example

Paris is the quintessential city of romance | you are the quintessential example of a great teacher | their home is the quintessential modern farmhouse seashell /ˈsiːʃəl/ Noun a seashell is often found on a beach. It is the hard, outer part of a water creature such as a snail or mussel they collected seashells along the shore | the children found a large seashell on the beach | she used seashells to decorate the picture frame soil /sɔɪl/ Noun soil is where plants grow. It is the brown, top layer of earth the farmer tested the soil before planting crops | water the soil till the soil /tɪl ðə sɔɪl/ Phrase to till the soil means to prepare land for growing the farmers till the soil before planting seeds | they used a machine to till the soil trim /ˈtrɪm/ Verb to trim means to make shorter, or to cut

I was trimming the hedge in the garden | she decided to trim her hair | they are trimming the budget to reduce costs way of life /weɪ əv laɪf/ Phrase a way of life is the method and approach someone lives their life Collocate: traditional way of life their way of life has remained unchanged for generations | the rural way of life is very different from urban living | they were looking for a simpler way of life

UNIT 6: MYSTERIES

Page 69

according to /ə'kɔːdɪŋ tə/ Phrase according to means you are referring to a reference, report or something someone has said according to the weather forecast, it will rain tomorrow | I got the information according to the latest report | according to experts, the economy is improving coast road /kəʊst rəʊd/ Phrase a coast road is where you can drive along a road next to the sea or ocean they drove along the coast road to enjoy the view | the coast road offers views of the ocean | we followed the coast road to the next town edit /'ɛdɪt/ Verb

when you edit something, for example, a written text, you change it so that it is better or correct

I need to edit the report before submitting it | you spent hours editing the video for your project | they hired an expert to edit the book

Noun: editor

I worked as an editor at a publishing company get a shot /get ə ʃɒt/ Phrase to get a shot means to have the chance to take a photo they tried to get a shot of the rare bird | I'm going to stop the car to get a shot of the sunset kite surfer /kaɪt 'sɜːfə(r)/ Noun a kite surfer is a person who enjoys kite surfing. Kite surfing is a sport where you ride on a board while being pulled by a kite in the air

we watched the kite surfers at the beach | kite surfers need strong winds to perform tricks | there were many kite surfers enjoying the waves

Verb: kite surf

I've never tried kite surfing, but it looks fun!

mystery /'mɪstəri/ Noun a mystery is something that is difficult or impossible to explain the cause of the accident remains a mystery | I enjoy reading mystery novels | the disappearance of the keys is a complete mystery

Adjective: mysterious

it is a mysterious story and no one knows what happened park a car /pɑːk ə kɑː/ Phrase when you park a car, you stop it and leave it in a space temporarily it can be difficult to park a car in the city | she found a space to park the car near the entrance | I taught my daughter how to park a car safely

Pages 70–71

attack /ə'tæk/ Verb to attack means to take aggressive or violent action against another person Collocate: attacked by the delivery driver was attacked by a dog | the village was attacked during the night

Noun: attack

there was an attack on the shop last night and the windows were smashed backpack /'bækpæk/ Noun a backpack is a bag you wear on your back

I carried my books in a backpack | he packed his backpack for the hiking trip | the backpack was heavy

Verb: backpack

I would love to backpack around a different continent be in control /'biː ɪn kən'trəʊl/ Phrase to be in control means you feel like you have the power in a situation

Collocate: be in control of

I like being in control of my own schedule | he felt he was in control during the meeting | it's important to be in control during a crisis calculator /'kælkjuleɪtə/ Noun a calculator is a device which allows you to work out mathematic sums or calculations

Collocate: use a calculator

I used a calculator to check my maths homework | the scientific calculator has many functions | you can use a calculator in the exam

Verb: calculate can you calculate this on your phone for me?

chemical /'kæmɪkəl/ Noun a chemical is a substance obtained or used in a chemical process the factory uses chemicals in its manufacturing process | some household cleaning products contain harmful chemicals | they studied the reaction between different chemicals download /daʊn'ləʊd/ Verb when you download something such as music, video, or other materials, you take it from the internet and put on your computer it took an hour to download the film | you can download the whole book from our site | he's been downloading music all evening |

Noun: download || Opposites – Noun: upload | Verb: upload a free music download | we have to pay for our video downloads | the upload took nearly an hour | she uploaded the pictures to her social media fear /fɪə/ Noun

fear is the bad feeling you get when you are in danger or when something thing frightens you

Collocate: a fear of

I have a fear of spiders | it will be helpful for your career to overcome your fear of public speaking

Verb: fear

we fear that the project won't go ahead frightened /'fraɪtnd/ Adjective

if you are frightened, you are afraid, scared or anxious about something

Collocates: feel frightened | look frightened

the child was frightened by the loud noise | many people are frightened of heights | they were frightened when they heard the news horror movie /'hɒrə 'mu:vi/ Noun horror movies are scary films

Collocates: watch horror movies | enjoy horror movies

I love watching horror movies | they watched a scary horror movie last night | avoid horror movies because they'll give you nightmares limited supply /'lɪmɪtɪd sə'plaɪ/ Phrase a limited supply of something means there is not much left Collocate: have a limited supply of

there is a limited supply available | they only have a limited supply of the product in stock | due to the limited supply, prices have increased queue /kju:/ Noun

a queue is when people stand in line to wait for their turn to do something Collocates: wait in a queue | a queue for they stood in a long queue | the queue moved slowly | people were in a queue to buy tickets for the concert

Verb: queue

we need to queue to get in respond /rɪ'spɒnd/ Verb when you respond, you answer or reply Collocate: respond to

she didn't know how to respond to his question | they responded quickly to the emergency | we tried to respond positively to the feedback

Noun: response

what response did the manager give to the question?

rollercoaster /'rɒləkəʊstə/ Noun a rollercoaster is a type of ride at a park which you sit on and it travels along a track. It might also go upside down

Collocate: go on a rollercoaster they went on a rollercoaster | the new rollercoaster at the theme park is very popular rubber band /'rʌbə bænd/ Noun a rubber band is a piece of material that stretches so you can hold things together they used a rubber band to hold the papers together | the rubber band broke when I pulled it too hard | they wrapped a rubber band around the box scared of heights /skeəd əv haɪts/ Phrase if you are scared of heights, you do not like being in high places

I am very scared of heights | it is normal to feel scared of heights when looking down from tall buildings | they were always scared of heights, even as children skydiving /'skaɪdaɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount skydiving is an extreme sport where you jump out of a plane with a parachute. A parachute is something that opens when you're in the air to stop you falling too quickly

Collocate: go skydiving

I went skydiving for the first time last weekend | they enjoy skydiving | he wants to try skydiving with an instructor would you like to skydive one day or would you find it too scary?

Verb: skydive

stay alive /steɪ ə'laɪv/ Phrase to stay alive means to avoid dying they struggled to stay alive in the conditions | we needed to find food and water to stay alive unpleasant /ʌn'plezənt/ Adjective when someone or something is unpleasant, it is not nice the smell in the room was very unpleasant | they had an unpleasant experience at the hotel

Opposite – Adjective: pleasant we had a pleasant experience at the restaurant

Pages 72–73

achieve /ə'tʃi:v/ Verb when you achieve something, you succeed in doing something you've been working towards Collocates: achieve a goal | achieve success the team worked hard to achieve their goal | the company achieved significant growth this year | they achieved great success

Noun: achievement | Adjective: achievable passing that test was such an achievement! | do you think doing the work by Tuesday is achievable for you?

archaeologist /ɑ:kɪ'blɒdʒɪst/ Noun an archaeologist is someone who studies history from sites and historical objects Collocate: work as an archaeologist the archaeologist discovered ancient pottery at the site | archaeologists often work in remote locations | an archaeologist's work can reveal a lot about past cultures

Noun: archaeology | Adjective: archaeological

my son studies archaeology at university | there has been an archaeological discovery archaeology /ˌɑːkɪˈɒlədʒi/ Noun archaeology is the study of human history through objects and physical remains Collocate: study archaeology archaeology provides a way into ancient civilizations | studying archaeology requires a lot of fieldwork | the university offers a degree in archaeology

Noun: archaeologist | Adjective: archaeological Collocate: become an archaeologist

I wish I had studied to become an archaeologist | there has been an archaeological discovery ceremony /ˈsɛrɪməni/ Noun a ceremony is a formal event held on a special occasion

Collocates: attend a ceremony | conduct a ceremony the village held a ceremony to celebrate the harvest | many cultures have ceremonies to mark important life events | the ceremony was conducted with great respect conclude /kənˈkluːd/ Verb to conclude means to bring something to the end the meeting was about to conclude | they concluded the report with several recommendations | to conclude, the results were very promising

Noun: conclusion

Collocates: come to a conclusion | make a conclusion we came to a conclusion that we need to sell the house | don't forget to include a conclusion at the end of your essay culture /ˈkʌltʃə/ Noun culture is the ideas, customs and social behaviour of a particular people or society Collocate: diverse culture the museum shows the culture of the indigenous people | understanding different cultures can help with respect direct /dɪˈrekt/ Verb to direct means to guide or manage people by giving orders or instructions the film was directed by a famous filmmaker | they directed the team with clear instructions | efforts were directed towards improving the system drawing /ˈdrɔːɪŋ/ Noun

if you draw something, you use a pen or pencil to make a picture of it. The picture that you make is called a drawing, and the activity of doing this is also called drawing

Collocate: a drawing of something or someone what a lovely drawing | a drawing of the Eiffel Tower | a book of pencil drawings | we saw his drawings in an exhibition in Paris

Verb: draw

it's easy to draw a horse | can you draw a picture of your house? | drawing is good fun | she's good at drawing drone /drəʊn/ Noun

a drone is a small aircraft that you use a controller in order to move it. It can take images and videos

Collocates: fly a drone | use a drone the drone captured images of the coast | drones are often used for surveillance and delivery | flying a drone requires skill and practice fascinating /ˈfæsɪneɪtɪŋ/ Adjective when something or someone is fascinating, it is amazing and extremely interesting Collocate: find something fascinating the history of the ancient civilization is fascinating | they found the documentary absolutely fascinating | it's fascinating to learn about different cultures

Adjective: fascinated

figure /ˈfɪɡə(r)/ Noun

a figure is something that is in the shape of a human, especially in a picture, drawing or photograph

I could see a figure standing by the gate | an abstract sculpture based on human figures | the two figures in the painting represent love and loyalty | I can't draw figures very well, so I prefer doing landscapes function /ˈfʌŋkʃən/ Noun the function of something is its purpose the main function of the device is to track fitness activities | it is essential for the heart to function properly | they need to understand how the system functions

Adjective: functional we take a functional approach image /ˈɪmɪdʒ/ Noun an image shows something through art or a photo

Collocates: create an image | capture an image the artist created a beautiful image of the landscape | they used a digital camera to capture the image | the company works hard to maintain a positive public image

Inca road /ˈɪŋkə rəʊd/ Noun the Inca road was an ancient network of roads built by the Inca civilization across the Andes in South America they travelled along the ancient Inca road | the Inca road system connected various parts | historians study the construction of the Inca road notice /ˈnəʊtɪs/ Verb to notice something means to become aware of it they noticed a change in the weather | the manager noticed the improvement in performance | no one noticed the missing book progress /prəˈɡres/ Verb to progress means to improve or develop over a period of time the project progressed steadily over the months | they have progressed well in their studies | the construction work progressed rapidly

Noun: progression

there has been a progression on the project province /ˈprɒvɪns/ Noun a province is an area or division of a country they visited a rural province during their trip | the northern province is known for its natural beauty | the province is governed by a local council overnight /'əʊvənait/ Adjective overnight means from one day to the next and through the night

Collocates: stay overnight | happen overnight they decided to stay overnight at the hotel | the change didn't happen overnight | the band became an overnight success region /'ri:dʒən/ Noun

a region is a part of a country which can be defined but does not have specific limits the region is known for its cheese | they travelled to the northern region of the country | the government plans to develop the entire region

Adjective: regional these are regional trains not national ones represent /ˌreprɪˈzent/ Verb to represent something means to symbolize or be associated with something the flag represented the country | they were well represented at the conference | the lawyer represented the client in court satellite /'sætəlaɪt/ Noun a satellite is an electronic device that is sent into space and moves around the earth. It is used for collecting information or providing a signal for communication

Collocates: weather satellites | communication satellites the company launched new communication satellites | weather satellites provide important data for forecasts | they use satellites to monitor environmental changes shape /ʃeɪp/ Noun

a shape is the outline of a figure or area they learned about different geometric shapes in class | the artist created various shapes with clay | the clouds formed interesting shapes in the sky stuck in traffic /stʌk ɪn 'træfɪk/ Phrase when you are stuck in traffic, you are in a vehicle which is not moving because of a specific reason, like there are too many cars on the road or there is an accident they got stuck in traffic on the way to the airport | always leave early to avoid getting stuck in traffic | many people were stuck in traffic for hours technique /tek'ni:k/ Noun

a technique is a way of doing a specific task

Collocates: special technique | develop a technique they used a special technique to complete the painting | the scientist developed a new technique for the experiment | proper technique is important in any sport

Pages 74–75

authorities /ɔ:'θɒrɪti/ Noun plural the authorities are people in power such as the police Collocate: local authorities the authorities are investigating the incident | local authorities gave a warning about the storm | public health authorities track /træk/ Verb

to track someone is to watch, follow or monitor them online or offline Collocate: be tracked by the package is being tracked online | every move is tracked by surveillance cameras | we are tracking the missing phone through GPS captain /'kæptɪn/ Noun a captain is the person in charge of a boat or commercial aircraft the captain gave orders to the crew | the captain stayed on the ship | the airline pilot is also known as the captain capture /'kæptʃə(r)/ Verb to capture someone means to catch them and make them a prisoner they captured two enemy soldiers during the night | the prisoner injured a security guard before being captured by police

Noun: capture

he avoided capture for several weeks | newspapers reported the capture of both gunmen coast /kəʊst/ Noun

the coast is the region of land by the sea we moved to the coast after I retired | the weather along the coast is always a bit warmer | the coast road always has a lot of traffic | the east coast of Scotland

Adjective: coastal spectacular coastal paths | the smaller coastal towns were very pretty | coastal areas were badly affected by the storm contact /'kɒntækt/ Noun uncount if you are in contact with someone, you are able to communicate easily with them, or you already communicate regularly

Collocates: be in contact | keep in contact | lose contact (with someone or something) contact was lost after three hours | we kept in contact after we left university | there's been no contact with the ship for 12 hours | are you still in contact with your cousin in Bahrain?

Verb: contact you can contact me by email or post something on my socials crossing the sea /'krɒsɪŋ ðə si:/ Phrase crossing the sea means to travel from one port to another by boat they faced many challenges while crossing the sea | crossing the sea took several days | they planned the route carefully before crossing the sea destroy /dɪ'strɔɪ/ Verb to destroy something means to damage it so badly that it no longer exists or works the hurricane will likely destroy many homes | efforts were made to destroy the old documents | they planned to destroy the abandoned building disappearance /ˌdɪsə'piərəns/ Noun a disappearance means you no longer know where someone or something is Collocates: sudden disappearance | disappearance of the sudden disappearance of the boat is a mystery | authorities are investigating the disappearance of the child | the disappearance of the documents was reported to the police

Verb: disappear

the cat disappeared for three days, but eventually came home enormous /ɪ'nɔ:məs/ Adjective enormous means very, very big the project required an enormous amount of resources | an enormous plane | the task ahead seemed enormous explanation /ˌɛksplə'neɪʃən/ Noun an explanation is when someone provides a clear account of something Collocates: provide an explanation for | detailed explanation the teacher provided a clear explanation of the topic | an explanation was required for the unexpected event | they offered a detailed explanation of the procedure

Verb: explain

can you explain this task to me again, please?

fly /flaɪ/ Verb

if you fly somewhere, you go there in a plane we flew to Helsinki | I'd rather go by train than fly | we flew economy to Berlin (we had the cheapest possible tickets) | I've only once flown business class (in more comfortable and more expensive seats) | British Airways flies to over 300 different airports in the world

Noun: flight

it's a ten-hour flight (journey in a plane) | our flight time this afternoon will be two hours and 20 minutes | we hope you enjoyed the flight | you can get really cheap flights to Prague headline news /'hedlɪn nju:z/ Phrase headline news is stories that deserve to be the main story of the day

Collocate: make headline news the story made headline news | today's headline news includes a major economic announcement | the earthquake was headline news around the world height of fame /haɪt əv feɪm/ Phrase when someone is at the height of fame, they are as famous as they could be or have been

Collocate: at the height of fame the actor reached the height of fame in the 1990s | during the height of fame, the musician released lots of hits | they achieved the height of fame after the award-winning performance historian /hɪ'stɔ:riən/ Noun a historian is a person who studies and writes about the past for work the historian has found new evidence about the ancient civilization | some historians often use digital tools for their research | the work of historians helps us understand our past

Noun: history | Adjective: historical

I studied history at university | a historical object was discovered land /lənd/ Verb

when a pilot lands a plane, or when the plane lands, it comes down to the ground after a journey through the air

our plane landed on time | we're due to land at 6:30 | we didn't get off the plane for nearly an hour after we landed | she planned to land on a tiny Pacific island

Noun: landing

the landing was rather bumpy (it wasn't smooth) lighthouse /'laɪthaʊs/ Noun a lighthouse is a tall tower with a light at the top. It is usually located at the end of a piece of land to help ships avoid danger the lighthouse guides ships safely to shore | they visited an old lighthouse during their trip | the lighthouse operates automatically with a powerful light navigator /'nævɪgeɪtə(r)/ Noun a navigator is someone who works out a route on a long or difficult journey and keeps track of where a ship, plane, car, etc. is and the direction it is going in no one knows what happened to Earhart and her navigator | a good knowledge of maths is useful for a ship's navigator | the captain was an excellent navigator | a Spanish explorer and navigator

Noun: navigation | Verb: navigate navigation has become easier with satnavs and GPS | I'll drive if you navigate | we navigated our way out of the city centre power cut /'paʊə kʌt/ Noun a power cut is when the supply of electricity is interrupted Collocates: experience a power cut | have a power cut the entire neighbourhood experienced a power cut last night | work was delayed due to a power cut | they lit candles during the power cut record /'rekɔ:(r)d/ Noun a record of an event is all the information about it that is kept so that people can look at it later

Collocate: keep records the records show that the house was originally built in 1908 | no record remains of the trial in 1644 | if you don't keep records properly, it will cause problems later | I'll check my records to see when the accident happened

Verb: record

record your results as accurately as possible record book /'rekɔ:d bʊk/ Noun a record book is where data from past visitors or situations is written and kept the achievement was entered into the record book | they keep a record book for all agreements | historical events were noted in the record book

Verb: record

record your results as accurately as possible

refuel /ri:'fjuəl/ Verb to refuel means to get more fuel, for example, petrol, in order to complete a journey, because you have or are running out the plane had to land to refuel before continuing its journey | they stopped to refuel the car during the road trip | the ship needed to refuel before heading to the next port

Noun: fuel

we need to put some fuel in the car satisfied /'sætɪsfaɪd/ Adjective when someone is satisfied, they are pleased Collocate: feeling satisfied the customers were very satisfied with the service | they felt satisfied after completing the project | the results of the experiment left the researchers satisfied

Noun: satisfaction | Verb: satisfy

there is no satisfaction in the result of the case | the answer satisfied the teacher solo /'səʊləʊ/ Adverb

if you do something solo, you do it on your own without anyone else being with you to help the first woman to fly solo around the world | the song can be performed solo or with a choir

Noun: solo | Adjective: solo

he performed a solo at the concert in Los Angeles | a ten-minute guitar solo | the piece was written for solo piano spy /spy:/ Noun

a spy is someone who secretly gathers information about something or someone the thief went into the building like a spy to steal the data | the spy was feeding information to both sides as a double agent | the government suspected a foreign spy

Verb: spy

Collocate: spy on

we were asked to spy on the neighbour when they were constructing their shed successful /sə'ksesfʊl/ Adjective when you are successful, you achieve something you wanted to achieve the company's marketing effort was very successful, increasing sales by 20 per cent | after years of hard work, the scientist finally achieved a successful result in her experiment | a successful attempt

Noun: success | Verb: succeed

Collocate: succeed in a success story | we succeeded in our mission theory /'θɪəri/ Noun

a theory is a formal set of ideas that is intended to explain why something happens or exists many scientific theories have been developed to explain the origins of the universe | conspiracy theories often spread misinformation online | the theories were tested on a sample of the population transatlantic /træn'sæt'læn.tɪk/ Adjective when a journey is transatlantic, it crosses the Atlantic Ocean

Collocates: transatlantic crossing | transatlantic journey

the passengers enjoyed the views on their transatlantic crossing | the transatlantic journey took longer than the crew had expected unexpected /ʌnɪk'spektɪd/ Adjective when something is unexpected, it is unplanned and, therefore, a surprise there was an unexpected event in the film | the guest received an unexpected gift | unexpected difficulties

Opposite – Verb: expect

we don't expect to receive any gifts uninhabited /ʌn'ɪn.hæɡɪtɪd/ Adjective uninhabited means that no one lives there Collocate: uninhabited island the island remained uninhabited for centuries | the hikers explored the uninhabited area | after the disaster, the town became an uninhabited ghost town

Opposite – Noun: inhabitant | Adjective: inhabited there were not many inhabitants on the island unsurprisingly /ʌn.sər'praɪzɪŋli/ Adverb unsurprisingly means that you are not surprised by something unsurprisingly, the rain caused delays | the cake was unsurprisingly a delicious success | the thief was unsurprisingly caught on camera

Adjective: unsurprised || Opposite – Adverb: surprisingly

we were unsurprised by the result | surprisingly, the journey only took three hours wave /weɪv/ Noun waves are the moving parts of water in a sea, ocean or river which go back and forth the surfers surfed on the powerful waves | the storm created large waves wave /'weɪv/ Verb to wave means to move your hand back and forth to signal hello or goodbye the crowd was waving flags and cheering for the runners | we said goodbye by waving from the window

Noun: wave

give me a wave!

Pages 76–77

accidentally /ˌæksɪ'dent(ə)li/ Adverb if you do something accidentally, you do not do it on purpose and do not want it to happen. If something happens accidentally, it happens even though no one wanted it to someone accidentally cut through an underground cable | I accidentally knocked the glass off the table | he accidentally swallowed his chewing gum | she accidentally dropped the books on her way out of the library

Noun: accident | Adjective: accidental

Collocate: by accident

I'm sorry I broke the vase – it was an accident | I found the website by accident (not on purpose) | you'll have to pay for it even if the damage was accidental apparently /ə'pærəntli/ Adverb you use apparently to introduce some information that might be surprising but that is actually true, or that you have only just learned about apparently, the cable was left exposed after heavy rain | I'd always assumed he was American, but apparently, he's Canadian | the thief apparently escaped through a window at the back of the shop | the argument was apparently caused by a disagreement about politics

Adjective: apparent

Collocate: become apparent it soon became apparent that he was not going to win the election arrest /ə'rest/ Verb when the police arrest someone, they take them away as a prisoner because they think the person has committed a crime

Collocate: arrest someone for something the woman was arrested for damaging property | police arrested him last night at the house where the money was found | a man was arrested after stealing 10 kilos of bananas | Hamilton was arrested for dangerous driving automatic /ˌɔ:tə'mætɪk/ Adjective when something is automatic, it works or happens without being controlled by someone the doors have an automatic sensor that opens when you approach | an automatic car | an automatic drone cable /'keɪb(ə)l/ Noun a cable is a thick wire that carries electricity or digital information she tripped over a loose cable | an electric cable | an underground cable | the signals are sent by three separate cables clickbait /'klɪkbeɪt/ Noun clickbait is online content that is designed to make you press it or open it, often in a misleading way be aware of clickbait articles | social media is full of clickbait designed to get you to share or like content | don't fall victim to clickbait; check the source before you click coincidentally /kəʊɪnsɪ'dent(ə)li/ Adverb a coincidence is when two related things happen at the same time by chance. When this happens, it is coincidental, or the things happen coincidentally coincidentally, internet services failed in other regions last week | his first name, coincidentally, was also Ryan | they both arrived on the same train coincidentally

Noun: coincidence | Adjective: coincidental

it was a lucky coincidence that she was in Paris at the same time | by coincidence, we both went to the same university | any similarity between us is entirely coincidental | I don't believe his arrival was coincidental deliberately /dɪ'lɪb(ə)rətli/ Adverb if someone does something deliberately, they do it because they mean to do it and not by accident hackers deliberately tried to shut down the bank's system | she was being deliberately unhelpful | he was playing his music deliberately loud | she deliberately chose not to come to the party | I think he's deliberately avoiding me

Adjective: deliberate

a deliberate attempt to get me into trouble | it was all a deliberate lie exposed /ɪk'spəʊzd/ Adjective if something is exposed, it has no cover or any other protection and risks being damaged landslides left the cable exposed | we spent the night on the side of the mountain, exposed, and with no tent or other shelter | it's dangerous to leave exposed electrical wires in the house | the cottage was in a very exposed position at the edge of the sea

Verb: expose

she dug away the soil to expose the roots of the tree fake news /feɪk nju:z/ Noun fake news are stories that are not true is this real or fake news? | there are many ways to tell a fake news story | there was a fake news story about a celebrity death gradually /'grædʒuəli/ Adverb if something happens gradually, it happens over a period of time and not all at once

I've been here a week now and I'm gradually getting used to it | things gradually settled into a routine | the attacks gradually became more frequent and more violent | the company gradually lost all its customers

Adjective: gradual

there's been a gradual reduction in traffic in the city centre | a gradual introduction of tax increases hacker /'hakə/ Noun

a hacker is someone who illegally enters a computer online to steal data or information the hacker stole personal data from the company's database | businesses need strong security to protect themselves from hackers | the police are investigating an incident where a hacker shut down the website

Verb: hack

the hacker hacked the internal computer programs headline /hed'laɪn/ Noun a headline is the main title of a news story in a newspaper or on a website the headline read 'Major breakthrough in research' | eye-catching headlines are used to grab readers' attention incident /'ɪnsɪdənt/ Noun an incident is an unexpected and unpleasant event that happens there was a minor security incident at the bank, but no money was stolen | the plane made an emergency landing due to a technical incident immediately /ɪ'mi:diətli/ Adverb if someone does something immediately, they do it quickly and with no delay engineers immediately went to the site of the problem | come here immediately! | the restaurant was immediately closed after rats were found in the kitchen | the police immediately began a search of the area

Adjective: immediate the change in the law has had an immediate effect joke /dʒəʊk/ Verb

when a person is joking, they are saying something that is not meant to be taken seriously

Collocates: just joking | only joking | joke around don't take it personally, they were just joking | her comments left everyone unsure if she was joking or serious | I'm the kind of person who likes to joke a lot!

Noun: joke

Collocate: take a joke

I can't tell jokes | can you take a joke?

landslide /'lænd(d)slaɪd/ Noun a landslide is an occasion when a large quantity of loose soil, rocks, etc. comes uncontrollably down a hill, often causing a lot of damage several houses were destroyed by the landslide | they managed to get away just moments before the landslide struck the village | a landslide killed 71 people | the landslide was caused by heavy rain during the night parcel /pɑ:səl/ Noun

a parcel is a package containing something that is sent by post Collocates: deliver a parcel | send a parcel the postman delivered a large parcel | online shops offer fast and reliable parcel delivery services | I'm going to send this parcel today rapidly /'ræpɪdli/ Adverb rapidly means something is quick or fast technology is rapidly developing so it is hard to keep up | the fire spread rapidly through the dry forest | prices are rising rapidly, making it difficult to afford groceries

Adjective: rapid the rapid increase in prices satellite image /sætəlaɪt 'ɪmɪdʒ/ Noun a satellite image is a picture of the Earth's surface taken from a satellite scientists use satellite images to monitor weather patterns and climate change | a satellite image helped locate the missing hikers in the mountains selfie /'selfi/ Noun

a selfie is a photo that you take of yourself using your mobile phone, often to show you are in an interesting place or with an interesting person

I got a selfie with Simone Biles! | tourists were taking selfies outside the Houses of Parliament | she posted another selfie on social media | I'll send you a selfie when I get to the Eiffel Tower set off /'setɪŋ 'ɒf/ Phrasal verb to set off means to begin a journey the train is setting off for Paris in ten minutes | the hikers set off on their adventure early in the morning | the ship set off across the ocean on a long voyage scam /skæm/ Noun

a scam is a dishonest scheme or trick used to cheat someone out of money be cautious of emails asking you to confirm your address or date of birth – they are often scams designed to steal your personal information | many online scams target elderly people who are unfamiliar with technology | if something seems too good to be true, it probably is a scam

Noun: scammer | Verb: scam

the scammer knew a lot of information about me | I was scammed by a company who took money from my account spade /speɪd/ Noun

a spade is a tool with a long handle and a wide metal part that you use for digging in the ground she accidentally cut through the cable with a spade | when I worked as a gardener, I had to provide my own spade and other tools | he broke the spade when he tried to dig out the tree roots | I bought a new spade last week for £20 temporarily /'tɛmpərərɪli/ Adverb something that happens or exists temporarily is only meant to last for a short time several roads were temporarily closed during the storms | I'm temporarily living with my sister until my new flat is ready

Adjective: temporary || Opposites – Adjective: permanent | Adverb: permanently

a temporary job | a temporary contract | temporary workers | living in temporary accommodation | a temporary address | his knee was permanently damaged in the accident | he's looking for a permanent job | a mixture of permanent and temporary staff transplant /'trænsplɑ:nt/ Noun a transplant is a replacement of something Collocates: hair transplant | heart transplant the liver transplant saved the patient's life | a transplant was necessary for survival | he went abroad to get hair transplant unfortunately /ʌn'fɔ:(r)tʃ(ə)nətli/ Adverb if something is unfortunate, it is rather sad and unlucky.

You say unfortunately when you are describing something unfortunate that has happened unfortunately, I got to the airport too late and missed my plane | my uncle, unfortunately, had to stay behind | our cat was unfortunately bitten by a dog

Adjective: unfortunate || Opposites – Adjective: fortunate | Adverb: fortunately

he was unfortunate enough to miss the first week of the training course through illness | it was unfortunate for us all when the factory closed | we are fortunate that it's such a good school | she is fortunate in having a good team working for her | fortunately for us, the next train arrived almost immediately

Pages 78–79archaeological site /ɑ:kiə'lɒdʒɪkəl saɪt/ Noun an archaeological site is a place with a lot of historic importance, and historical objects or discoveries are made there

Collocate: important archaeological site the archaeological site revealed much about ancient civilizations | many archaeological sites are protected by law | visiting archaeological sites can be educational and inspiring

Noun: archaeology | Adjective: archaeological

my son studies archaeology at university | there has been an archaeological discovery continuous /kən'tɪnjuəs/ Adjective continuous means something goes on and on the continuous noise made it hard to concentrate | a continuous line of trees at the edge of the forest | the project showed continuous improvement over the years

Verb: continue

the children continued to make noise equal /'i:kwəl/ Adjective when people are equal, they have the same rights and opportunities

Collocate: equal opportunities every student should have an equal chance to succeed | the law ensures equal treatment for all citizens | everyone in the company has equal opportunities exchange /ɪks'tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb to exchange something means to swap something with someone Collocate: exchange with exchange gifts after dinner | we exchanged numbers to keep in touch

Noun: exchange

Collocate: an exchange of there was an exchange of words at the party favour /'feɪvər/ Noun a favour is an act of kindness you do for someone Collocates: do a favour | ask for a favour can you do me a favour and water the plants? | asking for a favour from a colleague | I did her a favour and helped her move house fisherman /'fɪʃəmən/ Noun a fisherman is a person who goes out on boats to catch fish local fishermen gathered early in the morning | the fishermen's community relies heavily on the sea | commercial fishermen often face challenging conditions reed boat /ri:d bəʊt/ Noun a reed boat is a traditional boat made from a natural material called reeds. It is used for fishing or for transport reed boats have been used for centuries on Lake Titicaca | they constructed reed boats using local materials | ancient reed boats are an important part of the region's history respect /rɪ'spekt/ Verb when you respect someone, you appreciate and admire them because of specific reasons, for example, their position, their abilities

Collocate: respect someone for

I respect your decision | we really respect them as bosses | do you respect your teachers for the decision they made?

Noun: respect | Adjective: respectful

Collocate: have respect for

I have a lot of respect for your parents | respectful behaviour society /sə'saɪəti/ Noun society is the name for a group of people who live in the same geographical area society benefits when everyone works together | modern society faces many complex challenges | an inclusive society values all its members temple /'tempəl/ Noun

a temple is a religious building where people go to worship visitors loved the ancient temple's architecture | the temple is a special place for many people | they decided to visit the temple during the festival urban expansion /'ɜ:bən ɪk'spænjən/ Phrase urban expansion is when cities grow into the surrounding areas and get bigger urban expansion has led to increased traffic congestion | managing urban expansion is crucial for sustainable development | the city planned for controlled urban expansion to accommodate growth

UNIT 7: LIVING SPACE

Page 81

accommodation /əˈkɒməˈdeɪʃən/ Noun uncountaccommodation is where you stay or live Collocates: student accommodation | find accommodation finding suitable accommodation was important | the hotel provided excellent accommodation for guests | I'm staying in student accommodation fizzy drink /ˈfɪzi drɪŋk/ Nouna fizzy drink is a drink that has bubbles and is sweet

Collocate: have a fizzy drink a cold fizzy drink was perfect on a hot day | some people have a fizzy drink with their meals | reducing the amount of fizzy drinks you drink can improve health habitat /ˈhæbɪtæt/ Noun the habitat of living things such as animals or plants is the sort of place where they exist in nature, rather than a place that has been made or changed a lot by people

Collocate: natural habitat we need to do more to protect their natural habitat | these natural habitats are being destroyed by pollution | it lives in forest habitats | this is not the preferred habitat for foxes housemate /ˈhaʊsmet/ Noun a housemate is someone you share a home with and live with the new housemate moved in last weekend | getting along with a housemate can make living together easier | the housemate shared the housework housework /ˈhaʊswɜ:k/ Noun uncounthousework are the jobs you do around the house to maintain it, for example, cleaning, washing up

Collocates: do housework | share housework doing housework is necessary | they agreed to share the housework equally | housework includes tasks like dusting lonely /ˈləʊnli/ Adjectivewhen someone is lonely, they feel like they have no one such as friends or company to spend time with

Collocates: feel lonely | seem lonely feeling lonely in a new city can be difficult | the elderly often become lonely if they live alone | he seemed lonely without the rest of the team

Adjective: alone

*I don't really like living aloneprotection /prəˈtekʃən/ Noun uncountprotection is the act of keeping someone or something safe from harm, damage or injury

Collocates: provide protection | offer protection providing protection to people is essential | the organization offers protection to endangered species privacy /ˈprɪvəsi/ Noun uncountprivacy is a state in which no one can see you or know what you are doing

Collocate: in the privacy of somewhere many people will fight to protect their privacy | the high fence around the garden ensured a degree of privacy | some like having neighbours nearby, while others like the idea of complete privacy | I can say what I want in the privacy of my own home

Adjective: private

she's a very private person (she never says much about herself to anyone) | he has the right to a private life (to live without people watching and reporting on what he does) shelter /ˈʃeltə(r)/ Nouna shelter is somewhere that gives you protection, for example from rain, cold, danger

Collocate: take shelter a bus shelter (where people keep dry when they are waiting for a bus) | they took shelter under the entrance to a supermarket | the lizard was looking for shelter under a rock | the sun was very strong and there was no shelter in the middle of the field atmosphere /ˈætməsfɪə(r)/ Nounthe atmosphere of a place is the feeling you get when you are there the restaurant has a really good atmosphere | the hotel has a lovely friendly atmosphere | I didn't like the atmosphere at the party so I left early | the atmosphere was tense (people were worried and not very friendly) at the start of the meeting bear /beə(r)/ Nouna bear is a large, sometimes fierce, animal with thick fur polar bears have white fur, but most other bears have brown fur | we thought we saw a bear on the other side of the lake | if you see a bear, don't make any sudden movements beaver /ˈbi:və(r)/ Nouna beaver is an animal with short legs, thick fur, and a wide flat tail. Beavers build dams (walls) across rivers and streams

Pages 82–83

I've only ever seen a beaver in a zoo | there are lots of beavers in this part of Canada | a hat made from beaver fur block /blɒk/ Nouna block is a group of buildings in a town or city with streets on all sides we took a walk around the block | walk five blocks, then turn left | I live just three blocks away from my office built-up /bɪlt ʌp/ Adjectivea built-up area is one where there are a lot of buildings and streets and not very much open space

Collocate: a built-up area Beijing is one of the most built-up areas in the world | the total built-up area is 54,000 square metres | the neighbourhood became much more built-up after the war district /'dɪstrɪkt/ Noun a district is an area of a county or city. It usually has a defining characteristic, for example, business district, shopping district Collocates: school district | business district | shopping district the school district decided to close early | the financial district is busy during weekdays | a new shopping centre opened in the shopping district financial /faɪ'nænʃ(ə)l/ Adjective financial things and activities are related to money and the control of money an important business and financial district (where there are a lot of banks) | Switzerland is a financial centre with a lot of banks | I have some financial problems | a financial advisor | the financial crisis of 2008

Noun: finance | Adverb: financially

a meeting of European finance ministers | the company's finances were steadily improving | she works in the finance department | he's been very successful financially lively /'laɪvli/ Adjective lively means full of life, energy, enthusiasm or people enjoying themselves a very lively class | a lively teacher | it's a very lively area | the school has a lively atmosphere

Noun: liveliness

the performance was full of warmth and liveliness potential /pə'tenʃ(ə)l/ Noun uncount if a place or person has potential, there is a big possibility that they can develop and become different or better in the future

Collocate: reach/realize your (full/true) potential the house has got real potential | the area has enormous potential | he's only a young player, but he has potential | she hasn't reached her full potential yet

Adjective: potential | Adverb: potentially he is thought of as a potential prime minister | we displayed our work for potential employers | a potentially well-paid contract public transport /'pʌblɪk 'trænsɒ:t/ Noun public transport is a system of getting around such as buses and trains, which are available for everyone to use

Collocates: use public transport | take public transport many people use public transport to get to work | improving public transport can reduce traffic | reliable public transport is important resident /'rezɪd(ə)nt/ Noun the residents of a place are the people who live there Collocate: a local resident local residents were told to stay inside | the city centre has few residents left | residents were too scared to talk to the police | he's been a permanent resident here since 2004

Adjective: residential

Collocate: a residential area/neighbourhood/suburb new residential areas are still being developed | a mix of commercial, residential and industrial areas skyscraper /'skaɪskreɪpə/ Noun a skyscraper is a very tall building in a city the views from the skyscrapers are spectacular | Paris does not have many skyscrapers | if you want to see skyscrapers, go to New York | the Burj Khalifa in Dubai is the tallest skyscraper in the world spot /spɒt/ Noun

a spot is a particular place choose a spot in the shade | this would be a good spot for a picnic | the farmhouse occupied a lovely spot on the side of the valley | a beauty spot (a place in the countryside which is considered to be very beautiful) turkey /'tʊ:(r)ki/ Noun a turkey is a large bird that looks like a very big chicken.

You can eat the meat of a turkey a turkey farm | one turkey will feed at least eight people

Pages 84–85

architect /'ɑ:kɪtekt/ Noun an architect is a person whose job is to design buildings the architect designed a stunning new museum | they decided to hire an architect for the renovation | architects often have distinctive styles

Noun: architecture

my dad studied architecture at Dundee University brick /brɪk/ Noun bricks are solid blocks that are laid on the ground, then put together one on top of another in order to make the outside walls of a building

Collocate: lay bricks

a brick building | he had a job laying bricks (putting them in place) | the houses were built of red bricks | a pile of bricks | a brick wall clay /kleɪ/ Noun uncount clay is a material that can be formed when it is wet. It makes bricks, pottery and ceramics the artist used clay to create the sculpture | clay soil is common in this region | children enjoy modelling clay into various shapes cave house /keɪv haʊs/ Noun a cave house is a traditional home that has been built in the side of a cliff or mountain the ancient cave house | living in a cave house can be a unique experience | cave houses remain cool during hot summers central heating /'sentrəl 'hi:tɪŋ/ Noun central heating is a system in a building that makes it warm Collocate: central heating system central heating was installed in the new building | maintaining central heating systems is important for efficiency | modern central heating can be more energy-efficient concrete /'kɒŋkri:t/ Noun uncount concrete is a heavy building material which can be used to build things. Once you add water to it, it becomes hard they poured concrete to form the building's base | concrete is used for stronger structures | concrete driveways are common in many neighbourhoods design /dɪ'zaɪn/ Noun the design of something is the way it has been put together and the way that it looks the design of the phone is very simple | the design stage took over a year | your shirt is a really nice design | what do you think of the design of her new car?

 Noun: designer | Verb: design a famous dress designer | my friend designed this ring | Jonathan Ive designed the original iPhone | all our products are designed and made in the UK doorway /'dɔ:weɪ/ Noun a doorway is the entrance that leads into an area or building the wide doorway allowed easy access | doorways into the building | narrow doorways can be a challenge for moving furniture earth /ɜ:θ/ Noun uncount earth is the soil or ground plants need earth to grow well | digging into the earth revealed ancient artifacts

efficiently /ɪ'fɪʃəntli/ Adverb

efficiently means in a way that achieves maximum productivity with little or no wasted effort or energy Collocate: work efficiently the team worked efficiently to meet the deadline | resources were used efficiently to less costs | the machine operates efficiently under all conditions Adjective: efficient the team were efficient and effective in their roles fireplace /'faɪəpleɪs/ Noun a fireplace is an open space for a fire in the wall of a room they gathered around the fireplace for warmth | a fire was burning in the fireplace | cleaning the fireplace is necessary before winter insulated /'ɪnsjʊleɪtɪd/ Adjective if something is insulated, it stops heat, sound, electricity, etc. from escaping Collocate: well insulated the house was well insulated against the cold | insulated walls help keep the noise out Noun: insulation | Verb: insulate the windows do not provide much insulation purpose /'pɜ:pəs/ Noun the purpose of something is the reason why something is done or why something exists Collocates: main purpose | have a purpose the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the new project | every tool has a specific purpose | the main purpose of the trip was business rock /rɒk/ Noun uncount rock is a very hard, solid substance that occurs naturally, and that forms most of the surface of the Earth the mountain was one huge rock | the ground was bare rock, so no plants could grow on it rural /'rʊərəl/ Adjective when somewhere is rural, it is in the countryside and not in a town or city Collocate: rural area they moved to a rural area for a quieter life | I prefer living in a rural area | rural settings provide a peaceful environment shared /ʃeəd/ Adjective something that is shared belongs to or is used by several people I live in a shared house in Bristol | a small flat with a shared bathroom | my cousins and I have a shared set of grandparents

 Noun: share | Verb: share how much is my share of the food bill? | Sofia suggested sharing a flat together to make it cheaper stone /stəʊn/ Noun

stone is a hard material which you can use for building the path had smooth stones at each edge | building a house with stone makes it strong | the artist made a statue from a single stone terraced house /'terɪst haʊs/ Noun a terraced house is a house that shares walls with other houses and is connected in a row Collocate: live in a terraced house they live in a Victorian terraced house | each terraced house has a small garden | terraced houses are common in many British cities turf /tɜ:f/ Noun

turf is the grass and the surface layer of earth Collocate: lay turf
they laid down new turf in the garden | the stadium has artificial turf | maintaining green turf requires regular watering weather conditions /'weðər kən'dɪʃənz/ Noun the weather conditions is the state of the atmosphere at a specific time, including temperature wind, rain, etc.

the weather conditions were bad during the storm | changing weather conditions can affect travel plans

Pages 86–87artist /'ɑ:(r)tɪst/ Noun an artist is someone who draws or paints pictures or who makes sculptures.

Picasso was a famous artist of the 20th century | she had always wanted to be an artist | the café was popular with artists, writers and other creative people | Leo is a very gifted artist (he has a lot of skill) Adjective: artistic her artistic style developed over the years | I'm not very artistic and I've never been able to draw bench /bentʃ/ Noun

a bench is a long chair for more than one person to sit on, often outside the central square had fountains and stone benches | we sat on a long bench to have lunch | the school had to buy another six wooden benches centre /'sentə(r)/ Noun the centre of something is the middle of it

Collocates: city centre | in the centre the city centre is very quiet on Sundays | here, in the centre of the forest, we found peace and quiet | we live in the centre of England, a long way from the sea | how can you calculate the distance from the centre of a circle to the edge?

Adjective: central

the central area of the city | the countries of central Europe | the hotel was in a central location next to the railway station coastal /'kəʊstəl/ Adjective when something is coastal, it is next to or near the sea or ocean

Collocates: coastal area | coastal town they enjoyed a holiday in a coastal town | the coastal area is known for its beautiful beaches

Noun: coast

Collocates: go to the coast | walk along the coast shall we go to the coast for a holiday? | I love walking along the coast at sunset custom /'kʌstəm/ Noun customs are the typical cultural traditions of a society or community

Collocate: customs and traditions they observed the local customs during the festival | understanding cultural customs is important when traveling | what are the customs and traditions in your country?

educational /ˌedʒʊ'keɪʃənəl/ Adjective when something is educational, you learn from it the program has significant educational value | educational institutions need more resources | an educational trip was planned for the students

Noun: education | Verb: educate

she got her education at a state school | we were educated about the issue elegant /'eɪlɪɡənt/ Adjective elegant means something has a lot of style the room was decorated in an elegant style | the solution to the problem was both simple and elegant | an elegant town square

enthusiastic /ɪn'θju:zɪ'æstɪk/ Adjective when someone is enthusiastic, they are keen and interested in something

Collocate: enthusiastic about

the team was enthusiastic about the new project | an enthusiastic response from the audience | enthusiastic support is important for success

Noun: enthusiasm

Collocate: have enthusiasm he seemed to have a lot of enthusiasm for the job destruction /dɪ'strʌkʃən/ Noun destruction is when something has been damaged so that it cannot be repaired to how it was before

Collocates: cause destruction | total destruction the storm caused destruction to the house | efforts were made to avoid the total destruction of the forest | the destruction of the building was necessary for new development

Verb: destroy

the suspect destroyed the evidence | the building was totally destroyed in the fire dreamy /'dri:mi/ Adjective something that is dreamy is quietly pleasant and peaceful and does not seem real the dreamy atmosphere of Adjuntas | we spent a dreamy afternoon by the river | the film had a dreamy quality flamenco style /flə'menʃkoʊ stɑɪl/ Phrase flamenco style means something is related to a type of Spanish music and dance, which is often accompanied by a guitar

Collocate: in flamenco style they enjoyed a performance in the flamenco style | traditional flamenco style includes colourful costumes | learning the flamenco style can be challenging but rewarding industrial /ɪn'dʌstriəl/ Adjective industrial describes something which is related to industry such as manufacturing or factories

Collocates: industrial area | industrial revolution the city has a large industrial area | the industrial revolution changed society dramatically | industrial development is important for economic growth nation /'neɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a nation is a country with its own government and laws women play an important part in building the nation | one of the world's poorest nations | an industrial nation | our nation is over a thousand years old

Adjective: national

a national park | a national competition (involving all parts of a country) | the national government natural disaster /'nætʃrəl dɪ'zæstər/ Noun a natural disaster is an event which is not caused by humans, and causes a lot of damage. For example, earthquakes, floods, hurricanes preparing for a natural disaster is essential for safety | the community responded quickly to the natural disaster | assessing the risk of natural disaster helps in planning nature /'neɪtʃə(r)/ Noun uncount nature is all the plants, animals, mountains, rivers, etc. that are not made by people but exist independently. Things that exist in nature and that are not made by people are natural

we can learn a lot from nature | she teaches nature studies at a local primary school | I've been interested in nature since I was little (very young)

Adjective: natural

just get outdoors and enjoy the natural world | natural gas (gas that exists in the ground and is not made by burning coal)

origin /'ɒrɪdʒɪn/ Noun

the origin of something is the way it started or where it came from the origins of the city go back to the fourteenth century | the word is of unknown origin | a name whose origin is uncertain | the date of origin must be before 1066

Adjective: original | Adverb: originally

the original idea came from Arthur Lomas | the game originally involved two teams on horses | the canal was originally just 20 km long | our house was originally a baker's shop parade /pə'reɪd/ Verb a parade is a big public event when a lot of people or vehicles go through the streets of a town as part of a big celebration. The people and vehicles parade through the streets soldiers paraded through the city centre | I wanted to parade with all the others but my parents wouldn't let me

Noun: parade

the parade took over an hour to pass by the front of our shop | a military parade | there were street parades and then fireworks in the evening | the parade walked along 5th Avenue in Manhattan reforestation /ˌriːfɒrɪ'steɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun uncount reforestation is the planting of new trees to bring a forest back as a forest after the earlier trees had been cut down we need to start a reforestation programme | reforestation will take at least ten years residential /ˌreʒɪ'denʃəl/ Adjective when an area is residential, it is for people to live rather than other commercial activities they moved to a quiet residential area | the residential property market | new residential developments in the city

Noun: resident

I have been a resident of this town for more than ten years respectfully /rɪ'spektf(ə)li/ Adverb if you do something respectfully, you do in a way that shows you believe someone is important and should be treated politely the audience listened respectfully to all the speeches | he answered my questions honestly and respectfully | he shook hands respectfully and bowed slightly

Noun: respect | Verb: respect | Adjective: respected, respectful

Collocate: be respectful of/towards someone or something she never had any respect for her father | you should show more respect to your teachers | we were taught to respect our parents | he was always very respectful towards my parents | he was a highly respected journalist roadside /'rəʊdsaɪd/ Noun when something is roadside it is near to the edge of roads, where vehicles drive Collocate: on the roadside they set up a stall by the roadside selling fruits | roadside assistance arrived quickly after the breakdown | a restaurant on the roadside romance /rəʊ'mæns/ Noun uncount romance is all the feelings and behaviour of people who are beginning to love each other and starting a relationship it was difficult to find romance in a small village with hardly any other young people | their romance began on social media | an office romance (when two people who work together start a relationship)

Adjective: romantic

a romantic dinner | we had a romantic weekend in Paris | a romantic novel (about two people falling in love) | he's so romantic | red roses are very romantic surrounding area /sə'raʊndɪŋ 'eəriə/ Phrase the surrounding area is the region or area around a certain point they explored the surrounding area on foot | the surrounding area is known for its beautiful landscapes | development in the surrounding area can impact local wildlife tragic /'trædʒɪk/ Adjective when something is tragic, it is extremely bad, stressful or sad Collocates: tragic event | tragic loss the accident was a tragic event for the community | the novel tells the story of a tragic loss | efforts were made to prevent such a tragic result

Noun: tragedy

the family experienced such a tragedy

Pages 88–89

estate agent /ɪ'steɪt 'eɪdʒənt/ Noun an estate agent is the person responsible for buying and selling property, and helping people find a home they contacted an estate agent to sell their house | finding a good estate agent is important when buying property | the local estate agent had many properties available leaflet /'liːflət/ Noun a leaflet is a sheet which provides information on a specific topic, for example, a company, a service or a product

Collocates: give out leaflets | hand out leaflets they gave out leaflets about the event | the leaflet provided detailed information on the product | handing out leaflets is a common way to promote your business nightmare /'naɪtmə(r)/ Noun a nightmare is a very frightening dream. You can refer to a really unpleasant or worrying situation as a nightmare

Collocate: turn into a nightmare the holiday was a complete nightmare – it rained the whole time | their dream of a new home turned into a nightmare | driving in the city centre is a nightmare preference /ˈprɛfərəns/ Noun someone's preference is what they want to do over something else

Collocates: personal preference | a preference for they showed a preference for the red dress | personal preference plays a big role in choosing furniture | expressing a preference for vegetarian meals was important

Verb: prefer

I prefer eating chicken to lamb suburb /ˈsʌbɜːb/ Noun

a suburb is a residential area on the outer edges of a town or city

Collocates: quiet suburb | live in the suburbs they decided to move to a quiet suburb | the suburb has grown rapidly in recent years | living in the suburbs has its advantages without a doubt /wɪð'aʊt ə daʊt/ Phrase when someone says without a doubt, they are certain of something this is, without a doubt, the best decision | without a doubt, the team played exceptionally well

Pages 90–91

archery /ˈɑːtʃəri/ Noun uncount archery is a sport you play with a bow and arrow, to try and hit a target they took up archery as a hobby | archery requires a lot of practice | the school has an archery team climate responsive /ˈklaɪmɪt rɪˈspɒnsɪv/ Adjective climate responsive means that something responds to or is affected by the climate the building has climate responsive design | climate responsive architecture helps in reducing energy consumption | adopting climate responsive strategies is essential for sustainability desert terrain /ˈdɛzərt tə'reɪn/ Noun desert terrain is land that is dry and empty, similar to a desert crossing desert terrain requires special equipment | the harsh desert terrain was difficult to navigate | plants in desert terrain have adapted to the conditions emission /ɪˈmɪʃən/ Noun emissions are the production and release of gases Collocates: carbon emissions | harmful emissions efforts to reduce emissions are still being made | carbon emissions contribute to global warming | controlling harmful emissions is important for the environment

Verb: emit

even newer cars emit some carbon dioxide estimate /ˈɛstɪmeɪt/ Verb to estimate something means to take a guess or calculation of the amount of something the population is estimated at 300,000 | we need to estimate how much it will cost

Noun: estimate, estimation we need an estimate for the work | what's your estimation of how long it will take?

ice hockey /aɪs ˈhɒki/ Noun ice hockey is a team sport which is played on ice. Skaters use a puck (a small round object) and try to hit it into the other team's goal

Collocates: play ice hockey | watch ice hockey ice hockey is a popular sport in Canada | they joined a local ice hockey team | I like watching professional ice hockey in harmony with /ɪn ˈhɑːməni wɪð/ Phrase when things or people are in harmony with each other, they are in agreement or live side by side without any issues

Collocate: live in harmony with each other the new building was designed in harmony with the surrounding landscape | living in harmony with nature is part of the community | the project aims to work in harmony with local traditions insulating block /ˈɪnsjʊleɪtɪŋ blɒk/ Noun insulating blocks are materials which are designed to reduce the amount of heat or sound they used insulating blocks to improve energy efficiency | installing insulating blocks can reduce heating costs

Verb: insulate

we need to insulate the building so it stays warm in winter monitor /ˈmɒnɪtər/ Verb to monitor something means to observe and check it regularly they monitored the patient's health closely | the system is designed to monitor environmental changes | progress was monitored continuously throughout the project mould /ˈməʊld/ Verb when something is moulded, it is shaped or formed by hand or using tools the artist moulded a sculpture | the plastic parts were moulded to exact measurements | the sculpture was carefully moulded from clay overhead /əʊvə'hɛd/ Adjective when something is overhead, it is above you the overhead light went out | birds flew overhead as we walked through the park river valley /ˈrɪvər ˈvæli/ Noun a river valley is a low area between hills or mountains where a river flows many ancient civilizations were formed in river valleys | the hike took them through deep river valleys solar-heated /'səʊləɪr 'hi:tɪd/ Adjective when something is solar-heated, it is warmed up and powered by the sun they installed a solar-heated water system | the solar-heated pool was warm even in the winter | using solar-heated energy can reduce electricity bills straw /strɔː/ Noun uncount straw is a type of material which you usually find as bedding for animals or for making things.

they used straw to make a hat | the animals were given fresh straw for their bedding the sun's rays /ðə sʌnz reɪz/ Phrase the sun's rays are the light which comes from the sun sunscreen helps to block the sun's rays | plants absorb the sun's rays | the sun's rays can cause sunburn zero energy /'zɪərəʊ 'enədʒi/ Adjective zero energy refers to systems or buildings that produce as much energy as they use they built a zero energy home using solar panels | zero energy buildings are becoming more popular

UNIT 8: TRAVEL

Page 93

celebration /ˌsɛlɪˈbreɪʃən/ Noun a celebration is when you mark a significant event with an event or activities Collocate: plan a celebration they planned a big celebration for the anniversary | the celebration included fireworks and music | every year there is a public celebration in the park

Verb: celebrate

we need to celebrate her passing the test!

destination /ˌdɛstɪˈneɪʃən/ Noun a destination is the place where someone or something is going to Collocates: tourist destination | popular destination | reach a destination

Tokyo is a popular tourist destination | they finally reached their destination after a long journey | the final destination was still a surprise discover /dɪˈskʌvə/ Verb to discover something means to find it they hoped to discover new species in the rainforest | the scientist discovered an important clue

Noun: discovery

Collocate: make a discovery the scientists made a discovery like no other hire /ˈhaɪə/ Verb

when you hire something, you pay money to use it for a temporary period of time the company decided to hire some seasonal staff | they needed to hire a car for the trip | hiring a good lawyer can be a difficult process impression /ɪmˈpreʃən/ Noun an impression an idea, feeling or opinion about something or someone. Usually, you have no evidence to confirm it

Collocates: impression of | have an impression of | first impression the first impression was very positive | they wanted to create a good impression | what was your impression of her?

Verb: impress | Adjective: impressive the way she answered the question impressed the interviewers | that was an impressive exhibition on your doorstep /ɒn jɔː ˈdɔːstɛp/ Phrase when you say something is on your doorstep, you mean it is very near to or where you live there's a beautiful park right on your doorstep | having a grocery store on your doorstep is convenient route /ruːt/ Noun

a route is the exact direction you follow to get from one place to another there are sometimes queues of climbers on the route to the top of the mountain | I'm going to try a different route when we go to Scotland next week | what's the shortest route home from here? | it's important to plan your route before you set off tip /tɪp/ Noun

a tip is a piece of useful advice

Collocate: give someone a tip each speaker offers a travel tip | do you have any tips on where to stay in Edinburgh? | she gave me a few tips about the German railway system | if you want any gardening tips, ask my uncle Stan

Pages 94–95

adore /əˈdɔː/ Verb

when you adore someone or something, you love and respect it deeply they absolutely adore their new puppy | the kids adore playing outside | many people adore listening to live music browse /ˈbraʊz/ Verb to browse means to casually look around or look for something they spent the afternoon browsing in the bookshop | let's browse the internet for holiday ideas can't afford /kænt əˈfɔːd/ Phrase if you can't afford something, you do not have enough money to buy or pay for it they can't afford to buy a new car | we can't afford the payment | we can't afford to take time off work can't stand /kænt stænd/ Phrase if you can't stand something or someone, you dislike or hate it very much they can't stand the noise of people eating | many people can't stand the taste of certain vegetables | I can't stand being late for appointments character /ˈkærɪktə(r)/ Noun a character is a letter in an alphabet or a written symbol in languages like Chinese or Japanese

I'm not very good at reading Chinese characters | this is the Chinese character for 'fire' | the document contained 12,437 characters cliff /klɪf/ Noun

a cliff is an area of land which has an extremely steep side that goes down to the sea or a river a high cliff rose above the sea | a cliff above the waves of the Atlantic | keep away from the edge of the cliff | the highest cliffs in Europe | the white cliffs of Dover extreme sport /ɪk'stri:m spɔ:t/ Noun an extreme sport is a high-risk sport such as skydiving (jumping out of a plane), or paragliding (gliding through the air) they love participating in extreme sports | enjoying the experience of an extreme sport can be fun | cave diving and rafting are extreme sports

fancy /'fænsi/ Verb

if you fancy something, you want to do it or have a desire for it do you fancy going out for dinner? | they fancy trying something new this weekend | I fancy seeing a movie tonight

Adjective: fancy

I bought some fancy clothes for the party head /hed/ Verb

if you head in a particular direction, you start to go in that direction it's time for me to head off for home | we headed up the lane towards the farm | we're going to head out to the lake this afternoon | she said goodbye and headed off down the street keen /ki:n/ Adjective if you are keen, you have or show enthusiasm for something Collocates: keen on | keen interest in they have a keen interest in photography | they were keen on learning more | a keen sense of adventure memorable /'mɛmərəbəl/ Adjective memorable means it is worth remembering, or easy to remember because it is special or unusual the trip was a truly memorable experience | they shared many memorable moments together | a memorable event that will be talked about for years

Noun: memory

do you have a good memory?

mention /'menʃən/ Verb when you mention something or someone, you refer to it briefly they casually mentioned the idea during the meeting | the article mentioned several important points | mentioning the problem often helps in finding solutions monument /'mɒnjumənt/ Noun monuments are statues or structures which represent a historical figure or situation

Collocate: visit monuments they visited several historic monuments during the tour | national monuments are protected by law outdoors /ˌaʊt'dɔ:z/ Adverb outdoors means outside, rather than in a building

Collocate: go outdoors

they enjoy spending time outdoors | many activities are better done outdoors | they went outdoors to enjoy the sunshine

Opposite – Noun: indoors we should stay indoors because of the weather refuse /rɪ'fju:z/ Verb when you refuse something, you say no to it

Collocates: refuse to | politely refuse they politely refused the offer | refusing to accept help can be challenging | they had to refuse the invitation due to other commitments souvenir /ˌsu:və'niə(r)/ Noun souvenirs are objects you buy or get to remember a place or trip

Collocates: buy souvenirs | bring back souvenirs they bought souvenirs from every place they visited | bringing back souvenirs for friends is a nice thing to do step /step/ Verb

if you step somewhere, you move a short distance there on foot. For example, you can step onto a train or step off it. When someone asks you to come into a room, they might ask you to step inside

Collocates: step off | step outside

I said goodbye, then stepped onto the train | would you step inside my office, please? | she stepped up to the front door and looked inside | I'm just going to step outside to get some fresh air

Noun: step

she took a step backwards wildlife reserve /'waɪldlaɪf rɪ'zɜ:v/ Noun a wildlife reserve is a protected area where animals and plants live Collocate: visit a wildlife reserve they visited a wildlife reserve during their trip | the wildlife reserve was established to protect endangered species | conservation efforts are important in a wildlife reserve threaten /'θretən/ Verb when you threaten someone or something, you express that you might harm or hurt it rising sea levels threaten coastal communities | they threatened to leave if their demands were not met | pollution continues to threaten sea life

Noun: threat

Collocate: make a threat they made a threat to take the money trek /trek/ Verb

if you trek somewhere, you go on a long and difficult journey by walking he spent two years trekking through South America | we trekked up the river for a few days | by afternoon, we had trekked fifteen miles

Noun: trek, trekking

a two-week-long trek | the ten kilometre trek took seven hours to complete | a book about trekking in Peru

Pages 96–97

blog /blɒg/ Noun

a blog is a website or webpage where there are articles written in an informal or conversational way

Collocate: write a blog they started a personal blog to share their travel experiences | writing a blog can be a good way to express yourself | many people follow the blog

Verb: blog

I blog every week about my experiences bookmark /'bʊkmɑ:k/ Verb when you bookmark something online, you save it so that you can revisit it later Collocate: add a bookmark they saved the page as a bookmark for future reference | using a bookmark helps organize my favourite websites | adding a bookmark makes it easier to find useful links

Noun: bookmark

look at your bookmarks – you might have saved the site there connection /kə'nekʃən/ Noun connections are relationships with people

Collocates: make a connection | establish connections establishing strong connections | they have connections in many parts of the world | personal connections often lead to lasting friendships | we made strong connections with the group

Verb: connect

we really connected as a team corner (of the planet) /'kɔ:nər ɒv ðə 'plæni:t/ Phrase the corner of the planet refers to specific parts of the world they travelled to a remote corner of the planet | every corner of the planet has unique cultures and traditions | exploring hidden corners of the planet can be adventurous fortune /'fɜ:(r)tʃən/ Noun a fortune is a large amount of money

Collocates: cost/spend/pay a fortune | earn/make a fortune | be worth a fortune

she must be earning a fortune in her new job | he made a fortune on the stock exchange | they spent an absolute fortune on their holiday | the house must be worth a small fortune now (a surprisingly large amount of money) | your salary is a fortune compared to mine gear /giə/ Noun uncount gear is equipment used for a specific activity or reason

Collocates: camping gear | work gear | safety gear they packed their hiking gear for the trip | fishing gear was essential for the weekend | proper safety gear is mandatory for the job | don't forget the camping gear humanity /hju:'mænɪti/ Noun uncount humanity is human beings as a whole efforts to save humanity from climate change are crucial | the spirit of humanity during the crisis | common threats to humanity kindness /'kaɪndnis/ Noun uncount kindness is the quality of being friendly, generous and nice Collocate: act of kindness showing kindness to strangers can make a difference | they appreciated the act of kindness | simple acts of kindness can brighten someone's day

Adjective: kind

it's important to be kind publish /'pʌblɪʃ/ Verb to publish something is to prepare and issue something online or in print they plan to publish a new book next year | the research findings were published on a scientific website | many authors choose to publish their works online

Noun: publishing

he works in the publishing team take it easy /'teɪk ɪt 'i:zi/ Phrase take it easy means to relax and avoid working hard or doing anything with effort they spent the weekend taking it easy | taking it easy after a long day is important | they planned to take it easy during their holiday turning point /'tɜ:nɪŋ pɔɪnt/ Phrase a turning point is a time at which a big change happens or a decision is made

Collocates: major turning point | mark a turning point the decision marked a turning point in the project | reaching a turning point can lead to progress | the event was a significant turning point in history vast /va:st/ Adjective something that is vast is extremely big they've destroyed vast areas of land | they travelled a vast distance to get here | Canada is a vast country north of the United States | a vast region with no roads

Noun: vastness

the trip gave him a good idea of the vastness of Australia

Pages 98–99

campsite /'kæmpsɑ:t/ Noun a campsite is a place where people can stay overnight using tents, motorhomes or other camping equipment

Collocate: stay at a campsite they set up their tent at the campsite | the campsite had excellent facilities | staying at a campsite can be a fun family activity essential /ɪ'senʃəl/ Adjective when something is essential, it is very important Collocate: essential for water is essential for survival | playing an essential role in the project | let's make a list of essential items for the trip expert /'ɛkspɜ:t/ Noun an expert is someone who is very knowledgeable and a specialist in a particular skill or area

Collocate: expert in they asked a medical expert for advice | the expert gave a detailed analysis | he's an expert in the language float /'fləʊtɪŋ/ Verb when something floats, it is staying on top of something such as water or air the boat was floating gently on the lake floating in the pool is relaxing food for the soul /fu:d fɔ: ðə səʊl/ Phrase food for the soul is something that makes your mind or spirit feel positive and good music can be true food for the soul | they found the book to be food for the soul | seeking experiences that are food for the soul have in common /hæv ɪn 'kɒmən/ Phrase when you have something in common, you have shared interests or experiences with someone Collocate: have nothing in common they have a lot in common and get along well | finding out what you have in common can start a conversation | they realized they have nothing in common holiday of a lifetime /'hɒlɪdeɪ ɒv ə 'laɪftaɪm/ Phrase a holiday of a lifetime is a very special trip that is unlikely to happen again

Collocates: go on the holiday of a lifetime | plan the holiday of a lifetime they planned the holiday of a lifetime to celebrate their wedding anniversary | the cruise was the holiday of a lifetime | we went on the holiday of a lifetime hometown /'həʊmtaʊn/ Noun your hometown is the place you were born or grew up in they returned to their hometown after many years | visiting your hometown can bring back memories | the festival brought pride to the hometown mental energy /'mentəl 'enədʒi/ Noun mental energy is the capacity to perform tasks with your mind or brain studying for exams requires a lot of mental energy | finding ways to boost mental energy is important | work can take a lot of mental energy night diving /naɪt 'daɪvɪŋ/ Noun night diving is when you go underwater at night to explore in the dark they enjoyed night diving | night diving requires special preparation and safety measures psychologist /saɪ'kɒlədʒɪst/ Noun a psychologist is a professional who studies the mind and mental processes they decided to ask a psychologist | psychologists often work in hospitals | seeking advice from a psychologist can be helpful

Noun: psychology

the study of psychology and the human mindset is very interesting point of view /pɔɪnt əv vju:/ Phrase points of view are opinions and perspectives on different things they discussed the issue from different points of view | understanding various points of view can lead to better decisions | sharing points of view see things with fresh eyes /si: θɪŋz wɪð freʃ aɪz/ Phrase when you see things with fresh eyes, you look at a situation from a new perspective taking a break can help you see things with fresh eyes | they were able to see things with fresh eyes after the meeting | it's important to see things with fresh eyes for creative solutions social media influencer /'səʊʃəl 'mi:diə 'ɪnfluənsər/ Noun a social media influencer is someone who uses social media platforms to promote things or themselves. They have a lot of followers (a large audience)

Collocate: become a social media influencer the social media influencer has millions of followers | becoming a social media influencer requires strategy | many brands work with social media influencers for marketing span /spæn/ Noun

a span is a period of time during which something happens or lasts

Collocates: attention span | life span within the span of three generations, everything changed completely | he has a very short attention span (he cannot concentrate for long) | in the 16th century, the average human life span was much shorter than it is today | the expected life span of the satellite is three to five years suffer /'sʌfə/ Verb

when you suffer, you experience pain Collocates: suffer with | suffer from many people suffer from long-term illnesses | the community suffered greatly after the disaster | I suffer from sleep difficulties

Noun: suffering

some communities experience a lot of suffering valuable /'væljuəbl/ Adjective when something is valuable, it has a lot of importance or is worth a lot of money

Collocates: valuable information | extremely valuable the necklace is extremely valuable | providing valuable information to the team | a good education is a valuable thing

Noun: value | Verb: value what is the value of this necklace? | to value this ring, we need to know if it's genuine gold

Pages 100–101awful /'ɔ:fʊl/ Adjective when someone or something is awful, it is very bad or unpleasant the food tasted awful | they felt awful after hearing the news | the weather was absolutely awful boarding pass /'bɔːdɪŋ pɑːs/ Noun a boarding pass is a document you need in order to get on a plane. Staff check it when you get onto the plane. It contains your seat number and information about your flight

Collocates: show your boarding pass | check boarding passes they checked their boarding pass at the gate | please show your boarding pass to staff | presenting a boarding pass is required before boarding customs check /kʌstəmz tʃek/ Noun when you arrive in a foreign country, the customs check is when you have to say or show what you are bringing into the country so that the authorities can decide if you need to pay any tax or if you are carrying anything illegally there were long delays for the customs check at Miami airport | there are no customs checks here for passengers arriving from EU countries | customs checks are carried out before you leave the ship disturb /dɪ'stɜːb/ Verb when you disturb someone or something, you interrupt it the noise did not disturb their concentration | please do not disturb the sleeping baby | unnecessary interruptions can disturb your work exhausting /ɪg'zɔːstɪŋ/ Adjective when something is exhausting, it is very tiring

Collocates: extremely exhausting | absolutely exhausting the hike was extremely exhausting | working long hours can be mentally exhausting | they found the task absolutely exhausting Adjective: exhausted we were exhausted after the hike freezing /'friːzɪŋ/ Adjective freezing means very very cold Collocate: freezing temperatures it was freezing outside last night | the freezing temperatures required heavy clothing | freezing conditions Verb: freeze | Adjective: frozen make sure you freeze the water – we need some ice | frozen peas/pizza gate /geɪt/ Noun

an airport gate is the area where passengers get on or off an aircraft

Collocates: go to gate 14 | wait at the gate they waited at the gate for their flight | the gate was changed at the last minute | arriving at the gate early ensures a smooth boarding process | passengers flying to Denver, please go to the gate 7B hold /həʊld/ Noun the hold of an aircraft is the part of an aircraft where large bags and other goods are stored during a flight

Collocate: in the hold luggage is stored in the hold of an aircraft | they placed the oversized baggage in the hold | accessing the hold is not allowed during the flight jetlagged /'dʒetləgd/ Adjective if you are jetlagged, your body is slightly confused because you have travelled a long distance and there is a big time difference between where you are and where you have travelled from whenever I fly to New York I'm jetlagged for the first three days | I had to go into the meeting jetlagged and exhausted | a group of jetlagged tourists stepped off the plane | it's been a long flight and I'm jetlagged

Noun: jetlag

jetlag can last up to three days | she still hadn't got over her jetlag when the meeting started passport control /'pɑːspɔːt kən'trəʊl/ Noun passport control is the checkpoint in an airport where people check passports

Collocates: clear passport control | go through passport control they went through passport control quickly | the lines at passport control were long | clearing passport control took longer than expected printout /'prɪntaʊt/ Noun printouts are documents that you have printed onto paper they provided printouts of the presentation | making a printout of the report was necessary for the meeting | the printouts were handed out to everyone seat reservation /siːt ˌrezə'veɪʃən/ Noun a seat reservation is the seat number or place where you sit, for example, on a plane or train

Collocates: make a seat reservation | have a seat reservation they made a seat reservation for the concert | confirming a seat reservation can prevent issues | we have a seat reservation travel insurance /'trævəl ɪn'ʃʊərəns/ Noun uncount travel insurance is something you buy for when you travel, in case of any accidents or injuries. It covers any medical emergencies

Collocate: buy travel insurance they bought travel insurance before the trip | travel insurance can cover medical expenses abroad | having travel insurance is recommended travel sickness /'trævl 'sɪknɪs/ Noun uncount travel sickness is a feeling of being unwell and wanting to be sick that some people get when travelling in a car, plane or ship travel sickness can be much worse on a ship | travel sickness is more common in children than in adults | travel sickness tablets (to make someone feel better)

Adjective: travel-sick

I get travel-sick after ten minutes in a car

Pages 102–103

binoculars /bɪ'nɒkjʊlə(r)z/ Noun plural binoculars are a piece of equipment consisting of two connected tubes, each with special glass in them. You look through the tubes, one with each eye, and distant objects appear closer to you and you see them in more detail

Collocate: a pair of binoculars

I always take a pair of binoculars when I go for a walk in the country | she could clearly see the bird's blue feathers through the binoculars | the best way to see them is through binoculars blood /blʌd/ Noun uncount blood is the red liquid that carries oxygen around your body, and which is pumped by your heart. Blood is essential for life. If you say that something is in your blood, you mean that it is very important to you and a very necessary part of the way you live exploration is in people's blood | I can't live without music – it's in my blood | football is in his blood, it's all he ever wants to do discovery /dɪ'skʌvəri/ Noun a discovery is the action of finding something new for the first time

Collocates: make a discovery | scientific discovery the scientists made a discovery like no other | they made a significant scientific discovery | recent discoveries have advanced our understanding of the universe

Verb: discover what did you discover in your findings?

drive /draɪv/ Verb

if something drives you to do something, it makes you believe you want to achieve that thing and leads you to try very hard

that's what drives people to the highest mountains | wanting to impress her father is what drove her to start water-skiing | he was driven by the desire to get a better job

Noun: drive

she showed great drive and determination engage /ɪn'geɪdʒ/ Verb

if you engage with something, you take it seriously and become properly involved with it Collocate: engage with something it helped me engage more fully with the world | he never engaged with university life

Noun: engagement

a strong sense of engagement with the local community explore /ɪk'splɔː/ Verb when you explore, you travel or go to a new area to learn about it they wanted to explore the city on foot | exploring new places can be exciting | the opportunity to explore the area was welcomed

Noun: exploration budgets for space exploration have been reduced first-aid kit /fɜːst eɪd kɪt/ Noun a first-aid kit is equipment and supplies which you can use to give immediate emergency help to someone if they need it

Collocates: have a first-aid kit | use a first-aid kit | carry a first-aid kit they always carry a first-aid kit when hiking | the first-aid kit includes bandages | having a first-aid kit can save lives in emergencies | do you have a first-aid kit?

fundamentally /fʌndə'mentəli/ Adverb fundamentally means in a way that is an essential part of something the approach was fundamentally bad | they fundamentally misunderstood the concept Adjective: fundamental your help and advice is fundamental to the project

GPS /dʒiːpiː'ɛs/ Noun

GPS is a navigation system you can use to get directions

Collocate: use a GPS

they used GPS to navigate the route | relying on GPS can prevent getting lost | the GPS device showed the quickest way to the destination grow /grəʊ/ Verb

if people grow, they develop and learn more things and become more interesting people a few months in Australia will help her grow | he grew into a well-respected doctor headlamp /'hedlæmp/ Noun a headlamp is a lamp or torch that you wear on a helmet or strapped to your head so that you can have light without having to hold a torch in your hand using a headlamp means both my hands are free | she turned her head to point the headlamp at the tree | the battery on my headlamp is flat paddle /'pæd(ə)l/ Verb

if you paddle, you make a boat move by using a paddle, which is a long handle with a blade at the end of it we paddled to the edge of the river | after paddling for twenty minutes, I was quite tired | don't stop paddling – we're nearly there

Noun: paddle

a wooden paddle paintbrush /'peɪntbrʌʃ/ Noun a paintbrush is an object with thin, slightly stiff pieces of plastic or hair which you use to put paint onto a surface

I'm not very good with a paintbrush – I prefer using a pencil | it's not worth buying a cheap paintbrush, it won't last long | make sure you clean the paintbrush straight away power /'paʊə(r)/ Noun uncount power is the supply of electricity to a place we lost power for an hour in the afternoon | the power came back on at five o'clock | 200 homes were without power after the storm sunblock /'sʌŋblɒk/ Noun uncount sunblock is a thick liquid that you put on your skin to protect yourself when the sun is very hot and to stop your skin getting burnt don't forget to put on some sunblock | make sure the children put the sunblock on | a bottle of sunblock vehicle /'vi:ɪk(ə)l/ Noun a vehicle is something you use to record or express your ideas and impressions about something the play is an ideal vehicle for her talents | my music is a vehicle for letting my emotions out water purifier /'wɔ:tə 'pjʊəɪfaɪər/ Noun a water purifier is a device which removes harmful substances from water to make it safe to drink

Collocates: use a water purifier | portable water purifier they used a water purifier while camping | installing a water purifier at home ensures safe drinking water | the water purifier was easy to carry

UNIT 9: SHOPPING

Page 105

click and collect /kɪk ənd kə'lekt/ Phrase when you click and collect, you buy something online and the pick it up later

Collocates: use click and collect | do click and collect they decided to use the click and collect service | click and collect is a convenient option | the department store offers click and collect for online orders canal /kə'næl/ Noun a canal is a waterway built to allow boats or ships to pass through Collocate: build a canal the canal was built in the 18th century | boats travel along the canal regularly | the city has a network of canals

habit /'hæbɪt/ Noun

a habit is something people do regularly and especially things that are hard to give up

Collocates: bad habits | break habits | good habits forming good habits can improve your overall health | the students developed good study habits over time | I am trying to break my bad habits review /rɪ'vju:/ Noun

a review is a personal assessment of something such as a book, film, restaurant

Collocates: receive a review | a positive review | write a review the book received a positive review | they wrote a review of the new restaurant | reading reviews can help in making decisions

Verb: review

we were asked to review the meal shopping mall /'ʃɒpɪŋ mɔ:l/ Noun a shopping mall is a large building with many shops, restaurants, etc.

Collocates: go to a shopping mall | at the shopping mall they spent the afternoon at the shopping mall | the new shopping mall opened last weekend | shopping malls are popular places to hang out store /stɔ:/ Noun

a store is a place where you can buy things they visited the store for some milk | the store had a wide variety of products | a new department store opened in the city centre style of clothing /staɪl əv 'kləʊðɪŋ/ Phrase someone's style of clothing is the particular way they dress

Collocates: casual style of clothing | unique style of clothing they prefer a casual style of clothing | the unique style of clothing was inspired by 80s fashion | traditional style of clothing is still worn during festivals

Pages 106–107

checkout /'tʃekəʊt/ Noun the checkout is the place where you go in a supermarket or other shop to pay for the things that you are buying there was a long queue at the checkout | only two out of six checkouts were open | he got a job working on the checkout at Safeway | this checkout is for customers with twelve items or fewer convenience /kən'vi:niəns/ Noun convenience is when something is easy to access without difficulty Collocate: convenience store they chose the hotel for its convenience to the airport | there's a convenience store opposite the hotel

Adjective: convenient || Opposite – Noun: inconvenience |

Adjective: inconvenient

what time is convenient to meet? | we apologies for the inconvenience | it's a little bit inconvenient to go today, can we go tomorrow?

customer service /'kʌstəmə 'sɜ:vɪs/ Noun customer service is assistance and advice which a company provides to people who buy or use its products or services

Collocates: improve customer service | good/excellent customer service | bad customer service the store is known for its excellent customer service | they contacted customer service for help with their order | improving customer service is a priority for the company | the customer service was very bad delivery /dɪ'lɪv(ə)ri/ Noun delivery is the act of taking things such as goods or letters to a place

Collocate: delivery service my job was to prepare all the orders for delivery | we make daily deliveries | send it by express delivery (very quick) | order by 3 pm for next-day delivery | a supermarket delivery van | I work for a food delivery service

Verb: deliver

we can deliver directly to your door | the postman delivered three letters and a parcel high standard /haɪ 'stændəd/ Noun a high standard is a very good level of quality

Collocates: maintain a high standard | set a high standard they maintained a high standard of cleanliness | setting a high standard can help others | the project required a high standard of work in advance /ɪn əd'vɑ:ns/ Adverb when you do something in advance, you do it before the event or situation happens they booked the tickets in advance | planning meals in advance can save time | paying in advance is cheaper launch /lɔːntʃ/ Noun a launch is when a company releases or introduces a new product Collocate: a product launch there is a launch party next week | the product launch is tonight

Verb: launch

Collocate: launch a product they launched a new product line | launching a website requires careful planning own brand /əʊn brænd/ Phrase when something is own brand, it means the product is sold under the name of the company who is selling it the supermarket introduced its own brand of organic foods | many stores sell their own brand of products at lower prices | developing an own brand self-checkout /self 'tʃekəʊt/ Noun a self-checkout is a machine in a shop where you go and pay for the goods yourself, rather than a shop assistant helping you

Collocate: use the self-checkout they used the self-checkout to avoid the long queues | the supermarket installed new self-checkout stations | using the self-checkout is quick and convenient straightaway /streɪtə'weɪ/ Adverb straightaway means right at this moment they called straightaway to confirm the appointment | please tell them straightaway if there are any issues | going to the hospital straightaway was necessary swap /swɒp/ Verb

when you swap something, you exchange it for something else they decided to swap seats for a better view | swapping stories | can we swap seats?

Noun: swap shall we do a swap?

zero waste /'ziərəʊ weɪst/ Phrase zero waste means that there is nothing to throw away, and that every part of something is reused or recycled they adopted a zero waste lifestyle to reduce their environmental impact | achieving zero waste requires careful planning | the zero waste movement is gaining popularity

Pages 108–109

afford /ə'fɔː(r)d/ Verb

if you can't afford something, you don't have enough money to be able to pay for it

Collocate: can't afford a few of my friends use taxis regularly, but I can't afford to | she can't afford a new car | I can't afford to buy a flat | I could never afford to live in Dubai | she could only just afford to pay her rent | I can't afford to buy that

Adjective: affordable the flights are more affordable if you book in advance article /'ɑːtɪkl/ Noun an article is a piece of writing in a magazine, newspaper or blog Collocate: write an article they wrote an article for the local newspaper | the article was published in a popular magazine | reading articles online bargain /'bɑːɡɪn/ Noun

a bargain is something you feel you have got for good value, or cheaply

Collocates: bargain price | get a bargain they found a great bargain at the sale | hunting for bargains can be exciting | the bargain price was too good to pass up | did you get a bargain at the market?

Verb: bargain

we bargained for the bag and got it for a cheap price basket /'bɑːskɪt/ Noun a basket is a container which is used to hold or carry things.

Collocate: shopping basket they filled the shopping basket with groceries | the fruit basket was a gift from a friend | take a picnic basket to the park bitter /'bɪtər/ Adjective when something is bitter, it has a sharp taste and smell the medicine had a bitter taste | there was a bitter smell clothing /'kləʊðɪŋ/ Noun clothing is clothes, especially a particular type of clothes

Collocates: wear clothing | buy clothing | piece of clothing they bought warm clothing for the trip | the store sells fashionable clothing | choosing the right clothing for the occasion is important | that's a lovely piece of clothing change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Noun change is when something is different from the way it was before there have been changes in the way people are shopping

Verb: change

we need to change how we store our goods deal /di:l/ Noun

a deal is a lower than usual price for something Collocates: do a deal | make a deal | a deal on there are lots of good deals during the sale | she went online to see if she could find a good deal on a tennis racket | we can do you a deal if you buy an armchair as well as the sofa | we made a deal to meet in the middle | did you do a deal on that sofa?

footwear /'fʊtweə/ Noun footwear are things you wear on your feet such as sandals, trainers or boots they bought comfortable footwear for the hike | the store offers a wide range of sports footwear | choosing the right footwear is important for running household /'haʊshəʊld/ Adjective household means connected with a house or flat and all the people living in it

I'm working for a company that sells household goods | their total household income has dropped significantly | household bills | household expenses

Noun: household

the problem is worse for households with children personal care item /'pɜːsənəl keə 'aɪtəm/ Noun personal care items are products you use for looking after yourself and appearance, for example, shampoo, creams, toothpaste

Collocate: buy personal care items they packed personal care items for the trip | the store sells a variety of personal care items | buying personal care items plenty of /'plenti əv/ Quantifier if you have plenty of something, you have a large amount of it Collocate: have plenty of

there is plenty of time to finish the project | they had plenty of food for the party | plenty of opportunities exist in the city purchase /'pɜː(r)tʃəs/ Noun a purchase is something you have just bought we can help you pack your purchases | he put all the purchases in the boot of the car | I bought an extra bag to bring all my purchases home from holiday | he showed us his recent purchase: a huge sofa | the book is available for online purchase | 27% of global consumers made their last purchase online

Verb: purchase

tickets can be purchased in advance | my husband and I recently purchased our first home | he accidentally purchased the wrong item refund /'riːfʌnd/ Noun

a refund is when you buy something and then take it back to the shop to get your money back because you no longer want it

Collocates: request a refund | full refund | receive a refund they requested a refund | the store gave a full refund without any problems | receiving a refund can take a few days

Verb: refund

can you refund the money onto the same card?

special offer /'speʃəl 'ɒfə/ Noun when goods are on special offer, they are on sale for a much lower price than usual

Collocate: on special offer don't miss out on our special offers – only available today | flat screen TV on special offer for $225 | this special offer will last until 14th May take back /teɪk bæk/ Phrasal verb when you take something back (e.g. clothes to a shop), you return it and get your money back they decided to take it back to the shop | if you're not satisfied, you can take it back immediately | taking it back is necessary if the product is damaged value for money /'væljuː fɔː 'mʌni/ Phrase when something is value for money, it is worth the money you spent on it Collocates: get value for money | offer value for money the product offers excellent value for money | they always get good value for money when shopping | providing value for money is important for customer satisfaction

Pages 110–111

best-selling /'best 'selɪŋ/ Adjective best-selling is when there are very high sales on something, for example, a book

Collocates: best-selling book | best-selling item the novel became a best-selling book within weeks | they launched a best-selling item last year | the author is known for writing best-selling novels brand /brænd/ Noun

a brand is a type of product which is made and sold under a particular name Collocate: a brand of they prefer to buy products from a known brand | launching a new brand requires significant marketing | the company established itself as a high-end brand

Verb: brand

we branded the clothes with our logo | their products are branded as organic consumer /kən'sjuːmə/ Noun a consumer is someone who buys things for their personal use understanding consumer behaviour is important | consumer rights are protected by law | there is a high demand in the consumer market consumer trend /kən'sjuːmə trɛnd/ Phrase consumer trends are patterns or typical behaviours of people who buy things Collocates: follow consumer trends | monitor consumer trends businesses need to monitor consumer trends to stay competitive | following consumer trends can help in product development | the report reflects the latest consumer trends in the industry economy /ɪ'kɒnəmi/ Noun singular a country's economy is all the commercial and business activity that goes on. When business is successful, the economy is strong. When businesses are failing, the economy is weak how has the economy changed in your country? | the economy is recovering after the pandemic of 2020 | the government is introducing new policies to strengthen the economy | the global economy is still very weak

Noun: economics | Adjective: economic free-market economics (where the state does not control business activity) | the economic crisis of 2008 | the political and economic situation was getting worse | our economic policy has failed ethical /'eθɪkəl/ Adjective ethical means something is related to right and wrong. For example, ethical production means that goods are produced in a fair, honest and not a harmful way

Collocates: ethical spending | ethical shopping | ethical production we prefer ethical spending | ethical shopping is a top priority | the company ensures there is ethical production in the factory | ethical behaviour is expected from all employees

Noun: ethics

its important to think about the ethics behind the procedure factor /'fæktə/ Noun a factor is something that contributes to a particular result or situation

Collocate: a factor in price is a key factor in the decision-making process | they considered several factors before buying the house | an important factor was the location of the property Verb: factor

Collocate: to factor in did you factor in the cost of transport?

globally /'gləʊbəli/ Adverb globally refers to the whole world the company expanded its operations globally | the brand is recognized globally for its quality | global trade impacts economies globally

Adjective: global climate change is a global issue goods /gʊdz/ Noun plural goods are products that are made to be sold it's cheaper to buy electronic goods online | a shop selling luxury goods | the goods are transported by road | a goods train (carrying things, not passengers) | buying and selling goods in different countries is not a new activity high-quality /haɪ-'kwɒləti/ Adjective high-quality means something has been made well and is to a good standard Collocate: high-quality product they always choose high-quality products | the shop is known for its high-quality service | we like using high-quality materials

Opposite – Adjective: low-quality

I bought a jacket, but it was a low-quality material old-fashioned /əʊld'fæʃənd/ Adjective old-fashioned means something is no longer in style, and is of a style of the past Collocate: old-fashioned style they prefer old-fashioned styles | wearing old-fashioned clothes can be unique | some methods might seem old-fashioned planet-friendly /plæni't-frendli/ Adjective when something is planet-friendly, it is not harmful for the environment they use planet-friendly products to reduce their impact on the environment | adopting a planet-friendly lifestyle is important | the company promotes planet-friendly practices sustainability /sə'steɪnə'bɪləti/ Noun sustainability is the ability to maintain or use resources that do not harm the environment promoting sustainability is important for the future | achieving environmental sustainability requires effort Adjective: sustainable we prefer to use sustainable materials trend /trɛnd/ Noun

a trend is something that is popular and fashionable at a specific time

Collocates: popular trend | follow a trend they like to follow the latest fashion trends | the market trend is shifting towards sustainable products | setting a new trend | what is a popular trend at the moment?

well-known /wɛl'nəʊn/ Adjective when someone or something is well-known, it is known by many people the actor is a well-known figure in the industry | the restaurant is well-known for its delicious food | it is a well-known fact that exercise benefits health world-famous /wɜ:l'd-'feɪməs/ Adjective world-famous means something or someone is recognized by people all over the world the Eiffel Tower is world-famous | the artist became world-famous after the exhibition | they visited a world-famous destination

Pages 112–113

accurate /'ækjʊrət/ Noun when someone or something is accurate, it is correct

Collocates: accurate information | accurate data providing accurate information is essential | the report contained accurate data | they need accurate measurements for the project

Adverb: accurately

they accurately predicted the score available /ə'veɪləb(ə)l/ Adjective if something is available, someone can have it or use it straight away

Collocate: make something available it showed up as available on the website | do you have any rooms available for the 15th and 16th of June? | the video was made available on YouTube | three of the blue ones are available but not the red, I'm afraid

Noun: availability || Opposite – Adjective: unavailable

please contact us to check availability | there is limited parking availability at the station | we were told the table we wanted is unavailable courier /'kʊrɪə/ Noun a courier is someone who delivers things such as packages they used a courier service to send the package | the courier delivered the documents on time | finding a reliable courier is important for businesses debt /dɛt/ Noun

debt is an amount of money that somebody owes Collocates: in debt | pay off debt | get into debt they worked hard to pay off their debt | getting into debt can lead to financial stress | the company is in debt due to poor management

exchange /ɪks'tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb

if you exchange something, you give it back to a shop and they give you something else in its place can I exchange this shirt? It doesn't fit properly | they wouldn't give us our money back but offered to exchange it for a different model | we can try to exchange it if you really don't like it

Noun: exchange

Collocate: in exchange

we took it back and got a blue one in exchange feedback /'fi:dbæk/ Noun when you get feedback, you receive reactions to something, such as a performance or product

Collocates: customer feedback | receive feedback | positive/negative feedback | give feedback

they received positive feedback from customers | giving feedback can help improve performance | the restaurant asked for customer feedback

Verb: feedback

we will feedback on your results tomorrow fit /fɪt/ Noun

the fit of something is the size and shape of a piece of clothing on you Collocate: a perfect/good fit the shoes are a perfect fit | they tried on the jacket to check the fit | what a perfect fit!

Verb: fit that jacket fits you nicely gift-wrap /ɡɪft ræp/ Verb if you gift-wrap something, you wrap it nicely in pretty paper as a present for someone

I asked the shop assistant to gift-wrap it for me | no need to gift-wrap it – it's for me | the box had been beautifully gift-wrapped

Noun: gift-wrapping

we don't do gift-wrapping in this department helmet /'hɛlmɪt/ Noun

a helmet is something you wear on your head to protect it, for example, when you are riding a bike

Collocates: wear a helmet | put on a helmet wearing a helmet while on a bike is important for safety | the soldier put on a protective helmet | they bought a new helmet for riding their motorcycle hesitation /ˌhɛzɪ'teɪʃən/ Noun hesitation is when you pause or delay something before saying it, doing it or making a decision

Collocate: without hesitation they agreed without any hesitation | a moment of hesitation can lead to missed opportunities | hesitation gives you time to think about your decision in stock /ɪn stɒk/ Phrase when something is in stock, it is available in a shop to buy they checked if the item was in stock | the store has a large variety of products in stock | do you have my size in stock?

Noun: stockist | Verb: stock

check our website for details of your nearest stockist (shop that sells a particular item) | we stock more than forty different kinds of cheese kitchen appliance /'kɪtʃɪn ə'plaɪəns/ Noun a kitchen appliance is a piece of equipment in your kitchen that performs a certain task, for example, a microwave, an oven they bought a new kitchen appliance for their home | using electric kitchen appliances can save time | modern kitchen appliances make cooking easier material /mə'tɪəriəl/ Noun material is something which you can use to make things, for example, clothes, curtains they used a strong material for construction | finding the right material is essential for the project | the artist prefers to work with natural materials receipt /rɪ'si:t/ Noun

a receipt is a piece of paper or an email from a shop that shows where and when you bought something, and proves that you have paid

Collocates: get a receipt | have a receipt have you got a receipt and the box it came in? | you need to keep your receipt | can I have a receipt, please? | I forgot to get a receipt so I can't take it back | an old-fashioned shop where they write the receipts with a pen reduced /rɪ'dju:st/ Adjective when something is reduced, the price has decreased the store offered items at reduced prices | the team worked on a project with a reduced budget

Noun: reduction | Verb: reduce they offered a reduction of 35% | we have reduced our prices sale /seɪl/ Noun

a sale is a discount on products

Collocates: on sale | in a sale | make a sale the store held a sale last weekend | they made a significant sale today | many items are on sale at the moment | I found the trousers in the sale

Verb: sell

we would like to sell these T-shirts seller /'selə/ Noun

a seller is someone who sells products or services

Collocates: online seller | street seller the online seller provided excellent customer service | they became a top seller in their category | street sellers offer various handmade items

Verb: sell

we would like to sell these T-shirts

stock /stɒk/ Noun the stock of a shop or company is the amount of goods it has that are available and ready to be sold to customers. The goods that are available are in stock. If the shop or company no longer has a particular item, that item is out of stock

Collocates: in stock | out of stock

we've got plenty of blue ones in stock | stock control is very important in our business | we don't carry much stock because the shop is so small | I'm afraid the leather sofa is out of stock

Noun: stockist | Verb: stock

check our website for details of your nearest stockist (shop that sells a particular item) | we stock more than forty different kinds of cheese

transport /'trænsɒ:t/ Verb to transport something or someone is to move things from one place to another we transported the items by car | new cars are transported on boats

Noun: transport the country has excellent transport links

Pages 114–115

aluminium /æljʊ'mɪniəm/ Noun aluminium is a silvery, light metal which is used for many different reasons, for example, cooking pans, drinks containers they recycled aluminium cans | aluminium foil is used in cooking | the frame was made from aluminium circular fashion /'sɜ:kjʊlər 'fæʃən/ Noun circular fashion is related to the whole life cycle of a piece of clothing, from the design to the making, to the sale the brand promotes circular fashion practices | adopting circular fashion can reduce waste | the industry is moving towards circular fashion models cloud /klaʊd/ Noun the cloud is a network of remote servers which are used to store, manage and process data. A server is a computer system

Collocates: on the cloud | in the cloud we're building it on the cloud today | all my photos are stored in the cloud | did you save everything on the cloud?

comfortably /'kɒmfəbli/ Adverb comfortably means in a way that you feel relaxed and stress-free they sat comfortably on the sofa | living comfortably is a goal | the shoes fit comfortably

Noun: comfort | Adjective: comfortable || Opposite – Adjective: uncomfortable find comfort in the silence | we were comfortable staying in the hotel | this sofa is really uncomfortable consumption /kən'sʌmpʃən/ Noun uncount consumption is the act of using a resource, and it also means buying goods and services

Collocates: energy consumption | responsible consumption reducing energy consumption is important for the environment | high fuel consumption increases costs | why is a focus on responsible consumption needed?

cost-effective /kɒstɪ'fektɪv/ Adjective when something is cost-effective, it provides good value for the money you have spent they found a cost-effective solution for the project | using public transport is a cost-effective method of travel | the company talked about a cost-effective strategy

Adverb: cost-effectively we managed the project cost-effectively environmental impact /ɪn'vaɪrən'məntəl 'ɪmpækt/ Noun the environmental impact of something is the effect it has on the environment

Collocates: positive/negative environmental impact | reduce environmental impact they aim to reduce their environmental impact | assessing the environmental impact of the project is crucial | the new policy has a significant positive environmental impact harmful /'hɑ:mfʊl/ Adjective when something is harmful, it can damage or injure somebody or something that has harmful effects on health | the behaviour was potentially harmful to others | the way we throw clothes away is harmful for the planet

Noun: harm || Opposite – Adjective: harmless

Collocate: cause harm

it caused harm to the environment | it was only a harmless joke – don't take it seriously platform /'plætfɔ:m/ Noun a platform is an online website or app where you do things, for example, buy products

Collocates: online platform | social media platform | digital platform they use an online platform for their business | launching a social media platform is essential | the digital platform allows users to share content easily recycle /rɪ'saɪkl/ Verb when you recycle, you allow something to be reused or repurposed for a different use they recycle paper and plastic every week | our town encourages people to recycle properly | recycling materials can help reduce waste renewable energy /rɪ'nju:əbl 'ɛnədʒi/ Noun renewable energy is energy that will not run out such as solar or wind Collocate: invest in renewable energy they invested in renewable energy projects | promoting the use of renewable energy is essential | the company relies on renewable energy sources responsible /rɪ'spɒnsəbl/ Adjective when you are responsible in terms of your consumption, you take care over the things and the amount you use responsible consumption | we always practise responsible spending reuse /ri:'ju:z/ Verb when you reuse something, you use it again or more than once they reuse containers to reduce waste | promoting the reuse of materials can save resources | the project encourages people to reuse items single-use /'sɪŋɡəl ju:s/ Adjective single-use means something can only be used once Collocate: single-use plastic they aim to stop using single-use plastics | using single-use items increases waste | the advertisement promotes alternatives to single-use products solution /sə'lu:ʃən/ Noun a solution is a way to solve a problem or deal with a situation

Collocates: practical solution | effective solution they found a practical solution to the issue | providing an effective solution is key to success steel /sti:l/ Noun uncount steel is a strong, hard material that is used often for construction Collocate: steel industry the bridge is made of steel | the steel industry plays a crucial role in the economy unlimited supply /ʌn'lɪmɪtɪd sə'plaɪ/ Phrase an unlimited supply means there is a never-ending amount of it Collocate: have an unlimited supply of they have access to an unlimited supply of water | providing an unlimited supply of resources is not sustainable | the internet offers an almost unlimited supply of information

Opposite: Phrase: limited supply we have a limited supply of stock left wasteful /'weɪstfʊl/ Adjective when something or someone is wasteful, it acts without care for something the way things are produced are often wasteful | don't throw food away, it's wasteful

Noun: waste | Verb: waste what a waste of energy! | don't waste your time with that

UNIT 10: NO LIMITS

Page 117

adventurous /əd'ventʃərəs/ Adjective if you are adventurous, you are willing to take risks or try out new and exciting things they have an adventurous spirit | living an adventurous life can be exciting | trying new foods is adventurous

Noun: adventure

Collocates: go on an adventure | take an adventure

we should go on an adventure together | we took an adventure base jumping /beɪs 'dʒʌmpɪŋ/ Noun uncount base jumping is the activity of jumping from very high places using a parachute he died in a base jumping accident last year | base jumping in the city centre is illegal | base jumping is just too dangerous for me

Noun: base jump, base jumper | Verb: base jump the three of them base jumped from the highest waterfall in the world | her first base jump was last year, in California | an American climber and base jumper comfort zone /'kʌmfət zəʊn/ Noun your comfort zone is a situation where you feel comfortable and safe Collocates: in your comfort zone | out of your comfort zone they decided to step out of their comfort zone | I'm in my comfort zone in this job so I can't imagine leaving | pushing beyond the comfort zone leads to new experiences foolish /'fu:lɪʃ/ Adjective when someone or something is foolish, they do not have good sense or judgement. It can also mean silly

Collocates: look foolish | act foolish it was a foolish decision to go out in the storm | they felt foolish after making the mistake | acting in a foolish manner in serious situations is not a good idea

Noun: fool

Collocate: act a fool they acted like fools and embarrassed themselves free climbing /fri: 'klaɪmɪŋ/ Noun uncount free climbing is the activity of climbing rocks or mountains using equipment that will help prevent injury if you fall, but that does not help you to go up the mountain there are obvious risks involved in free climbing | he showed me a good free climbing route | free climbing is increasingly popular

Noun: free climb, free climber | Verb: free climb a list of long free climbs in Yosemite | two of the free climbers reached the top by eleven o'clock | after 23 hours, she had free climbed the entire route hang gliding /hæŋ 'glɑɪdɪŋ/ Noun uncount hang gliding is a sport where you use a piece of equipment to glide through the air. Gliding means you fly without an engine

Collocate: go hang gliding they decided to try hang gliding | hang gliding requires overcoming fear | have you ever been hang gliding?

Verb: hang glide

when I was on holiday, I went hang gliding and had to run off of a cliff!

kitesurfing /'kaɪtʃɜːfɪŋ/ Noun uncount kitesurfing is a sport where you ride a surfboard on the water while you hold onto a big kite. The big kite gets pulled along by the wind

Collocate: go kitesurfing they learned kitesurfing at the beach resort | kitesurfing requires balancing skills and strength | many people enjoy kitesurfing

Verb: kite surf

have you ever kite surfed?

parachute /'pærəʃu:t/ Noun a parachute is a piece of equipment which you use to slow down someone or something which is falling through the air

Collocate: use a parachute they used the parachute during the jump | packing a parachute correctly is important for safety | the parachute opened during the skydive

Verb: parachute

they parachuted from a plane parkour /pɑ:'kʊər/ Noun uncount parkour is a sport where you run, climb, jump, roll and flip from different surfaces Collocate: do parkour

they practice parkour in city centres | learning parkour takes time | Have you seen that group who does parkour around famous places?

peak /pi:k/ Noun

a peak is the very top of a mountain Collocate: reach the peak they reached the peak of the mountain | climbing to the peak was a significant achievement push (yourself) to the limit /pʊʃ ɔː'self tə ðə 'lɪmɪt/ Phrase when you push yourself to the limit, you use all your effort and energy until you feel like you have none left they always push themselves to the limit in training | during the competition, they pushed themselves to the limit risk-taker /rɪsk 'teɪkə/ Noun a risk-taker is a person who is happy to take a risk. A risk is when you do something where there is a possibility of something bad happening they are known as a natural risk-taker | becoming a risk-taker can open up new opportunities | many successful business people are risk-takers

Noun: risk

Collocate: take a risk we'd consider taking a risk to improve our situation sense of achievement /sens əv ə'tʃi:vmənt/ Phrase a sense of achievement is a feeling of pride and accomplishment when you finish something or complete a goal completing the project brought a great sense of achievement | they felt a strong sense of achievement after running a marathon training /'treɪnɪŋ/ Noun uncount training is when you practise a specific skill, often with an instructor they did intensive training for the event | receiving proper training is important for safety | the athletes focused on physical training for the competition ultrarunning /'ʌltrə 'rʌnɪŋ/ Noun uncount ultrarunning is the sport of running over very long distances in a race. Ultrarunning races are not all the same distance, but they have to be longer than a marathon (42 kilometres) for me, ultrarunning is a great opportunity to test my fitness | ultrarunning forces you to push yourself to your limits | I took up ultrarunning last year wingsuit flying /wɪŋsu:t 'flaɪɪŋ/ Noun uncount wingsuit flying is when you fly through the air using a jumpsuit that adds surface area to the person so they are lifted through the air they decided to try wingsuit flying for the first time | would you ever try wingsuit flying? | taking up wingsuit flying requires training and courage

Pages 118–119

astronaut /'æstrənɔ:t/ Noun an astronaut is someone who is trained to fly to space

Collocates: be an astronaut | become an astronaut the astronaut completed a successful mission | she dreamed of becoming an astronaut | professional astronauts have to do long and difficult training alternative /ɔ:l'tɜ:nətɪv/ Adjective an alternative to something is when there is more than one or two options different from the original they considered an alternative to the current plan | the doctor provided several alternatives | finding an alternative is important for the project

Adverb: alternatively alternatively, we could go out for dinner so you don't need to cook distance /'dɪstəns/ Noun distance is the amount of space between two things or points they measured the distance between the two cities | travelling a long distance can be tiring | they covered the distance quickly

Adjective: distant

Collocate: feel distant

I feel distant from you – is everything OK?

eventually /ɪ'ventʃʊəli/ Adverb when something eventually happens, it happens at the end of a series of events they eventually found a solution to the problem | after many attempts, they eventually succeeded | the project eventually met all its goals exploration /ˌeksplə'reɪʃən/ Noun uncount exploration is the action of travelling in or through somewhere to learn about it Collocates: underground exploration | space exploration space exploration has advanced significantly | they conducted scientific exploration in the rainforest | further exploration of the area

Verb: explore

let's go out and explore the area human race /'hju:mən reɪs/ Noun the human race is all humans in the world as a whole the future of the human race | climate change affects the entire human race nitrogen /'naɪtrədʒən/ Noun uncount nitrogen is a chemical element. It doesn't smell or have a colour, and forms around 78% of the Earth's atmosphere nitrogen levels in the soil affect plant growth | liquid nitrogen is used in scientific experiments | the atmosphere is mostly nitrogen outside conditions /ˌaʊtsaɪd kən'dɪʃənz/ Noun the outside conditions are the environmental factors outdoors, particularly when in space and what the space conditions are protect us from the outside conditions | adapting to extreme outside conditions | outside conditions affected the event

oxygen /'ɒksɪdʒən/ Noun uncount

oxygen is a chemical element which doesn't have a colour or smell, and it is essential for us to breathe and live plants produce oxygen during photosynthesis | the climbers carried oxygen tanks for the climb planet /'plænɪt/ Noun a planet is a large object in space which moves around the sun. Earth, Mars and Jupiter are examples of planets earth is the third planet from the sun | they discovered a new planet in the galaxy | look for distant planets possibility /ˌpɒsə'bɪlɪti/ Noun a possibility is when something might or might not happen Collocate: explore the possibility of they explored the possibility of moving abroad | considering all possibilities is important for decision-making | endless possibilities

Adjective: possible | Adverb: possibly if it's possible, we should reschedule | we're possibly moving house practical /'præktɪkəl/ Adjective when something is practical, it is suitable and realistic

Collocates: practical option | practical solution they found a practical solution to the problem | gaining practical experience is valuable for students | the team took a practical approach to the project | what's the most practical option?

Noun: practice | Verb: practise we did a lot of practice for the show | have you been practising?

realistic /rɪə'lɪstɪk/ Adjective realistic means that something or someone shows a sensible idea of what will happen setting realistic goals is important for success | they took a realistic view of the challenges ahead | I see things in a realistic way requirement /rɪ'kwəɪəmənt/ Noun a requirement is something that needs to be done before something else can happen

Collocates: basic requirement | meet the requirements they must meet the requirements for the job | what are the basic requirements for the position? | having a passport is a basic requirement for travel

Verb: require

we require all passengers to show their boarding pass solar system /'səʊlə 'sɪstəm/ Noun the solar system is the collection of planets that orbit our sun they studied the planets in our solar system | exploring the solar system is a goal for many space agencies | Mars is in our solar system supplies /sə'plaɪz/ Noun plural supplies are the things that you need in order to do or achieve something. Often they are physical things such as food and water

Collocates: basic supplies | essential supplies they loaded up on essential supplies for the trip | delivering medical supplies to remote areas | we brought the basic supplies

Verb: supply

they supplied us with enough power to last the night

theory /'θɪəri/ Noun

a theory is an idea or collection of ideas that give an explanation for something Collocate: in theory

they developed a new theory | the scientific theory was supported by research | testing the theory requires experiments absorb /əb'zɔ:b/ Verb absorb means to take in something easily such as water or energy the sponge can absorb a lot of water | plants absorb sunlight | they tried to absorb all the information during the lecture artificial /ɑ:'trɪfɪəl/ Adjective when something is artificial, it is made by humans and is not natural they used artificial light to grow the plants | artificial wind pushes them along | the food contains artificial flavours

Pages 120–121

Adverb: artificially these plants are artificially made athlete /'æθli:t/ Noun an athlete is a person who does sports and physical exercise the athlete trained hard for the competition | many professional athletes are competing | the Olympic athlete inspired many people

Adjective: athletic you are a very athletic person athletic /æθ'letɪk/ Adjective if you are athletic, you are physically active and do a lot of exercise. You are strong and fit

Collocates: athletic performance | athletic events they had a strong athletic performance | athletic events are enjoyable to watch | improving athletic performance requires work

Noun: athlete

he's a very fast athlete competition /kəmpe'tɪʃən/ Noun a competition is when you participate in something to try and beat other people to win

Collocates: in a competition | enter a competition they entered the competition with high hopes | facing tough competition can be challenging | they won the competition | we are in a competition – we need to win!

Verb: compete

we're competing against each other iconic /aɪ'kɒnɪk/ Adjective iconic means something or someone is very well-known and established the Eiffel Tower is an iconic place | the design became iconic in the fashion world | the iconic mountain range

Noun: icon

she's such an icon – everyone admires her improvement /ɪm'pru:vmənt/ Noun an improvement is something you do in order to make something better Collocates: make improvements | significant improvements | show improvements they made significant improvements to the software | the team's performance showed improvements | suggesting improvements can help the project succeed

Verb: improve your dancing skills have really improved recently marathon /'mæɾəθ(ə)n/ Noun a marathon is a running race over a distance of more than 26 miles (42 kilometres). You can refer to any event, activity or process that takes a long time as a marathon

a kind of comedy marathon for children | a 48-hour dance marathon | it was quite a marathon painting the whole of the outside of the house in a weekend | I ran my first marathon measure /'meʒər/ Verb when you measure something, you find out its size they measured the length of the table | it's important to measure ingredients accurately when baking | the scientist measured the distance between the two points

Noun: measurement

what are the measurements of that table?

motivation /məʊtɪ'veɪʃən/ Noun motivation is the power to push yourself to do something physical or mental Collocates: lack motivation | have motivation they found motivation to complete the project | a good leader can provide motivation for the team | lack of motivation can lead to decreased productivity

Noun: self-motivation

Collocate: have self-motivation

I have the self-motivation to be able to do it | what motivates you every day?

Olympic /ə'ɒlɪmpɪk/ Adjective

Olympic means connected with the Olympic games. The Olympic games is an a sports event which is held every four years

Collocates: Olympic games | Olympic athlete the athlete trained hard for the Olympic Games | winning an Olympic medal is a great achievement | they watched the Olympic athlete practise omit /ə'mɪt/ Verb

when you omit something, you leave it out or forget it, either on purpose or by accident they omitted an important detail from the report | try not to omit any information when filling out the form | the editor decided to omit certain parts of the story

Paralympics /pærə'lɪmpɪks/ Noun the Paralympics, or the Paralympic Games, is a big athletics event held after the Olympic Games for athletes with disabilities her ambition is to represent Great Britain at the next Paralympics

Noun: Paralympian | Adjective: Paralympic

a Paralympic athlete | a competitor in the Paralympic swimming event | a documentary about British Paralympians personal best /'pɜːsənl best/ Phrase a personal best is when you achieve the best time or do the best performance in something, compared to previous situations or attempts

Collocates: achieve a personal best | beat a personal best the runner achieved a personal best in the marathon | they trained hard to beat their personal best | setting a new personal best is my goal swimsuit /'swɪmsu:t/ Noun a swimsuit is something you wear to go swimming In they bought new swimsuits for the holiday | comfortable swimsuits are essential for swimming | don't forget to bring your swimsuits!

technique /tek'ni:k/ Noun

a technique is the way in which you do something they learned a new technique for painting | technique is important for playing the piano | improving technique can lead to better results time after time /taɪm 'ɑːftə taɪm/ Phrase time after time means again and again time after time, they proved their interest to the project | they saw the same mistake being made time after time vote /vəʊt/ Verb when you vote, you make a choice between something through a secret ballot or by showing hands. A ballot is when you write your vote on a piece of paper and submit it privately they voted in the election | the majority vote decided the result | counting the votes took several hours

Noun: vote

Collocate: cast a vote

we cast a vote for the candidate with the best policies wheelchair /'wiːltʃeə(r)/ Noun a wheelchair is a chair with two large wheels at the side and smaller wheels near the front, which a person with a disability can use to move around, either by turning the large wheels with their hands or by being pushed by someone

Collocate: in a wheelchair wheelchair basketball (basketball played by teams of people in wheelchairs) | I never thought I could play rugby in a wheelchair | after the accident, his only way of getting around was in a wheelchair wind tunnel /wɪnd 'tʌnəl/ Noun a wind tunnel is a place where you can blow air onto something to test the effects physical objects moving through air they tested the new aircraft design in the wind tunnel | using a wind tunnel helps in understanding aerodynamics | the engineers built a model for wind tunnel testing world record /wɜːld 'rɛkɔːd/ Noun a world record is the best performance which has been recorded for a specific activity, anywhere in the world

Collocates: hold a world record | break a world record | set a world record they broke the world record for the 100-meter run | holding a world record is a significant achievement | they trained hard to set a new world record

Pages 122–123

cave system /keɪv 'sɪstəm/ Noun a cave system is a network of underground areas that are connected and you can move through they explored the cave system for several hours | you need experience to navigate a complex cave system like this one caving /'keɪvɪŋ/ Noun uncount caving is when you explore and move around caves. Caves are underground areas which can be quite small or quite big Collocate: go caving

they like to go caving in their free time | caving is an adventurous activity | an experienced guide is essential for safe caving

Noun: cave

in some cultures, people used to sleep in caves entrance chamber /'entrəns 'tʃeɪmbə/ Noun an entrance chamber is the area you go through in order to get into a cave the entrance chamber of the cave was impressive | they met in the large entrance chamber | the entrance chamber leads to several tunnels flood /flʌd/ Noun

a flood is when there is a lot of water that covers a place and is more than is usual heavy rains caused a flood | they tried to prevent the flood | the flood resulted in damage to the area

Verb: flood the rain flooded the village mud /mʌd/ Noun uncount mud is earth that is very wet and soft Collocate: covered in mud her boots were covered in mud | don't get mud on the kitchen floor! | the campsite was one whole field of mud | the children loved playing in the mud

Adjective: muddy

she left her muddy boots by the door | the camp site was really muddy | the floor was all muddy negative attitude /'negətɪv 'ætɪtju:d/ Noun a negative attitude is when someone sees things in a bad way Collocate: have a negative attitude they had a negative attitude towards the changes | it's important not to have a negative attitude

Opposite – Noun: positive attitude the team has a very positive attitude towards the project objective /əb'dʒektɪv/ Noun an objective is a goal or thing you are working towards or want to achieve Collocates: achieve an objective | set an objective | clear objective | meet an objective they set clear objectives for the project | achieving an objective requires careful planning | make sure you have clear objectives overcome /əʊvə(r)'kʌm/ Verb to overcome something that is difficult means to succeed in doing what you want to do despite the problems that are involved

Collocates: overcome an obstacle/barrier/difficulty | successfully overcome something many local communities are managing to overcome the problem | our role is to help students overcome these obstacles | these translations made it possible to overcome the language barrier | how have they tried to overcome their difficulties?

preferable /'prɛfərəbl/ Adjective when something is preferable, it is more suitable or appropriate and you are more likely to choose or do it finding a preferable solution is important | they considered this preferable to the other option | staying on a low floor is preferable which colour do you prefer?

Verb: prefer

professional life /prə'feʃənl laɪf/ Noun your professional life is everything related to your career or job balancing your professional life with personal life is difficult | they managed a successful professional life | with my new job, I have a busy professional life push yourself /pʊʃ jɔ:'self/ Phrase when you push yourself, you put a lot of your effort and energy into something, and beyond what you typically do they always push themselves to do better | pushing yourself beyond the comfort zone | they constantly push themselves to try new things rock form /rɒk fɔ:m/ Noun rock forms are natural groups of rocks, which are hard, natural minerals geologists study different rock forms | what are those huge rock forms? | ancient rock forms tell us about Earth's history statistically /stə'tɪstɪkli/ Adverb statistically means all the data and information which is considered in order to say something or make a decision statistically, the results are significant | they looked at the data statistically

Noun: statistic

statistics show it is more likely to happen steady /'stɛdi/ Adjective when something is steady, it is not changing

Collocates: a steady temperature | a steady pace maintaining a steady pace is important for long-distance running | the caves had a steady temperature stubborn /'stʌbən/ Adjective when someone is stubborn, they do not like to change their view or attitude they remained stubborn in their opinion | having a stubborn personality can be challenging | stubborn behaviour often leads to problems take a deep breath /teɪk ə di:p brɛθ/ Phrase when you take a deep breath, you breathe in strongly to make yourself feel calm or less stressed before you do something they took a deep breath to calm down | before starting, take a deep breath and focus | I took a deep breath before starting the test take it /teɪk ɪt/ Phrase when you can't take it, you find something difficult to accept they can't take it when things get tough | if you can't take it, consider other options take on /teɪk ɒn/ Phrasal verb when you take on something, you assume responsibility for it they decided to take on a new project | taking on more responsibility can take more time | they were ready to take on the challenge take care of /'teɪk keə əv/ Phrase when take care of something or someone, you look after it they enjoy taking care of the garden | I'm going to take care of the kids this afternoon | take care of yourself

take up /teɪk ʌp/ Phrasal verb

when you take up something, you start doing it they took up painting during the summer | we're thinking of taking up a new hobby | they took up running to get fit waterfall /'wɔ:təfɔ:l/ Noun a waterfall is a large amount of water which falls over a set of rocks we went to a huge waterfall in Thailand | it's quite a walk to the waterfall | Victoria falls is considered to be the biggest waterfall in the world waterproof clothing /'wɔ:təpru:f 'kləʊðɪŋ/ Noun waterproof clothing are clothes you wear to protect you from water and keep you dry they wore waterproof clothing during the hike | it's essential to have waterproof clothing in rainy weather | they bought new waterproof clothing for the camping trip

Pages 124–125

aches and pains /eɪks ənd peɪnz/ Phrase aches and pains are when you feel sore or uncomfortable in your body. It might be because you have hurt yourself or you are ill, or elderly

Collocate: have aches and pains they experienced aches and pains after the workout | I have constant aches and pains anyway /'eniweɪ/ Adverb you use anyway to confirm or support something you have just said or to change the subject onto something new they decided to go anyway despite the rain | the plan might change, but they'll prepare anyway | anyway, let's talk about something else basically /'beɪsɪkli/ Adverb you use basically to explain something in more simple or clearer terms basically, they need to complete the task by tomorrow | the idea is basically the same as before | basically, it means they have more work to do be in touch /bi: ɪn tʌtʃ/ Phrase when someone has been in touch, they have communicated with you they have been in touch with the organisers | we will be in touch later | they recently been in touch with a former school friend be under-prepared /bi: 'ʌndə prɪ'peəd/ Phrase when you are under-prepared you are not completely ready for something they felt under-prepared for the exam | being under-prepared can lead to mistakes | they seemed under-prepared for the meeting

Noun: preparation | Verb: prepare || Opposite: Phrase: over-prepared there was a lot of preparation for the presentation | the pilot prepared for take off we over-prepared for the trip bend down /bend daʊn/ Phrasal verb when you bend down, you lower the top half of your body by leaning forward. You may also move your knees so that you are lower to the ground he bent down to pick up the paper | bend down and pick up that suitcase, will you? | she had to bend down to reach the bottom shelf bleeding /'bli:dɪŋ/ Noun bleeding means that there is blood coming out of the body they tried to stop the bleeding | heavy bleeding requires immediate medical attention

Noun: blood

I have a fear of blood | donate blood | there is blood on the floor from the cut by the way /baɪ ðə weɪ/ Phrase you use by the way to introduce something that is not related to the topic you are discussing

OK. See you next week. Oh, by the way, can you send me Jim's email address | I'm Alan, by the way. I don't think we've met before | thanks for your help. Your English is very good, by the way charity /'tʃærɪti/ Noun charity is an organization which collects and raises money for a specific purpose that needs it Collocates: raise money for charity | support a charity | donate money to charity they donated money to a local charity | supporting charity events can make a difference | the event raised £1,000 for the charity deep cut /di:p kʌt/ Noun a deep cut is when there is a serious issue that means something has gone into your skin she had a deep cut | a deep cut might need to be seen by a doctor | we need to clean that deep cut dilemma /dɪ'lemə/ Noun

a dilemma is a difficult situation that forces you to make a difficult decision

Collocates: face a dilemma | be in a dilemma | relationship dilemmas after two years, I faced a dilemma – whether to stop now or carry on for another year | I'm in a dilemma about which university to choose | a moral dilemma | this is the dilemma facing many teachers today | what advice do you need about your relationship dilemma?

fall off /fɔ:l ɒf/ Phrasal verb to fall off something is to drop down from a higher level to a lower level they fell off the ladder while painting | the child fell off the bike | the hat fell off and landed in the water fit /fɪt/ Adjective if someone is fit, they are healthy and can do physical exercise without becoming tired

Collocates: get fit | keep fit our team might have won if all our players had been fit | I need to get fit if I'm going to walk 20 miles | Montero is hoping to be fit for his semi-final match on Sunday | cycling keeps me fit

Noun: fitness

he needs to work on his fitness if he's going to win | Amy is really into fitness – she cycles everywhere for ages /fɔ: 'eɪdʒɪz/ Phrase for ages means for a long time they waited for ages for the bus to arrive | it feels like they haven't seen each other for ages | they talked for ages about their experiences gym /dʒɪm/ Noun

a gym is a place where you go to exercise. Often it has machines you can use Collocates: go to the gym | join the gym | use the gym they decided to join the gym to stay fit | going to the gym regularly improves health | they have a gym membership | I want to use the hotel gym have a reaction /hæv ə ri'ækʃən/ Phrase when you have a reaction, your body responds negatively to something such as a bite from an insect or food

Collocate: have a reaction to they had a severe reaction to the medicine | tell me if you have a reaction to any foods | they had an immediate reaction to the bee sting

Verb: react

it's hard not to react when someone says something like that hurt /hɜ:(r)t/ Verb

if part of your body hurts, or if something hurts you, you feel pain there my knee really hurts | stop hitting me – it really hurts | let me look at your eye. Don't worry, it won't hurt | it hurts when I try to bend my elbow | when I woke up, my neck was still hurting

Adjective: hurt

are you hurt? | no one was hurt in the accident | he was badly hurt when he fell off his bike in the end /ɪn ðə ɛnd/ Phrase in the end means finally, or after some events have happened in the end, everything worked out well | they decided to go with the original plan in the end | it didn't matter much in the end injury /'ɪndʒəri/ Noun

if you have an injury, a part of your body has been hurt and needs time to recover

Collocate: suffer an injury my injuries ended my career as a dancer | I got a really bad knee injury | she suffered a serious injury in the accident | proper shoes can also help prevent injuries | his injuries took a long time to heal

Verb: injure | Adjective: injured

he injured his shoulder playing football | he came home with an injured foot insect bite /'ɪnsekt baɪt/ Noun an insect bite is when a bug or small creature bites your skin and takes blood. Insect bites are usually itchy and often go red

Collocate: a reaction to an insect bite an insect bite can swell up quickly | apply some cream to soothe your insect bite | some people have severe allergic reactions to an insect bite | he's had a reaction to an insect bite – we need a pharmacy keep an eye on it /ki:p ən aɪ ɒn ɪt/ Phrase when you keep an eye on something, you watch it or make sure you continue to look at it keep an eye on it for any changes | make sure to keep an eye on it until the doctor arrives | they asked to keep an eye on it in case it got worse nasty /'nɑ:sti/ Adjective when something is nasty, it is very bad Collocate: look nasty that bite looks nasty! | we have a nasty cold | the cut was starting to look nasty naturally /'nætʃərəli/ Adverb naturally means something is expected Collocate: come naturally for her, it was something that happened naturally | it came naturally to me

Noun: nature | Adjective: natural

I love being outdoors in nature | your hair is a natural colour need treatment /ni:d 'tri:tment/ Phrase when someone needs treatment, it means they need help or support because they are sick or have hurt themselves

Collocate: need treatment for the wound will need treatment to avoid infection | you may need treatment for that insect bite

Verb: treat

we can treat this with medicine obviously /'ɒbvɪəsli/ Adverb you use obviously to emphasize that something is true and that the person you are talking to almost certainly knows this too

I'd have to give up my job, obviously | she doesn't speak French, so she obviously won't get the job | the house was obviously very old | our main uncertainty is obviously the weather over-exercise /əʊvər'eksəsaɪz/ Verb when you over-exercise, you do too much physical activity

I over-exercised at the gym last week | my doctor told me not to over-exercise | do not over-exercise your puppy pain /peɪn/ Noun uncount pain is the unpleasant physical feeling you have when a part of your body has been hit or cut

Collocates: be in pain | a lot of pain | ease the pain

I was in a lot of pain until the doctor arrived | can you feel any pain in your arm? | I just want the pain to go away | the doctor gave me some medicine to ease the pain

Adjective: painful

my leg is really painful | a painful knock on the head peace and quiet /pi:s ənd kwaɪət/ Phrase peace and quiet is when it is calm and there is no stress or stressful factors around

Collocates: want peace and quiet | find peace and quiet after a long day, finding some peace and quiet is essential | many people look for peace and quiet in nature | I'm looking forward to some peace and quiet this evening penknife /'penaɪf/ Noun a penknife is a tool which has many different functions. It is a small object with different things inside it, for example, a knife, scissors or a screwdriver (a tool to take out silver things that hold objects together)

carrying a penknife can be useful for when you need a tool quickly | a penknife is good for camping personal trainer /'pɜ:sənəl 'treɪnər/ Noun a personal trainer is someone who helps you physically prepare for something or to get fitter

Collocates: have a personal trainer | get a personal trainer having a personal trainer can help you achieve fitness goals | a personal trainer provides motivation and support | it's quite expensive to get a personal trainer pull a muscle /pʊl ə 'mʌsəl/ Phrase when you pull a muscle, you injure or hurt something in your body and it no longer feels normal or comfortable. Often it is because of physical activity be careful you don't pull a muscle while lifting weights | it can be painful if someone has pulled a muscle | recovery time depends on how badly you pulled your muscle push yourself too hard /pʊʃ ʤɜ:'self tu: hɑ:d/ Phrase when you push yourself too hard, you do so much that it is very tiring it is important not to push yourself too hard during training | pushing yourself too hard isn't good for anyone raise money /reɪz 'mʌni/ Phrase when you raise money you do something to collect money for a specific purpose, for example, a charity Collocate: raise money for the event aimed to raise money for cancer research | many charities organize events to raise money | we raised money with a bake sale sprain /spreɪn/ Noun

if you sprain your knee, ankle, wrist, etc., you hurt it and damage it by twisting it suddenly. The injury you get is a sprain

it was a severe sprain and needed months of therapy | you haven't broken it – it's only a sprain | I've hurt my ankle but I think it's just a sprain

Verb: sprain | Adjective: sprained you've probably just sprained it, but we'll do an X-ray to check | a sprained ankle | she had a sprained wrist | he suffered a sprained left shoulder take (unnecessary) risks /teɪk ən'nesəsəri rɪks/ Phrase when you take (unnecessary risks) you do things that involve potential danger because you want to and not because you have to it is important not to take unnecessary risks while driving | some people tend to take unnecessary risks | avoid taking unnecessary risks when the situation is already dangerous

Verb: risk

we risked everything to be here the thing is /ðə θɪŋ ɪz/ Phrase you use the thing is to introduce something that you think is very important for the discussion you are having the thing is, I was hoping I could borrow some money | the thing is, we need to find a hotel before it gets dark | dad wants me to go to university in September, but the thing is I want to travel for a year first trampoline /'træmpəli:n/ Noun a trampoline is a piece of equipment that has a strong piece of material over a metal frame that you can jump on the children love the trampoline | I used to jump on the trampoline in the garden wash /wɒʃ/ Verb

when you wash something, you clean it to make sure it doesn't cause further problems, such as a cut if you get a cut, make sure to wash it immediately | always wash a cut before applying any cream | wash the cut carefully to prevent any infection

Noun: wash

Collocate: give it a wash give the cut a wash to clean it out worth /wɜ:θ/ Adjective when something is worth doing, it means there would be value in doing something it's worth going to the hospital to get it checked | the museum is definitely worth going to | if you like history, the old town is worth visiting x-ray /'ɛksreɪ/ Noun an x-ray is a procedure where a specialist looks inside your body using a special machine

Collocates: get an x-ray | do an x-ray | take an x-ray the doctor decided to take an x-ray of the injured arm | the x-ray showed a crack in the bone | you should get an x-ray if it hurts that much

Verb: x-ray

the doctor x-rayed his foot

Pages 126–127

abstract /'æbstrækt/ Adjective when something is abstract, it exists as an idea but there is no physical proof of it

Collocates: abstract ideas | abstract concepts understanding abstract concepts can be challenging | abstract art often makes people feel different emotions | the theory remains abstract | you always have such abstract ideas!

animation /æni'meɪʃən/ Noun an animation is telling stories through drawn pictures the animation in the movie was amazing | many children enjoy watching animation on TV | creating animation requires a lot of skill

Verb: animate | Adjective: animated

I animate characters for video games | I love animated films brilliant /'brɪljənt/ Adjective brilliant means that something is great or amazing you were brilliant on stage! | what a brilliant song | I had a brilliant time, thanks!

connected /kə'nektɪd/ Adjective if you feel connected to someone or something, you feel that you have a common link or association with them

Collocate: connected to someone or something our families are now connected through marriage | although I spent three years there, I don't feel I'm connected to the place

Noun: connection

Collocate: connection with someone or something

I felt a strong connection with the other musicians in the orchestra crewmate /kru:'meɪt/ Noun a team of people who work together, for example, on a ship or in a plane or spaceship, are called a crew. If you are a member of a crew, your crewmates are the other members of the team

I got on very well with my crewmates | two of his crewmates died before the ship got back to Plymouth | Neil Armstrong's crewmates on his mission to the moon were Buzz Aldrin and Mike Collins

Noun: crew

the plane was carrying seven crew and 112 passengers | one of the crew members helped me with my luggage float /fləʊt/ Verb

if you float, you move slowly on the surface of water or in the air

I dreamt I was floating inside the space station | he floated for a while in the middle of the pool | a plastic bag was floating in the river freedom /'fri:dəm/ Noun freedom is the power to do, think or say without anyone stopping you from it many people value their freedom above all else | the freedom to do what you want | the country celebrated its freedom with an annual festival gently /'dʒentli/ Adverb when something is done gently, it is done in a soft way the nurse spoke gently to calm the patient | handle the items gently to avoid damage | we sat down gently in the raft

Adjective: gentle

Collocate: gentle with be gentle with that please – I don't want it to break miss /mɪs/ Verb

if you miss someone or if you miss a place, you feel slightly sad that you are not with that person or in that place any more you start thinking about the things you're missing at home | I really missed my dog when I went on holiday | you'll miss me when I'm gone! | one thing I didn't miss when I left school was maths lessons space station /speɪs 'steɪʃən/ Noun the space station is a large satellite in space. People from different countries travel to the space station to carry out missions and sometimes stay on there for extended periods of time astronauts conduct experiments on the International Space Station | the space station orbits the Earth approximately every 90 minutes | Valeri Polyakov was on the space station the longest with a stay of 437 days warmth /wɜ:mθ/ Noun warmth is the state or feeling of being warm – not too hot and not too cold Collocate: feel warmth

the warmth of the sun felt wonderful | our heater provides warmth in the winter

Adjective: warm | Phrasal verb: warm up it's quite warm today, isn't it? | can you warm up my dinner please? | I'm struggling to warm up – it's so cold!

UNIT 11: CONNECTIONS

Page 129

application /æplɪkeɪʃən/ Noun

an application is when you ask to do something in writing Collocate: application form can you fill out the application form, please? | I sent an application to the college

Verb: apply

Collocates: apply for | apply to

I've applied for the evening course | I'm going to apply for that role category /'kætəgəri/ Noun a category is a section or division of something. Each thing within a category shares similar characteristics the books are organized into different categories | many awards fall into several categories | they added a new category to the competition engineering /ˌendʒɪˈnɪəriŋ/ Noun uncount engineering is related to the design, building and use of engines, machines and structures engineering plays an important role in modern life | studying engineering requires a strong knowledge of maths and science | the engineering project took years to complete

Noun: engineer

my daughter studied to be an engineer at university judge /dʒʌdʒ/ Noun

a judge is someone who scores a competition and decides on the winner the judges chose the winner | I was a judge in the competition | the judges will decide who demonstrated their talents the best

Verb: judge

we judged the winner to be the blue team pre-college /pri: 'kɒlɪdʒ/ Phrase pre-college relates to the time before university or further studies after school the pre-college course helps students prepare for higher education | pre-college courses often cover advanced topics research project /rɪ'sɜ:tʃ 'prɒdʒekt/ Noun a research project is a study of a subject to reach an understanding of it or to discover new information

Collocate: do a research project the research project focused on clean energy sources | we are doing a research project on the climate in our country | they presented the findings of their research project at the conference

Noun: research | Verb: research

Collocate: do research (into something)

we had to complete a research project | I'm researching my family history | each student had to research a different topic technological solution /ˌtɛknə'lɒdʒɪkəl sə'lʊ:ʃən/ Noun a technological solution uses methods or tools developed using technology to solve problems the company specializes in technological solutions for healthcare | innovative technological solutions to address climate change | technological solutions can improve efficiency

Pages 130–131

collaborate /kə'læbəreɪt/ Verb when you collaborate, you work together on something with a person or people Collocates: collaborate with | collaborate on they decided to collaborate on the new project | researchers from different areas often collaborate with each other

Noun: collaboration

Collocate: collaboration between there is a collaboration between the shoe company and the singer control /kən'trəʊl/ Noun control is when you have authority or power over a situation

Collocates: take control of | lose control of it is important to take control of what you are spending | do not lose control of the wheel | can you take control of the situation?

deforestation /di:fɒrɪ'steɪʃən/ Noun deforestation is when a large area of trees are cut down deforestation is a major world issue | deforestation impacts the climate destruction /di'strʌkʃən/ Noun destruction is when there is so much damage that something no longer exists or it cannot be repaired to how it once was

Collocate: tragic destruction communities are still recovering from the tragic destruction of the town | the storm caused destruction

Verb: destroy

they planned to destroy the abandoned building forest ranger /'fɒrɪst 'reɪndʒə(r)/ Noun forest rangers are people who are responsible for the protection of forests and looking after them forest rangers look after the national parks | the forest ranger works hard to protect wildlife illegal /ɪ'li:gəl/ Adjective when something is illegal, it is against the law it is illegal to drive without a license | the company was fined for selling illegal products | they did something illegal

Adverb: illegally || Opposite – Adjective: legal they obtained the film illegally | do you need legal help?

in addition to /ɪn ə'dɪʃən tu:/ Phrase in addition to means as well as, or that you are adding something else to the previous point in addition to studying, they work part-time | there were snacks in addition to the main meal | in addition to the course, they offer private sessions install /ɪn'stɔːl/ Verb when you install something, you fix equipment or a machine so that it is ready to use they plan to install new software on the computers | installing the equipment took several hours | someone will install the security system tomorrow

Noun: installation

the installation will take around two hours natural resource /'nætʃrəl rɪ'sɔːs/ Noun a natural resource is something in nature such as oil, gas, stone countries often need natural resources for economic development | managing natural resources sustainably is important operate /'ɒpəreɪt/ Verb to operate means to power or control how something functions we operate our business with a focus on the customer | they operate by using solar power ranger /'reɪndʒər/ Noun a ranger is a person who looks after and protects a particular area the ranger gave a talk about local wildlife | rangers often guide visitors and provide information | a ranger's job involves protecting the natural environment safely /'seɪfli/ Adverb safely means in a way that is not going to cause harm or injury always use sharp objects safely | they arrived safely after a long journey | the equipment should be operated safely

Adjective: safe make sure you stay safe and keep your phone switched on signal /'sɪgnəl/ Noun a signal is a sound that provides information or instructions to someone on each end of a device

Collocate: send signals

we heard the signal telling us to move | send us a signal when you're ready | we need a clear signal social media /'səʊʃəl 'miːdiə/ Noun uncount social media is apps such as Facebook, Instagram, which people use to share pictures and send messages to each other we chat on social media every day | my dad doesn't do social media (doesn't use it) | social media is very useful for keeping in touch solar panel /'səʊlə 'pænl/ Noun a solar panel is something which takes in the light from the sun to use as energy they decided to install a solar panel the efficiency of a solar panel depends on the weather | solar panels can help reduce electricity bills solar power /'səʊlə 'paʊər/ Noun solar power is energy from the sun that is used for energy solar power is a clean and renewable energy source | many homes now use solar power to reduce energy costs | governments encourage the use of solar power solve /sɒlv/ Verb

when you solve something, you find the answer to a problem they worked together to solve the complex problem | can you help me solve this? | the detective solved the case

Noun: solution

Collocates: find a solution to | have a solution

we found a solution to the problem | we have a solution for how to make everyone happy spokesperson /'spəʊksˌpɜːsən/ Noun a spokesperson is someone who makes a statement on behalf of someone else the spokesperson spoke to the media about the new policy | an official spokesperson will handle all communications | the company hired a new spokesperson territory /'tɛrɪtəri/ Noun territory is an area of land

Collocate: mark territory the animal marked its territory | that's just the dog trying to establish its territory

track /træk/ Verb

when you track someone or something you follow clues to find it, for example, smell, footprints we were tracking the animal using its footprints in the mud | we tracked them to their village

Noun: track

Collocate: follow a track we followed the animal tracks into the forest travel /'trævl/ Verb to travel means to make a journey they love to travel and explore new places | business professionals often travel for meetings | some people dream of travelling around the world

Noun: travel, traveller

the travel was awful – it took longer than expected | we met a traveller who was staying at the same hostel as us unwanted /ʌn'wɒntɪd/ Adjective something that is unwanted is not wanted by someone unwanted food should not be thrown away but given to people in need | we tried to sell some of our unwanted furniture villager /'vɪlɪdʒər/ Noun a villager is someone who lives in a village. A village is a small town with only a few residents

Collocate: local villager

the community celebrated the festival | the local villager offered to guide us through the area

Noun: village

we live in a village with one post office and one shop wildlife /'waɪldlaɪf/ Noun uncount wildlife is animals, birds and other living things in their natural environment the wildlife in the national park is amazing | we're going to great efforts to protect wildlife

Pages 132–133

battery /'bætəri/ Noun

a battery is a device which stores energy and provides electrical power to something

Collocates: dead battery | charge a battery the remote control needs a new battery | rechargeable batteries are more environmentally friendly | the car's battery died in the middle of the trip | you need to charge the camera battery camera /'kæmrə/ Noun a camera is a piece of equipment you can use to take photos or videos Collocate: digital camera they used a digital camera to take photos | do you have a camera or do you prefer to use your phone?

cameraphone /'kæmrəfəʊn/ Noun a cameraphone is a piece of equipment you can use to make calls, and also take photos and videos

Collocates: have a cameraphone | use a cameraphone many people use a cameraphone | the quality of cameraphone pictures has improved significantly | take a selfie with your cameraphone email account /'i:meɪl ə'kaʊnt/ Noun an email account is a digital platform where you can send and receive emails creating an email account is usually easy | it is important to secure your email account with a strong password | they check their email account several times a day fax /fæks/ Noun

a fax is a document which you send by fax machine, which is a machine that sends physical documents electronically they still use faxes for some official documents | the office received several important faxes today | sending faxes is much less common nowadays can you fax me those documents?

Verb: fax

influential /ɪnflu'ɛnʃəl/ Adjective when someone is influential, they have the ability to persuade or convince people to do or think something

Collocates: influential in | become influential the scientist is highly influential in the field of biology | influential leaders can help make a change | the book became influential

Verb: influence

Collocate: influenced by my sister is easily influenced by me | they influenced the vote invention /ɪn'venʃən/ Noun an invention is a unique device, method or process which is developed by someone and tested the invention of the telephone changed communication | their latest invention won several awards | the latest tech invention

Verb: invent

Baron Karl von Drais invented the hobby, which came before the bicycle offline /ɒf'laɪn/ Adjective when you are offline, you are not connected to the internet they saved the documents for offline access | working offline today | the website offers an offline option

Opposite – Adjective: online my boss is online so I can't chat right now phone network /fəʊn 'netwɜ:k/ Noun a phone network is a system of communication devices such as the internet or the phone line to make calls the phone network was down due to the storm | a reliable phone network is important | they switched to a new phone network put (your mobile) on silent /pʊt jɔ: 'məʊbaɪl ɒn 'saɪlənt/ Phrase when you put (your mobile) on silent, you change the volume so that it doesn't ring or make a noise remember to put your mobile on silent during the meeting | they always put their mobile on silent when they're at the cinema | put your mobile on silent during class reach out /ri:tʃ aʊt/ Phrasal verb when you reach out to someone, you make contact with them they decided to reach out to an old friend | organizations often reach out to the community for support | if you need help, please reach out relatively /'rɛlətɪvli/ Adverb relatively means in comparison to something else the task was relatively easy compared to others | the company is relatively new in the industry | the cost was relatively high for such a small item

Adjective: relative the wage is relative to the job server /'sɜ:vər/ Noun a server is a computer that manages access to a central resource or service in a network. Computers run off servers the website's server went down due to high traffic | they upgraded the server to handle more data | the email server needs to be checked speakerphone /'spi:kəfəʊn/ Noun speakerphone is when a phone call is played out loud for everyone to hear Collocate: put someone on speakerphone they used the speakerphone for the conference call | have you got me on speakerphone? | don't put me on speakerphone – this is a private conversation synchronize /ˈsɪŋkrənaɪz/ Verb when you synchronize accounts or devices, you make sure they all come together and perform the same function the software can synchronize data across devices | it is important to synchronize the clocks before starting the experiment | they synchronized their schedules to find a common meeting time | can you help me synchronize my email accounts?

telegram /ˈtelɪgræmz/ Noun telegrams are messages which were sent by an electrical device and then printed into written form Collocates: send a telegram | receive a telegram they used to send telegrams to inform the relatives of the news | receiving telegrams was common before the digital age | urgent messages were often sent by telegrams touchscreen /ˈtʌtʃskri:n/ Noun touchscreen means you can put your fingers onto a screen to make commands or things happen Collocate: touchscreen phone the tablet has a touchscreen | using a touchscreen can be natural for young children video call /ˈvɪdɪəʊ kɔ:l/ Noun a video call is when you communicate with someone so that you can both hear and see them Collocates: have a video call | schedule a video call they scheduled a video call to discuss the project | making a video call requires a good internet connection | video calls have become common in remote work settings wi-fi connection /ˈwaɪfaɪ kəˈnekʃən/ Noun a wi-fi connection is when you have a wireless internet signal Collocates: secure wi-fi connection | have a wi-fi connection | lost wi-fi connection the café offers free secure wi-fi connection to its customers | do you have a wi-fi connection? | they lost the wi-fi connection during the storm world wide web /wɜ:lɪd waɪd web/ Noun the world wide web is another way to say the internet they use the world wide web to research information | accessing the world wide web requires an internet connection

Pages 134–135

argue /ˈɑ:gju:/ Verb when you argue, you express opposite views to someone. Often you feel angry or upset when you argue Collocates: argue about | argue with they often argue about the best way to handle a situation | arguing can sometimes help see different views | many people argue over these things | I argued with my mum Noun: argument

 Collocate: have an argument we had an argument about the household jobs breakdown /ˈbreɪkdaʊn/ Noun a breakdown is a failure in a relationship or communication Collocate: breakdown in communication a breakdown in communication caused the misunderstanding | we had a breakdown in communication which led to a heated argument communication skills /kəˈmju:nɪˈkeɪʃən skɪlz/ Phrase communication skills are the abilities you have to express and receive information strong communication skills are essential for working with others | conversations can help improve communication skills | good communication skills can improve team relationships communication style /kəˈmju:nɪˈkeɪʃən stɑɪl/ Noun your communication style is the way in which you express and receive information everyone has a unique communication style | you should understand different communication styles | some people use more formal communication styles at work community /kəˈmju:nɪti/ Noun a community is a group of people who live in the same area or have something specific in common the community came together to support the cause | building a strong community requires effort | many people enjoy community events correct /tə kəˈrekt/ Verb when you correct someone, you tell them how to improve their errors or mistakes, especially when speaking a language they need to correct the errors in the report | correcting mistakes promptly can stop misunderstandings | the teacher helped correct the student's grammar Noun: correction | Adverb: correctly || Opposite – Adjective: incorrect

I've made a few minor corrections to your report | you correctly told us the answer was A | the answer was incorrect cross-cultural /krɒsˈkʌltʃərəl/ Adjective cross-cultural means something involving two or more cultures. Cultures are the ideas, customs and behaviours of a specific society Collocate: cross-cultural communication cross-cultural communication in the classroom | the event promoted cross-cultural understanding and respect direct message /dɪˈrekt ˈmesɪdʒ/ Noun a direct message is a message sent personally to someone rather than for everyone else to see Collocates: send a direct message | receive a direct message they sent a direct message to discuss the details | I received a direct message from a celebrity | use direct messages for private conversations disagree /ˌdɪsə'ɡriː/ Verb when you disagree, you have a different opinion to someone else Collocates: disagree about | disagree with | disagree on they disagree on many issues | it is normal to disagree with friends sometimes | we disagreed about what to watch

Noun: disagreement

Collocate: have a disagreement we had a disagreement with the teacher about the best way to solve the issue documentary /ˌdɒkjʊməntəri/ Noun a documentary is a non-fiction programme that provides information and factual reports on a particular subject

Collocate: watch a documentary

they enjoy watching the documentary about the life of a bee | many documentaries are about history expression /ɪk'spreʃən/ Noun an expression is something people say, write or do to let someone know their thoughts or feelings

Collocate: facial expression facial expressions can give a lot of information | what does that expression mean? | her facial expression says everything

Verb: express

I find it difficult to express my feelings factual /'fæktʃʊəl/ Adjective something factual is evidenced and not opinion the news report provided a factual account of the events | it is important to know the difference between factual information and opinions

Noun: fact is that a fact or an opinion?

featured /'fi:tʃəd/ Adjective when something is featured, it appears in something, for example, a person in a TV show

Collocates: featured on | featured in the new product was featured in the advert | the artist was recently featured in a magazine the website featured an article on the latest technology trends | as featured on TV

Noun: feature | Verb: feature

there was a feature in the newspaper on the event | we featured in the TV show together frequently /'fri:kwəntli/ Adverb frequently means regularly or often they frequently visit the local library | frequently asked questions can help customers find information quickly | the menu changes frequently

Adjective: frequent the buses are frequent here – don't worry frustration /frʌs'treɪʃən/ Noun uncount frustration is a feeling of being upset or annoyed

Collocates: feeling of frustration | sense of frustration | cause frustration technical issues can cause a lot of frustration | a sense of frustration grew | frustration can lead to a lack of motivation | I have a feeling of frustration about the whole situation

Verb: frustrate | Adjective: frustrated, frustrating these mistakes frustrate me so much! | I was frustrated that the plane was delayed | the job was frustrating – I couldn't wait to get it done highlight /'haɪlaɪt/ Verb if someone highlights something, they talk or write about it in a way that draws special attention to it because they think it is an important part of what they are saying

Collocate: highlight issues/concerns/areas psychologists highlight several stages that nearly everyone goes through | the report highlights four key trends in youth crime | the minister was right to highlight the issue | she also highlighted concerns about late-night traffic noise in contrast /ɪn 'kɒntrəːst/ Phrase you use in contrast to talk about something that is different from what you mentioned before in contrast to the recent rainy weather, today is sunny | in contrast, the other team played very well | the new policy, in contrast, aims to be more global intercultural /ɪntə'kʌltʃərəl/ Adjective intercultural means that different cultures are involved

Collocates: intercultural conversations | intercultural groups intercultural communication can improve global cooperation | the course promotes intercultural exchange among students interpretation /ɪntɜːprɪ'teɪʃən/ Noun an interpretation is the different ways people understand something Collocate: different interpretation different interpretations of the information led to different conclusions | the artwork allows for various interpretations

Verb: interpret

what did you interpret the message of the film to mean?

intonation /ɪntə'neɪʃən/ Noun intonation is the way the voice moves up and down when speaking Collocate: use intonation intonation can communicate different meanings in a sentence | practising correct intonation improves speaking skills | different languages have different intonation patterns misunderstanding /ˌmɪsʌndə'stændɪŋ/ Noun a misunderstanding is when someone fails to understand the correct meaning of something

Collocates: have a misunderstanding | avoid misunderstandings a misunderstanding caused the argument | clear communication can help avoid misunderstandings | they worked to clear up the misunderstanding | we had a misunderstanding

Verb: misunderstand || Opposite – Noun: understanding

Collocate: have an understanding you misunderstood what I was trying to say | we have an understanding with each other non-verbal communication /ˌnɒn'vɜ:bəl kə'mju:nɪ'keɪʃən/ Phrase non-verbal communication means communicating without speaking, and instead using your hands, gestures or other ways non-verbal communication includes gestures and facial expressions | understanding non-verbal communication is important | they relied on non-verbal communication in the noisy environment personality /pɜ:sən'ælɪti/ Noun someone's personality is their combination of characteristics or qualities that make them individual Collocate: have a personality everyone has a unique personality | a friendly personality | personality can develop and change over time reflect /rɪ'flekt/ Verb when you reflect (on something), think carefully on something you have done or has happened Collocate: reflect on they often reflect on their experiences | taking time to reflect is useful | reflecting on your actions can lead to personal growth

Noun: reflection

the class had a reflection lesson on their progress throughout the year resource /rɪ'sɔ:s/ Noun a resource is something that you can use to help you perform a task the library is a valuable resource for students | providing resources can help achieve project goals | what resources do you need for the project?

Verb: resource

we resourced lots of old newspapers to help with our project shared language /ʃeəd 'læŋgweɪdʒ/ Phrase shared language is a common language spoken by people

Collocate: have a shared language

English often serves as a shared language in international business | they used a shared language to communicate effectively | developing a shared language can help grow relationships translate /'trænzleɪt/ Verb when something is translated, it is taken from one language and put into another so that it has the same meaning the book was translated into several languages | accurately translated documents are important for legal purposes | the instructions were poorly translated Noun: translation

the translation didn't actually make sense treat /tri:t/ Verb

the way you treat someone is how you behave towards them they always treat customers with respect | treating animals kindly is important

Noun: treatment

Collocate: the treatment of the treatment of others is important to our organization two-way process /'tu:weɪ 'prəʊses/ Phrase a two-way process is an action that means giving and taking between two people effective communication is a two-way process | learning is often seen as a two-way process between teacher and student | collaboration requires a two-way process of feedback unspoken /ʌn'spəʊkən/ Adjective when something is unspoken, it is not expressed in words there was an unspoken agreement to avoid the topic | an unspoken understanding developed between them

Pages 136–137

app /æp/ Noun

an app is a piece of software that is designed for a particular purpose, especially one used on a tablet computer or mobile phone. App is short for application

a new dictionary app is now available | is there a free app? | you can download the app from our online store | I'm having trouble installing the app | an app that lets you send video as well as text convenient /kən'vi:nɪənt/ Adjective when something is convenient, it fits in with someone's needs and involves little trouble or effort the store's location is very convenient | finding a convenient time for everyone was challenging | convenient access to public transport is a benefit

Noun: convenience || Opposite – Noun: inconvenience

Adjective: inconvenient

a local convenience store | we apologize for the inconvenience | it's quite an inconvenient time for you to call convey /kən'veɪ/ Verb when you convey something, you communicate it Collocate: convey a message they convey their message through gestures | the artist conveys emotions through paintings | it is important to convey information clearly ear buds /'iəbʌdz/ Noun | (usually plural) ear buds are small devices you put in your ear to listen to music privately Collocate: use ear buds wireless ear buds are popular for listening to music | they prefer using ear buds while exercising | ear buds can be more comfortable than headphones emergency /'i:mɜ:dʒənsi/ Noun an emergency is a serious and unexpected situation which you must find an immediate solution to

Collocates: in an emergency | emergency services | emergency situation in an emergency, call the nearest hospital | they had to leave the building due to an emergency | emergency services responded quickly to the call | there has been an emergency situation we must help with emoji /'i:məʊdʒi/ Noun an emoji is a small digital image or icon which you use to express an idea or emotion in communication

Collocates: send an emoji | use an emoji | put an emoji they added a smiley emoji to the message | using emojis can make texts more fun | emojis are popular on social media | add an emoji to show how you feel headphones /'hɛdfəʊnz/ Noun plural headphones are a device you wear in or over your ears in order to listen to something privately

Collocates: use headphones | wireless headphones noise-cancelling headphones are great for studying | they bought new wireless headphones for the gym | listening to music with headphones | can you use your headphones please?

instant messaging /'ɪnstənt 'mesɪdʒɪŋ/ Noun uncount instant messaging is when you can send short pieces of text to another person who sees what you have written immediately and can send a reply straight away the device allows emailing and instant messaging | instant messaging lets you stay connected wherever you are | instant messaging is more efficient than a long chain of emails

Noun: instant message | Verb: instant message users can send instant messages whenever they are logged on | he instant messaged me as soon as he got back home pressure /'preʃər/ Noun uncount pressure is a feeling of stress that you must do something Collocates: under pressure | feel pressure the team is under a lot of pressure to deliver on time | we felt pressure to answer correctly

Verb: pressure

Collocate: pressure (someone) into they pressured me into joining the class realistic /'riə'lɪstɪk/ Adjective

realistic means that something or someone shows a sensible idea of what will happen

setting realistic goals is important for success | they took a realistic view of the challenges ahead | I see things in a realistic way rude /ru:d/ Adjective when someone or something is rude, it is impolite it is considered rude to interrupt someone while they are speaking | they received a rude comment on their post | rude behaviour is not acceptable

Adverb: rudely

why did she speak to me so rudely?

voice message /vɔɪs 'mesɪdʒ/ Noun voice messages are when you record your voice and send it to another person to communicate something

Collocates: leave a voice message | send a voice message they left a voice message because I didn't answer | listening to the voice message made them smile | It is easier to send a voice message than to type a long text

Pages 138–139

auditory /'ɔ:ditəri/ Adjective auditory relates to hearing the auditory system is crucial for understanding speech | they conducted tests to assess auditory processing confused /kən'fju:zd/ Adjective when you are confused, you are unable to think clearly or understand something Collocates: feel confused | become confused | seem confused they looked confused after reading the instructions | feeling confused is normal when learning something new | they became confused during lecture

Verb: confuse | Adjective: confusing

I'm sorry, have I confused you? | the situation was very confusing for everyone counter /'kaʊntər/ Noun a counter is a long, flat, object in a shop. People do business over a counter Collocate: over the counter they placed their shopping on the counter | they spoke to the shop assistant at the service counter deaf /def/ Adjective deaf means you are unable to hear the school offers programs for deaf students | many deaf individuals use sign language to communicate | technology has improved communication for the deaf community distorted /dɪ'stɔ:tɪd/ Adjective when something is distorted such as sound, it is out of its normal way of sounding the distorted sound made it hard to understand the speaker | they saw the distorted image on the old TV | a distorted view of the facts

Verb: distort

they distorted the image so you couldn't recognize the celebrity extra credit /'ekstrə 'krɛdɪt/ Phrase an extra credit is additional points you can get in a course or class, usually because you have completed extra work

Collocates: get extra credits | gain extra credits | earn extra credits students can earn extra credits by completing additional work | the teacher offered extra credits for participating in the project | I gained extra credits by writing an essay | I got extra credits for attending the course foreigner /'fɔːrənə(r)/ Noun a person who is not from the country you are in at the time of speaking is called a foreigner the city is known for welcoming foreigners | they met many interesting foreigners during their travels

Adjective: foreign

I have a lot of foreign currency in my wallet grade /greɪd/ Noun in schools in the US, a grade is a whole year of education.

Children start in first grade, aged about six, and continue until twelfth grade, aged about 18

I was really young then, in first grade I think | what grade is she? | he was my English teacher in fourth grade grasp /graːsp/ Verb

if you grasp an idea, you succeed in understanding it well

Collocates: grasp the meaning of something | grasp the significance of something sorry – I hadn't grasped all that | Frederick was quick to grasp the situation | he didn't grasp my meaning to start with | she suddenly grasped the significance of the letter | after grasping the basics of counting to ten, children are ready to move on to simple addition

Noun: grasp

it requires a firm grasp of legal language | I read it three times before I got a proper grasp of the proposal guinea pig /'ɡɪniːpɪɡ/ Noun a guinea pig is a small animal which people sometimes have at home the guinea pig is a popular pet for children | researchers used a guinea pig | they cared for the guinea pig human connection /'hjuːmən kə'nekʃən/ Phrase human connection is the relationship between people building human connection is essential for mental health | technology sometimes takes away from the human connection | they valued the human connection during the event kindergarten /'kɪndə(r)ɡɑː(r)t(ə)n/ Noun a kindergarten is a school in the US for very young children she's going to start kindergarten next week | after two years in kindergarten, I started proper school | there were 32 children in my kindergarten | the school takes children from kindergarten through to twelfth grade launch into /lɔːntʃ 'ɪntuː/ Phrasal verb when you launch into something, you start something with energy or with enthusiasm they launched into a chat | they launched into the project with a lot of enthusiasm legible /'ledʒəb(ə)l/ Adjective if writing is legible, it is clear enough for you to be able to read it without difficulty his writing isn't very legible | the ink was so faint that it wasn't legible | make sure your answers are legible

Noun: legibility | Adverb: legibly || Opposite – Adjective: illegible | Adverb: illegibly use black ink on white paper to help with legibility | make sure you write the address legibly on the envelope | his handwriting is completely illegible | she wrote her name illegibly on the back of an envelope lip reading /lɪp 'riːdɪŋ/ Noun uncount lip reading is when people understand you based on what you are doing with your lips and not what they can hear they practised lip reading to improve communication | courses are available to teach lip reading techniques | I communicate with sign language and lip reading mumble /'mʌmb(ə)l/ Verb if you mumble, you say something in a way that is difficult for people to hear clearly she mumbled something without raising her head | stop mumbling! | he doesn't say much to other people, but he's often mumbling to himself | he didn't answer directly, just mumbled something we couldn't understand

Noun: mumble

there was a low mumble of voices pick on /pɪk ɒn/ Phrasal verb when someone picks on someone else, they are mean to them and treat them unfairly it is wrong to pick on someone | there was someone who always used to pick on us | they used to pick on the younger kids at school pose /'pəʊz/ Verb

when someone poses, they put themselves into a particular position, especially for a photo

Collocate: pose for a photo

they enjoyed posing for the camera | the artist showed the model on how to pose | they all posed for a family portrait recess /rɪ'ses/ Noun in a US school, recess is a time during the day when children are not in the classroom but are allowed to play outside recess starts at 10:30 | we'd go outside for recess | we used to play the same games every recess when I was a kid | if it was raining during recess, we had to stay in the classroom rich expression /rɪtʃ ɪk'spreʃən/ Phrase rich expression means with a lot of emotion, opinion, and show of culture a world filled with rich expression | use rich expression to communicate emotions | I delivered the speech with rich expression sense /sens/ Noun

when something has sense, it has a meaning and a purpose

Collocates: make sense | a sense of they tried to make sense of the confusing instructions | having a sense of direction is important when hiking | I can't make sense of what you're saying

Verb: sense

I sense this issue will only get worse shot /ʃɒt/ Noun

a shot is a photograph they took a perfect shot of the sunset | the director planned each shot carefully | look at this beautiful shot of the ocean sign language /saɪn 'læŋɡwɪdʒ/ Noun uncount sign language is a way of communication used by people that are deaf or unable to hear, using your hands to make words and letters

Collocates: use sign language | learn sign language

I use sign language to communicate | they took classes to learn sign language | sign language can help us to communicate

socialize /'səʊʃəlaɪz/ Verb

socialize means to do activities with other people and interact with them Collocate: socialize with they like to socialize with friends on weekends | socializing regularly is good for you | it is important to socialize and build a network

Adjective: social

let's be social and go out tonight | I don't want to be social today swamp /swɒmp/ Noun a swamp is an area of land that is mostly thick mud or water. You can refer to something that is difficult to understand as a swamp a bureaucratic swamp (where there are too many complicated rules) | these trees grow well near swamps translate /træns'leɪt/ Verb when you translate something, you take it from one language and put into another so that it has the same meaning they needed to translate the document into French | can you translate the menu? | the app can translate spoken words quickly

Noun: translation, translator what's the translation for this word in your language? | I'd love to work as a translator visual /'vɪʒuəl/ Adjective something visual is something you can see do the visual literacy task | the film had wonderful visual effects | I'm a visual learner wade /weɪd/ Verb

if you wade through water or mud, you walk through it Collocates: wade through something | wade across something we had to wade across the river | they waded through a field that was mostly mud | he waded ashore (onto the bank of a river or the edge of a lake)

UNIT 12: EXPERTS

Page 141

at lightning speed /æt 'laɪtnɪŋ spi:d/ Phraseat lightning speed means that something is done very very fastCollocates: do it at lightning speed | work at lightning speed *they completed the project at lightning speed | the news spread at lightning speed through social media | the team worked at lightning speed to meet the deadlinegrain /greɪn/ Noun uncountgrain is the seeds of cereals such as wheat or corn*the main crops were fruit and grain | we feed our chickens grain | grain supplies were at a very low level | a sack of grainpark ranger /pɑ:k 'reɪndʒə(r)/ Nouna park ranger is a person who is responsible for the protection of national or state parks*park rangers protect wildlife | they met park rangers who guided them through the walking trails*

Pages 142–143

Arctic /'ɑ:ktɪk/ Nounthe Arctic is the northern region of the Earth which has extreme cold*the Arctic is home to unique wildlife | they studied the effects of climate change in the Arctic | Arctic explorers face difficult conditionsexpertise /ˌɛkspɜ:'ti:z/ Nounexpertise is a specialized skill or knowledge about something

Collocate: have expertise in

Inuit people have expertise in cold weather conditions | the project requires expertise in maths | what's your expertise?

Noun: expert

Collocate: be an expert in/at

*I'd say I'm an expert at languages – I can speak 7!extreme /ɪk'stri:m/ Adjectiveextreme means very, very strong, for example, extreme weather is very strong hot or cold weather

Collocates: extreme weather | extreme weather conditions | extreme sports extreme weather conditions can be dangerous | they enjoy participating in extreme sports | extreme measures were taken to ensure safety

Adverb: extremely

*it's extremely hot today so make sure you wear sunscreenfur /fɜ:(r)/ Noun uncountfur is the soft, hairy skin of an animal that is used for clothing such as coats or gloves*if they'd worn fur, they wouldn't have suffered from frostbite | a fur hat | her gloves were lined with rabbit fur | most people say it's cruel to use fur for clothingigloo /'ɪɡlu:/ Nounan igloo is a dome-shaped home made of blocks of snow, usually built by the Inuit people*our igloo provided effective shelter against the Arctic cold | they learned how to build igloos from an expert | igloos can be surprisingly warm insideInuit people /'ɪnjuɪt 'pi:pəl/ Noun pluralInuit people are local people who live in the Arctic regions of Greenland, Canada and Alaska*the Inuit people have a strong cultural heritage | researchers study the survival techniques of the Inuit people | many Inuit people still practice traditional hunting methodslack /læk/ Noun uncountif you have a lack of something, you do not have it, or do not have enough of it, although it would be useful if you did there was a lack of evidence | the idea failed because of a lack of interest (people weren't interested in it) | lack of internet access was not the only problem in the village | there was no lack of excitement in the film (it was very exciting)

Verb: lack

Collocate: be lacking in something

*he simply lacks the ability to behave properly | the government lacks support for this latest proposal | his manager was lacking in any personal skills | the rice was well cooked, but lacking in flavourrare /reə(r)/ Adjectiveif something is rare, it is not very common or it does not happen very often*the museum houses a number of rare and valuable exhibits | winters are cold, although snow is rare | only a few hundred copies were ever printed, so they are quite rare now | tea was a rare and expensive luxury*

Adverb: rarely

*he used to be keen, but he rarely plays the piano now | temperatures here rarely reach freezing pointsub-zero temperatures /sʌb'ziərəʊ 'tɛmpərɪtʃəz/ Phrasesub-zero temperatures are temperatures below zero degrees Celsius*they faced sub-zero temperatures in the Arctic | sub-zero temperatures can be dangerous without proper equipment | animals in the Arctic are adapted to sub-zero temperaturessurvival /sə(r)'vaɪv(ə)l/ Noun uncountsurvival is successfully staying alive or healthy in a dangerous or difficult situation*his chances of survival were not very good | his survival depends on finding enough money for the operation | they learned survival techniques from the local Inuit people | our survival was dependent on finding a village before it got dark*

Noun: survivor | Verb: survive they survived the storm you can't survive for long in the desert | they survived on two hours sleep survival technique /sə'vaɪvəl tɛk'nɪ:k/ Noun survival techniques help you to successfully stay alive or healthy in a dangerous or difficult situation they learned survival techniques to prepare for the journey | knowing survival techniques is useful | survival techniques can include finding water and building shelter

Pages 144–145

anthropologist /ænθrə'pɒlədʒɪst/ Noun an anthropologist is someone who studies human societies, cultures and their development anthropologists often study the customs of different cultures | the anthropologist's research provided new discoveries into human behaviour

Noun: anthropology

I'd like to study anthropology at university bit /baɪt/ Verb

when you get bitten, an animal or insect comes onto your skin and takes some blood Collocates: get bitten | be bitten by they were bitten by a mosquito while camping | the child was bitten by a dog at the park | I got bitten by an insect

Noun: bite

I got a bite from a mosquito blurry /'blɜ:ri/ Adjective when something is blurry such as a photo, it is difficult to see clearly because it is not clear the photo was blurry | is that picture blurry or is it my eyes?

Noun: blur | Verb: blur everything is a blur without my glasses | the water blurred the camera lens extinct /ɪk'stɪŋkt/ Adjective if a type of animal or plant is extinct, it no longer exists anywhere in the world

Collocate: become extinct

if we don't do more to protect bees, they will become extinct | it's been extinct since 1908 | how can we know what these extinct animals ate? | the panda is in danger of becoming extinct

Noun: extinction

Collocate: face extinction they're on the verge of extinction (almost extinct) | these bears are facing extinction (are at risk of becoming extinct) eye-opener /'aɪəʊpənər/ Noun an eye-opener is an event or situation that is unexpected and you learn something from Collocate: real eye-opener the first real eye-opener I had of what life was like in the African forest was on my first-ever expedition | the documentary was an eye-opener about climate change | visiting the factory was an eye-opener to the working conditions healer /'hi:lə(r)/ Noun a healer is someone who is believed to have special powers to cure people who are ill without using modern medicine the local healer brought me some of the local medicine | his grandfather was the village healer | the healer used prayer to cure his patients

Verb: heal

I didn't believe he could heal me, but he did inadequate /ɪn'ædɪkwət/ Adjective something that is inadequate is not good enough or not enough in quantity or quality for a particular purpose we had waterproof jackets, but they were totally inadequate in the monsoon season | he failed the exam due to inadequate preparation | facilities in the hotel were considered to be inadequate | there was an inadequate supply of hospital beds

Opposite – Adjective: adequate

the aircraft did not have adequate safety equipment | the manager must ensure staffing levels are adequate to safely operate the machines inappropriate /ɪnə'prəʊpriət/ Adjective something that is inappropriate is not suitable in a particular situation or not suitable for a particular purpose inappropriate behaviour can lead to a student being sent home early | several comments on the blog post were considered to be inappropriate and were removed | there is no such thing as bad weather, only inappropriate clothing

Adverb: inappropriately || Opposites – Adjective: appropriate | Adverb: appropriately his voice sounded inappropriately loud in the church | shouting at your teacher is not an appropriate way to show you disagree | the only appropriate response is to say you're sorry | dress appropriately for hot weather mosquito /mə'ski:təʊ/ Noun a mosquito is a small flying insect that bites and takes blood Collocate: bitten by a mosquito they were bitten by a mosquito near the river | there are a lot of mosquitoes here net /net/ Noun

a net is a large piece of cloth with holes in it that allow air or water to pass through but not solid objects. Nets are used to catch fish, or to stop insects getting close to people and biting them while they are sleeping we had nets over our heads | a mosquito net | the net was too small and I got bitten researcher /rɪ'sɜ:(r)tʃə(r)/ Noun if you do research, you study a subject in detail to find new information about it. This work is called research, and someone who does research is a researcher

researchers have decided to stop using animals in their experiments | a wildlife researcher | researchers repeated the experiment and got the same result

Noun: research | Verb: research

Collocate: do research (into something)

we had to complete a research project | I'm researching my family history | each student had to research a different topic taste /teɪst/ Noun

if you get a taste of something, you experience it a little so that you have some idea of what it would be like to do it properly or all the time

Collocate: get/have a taste of something

I got my first taste of camping last weekend | this will give you a taste of what it's like working in an office | a taste of things to come (an early experience of what is going to happen in the future)

Pages 146–147appeal /ə'pi:l/ Verb if something appeals to you, you think it is interesting and want to know more about it or get more involved in it

Collocate: appeal to someone there was something nice about him which appealed to her | a range of books designed to appeal to children up to the age of ten | what appealed to us about him was his sense of humour | watching another action film doesn't really appeal to me

Noun: appeal | Adjective: appealing

Collocates: broad/popular appeal | have/hold appeal a movie with a lot of appeal | the sport has broad appeal | as a tourist destination, the town holds no appeal | his manner is very appealing | a very appealing design authority /ɔ:'θɒrɪti/ Noun authority is the power or right to give orders Collocate: position of authority they are in a strong position of authority | who has authority here?

bravery /'breɪvəri/ Noun uncount bravery is the quality and behaviour involved in doing dangerous or difficult things without showing fear

Collocate: show/display bravery it was an act of great bravery | he was awarded a medal for bravery | George displayed great bravery in the war | they have shown extraordinary bravery and determination

Adjective: brave | Adverb: bravely it was an incredibly brave thing to do | the bravest man I ever knew | it was brave of her to go back into the water | they fought bravely, but without success blame /bleɪm/ Verb

if you blame someone, you accuse them of being responsible for something bad that has happened

Collocates: blame someone for something | blame something on someone or something don't blame me if you don't get the job | nobody is blaming you – it was an accident | Murray blamed his defeat on a lack of concentration | she blamed me for the accident

Noun: blame

Collocates: the blame lies/rests with someone | get the blame | put/pin the blame on someone some of the blame lies with the hospital | I always got the blame when my sister was naughty | he pinned the blame on the prime minister code /kəʊd/ Noun

a code is a set of rules that say what you are allowed to do is there a dress code for the party? (rules about what sort of clothes you are allowed to wear) | a penal code (the system of criminal laws in a country) | I had to sign the company's code of conduct (rules about how to behave in business) discipline /'dɪsəplɪn/ Noun uncount discipline is the practice of training yourself to follow a set of rules

Collocate: have discipline maintaining discipline in the classroom is essential | they enjoyed the strict discipline in the military | practising self-discipline can lead to personal growth ethics /'eθɪk/ Noun plural ethics are moral rules that people are expected to obey the course covered business ethics as well as financial management | the university ethics committee (a committee that makes sure the moral rules are properly obeyed) | for doctors, medical ethics are very important flower arranging /'flaʊər ə'reɪndʒɪŋ/ Noun uncount flower arranging is an activity where you move flowers into positions to make them look pretty they attended a flower arranging class | flower arranging can be a relaxing hobby high-ranking /haɪ'ræŋkɪŋ/ Adjective someone high-ranking is in a position of authority and is very important the meeting included several high-ranking people | a high-ranking officer was in charge of the operation | the high-ranking member made an important announcement honour /'ɒnə(r)/ Noun uncount someone's honour is their sense of strong moral beliefs and behaviour that make people respect them honour and loyalty are very important qualities | a man of honour | she has a strong sense of honour

Adjective: honourable | Adverb: honourably an honourable man | he did the honourable thing and resigned | she always behaved honourably towards everyone lone /ləʊn/ Adjective a lone person or thing is the only one in a particular place or situation the lone survivor of a plane crash | a lone passenger got off the train | a lone figure cycled down the hill loyalty /lɔɪəlti/ Noun uncount if someone shows loyalty, they support someone or something reliably and without changing

Collocates: loyalty to someone or something | fierce/great loyalty | blind loyalty | inspire loyalty | show loyalty | demand/expect loyalty the staff showed great loyalty even when times were difficult | workers had a fierce loyalty to each other | he inspires extraordinary loyalty among his staff | he demanded unquestioning loyalty in return for his support

Adjective: loyal | Adverb: loyally || Opposites – Noun: disloyalty | Adjective: disloyal

Collocates: fiercely loyal | loyal support | disloyal to someone or something only a few remained loyal to the prime minister | you can be sure of our loyal support | she is fiercely loyal to her family and her job | despite the setbacks, they loyally supported him | the new government loyally accepted the American proposals | he was accused of disloyalty for writing a critical article | I believe you are being disloyal to the company manual /'mænjuəl/ Adjective a manual is a type of book with instructions and advice

Collocates: self-help manual | instruction manual did you read the self-help manual? | where's the manual for the car? | is there an instruction manual for how to use this?

martial art /mɑ:ʃəl ɑ:t/ Noun a martial art is a sport such as judo and karate in which competitors fight each other using their hands and feet. Martial arts started in Asia, especially in Japan a martial arts movie | she's trained in several martial arts | his martial arts skills | this later developed into a martial art on the contrary /ɒn ðə 'kɒntrəri/ Phrase when you use on the contrary, you introduce a statement that says the opposite of the previous statement they thought the task would be difficult; on the contrary, it was quite easy | the weather was expected to be bad; on the contrary, it was sunny and warm opponent /ə'pəʊnənt/ Noun an opponent is someone you compete against or fight in something they faced a strong opponent in the final match | the politician talked with their opponent on live television philosopher /fɪ'lɒsəfə/ Noun a philosopher is someone who studies and talks about knowledge, right and wrong, truth and life the ancient Greeks had lots of philosophers

Noun: philosophy

did you ever study philosophy at school?

privilege /'prɪvɪlɪdʒ/ Noun a privilege is a special right or advantage available to a specific person attending the exclusive event was a privilege | they enjoyed the privilege of working with famous people ritual /'rɪtʃuəl/ Noun a ritual is a series of actions always performed in a particular order Collocate: perform a ritual they performed the ancient ritual at dawn | a daily ritual | the ritual included chanting and dancing sacrifice /sækrɪfaɪs/ Noun sacrifice is giving up something important or valuable to you in order to get or do something that seems more important we lent them some money, but that meant making sacrifices ourselves | being president demands a lot of sacrifice | many volunteers went out there, often at great personal sacrifice

Verb: sacrifice

we need to increase productivity without sacrificing quality | I sacrificed another night's sleep to go and pick him up from the airport self control /selfkən'trəʊl/ Noun uncount self control is the ability to be able to hold yourself back and keep your emotions to yourself in difficult situations

Collocate: have self-control

I have a great sense of self-control when it comes to eating snacks | they showed great self-control during the debate sword /sɔ:(r)d/ Noun a sword is a weapon that has a long metal blade, used in the past before guns were widely used

Collocate: sword fight

a sword fight | he held his sword and waited for the attack | every cavalry soldier has a sword | sword fighting was very popular in those times unarmed fighting /ʌn'a:md 'faɪtɪŋ/ Noun unarmed fighting is fighting that does not involve weapons, only people's hands and feet. A person who is unarmed does not have a weapon with them

Jujitsu is a form of unarmed fighting | they were trained in unarmed fighting

Pages 148–149

apologize /ə'pɒlədʒaɪz/ Verb when you apologize, you say sorry for something Collocates: apologize for | apologize to they apologized for the mistake | it is important to apologize when you have hurt someone | the company apologized to the public Noun: apology

Collocate: make an apology we made an apology to the viewers for the bad language arrangement /ə'reɪndʒmənt/ Noun

an arrangement is a plan or preparation for a future event Collocate: make an arrangement they made an arrangement to meet next week | an arrangement was reached between the two friends

Verb: arrange shall we arrange to have dinner together?

can't be helped /kɑːnt bi helpt/ Phrase when something or someone can't be helped, it means a situation cannot be avoided some problems can't be helped and must be accepted | it can't be helped if the meeting runs late checklist /ˈtʃeklɪst/ Noun a checklist is a list of things to be done, considered or remembered

Collocates: write a checklist | make a checklist they made a checklist to make sure nothing was forgotten | writing a checklist can help me a lot | the checklist included all the necessary tasks for the project delicious /dɪˈlɪʃəs/ Adjective

when something is delicious, it tastes very good and you like it the chocolate cake was absolutely delicious | they served a delicious meal at the restaurant | I made a delicious pasta dish for dinner formality /fɔːˈmælɪti/ Noun formality is how much you should follow rules and act in a very polite way what is the formality of the text? | a report should have some formality to it

Adjective: formal || Opposite – Adjective: informal

please wear formal clothes like a suit and tie | it is an informal event gone to all this trouble /ɡɒn tuː ɔːl ðɪs ˈtrʌbl/ Phrase when someone has gone to trouble, they have made a lot of effort they had gone to all this trouble to organize the event | it seemed a shame to waste the food after they had gone to all this trouble host /həʊst/ Noun

a host is someone who has other people in their home as guests

Collocate: host family

I'm staying with a host family | the host welcomed everyone to the party | being a good host involves making guests feel comfortable

Opposite – Noun: guest

there were ten guests at Lara's house party normal life /ˈnɔːməl laɪf/ Noun uncount normal life is your usual activities and behaviour that you do most of the time, such as going to work or school, doing the shopping, cleaning the house, etc., as opposed to being on holiday or doing exciting things that do not do very often they're getting on with their normal life | the children are leading a normal life again punctual /ˈpʌŋktʃuəl/ Adjective if you are punctual, you arrive somewhere at the right time and are not late you need to be punctual for your interview | he's always punctual | her visitor was punctual, as usual | I like the punctual trains in Japan

Noun: punctuality | Adverb: punctually punctuality is very important in this job | his punctuality improved after he was threatened with the sack | she arrived punctually at eight o'clock | he walked in punctually at half past two service /ˈsɜːvɪs/ Noun a service is the action of helping or doing work for someone Collocate: customer service the restaurant offers excellent service | they provide a valuable service to the community | good customer service is important sincere /sɪnˈsɪə/ Adjective sincere means genuine, or real and true they offered a sincere apology for the mistake | you must be sincere when you answer the question in the interview about why you want the job

Adverb: sincerely

I sincerely believe this is the right decision sociable /ˈsəʊjəbl/ Adjective when someone is sociable, they like spending time with other people and like talking and doing activities with them

I am a sociable person and enjoy meeting new friends | they created a sociable atmosphere at the party

Opposite – Adjective: unsociable

I feel a bit unsociable today so I'll stay at home unreliable /ˌʌnrɪˈlaɪəbl/ Adjective when something or someone is unreliable, you can not depend on it or trust it the internet connection is unreliable in this area | depending on an unreliable source can lead to poor information | the bus service is unreliable

Opposite – Adjective: reliable you're such a reliable friend

Pages 150–151

chlorine /ˈklɔːrɪn/ Noun uncount chlorine is a chemical which is used for making water safe to swim in chlorine is used to disinfect swimming pools | they added chlorine to the water treatment process | there was a strong smell of chlorine in the public pool damage /ˈdæmɪdʒ/ Verb damage is when there is physical harm to something his toe was severely damaged by frostbite | the home was damaged in the storm

Noun: damage was there much damage after the storm?

domestic /də'mestɪk/ Adjective something domestic is related to the home they shared the domestic jobs | domestic water supplies easy to use /'i:zi tə ju:z/ Phrase when something is easy to use, it is not difficult and is simple to operate and understand the new device is easy to use | the software is designed to be easy to use | they prefer products that are easy to use farming /'fɑ:mɪŋ/ Noun uncount farming is the activity or business of growing things and raising animals some farming practices benefit the environment | farming methods have changed significantly over the years

Noun: farm, farmer

we live on a farm with sheep and chickens | my dad was a farmer and used to work very early in the morning feedback /'fi:dbæk/ Noun uncount when you get feedback, you receive reactions to something, such as performance or a product

Collocates: customer feedback | receive feedback | positive/negative feedback | give feedback

they received positive feedback from customers | giving feedback can help improve performance | the restaurant asked for customer feedback

fresh water /frɛʃ 'wɔ:tə/ Noun uncount fresh water is water that is clean and suitable for drinking or cooking the island has no fresh water supply | make sure your dog has plenty of fresh water in hot weather | fresh water was available in the next village

industrial /ɪn'dʌstriəl/ Adjective when something is industrial, it is related to factories and industries the industrial revolution changed the world | they worked in an industrial area of the city | industrial production has increased with technology

Noun: industry

I work in the engineering industry pollute /pə'lu:t/ Verb when you pollute something, you make it dirty and harmful factories that pollute the air should face consequences | it is important not to pollute the water supply | policies are needed to prevent industries from polluting the environment

Noun: pollution | Adjective: polluted the air pollution is very bad today | the water is very polluted scale /skeɪl/ Noun

a scale is the size or level of something Collocate: large scale

they measured the scale of the project before starting | industrial activities often occur on a large scale sustainably /sə'steɪnəbli/ Adverb sustainably relates to doing something in a way that can be maintained over the long term without harming the environment they aimed to farm sustainably to protect the land | businesses need to operate sustainably | growing food sustainably benefits both the environment and the economy

Adjective: sustainable | Noun: sustainability using paper plates is a more sustainable solution | sustainability is a social goal trap /træp/ Verb to trap is to put somebody in a dangerous place that they cannot get out of

they were trapped inside the building | a hiker was trapped under a fallen tree | trapped in the lift

Noun: trap

we found a fox with its leg in a trap

treat /tri:t/ Verb

the way you treat someone or something is how you behave towards it how do you treat the water? | they always treat customers with respect | treating animals kindly is important

Noun: treatment

the treatment of the water water purification system /'wɔ:tə pjʊəɪfɪ'keɪʃən 'sɪstəm/

Noun

a water purification system is designed to remove dirty things from water to make it safe to drink they installed a water purification system in the village | the water purification system is effective | using a water purification system can stop diseases water supply /'wɔ:tə sə'plai/ Noun a water supply is the water that runs to people's homes a reliable water supply is essential for health | they worked to secure the water supply for the community | a clean water supply