How to Spot the Word Type

COMO IDENTIFICAR O TIPO DE PALAVRA · OLHE O QUE VEM LOGO ANTES E LOGO DEPOIS DA LACUNA

NOUN substantivo	Usually comes right after a / an / the · my / your / his / her / its / our / their · this / that / these / those · some / many / few · or a possessive 's . the decision · her kindness · three activities · the bridge's failure
VERB verbo	Usually comes right after a subject (I / you / he / she / it / we / they) · a modal (can / will / must / should) · to (infinitive) · an auxiliary (do / does / did / have / has) · or an adverb of frequency (always / never / usually). she decided · will simplify · to arrive · always lets
ADJECTIVE adjetivo	Usually comes right before a noun, or right after a "be"-type verb (is / was / seems / becomes / looks / feels). a kind gesture · she seems calm · it became clear
ADVERB advérbio	Often ends in -ly · modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb · can move around the sentence more freely than the others. quickly decided · extremely kind · fairly often

Dica: antes de preencher a lacuna, pergunte "o que vem logo antes, e logo depois?" — isso quase sempre entrega a categoria certa.

01 Nominalisation Speed Round

12 items

Complete each sentence with the correct noun form of the word in brackets.

Reminder · the 7 suffixes turn a verb or adjective into a noun. A possessive ("the bridge's ____") or an article ("a ____") right before the gap is almost always a signal that a noun belongs there.
