Possessive Adjectives

De quem é?

USE

We use a possessive adjective before a noun to show who or what something belongs to. It always comes before a noun — never alone.

FORM

I → my — This is my phone.

you → your — Is that your bag?

he → his — Tom lost his keys.

she → her — Sophie updated her resume.

it → its — The company raised its prices.

we → our — We finished our project.

they → their — Tom and Mia forgot their tickets.

Watch out: it's (with an apostrophe) means it is or it has. its (no apostrophe) is possessive. They look alike but are completely different words.

Also remember: their is not only for people — it also works for plural things and animals: The two hotels raised their prices. The dogs wagged their tails.

EXERCISE A · Complete the sentences with the correct possessive adjective.

1. Mia forgot _____ password again — she needs to reset it.
2. The dog always wags _____ tail when it sees Tom.
3. Tom and Jake wash _____ car every Saturday.
4. I need to charge _____ phone before we leave.
5. You always forget _____ keys at home.
6. _____ almost eight o'clock — we need to hurry.
7. Sophie and Jake share _____ office on the third floor.
8. Lena spilled coffee on _____ shirt this morning.
9. The company increased _____ prices this year.
10. We finished _____ project two days early.

EXERCISE B · Combine the two sentences into one, using a possessive adjective.

1. Tom has a jacket. It's blue.
.....
2. Sophie has a resume. She updated it yesterday.
.....
3. Tom and Jake have a car. They wash it every Saturday.
.....
4. The dog has a tail. It wags it happily.
.....
5. I have a phone. I need to charge it.
.....
6. You have keys. Don't forget them.

Possessive 's

Nome + 's

USE

We use 's (or just an apostrophe for plural nouns that already end in -s) to show who owns something — when the owner is a name or a noun, not a pronoun.

FORM

one owner (singular) → add 's

Hetain's car · Sophie's bag · the student's house (one student) several owners (plural noun, already ends in -s) → add only '

the students' house (several students) · the brothers' room · the girls' bags

Check first: is it one owner or several owners? If the noun is already plural (ends in -s), you only add the apostrophe — you never write 's twice.

EXERCISE A · Complete with the correct possessive form.

1. This is _____ bag — she left it on the chair. (Sophie)
2. _____ office is on the third floor. (Jake)
3. Two teachers share this room. This is the _____ classroom. (teachers)
4. That is my _____ car — she lent it to me for the weekend. (sister)
5. The three brothers share a room. This is the _____ room. (brothers)
6. This is _____ notebook — please give it back to him. (Tom)
7. The two girls left their coats here. These are the _____ coats. (girls)
8. _____ guitar is very old — he's had it since he was a teenager. (Daniel)
9. All the students in the class share this locker. This is the _____ locker. (students)
10. That is _____ bicycle — he rides it to school every day. (Ben)

EXERCISE B · Write one sentence with possessive 's for each fact.

1. The bag belongs to Sophie.
.....
2. The room belongs to the three brothers.
.....
3. The locker belongs to all the students.
.....
4. The office belongs to Daniel.
.....
5. The bicycle belongs to Ben.
.....

Have & Has

O que cada um tem

USE

We use have / has to talk about possession, relationships, or characteristics.

FORM

	Affirmative	Negative	Question
I / you / we / they	have	don't have	Do ... have...?
he / she / it	has	doesn't have	Does ... have...?

Golden rule: in the question, the main verb is always HAVE — never “has”, even with he / she / it. The “s” already lives in does.

EXERCISE A · Complete with have, has, don't have or doesn't have.

1. Tom _____ a big family — three brothers and two sisters.
2. I _____ two brothers and one sister.
3. Sophie and Jake _____ a shared office on the third floor.
4. Mia _____ a car — she takes the bus every day.
5. We _____ any classes on Sundays.
6. The building _____ an elevator, so we always use the stairs.
7. Daniel _____ a guitar — he's had it for years.
8. They _____ a meeting this afternoon.
9. The hotel _____ a swimming pool.
10. She _____ much free time this week.

EXERCISE B · Transform each sentence into a Yes/No question with Do or Does.

1. Tom has a meeting this afternoon.

.....

2. Sophie has two cats at home.

.....

3. The hotel has a swimming pool.

.....

4. Jake and Mia have a project deadline on Friday.

.....

5. You have a few minutes before the meeting starts.

.....

6. Daniel has a guitar.

.....

7. The building has an elevator.

.....

8. They have a shared office.

.....

9. Mia has a car.

.....

10. The school has a library.

.....

EXERCISE C · Look at the answer. Write the Do/Does question.

1. Answer: Yes, he does. He has a bicycle.

.....

2. Answer: No, she doesn't. She has a skateboard.

.....

3. Answer: Yes, they do. They have a big house.

.....

4. Answer: No, it doesn't. It doesn't have a garage.

.....

5. Answer: Yes, she does. She has a guitar.
